

The Lord 811

Chapter 811: Human Ghost

As the system announcements sounded out, Zhao Fu felt a rainbow-colored light enter his body, making his body feel incredibly comfortable. It felt as if he was floating. At the same time, Zhao Fu felt his body start to give off a faint flower's fragrance.

After kissing Zhao Fu's forehead, the Flower Fairy lightly let go of him and slightly smiled before flying into the sky.

Zhao Fu watched as the Flower Fairy disappeared. Feeling that young woman's kiss, Zhao Fu felt a bit complicated; surely she wasn't just a creature created by the event.

The Flower Fairy's body started to become blurry and was about to become motes of light and disperse. However, at that moment, a black caterpillar crawled out of Zhao Fu's clothes and looked at the Flower Fairy in curiosity with its big black eyes.

Following this, it lifted its head and spat out a few thin threads that quickly flew towards the Flower Fairy. They wrapped around her, despite looking like they could not even bind up a worm.

However, the unimaginable happened – the Flower Fairy's body, which had started to become blurry, once again became clear and was dragged in front of Zhao Fu.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu felt quite shocked; he had never thought that such a thing would happen.

The black caterpillar happily leaped towards the young woman, and the young woman happily smiled as she caught it.

The little caterpillar was very happy in the young woman's hands, continuously rolling about energetically. It seemed to be much closer to her than Zhao Fu, who was its owner.

Zhao Fu watched this scene in surprise and waited for a while. However, even after a while, he found that the Flower Fairy still hadn't disappeared as if it was staying here for a while.

“System announcement! You have used illegal means to force the Flower Fairy to remain in the human world. The Flower Fairy’s stats have been greatly reduced, and all of her skills have disappeared. Note: Only the Level 8 Flower Fairy’s Blessing can cause the Flower Fairy to remain in the world.”

“Hahaha...” Zhao Fu could not help but loudly laugh; he did not think that something like this would happen – he had obtained the prize for the Level 8 Flower Fairy’s Blessing. After all, the Level 8 Flower Fairy’s Blessing required ten Mythic Flower Tears and was the final blessing.

Even though the Flower Fairy did not have any power and had reduced stats, that did not mean they would not recover. It was likely that she would be able to recover her power and stats.

However, this would take some time, but Zhao Fu felt that it would be worth the wait. After all, the Flower Fairy herself was a surprise, and Zhao Fu still did not know just what she was. However, as the ultimate reward from the Ten Thousand Flower Festival, she definitely would not be weak.

“Can you tell me about yourself?” Zhao Fu asked as he looked at the happily smiling Flower Fairy, wanting to know more about her.

However, the young woman looked up at Zhao Fu with her pure eyes, seeming not to understand what Zhao Fu was saying.

Seeing this, Zhao Fu felt quite confused and asked a few more questions but was unable to get anything out of the Flower Fairy, she seemed to have no memories at all, like a newly-born. Of course, she was unable to speak either.

After thinking for a while, Zhao Fu called over Asani and had her take care of the Flower Fairy. Their personalities were quite similar and they were similar in age, so Zhao Fu hoped they would be able to get along. The little caterpillar seemed to want to stick with the Flower Fairy, so it went with them.

After thinking about it, Zhao Fu understood why the little caterpillar liked the Flower Fairy so much – even though it was just a little caterpillar right now, in the future, it would become a butterfly. Butterflies loved flowers, so it was only natural that it liked the Flower Fairy so much.

It was almost 12 AM, and the second stage of the Ghost Festival was about to begin. Zhao Fu waited beside the Exchange Stone Stele, and because time was tight, he would deal with the items he had obtained later.

As soon as the second stage of the Ghost Festival began, Zhao Fu wanted to exchange for the professions he wanted. He had been waiting for this for an entire day, and he now felt quite excited and nervous.

By now, the three Saint Armament weapons had all been redeemed. It was not just Great Qin that had done well; others had made decent gains as well.

Even though he had not purchased anything from the Ten Thousand Flower Festival, Zhao Fu felt quite satisfied, as he had obtained many rare and valuable items from the event.

Suddenly, the entire world seemed to fall silent as all creatures instinctively sensed something and curled up in fear. Traces of ghostly qi rose up from the ground as an eerie aura spread out.

The moon in the sky gradually became grey-colored and gave off a chilling ghostly intent, making it seem like a ghost moon.

“Roarrrr!!” Terrifying howls sounded out as Ghosts started to climb up from the ground, and some floated about in the sky. The world seemed to have become a world of Ghosts.

The second stage of the Ghost Festival had hundreds of times more Ghosts than the first stage. They did not have to look everywhere for the Ghosts, and things were much more dangerous. If one was not strong enough, one would definitely die to the Ghosts.

The instant that the second stage of the Ghost Festival was released, Zhao Fu’s Flower Tear Points were converted into Ghost Points, and he immediately exchanged for two of the professions. He spent 1.4 billion Ghost Points and still had around 100 million Ghost Points left.

Zhao Fu had long since decided on these two professions: the Ghost Humans and Ghost Eyes.

The Ghost Humans were the most powerful profession out of the three professions, and it was something that Zhao Fu was set on obtaining. As for the reason Zhao Fu picked the third-ranked Ghost Eyes, it was because scouting abilities were very useful. He only had so many Ghost Points, so he decided to exchange for the two professions that were the most suited to Great Qin first.

As for the remaining profession, Ghostgod Soldiers, he had to earn more Ghost Points today in order to obtain it.

Zhao Fu went to the City God Temple, where Darknorth Red Autumn, the Black and White Impermanences, and the various Yin Soldiers were waiting. After having a lot of incense burned there, the City God Temple had already reached Level ten.

The City God, Darknorth Red Autumn, fully obeyed Zhao Fu's commands as it was Zhao Fu who had made him the City God, not the Ghost World. He could create a 100 meter tall City God image that had a very powerful evil-suppressing power and also use Yin Coins to hire 10,000 Yin Soldiers.

The reason Zhao Fu came here was, of course, to deal with the Ghost Festival. Back then, Zhao Fu used Allmonster Warding Talismans and Reversal Talismans to attract countless Ghosts over for them to continuously kill and obtain a large number of Ghost Points.

Now, Zhao Fu did not have any more Allmonster Warding Talismans and Reversals Talismans, and even if he did, the effects would be too weak.

Back then, Great Qin had only been a Basic Town and did not have a single City. Now, Great Qin had thousands of Cities and 160 regions. It would not be enough to use the methods they had used previously.

Chapter 812: Blood Devouring Magic Formation

However, Zhao Fu had an even better plan, which relied on the Black and White Impermanences. The Black and White Impermanences came from the Ghost World, and even though they were also part of the Death Race, they specialized in suppressing ghost creatures. As such, it was fitting for them to help with dealing with these Ghosts.

The Black and White Impermanences came from a large family in the Ghost World and had many techniques, such as that forbidden skill that summoned the Six Paths Demon Images; everyone had witnessed the Demon Images' world-destroying power.

It was a pity that they had been instantly killed by the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon, and the Six Paths Demon Images had remembered Zhao Fu's aura, making it impossible for him to summon them again. Otherwise, they would have been a powerful trump card for Great Qin.

“Your Majesty!” As soon as Zhao Fu walked into the City God Temple, everyone knelt and respectfully greeted him.

Zhao Fu lightly nodded and looked around before saying, “Are your preparations complete? Is there anything you may have missed?”

“Rest assured, Your Majesty, we’ve prepared everything already. If anything does not go according to plan, you can punish us as you wish!” Hei Xiaojie said as she gave a bewitching smile, putting emphasis on ‘punish,’ while Bai Xiaoxi stood there with a reddened face.

Zhao Fu ignored her words and took them to the Great Wall, which was already covered with all sorts of talismans. The Ghost Festival was quite a dangerous festival, so to avoid any unnecessary injuries and deaths, Zhao Fu had the residents all stay home.

The various Generals had long since been waiting here, and seeing that all the preparations had been made, he ordered his subordinates to start carrying out the plan. The soldiers started to pour buckets of blood down the walls – there were 100,000 wooden buckets of animal and human blood.

As countless buckets of blood were poured out, the smell of blood became incredibly dense. Following this, Zhao Fu activated a magic formation, causing the blood to start to roil as if it was boiling, causing traces of bloody qi to rise up.

