

The Lord 721

Chapter 721: Kill Kill Kill

The stone stele was seven meters tall and one meter wide and seemed to have absorbed an incredible amount of blood, as it gave off an incredibly pungent smell of blood. There were some words carved on it, which were: “The heavens have blessed man with countless things, but man has nothing to return to the heavens, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill.”

Even from afar, Zhao Fu could sense its dense killing intent, so he did not directly go to the City Hall, and he instead went over to this stone stele.

This was most likely the Seven Kill Stele of the legends!

Zhao Fu stood beneath the stone stele, and sensing Zhao Fu’s aura, the Seven Kill Stele immediately gave off a powerful blood-red light. Zhao Fu felt as if he was being devoured by countless traces of blood, and his aura started to become chaotic. His eyes became blood-red, and countless berserk and murderous thoughts rose up in his heart.

A while later, Zhao Fu came back to his senses, and his eyes regained their clarity. His body was covered with cold sweat – this Seven Kill Stele’s killing intent was simply too strong. Zhao Fu had unlocked Divine Sense and had a Sovereign Bloodline, making it possible for him to easily escape the killing intent. However, ordinary people would be lost within the madness and slaughter, affecting their minds and personalities.

However, this was most likely a rare treasure, and Zhao Fu looked at its description.

[Seven Kill Stele]: A treasure of slaughter that contains boundless killing intent. It can grow through slaughter and give soldiers a berserk, murderous power.

Zhao Fu was quite surprised to find that this was a treasure was one that could grow. However, he was not very willing to use it, as the Seven Kill Stele’s power was a bit too great. The 600,000 people in Great Xi City were all affected, and the effects were not temporary either.

Under the berserk and murderous power from the Seven Kill Stele, people's personalities would change, making them incredibly cruel and bloodthirsty. Zhao Fu could recover, but the other soldiers would not.

Zhao Fu did not want his soldiers to become a group of monsters who only knew how to kill, so Zhao Fu could only give up on this stone stele.

However, Zhao Fu did not plan to destroy it, as it was a treasure that could grow from slaughter. Slaughter was something that was incredibly prevalent in this world, and the Seven Kill Stele would grow incredibly quickly in Great Qin's hands. It had great potential, and perhaps it would be useful in the future.

Zhao Fu put the Seven Kill Stele in his ring and went to the City Hall. He looked at the blood-red cube floating in mid-air before choosing to conquer the city and relocate it.

A blood-red pillar shot into the sky, dyeing the entire sky blood-red. A blood-red dragon gave a mournful and reluctant roar, which sounded out in all directions as it turned into blood-red motes of light and dissipated.

"System announcement! The Great Xi Dynasty has been destroyed, and all of its Fate has been devoured by Great Qin. Great Qin has obtained a large amount of Fate."

"System announcement! Great Qin has destroyed the Great Xi Dynasty and has obtained all of its Legacies."

"System announcement! Great Qin's City Heart has started evolving and has completed 11/30 of the evolution."

"System announcement! The Great Qin City has obtained one-fifth of the Great Xi City's stats."

"System announcement! The Nation Armaments Twelve Metal Colossi and Nation-Suppressing Pillar and Clan Armaments Imperial Ruler's Seal and Great Qin Emperor Peacock have obtained a large amount of Fate."

"System announcement! You have conquered a Legacy City and obtained 5,000 Achievement Points."

“System announcement! You have relocated a city and obtained 580,000 EXP!”

Zhao Fu scanned through the system announcements but did not pay them much mind. He then ordered his soldiers to clear out the battlefield, and soon, he found out why there were barely any elderly people, women, or children. The elderly people had mostly been killed, as they were not very useful and would use up food.

As for the women, they were all locked together and were not given many clothes to wear. There were many bruises on their bodies, and their expressions were quite dull. It seemed that they had suffered a lot.

There were also some children kept together in cages, and they were going to be used for food. The Great Xi City did not have much food stored up, and because they did not like growing their own food, most of their supplies came from pillaging and looting.

“These people were truly mad!” After seeing these things, Zhao Fu could not help but inwardly curse, feeling quite angry. Zhao Fu knew that he was not a good person, but he would never harm his own people.

“Collect all of the valuables and take care of the women and children. Burn the rest of the city and return to Great Qin!”

After giving out the order, the soldiers quickly collected anything of value before setting the city alight, allowing the flames to devour this mad, evil city.

After returning to Great Qin, Zhao Fu received the news from Bai Qi, and he felt quite surprised. He had never thought that the State of Chen would submit so easily, so he headed over.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

Heavy and mournful drum beats sounded out throughout the northern side of the Midland Continent, and an azure dragon slowly receded into a Dragon Python.

Zhao Fu decided to give Chen Man a Lordship, and after taking over the State of Chen’s City, Great Qin obtained another two Nation Legacies, which provided Great Qin with a lot of Fate.

“Thank you, Your Majesty!” Chen Man knelt on the ground, feeling incredibly nervous. This was the first time that he had personally seen Great Qin’s Legatee, and he could sense the might that he innately gave off, making Chen Man feel incredibly shocked. He knew that Zhao Fu was an immensely powerful existence, as he would not be able to feel this aura from anyone else.

In front of Zhao Fu, his own King’s aura was as lowly as a peasant’s; they were on completely different levels.

“You may rise! Now that you are part of Great Qin, Great Qin naturally will not mistreat you,” Zhao Fu said with a trace of a smile.

Only then did Chen Man dare to get up. Zhao Fu had Chen Man take him around the State of Chen’s City, and he made some arrangements to have Great Qin fully take control of the city. After this, Zhao Fu felt quite satisfied and returned to Great Qin, concluding this expedition.

Following this, Zhao Fu refined the corpses of the historical Generals from Great Xi, obtaining a few Innate Talent Blood Crystals, and he called over Zhang Han.

Because they had not conquered any Nation Legacies in a while, Zhang Han was still at SS grade, nor did he have a General Star, so Zhao Fu gave an Innate Talent Blood Crystal to him.

Zhang Han felt quite excited and moved; out of all of Great Qin’s historical Generals, only he did not have a General Star. He had started to wonder if Zhao Fu did not see him as important as the other historical Generals, so he had felt quite disappointed. However, he could only admit that he was inferior to people like Bai Qi and Wang Jian.

It seemed that this was the case; as soon as His Majesty had come back, he had refined a historical General’s corpse and called him over. It seemed that His Majesty really did value him.

“Thank you, Your Majesty!” Zhang Han said with gratitude as he half-knelt.

Zhao Fu smiled as he said, “Alright, you may rise. Quickly use the Innate Talent Blood Crystal and increase your Grade!”

Zhang Han quickly got up and used the Innate Talent Blood Crystal. Countless blood-red traces of aura rose out of it and entered Zhang Han's body. Soon, Zhang Han's body had gone through some changes. His aura became more powerful, and he was now SSS grade and had a General Star.

After dealing with these things, Great Qin once again went into a period of peace. However, the dragon cry and drum beats caused the rest of the northern side to start heatedly discussing again.

They knew that a Nation Legacy had been destroyed, while another had submitted. Everyone could guess who had done this – after all, Nation Legatees were usually the most powerful existences in their region, and no one could do anything to them except even stronger existences from other regions.

Chapter 722: Unforeseen Changes

Right now, everyone knew just who was the strongest in the northern side. Great Qin was already a massive beast, and it could casually open its mouth and devour everything around it.

Most people in the north were already terrified of Great Qin, and wherever it appeared, countless factions could only run for their lives. They did not dare to resist at all, and this was especially so after Zhao Fu had become the World Protector.

Wherever Great Qin went, it was a disaster for players. Even the system main cities could not resist, so the ordinary players could only mass-move away.

Luckily, all of the regions were connected now, so it was much easier to move around. Before, they were like a group of sheep being chased around by Great Qin, running from place to place pitifully.

There were already countless people who were dissatisfied and angry at Great Qin, and countless factions were afraid of Great Qin. Great Qin's threat was simply too great, and if it wasn't for the fact that Great Qin had ways to mass-kill players, they would definitely gather together and attack Great Qin.

