

The Lord 731

Chapter 731: World's Power

After entering the Heaven Awaken World, Ye Cang immediately used the True Body Stone. in the real world, Ye Cang's body was covered with light before slowly disappearing.

Seeing this, the men giving chase were outraged. He had been right there, and yet he had just disappeared like that. They angrily looked around for a while but could not find anything, so they could only go back to report this.

After hearing about this, the higher-ups deduced that Ye Cang may have entered the Heaven Awaken World and ordered people to gather all information about him. At the same time, the gave out a reward of 100,000 gold coins to kill Ye Cang.

Now that Ye Cang's bodies from the real world and Heaven Awaken World had fused together, his feet immediately healed by quite a lot. He could walk a bit, and he immediately took out some medicine and started to treat his feet.

A day later, his feet had completely recovered, and by now, he understood that he would be chased down by the Night Dynasty, so he started to wear a cloak.

He went to a city nearby and found out that there was now a 100,000 gold coin bounty for his head. This was a decent fortune, and countless people would be enticed by it. There were now countless people looking for him, and the Night Dynasty's people had also come to this place.

Seeing this, Ye Cang did not dare to stay here any longer. Luckily, it was easy to go from a system main city to another, so he immediately teleported away.

Five days later, Ye Cang was desperately running in a forest. He had never thought that he would meet people from the same sect here, and those people were ones he had been on good terms before. As such, they had immediately recognized him, and there was now a big group of people chasing after him.

There were already a few injuries on his body, and blood continuously flowed out. Ye Cang could only continue to run or die. By now, his face was completely twisted by anger and hatred.

Zhao Fu was currently on the way to Peaceful Soul City when he saw a group of people chasing after a young man. He took a look but did not plan to act, as he did not know the situation. Moreover, they were enemies of the human world.

The golden dragon suddenly said, "That demon being chased has an immense amount of Fate; he's most likely a Dynasty Legatee. However, he has not fully received the Legacy yet and can only be counted to be half a Legatee!"

Zhao Fu felt a bit confused and asked, "What does that mean?"

The golden dragon replied, "He has received the acknowledgment of the Legacy Stone but has not conquered the Legacy City yet."

Hearing this, Zhao Fu felt quite confused, and the golden dragon rolled its eyes as it said, "After the first Legatee dies, the Legacy Stone will once again choose a master. He's most likely the second Legatee.

"Right now, he only has the status but does not have any power. He needs to go to the city and conquer the Legacy Stone. Only then will he be officially recognized and obtain a massive amount of Fate, allowing him to use the Nation Fate.

"However, if he's killed, the Legacy Stone will once again open up a trial and choose another Legatee."

After hearing this, Zhao Fu understood everything. However, he still did not plan to act because he was only here to obtain information. He did not want to get involved in any trouble. After all, this matter concerned an entire nation, and getting dragged in could result in his identity being exposed.

Moreover, he would not gain anything from helping this demon and would only bring trouble on himself.

Perhaps by helping him, they could form an alliance or have that demon submit to him. If he had a strong pawn in the demon world, it could help him a lot in the future.

However, Zhao Fu did not trust the Dark Demon race. After all, they were from two different worlds; even if they made an agreement, there was no guarantee that the other side would keep it. Moreover, Zhao Fu was not sure if he would completely submit; after all, he was now a Dynasty Legatee.

Moreover, that Legacy Stone would most likely be heavily guarded, and he did not have the power to help this demon obtain the Legacy. In fact, he could even die as a result, because if the demons found out that he was from another world, they would all gather to attack him together.

The golden dragon understood what Zhao Fu was thinking and said, “You can take over his body, making him effectively a clone. That way, you will be the Legatee of his Dynasty!”

Zhao Fu was pleasantly surprised; he had never thought that such a thing would be possible. However, this was a cultivation world, so if he took over Ye Cang’s body, it would be easy for him to be found out.

“You can take over his consciousness; that way, no one will be able to find you out. No one will be able to tell anything from his body or soul,” the golden dragon once again said.

Zhao Fu felt quite confused and said, “I understand taking over someone’s body, but how do you take over one’s consciousness?”

The golden dragon explained, “It’s like this – you need to first wipe out his consciousness before splitting off a bit of your own consciousness and insert it into his soul. It will be a bit painful, but it will allow you to fully take over him.

“However, this requires him to be willing, because it is quite difficult to wipe away someone’s consciousness without harming their soul if they retaliate.

“Alright, go and save him now, or he’ll die.”

Zhao Fu came back to his senses and saw that Ye Cang had already been surrounded!

Ye Cang furiously looked at the person in front of him and said, “Jiu Langli, I treated you like a brother. I never thought that you would bring people to kill me!”

Jiu Langli coldly laughed, “I’m sorry, but your head is just worth too much. As a brother, you should help a brother. You’re definitely going to die, so you might as well let me be the one who gets the reward. Everyone, kill him!”

Hearing his words, everyone prepared to attack. Ye Cang felt utter despair – he had thought that obtaining the Night Dynasty’s Legacy was an incredibly good thing, but things had turned out like this. He had not even taken revenge for his parents and the village, and he was going to die like this.

At that moment, a sword light flashed past, and ten or so people’s heads flew into the air. This caused Ye Cang to feel quite startled, and he saw a cloaked figure appear before him.

“Thank you!” Ye Cang understood that this person had saved him and thanked him coldly.

Zhao Fu nodded, and seeing Ye Cang’s twisted complexion, which was filled with hatred, Zhao Fu felt that there was a chance. As such, he started talking with Ye Cang and told him what he wanted, which was to wipe away his consciousness with his consent.

“How can I trust you? What if you don’t help me take revenge after taking my body?” Ye Cang said as he coldly looked at Zhao Fu. There were no good people in the world. This person had not saved him out of kindness but because he wanted to use his body.

This phrase sounded quite weird, but Zhao Fu did indeed want his body.

Zhao Fu smiled as he took off his cloak and said, “I won’t hide things from you – I’m the World Protector of another world. With my power, as long as it’s within my ability, I will take care of your revenge. I make this vow with my identity as the World Protector, and this vow is ratified by the World’s Power!”

Chapter 732: Ye Cang

Ye Cang’s expression became one of shock – he had never expected this person to be the World Protector of another world. The World Protector was someone who stood at the peak of the world and was extremely powerful. Their Dark Demon world’s World Protector was immensely terrifying as well.

For another world's World Protector to come to their Dark Demon world, there was definitely a great plot at hand, and the Dark Demon world could be greatly affected.

This person wanted to use his body, and if that happened, no one would be able to tell his true identity. He could hide in the Dark Demon world and do as he pleased. With the World Protector's power, it would spell a disaster for the Dark Demon world.

However, Ye Cang did not care about any of this. Whether this world survived or not had nothing to do with him. Currently, he felt as if the entire world had betrayed him. Since this person was the World Protector, he would have the power to take revenge for him.

"You'll do anything for my revenge as long as it's within your power?" Ye Cang's face was completely twisted with madness and hatred as he savagely smiled.

Hearing this, Zhao Fu earnestly nodded.

Ye Cang started to madly laugh and said loudly, "Alright! I agree to give my body to you, but you have to promise me two things!

"First, you have to destroy the Night Dynasty's imperial family and screw all of their women!

"Second, you have to destroy the Demon Path Sect and turn that bitch, Mo Yao'Er, into a sex slave!"

Hearing Ye Cang's words, Zhao Fu was not sure why he hated these people so much, but he felt confident in fulfilling these promises, so he agreed.

Seeing that Zhao Fu had agreed, Ye Cang relaxed and started to wildly laugh. He was certain that Zhao Fu would help him take revenge. Thinking about the Night Dynasty's imperial family being destroyed and the woman he loved being turned into a sex slave, he continuously laughed. His heart was wracked with pain, and tears flowed out of his eyes. Seeing this, Zhao Fu silently stood at the side and waited.

A while later, Ye Cang calmed down and looked quite dispirited as he said, "You can start! I give my body to you!"

Zhao Fu nodded and brought Ye Cang to a secluded mountain cave. He had Ye Cang lie on the ground as he started to wipe away his consciousness. Now that Zhao Fu had unlocked Divine Sense, his mind was quite powerful, and it started to pour into Ye Cang's head.

Ye Cang's face became distorted in pain, and as Zhao Fu's mind continuously flowed into his head, his struggling weakened. In the end, his expression became stiff, and he laid there like a corpse.

