

The Lord 851

Chapter 851: Violet Dragon

After this violet dragon egg was formed, it continuously devoured the ocean-like violet aura, causing its might to grow stronger and stronger. Even more violet aura rushed over from the horizon, entering Zhao Fu's body and causing the egg to go through changes.

As the dragon egg absorbed the violet aura, it became bigger and bigger, and its terrifying aura continued to grow. Suddenly, all of the violet aura was absorbed by Zhao Fu.

“Roarr!!” a dragon's roar reverberated throughout the heavens as the violet dragon egg started to crack.

As the eggshell cracked, it turned into traces of violet aura gain. Soon, a violet dragon appeared within Zhao Fu's body, giving off a powerful aura. It moved about within Zhao Fu's body, and an extremely mighty Emperor's aura rippled out from Zhao Fu's body.

In that moment, the heavens and earth really did seem to submit to him – it was incredibly shocking and unforgettable.

After awakening the Celestial Emperor Star, a violet dragon appeared within Zhao Fu's body. This violet dragon looked like a normal dragon except for the fact that its horns had many forks and its claws had six toes. It was most likely a Dragon King.

The massive golden star gradually disappeared, and the abnormal signs slowly disappeared. The world became peaceful once again.

Only now did the countless kneeling people come to their senses, and they quickly came to their feet. They did not understand what was happening. They had only felt a powerful will descend, and their bodies instinctively knelt.

The leaders of the various factions looked towards the direction that Great Qin was in, feeling incredibly confused. They had suddenly knelt towards that direction, and those who had not knelt had all been heavily injured. They were bloody messes on the ground, and they would take a long time to recover.

Zhao Fu's consciousness also recovered. He stood in the air and sensed his changes – he did not know how to express it, but he could feel that he had become stronger.

Elsewhere, the black-clothed man standing above the circular pool took out a blood-red stone that gave off Origin aura. He tossed it into the pool below, causing a blinding blood-red light to come from the water, turning the water blood-red.

The black-clothed man started to perform hand seals with both hands, causing the blood-red water in the pool to swirl, and a massive amount of energy rippled out.

All of a sudden, the peaceful human world was once again sent into chaos. An extremely terrifying energy shot down from the sky, causing everyone to feel as if they had plunged into icy water. Their bodies and their souls all violently trembled.

A blood-red vortex appeared above Great Qin. This blood-red vortex started off about ten meters wide but instantly became 10,000 meters wide and gave off an enormous attractive power.

In the air, Zhao Fu's hairs stood on end as he sensed an unprecedented crisis. This blood-red vortex seemed to be targeting Zhao Fu, trying to drag him in.

The golden dragon cried out, "Zhao Fu! Some higher being found your location using your new Origin Mark. Looks like he wants to steal your Origin Mark. Be careful! Even though he cannot personally come, his strength is incredibly monstrous."

Zhao Fu understood and immediately hid the Origin Mark that Tuoba Qing had given him. He had never thought that something like this would happen, and since this higher being had found him, hiding the Origin Mark was already useless.

The attractive power from the blood-red vortex covered Zhao Fu's body, trying to suck him in.

Zhao Fu exploded out with all of his power and unleashed his Emperor's Domain. The black dragon inscription barrier appeared around him, defending against the attractive power.

"Your Majesty!" Seeing that Zhao Fu was in danger, his subordinates hurried over, wanting to help him resist that power.

However, Zhao Fu quickly told them to stay away, as this was not something that they could interfere with. That higher being's power was simply monstrous, and even though Zhao Fu was not sure how much strength that person was using, Zhao Fu had unleashed most of his power, yet he was still being slowly dragged towards the vortex. As such, he told them not to come close and told those near him to quickly leave, as their lives would be in danger.

Bai Qi and the others obeyed and quickly left, and they began to evacuate residents nearby.

Boom!!

Zhao Fu completely unleashed the Great Qin Seal's power, causing a black flame to erupt from his body, and an extremely terrifying aura exploded out from Zhao Fu.

Clang!

Zhao Fu took out the Death Disaster Sword for the first time and sent all of his power into it. The gray sword gave off a chilling sword light, and as Zhao Fu slashed out, an enormous gray sword light, bringing with it a ferocious wind filled with deathly aura, flew towards the blood-red vortex.

Boom!!

A massive explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu was shocked to find that not only was the Death Disaster Sword's sword qi useless against the blood-red vortex, but it had also actually caused the vortex to expand out to 100,000 meters wide and give off an even stronger attractive power.