Even if the rewards were 10% of what they were before, there would still be many players joining in.

It was a pity that Great Qin now had a way to kill a large number of players. However, it did not take the initiative to slaughter them, so even though they were quite dissatisfied with Great Qin, they could endure it. No matter how much money the other factions gave them, they would not do it, because money was not more important than their lives.

A few days later, Zhao Fu once again went to the outside world to trade. Zhao Fu went to a hidden room, where Roxi was already waiting for him.

“Miss Roxi, how many Talisman Stones have you prepared this time?” Zhao Fu asked as he smiled.

Now that Great Qin had conquered so many regions, they had earned a fortune, which Zhao Fu could now spend. They already had enough Stage 1 soldier corpses from the last battle, so Zhao Fu mainly came to buy Talisman Stones. Great Qin still greatly lacked Talisman Stones.

Roxi looked at Zhao Fu and smiled as she replied, “This time, we have three million White grade Talisman Stones, 100,000 Blue grade Talisman Stones, 5,000 Silver Talisman Stones, and 200 Gold grade Talisman Stones!”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite pleased and said, “I’ll be taking all of them!”

Following this, Zhao Fu took out a spatial ring filled with gold coins and handed it to Roxi, while Roxi handed him a spatial ring filled with Talisman Stones. They had conducted this trade many times, so they did not waste any time and quickly concluded this transaction.

“Dear guest, do you not need any soldier corpses? If you need them, we can provide a large number of them, and they’ll be much cheaper,” Roxi said.

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised – they wouldn’t suddenly have so many corpses for no reason, as these corpses were all stolen from battlefields. Could it be that there were some unforeseen changes in the battle between the Devil Horn Empire, the Lantong people, and the Grassi people?

Zhao Fu could not help but ask, “Are the battles over there getting more intense?”

Roxi’s expression became serious as she sighed and said, “Even though we Grassi people and Lantong people allied together, we still lost and were dealt a heavy blow by the Devil Horn Empire. Right now, we can only defend with all of our strength.”

Hearing this, Zhao Fu's heart plummeted. Could it be that even the Lantong people and Grassi people working together could not defeat the Devil Horn Empire?

If the Devil Horn Empire destroyed them, the human world would be next. If even the Lantong people and Grassi people could not stop the terrifying Devil Horn Empire, how could the human world defend? They would have no chance at survival at all.

“However, there is a half-Orc world that has joined. Now that these three sides have joined together, they have been able to stop the Devil Horn Empire's invasion for now!” Roxi said.

Zhao Fu felt a bit relieved before asking, “About those corpses – how much are you willing to sell them for?”

Great Qin would need corpses sooner or later, and even if they had enough now, they would need more in the future. If he could buy some for a cheap price, it would be no problem.

Hearing that Zhao Fu was now interested, Roxi smiled before saying, “We have ten million Stage 1 corpse, which are five gold coins each; one million Stage 2 corpses that are 50 gold coins each; 80,000 Stage 3 corpses that are 300 gold coins each; and 3,000 Stage 4 corpses that are 1,000 gold coins each.”

Zhao Fu felt quite shocked – he had never thought that the Swan Goose Group would be able to obtain so many corpses. Before, Stage 1 corpses cost 20 gold coins, Stage 2 corpses cost 100 gold coins, and Stage 3 corpses cost 500 gold coins.

However, Stage 1 corpses now cost five gold coins, Stage 2 corpses cost 50 gold coins, and Stage 3 corpses cost 300 gold coins. What's more, there were even 3,000 Stage 4 corpses this time.

Zhao Fu felt quite tempted, but his heart started to ache. Even though the corpses were much cheaper than before, the amount of money he would have to spend would be massive. The Stage 1 corpses would cost 50 million gold coins in total, the Stage 2 corpses would cost 50 million gold coins, the Stage 3 corpses would cost 24 million gold coins, and the Stage 4 corpses would cost three million gold coins.

In total, that would add up to 127 million gold coins. After conquering so many system main cities and obtaining their wealth, Zhao Fu felt quite rich, but if he wanted to buy all of these corpses, Great Qin would once again become poor.

“Dear guest, what do you think? These corpses are five times cheaper than before!” Roxi slightly reminded him when she saw that Zhao Fu seemed to be deep in thought.

After thinking, even though his heart ached, Zhao Fu decided to buy all of them. This would allow Great Qin to not lack corpses for a very long period of time, and he would be able to greatly increase the number of Stage 2 and Stage 3 soldiers. In the end, Zhao Fu said, “Alright, I’ll buy all of these corpses!”

Roxi brilliantly smiled and took out a few spatial rings filled with corpses. Zhao Fu also took out a spatial ring filled with gold coins, and they concluded another transaction.

“Dear guest, thank you for your business. We will continue to source Talisman Stones and corpses for you.” After concluding these massive transactions, Roxi felt incredibly happy and resplendently smiled.

Boom!!

Just as Zhao Fu was about to reply, a massive explosion sounded out, causing the room to shake. Cracking sounds sounded out as the room started to collapse.

Roxi’s face went pale, and she immediately realized that someone was attacking. There was a very powerful defensive magic formation here, but it had suddenly been destroyed. Whoever was attacking was extremely powerful.

Zhao Fu’s expression also became serious as he unleashed his Emperor’s Domain, blocking the falling rocks and wood. Roxi came to her senses and said hurriedly, “Let’s go! Our transaction must have been discovered by the governmental faction!”

Hearing Roxi’s words, Zhao Fu understood that the Kershi Kingdom had been paying attention to this and had become more and more wary of the Swan Goose Group. Even though Zhao Fu and the Swan Goose Group’s dealings were incredibly secretive, they had still been discovered.

Chapter 723: Later Zhou City

Roxi was not weak either, as she possessed a Basic City's City Lord Seal, and she escaped from one side. Zhao Fu turned into a ray of light and escaped from another side.

A black-robed elder in the air looked at Roxi and Zhao Fu escaping and coldly harrumphed. He unhesitatingly chose to chase after Zhao Fu because Zhao Fu was his target – he wanted to capture this mysterious person.

Seeing the elder chasing behind him, Zhao Fu did not dare to slow down at all. They were within the Kershi Kingdom, so if he slowed down or stopped, he would have to face countless attacks, and City Lords and soldiers would swarm him.

When that time came, Zhao Fu would not be able to escape at all. If the Kershi Kingdom's royal clan was roused as well, Zhao Fu would be completely doomed. No matter how powerful Zhao Fu was, he would not be able to singlehandedly face off against a Kingdom that had been established for many decades.

Unless he used the Earth Realm Mark's power, he would be completely doomed. However, it had its own consciousness, and it would not allow him to use its power unless the human world was in danger.

As such, Zhao Fu could only run away with all of his strength. As he flew through the sky, the scenery around him was a blur as he continuously sped forwards.

The black-robed elder also chased with all his might but was quite shocked to find that Zhao Fu was so fast. After chasing for a while, the black-robed elder saw that he was unable to catch up, so he drew his sword and slashed it out. An azure sword light flashed out, trying to forcefully stop Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu dodged to one side, not engaging the black-robed elder in battle. He knew the position he was in right now very well; if he stopped for even a moment, he would be in dire straits.

Seeing that Zhao Fu did not even block his attack, the black-robed elder sent out a few sword lights that brought with them sharp sword winds towards Zhao Fu.

However, Zhao Fu refused to engage him and continuously dodged, using his full strength to escape. The black-robed elder was furious and yelled, “Do you dare to fight, you incompetent child?”

Hearing the black-robed elder’s shout, Zhao Fu completely ignored him and continued to fly.

With Zhao Fu’s strength, defeating this black-robed elder would be no problem at all. However, during that time, other people would arrive, and he would soon be surrounded. Zhao Fu was not stupid enough to stop and fight with the black-robed elder.