Zhao Fu carried out the method that the golden dragon had taught him and started to split apart his soul. This process was incredibly painful and was dozens of times more painful than being cut with a knife all over his body.

After three or so hours, Zhao Fu finally split off a bit of his soul, making him feel incredibly weak. Following this, Zhao Fu sent the little piece of his soul, a mote of light that was as big as a bean, into Ye Cang's head using a secret technique.

As the mote of light entered Ye Cang's head, it started to spread out roots, stretching into a massive orb of light. That orb was Ye Cang's soul, but it no longer had consciousness and seemed incredibly still. As the mote of light entered, the orb of light started to move again.

Zhao Fu felt as if he now had two bodies, which felt quite strange. He tried controlling Ye Cang, but he was not very proficient, and Ye Cang's body awkwardly crashed to the ground.

This did not discourage Zhao Fu, and over the next few days, he gradually became accustomed to the body. Because he had successfully taken over the body completely, he also had access to all of Ye Cang's memories, giving him a large amount of information about the Dark Demon world. He also found out why Ye Cang hated those people so much.

What shocked Zhao Fu was how powerful the Night Dynasty was. He had never expected them to be so powerful, and if he could take over the Night Dynasty, Great Qin's strength would instantly become even more monstrous.

He could use the Night Dynasty's power to continue developing in the Dark Demon world, becoming an overlord in the Dark Demon world. With its help, if the Dark Demon world invaded in the future, he could use the Night Dynasty to backstab all of them. This was incredibly important to Great Qin.

Even though this matter was quite dangerous, it was worth it for Zhao Fu to do it. The risk was great, but the rewards were much greater.

At the same time, this was no simple matter. He had to first sneak into the Night Dynasty City and then take it over.

The Night Dynasty City most likely had both indigenous residents and players. The indigenous residents and system main city soldiers would only follow the Legatee's orders. Similarly, the historical Generals would also only be loyal to the Legatee.

This gave Zhao Fu an opportunity to seize power. However, the Night Dynasty was a powerful nation in the real world, and its soldiers and Generals had also remained loyal to it after entering the Heaven Awaken World as well.

They were loyal to the imperial family, and they would be the greatest obstacle to Zhao Fu seizing power.

Moreover, even if he took over the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World, what about the Night Dynasty in the real world? If he could control it as well, it would be a great help in controlling the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World. If he couldn't, they would madly attack the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World.

This would be a big problem for the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World, and Zhao Fu did not want to see this. However, Zhao Fu was unable to enter the Dark Demon world's real world.

Zhao Fu thought about it and decided that he still lacked enough information to make any important decisions. He left Ye Cang here for now and headed to various cities to collect information.

This was not too difficult – with enough money, anyone could obtain any sort of information.

The Night Dynasty had a population of 150 million people. 100 million were players, who were subjects of the Night Dynasty in the real world, and 50 million were indigenous residents. They had 12 million soldiers, made up of seven million players and five million system main city soldiers.

If Zhao Fu took over the Night Dynasty, he would be at a disadvantage in both population and soldiers. If the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World clashed with the Night Dynasty in the real world, it was more likely that Zhao Fu's side would lose.

This was because even if he had 50 million residents and five million soldiers, he only had a few historical Generals to help him. However, the other side would have countless Generals, Ministers, and people from the imperial family. If they started to fight, Zhao Fu would not be able to control and command all of the people effectively.

This was not something that could be resolved easily. Zhao Fu thought about it and decided to return to the human world for now and discuss with his Generals as to what to do.

As for his mission, which was to simply collect information, he had already completed it perfectly.

Zhao Fu returned to the teleportation channel and activated it. After a wave of dizziness, he had returned to the human world. He first told the eight Legatees about the information he had obtained. Of course, it was only general information, and he did not yet tell them about the Night Dynasty.

The eight Legatees discussed this matter further and started to construct a Great Wall on the Northern Continent, while Zhao Fu returned to Great Qin and started to discuss with his subordinates as to how to seize power in the Night Dynasty.

Chapter 733: Ancestors

A few days later, Zhao Fu brought a few people with him to the Dark Demon world. The people he brought were all disguised with a large amount of demonic qi around them in order to prevent their identities from being exposed.

Zhao Fu now had a plan, which was to take down the Night Dynasty's five Ancestors. Because the Dark Demon world was a cultivation world, the five Ancestors were immensely powerful and had lifespans longer than normal people.

The five Ancestors' Cultivations had naturally reached the highest realm in the Dark Demon world, which was the Demon Origin Realm, and they were all 300 or so years old.

The eldest out of them was 326 years old, and they were all incredibly terrifying. They had all fused their bodies into the Heaven Awaken World, so their own Cultivations had fused with their bodies in the Heaven Awaken World, making them more powerful than an ordinary City Lord of a Great City.

Moreover, the five of them all had the City Lord Seals of Great Cities, so they could each fight seven or eight ordinary City Lords singlehandedly.

The five Ancestors wielded a lot of power in the Night Dynasty, and they were split into different factions. With how big a Dynasty was, it was only natural to have multiple factions.

Zhao Fu did not want to make things too troublesome, so he decided to lay hands on the five Ancestors who had the most power in the Night Dynasty.

A letter was delivered into a woman's hand. The woman was quite tall and was extremely beautiful. She had snow-white skin and was wearing a purple dress, giving off a cold and noble aura.

She was the youngest Ancestor and was 128 years old this year, but she looked like she was in her twenties. She was called Ye Ningshuang, and she was previously a Princess of the Night Dynasty. She had immense talent and had once been the number one beauty of the Night Dynasty.

Ye Ningshuang looked at the letter somewhat seriously because this letter contained a trace of the Night Dynasty's Legacy Fate. The person who wrote this letter was most likely that new Legatee.

She knew a bit about this Legatee – the Night Dynasty's Emperor had once gone out and favored a peasant woman, and he was the product of their union. Back then, none of the Ancestors had paid great mind to this and had forgotten about it afterward. They had never thought that such a thing would happen.

Of course, Ye Ningshuang did not support a Legatee of such low standing, who was not even one-tenth of what the previous Legatee was. Almost no one supported him, so they had all unanimously decided to kill him and have the Legacy Stone choose another Legatee.

Even though they wanted to kill him, they had failed every time. After hearing some information about him a few days ago, they had seemed to lost him. Now, he had written a letter to her.

Within the letter, he asked her to meet in the forest outside Nether City, as he had an important matter to discuss with her. He asked that she come alone, or he would leave.

Ye Ningshuang coldly laughed and understood what he wanted. He most likely wanted to officially become the Legatee through her. However, Ye Ningshuang had already decided to kill him. As someone who was at the apex of this pyramid, Ye Ningshuang had nothing to fear.

She quickly went to Nether City by herself, flew out to the forest outside, and quickly saw Ye Cang.

After seeing Ye Cang, Ye Ningshuang did not hesitate and sliced at the air with her finger. An extremely sharp and cold light gave off a terrifying power as it flashed through the air, reaching Ye Cang almost instantly. This cold light could instantly kill a Stage 3 soldier, and Ye Cang had no way of defending against it.

At that moment, a black-cloaked figure suddenly appeared in front of Ye Cang. The figure lightly waved their hand, easily blocking this attack.

Ye Ningshuang's expression became cold as she could sense that Zhao Fu's power was quite extraordinary. Just as she was about to unleash more of her power, Zhao Fu suddenly exploded out with strength. An incredibly terrifying aura rushed out, causing the surrounding temperature to drop.

This aura greatly startled Ye Ningshuang; she had never thought that this cloaked person would be so powerful. In fact, he seemed even more powerful than her – this was a trap, and she had been too careless. However, how could a peasant like Ye Cang have such a powerful person protecting him?

Ye Ningshuang suddenly thought of something and said coldly, "Sir, this is the Night Dynasty's business, so it's best that you Demon Path Sect people don't get involved."

Ye Ningshuang assumed that Zhao Fu was from the Demon Path Sect, but that was a good guess. With Ye Cang's identity, only the Demon Path Sect would help him. Perhaps they wanted to use him to control the Night Dynasty.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed but did not reply. He stretched out a hand as 36 stars appeared in the sky. The 36 stars gave off a shocking power, and in just an instant, the air around them seemed to freeze.

Ye Ningshuang's expression greatly changed, and she immediately tried to turn and run. She could not fight against this sort of power, as she could sense that each star represented the power of a City Lord Seal.