This magic formation was called the Blood Devouring Magic Formation. Even though the Ghosts were all creatures created by the festival, they were very similar to ordinary Ghosts. They felt immense desire towards blood, and this Blood Devouring Magic Formation increased the attractiveness of blood, luring countless Ghosts over.

“Roarr!!” As soon as the Blood Devouring Magic Formation was activated, countless Ghosts smelled the smell of fresh blood and howled as they excitedly rushed over. It was as if they had smelled the most delicious food in the world.

The countless Ghosts in the air were also attracted over by the blood, gathering together to form a massive ocean that covered the sky.

On the ground and in the sky, two terrifying waves of Ghosts rushed towards the Great Wall. Their terrifying auras seemed to be able to topple mountains and seas, and they spread throughout the surrounding tens of thousands of kilometers

Great Qin had been waiting for this – City God Darknorth Red Autumn stood at the center of a massive magic formation with the Black and White Impermanences on either side and 10,000 Yin Soldiers standing around the magic formation. Around them stood Great Qin’s countless soldiers, around 100 million of them in total.

“I, Great Qin’s City God, Darknorth Red Autumn, have been ordered by Great Qin’s Majesty to open the Ghost Gates. Ghost-restraining powers, help me to return this world to peace!”

As Darknorth Red Autumn yelled out, his body gave off waves of golden light, and his body became 100 meters tall, giving off a dignified and solemn aura. He seemed like a real god, and as countless Ghosts came near, their bodies dissipated, unable to retaliate at all.

On either side of Darknorth Red Autumn, the Black and White Impermanences slashed their palms and pressed them against the ground, activating the massive magic formation on the ground, and a massive cold aura spread out.

Standing on the edge of the magic formation, the 10,000 Yin Soldiers gave off powerful auras, their bodies streaming with ghostly qi as they yelled, “We are Yin Soldiers of the Ghost World, and we have been ordered by Great Qin’s Majesty to use our bodies to summon the Ghost Gate!”

Boom!!

After the 10,000 Yin Soldiers shouted out, the ghostly qi around their bodies was absorbed into the ground, causing a massive explosion to sound out. An even more intense wave of ghostly qi burst forth out of the ground like a volcanic eruption, shooting into the sky and forming an enormous pillar of ghostly qi.

Great Qin’s soldiers all squatted down and pressed their palms against their ground, sending their strength into the magic formation.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

Explosions continuously sounded out as the pillar of ghostly qi continuously became larger. Soon, it was tens of thousands of meters wide, and the dense ghostly qi it gave off made those nearby involuntarily shiver.

At the center of the pillar, there was a massive set of stone doors. There were countless ghosts and monsters carved on the stone doors, looking incredibly ancient. The stone doors brought with them a solemn and powerful aura, giving off the might of a mountain.

Seeing the enormous stone doors, the Ghosts rushing towards Great Qin innately felt a wave of fear, and some Ghosts even wanted to escape.

“Ghost Gate... Open!” Darknorth Red Autumn raised the spear in his hand as he roared out, causing the terrifying stone doors in the sky to slowly open. An incredible suction force was unleashed, and it was as if it could suck in the entire world.

The countless Ghosts’ excitement became horror as they quickly retreated, but they were still sucked into the stone doors. At the same time, rocks and trees were also lifted up and sucked within the stone doors, creating a terrifying scene.

Whether they were normal Ghosts or the terrifying Sky Ghosts, none of them had the power to resist as they were sucked into the stone doors; the stone doors were like a massive beast that had opened its jaws, devouring everything.

At the same time, the stone doors had a barrier that left behind the Ghost Treasure Sacks, which fell down from the sky like rain. In Zhao Fu’s eyes, it was like watching a rain of money.

There was now a mountain of Ghost Treasure Sacks, and even if they were useless to Zhao Fu, if they sold them, it would definitely bring in a massive amount of money.

Zhao Fu’s Ghost Points rapidly accumulated, and soon, he would be able to exchange for the remaining profession.

The terrifying ripples here attracted over countless powerful Ghosts as well, and at least hundreds of Ghost Generals headed over. These Ghost Generals all had the strength of the Slaughtering Ghost – Zhao Fu’s Slaughtering Ghost Sword.

These Ghosts' grades were all quite high, and their intelligence was not low either. They naturally did not come too close. From a distance, the stone doors could not affect them. As such, Great Qin needed to send out City Lords to kill them.

However, most of these Ghost Generals had strength equivalent to the City Lord of a Basic City, if not even less, so it would be quite easy for the City Lords of Great Cities to kill them.

What made Zhao Fu even happier was that he found that a few Ghost Commanders had come as well. Ghost Commanders ranked above even Ghost Generals, and they were comparable to the City Lords of Great Cities. The rewards from them would be even better, and Zhao Fu became exciting just thinking about it. Following this, Zhao Fu brought along Bai Qi and Ge Nia and shot forwards.

Chapter 813: Ghost Commander

These Ghost Commanders all looked like well-built men with gray eyes, and they had armor that was shrouded with ghostly qi. They all held different weapons that were all gray-colored, and they gave off faint lights and a chilling intent.

Their strength was comparable to that of City Lords of Great Cities, and if it was before, they would have been able to easily sweep through Great Qin. Now, if it wasn't for the fact that Zhao Fu was afraid that they would run away, he would have dealt with them himself.

Zhao Fu's gaze fell on a sword-wielding Ghost Commander, and he took out his Sin Dragon Sword. A massive sword light, filled with immense sharpness and giving off a terrifying sword wind, slashed towards the Ghost Commander.

The Ghost Commander roared and gave off a large amount of ghostly qi as it raised its sword with both hands, vigorously slashing out a gray sword light towards Zhao Fu in response.

Bang!

An explosion sounded out as the two sword lights collided. The gray sword light was instantly shattered by Zhao Fu's sword light, turning into countless motes of grey light, while Zhao Fu's sword light continued onwards towards the Ghost Commander.

The Ghost Commander seemed to be surprised, and it quickly used its sword to block in front of its body but was still sent flying ten or so meters. By now, the Ghost Commander knew that it was not a match for Zhao Fu, and it quickly escaped.

Zhao Fu rushed up, ferociously slashing out and once again sending the Ghost Commander flying. He did not give the Ghost Commander another opportunity to retaliate and cut its head off with a clean strike.

After the Ghost Commander died, it dropped three items.

The first was a Ghost Treasure Sack, which would most likely give low-quality Legendary grade equipment. The second was a square stone that was about seven centimeters wide, which was a complete City God Stone.

The City God Stones that Zhao Fu had acquired in the past were actually all fragments, and he needed ten of them to create a City God Temple. However, this was a complete City God Stone, so he did not need to collect ten. However, its grade was quite low, being only a Silver grade City Temple.

Zhao Fu was familiar with both of these things, so he did not look into them, but he felt quite curious about the third item.

It was a gray seal that was as big as a palm and seemed to be made out of jade. It was icy to the touch and there was a picture of a Tao Tie engraved on it, which looked incredibly real. It gave off traces of ghostly qi and gave off a powerful aura.

[Ghost Commander Seal]: A treasure of command in the Ghost World that was created by gathering boundless Yin Qi. It can command 100,000 Ghost Soldiers to serve the user.

Looking at this Ghost Commander Seal, Zhao Fu could not help but loudly laugh. This was definitely a treasure, and it was very useful to Great Qin.

Ghost Soldiers were created by making deceased soldiers into ghosts. They no longer had their memories from when they were alive, only had their combat abilities, and they were extremely strong.

Zhao Fu could convert Great Qin's deceased soldiers into Ghost Soldiers and use the Ghost Commander Seal to command them. Even though they would not have any of their memories or emotions, as their strength grew, it was possible for them to regain their memories and emotions. It would be equivalent to gaining another life.

With this, Great Qin's deceased soldiers could become Ghost Soldiers and continue to serve Great Qin and have another chance at life.

This was a treasure that was extremely valuable to Great Qin; after all, people were bound to die in battle – this was something that no one could change. However, at least this way, the number of soldiers Great Qin lost would be greatly decreased.

Zhao Fu grinned as he put away the three items and looked over at Bai Qi and Ge Nia, who had also successfully killed Ghost Commanders and obtained three items as well. Following this, the three of them returned to the Great Wall.

Zhao Fu expectantly went over to see what the Ghost Generals dropped, but he was left disappointed – they only dropped Ghost Treasure Sacks and City God Stone shards, not any Ghost Commander Seals.