Seeing that Zhao Fu was flying further and further away, the black-robed elder tried to give chase with his full strength, but he still wasn’t able to catch up, so he could only angrily yell, “You coward!!”

A few hours later, Zhao Fu used a teleportation channel to return to the Legacy Land; only then did he finally relaxed. He wondered what the Kershi Kingdom would do to the Swan Goose Group because of their transactions with him.

Zhao Fu felt that they should be fine, as the Swan Goose Group was very powerful. Moreover, they had only traded Talisman Stones and corpses with Zhao Fu and had not done anything to harm the Kershi Kingdom; they had only broken some laws, so the Kershi Kingdom most likely would not do much to the Swan Goose Group.

It was just that Zhao Fu could not enter the Kershi Kingdom again. They had already become aware of his existence, so it would be extremely dangerous to go again.

In the future, he would have to go to other Kingdoms to buy Talisman Stones and corpses. Zhao Fu sighed. Now that his original plan had been disrupted, he would have to wait until the storm quelled before going out again.

A few days later, Zhao Fu refined all of the Stage 2 and Stage 3 corpses, obtaining a large number of Stage 2 and Stage 3 Blood God Pills. Zhao Fu gave out these Blood God Pills as rewards, helping countless soldiers increase their Cultivations.

Over the next few days, Zhao Fu looked through Great Qin’s various constructions and soon found that there was not much for him to do. He planned to go to the other Cities to take a look. Even though he received reports from his subordinates, it would still be better for him to personally take a look. He could not place his attention only on the Great Qin City and had to look at the development of the other Cities as well.

Soon, Zhao Fu went to Later Zhou City, and Nangong Shuyue brought Chai Shaohui and the others to wait at the teleportation channel.

“We greet Your Majesty!” Seeing that Zhao Fu had arrived, everyone paid their respects to him.

Zhao Fu looked at everyone and slightly smiled before saying, “Be at ease. I’m just here to take a look; I won’t be here for too long!”

Everyone nervously stood at the side, and Nangong Shuyue looked at her son. Chai Shaohui understood and went up and showed Zhao Fu around Later Zhou and explained Later Zhou’s plans for the future.

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded in acceptance of these plans. To be able to have such plans, this youth was not simple at all and had some potential.

After going around, Zhao Fu felt quite satisfied and planned to go to the next City. However, Nangong Shuyue asked him to stay for a while and rest.

Now, it was only Zhao Fu and Nangong Shuyue in a room. Seeing that there was no one else around, Nangong Shuyue walked over to Zhao Fu and lightly hit Zhao Fu with her small fists, saying, “You heartless man, why haven’t you come to see me for so long?”

Zhao Fu smiled and brought Nangong Shuyue into his embrace. Nangong Shuyue was the first woman Zhao Fu had accepted, but because he knew that Later Zhou had been doing well, he had not come here for a while.

“I’m sorry!” Zhao Fu smiled as he said softly.

A flirtatious look appeared in Nangong Shuyue’s eyes. Ever since she had done those things with Zhao Fu last time, her body had become even more desperate. When Zhao Fu had left last time, she had wanted to do it again but had been refused. She had been waiting this entire time.

“Then you have to make it up to me!” Nangong Shuyue’s face became red as she wrapped her arms against Zhao Fu’s waist and looked up at Zhao Fu as she spoke in a soft voice.

Zhao Fu looked at this beautiful young widow and lowered his head as he kissed her lips, and Nangong Shuyue passionately responded. Following this, they started to go at it; because Nangong Shuyue had been deprived for so long, she was especially intense.

There was no one around the room because of Nangong Shuyue’s orders, but Chai Shaohui still came over, and he heard the sounds, including his mother’s moans.

Chai Shaohui could not help but grit his teeth and clench his fists, a wave of anger in his heart. His mother’s lewd moans deeply stabbed into his heart, and without even seeing it, he knew his mother was being ravaged by Great Qin’s Legatee.

Chai Shaohui knew from long ago that his mother had become Great Qin’s Legatee’s woman. That was why those uncles who had despised him had suddenly taken a liking to him and supported him as the ruler of Later Zhou.

Hatred and anger filled Chai Shaohui’s heart. However, thinking about how kind and gentle his mother was, he suddenly came to his senses. Everything his mother was doing was for him; how could he hate his mother?

After his father had passed away so early on, his mother had taken care of him singlehandedly and sacrificed so much. Why couldn’t she have her own life and fulfill her own needs?

Hearing how his mother’s moans were filled with so much joy, pleasure, and satisfaction, Chai Shaohui deeply breathed in and calmed himself down before turning and leaving.

Chapter 724: Mysterious Person

Afterwards, Nangong Shuyue’s face was bright red as she lay on Zhao Fu’s body. Thinking about how crazed she had been, Nangong Shuyue embarrassedly asked, “Your Majesty, do you think I’m a very perverted woman?”

Zhao Fu could not help but laugh. Thinking about how a virtuous and mature woman like Nangong Shuyue could have such a lewd side, he could not help but smile and nod.

Nangong Shuyue's face became even redder, and she lightly hit Zhao Fu before asking in a small voice, "Do you like me like that?"

Zhao Fu looked down at her embarrassed face and nodded. To be so virtuous and kind in front of others but so lewd in bed, it was not bad at all.

A happy smile appeared on Nangong Shuyue's face, but she then lightly harrumphed, "What if I miss you in the future? You don't come and visit me often, so who knows when you'll be back again?"

There were still many people from the Chai family in Later Zhou City, and they were all players. Zhao Fu was worried about Great Qin's information being leaked, so he banned the Chai family's people from entering Great Qin, but Great Qin's people could freely come to Later Zhou City.

However, things were different now – Great Qin had constructed an Inner Great Wall, so there was not too much to be worried about. Zhao Fu said, "You can come to the Great Qin City anytime!"

Nangong Shuyue smiled happily and kissed Zhao Fu on the cheek as she said shyly, "Then I'll go everyday!"

Zhao Fu smiled and lightly lifted up Nangong Shuyue's chin as he asked, "Do you want more?"

Nangong Shuyue looked at Zhao Fu and shyly nodded. It was as if she wanted to make up for the ten or so years she had been deprived all back in one go. Zhao Fu grinned as he satisfied her request, and they started going at it again.

In the Northern Continent, ripples appeared in mid-air as a black ray of light shot out. A black-clothed young man stood in the air, giving off a powerful aura.

He looked Asian and had black eyes and long, black hair. He had a handsome-looking face, but it was completely cold and emotionless. His body gave off traces of demonic qi, and his aura was extremely terrifying. It was as if a powerful demon lord in front of him would seem like nothing.

After arriving, he looked around him and sensed where a large number of living creatures were gathered. He concealed his aura before flying over to a system main city.

Apart from people with blonde and brown colored hair, there were some people who looked like him; could they be from the same race? However, he stretched out his senses and found that they did not have any demonic qi; it seemed that they only looked similar.

Since they were people who looked similar to him, he did not bother hiding his appearance. In actuality, with his identity, he did not bother doing such a thing.

He went to a street and walked about, looking at the city and the people.

A few muscular, Caucasian men saw the black-clothed man looking at them and felt quite displeased. One of the men cursed, "What are you looking at, you monkey? I'll shove your head into a pile of crap!"

The young man stopped and coldly looked at the muscular men. Even though he could not understand them, he could tell that they were cursing at him.

The muscular men were used to having their way, and seeing the young man stop and coldly look at them, they felt even more enraged. They decided to teach him a lesson, so they got out their iron clubs and savagely walked over.

The young man still did not move, coldly watching the muscular men walk over. One of the men ferociously swung as soon as he got close, smashing the club towards the young man's head. Killing an Asian person like him here would be no problem at all and would be like killing a dog.

The iron club whooshed as it swung towards the young man, but he still did not move. It was only when the iron club was about to hit him when a massive gust of wind blew past.

The muscular man attacking him was suddenly cut into countless tiny pieces and then collapsed, with bits of meat falling all over the ground.