However, it was too late – the monstrous power from the 36 stars was like a massive mountain that smashed against Ye Ningshuang's body. She used all of her strength to try to block, but she was still sent crashing down from the air. At that moment, countless chains stretched out, binding her firmly and suspending her one meter in the air.

Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang and smiled as he walked over saying, “Ancestor, I’ll give you an opportunity to follow my orders and submit to me!”

Ye Ningshuang coldly glared at Ye Cang and said mockingly, “You think that you can become the Legatee of the Night Dynasty? You’re not qualified, and I won’t submit to you. I won’t let the Demon Path Sect have their way!”

Ye Cang started to wildly laugh, and he pointed at Zhao Fu as he said, “This person is not from the Demon Path Sect. He will only obey me, and soon, he’ll show your body what true pleasure is!”

Zhao Fu had Ye Cang speak like this to make him seem more mysterious in order to give him more power to control the Night Dynasty.

Hearing Ye Cang’s words, Ye Ningshuang felt quite surprised. If this person was not from the Demon Path Sect, where was he from? How was he so powerful? Was he an expert from another continent? But why would he obey Ye Cang?

Ye Ningshuang could not understand any of this at all, but hearing Ye Cang’s final sentence, she felt that she was in danger and started to struggle.

Zhao Fu came before Ye Ningshuang and looked at her beautiful face. He lightly laughed and caressed her face.

Ye Ningshuang struggled even more and said with a trace of killing intent, “If you dare to touch me, I’ll kill you and make you suffer a terrible death!”

Zhao Fu ignored her words; most of the women started off with such words but said the opposite later on.

Zhao Fu lowered his head and kissed Ye Ningshuang, and the Six Desires Demonic Qi streamed into her body. After struggling for a bit, Ye Ningshuang quickly got in the mood and passionately responded. Following this, Zhao Fu undid the chains and took off her clothes, and their bodies started to intertwine.

What surprised Zhao Fu was that Ye Ningshuang was still a virgin. She had maintained her purity for over 100 years, which was quite rarely seen.

However, now that the gates of pleasure had opened, Ye Ningshuang seemed to go crazy when assaulted by this flood of pleasure.

Chapter 734: Ye Family Bloodline

Ye Ningshuang's body madly tussled about with Zhao Fu, but he suddenly stopped just when she was feeling incredibly good. Ye Ningshuang tightly hugged Zhao Fu, a pleading look in her eyes. "Give me more, it's not enough!"

Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang to walk over. He had him lift up Ye Ningshuang's chin and turn her face towards him as he smiled, and he said, "Well? Ancestor, are you feeling very good? Are you willing to submit to me now? As long as you obey me and let me control the Night Dynasty, I'll have him give you pleasure every day!"

After Zhao Fu spoke through Ye Cang, he felt quite awkward. It was as if he was selling his own body.

Now that Ye Ningshuang was filled with lust and desire, she did not immediately refuse. She looked quite hesitant and reluctant, and she turned to look at the man she was hugging. Gazing at that handsome and beautiful face and sensing the noble and prestigious aura he was giving off, she understood that she could not leave him now. Moreover, right now, she felt so lustful that she could die.

"I agree to help you take control of the Night Dynasty, but you have to promise that the power will not fall into anyone else's hands. You have the Ye family's bloodline anyways, so giving you the Night Dynasty will be the same as giving it to the Ye family. Now, he'll belong to me and will be my man!"

Ye Ningshuang's voice was cold, and she suppressed the flames of desire within her as she spoke.

Zhao Fu inwardly laughed. The Night Dynasty was now within his hands, so how could he give it to anyone else. He controlled Ye Cang to reply earnestly, "I promise you that the Night Dynasty will never fall into anyone else's hands!"

Ye Ningshuang was satisfied with his promise, and she said coldly, "Please leave us for now!"

Zhao Fu understood that she did not want to do these things while someone else was watching, so he controlled Ye Cang to leave them. However, she would never have expected that Ye Cang was actually Zhao Fu.

As soon as Ye Cang left, Ye Ningshuang's cold face immediately became incredibly flirtatious, and she breathed raggedly and said, "Now, you can give me more, right?"

Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile and kissed her lips, and he started to fulfill her desires.

They went at it for an entire night, and afterward, Ye Ningshuang sweetly hugged Zhao Fu and no longer seeming cold at all. Instead, she said shyly, "You villain, why didn't you appear earlier? I had to wait all this time to enjoy pleasure like this!"

Zhao Fu laughed, "I never thought that you would be a virgin for so long!"

Ye Ningshuang lightly harrumphed, "Maintaining one's virginity is beneficial for one's Cultivation, and I never met a suitable man. As such, I kept my virginity all this time, but now, it's all been ruined by you."

Zhao Fu felt quite happy, and he hugged Ye Ningshuang as he said, "I'll treat you well, and I won't neglect you."

Ye Ningshuang sweetly smiled and tightly hugged Zhao Fu as she said curiously, "Honey, just who are you? You're so powerful, but you obey Ye Cang. Moreover, after doing these things with you, not only was my Cultivation not negatively affected, but it instead greatly boosted my Cultivation. What sort of secrets are you hiding?"

Zhao Fu lowered his head and kissed her, lightly stroking her back. "I'll tell you more in the future. Ye Cang's been waiting for a while now, so let's stop here and put on our clothes."

Of course, Zhao Fu could not tell her these things now. He had no idea what she would do if she knew his true identity and aim, so he decided to hide these things for now.

Ye Ningshuang was a bit dissatisfied, and she blushed as she said, “Then spend more time with me tonight!”

Zhao Fu lightly nodded, and only then did Ye Ningshuang get up and start putting on her clothes. Zhao Fu also put on his clothes, and after they were ready, then went and found Ye Cang.

Zhao Fu then controlled Ye Cang to start outlining the plan. He wanted to take control of the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World and the Night Dynasty in the real world.

Ye Ningshuang only controlled 10% of the authority in the Night Dynasty, and each of the other four Ancestors each controlled another 10%. Out of the other 50%, the Emperor held 20% of the authority, and the three other factions each controlled 10%.

After hearing Ye Ningshuang’s explanation, Zhao Fu felt that this faction was incredibly complicated. However, now that he had Ye Ningshuang’s support, he had 10% of the authority of the Night Dynasty.

Out of the remaining four Ancestors, even though one of them was a woman, she was already 290 years old and looked like a 70 or so year old granny.

Of course, Zhao Fu could not use the same method on her as Ye Ningshuang.

As such, he had to think of other methods. Zhao Fu planned to talk to some of the Generals of the various factions. Of course, there was no need to talk to ones who were completely loyal to the Night Dynasty; he wanted to find Generals who had different ideas to the Night Dynasty.

If he wanted to seize power, he had to first control the military, and Zhao Fu soon started to move.

Within a secluded room, Ye Cang sat as he watched a valiant-looking middle-aged man walk in. He smiled and stood up as he gestured at the chair beside him. “General Li, please have a seat!”

Li Chang felt quite furious and coldly glared at Ye Cang as he asked, “Where is my wife?”

In order to ensure that news did not spread and that the Generals would be willing to meet him, Zhao Fu had captured some of their family members to use as hostages. Even though this was quite shameless, it was the most effective method.

“Don’t worry; your wife is safe for now. I should introduce myself first – I am Ye Cang, the current Legatee of the Night Dynasty!” Ye Cang smiled as he introduced himself.

Li Chang’s expression changed, and he immediately understood Ye Cang’s goal, which was to seize power in the Night Dynasty. However, no one in the Night Dynasty acknowledged him, so he if helped Ye Cang, his entire family would be slaughtered. Helping someone like him was a crime deserving of such punishment.

As such, Li Chang immediately refused, “I will never betray the Night Dynasty, nor will I agree to your request. If you want money, I can give you as much as you want!”

Zhao Fu did not mind Li Chang’s response, because this was to be expected. He then controlled Ye Chang to say, “I know what General Li is worried about, but don’t worry. I already have 100% confidence to control the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World. However, the Night Dynasty in the real world is something that requires more consideration.

“I need your support to completely control the Night Dynasty; as soon as we succeed, I’ll immediately promote you by three ranks!”

Of course, Li Chang did not believe such words; he did not believe such a minor figure like Ye Cang would have such ability.

However, someone walked in, making Li Chang feel quite shocked. This person was the Night Dynasty’s youngest Ancestor, Ye Ningshuang.

By now, Ye Ningshuang had regained her cold composure, and she said, “General Li, there’s no need for you to worry about this. He is fully prepared, and I can promise you that you will be fine.”