However, commanding 100,000 Ghost Soldiers with a single Ghost Commander Seal was already quite good; hoping that the hundreds of Ghost Generals would drop Ghost Commander Seals as well was a bit greedy and unrealistic.

The surrounding Ghosts were devoured by the Ghost Gate, just like how a whale sucked in a massive amount of water. The countless Ghosts could not resist at all, and the Ghost Treasure Sacks now formed many small mountains, numbering in the hundreds of millions.

This completely made up for the disappointment that Zhao Fu had felt earlier; Great Qin would become rich from the Ghost Festival. All of the materials, skills, and equipment would greatly fuel Great Qin's development.

Now, because there were no longer any Ghosts remaining, they closed the Ghost Gate. However, the stone doors giving off a terrifying aura in the sky did not disappear, as they continued to maintain it while waiting for the next wave of Ghosts to arrive.

Blood Devouring Magic Formation made from the 100,000 buckets of blood was not something that only lasted for a short while; rather, it continued to attract Ghosts, and as the bloody qi quickly spread, more and more Ghosts were attracted over.

Some more time passed, and another massive tide of Ghosts arrived, giving off an enormous aura and flooding towards the Great Wall.

Boom!!

An explosion rang out in all directions as the massive stone doors were once again opened, exploding out with an immense suction force. Countless Ghosts were sucked into the stone doors, and their Ghost Treasure Sacks continuously rained down.

If an outsider saw this scene, they would be incredibly shocked – after all, it was incredibly difficult for others to obtain even one Ghost Treasure Sack, and they had to risk their lives for it. However, Great Qin did not have to risk any injuries or deaths to obtain this rain of Ghost Treasure Sacks. Other people would feel great admiration and envy.

At that moment, a look of delight appeared on Zhao Fu's face as he discovered another two Ghost Commanders. There were also 200 to 300 Ghost Generals moving towards Great Qin.

Without Zhao Fu having to give out orders, everyone started to move out. Ordinary City Lords were responsible for killing Ghost Generals while Zhao Fu, Bai Qi, and Ge Nia were in charge of killing the Ghost Commanders.

After a short while, Zhao Fu had obtained another two Ghost Commander Seals, bringing the total to five. Great Qin could now convert and command 500,000 Ghost Soldiers.

After countless Ghosts were devoured by the Ghost Gate, the Ghost Gate once again temporarily stopped its operation, and they all waited for the next wave of Ghosts.

Soon, another wave of Ghosts was attracted over. What made Zhao Fu feel pleasantly surprised was that apart from four Ghost Commanders, there was an even stronger Ghost this time. Its entire body was shrouded in ghostly qi, and only its blood-red eyes could be seen, giving off an incredibly terrifying aura.

This creature that was even more powerful than Ghost Commanders was a Ghost Marquis, which could fight against ten City Lords. It was on the same level as Bai Qi and Ge Nia, and it required Zhao Fu to deal with it.

Zhao Fu turned into a ray of light and rushed towards the Ghost Marquis, while everyone split off to deal with the Ghost Commanders and Ghost Generals. The stone doors once again opened, and a battle once again unfolded.

“Roarr!!” The Ghost Marquis was quite powerful, forcing Zhao Fu to become serious. He rushed up, his Sin Dragon Sword giving off a brilliant light as he sent out a massive water dragon towards the Ghost Marquis on the ground.

Bang!

Just as the water dragon was about to hit the Ghost Marquis, the Ghost Marquis stretched out a hand and a gray spear appeared in its hand. It stabbed forwards with the spear, causing an explosion to sound out as a formless spear light pierced through the water dragon, turning it back into water.

Chapter 814: Ghost Marquis

At that moment, Zhao Fu pierced through the water like an arrow and arrived before the Ghost Marquis, raising his sword with both hands before slashing down.

Clang!!

The Ghost Marquis gripped its spear with both hands as it blocked. As the Sin Dragon Sword collided against it, the sound of metal colliding could be heard as the massive power of both sides rippled out as a shockwave and destroyed the ground.

Zhao Fu held his sword with both hands, pressing down towards the Ghost Marquis. The Ghost Marquis roared and exploded out with even denser ghostly qi before pushing up with its arms and sending Zhao Fu flying backwards.

The Ghost Marquis grasped this opportunity to hold its spear in one hand and stab at the air. An incredibly sharp, gray airflow gave off an immense piercing power as it tore through the air and shot towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu's gaze became cold, and he slashed out, sending out a sword light that destroyed the gray airflow.

"Hah!!" the Ghost Marquis shouted out as it stomped on the ground, causing it to crack. Its body shot out like a cannonball towards Zhao Fu, its spear aiming for Zhao Fu's throat.

Zhao Fu sent his Emperor's Power into the Sin Dragon Sword, causing a clear sword hum to sound out. The Sin Dragon Sword gave off a massive amount of sword light as a sharp sword wind started to blow.

The Sin Dragon Sword gave off a resplendent sword light and a boundless sword qi as it slashed out like lightning, sending out a massive sword light that contained immense destructive force. The Ghost Marquis was caught offguard by such a fast attack and was blasted back to the ground, opening up a big crater.

"Arghh!" The Ghost Marquis seemed to be completely infuriated as the ghostly qi around its body was absorbed into it, revealing its incredibly pale skin. Its aura was even stronger than before, and just its massive might alone was not something that ordinary City Lords could withstand.

Boom!!

The Ghost Marquis' spear swept out, sending out a massive crescent. The enormous power caused the air to explode, and the crescent quickly flew towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu flipped in the air, avoiding this attack, then tapped off the air and shot at the Ghost Marquis like a meteor, sending all of his power into the Sin Dragon Sword.

"Roar! Roar! Roar!"

Three massive dragon roars sounded out as the Sin Dragon Sword instantly created three 100 meter long water dragons, giving off a shocking aura as they slammed towards the Ghost Marquis.

Boom!!

An explosion sounded out in all directions as the three water dragons slammed into the Ghost Marquis, causing the ground to crack. A massive crater that was dozens of meters wide was blasted open, causing dust to fill the air and obscure one's vision.

Suddenly, thousands of gray swallows flew out towards Zhao Fu incredibly quickly, reaching him in an instant. Zhao Fu was greatly startled and quickly unleashed his Emperor's Domain.

Bang! Bang! Bang...

As the gray swallows flew into the black dragon inscription barrier, loud explosions rang out. Each of the swallows had enough power to kill a Stage 1 soldiers, and as the thousands of swallows exploded, the entire sky was filled with gray light and ghostly qi.

After the ghostly qi dissipated, Zhao Fu stood there completely unharmed, but his Emperor's Domain had been shattered. It turned into motes of black light and disappeared.

A figure suddenly appeared in front of Zhao Fu, vigorously stabbing towards Zhao Fu with its spear. Zhao Fu blocked the Ghost Marquis' spear with his sword, and just as he prepared to counterattack, ghostly qi gathered behind the Ghost Marquis, forming a ghostly figure that slammed into Zhao Fu and sent him flying ten or so meters.

Zhao Fu felt an immense pain on his chest as if he had been hit by an iron hammer. He coldly harrumphed and raised the Sin Dragon Sword, sending a sword light shooting into the sky. Countless traces of water vapor gathered, forming tens of thousands of water swords that gave off an incredible sword aura.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh...

Zhao Fu slashed down with the Sin Dragon Sword, and the countless water swords also slashed downwards. The Ghost Marquis seemed to be quite startled and unleashed a gray energy barrier.

Bang!

As the countless water swords descended, the gray energy barrier exploded, giving the Ghost Marquis a great fright. It quickly spun its spear around, blocking countless water swords.

A searing white light shot into the sky, causing the surrounding ghostly qi to melt away like it was snow under intense sunlight. Zhao Fu raised the Seraph Sword high as an angelic figure appeared, giving off a pure, white light. After receiving immense power, the Seraph Sword continuously trembled and gave off a blinding sword light.

Boom!!

Zhao Fu slashed out, causing a white sword light to blast away the Ghost Marquis, which was still dealing with the water swords. It heavily crashed to the ground, a large gash in its armor, and a large amount of ghostly qi flowed out. The Ghost Marquis' aura weakened, as if it had been heavily injured.

It seemed that the Seraph Sword was better suited for this fight; after all, Holy Light energy could suppress Ghosts, and Zhao Fu should have used this sword from the start.