"Ahhhhh..." After seeing this scene, the other muscular men were so scared that their legs became weak, and they collapsed to the ground, looking at the young man with fear. The muscular men weren't all that strong, and they just used their powerful bodies to bully some ordinary people. They were the type to bully the weak and fear the strong.

The young man's cold gaze fell on the remaining muscular men, causing those men to immediately kneel and plead for mercy, "Lord, we were wrong! Please spare us!"

However, he slowly lifted his hand when another person suddenly stepped out. It was a Chinese person, and he said, "Just spare them! This is their territory, and if we offend them, all of us will be oppressed. It's best to stay out of trouble and endure it!"

This Chinese person had lived in America for ten or so years, and he had become used to how things were. He just wanted to live a stable life without causing any trouble.

If they, as Asians, resisted, they would be discriminated against even more by the Caucasians, and they would be slammed by those in China for losing face for them.

As such, the Chinese person understood that it was better to act as the victim. Only then would people sympathize with them.

Those were the unspoken rules here, and the Chinese people and other Asians were used to it already.

However, the black-clothed young man did not hesitate at all. He grabbed at the air, and the muscular men's heads exploded, causing blood and brains to fly everywhere.

The Chinese person who had stood out felt incredibly terrified, and he knew that there was going to be trouble.

"You pitiful worms; you're disgracing the likeness of my race!" the black-clothed young man said in contempt as he looked at the Chinese person and all of the other Asian people looking over in fear. He lightly waved his hand, causing an incredibly sharp and berserk wind to fly past. Everyone present was cut into tiny pieces, and a bloody smell spread out.

Immediately, a few teams of system main city soldiers sensed this and rushed over. They looked at the black-clothed young man standing at the center of the corpses and started to attack. The young man coldly harrumphed and swiped out with a finger, causing a black sword qi to flash out, slashing apart the soldiers' heads. Blood flowed out from both sides, and they fell to the ground, dead.

After killing these people, the young man did not stop and started to commit a massive slaughter as if he despised what he had seen here.

Boom!!

Following this, the City Lord unleashed a terrifying aura and rushed into the sky, furiously yelling, “Who are you? Why are you slaughtering my city?”

Chapter 725: Demon’s Hand

The black-clothed young man condescendingly looked at the City Lord. He stretched out his hand, and countless traces of demonic qi rushed out, forming a massive demon hand. The demon hand gave off a powerful might as it grabbed at the City Lord.

The City Lord was quite shocked and sensed the danger. He immediately tried to dodge, but the demon’s hand was not only extraordinarily fast, but it also had a sealing power. Even though the City Lord tried to dodge to the side, his body slowed down greatly, making it impossible to move quickly.

The demon’s hand grabbed onto the City Lord’s body and tightly gripped. A ‘bang’ sounded out as the City Lord’s body exploded, causing blood and flesh to fall everywhere. The black-clothed young man grabbed the silver City Lord Seal that rose out of the corpse, and seeing this City Lord Seal, a look of interest appeared on the young man’s face.

After receiving a notice that the City Lord had been killed, the remaining soldiers furiously rushed over. No one knew what had happened, but they could feel that things were grim, so they started to run for their lives, creating a chaotic scene.

Seeing this, the black-clothed young man felt quite annoyed and raised a hand, causing a massive amount of demonic qi to rush out. The demonic qi gathered, forming a black orb that was as big as a fist in front of his palm.

The jet-black orb gave off a terrifying demonic intent, making those who felt it feel a chill spread through their bodies. The black orb instantly exploded out, covering the entire system main city. Countless demons appeared, giving ear-piercing howls as they started to slaughter everyone. Soon, the system main city became deathly silent.

In another system main city, a chubby middle-aged man sitting in a bar said in a quiet voice to the people around him, “Did you hear? Moonlight City was suddenly slaughtered without a single person remaining. They all died incredibly pitifully: some were cut into pieces, some had their skin ripped off, and others had their stomachs cut open, causing their guts to fall out. It was such a horrifying scene; I wonder who was so inhumane as to do such a thing!”

Another person looked terrified as he said in a small voice, “I went to take a look personally; that place looks like hell. There are broken corpses everywhere, and the smell of blood fills the entire city. The smell alone is enough to make a person vomit; that was the worst scene I’ve seen in my whole life!”

“Who do you think did it? The other City Lords all went to take a look. Three hours prior, everything had been fine, but they had suddenly lost contact, and three hours later, 400,000 residents and 200,000 players had all been killed!” a person said with curiosity and fear.

Another person said, “I heard it was a Chinese person. The players who were killed and sent back to the real world have started to curse Chinese people.”

“I also heard that the person who slaughtered the whole city looks like a Chinese person. Before he slaughtered everyone, there was a Chinese person who tried to talk to him; he’s probably Chinese!”

“That Chinese person went too far; why did he slaughter so many of us for no reason? And with such cruel methods too! How infuriating!”

“There’s nothing we can do about that. China is simply too powerful, and Great Qin’s Legatee has become the World Protector. Now, China can do whatever it wants and takes no one seriously. I think that person might have been Great Qin’s Legatee; only he’s powerful and cruel enough to do such a thing.”

Everyone else nodded in agreement. Even in the Northern Continent, they had heard of how ferocious Great Qin’s Legatee was. As such, they agreed that the biggest suspect was him; not anyone could do something like this.

The matter of Moonlight City being instantly slaughtered caught the attention of many people in the Northern Continent. After all, 600,000 people being slaughtered without a single person remaining was not a small matter at all.

However, they still had not yet worked out the true identity of that person. He seemed to have suddenly appeared, but because he had black eyes and black hair, it was quite likely that he was indeed someone from China.

But why had such a ferocious person suddenly appeared, butchering an entire city in such a cruel way? No one had any answers.

Even though the greatest suspect was Great Qin's Legatee, they had no actual evidence, so no one dared to openly point fingers. Moreover, the Northern Continent was quite big, and because this was just a single system main city being slaughtered, it was not too big of a deal.

This soon became a big mystery, and people only talked about it out of curiosity and did not pay it too much mind.

After leaving Later Zhou City, Zhao Fu went around to some other places and found that Great Qin was doing quite well overall. Apart from some of the surrendered Nation Legacies who still had some power, the other Cities, Towns, and Villages were all managed by Great Qin.

This was all because of Li Si and Shang Yang. These two Ministers had managed everything perfectly, and Shangguan Wan'Er and Lu Lingxuan also helped out quite a bit as well.

Of course, there were also new talents they had promoted, such as Zhang Lingyue, Zhang Feng, Zuo Nan, Li Yunna, and Yue Ru, who all performed quite well.

Following this, Zhao Fu went to the Mountain Willow Town. The Mountain Willow Town was the first Town that Zhao Fu had obtained, and it was now an Advanced Town, soon to be a Basic City. When Zhao Fu arrived, Liu Subai was already waiting for him.

"Your Majesty!" Liu Subai said happily as she paid her respects.

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and followed Liu Subai, going around the town. He saw a few people he was familiar with, such as Sun Xiaowei – he was now the commander of the Mountain Willow Town's guards and was leading a team of guards around to maintain order.

There were a few other people in different positions who had helped Zhao Fu take over the Mountain Willow Town, and he still had an impression of them.

Now, their statuses were even more different, and they became even more respectful towards Zhao Fu.

Following this, as they walked, they soon ended up in a room. Zhao Fu felt a sense of déjà vu and immediately understood what was happening.

Liu Subai lightly hugged Zhao Fu and said embarrassedly, “Your Majesty, won’t you take me? I want to be your woman!”

Zhao Fu smiled; he had long since known of Liu Subai’s feelings towards him, but he had not responded to them. Seeing how much longing there was in her eyes, he also hugged her petite figure and said, “Is that what you really want?”

Liu Subai shyly nodded, saying in a small voice, “Your Majesty, I’ve waited for you for so long. At first, I thought you didn’t like me, so I endured the pain and considered marrying someone else. I decided to muster up all of my courage today and try one last time. If you don’t want me, I’ll give up!”