Li Chang had never expected the Ye family’s Ancestor to stand on Ye Cang’s side. Immediately, Li Chang felt that a sinister plot was about to overshadow the Night Dynasty.

What should he do now? His wife was in their hands, and one of the Ancestors supported him. Moreover, he had the Ye family’s bloodline, and they seemed incredibly confident. What’s more, the Night Dynasty had no idea about any of this at all.

He was also the current Legatee, and if he was able to conquer the Night Dynasty City, he would be able to obtain ultimate authority. All of the Night Dynasty's residents and soldiers in the Heaven Awaken World would only obey him. Now that he had an Ancestor's help, it would be no problem for him to sneak into the Night Dynasty City.

Chapter 735: Operation Begins

After taking account of the various considerations, Li Chang decided to agree. Big changes were about to come to the Night Dynasty, and Ye Cang had a big enough advantage already. It was time to pick a side, and if he picked the right side, he would be promoted; if he picked the wrong side, he would die.

After Li Chang made this decision, Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang and smiled, and he sent off Li Chang. He then went to find other people to convince them to join Ye Cang – Ye Ningshuang was the greatest factor here, and without her, he would not be able to convince any of the Generals.

That night, Zhao Fu gave Ye Ningshuang a good reward, and it was the first time that she fainted. In the end, she slept until noon the next day.

Now, Zhao Fu controlled 70% of the Night Dynasty's military. The remaining 30% was controlled by Generals who were loyal to the death to the Night Dynasty. Zhao Fu had no way of convincing them, but by now, Zhao Fu already had the strength to seize power.

Three days later, everything had been prepared, and Zhao Fu began to carry out his operation. The Night Dynasty was still in a peaceful state and did not sense the darkness about to overshadow it at all.

That night, stars covered the sky, making it seem incredibly beautiful. The City Hall was heavily guarded by soldiers, but with Ye Ningshuang's help, these people were essentially useless. After all, Ye Ningshuang was one of the five Ancestors, so they naturally trusted her.

Zhao Fu, who controlled Ye Cang's body and easily entered the City Hall. Looking at the City Heart, he smiled and walked over, choosing to conquer it.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out throughout the entire Night Dynasty City, and a black pillar of light rushed into the sky. The entire Night Dynasty's Fate started to roil and gather towards the City Hall. These changes caused everyone to feel quite startled, and they all ran towards the City Hall.

The four other Ancestors immediately arrived, and looking at Ye Ningshuang blocking in front of them, they angrily asked, "Ningshuang, what's going on?"

Facing their angry glares, Ye Ningshuang sighed and said, "The Night Dynasty's Legatee has fully obtained the Legacy!"

"What?" The four Ancestors were infuriated. There was now a massive vortex in the sky, and a demonic dragon came out of the vortex and gave off a terrifying aura as it roared, seeming to shake the entire world.

The four Ancestors' expressions fell. They had never thought that Ye Ningshuang would help such a lowly person inherit the Night Dynasty. They were completely outraged, and they exploded out with power, rushing towards the City Hall.

The other City Lords sensed these massive changes and also rushed over.

Facing the four Ancestors, Ye Ningshuang looked quite worried, but she did not try to stop them because another person had already appeared beside her.

Zhao Fu directly unleashed all of his power, and his Great Qin Seal started to gather the power of the 300 other City Lord Seals. Starry lights representing the City Lord Seals appeared in the sky, and the power they gave off made it seem as if the sky was falling, and everything was locked down.

Everyone in the Night Dynasty City felt absolute terror, and their bodies uncontrollably trembled as if they had fallen into an icy cavern.

The four Ancestors and the Night Dynasty City Lords' expressions became grim. They had never expected this person to be so powerful.

One of the Ancestors yelled, "Hurry and activate the Demon Night Magic Formation. This person's extremely dangerous, and we can't stop him!"

Boom! Boom!

Two massive explosions simultaneously sounded out. One was the sound of a grand formation being activated, causing rays of shocking black light to erupt out. They brought with them a terrifying aura, and the Heaven and Earth Fate in the surrounding 10,000 kilometers started to quickly gather.

The other sound was the sound of the demonic dragon rushing down from the sky and entering Ye Cang's body. By now, Ye Cang had officially become the Night Dynasty's Legatee. A black jade seal rose out of one of the Ancestors' bodies, turned into a ray of light, and shot towards the City Hall. The Ancestor tried to stop it but was unable to do anything at all.

The terrifying magic formation suddenly stopped as City Lord Seals rose out of the Night Dynasty's City Lords. They could only watch in shock as the City Lord Seals turned into rays of light and flew towards the City Hall. All of the City Lords immediately lost the power of their City Lord Seals.

Under Zhao Fu's control, Ye Cang walked out with a big smile on his face as he looked at the people around him.

A few of the historical Generals and many of the residents immediately knelt, saying, "We greet Your Majesty!"

The four Ancestors and the ex-City Lords' expressions became extremely unsightly upon seeing this scene.

Even though the four Ancestors had lost their City Lord Seals, they were still immensely powerful and were still stronger than a City Lord of a Great City. However, they did not dare to act, because they feared Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu had the power of 300 or so City Lord Seals supporting him – how could his power not be terrifying?

One of the Ancestors was infuriated to the extreme, and his face was red with anger as he pointed at Ye Ningshuang and cursed, "You slut, you actually helped an outsider take over the Night Dynasty. I can't believe the Ye family raised you and cared for you for so many years!"

Zhao Fu's gaze became cold, and he raised a hand. Immense power gathered around him as he prepared to kill that Ancestor – now that Ye Ningshuang was his woman, he would not allow anyone to humiliate him.

Sensing that Zhao Fu was filled with killing intent, Ye Ningshuang hurriedly grabbed onto Zhao Fu and said, "Honey, don't kill them!"

Zhao Fu looked at Ye Ningshuang and coldly harrumphed before stopping.

At that moment, Ye Ningshuang said, "I didn't help an outsider; Ye Cang was already our Night Dynasty's Legatee and received the acknowledgment of the Legacy Stone!"

One of the Ancestors angrily pointed at Zhao Fu and said, "If you didn't help any outsiders, who is he? And you're even calling him 'honey.' You've lost all face for the Ye family..."

Bang!

Before she could finish her sentence, Zhao Fu waved a hand, and a massive formless energy smashed into her, causing her to fly out like a rubber ball. She was unable to resist at all, and seeing this, the three other Ancestors felt quite startled.

Ye Ningshuang's eyes were wet as she angrily hit Zhao Fu and said, "Honey, I said not to attack them, but you still attacked them!"

Seeing how upset and wronged she seemed, Zhao Fu felt a bit of an ache in his heart, and he hugged her. At the same time, he controlled Ye Cang to loudly laugh and walk out, saying, "I'll give you one last chance: will you surrender to me or not?"

The current Emperor of the Night Dynasty, Ye Canhong, who was Ye Cang's biological father, said furiously, "You unfilial son, you dare to ask me to submit to you?"

Zhao Fu did not feel angry at all when hearing this. Now that all of the higher-ups in the Night Dynasty were here, it would be good to capture them all in one fell swoop.

Traces of eerie ghostly qi started to spread out and covered everyone present. Everyone was quite alarmed, and they felt a chill in their hearts before the scene before them blurred, and they came into a world of ghosts with countless ghosts attacking them.

The three Ancestors were not simple at all; their eyes became hazed for just a moment before they broke out of the illusion, and they tried to flee the ghostly qi-filled region in terror.

Zhao Fu had already brought Ye Ningshuang out of the ghostly qi-filled region, and he looked at the three Ancestors who were trying to get away. He grabbed at the air, and three massive formless hands grabbed their bodies, making it impossible for them to move.

Chapter 736: Ruler of the Night Dynasty

Ye Ningshuang hurriedly cried out, "Honey, don't harm them!"

Zhao Fu did not kill them and only used his power to seal them, throwing them to the side afterward.

Ye Ningshuang let out a sigh of relief and looked at the ghostly qi-filled region below. She understood that Zhao Fu's identity was not simple at all. She could tell just from that dignified and domineering aura that he naturally gave off.

"Honey, just who are you?" Ye Ningshuang could not help but ask.

Zhao Fu saw that she could tell something and slightly sighed. He lightly put his arm around her slim waist and said earnestly, "I'm sorry, but I can't tell you right now. However, I promise that I will never harm you!"

Ye Ningshuang felt a warmth in her heart; this promise was enough for her.