“Roarr!” the Ghost Marquis roared and stood back up. Zhao Fu did not give him a chance to attack anymore, and he rushed up stabbed forwards. The heavily-wounded Ghost Marquis took a fatal blow as its throat was pierced by Zhao Fu's sword, and it fell to the ground, dead. Its body turned into ghostly qi and disappeared, leaving behind four items.

One of the items was a Ghost Treasure Sack, and one of the others was a complete Gold grade City God Stone. Zhao Fu knew what they were, so he did not pay much attention to them, looking at the third item.

It was another square seal that was bigger than the Ghost Commander Seal. It was also made of gray jade and gave off an eerie, chilling aura. There was a Ghost Flood Dragon engraved on it, which was incredibly exquisite, and it looked as if it was alive and gave off a ferocious, savage aura.

[Ghost Marquis Seal]: A Ghost Marquis Seal that has a Ghost Marquis' aura. It is a command treasure in the Ghost World and was created by gathering boundless Yin Qi. With this seal, one can command one million Ghost Soldiers.

The Ghost Marquis Seal was evidently much more powerful than the Ghost Commander Seal. Just the might and quality of the ghostly qi was superior to the Ghost Commander Seal's, and it naturally suppressed Ghost Commander Seals.

Moreover, the Ghost Marquis Seal could allow one to command one million Ghost Soldiers, which was ten times more than a Ghost Commander Seal. It was equivalent to ten Ghost Commander Seals.

The final item was a gravestone that was six meters tall and 1.5 meters wide. It was made out of some kind of solid rock and gave off traces of ghostly qi and an aura of suppression. There were three words engraved on it: Marquis Yan Grave!

[Ghost Marquis Gravestone]: A Marquis' gravestone that has absorbed a large amount of Yin Qi and killing intent to form a treasure. It can gather Yin Qi and killing intent and contains a Ghost Marquis Domain, which can strengthen Ghost Soldiers.

This made Zhao Fu feel incredibly delighted. He had been quite eager to create Ghost Soldiers. This Ghost Marquis Gravestone could gather Yin Qi and killing intent, and the Ghost Marquis Gravestone could strengthen Ghost Soldiers too.

Everything Zhao Fu needed had been delivered to him. With this Ghost Marquis Gravestone, Zhao Fu could create even stronger Ghost Soldiers, helping Great Qin sweep across the world.

Time passed quite quickly, and soon, it was 6 AM. Even though it was nearly dawn, the sky was still quite murky, and the ghostly moon still high in the sky, giving off a chilling moonlight. There did not seem to be any signs of daybreak, and it was most likely that things would remain like this for the entire day.

Chapter 815 - Ghost King

Zhao Fu smiled as he stood in front of the Exchange Stone Stele because the number of Ghost Points Great Qin had obtained was enough to exchange for the final profession. Seeing that the Ghostgod Soldier profession had not been exchanged for, Zhao Fu naturally felt quite happy.

After choosing to exchange for the Ghostgod Soldier profession, a gray Profession Change Stone Stele appeared before Zhao Fu. The Ghost Festival's three professions had all fallen into Great Qin's hands, and Zhao Fu could now relax.

However, tomorrow was the second stage of the Divine Fish Festival, which could give special Cities: Celestial City, Sword Mountain, and Holy God City, all of which were Legendary grade Cities.

Zhao Fu greatly wanted these three Cities, so he did not relax after obtaining the three professions. He continued to work hard in order to prepare Divine Fish Points for the next day.

The only thing that Zhao Fu was worried about was that the Ghost Festival was a collective event, which allowed a faction to pool together its Ghost Points. However, the Divine Fish Festival was an individual event, and Divine Fish Points could not be exchanged. Zhao Fu wondered if Ghost Points could be converted into Divine Fish Points and what the conversion would be.

With the number of Ghost Points he had now, even if it was a 10:1 conversion, Zhao Fu would be able to easily take the three Cities.

Zhao Fu was mostly worried about the Ghost Points not being able to be converted into Divine Fish Points. It was likely that the number Zhao Fu had earned himself would be converted into Divine Fish Points, while the Ghost Points he had received from others would be lost.

It was very possible that this would be the case because the cost for the three Cities was simply too cheap. It was also likely that the second stage of the Divine Fish Festival would be an individual event again.

Zhao Fu felt that he needed to kill more Ghosts and obtain more Ghost Points; that way, he would feel more confident that he would be able to obtain the three Cities. He did not rest at all, and after exchanging for the profession, he returned to the Great Wall and started killing Ghosts again.

Time quickly passed, and soon, it was 7 PM. The sky was just as gloomy, and after much battling, there were some light injuries on Zhao Fu's body from killing so many Ghosts.

Over the past ten or so hours, Zhao Fu had killed 136 Ghost Generals, 18 Ghost Commanders, five Ghost Marquises, and countless other lower-grade Ghosts. The number of Ghost Points he had obtained was simply shocking; after all, killing a Ghost Marquis gave ten million Ghost Points.

However, there were not many Ghost Marquises, and they were all incredibly powerful, making it quite difficult to kill them.

At that moment, Zhao Fu sensed something and looked to the horizon. A gray layer of clouds, giving off an extremely powerful eerie and cold aura, was drifting towards Great Qin.

Rumble...

A massive sound could be heard as the ground started to shake. Ghost Soldiers wearing ghostly armour and holding ghostly weapons rushed at Great Qin, followed by other sorts of Ghosts, forming a shocking ocean of Ghosts.

What drew Zhao Fu's attention was that at the back of the ocean of Ghosts, there was a chariot drawn by nine Ghost Horses with a single figure sitting on it.

That figure was dressed in a gray and gold dragon robe and had a crown on its head. There was a ghostly sword at its waist, and it gave off a King's aura. The majestic and terrifying aura it gave off caused the Ghosts around it to treat it with immense respect – this was definitely a Ghost King!

Apart from this Ghost King, there were also four Ghost Marquises and a few Ghost Commanders and Ghost Generals. Zhao Fu decided to deal with the Ghost King, leaving the Ghost Marquises to Bai Qi, Ge Nia, and a few other City Lords, while the rest of Great Qin's City Lords fought the Ghost Commanders and Ghost Generals.

Now, Great Qin had 1,400 City Lords, which was much more than before, so there was no need to worry.

The Ghost Gate once again opened, and it gave off a shocking attractive force and devoured all the Ghosts that came too close.

Zhao Fu took out his Seraph Sword and slashed out a searing sword light towards the Ghost King. The Ghost King drew the sword at its side and rushed up to meet Zhao Fu in battle.

Boom!!

The searing white light and the ghostly qi collided, resulting in a massive explosion. A terrifying shockwave rippled out, causing the ghostly qi in the surrounding 10,000 kilometers to be blasted away, creating a vacuum. The dark, oppressive clouds in the sky also disappeared.

Because of the massive shockwave, both parties were blasted back 100 or so meters. Zhao Fu's expression became quite serious because this Ghost King's strength surpassed that of an Aquatic Beast King.

Shing!

A clear sword hum sounded out as the Ghost King's gaze became cold, and it gave off an eerie killing intent as it slashed out with its sword. A massive amount of ghostly qi flooded out, turning into a ferocious ghost dragon that flew towards Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu continuously sent his power into the Seraph Sword, which trembled and also gave off a sword hum. It gave off blinding rays of white light that illuminated the surroundings as a shocking Holy Light energy gathered.

“Roarr!” the ghost dragon opened its mouth and roared as it rushed at Zhao Fu. In response, Zhao Fu slashed out, the blinding sword light seeming to tear space apart as it flashed out in an instant and cut the ghost dragon from head to tail.

However, the ghost dragon did not disappear after being cut in half and turned into two gusts of ghostly qi that slammed at Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu did not expect this, so he was unable to react in time and was sent flying.

Zhao Fu quickly stabilized his body in mid-air, a trace of blood leaking from his lips. The Ghost King once again attacked, its sword giving off a terrifying sword light as it slashed at Zhao Fu.

Zhao Fu dodged to the side, avoiding this attack, while his left eye stared at the Ghost King and the golden pupil started to spin.

Immediately, countless chains shot out from the air around the Ghost King, giving the Ghost King a big fright. It roared as a powerful aura exploded out from its body, and it spun its sword as an extremely sharp tornado of sword qi slashed the space around it.

Clang, clang, clang...

The sound of metal colliding sounded out as the countless chains shooting towards the Ghost King were instantly reduced to segments and fell from the sky.