After hearing her expression of feelings and imagining this beauty marrying someone else, Zhao Fu felt quite reluctant. Before, he had been quite aversive to having relations with women, but once the gates of pleasure had been opened, they were hard to close – and this was especially so with the Six Desires Celestial Art.

Zhao Fu lowered his head and kissed Liu Subai’s lips, and she shyly responded. Their tongues intertwined, and soon, Zhao Fu looked at Liu Subai, who was breathing raggedly, and asked, “Do you like this?”

Chapter 726: Fate Changing Pill

Liu Subai’s face was bright red as she bashfully nodded. Zhao Fu hugged her and lifted her up, taking her to the bed. They took off their clothes, and their bodies started to intertwine.

A while later, after loudly moaning, Liu Subai powerlessly lay in Zhao Fu’s embrace, sweetly looking at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu lightly hugged her and asked, “Do you feel happy?”

Liu Subai grinned and replied, “Of course I’m happy. Your Majesty, you finally decided to accept me. How could I not be happy?”

Zhao Fu felt a bit apologetic. Even though he had known of her feelings, he had kept her waiting for so long, so he felt quite sorry.

Liu Subai smiled as she shook her head, saying, “You don’t need to apologize, Your Majesty; you’ve already made it up to me. I’m very satisfied now, and it was worth waiting so long!”

Zhao Fu looked at her and did not say anything else, simply hugging her tightly. Liu Subai happily hugged him back, and after cuddling for a while, Zhao Fu left the Mountain Willow Town.

After checking up on the various different places, Zhao Fu returned to Great Qin. During that check-up, he had developed relations with two women: the lewd Nangong Shuyue and the pure Liu Subai.

Another ten or so days later, Great Qin cleared out four regions and had once again become more powerful. At the same time, some system main cities joined Great Qin as well.

As time passed, the situation outside became graver and graver. The natural disasters started to become more intense, and people started to act even more chaotically. Not only were there rewards for killing other people, but they could also loot and steal items and equipment. Currently, the Legacy Land had become incredibly cruel and terrifying.

Great Qin continued to send out ambassadors. With Great Qin’s might, it continued to maintain friendly relations with the surrounding regions, expressing its goodwill and willingness to take them in.

Because of this, the surrounding regions did not ally together to attack Great Qin anymore. However, even if there were some who wanted to resist Great Qin, they would not be able to threaten Great Qin at all.

This time, 12 City Lords joined Great Qin. Apart from wanting to escape the natural disasters, these City Lords also understood that it would be impossible to stop Great Qin’s development.

By now, Great Qin already had 300 City Lords alone, which was comparable to 100 regions. If someone wanted to suppress Great Qin, that person would need at least 400 regions, and just roping in 400 regions would be incredibly difficult, let alone even defeating Great Qin.

If they were destroyed by Great Qin, Great Qin's power would become even more terrifying. When that time came, they definitely would not be as friendly anymore.

They did not want to worry about those things, so they decided to join Great Qin. They had heard from the City Lords who had surrendered that they were doing quite well, so they did not hesitate to join Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu felt quite satisfied – every few days, there would be a City Lord or two joining them. The ambassadors that Zhao Fu had sent had fulfilled their purpose.

Also, the 18 Ginseng Trees had borne Ginseng Fruit. Each of them bore around 300 or so Ginseng Fruits, which was 5,000 or so in total. Zhao Fu kept a small portion and planted the rest, wanting to cultivate even more Ginseng Trees.

Apart from these things, there was also another piece of good news, which was about Fate Changing Pills. When Zhao Fu had destroyed Heavenstone City and killed the Rock Giant, he had obtained the core material for Fate Changing Pills, which was the Fruit of Life.

Now, after cultivating them for so long, they now had 10,000 or so Trees of Life. Each tree could bear nine fruits, so 10,000 Trees of Life were able to produce 90,000 Fruits of Life, which could be refined into 270,000 Fate Changing Pills.

This meant that Great Qin would soon be able to mass-raise people's Grades to S grade. This made Zhao Fu incredibly excited – after all, a higher Grade meant faster cultivation speed, higher comprehension, and greater strength.

Great Qin would be able to instantly create 270,000 S grade soldiers. Usually, Villages only had one S grade person, who was the Village Chief, showing how rare they were.

Even though Great Qin now had 200 million people and 30 million soldiers, the 270,000 S grade people would be incredibly important. They would become Great Qin's highest-Cultivation soldiers in the future, allowing Great Qin to fight with more powerful nations.

However, he needed to continue growing Trees of Life, as 270,000 Fate Changing Pills were not enough to satisfy Great Qin's army's demands. After all, Great Qin's army now had 30 million soldiers, and it was still increasing in size. The Trees of Life bearing fruit once per year was not enough.

Zhao Fu decided to use some fruits and plant others. After all, obtaining a higher Grade as soon as possible was important. That way, they would be able to reach a higher Cultivation sooner.

Zhao Fu decided to properly praise and reward Zhang Baishu. He was the one who had been in charge of this, and he had met Zhao Fu's requirements.

After dealing with these matters, Zhao Fu smiled and returned to the real world. He still did not see Zheng Yuqin, and he started to eat. After hearing that Zhao Fu had returned to the real world, Mu Guilin came over and gave some reports to Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu read through the reports while eating and looked through the various things that had happened in China.

"Proxy family leaders, there's a report from the Northern Continent as well. 600,000 people in a system main city were all slaughtered cruelly in a very short period of time. Many of the factions in the Northern Continent think that it was Great Qin's Legatee who did it."

Mu Guilin took out another report that Zhao Fu had not requested for. However, since it related to Great Qin's Legatee, Mu Guilin decided to show it to Zhao Fu anyways.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite confused; why was he being blamed for this out of nowhere? Why would he go to the Northern Continent and slaughter a city for no reason?

However, Zhao Fu only thought about this and did not say it out loud. Mu Guilin would never be able to guess that the person sitting right in front of him was Great Qin's Legatee.

Zhao Fu looked over the report curiously and started to read through it. The person had black eyes, gave off demonic qi, and used extremely cruel methods to kill people. This gave Zhao Fu a bad feeling, and after looking through more of the report and seeing where Moonlight City was located, he felt quite startled, and his expression became serious.

Seeing the change in Zhao Fu's expression, Mu Guilin also started to feel worried.

However, this was quite curious – this was obviously framing Great Qin's Legatee; these days, cowardly people were always blaming things on Great Qin's Legatee, and this had happened many times. He had reported this to Zhao Fu in the past, but Zhao Fu had not reacted that much.

Given that, why would Zhao Fu's expression change so much over fake news like this? Could it be that it really had been done by Great Qin's Legatee? If that was the case, why would he do something like that?

Mu Guilin had many thoughts running through his head, but he did not dare to ask any of them. He was just a minor figure in charge of gathering information, and if he asked too much, he would definitely be killed off.

Inwardly, Zhao Fu felt quite shocked; he had never thought that something like this would happen. He thought seriously about how to deal with it.

Chapter 727: Northern Continent

Zhao Fu needed to confirm if this was done by the Demon Race. If it was anywhere else, Zhao Fu would not have paid it much mind, but Moonlight City's position was too special. It was located in the northernmost area of the Northern Continent, and it was extremely close to the demon world.

Black hair and black eyes were indicative of the Demon Race. After all, their demonic qi was of the darkness element, and it would affect their bodies.

Coincidentally, Asian people had black hair and black eyes as well, but this had nothing to do with the Demon Race.

Before, Zhao Fu had been keeping an eye out for information about the demon world. This was because the Demon Race was innately stronger than humans, and they were incredibly cruel and bloodthirsty. They also had powerful battle intent, and ordinary people would find it difficult to win against them.

The human world was at a disadvantage, and Zhao Fu was very worried about a Demon Race invasion.

After hearing that a person who had black hair, black eyes, and demonic qi, had suddenly slaughtered a city, Zhao Fu immediately thought of an invasion by the Demon Race.