Within the Dark Demon world's real world, the Generals who had submitted to Zhao Fu started to move. They had already heard that Ye Cang's plan had succeeded in the Heaven Awaken World. The change in power in the Night Dynasty was not something that could be stopped anymore, so they could only obey Ye Cang.

They took their people and rushed into the residences of the Ministers, who were all unconscious, and had them tied up. All of those who were loyal to the Night Dynasty, including Generals and the imperial family, were bound up.

These people were in the Dark Ghost World, and because they were still in battle, they could not exit the Heaven Awaken World. The Dark Ghost World was cast using the City Lord Seals of Great Cities, so those without City Lord Seals would not be able to escape it.

Now that everything was in his hands, Zhao Fu ordered for the Dark Ghost World to be canceled, and everyone who woke up received all sorts of system announcements. They quickly left the Heaven Awaken World but found that they had been tightly bound up.

Ye Canhong furiously shouted, “Who did this? I’ll have him chopped into a thousand pieces. I am the Emperor of the Night Dynasty; I’ll kill him!”

None of the soldiers by his side paid any attention to him; an Emperor without any power was nothing.

After the various Generals and Ministers who were still loyal to the Night Dynasty returned to the real world and saw this scene, they all sighed. They then returned to the Heaven Awaken World and knelt before Ye Cang, saying, “We are willing to serve Your Majesty!”

Things had completely changed – Ye Cang was not only the Legatee, controlling the Night Dynasty in the Heaven Awaken World, but he also controlled the Night Dynasty in the real world now. They could only submit, or else there would only be one outcome – death.

Of course, there was a small minority who was not willing to surrender. Zhao Fu did not show any mercy and ordered to have them all killed.

After this was done, Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang’s body to accept everyone’s surrenders. He then officially ascended to the throne and became the new Emperor.

The Night Dynasty’s ordinary subjects and soldiers had no idea what had happened – after waking up from their sleep, the power in the Night Dynasty had suddenly shifted. However, after hearing that the new person in power was the Night Dynasty’s Legatee, they did not oppose this, as it was someone from the Ye family anyways.

After Ye Cang ascended to the throne, he immediately enacted some laws that were beneficial to the common people, such as reducing taxes, promoting talented people, and punishing corrupted ministers, garnering much popular support.

The Night Dynasty's future seemed incredibly bright, and the various new laws made the ordinary people incredibly happy. Those who had submitted were also treated quite well, and the nation was in a period of stable development. All of the important people in the Ye family had been caught by Zhao Fu, so they were unable to start any rebellions.

This matter shook the entire world, and countless people were shocked to find that the master of the Night Dynasty had changed in a single night. The villager Ye Cang had actually become the ruler of the Night Dynasty, which was simply too surprising. Everyone wanted to know just how Ye Cang had done this.

The Demon Path Sect was also quite shocked about this matter. After all, Ye Cang had only been an Outer Court Disciple, and in the span of one night, he was now on equal grounds with them.

The most surprised within the Demon Path Sect was Mo Yao'Er. After finding out that Ye Cang was the new Legatee, she had been quite startled. However, she figured that the Night Dynasty would not acknowledge someone with such a lowly background, and as the daughter of the Sect Master, she had some ambition.

After hearing that the Night Dynasty was looking for the Legatee, Mo Yao'Er had leaked Ye Cang's information to them in order to do them a favor.

Mo Yao'Er had never thought that Ye Cang would really become the ruler of the Night Dynasty. Not only was he the Legatee, but he also took control of the entire Night Dynasty and became the Emperor.

When she thought of this, Mo Yao'Er's expression became quite unsightly. She had heard that because of her leaking the information, Ye Cang's entire village had been slaughtered, and he would definitely hate her for it. Thinking back to Ye Cang's lovey-dovey eyes when he looked at her, she felt quite regretful.

What should she do now? Should she go and ask for forgiveness? Thinking back to Ye Cang's intoxicated look, Mo Yao'Er still felt a bit of confidence. After all, she was the number one beauty in the Southern Continent, and every man wanted her. Even the previous Legatee had fallen in love with her for a while.

Mo Yao'Er was quite confident that Ye Cang would still be interested in her. However, she was the daughter of the Sect Master of the Demon Path Sect. The Demon Path Sect was a top-tier faction that was not any weaker than the Night Dynasty. If she just went and asked for forgiveness, wouldn't that be too shameful?

Mo Yao'Er continued to think about it. Ye Cang now controlled great power, and there was hatred between them. Even though she had not slaughtered his village, it had happened because of her.

In the end, Mo Yao'Er decided to discuss this with her father. This was not a small matter, and it might even cause a conflict between the Night Dynasty and the Demon Path Sect.

After hearing about this, the Sect Master Mo Xun thought for a while before saying, "Yao'Er, you did nothing wrong this time. Giving up an Outer Court Disciple's life to get a favor from the Night Dynasty was worth it.

"However, who would have thought that Ye Cang, with his lowly status, mediocre talent, and low Cultivation, would be able to become the ruler of the Night Dynasty. Right now, all factions in the Southern Continent are wondering about this. There has been no information leaked from the Night Dynasty, and I feel that this matter is not simple. Moreover, is Ye Cang really so infatuated with you that he would do anything for you?"

Hearing this, Mo Yao'Er gave a pleased smile and said, "Of course, father. Don't you know how charming your daughter is? I didn't even say anything and he told me that he was the Legatee.

"Back then, I said I wanted a Deon Celestial Flower. That silly boy spent more than a month and nearly died to get me one. I only said it casually and wasn't completely serious, but he actually did it."

A trace of a smile appeared on Mo Xun's face. "If he really is so infatuated with you, Yao'Er, you should try to control him. If you can control him, that will be equivalent to controlling all of the Night Dynasty. That will be a great help to our Demon Path Sect, and we will be able to use the Night Dynasty for our own purposes.

"However, Yao'Er, you must be careful. You need to test him first before doing anything; don't put yourself in danger!"

Mo Yao'Er smiled and nodded her head, and she confidently went to prepare.

Within the Night Dynasty, Zhao Fu gathered the women from the Night Dynasty's imperial family. Looking at all these beautiful women, Zhao Fu gave a trace of a smile. It was not a lewd smile but rather a smile of fulfilling a promise.

Chapter 737: Blood Moon

Zhao Fu looked at all of the imperial family's women. All of them were incredibly beautiful, and since this was an olden-style world, those in power could gather all of the beautiful women for their own purposes. This time, Zhao Fu had gathered 32 of them.

Zhao Fu did not capture the ones who were not as beautiful or were not as tied to the main branch of the imperial family, or else there would have been hundreds of them.

After all, the Emperor had many concubines, and there were also princesses. The other factions also had concubines and daughters, and there were too many of them.

Zhao Fu primarily captured them to fulfill his promise to Ye Cang. Zhao Fu was someone who kept his promises, and the women here were all the most beautiful and most closely related to the imperial family, so this would fulfill Ye Cang's request.

The first woman was Empress Qian. She had a very mature figure and delicate looks, looking incredibly enchanting. She was a classic mature beauty, and she was the previous Legatees' mother. After the previous Legatee died, she had lost power.

The second was Concubine Shui, one of the most beloved concubines of the previous Emperor. She was extremely beautiful and had a graceful demeanor. She had supple skin and gave off a weakly aura.

The third was Princess Ye. She was naturally incredibly pretty and was quite tall. She had a very intelligent aura, and though she was already married, she had been forcefully brought here. Her mother was also a beauty, so Zhao Fu also brought her over.

The fourth was called Princess Liu, and she was from one of the other factions. She looked quite domineering and had a pretty face and slim figure.

The fifth was called Princess Nan. She was quite beautiful and had a sweet and fair demeanor. She had snow-white skin and was a classic virtuous mother.

The sixth was Princess Nan's daughter. She was 16 years old and also had snow-white skin. She had a slim body and looked quite cute.

The seventh was Princess Nong. She had a pretty face and a sexy body, and she looked like a very flirtatious woman.

The eighth was called Princess Jiang, and she wore a green dress and had good looks. She looked cultured and refined and was most likely a scholarly woman.

Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang and sat above as he said, "The reason I called you all here is to announce that from now on, you are my women. If you serve me well, I will not harm you or your families!"

The women all gave different expressions; some had looks of submission because Ye Cang now controlled the greatest power in the Night Dynasty. If they disobeyed him, they would die, and their families would also suffer. Others were furious, as they were either concubines or princesses, yet he wanted them to serve him.