However, at that moment, a figure suddenly appeared behind the Ghost King's back and slashed out, sending out a burning white sword light that slammed the Ghost King to the ground. The scene was like a meteor crashing into the ground, blasting open a 100-meter wide crater.

The ground quaked, and the shockwave caused sand and small rocks to fill the air and for the nearby trees to vigorously sway.

As Zhao Fu was fighting with the Ghost King, six 1,000 meter tall figures giving off shocking ghostly qi and immense might appeared. They were not creatures of this world, and yet they had appeared in the human world.

The six massive creatures seemed to sense something and started to move in a certain direction. As one of them walked past a system main city, it casually reached out and crushed a City Lord with its hand; in front of it, a City Lord seemed to be as weak as an ant.

One of the massive creatures swept out with its spear, causing the air to seem to explode. A massive shockwave instantly turned a system main city into ruins; whether it was the city walls or the buildings, they were all obliterated, and not a single person survived.

Chapter 816: Ghost King Seal

Back at the battlefield, a ferocious slash from Zhao Fu blasted the Ghost King to the ground, opening up a massive crater. The Ghost King crawled up wretchedly and had a gash on its body from which ghostly qi flowed out, but the wound quickly healed.

The Ghost King's gray-white eyes looked at Zhao Fu, and the killing intent it gave off became dozens of times greater. It seemed as if it wanted to reduce Zhao Fu to thousands of pieces.

At that moment, the sword in the Ghost King's hand trembled, and a gray energy barrier spread out. The Ghost King unleashed its Ghost King Domain, which was ten meters wide, and the Ghost King rushed into the sky, its sword giving off a terrifying ghostly light.

Zhao Fu unleashed his Emperor's Domain, expanding it to ten meters, and gave off a powerful aura as he shot at the Ghost King.

Bang!!

A massive explosion sounded out as the two domains collided. Neither side could overwhelm the other, and neither side retreated. The Ghost King started to roar as ghostly qi continuously rose up from its body, and the ghostly light coming from its sword became even more intense as its Ghost King Domain became stronger.

Zhao Fu's pupils constricted as he unleashed all of his power, sending more of his Emperor's Power into his domain. The two domains clashed even more powerfully together, causing shockwaves to blast out as wild gales.

Crack!

A clear cracking sound could be heard as the Ghost King's King's Domain started to crack. After all, it was only a King's Domain while Zhao Fu had an Emperor's Domain, giving him an innate advantage.

Crack! Crack! Crack!

More and more cracks grew on the Ghost King's domain, and they started to spread, causing the Ghost King to look quite startled. It sent even more power into its sword, causing it to give off an incredibly eerie sword light that seemed to be able to wound one's soul.

Bang!!

An explosion sounded out as the Ghost King's domain shattered into countless pieces, while a few cracks also appeared on Zhao Fu's Emperor's Domain.

Shing!

The instant that the Ghost King's domain shattered, it slashed out a terrifying sword light towards Zhao Fu's domain. The shocking sword light instantly cut Zhao Fu's Emperor's Domain in half and even left a long sword gash in the ground below.

Zhao Fu leaned to the side and avoided this attack before slashing back in retaliation. A searing sword light flashed out, sending the Ghost King flying 100 or so meters. It coughed up a mouthful of gray blood and looked heavily injured.

“Roarr!” the Ghost King furiously roared, absorbing a massive amount of ghostly qi around it. The Ghost King's body continuously expanded as its muscles bulged, causing the dragon robe it was wearing to be torn.

Finally, it became a ten-meter tall figure. It was covered in muscles and had blood-red eyes and black hair that spread in all directions, making it look like a lion. The sword it held had also become a massive seven-meter long sword.

The Ghost King's aura was dozens of times more terrifying than before – it was now using its full power. It gripped its sword with both hands and slashed at Zhao Fu, giving off a monstrous sword wind.

Zhao Fu also vigorously slashed out a shocking sword wind with his sword and flew towards the Ghost King.

Bang!

The two sword winds collided before exploding, turning into a massive gale that rippled out in all directions.

At that moment, the Ghost King's body blurred before appearing in front of Zhao Fu. It continuously swung its seven-meter long sword, slashing out terrifying sword lights, not giving Zhao Fu an opportunity to even breathe.

Zhao Fu could only continuously dodge and defend while moving backward.

Even though these attacks were extremely ferocious, the Ghost King would not be able to keep it up for long. Zhao Fu endured this with great difficulty for a while, suffering a few wounds, before the Ghost King finally stopped.

The instant that the Ghost King stopped attacking, Zhao Fu sent an immense amount of power into the Seraph Sword before vigorously slashing out, sending out a blinding ray of white light that sent the Ghost King flying more than 1,000 meters.

The Ghost King's chest was burned black, and the ghostly qi around its body became weaker and weaker.

“Roarr!!” the immense pain caused the Ghost King to heart-rendingly roar, and it started to go mad. An even more intense wave of ghostly qi burst forth, instantly surrounding the surrounding 10,000 meters.

Clang, clang, clang...

Within the ghostly fog, the sounds of weapons could be heard, and the dense ghostly qi started to thin out, revealing tens of thousands of ghostly soldiers appeared who gave off an intense killing intent.

The Ghost King swung its sword, causing the tens of thousands of ghostly soldiers to roar and rush at Zhao Fu, bringing with them an incredible aura.

However, Zhao Fu showed no fear – he took out the Sky Demon Sword and raised it with his left hand. A soul-devouring demonic light shot into the sky, opening up a black hole in the sky, from which demonic qi flowed out.

“Roarrr!!!” Howls sounded out as countless demons rushed out, giving off an evil and ferocious aura as they rushed at the countless ghostly soldiers.

The two sides quickly clashed, giving off massive sounds of battle, and the ghostly soldiers and demons continuously died.

At that moment, Zhao Fu suddenly disappeared before reappearing behind the Ghost King. He raised the Seraph Sword with his right hand, causing a pillar of pure white light to fall from the sky. An angelic image also appeared behind Zhao Fu, spreading its wings and causing countless motes of light to descend.

This gave the Ghost King a fright, and it quickly dodged to the side. However, at that moment, Zhao Fu slashed out, causing a massive white sword light to rush out like a flood, devouring the Ghost King's body.

Bang!

A figure giving off black smoke fell from the sky and crashed to the ground – it was the Ghost King, and its entire body seemed to have been burned. There was still a trace of white sword qi on the surface of its body, stabbing into its body like a sharp blade.

However, the Ghost King was not dead, and its powerful constitution was quickly healing its body. However, Zhao Fu did not give it an opportunity to recover and lopped off its head. The Ghost King instantly died, and its body scattered into traces of ghostly qi, dropping five items.

The first item was a Ghost Treasure Sack, the second was a complete Legendary grade City God Temple, and the third item was a seal that was bigger than the Ghost Marquis Seal, and it gave off an even more powerful aura. It gave off a trace of a King's might, and there was a ferocious ghost dragon engraved on it.

[Ghost King Seal]: A Ghost King's Seal that can make countless ghosts submit. It is a command treasure in the Ghost World and was created by gathering boundless Yin Qi. With this seal, one can command ten million Ghost Soldiers.

The Ghost King Seal's effects were simply too shocking – it could allow one to command ten million Ghost Soldiers. Moreover, the King's ghostly qi naturally suppressed the Ghost Marquis Seal as well.

This Ghost King Seal was simply too powerful, making Zhao Fu feel incredibly shocked. When he thought about ten million Ghost Soldiers under his command, Zhao Fu could not help but feel excited. This would give Great Qin a massive advantage and would be an extra layer of protection for Great Qin in times of danger.

Chapter 817: Ghost Gate

The fourth item was another gravestone made out of tough rock, but this gravestone was nine meters tall and two meters wide. The outside of the gravestone had dragon inscriptions engraved on it, and at the center of the gravestone were three words: King Xi Gravestone!

[Ghost King Gravestone]: A King's gravestone that has absorbed a large amount of Yin Qi and killing intent to form a treasure. It can gather Yin Qi and killing intent and contains a Ghost King Domain and a King's ghostly qi, which can strengthen Ghost Soldiers.

The Ghost King Gravestone was naturally more powerful than the Ghost Marquis Gravestone. Everything that was related to Kings was more powerful, and Ghost Soldiers that absorbed King's ghostly qi would become many times more powerful than ordinary Ghost Soldiers.