However, how could the Demon Race enter the human world? Zhao Fu thought about it and realized that since he could leave the Legacy Land, why couldn't others enter? The demon who had entered the human world definitely was not a simple demon.

Zhao Fu felt that he should personally investigate this. The situation outside the Legacy Land was extremely tense, and Zhao Fu did not want the Demon Race to mass-invade the human world. If that happened, it would be a disaster for the human world.

If the human world and demon world started to fight, both sides would be greatly weakened, so how would they be able to defend against the Grassi people or the even more powerful Devil Horn Empire?

Even though Zhao Fu did not want this, this was the first omen of a Demon Race invasion.

Should he tell this matter to the eight Legatees? They were incredibly important to the human world, so they naturally would have received some information about the rest of the Heaven Awaken World as well.

However, they only knew some rough details and did not have detailed information like Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu thought about it and decided to investigate this matter clearly before finding them. If it really was the Demon Race, Great Qin would not be able to deal with an invasion by itself, and the whole human world would be affected.

Zhao Fu did not hesitate to immediately return to the Heaven Awaken World.

Now that Zhao Fu could use the Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel to go to other worlds, going to the Northern Continent was no problem at all.

Zhao Fu stepped onto the teleportation channel, and his surroundings blurred, making him feel a bit dizzy. He then appeared on a mountain, and he sent his senses out before flying towards a system main city. After looking at the cities filled with Caucasians, he was able to confirm that he was in the Northern Continent now.

The Northern Continent was America's territory, and if the Demon Race invaded, it would be America that suffered first. Zhao Fu had no idea if anyone here knew anything yet, but he hoped that it was not the Demon Race, as things would become incredibly dangerous.

At Moonlight City, ten or so days had passed, but no one had cleared the corpses yet. They gave off a dense, putrid smell, but it was evident that the people had died in horrible ways. It was a true hell on earth.

Zhao Fu went to the center and spread out his Emperor's Domain, covering the entire city, and traces of pure demonic qi started to float about.

Sensing that demonic qi, Zhao Fu's gaze became cold. This demon had been too bold, not putting the human world in his eyes at all. Not only had he slaughtered an entire city, but he had also not tried to cover it up at all.

Now, Zhao Fu was certain that this was done by someone from the Demon Race. Only someone from the Demon Race would have such pure demonic qi.

Boom!!

Just as Zhao Fu put away his Emperor's Domain, a blinding white ray of light, bringing with it a searing power, shot towards him. It was extremely fast and reached Zhao Fu's body almost instantaneously.

Zhao Fu expressionlessly stretched out his hand, once again casting his Emperor's Domain and easily blocking this ray of light.

Geoffrey coldly stood in the air and looked at Zhao Fu as he said, "Just who are you? Why did you slaughter so many people?"

Zhao Fu rolled his eyes and said, "It's me!"

Geoffrey's expression became one of shock. Even though he could not see this black-cloaked figure's face, he remembered that voice, which was etched onto his heart. Geoffrey immediately realized who this person was and yelled, "Don't come over; this person's Great Qin's Legatee!"

Upon hearing this, the other people flying over immediately turned and ran.

"Great Qin's Legatee, we're so far apart, so I'm sure we've never offended you before. Why did you kill these people so cruelly?" Geoffrey asked with a furious expression.

Zhao Fu looked at the people running away and then looked at Geoffrey, feeling quite speechless. "Do you really think I did this?"

Geoffrey coldly harrumphed, "Great Qin's Legatee, you're still trying to pretend it wasn't you? That domain you used before was like the domain that slaughtered Moonlight City!"

Zhao Fu felt quite angry that the blame had been put on him, and he said coldly, "It wasn't me; it was the Demon Race in the world next to ours. When the time comes, America will be the first to perish, and I won't care at all!"

Ordinary people would not understand Zhao Fu's words, but Geoffrey's expression became incredibly serious. He was not like ordinary people, and he knew more about the Heaven Awaken World. He knew that there were countless worlds out there.

After hearing that there was a demon world next to theirs, Geoffrey started to feel incredibly nervous. Great Qin's Legatee definitely knew more than him, and he already knew that there was a demon world next to theirs.

Geoffrey thought about it and realized that Zhao Fu had most likely not done this. His expression became quite awkward as he said, "I'm sorry, Great Qin's Legatee. I wrongly accused you. Can you explain the situation to me in detail?"

Seeing that Geoffrey was one of the eight Legatees, he did not make things difficult for him and told him what he knew.

After hearing about these things, Geoffrey's expression became incredibly grave because it was extremely likely that the human world would soon be invaded by the Demon Race. When that time came, the human world would be in terrible danger.

“What should we do? Should we let the others know?” Seeing that this matter could concern the survival of the human race, Geoffrey decided to let Zhao Fu take charge. In his heart, he already understood that at a time like this, Zhao Fu was the most important person.

Zhao Fu thought about it. Since they had confirmed that this was done by the Demon Race, it was possible that the human world could suffer a demon invasion, so they had to discuss this with the others. Great Qin could not stop the invasion of the demon world by itself, so Zhao Fu nodded and decided to tell the seven other Legatees.

After receiving this news, the Legatees’ expressions became serious, and they dropped whatever they were doing and immediately headed to the Northern Continent.

Chapter 728: Demon Race

Tina Pendragon was the first to arrive. Looking at the cloaked figure next to Geoffrey, she immediately knew who it was. Her expression became serious – now that Great Qin’s Legatee was taking action, this meant that the matter was incredibly serious.

“Is it true? Was Moonlight City really slaughtered by someone from the Demon Race?” Tina Pendragon came up and asked.

Geoffrey nodded seriously and said, “Great Qin’s Legatee is sure about this. He already knows that right next to our world is a terrifying demon world!”

Tina Pendragon looked at Zhao Fu and understood that he knew more things than them. After all, not anyone could become the World Protector.

Zhao Fu turned to look at her and nodded before saying, “I’ll explain everything after everyone’s here!”

Tina Pendragon nodded and stood by the side, waiting for everyone else.

Time gradually passed, and soon, Akhenaten and Si Ji arrived. However, everyone else was still on the way, so those present could only wait.

Tina Pendragon stood beside Zhao Fu, and this was the first time she had been so close to him, and she could not help but size him up.

Even though Zhao Fu was wearing a cloak, making it impossible to see his face, the aura he gave off was incredibly dangerous. His power was enough to suppress her King's Power, meaning that it was a power even stronger than King's Power.

However, putting aside all of this, just with Great Qin's Legatee silently standing there, even though they were facing a possible invasion of the Demon Race, he gave off a feeling that made her feel at ease.

Standing beside him and smelling his scent, Tina Pendragon could not help but think of being violated by him in that illusion, causing her to blush, which was incredibly rare.

Following this, everyone else finally arrived with serious expressions. They all understood how severe this situation was, and they all looked towards Zhao Fu.

Seeing that everyone had arrived, Zhao Fu said, "I've been to the outside world and know some things. The situation is not great right now, so you all must listen carefully!"

Hearing that Zhao Fu had already ventured out into the outside world, everyone's heart jumped, and their expressions became ones of shock. They wanted to ask what the outside world was like, but hearing that the situation was bad, their expressions became grave, and they attentively listened.

Zhao Fu was unable to make a decision by himself on such a big matter, so he did not want to hide anything. He got straight to the point, saying, "One of the worlds before ours is called the Grassi world, and it is populated by the Grassi people. They have about 40 or so Kingdoms, and they are ready to invade our human world at any time."

"However, they are not the true threat; it is the Devil Horn Empire next to them. They are already a Level 1 Dukedom, and they are already invading other worlds. Only with three worlds allying together were they able to barely stop its invasion.

“If the Devil Horn Empire conquers those three worlds or only destroys the Grassi world, we will be their next target, as our human world will be easier to conquer than the other worlds.

“Out of these threats, the Devil Horn Empire is the strongest, and our human world barely has any ways to resist.

“I have also discovered that there is a Demon Race world to the north of our human world, and there is a Water Race world to our south. Because we’re separated by the Southern Continent and the Water Race only dwells in water, we don’t have to worry about them for now.