Princess Ye was the first to speak out. She angrily glared at Ye Cang and said coldly, "You licentious fellow, you dare to do such a thing? Don't you know that everyone here is related to you by blood? They're all your aunties, sisters, or cousins!"

Ye Cang loudly laughed, "Now you see me as family? Everything you've all done in the past, did you ever see me as family? I want to take revenge for everything you've all done."

As he spoke, Zhao Fu was influenced by Ye Cang's memories, and he felt quite angry and vengeful.

Princess Ye stood her ground, not showing any weakness as she said, "I would rather die than submit to you. I only have a single man, my husband!"

Ye Cang did not reply, and Zhao Fu smiled as he walked towards her. He was quite interested in such strong-willed women. Seeing Zhao Fu walk over, Princess Ye said sharply, "What are you doing?"

Zhao Fu did not answer her and instead directly hugged her and kissed her lips. Very soon, Princess Ye got in the mood, and the two of them started to go at it on the spot.

This caused the other women to feel incredibly disdainful. She had seemed pure and resolute before, but now, she was acting so lewdly.

Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang and picked up Empress Qian, his father's Empress. Technically speaking, she was his step-mother, but Zhao Fu did not care. He controlled Ye Cang to kiss her, and because Empress Qian had long since decided to submit, the two of them started to passionately kiss before also entangling together.

Because this was quite taboo, Empress Qian seemed to get quite into it and continuously begged for more. Zhao Fu had wanted to use Ye Cang's body to help him fulfill his request. After all, he had taken over Ye Cang's body in order to obtain the Night Dynasty.

It was a pity that Zhao Fu found that Ye Cang's body was not enough to fulfill Empress Qian alone. His body was not very strong and did not have much power.

After all, Empress Qian was the Empress of a dynasty, so she had a massive amount of Fate. She was not someone an ordinary man could deal with.

Currently, Zhao Fu was tussling about with Princess Ye's mother. Seeing Zhao Fu doing it with her daughter, she decided to take the initiative and give herself to Zhao Fu, taking her daughter's place.

Soon, she lay weakly on the ground, and Zhao Fu picked up the incredibly desperate Empress Qian. Empress Qian looked at the handsome man in front of her and started to kiss Zhao Fu because she knew that Zhao Fu could give her the pleasure that she wanted.

Zhao Fu kissed her back and pressed her against a table before starting to vigorously go at it with her.

Even though Zhao Fu and Ye Cang were a single person, Empress Qian had no idea about this, and it was as if she was doing it with two men, making her go crazy.

After finishing that extravagant ‘banquet,’ Zhao Fu placed the sleeping women onto a bed nearby and walked out of the room feeling refreshed.

Most normal men would be incredibly tired, but Zhao Fu was incredibly high-spirited; that was the power of a Celestial Art.

The Night Dynasty was now under Zhao Fu’s control, and he had taken the women from the imperial family. He had fulfilled Ye Cang’s first wish.

Zhao Fu planned to bring these women back to Great Qin. On one hand, they would be able to provide Phoenix Qi, and on the other, he wanted to use the Night Dynasty’s power to grow Great Qin. If the rest of the people found out that he had done it with the imperial family’s women, they would fight him to the death.

Now, Zhao Fu planned to declare that he had taken them hostage. Also, he did not want other people to touch the women he had been with.

Zhao Fu went outside and saw a blood moon in the sky. It seemed that the Dark Demon world’s moon was blood-red, and Zhao Fu looked at it curiously.

At that moment, Ye Ningshuang walked over and asked, “Ye Cang screwed all of those women?”

Zhao Fu smiled as he replied, “As promised!”

Ye Ningshuang coldly harrumphed and said somewhat angrily, “Was that promise for you to screw them?”

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and looked at her as he asked, “How did you know?”

Ye Ningshuang walked over and pinched Zhao Fu, saying, “You villain, you have so many women’s auras on you; do you think I wouldn’t notice? If you don’t satisfy me tonight, I’ll cut your thing off!”

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and hugged her before moans started to sound out.

The next day, Zhao Fu received a letter from Mo Yao'Er. The contents of the letter stated that she accidentally leaked the information about Ye Cang, and she felt incredibly guilty and apologetic. At the same time, there was a trace of flirtatiousness in the letter.

Chapter 738: Master

After reading through the letter, Zhao Fu thought about Ye Cang's second wish. If it was Ye Cang who had seen this letter, he most likely would have felt incredibly happy and excited. However, it was a pity that it was Zhao Fu who saw it.

Zhao Fu had long since known that it was Mo Yao'Er who had intentionally leaked Ye Cang's information to the Night Dynasty; it seemed that Mo Yao'Er was quite crafty.

In actuality, Ye Cang's experiences were quite similar to his: Both of them were 'outsiders' who had received a Dynasty's Legacy, but their outcomes had been incredibly different. Ye Cang had a pitiful end, as not only were his friends and family killed, but he himself was also almost killed.

On the other hand, Zhao Fu had become the most powerful person in his world. Back then, if he had stupidly run over to the Ying family, the same would have happened to him.

Thinking about Ye Cang's second wish, Zhao Fu used Ye Cang's memories to write an incredibly lovey-dovey letter in response and had people send it to the Demon Path Sect.

Following this, Zhao Fu went to a room where the four other Ancestors were. Zhao Fu controlled Ye Cang to walk over, smile, and bow, saying, "Greetings, Ancestors!"

Now that the four Ancestors were being placed under house arrest by Zhao Fu, they were naturally quite displeased. As such, they only coldly harrumphed and ignored Ye Cang.

Zhao Fu did not mind and said through Ye Cang, "Ancestors, since I've taken over the Night Dynasty and become its Emperor, I hope that you will continue to serve the Night Dynasty. I and the others will treat you with the same respect!"

Hearing Ye Cang's words, the Ancestors continued to coldly harrumph and ignore him.

Zhao Fu did not give up and said again through Ye Cang, “Aren’t you afraid that the Night Dynasty’s foundation of hundreds of years will be destroyed in my hands? I don’t care much about the Night Dynasty, and who knows? Maybe I’ll let it perish on its own!”

These words caused the four Ancestors to feel extremely furious. The Night Dynasty was their home and was the product of generations of hard work. It was their Ye family’s blood, the most important thing to them. Hearing Ye Cang say such a thing, of course they would be furious.

Ye Cang continued, “Ancestors, even if you don’t want to serve me, you need to think about the Night Dynasty. What you are serving is the Night Dynasty, and as long as you are willing to serve me, I promise that I won’t allow anything to happen to the Night Dynasty and will make it more powerful!”

The four Ancestors did not say anything and now had pensive looks on their faces. Ye Cang silently waited, and in the end, the five Ancestors decided to give in, and a smile appeared on Zhao Fu’s face.

Each Ancestor could resist eight City Lords, so four of them were equivalent to 32 City Lords. They were an incredibly powerful battle force, and having them submit was the most ideal situation. No faction would ever not lack high-end forces, and they would be a force to be reckoned with on the battlefield.

Seeing that they decided to submit, Ye Cang took out four Ginseng Fruits and gave them to the four Ancestors. Seeing the information of the Ginseng Fruits, the Ancestors’ expressions lit up. Now that they were at this age, what they needed most was lifespan.

After accepting the Ginseng Fruits, their attitude towards Ye Cang became somewhat better. Now, there were not as many factions in the Night Dynasty, and all of the power was held in Zhao Fu’s hands. Zhao Fu wanted to turn them into a single, mighty force and expand outwards.

The Night Dynasty currently controlled 12 regions, which contained 30 Great Cities and five Basic Cities. There was a great disparity between its strength and Great Qin’s strength, so they still needed to develop more.

Zhao Fu wanted to make the Night Dynasty into an incredibly powerful faction, turning it into Great Qin’s biggest pawn in the Dark Demon world. That way, he would be able to stealthily control things in the Dark Demon world. It was incredibly important to Great Qin in the future and the entire human world.

After dealing with these things, a few days later, Zhao Fu started to establish friendly relations with the surrounding nations. Right now, most of the Night Dynasty's forces were concentrated on conquering regions.

This caused the surrounding nations to feel quite relieved. They all felt a lot of pressure when facing the powerful Night Dynasty, and they all accepted the Night Dynasty's friendly conduct. Most of them also responded in kind, and the tension gradually decreased.

During these few days, Zhao Fu had been corresponding with Mo Yao'Er through letters. By now, Mo Yao'Er was certain that Ye Cang still deeply loved her, or else he would not write such lovey-dovey letters. As such, she proposed meeting up with him.