The fifth item was a grey crystal ball that was as big as a fist. It was incredibly heavy and felt like it weighed hundreds of kilograms. It gave off a cold aura and felt even colder than the Ghost King Seal.

[Ghost World Pearl]: A precious pearl birthed from the Ghost World's Five Elements Land. After absorbing a lot of Heaven and Earth Yin Origin Qi, it has created a space within itself and contains a trace of source energy. It is an incredibly rare treasure.

After looking at the description, Zhao Fu sent his consciousness into this Ghost World Pearl and found that there was a very large space within it that was about 100 kilometers wide. There were mountains, creeks, trees, and flowers. There were even some birds and insects, and apart from an immense amount of ghostly qi, it was just like a normal place.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

Before Zhao Fu could work out what the function of the Ghost World Pearl was, six heaven-toppling auras descended. The immense ghostly qi was like an ocean that swept up everything, and the terrifying might seemed to cause everything in the world to go silent.

Feeling those six powerful auras, Zhao Fu looked quite shocked as he felt a chill within his heart. He looked at the six massive figures in front of him – they were the Six Paths Demon Images!

How was this possible? Could it be that the second stage of the Ghost Festival had released these six monsters to destroy the world? That was too serious! Had something gone wrong with the event?

Zhao Fu quickly thought to himself, but he could not understand why this had happened. The Six Paths Demon Images' descent to the human world was simply too terrifying – even Zhao Fu was given a big fright because he clearly knew just how powerful they were.

Back then, Zhao Fu had tried to use them to open the Six Paths of Reincarnation to cause countless monsters to enter the human world and destroy it, but he had been stopped by the Sky Desolation Azure Dragon.

Six terrifying cold and savage gazes simultaneously fell on Zhao Fu's body. The Six Paths Demon Images seemed to still be quite familiar with his aura – they had come this way because they had sensed his aura.

Before, they had been bound by chains by Zhao Fu and used by him. To such powerful and sovereign creatures, this was an incredible humiliation, making them feel immensely furious. In the end, their clones had even been killed.

Their hatred towards Zhao Fu was immense. He was just like an ant to them, and they wanted to completely obliterate him and have his soul suffer for all eternity.

Facing the Six Paths Demon Images' gazes, Zhao Fu's hairs stood on end. He felt incredibly powerless – back then, he had only been able to control them because they had been summoned using his blood and only summoned one by one.

Now that they were not controlled by his blood and there were six of them all in one go, what could Zhao Fu do about this?

Within Zhao Fu's body, the golden dragon sensed the Six Paths Demon Images' killing intent and asked in shock, "Zhao Fu, boy, just how did you anger them? They're the most terrifying guardians of the Six Paths of Reincarnation in the Underworld, and even though these are just clones, they're still incredibly terrifying."

Zhao Fu sighed and quickly told the golden dragon about the past events before asking, "Do you have any way of dealing with them? They look determined to kill me, and there's no chance of them letting me off!"

The golden dragon fell silent and did not reply, causing Zhao Fu to feel incredibly worried.

Great Qin's various Generals and City Lords all felt incredibly shocked when they saw the Six Paths Demon Images. They felt as if they had been plunged into freezing water, and the despair in their hearts froze them in place.

Most of the Ghosts had been sucked into the Ghost Gate, and the remaining ones had long since been sent running by the Six Paths Demon Images.

The spear-wielding Asura Demon Image evilly looked at Zhao Fu and attacked first, ferociously stabbing at Zhao Fu with its spear.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as a formless spear light pierced towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu quickly picked up the items the Ghost King had dropped and flew into the sky.

As the formless spear light hit the ground, a muffled explosion sounded out as dust and sand were blasted everywhere, causing the ground to continuously tremble. In just an instant, a 1,000 meter wide, hundreds of meters deep crater had opened up in the ground. This was only a normal attack from the Asura Demon Image.

After Zhao Fu flew into the sky to avoid this attack, the closest Demon Image, the Hungry Ghost Demon Image, eerily laughed as it raised its bone knife and slashed down. A massive knife qi slashed out, seeming to tear apart the heavens and earth. Zhao Fu was given a big fright and did not dare to block, dodging to the side.

Boom!

The massive knife qi slashed deep into the ground, causing the ground to violently shake. A deep ravine appeared, and the terrifying knife qi continued towards the Great Wall. The countless barriers and restrictions were instantly torn apart by the knife qi, but luckily, there were not many people there.

Bang!

The Animal Demon Image suddenly attacked, punching out and causing a massive exploding sound. The incredibly loud sound made Zhao Fu feel as if he had gone death.

Zhao Fu was unable to dodge this attack, and his body was sent flying like a sandbag. He crashed against the Great Wall, causing it to crack and cave in. Zhao Fu's entire body was stuck inside the Great Wall, and he coughed up a mouthful of blood.

"Your Majesty!" Countless people were given a big fright and hurried over to where Zhao Fu was.

At that moment, the silent golden dragon said, "I have a method that you can try, but I'm not 100% certain it will work!"

"What is it?" Zhao Fu's expression became serious as he looked at the Six Paths Demon Images. Right now, Zhao Fu had no idea what to do at all.

Following this, the golden dragon explained the method, and Zhao Fu understood what it meant.

At that moment, the Hell Demon Image raised its trident and prepared to attack. Zhao Fu shouted out, ordering no one to come close and to wait near the Ghost Gate for further orders.

Chapter 818: Six Paths of Reincarnation

Facing such a massive crisis, no one dare to question Zhao Fu's commands. All of the Generals and City Lords followed Zhao Fu's order and gathered beside the Ghost Gate.

Boom!!

The Hell Demon Image swung its trident, giving off a terrifying destructive force that created a massive gale and swept towards Zhao Fu. Zhao Fu once again dodged to the side, but the portion of the Great Wall behind him was completely annihilated.

Zhao Fu took this opportunity to give out a command to a General, and that General immediately left and hurried towards the Great Qin City.

Zhao Fu went to the center of the Ghost Gate's magic formation, taking the place of Darknorth Red Autumn. He cut open his wrist, causing blood to flow out, and he yelled, "Yin Qi fills the world; ghosts sweep across the land, a disaster for all; living creatures suffer; We, the ruler of Great Qin, request for the Ghost Gate's Spirit to descend and drive away all evil creatures!"

Boom!!

After Zhao Fu yelled out, the massive stone doors in the sky gave off a formless energy that spread out like a wild wind. The blood from Zhao Fu's hand was absorbed by the formless energy into the stone doors.

100 million or so soldiers roared, exploding out with all of their strength, sending all of their power into the Ghost Gate magic formation. 1,400 City Lords released their City Lord Seals' power into the Ghost Gate magic formation as well.

As the magic formation on the ground absorbed such immense power, it started to spin with great force. The massive stone doors in the sky gave off an intense gray light, and the ghosts engraved on it seemed to come alive. Following this, a boundlessly gloomy and eerie intent descended.

"Ghost Gate!" In the legends, it was something that separated the worlds of Yin and Yang. If anyone wanted to enter the Ghost World, they would have to first pass through the Ghost Gate, and if any Ghosts wanted to enter the world of the living, they would also have to pass through the Ghost Gate. Since the very beginning, the Ghost Gate was something that both divided and connected the worlds of Yin and Yang, and it was a supreme treasure like the Six Paths of Reincarnation.

The Six Paths of Reincarnation were in charge of reincarnation, while the Ghost gate was in charge of dividing and connecting the worlds of Yin and Yang; it greatly suppressed Ghost creatures, which was why it was able to keep the countless Ghosts in the Ghost world, making it impossible for them to come to the world of the living and harm living creatures.

The Six Paths Demon Images had been giving off terrifying auras as they walked towards Zhao Fu and Great Qin's soldiers. They did not feel any fear when looking at Great Qin's numbers; instead, their gazes were filled with cruelty and savageness, as everything was incredibly insignificant in their eyes.

However, the intensely glowing Ghost gate caused them to stop, making them look hesitant for the first time – they could feel that the Ghost Gate had a suppression effect on them.

Despite this, looking at Zhao Fu standing under the Ghost Gate, they still walked forwards – they were determined to kill this lowly ant.

Boom!!

As the Six Paths Demon Images walked closer, gray rays of light tore through the sky, and the Ghost Gate exploded out with a shocking might as if the sky had fallen down, weighing down on the Six Paths Demon Images' bodies.