“The demon world in the north is the second-greatest threat – the Demon Race is one of the strongest out of the eight Major Races, and they are incredibly cruel and violent. Them invading our world is only a matter of time.”

Apart from talking about the threats they were going to face, Zhao Fu also told them about some of the other things in the Heaven Awaken World, such as the levels of Kingdoms and the features of the various Races.

After hearing these things, everyone felt incredibly shocked. No one had thought that the human world would be in such danger, and they were quite surprised that Zhao Fu knew so much. Moreover, he was willing to selflessly tell them so much, saving them a lot of time.

Geoffrey looked at Zhao Fu and said, “Great Qin’s Legatee, I need to apologize for my behavior in the past. When the world’s consciousness chose you to be the World Protector, I could not understand how such a cruel and ruthless person could be chosen. However, after talking to you, my perception of you has changed: You’re someone who cares about the whole world. Compared to us, you’re much more suitable to be the World Protector!”

Everyone else inwardly sighed – Great Qin’s Legatee was not only far more powerful than them, but he also had a lot more information than them as well. They simply could not compare to him.

Masanori Hano looked at Zhao Fu and smiled. She knew that he wasn’t that sort of cruel and merciless person!

Zhao Fu asked, “What do you all think? How should we deal with this?”

Si Ji was the first to reply, “Right now, the most pressing threat is the demon world. After the Heaven Awaken World devours our world, the boundaries between worlds will disappear, and we will have to fight with them sooner or later!”

Akhenaten followed up, “I agree with what Si Ji said. The humans and demons are fated to fight sooner or later, so we just have to make preparations. I believe that the Northern Continent should build a defensive wall to at least slow down the Demon Race’s invasion. They should also prepare things to suppress the Demon Race. Otherwise, with how powerful the Demon Race is, we will be at a great disadvantage.”

Everyone else approved of this. Facing this terrifying invasion, they had to make proper preparations; otherwise, if they fought, the human side would have a tough time.

Tina Pendragon thought for a moment before saying, “We need more information about the Demon Race. We can’t just passively defend; we also need to take the initiative to attack. Only then will we be able to prevent the human world from being mass-invaded.”

Everyone else also approved of this idea. However, who had the power to obtain information about the demon world? To begin with, who could even enter the demon world?

As such, everyone looked over to Zhao Fu. It seemed that only Great Qin’s Legatee would be able to do such a thing, as the eight of them were completely powerless. They had never been to the outside world, so they could only rely on Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu did not refuse either. He had long since decided to go over to the demon world to take a look and obtain some information in order to prepare for the future. As such, he nodded and agreed.

Seeing that Zhao Fu was willing to do this, everyone let out a sigh of relief. After all, he would be going to the enemy’s world, which was incredibly dangerous. They knew almost nothing about that world, making it even more dangerous.

After discussing for a bit longer, everyone left to start making preparations.

“Great Qin’s Legatee, stay safe.” Tina Pendragon said with a trace of care as she looked at Zhao Fu with her golden eyes. She did not mean anything by this – she only said it because he was taking a massive risk for the human race.

Chapter 729: Dark Demon

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised that Tina Pendragon would be concerned for him, but he lightly nodded in response.

Akhenaten looked over at Zhao Fu and Tina Pendragon, thinking to himself. However, he understood how dangerous this mission was. Since Great Qin's Legatee was willing to take such a big risk to obtain information for them, he was deserving of his respect.

"Great Qin's Legatee, please be careful!" Akhenaten said courteously as he smiled.

In response, Zhao Fu also lightly nodded.

As for Si Ji, he felt quite complicated, as he and Great Qin's Legatee were both Chinese and had been embroiled in conflict before. He looked at Zhao Fu and did not say anything, choosing to directly leave.

The others somewhat feared Zhao Fu, especially Oleg, who had been abused the most in that illusion. He did not even dare to speak to Zhao Fu for fear of Zhao Fu getting angry and beating him up. After the discussions were over, he let out a sigh of relief and ran away immediately.

"Great Qin's Legatee, make sure you come back safe!" Masanori Hano said with true concern as she smiled while looking at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu also nodded. Zhao Fu returned to Great Qin and prepared to enter the demon world.

After making his preparations, Zhao Fu stood at the center of the magic formation and looked at the Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel. He was not completely sure if it could take him to the demon world – even though he could leave the Legacy Land using it, going to another world required him to pass through two Heaven Domain Boundaries. Zhao Fu was not sure if the teleportation channel could do such a thing.

Zhao Fu bound the Sky Demon Sword to his waist, as he wanted to use the Sky Demon's Sky Demon Power to protect him and cover his identity as a human.

After stepping through the Trans-Boundary Teleportation Channel, Zhao Fu felt a massive force sucking him in, and his head started to ache. His surroundings blurred, and soon, Zhao Fu had arrived at another world.

Zhao Fu did not know if it was day or light, as it was quite dim, and the sky was completely gray. The plants around him were mostly black, and some were blood-red, making them seem quite strange.

This world was filled with demonic qi. To ordinary people, this demonic qi would make them feel coldness and pain, but to demons, it was a luxury.

Sensing the boundless amount of demonic qi, the Sky Demon Sword at Zhao Fu's waist became quite excited and started to tremble.

Zhao Fu did not know where he was, so he picked a random direction and started to fly. Zhao Fu felt that the demon world was filled with mortal dangers everywhere, so he had to be careful and explore slowly.

A few hours later, Zhao Fu sensed some movement in a forest, so he exploded out with his powerful aura, covering that region. Immediately, a few people ran out in terror, kneeling on the ground and speaking in a language that Zhao Fu did not understand.

Luckily, Zhao Fu was prepared for this. He used a Language Stone and recorded their language. He found out that this language was called the Dark Demon language, and he used the stone to learn it, helping him understand what they were saying.

From these demons, he heard that the demons living here were called the Dark Demons.

Zhao Fu was quite surprised to find that apart from the demonic qi that they gave off, their looks and clothes resembled Asian people. The weapons they used seemed to be made out of bone.

"You may rise!" Zhao Fu said as he looked at the demons in front of him.

The demons quickly got up and nervously stood there, not even daring to breathe loudly. The Demon Race was one that worshipped power, and they acknowledged the fact that the strong devoured the weak.

Even without using his City Lord Seal, Zhao Fu was incredibly powerful, as he had Stage 6 Cultivation. He was so powerful that they did not dare to try to resist at all.

“I just arrived here and don’t know where we are. Tell me about this area!” Zhao Fu silently practiced the Dark Demon language before speaking.

There were four males and two females in front of him, and a young demon who seemed like the leader said, “Sir, this region we are in is called the Gloom Region. We are quite close to Peaceful Soul City.”

Hearing this demon speak in a formal and ancient style, he did not seem like a player, but it was not very likely for indigenous residents to form groups to hunt beasts. Zhao Fu felt quite curious and asked the same thing again to another one of the demons.

That demon did not understand why Zhao Fu asked the same question twice, but given how powerful Zhao Fu was, he could only truthfully reply, speaking in the same olden-style and formal tone as the other demon.

Zhao Fu had some suspicions, and he said, “I’m a writer and I like hearing all sorts of stories. If you tell me stories about your life, not only will I not kill you all, but I will also reward you with money!”

In order to verify his suspicions and understand more about the Dark Demon race, he casually made up a lie.

Hearing this, the demons let out a sigh of relief; this person only wanted to hear their stories. Not only would he not kill them, but he would also give them rewards, making them pleasantly surprised.

Following this, the demons started to tell their stories, and Zhao Fu attentively listened, obtaining a large amount of useful information.

After hearing these stories, Zhao Fu was able to verify his suspicions. They spoke in such an olden way because their world was an ancient-style world.

This made Zhao Fu quite startled – after all, most ancient-style worlds were cultivation worlds, and most people cultivated.

Most worlds were split into two categories: cultivation worlds and technological worlds. The human world had gone down the technological advancement path, but most modern technology was taboo in the Heaven Awaken World.