After reading this letter, Zhao Fu grinned; it was time to reap the harvest. He controlled Ye Cang's body and went to a bamboo forest.

Soon, a peerlessly beautiful figure walked over. She had a graceful bearing and skin as white as snow, and there was not a single blemish on her face. She wore a red dress, making her look incredibly captivating; she was someone who would be able to take the hearts of countless men.

Mo Yao'Er smiled as she walked into the bamboo forest. If she could control Ye Cang, she would be able to control the entire Night Dynasty. When she thought of this, Mo Yao'Er couldn't help but feel excited.

At that moment, Mo Yao'Er saw Ye Cang, and she tried to walk over. However, her body was frozen. She felt that Ye Cang was completely different – his eyes, when looking at her, did not have even a trace of love, and they were incredibly peaceful.

Mo Yao'Er felt that something was off and immediately tried to leave. However, the sounds of countless chains rang out, and she was quickly bound up by chains. This caused Mo Yao'Er's expression to fall, and she started to struggle. However, she could not break free, and her body fell to the ground.

Zhao Fu smiled as he walked towards Mo Yao'Er. Seeing that he had bound her with chains, Mo Yao'Er's expression became cold, and she cried out, "Don't you know who I am? I'm the daughter of the Demon Path Sect's Sect Master. Free me immediately, or I'll have your head!"

“Of course I know who you are!” Zhao Fu grinned as he squatted down and lifted her chin up.

Zhao Fu looked closely at Mo Yao’Er’s beautiful face, which was comparable to Wu Qingniang’s. She innately gave off a bewitching aura; no wonder Ye Cang had been so devoted to her.

Sensing Zhao Fu’s gaze, Mo Yao’Er’s expression became a bit afraid as she said coldly, “If you dare to do anything to me, I’ll kill you!”

Zhao Fu ignored her and lowered his head to kiss her lips. The Six Desires Demonic Qi entered her body, and after struggling for a few moments, she began to deeply kiss Zhao Fu back, and their tongues intertwined.

When Mo Yao’Er almost couldn’t breathe anymore, Zhao Fu finally let her go. Mo Yao’Er looked at Zhao Fu lustfully, a desperate look on her face.

“Do you want more?” Zhao Fu smiled as he asked.

Mo Yao’Er shyly nodded, but Zhao Fu did not do anything and said, “Call me master first!”

Hearing that this man wanted her to do something so shameful, Mo Yao’Er gritted her teeth and turned her head away, fighting against the boundless desire within her.

Zhao Fu lightly laughed as he stretched his hands into her clothes and started to move them about. In the end, Mo Yao’Er could not endure it and cried out, “Master!”

Following this, Zhao Fu gave her what she wanted and started to do it with her and discipline her in various ways.

In the end, Mo Yao’Er lay on the ground with her tongue out, begging for Zhao Fu to do it more with her. Zhao Fu had successfully made her into a sex slave, and seeing her like this, Zhao Fu sighed. He did not want to ever do this to a woman again.

Chapter 739: Conclusion of Adventure

However, this was to fulfill Ye Cang's wishes, and since Zhao Fu had made this promise, he had to fulfill it. Seeing Mo Yao'Er like this, Zhao Fu picked her up and went at it again before receiving her service afterward and slowly put on his clothes.

Mo Yao'Er also put on her clothes. Zhao Fu had planted a Six Desires Demonic Seed within Mo Yao'Er's body, which would cause her to remain incredibly excited at all times.

At the same time, it was quite beneficial to her, as she could also cultivate the Six Desires Celestial Art. However, it was only the very basic version and was not as powerful as the one Zhao Fu cultivated. However, it was still a top-tier Art that was immensely powerful.

"Master!" Mo Yao'Er affectionately said as she hugged Zhao Fu's arm after putting on her clothes.

Zhao Fu smiled and lightly patted her, while Mo Yao'Er looked incredibly happy. At that moment, Zhao Fu looked over at Ye Cang and found that there were tears leaking out of his eyes, making Zhao Fu feel quite confused.

What was going on? How could Ye Cang still cry? Wasn't he controlling him? Could it be that a part of his consciousness still remained?

Zhao Fu felt incredibly surprised, but the golden dragon explained, "It's most likely a reaction caused by his memories. However, seeing that his consciousness is gone and yet he can still have such a reaction, it seemed that he really loved this woman!"

After hearing the golden dragon's explanation, Zhao Fu looked at Mo Yao'Er, who was looking at him lovingly and felt quite complicated.

Looking at Zhao Fu, Mo Yao'Er said charmingly, "Master, do you want me to serve you again?"

As Mo Yao'Er spoke, she kneeled down and was about to undo Zhao Fu's pants again, but Zhao Fu stopped her and had her stand up.

Just then, she had told him all about how she had wanted to control Ye Cang and the Night Dynasty. Zhao Fu smiled and said, "Go back and tell your father that the plan was very successful and that the Night Dynasty is willing to ally with the Demon Path Sect, then bring two of the Ancestors out."

Zhao Fu had obtained all sorts of important information about the Demon Path Sect and wanted to use Mo Yao'Er to control it. If he could control the Demon Path Sect and combine the two massive factions, he would be able to create the biggest faction in the Southern Continent and fulfill another one of Ye Cang's wishes.

"Make sure you reward me properly then, master!" Mo Yao'Er said cutely as she hugged Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu smiled and nodded. The Demon Path Sect was a cultivation sect, so it had many powerful people. They had eight Ancestors in total, and if they could control two of the Ancestors, together with Mo Yao'Er, Zhao Fu could control a third of the power in the Demon Path Sect.

Of course, both of those Ancestors were women and ones Zhao Fu could do it with. Zhao Fu felt that the Six Desires Celestial Art was simply too powerful, and it was like a bug in a game. There was no woman who could resist it, and Zhao Fu felt that he really was becoming a licentious and lewd person like the ordinary people said he was.

If possible, Zhao Fu would have liked to have been a pure man, both in body and spirit.

However, things could not always go as he wished. For Great Qin, his subjects, and the entire human world, he could only become someone who he did not wish to become. In the end, Zhao Fu just wanted to be a good, pure man.

After tussling about with Zhao Fu again, Mo Yao'Er finally left.

After returning to the Demon Path sect, Mo Yao'Er sought out Mo Xun and smiled as she said, "Father, the plan was very successful. Ye Cang's willing to do anything I ask of him, and we can ally with the Night Dynasty, obtaining even greater gains."

Mo Xun was delighted and smiled as he nodded, saying, "Yao'Er, you've done well this time."

Mo Yao'Er lightly nodded, and thinking about the other task that Zhao Fu had given her, she said, "Father, if there's nothing else, I'll be going now."

Mo Xun looked at Mo Yao'Er as she left. She suddenly felt that his daughter had become even more enchanting, and her aura seemed to have become a bit more powerful. He felt a bit surprised, but Mo Yao'Er was the person he loved and trusted the most. He could give everything to her and fully trusted whatever she said.

As the daughter of the Sect Master, Mo Yao'Er was able to easily gain the trust of those two Ancestors and lure them into Zhao Fu's ambush, and they were soon captured by Zhao Fu as well.

Looking at the two women hanging in the air, Zhao Fu smiled. Mo Yao'Er affectionately hugged Zhao Fu's arm as she also looked at the two Ancestors in the air.

One of the Ancestors looked around 40 years old and had a very voluptuous figure. She had pretty looks and looked like a simple and honest person. She was called Pu He.

The other was incredibly beautiful and had a slim figure, and she wore a white dress that made her look like a celestial. She was called Shui Ruoliang and was someone from the same generation as Ye Ningshuang. Not only was she incredibly beautiful, but she was also incredibly talented and had become an Ancestor at such a young age.

It was said that Ye Ningshuang and Shui Ruoliang were rivals, and they often fought when they met. Zhao Fu had heard this from Mo Yao'Er, but he had never heard Ye Ningshuang mention it before.

The two Ancestors furiously looked at Zhao Fu and Mo Yao'Er, and one of them said coldly, "Who are you? Why did you suddenly attack us? Also, Mo Yao'Er, how dare you betray our trust and sell us out? Don't think that just because you're the Sect Master's daughter we won't dare to do anything to you. You're too impudent!"

Mo Yao'Er lightly harrumphed, "Ancestors, I'm helping you right now to experience the happiest thing in the world. Soon, you'll be thanking me."