“Roarrrr!!!” the Six Paths Demon Images furiously roared. Traces of ghostly qi rose up from their bodies, causing them to give off an even more intense aura. Sand and dust were blown into the air, and countless trees swayed.

The Six Paths Demon Images raised their hands, resisting the pressure bearing down on them. Slowly, the Ghost Gate's immense pressure was pushed back by them.

Zhao Fu's expression fell, and he ordered all of Great Qin's soldiers to send all of their strength into the Ghost Gate without any reservation. The Black and White Impermanences also maintained the formation with all of their strength, and the Ghost Gate gave off an even more intense gray light, causing the might it gave off to become even stronger.

“Roarrrr!!!!” the Six Paths Demon Images furiously roared as they resisted the Ghost Gate's power. Their eyes became blood-red colored as they went into a berserk state. Their ghostly qi also became blood-red and gray, and an extremely evil and violent aura rose from their bodies.

They once again pushed back against the suppression even easier than before, and the shocking aura they gave off could make anyone feel despair.

Zhao Fu's expression became serious as he shouted, “All City Lords, unleash your City Lord Seals and wait for my orders!”

The City Lords all released their City Lord Seals, causing them to give off immense power as they floated above them.

At that moment, Zhao Fu also unleashed his Great Qin Seal. It gave off a terrifying black light as it floated above his head. Zhao Fu pointed at the Six Paths Demon Images, and his Great Qin Seal turned into a black ray of light that shot towards them. The other City Lord Seals also turned into rays of light and shot at the Six Paths Demon Images.

With the Great Qin Seal leading the way, 1,400 or so City Lord Seals formed a circle that surrounded the Six Paths Demon Images. Zhao Fu stretched out a hand and shouted, “Great Qin City and all other Cities of Great Qin, release all of your power to this place!”

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Great Qin’s various Cities’ City Hearts continuously trembled as they gave off intense lights, causing pillars of light to shoot into the sky. The City Lord Seals obtained even more power and gave off brilliant lights, shaking the surrounding hundreds of regions.

The might of a thousand mountains gathered together and weighed down on the Six Paths Demon Images. The Six Paths Demon Images’ bodies started to lean under the pressure, and it seemed that they would be able to suppress them.

However, in the next moment, terrifying aura flames appeared around the Six Paths Demon Images, causing massive winds to blow. Large rocks were blown into the sky, and countless trees madly swayed. The entirety of the Midland Continent’s northern side could feel an extremely cold and evil aura coming from Great Qin.

The Six Paths Demon Images’ eyes became completely blood-red, and they gave off a blood-red light. Six gray vortexes gradually appeared in the sky. Ghostly qi spewed out from the vortexes, causing the entire world to seem to become incredibly eerie. All of the trees, grass, and flowers seemed to lose their vitality as a cold and gloomy aura filled the surroundings.

The ghostly qi flooded region after region, causing countless creatures to flee in terror. Any creature that was touched by the ghostly qi would immediately die and turn into a spirit.

The Six Paths Demon Images were using the power of the Six Paths of Reincarnation!

Zhao Fu’s expression fell and he hurriedly yelled out, “Bai Qi, Wang Jian, Wei Liao, Meng Tian, Li Mu, Zhang Han, Bai Xihan...”

The nine Generals drew their General Armaments and pointed them at the sky, causing an immense aura to burst forth. Pillars of light shot into the sky, causing the entire sky to shake.

Nine massive stars seemed to have been summoned, and they gave off intense starlight, terrifying auras, and powerful might as they appeared in the sky and slowly descended.

The Seven Murder Star gave off an aura of killing; the Army Destroyer Star gave off an aura of conquering; the Voracious Wolf Star gave off an aura of ruthlessness; the Great Gate Star gave off an aura of righteousness; the Unfettered Star gave off an aura of madness...

The nine General Stars all gave off different auras and gathered together, weighing down towards the Six Paths Demon Images.

Chapter 819: Ghost World Pearl

Immediately, the Six Paths Demon Images felt immense pressure and were once again forced to bend. However, they continuously roared and resisted, and the ghostly qi from the six vortexes entered their bodies, filling them with even more strength.

The nine stars in the sky gave off different-colored starlight, looking extremely eye-catching in this dark world. Many people noticed this and felt quite shocked – the scene of nine stars descending together was quite majestic, and the aura they gave off was quite shocking.

What had Great Qin done now? Countless people felt quite curious because if it wasn't something big, there wouldn't be nine stars descending together like this.

They had no idea that Great Qin was facing off against the Six Paths Demon Images, which had nearly destroyed the human world last time. If they knew about this, they may have been scared to death – the scene of the Six Paths Demon Images descending and opening the Six Paths of Reincarnation was still burned into the memories of many people.

Back then, everyone had fallen into utter despair and were completely powerless to do anything. The Six Paths Demon Images had left many people traumatized.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded as the sky darkened and a blood-red star giving off a boundless aura of slaughter and disaster slowly descended, dyeing the sky red.

This made the onlookers feel even more shocked – the Chaos Imperial Star had once again appeared. This meant that something very big was happening at Great Qin, and it could even be a crisis. Otherwise, the Chaos Imperial Star would not appear – this confirmed their thoughts.

Back at Great Qin, Zhao Fu roared, his appearance becoming somewhat savage as he guided the Chaos Imperial Star's power to weigh down on the Six Paths Demon Images, forcing them even lower.

“Everyone, use all of your strength!” Zhao Fu shouted as all of the soldiers roared, sending every last bit of their strength into the Ghost Gate magic formation, causing the Ghost Gate in the sky to give off an even more powerful aura of suppression.

The City Lords also shouted out, sending their strength into their City Lord Seals. The 1,400 City Lord Seals exploded out with an even more shocking aura as they continued to suppress the Six Paths Demon Images.

The nine Generals also roared, guiding their General Stars. The nine General Stars gave off an even more intense starlight, their might becoming even stronger.

Zhao Fu yelled out, controlling the Chaos Imperial Star's power and forming six blood-red pillars of starlight that fell on the Six Paths Demon Images' bodies.

Boom! Boom! Boom...

As Great Qin forces used all of their strength, the Six Paths Demon Images' bodies sank down and half-knelt, causing massive explosions that caused the ground to continuously shake as if there was an earthquake.

“Roarrrrr!!!” the Six Paths Demon Images madly roared, the ghostly qi around them going berserk. They desperately tried to stand up, wanting to kill all of the people here.

At that moment, Zhao Fu flew in front of the Six Paths Demon Images, a gray pearl floating in front of his chest – this was the Ghost World Pearl. There were also five stone steles floating behind him – they were the Profession Change Stone Steles of five different professions.

Zhao Fu had obtained the Hundred Ghost Illusionist and Ghost Summoner professions early on, and Zhao Fu had ordered the General from earlier to bring over these two stone steles.

The three other stone steles were the Human Ghost, Ghostgod Soldier, and Ghost Eyes Profession Change Stone Steles. Because he had been quite busy, Zhao Fu had not set them up yet and had been carrying them in his spatial ring.

The reason Zhao Fu had taken out the Ghost World Pearl and the five Profession Change Stone Steles was to seal the Six Paths Demon Images according to the golden dragon's method. More precisely speaking, it was to seal them into Zhao Fu's body.

The Ghost World Pearl had a trace of the source energy of the world, and it had a space within it. It would be a good vessel so that Zhao Fu would not have to seal them into his own body directly and potentially cause him to explode.

The five professions were to support this process: the Hundreds Ghost Illusionist stone stele could use ghost power to create an illusion, which could reduce the resistance of the Six Path Demon Images' minds. The Ghost Summoner profession could summon Ghosts and naturally suppressed Ghost creatures.

The Human Ghost profession increased the affinity between one's body and Ghosts, and it had powerful resistances against Ghosts. The Ghostgod Soldier profession could increase one's control over Ghosts, and the Ghost Eyes profession could increase one's senses towards Ghosts.

Sealing the Six Paths Demon Images into his body was an incredibly dangerous matter, and if he did not make various defensive preparations, it was possible for him to die. As such, Zhao Fu decided to use these five Profession Change Stone Steles.

At the same time, Zhao Fu was quite thankful that Great Qin had these five professions that all had to do with Ghosts. This gave Zhao Fu some safety and increased his chances of success.

Even though sealing the Six Paths Demon Images into his body was very dangerous and would make him into a target for the actual Six Paths Demon Images, there would be astounding benefits, allowing him to gain the Six Paths Demon Images' power.