However, magical tools and items were unaffected and could be used as normal.

Comparatively speaking, technological worlds were at a major disadvantage. Their people had weaker constitutions, and their biggest assets were unusable. On the other hand, the people from cultivation worlds were much stronger, as they could cultivate.

Moreover, if one's arts and skills reached a proficient stage in the real world, they would also be brought into the Heaven Awaken World after their world was devoured by the Heaven Awaken World.

Moreover, in terms of bloodlines, the bloodlines from technological worlds were weaker, further increasing the gap.

In terms of other things, this world was quite similar to the human world. The world was split into different regions, and each region had different cities. They could also return to their own 'real world,' and they were also going through the Chaotic World.

They had also chosen seven Legatees to control the fate of the Dark Demon world's fate, and their development was similar to the human world's.

Apart from this, they had all sorts of talismans and magic formations and were ahead of the human world in this regard. They did not have to buy magic formations and could already set up powerful formations. Many of the things from their real world could be brought into the Heaven Awaken World – this was the advantage of a cultivation world.

Moreover, their systems here were different as well. The Dark Demon world not only had powerful nations, but they also had powerful sects. Some sects' strength surpassed those of nations and could even destroy a few nations.

Technological worlds were at a great disadvantage, and if the human world and the Dark Demon world fought now, the human world would have a 90% chance of losing.

Chapter 730: Night Dynasty

Zhao Fu ended up obtaining quite a lot of information from them, and afterwards, he did not kill them. Instead, he threw them a sack of gold coins before flying off towards Peaceful Soul City.

Elsewhere in the demons' real world, a youth grinned as he walked home. This youth was called Ye Cang, and he was an Outer Court Disciple of the Demon Path Sect. Even though he was an Outer Court Disciple, that did not mean his aptitude was poor; in other people's eyes, he could be seen as a genius.

It was just that he did not seem very outstanding in the Demon Path Sect, as the Demon Path Sect was one of the largest sects in the Southern Continent of the Dark Demon world. It was incredibly powerful and was a place where countless genius gathered. As such, Ye Cang, who was a genius to ordinary people, was only an Outer Court Disciple here.

Ye Cang came from a small mountain village, and his mother was the belle of the village. His adoptive father was also someone renowned for his kindness, and their family was very happy. Ye Cang loved the mountain village, as everyone got along well together, and Ye Cang had received much help from everyone.

Today, Ye Cang planned to ask his mother about his origins, because a few days ago, he had obtained the Night Dynasty's Legacy.

The Night Dynasty was an ancient Dynasty, and it had a few hundred years of history. It was extremely powerful and was one of the most powerful existences in the Southern Continent.

The Night Dynasty was an ancient Dynasty that still existed. It had its own subjects and soldiers, and after entering the Heaven Awaken World, those subjects and soldiers were still loyal to the Night Dynasty.

In the beginning, the Night Dynasty had 100 million people and five million soldiers.

And that was only at the beginning. After developing for so long in the Heaven Awaken World and with the fact that the Night Dynasty was one of the most powerful factions in their real world, it was monstrously powerful in the Heaven Awaken World now.

Just in the Southern Continent alone, it was in the top five factions, and within the entire Dark Demon world, it was in the top 15. It was one of the most powerful factions in the entire Dark Demon world, and it was feared by countless people.

However, a month ago, the Night Dynasty's Legatee had gone through qi deviation when breaking through the Demon Origin-Realm and had died. This news had shaken the entire Southern Continent.

A Dynasty Legatee had an immense amount of Fate, yet he had died so easily. This shocked countless people, and the Imperial Clan of the Night Dynasty was infuriated. They believed that there was an enemy faction that had used some sort of curse to kill its Legatee.

As such, the Night Dynasty continuously sent out its army, attacking the neighboring three Dynasties and one sect. A few large battles had erupted, resulting in many people dying. They were now in a stalemate and were antagonistic towards each other in the real world as well.

It was a pity that now that the Legatee had died in the real world, he could not be revived. That Legatee had been quite famous in the Dark Demon world and had held immense potential. He was said to be one of the most powerful rulers in the future, and now that he had died like this, many people felt quite disappointed.

Now that the Night Dynasty's Legatee had died, the Legacy Stone once again opened a trial.

Ye Cang did not understand what was happening at the time, as he had just been killing magical beasts when he had been suddenly dragged into a trial space, and he had obtained the Night Dynasty's Legacy somehow. Ye Cang felt quite shocked about this – how could he have obtained the Night Dynasty's Legacy?

He came from a small mountain village, so how could he have any connection to the Night Dynasty? Ye Cang felt that his identity was not simple, so he decided to go back and ask his mother what was going on.

Becoming the Night Dynasty's Legatee was like going from a peasant to becoming the Son of Heaven. Ye Cang could not help but feel incredibly excited; in the future, he would have an important position and would wield a lot of power. He could not stop grinning.

As he got closer and closer to the village, he sensed that something was wrong – it was completely silent in the village, and there were not even any sounds from the chickens or geese, which was quite strange.

Ye Cang became cautious and slowly moved over, and he found corpses lying on the ground. These corpses belonged to the villagers, making him feel mournful and furious. He thought of his adoptive father and mother and hurried towards his house.

When he got there, he saw a scene that ripped his heart apart – his adoptive father was lying in a pool of blood while his beautiful mother was being violated by a few naked men. His mother continuously cried and struggled, but she could not retaliate at all.

Ye Cang furiously ran over, wanting to kill these monsters. However, he could feel that their Cultivations were at the Martial Demon Realm. He could not defeat a single one of them by himself, let alone five.

By now, the few men had finished using his mother and casually killed her. Looking at her corpse, Ye Cang gripped his fists and gritted his teeth, his eyes filled with hatred. He forced himself to calm down and hid in some long grass.

If he rushed out now, not only would he not be able to take revenge, but he would also have to give up his own life as well. If he died, he would never be able to take revenge for his parents.

“It's been so many days, so why hasn't that brat come back yet? After killing him we can go back and complete our mission, allowing the Legacy Stone to once again open up a trial!” one of the men said unhappily as he put on his clothes.

Another man coldly harrumphed, “It should be soon. We'll deal with the corpses later and continue waiting for him!”

Hearing their words, Ye Cang finally understood the situation. However, how did they know that he was the new Legatee? Ye Cang felt as if he had been woken up by a bucket of cold water.

He had only told this matter to a single person, which was the Demon Path Sect's Mo Yao'Er. She was the number one beauty of the Southern Continent and was ranked third in the entire Dark Demon world. She was incredibly enchanting and beautiful, making countless men go crazy for her. What's more, she was the Demon Path Sect's Sect Master's daughter and had an incredibly prestigious background and incredible talent.

He had trusted her so much, so why had she betrayed him? She was the first woman Ye Cang had liked, the first woman who had made him go so crazy. He truly, truly liked her and would do anything for her, even give up his life for her.

Ye Cang felt as if his heart had been torn to shreds, and tears leaked out of his eyes. The pain made it feel as if he could not breathe.

Ye Cang lost control of his breathing, and the few people inside immediately detected this, yelling, "There's someone outside!"

Ye Cang quickly came back to his senses and started to run away. The men started to chase after him, and seeing that there was no way to escape, he ran to a nearby ravine and jumped.

"Ahhh!!" The ravine was 20 or so meters high, and even though Ye Cang put all of his Cultivation power into his feet, they were still broken on impact.

Seeing this, the men were delighted and decided to go down from another way. Even if they jumped down from here, their feet would be injured. Now that Ye Cang's feet were broken, he definitely would not be able to escape.

Looking at the men quickly descending, Ye Cang quickly entered the Heaven Awaken World. In the Heaven Awaken World, he had obtained a True Body Stone, which allowed one's body to enter the Heaven Awaken World permanently.

Now, in order to keep his life, he could only choose to use the True Body Stone. There was nothing that he cared about in the real world anymore now that his village had been slaughtered.