"The happiest thing in the world?" The Ancestors felt quite confused and could not understand Mo Yao'Er's words. However, from Mo Yao'Er's lustful expression and lewd smile and seeing Zhao Fu walk over, they felt that the situation was quite grim. They immediately started to struggle and curse at Zhao Fu.

In the end, it was useless, and soon, three bodies rolled about and intertwined, and the two women continuously moaned before powerlessly collapsing to the ground.

Mo Yao'Er, who had been waiting to the side, impatiently leaped into Zhao Fu's embrace, and she said embarrassedly, "Master, hurry up and give me my reward!"

Zhao Fu smiled and started to do it with her too. Afterward, three women lay on Zhao Fu's arms. Pu He was not a virgin, while Shui Ruoliang was a virgin. Comparatively speaking, Pu He looked even more satisfied because she had gone on for longer. Zhao Fu had taken pity on Shui Ruoliang and did not do it with her for as long.

Mo Yao'Er coyly laughed, "Ancestors, I didn't trick you, right? Are you very happy? Shouldn't you be thanking master and me?"

Even though neither of them wanted to admit it, both of the Ancestors felt as if they were addicted to Zhao Fu. That feeling penetrated deep into their bones, and they could not shake off the feeling.

Hugging the three women, Zhao Fu felt as if he had sold his body. It was simply too tiring being a man. After cuddling for a bit, Zhao Fu got up and told the two Ancestors to work together with Mo Yao'Er from now on.

Now that the Night Dynasty's situation had stabilized and it had allied with the Demon Path Sect, it had become the most powerful faction in the Southern Continent, and there was not much for Zhao Fu to worry about anymore.

Even though the Dark Demon World still had the Eastern Continent, the Western Continent, and the Northern Continent, with their strength right now, they could not invade his world. For now, his Dark Demon world adventure had concluded.

Chapter 740: Level 3 Capital City

The Dark Demon world's World Protector also paid mind to the changes in the human world and discussed it with the other Legatees. However, they did not put the human world in their eyes at all and were instead incredibly condescending as if they did not see the human world as an opponent at all.

The matter about the Night Dynasty sent ripples throughout the Dark Demon world. All of the other Continents' factions investigated these things.

However, Zhao Fu kept a low profile, and their attention soon shifted elsewhere.

After all of this, Zhao Fu finally returned to Great Qin. Five months passed in the blink of an eye, and it had changed from Summer to Winter. It became cold again, and leaves fell off trees. Soon, two years passed in the Heaven Awaken World.

Time flew by incredibly quickly, and during those five months, Great Qin had cleared out 77 regions, causing Great Qin's strength to drastically rise.

Firstly, Great Qin had been a Level 1 Capital City, but it had risen by two levels, becoming a Level 3 Capital City. There were only three levels until it could become a Royal City. These were its Level 3 Capital City stats:

(231000/300000000)

3492950/80240000 892640/32482000

Village Special Stats: Territory Crop Output +220%, Territory Crop Growing Time -220%, Population Limit +145%, Residents' stats can randomly +16, Soldiers' stats +17%, Population Attraction +160%, chance of attracting higher grade population +160%.

Subsidiary Village Limit: 126,930

Subordinate Villages: Logue Village, Jean Village, Dorun Village, Li Family Village, Wolf Village, Ferocious Tiger Village...

It would take 300 million EXP to level up into a Level 4 Capital City, which was an astronomical amount of EXP. However, now that they had come so far, Zhao Fu was not too worried, and it would level up sooner or later.

Now, there were 108 regions that Great Qin completely controlled. It had 408 Great Cities, 20 Cities, 136 Towns, and 12,489 Villages.

Great Qin now had 420 million residents and 50 million soldiers. They now had 40 million Stage 1 soldiers, 1.2 million Stage 2 soldiers, 100,000 Stage 3 soldiers, and 6,000 Stage 4 soldiers.

This was Great Qin's terrifying strength; it could almost rival an entire country. Now, even if they didn't have the Reality-Harming Talismans, they would not be afraid of all of China's players attacking. That was how confident Great Qin was.

During this period of time, the natural disasters and chaos became even more intense, and with the good relations between Great Qin and the various system main cities, 52 system main cities joined Great Qin.

They all joined voluntarily without Zhao Fu having to bring out his army. This was all done through Great Qin's foreign affairs policies.

Zhao Fu was naturally very happy to be able to easily obtain 50 or so system main cities. At the same time, the ten or so regions near Great Qin became cityless regions.

This was because those nearby either became part of Great Qin or did not dare to stay there, and they could only move away. Great Qin had just finished clearing out 77 regions, and it obtained another 15, giving the soldiers more work to do.

Of course, clearing out regions now was not difficult anymore. Great Qin now had 50 million soldiers, and Zhao Fu split them into five teams. Each team was responsible for clearing out a region, and it took each team about five days to clear out a region. This way, they were able to clear out five regions in five days, which was an average of one region per day.

This speed was quite shocking, and the 15 regions took only 15 days to clear out.

Zhao Fu had also constructed thick defensive walls on the northern side that was bordering Vietnam. This allowed them to both attack and defend. However, Zhao Fu did not yet have any plans to attack Vietnam.

Vietnam was a relatively small country, and its territory only had 350 regions; Great Qin's territory was already one-third of Vietnam.

Now, Zhao Fu did not place Vietnam in his eyes at all. The main reason he did not want to directly attack was because he wanted to use the Vietnamese Guard. By now, the Vietnamese Guard had around ten million people, while Vietnam only had around 100 million people. In other words, the Vietnamese Guard took up around 10% of all of Vietnam's population.

With Zhao Fu's support, the Vietnamese Guard's strength had already surpassed the government's strength, becoming the most powerful faction in Vietnam. It was like a barrel of dynamite that could explode at any moment.

Right now, Zhao Fu did not intend on fighting. They already had friendly relations with the countless system main cities around them, so they naturally would not attack. They only had to wait for the situation outside to become worse and worse, and they would soon voluntarily join Great Qin without Great Qin having to expend a single soldier.

As such, they continued with these peaceful days, and the temperature became colder and colder. Zhao Fu and Shama's mother were currently doing it next to a fireplace within a room, while Shama's little sister and his aunty were asleep nearby.

Shama's mother loudly moaned, and her body fell limp. Zhao Fu picked up Shama's ex-fiancee and started to go at it. Shama had never touched this woman before, which suited Zhao Fu. Now, Shama's ex-fiancee started to passionately do it with Zhao Fu.

After Shama's ex-fiancee also fell asleep, Zhao Fu picked up Shama's sister-in-law. He still remembered how desperate and lustful she had been and decided to fulfill her properly this time.

After much tussling about, Shama's mother lay on Zhao Fu's chest and raggedly breathed, looking at Zhao Fu flirtatiously. "Your Majesty, the Maurya City's City Lord Seal can only be properly wielded by someone from the Maurya Dynasty's imperial clan. Please think about this!"

Zhao Fu gave it some thought and felt that this was indeed true. However, Zhao Fu wanted to make it a Capital City in the future, and City Lord Seals were used for fighting. A Capital City's City Lord Seal would be incredibly powerful, and he told these thoughts to Shama's mother.

Shama's mother said understandingly, "I understand, Your Majesty. Actually, Shama's little sister's archery is extremely powerful, and you can test her for yourself. I'm extremely confident that she can fulfill your requirements!"

Zhao Fu lightly smiled and said, "So that's why you called me over!"

Seeing that Zhao Fu did not seem angry, Shama's mother smiled happily and said, "Your Majesty, I'm your woman now, so I need to think of Great Qin's best interests. It's best to give the City Lord Seal to an appropriate person to unleash its full power."

Zhao Fu knew that Shama's mother was not telling the full truth, but he did not mind too much. If Shama's little sister could really fulfill his requirements, since she had the Maurya Dynasty's imperial bloodline, it would be good to give the City Lord Seal to her.

"I'll think about it!" Zhao Fu said.

Shama's mother felt quite happy and beautifully smiled, taking the initiative to passionately kiss Zhao Fu. She was doing her best to keep the Maurya Dynasty's imperial family alive, and soon, Shama's sister-in-law also rode Zhao Fu's body.

"System announcement! The Heaven Domain Boundary between the human world and the Fish Scale world has been damaged, and the two worlds' territories have been connected, triggering a special stage of the Chaotic World... the Race Invasion!"

"System announcement! During the Race Invasion Stage, both the attacking side and defending side will receive four times rewards for killing enemies."

"System announcement! The exchangeable rewards in the Chaotic World Stone Stele have been updated."