After arriving before the Six Paths Demon Images, Zhao Fu grabbed at his clothes and ripped off his upper clothes, revealing his well-proportioned figure.

Zhao Fu started to perform hand seals, causing the Ghost World Pearl to give off a faint gray light. It lightly trembled and established a connection with Zhao Fu. As Zhao Fu performed more hand seals, the connection between them became stronger and stronger.

At that moment, Zhao Fu cut the area between his eyebrows, causing a precious drop of origin blood to fuse with the Ghost World Pearl. Zhao Fu's complexion instantly became pale, as origin blood was one's foundation and losing even a bit could greatly weaken a person.

After absorbing Zhao Fu's origin blood, the Ghost World Pearl suddenly stopped trembling and peacefully floated in the air as it gave off a blood-red light.

Immediately, the connection between Zhao Fu and the Ghost World Pearl became incredibly close as if the Ghost World Pearl was a part of Zhao Fu's body, allowing him to freely control it.

The golden dragon also acted; as Zhao Fu fused the Ghost World Pearl into his chest, the golden dragon controlled the five Profession Change Stone Steles. A golden light covered the five Profession Change Stone Steles, causing five gray runes to come out from within the stone steles.

An even more intense light came from Zhao Fu's back as a golden magic formation appeared from Zhao Fu's back, looking incredibly profound.

The five gray runes entered the golden magic formation and spread out around it. The five gray runes gave off a cold, eerie energy, and the golden magic formation became gray colored. Following this, the gray magic formation gradually faded into Zhao Fu's back.

By now, the Ghost World Pearl had perfectly fused into Zhao Fu's chest, and the magic formation on his back was also complete. Now, it was time to perform the sealing.

Zhao Fu coldly looked at the furiously roaring Six Paths Demon Images in front of him and started to act.

Chapter 820: Sealing

Boom!!

A massive explosion rang out as Zhao Fu stretched out a hand towards the Six Paths Demon Images. His golden pupil in his left eye started to spin as tens of thousands of chains shot out, bringing with them powerful strength as they bound the Six Paths Demon Images.

Within the blood-red pillars of starlight, the Six Paths Demon Images were greatly suppressed. They were already half-kneeling, but they continuously roared as they resisted. Zhao Fu's countless chains added yet another layer of suppression on them.

“Roarrrr!!” the Six Paths Demon Images madly roared as blood-red and gray ghostly qi continuously streamed out from their bodies and spread out around them. Because of how big their bodies were, all of their actions would create large winds.

Clang, clang, clang...

Zhao Fu's hair danced in the wind as he clenched his outstretched hand, causing the countless chains to go taut and tightly bind the struggling Six Paths Demon Images. The Ghost World Pearl surfaced on Zhao Fu's chest as if it was socketed there, and it gave off waves of gray light.

Boom!!

The Ghost World Pearl gave off a powerful attractive force, and intense streams of air started to cover the Six Paths Demon Images. The Six Paths Demon Images seemed to sense what Zhao Fu was trying to do and became even more furious. They furiously roared at Zhao Fu, and the terrifying soundwaves were enough to instantly kill ordinary people.

Zhao Fu released his Emperor's Domain to block these terrifying soundwaves while controlling the chains to drag the Six Paths Demon Images over.

With the intense attractive force and the help of the countless chains, the Six Paths Demon Images' bodies were slowly dragged towards Zhao Fu, and they started to show a trace of fear. They wildly roared and tried to break free, the six vortexes giving off boundless ghostly qi and strengthening them.

Great Qin's soldiers continued to send all of their strength into the Ghost Gate magic formation, causing the Ghost Gate to give off an even more powerful might.

The various City Lords also controlled their City Lord Seals to give off the aura of mountains, weighing down on the Six Paths Demon Images.

Bai Qi and the other Generals shouted as they used all of their General's Power, causing their General Stars to give off an even more intense light. The starlight they gave off was filled with overwhelming power and pressed down on the Six Paths Demon Images.

"Hah!!" Zhao Fu roared as he used all of his strength, his golden pupil furiously spinning as a trace of blood leaked out from his left eye. The countless chains pulled with even greater force. The Ghost World Pearl on his chest gave off a slight blood-red color, and the attractive force coming from it became even more intense.

"Roarrrr!!" The Six Paths Demon Images continuously resisted, but because their bodies were still suppressed by the various powers, they started to move closer and closer to Zhao Fu. Their hands were the first to be absorbed into the Ghost World Pearl, and they still tried to resist, a trace of terror in their eyes.

Following this, their upper bodies were also absorbed into the Ghost World Pearl, and after their heads and upper limbs were absorbed, it became much easier to absorb their lower bodies into the Ghost World Pearl.

After sucking in all of the Six Paths Demon Images, the Ghost World Pearl gave off an immense gray light that seemed to be able to tear apart space itself, and a terrifying aura came out from it.

At that moment, the Ghost World Pearl started to break out of Zhao Fu's control, but Zhao Fu quickly pressed his hand against the Ghost World Pearl, a sealing formation appearing on the palm of his hand.

The Ghost World Pearl, which was socketed on Zhao Fu's chest, was slowly pressed back into Zhao Fu's body, and a look of pain appeared on Zhao Fu's face. It felt as if he was forcefully shoving something into his body.

The golden pupil in his left eye, as well as the other pupils, suddenly dilated, and their powers merged together. Chains with Emperor's Power tightly bound the Six Paths Demon Images within the Ghost World Pearl, making any resistance futile.

In the end, Zhao Fu fully pressed the Ghost World Pearl back into his body, and a terrifying ghostly power spread out from Zhao Fu's chest to the rest of his body.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as a sky-toppling aura exploded out like a gale. Trees were pulled up by their roots as if a massive catastrophe had descended, but in the next moment, everything became silent again.

Everyone present was greatly shocked because this power greatly surpassed the power of each of the Six Paths Demon Images; it was enough to rival the combined power of the Six Paths Demon Images.

At that moment, Zhao Fu's body lost all traces of redness and became pale white as if he did not have any life within him. His black hair also gradually became gray-white, and his hands became like a demon's claws as fangs grew in his mouth.

At that moment, the gray-black magic formation at Zhao Fu's back once again appeared, helping Zhao Fu control this ghostly power that was almost getting out of control.

“Arghhhh!!” As the ghostly power slowly came under control, another wave of ghostly power flooded into his right eye, making Zhao Fu feel as if his right eye was going to explode. Blood flowed out from Zhao Fu's right eye, causing him to howl in pain.

Zhao Fu's left eye had four round pupils: two blood-red pupils, one white pupil, and one gold pupil with chains around it. Zhao Fu's right eye had three slitted pupils.

Under the assault of the massive ghostly power, the three slitted pupils in Zhao Fu's right eye started to fuse together. The top two layers were blood-red colored while the one at the back was white, and six grey dots appeared around the pupils.

As Zhao Fu gained control over the ghostly power, his body was no longer as pale, and the claws and fangs also receded. Zhao Fu returned to his original appearance apart from his right eye.

“Your Majesty!” Seeing that Zhao Fu had returned to normal, everyone let out a sigh of relief and hurried over.

A trace of a smile appeared on Zhao Fu's face, and he took out new clothes from his spatial ring and put them on before saying, "Don't worry. Everything's fine!"

Within his body, the golden dragon also said in delight, "Boy, you actually succeeded!"

Zhao Fu smiled – now that he had sealed the Six Paths Demon Images' clones within him, he had obtained the power of the Six Paths of Reincarnation, and Great Qin would have another layer of protection.

However, the power of these Six Paths Demon Images was simply too terrifying, and it was still quite difficult for Zhao Fu to use it. It would be best not to use their power unless there was a crisis; their power was too strong, and if he could not control it, he would receive a backlash.

It was around 10:30 PM, and there were one and a half hours until the Ghost Festival ended. Zhao Fu did not receive any rewards from sealing the Six Paths Demon Images, but he was already quite satisfied.

Zhao Fu went over to the Exchange Stone Stele; he did not plan to use his own Ghost Points, and instead, he decided to use the Ghost Points from others to exchange for some things.

The next festival was the Divine Fish Festival, which would definitely be an individual event. If Zhao Fu did not use the Ghost Points that Great Qin had amassed today, they would most likely be converted at a 10:1 ratio and would only be able to be used by those who had obtained them. That would be quite a pity, so it would be better to spend some now.