Zhao Fu was quickly pulled by this attractive power towards the blood-red vortex. He could only send all of his strength into his Emperor's Domain, expanding it out to 100 meters to defend against this attractive power.

This massive attractive power started to pull even trees up by their roots, and massive boulders were also lifted into the sky. Bits of the ground were also lifted into the air, and even though it was incredibly terrifying, Zhao Fu was still able to defend for now.

The black-clothed man standing above the circular pool stopped smiling and slightly frowned. He slowly stretched out his hands and pressed down towards the spinning water below, causing a powerful, formless energy to sink into the blood-red water.

A pair of enormous hands giving off a terrifying aura slowly stretched out from the blood-red vortex above Great Qin. The entire world seemed to tremble, and time and space seemed to become somewhat chaotic. Those massive hands were the most monstrous power that Zhao Fu had ever seen before, and even he felt a trace of terror.

“Arghhh!” In the face of this immense danger, Zhao Fu gripped the Death Disaster Sword with both hands and roared as he gathered all of his strength. The Great Qin Seal within his body continuously trembled, gathering power from countless City Lord Seals. Whether they were Great Cities or Basic Cities, almost 3,000 Cities’ powers were gathered in his sword.

Boom!!

Zhao Fu slashed out, causing a 1,000-meter wide gray sword light, bringing with it a dense Death Energy to fly out. It seemed to slash apart the sky and flew towards those giant hands.

Chi!

The massive gray sword light gave off an aura of destructive and cut apart those massive hands, causing them to turn into blood-red qi and disappear. The gray sword light then continued onwards towards the blood-red vortex, causing it to gradually grow smaller.

The black-clothed man looked at the small cut on his hand, a look of anger on his face.

The vortex in the sky continuously grew smaller, looking as if it was going to disappear, when suddenly something unexpected happened again.

Chapter 852: Black Coffin

The shrinking vortex suddenly expanded out again as the black-clothed man continuously performed hand seals. His body gave off a powerful blood-red light as he slowly sank into the blood-red water.

The vortex expanded out to 1,000 meters wide and blood-red water gushed out of it. The sound was incredibly shocking, and as the blood-red water descended, it instantly covered the ground and killed all living beings it touched.

The blood-red water covered the surrounding 10 kilometers, giving off a dense bloody odor. Everything was dyed blood-red, creating a hellish, horrifying scene.

Soon, the blood-red water started to roil as if it was boiling. Bubbles started to appear as blood-red qi floated up, and at the center of the blood-red water, a man's image formed.

The power that this image gave off was extremely terrifying. When it formed, time and space seemed to freeze, and his monstrous power was enough to make people feel suffocated. Under his pressure, ordinary Stage 1 soldiers would immediately explode and die.

“You lowly bug, you’ve angered this Sovereign. If you kneel, I’ll let you die an easier death. A low-grade human like you is not worthy of an Origin Mark.”

The image stood with its hands behind its back and spoke with a cold, calm voice. It looked at Zhao Fu as if it was looking at a bug.

Feeling this immense power, Zhao Fu’s body could not help but tremble. This image’s power was simply too mighty and surpassed even Tuoba Qing’s power. No wonder she had to leave – these sorts of higher beings would be able to kill even gods with ease.

Boom!!

An explosion sounded out as Zhao Fu used all of the Great Qin Seal’s power. The Great Qin Seal continuously trembled and gathered power from the countless Cities. The various City Lords had all since noticed that a terrifying existence had descended, so they all responded, sending their City Lord Seals’ power into the Great Qin Seal.

Zhao Fu raised his power to the maximum, causing a powerful flame to shoot into the sky. His aura blasted out like wild gales, causing countless creatures to feel terror.

The image condescending smiled and waved its hand.

In that moment, Zhao Fu's body froze, and he felt a chill in his heart as he sensed an enormous wave of energy rushing towards him. He did not hesitate and unleashed his Emperor's Domain with his full strength.

Bang!

A muffled sound rang out as Zhao Fu's body was sent flying backward by the formless energy, and his Emperor's Domain instantly shattered.

Zhao Fu's body crashed 1,000 meters away, and a few of his ribs had been broken. He coughed up a mouthful of blood and felt incredibly powerless – this person was so powerful.

The image sneered at Zhao Fu and stepped out, instantly crossing the 1,000 meters and came before Zhao Fu. "You're too weak!"

After saying this, the image lifted its foot and stomped towards Zhao Fu with immense strength.

Zhao Fu was given a big fright and quickly dodged, turning into a ray of light and rushing 100 meters away. The image's stomp was like a meteor crashing down, creating a massive crater and causing a corporeal shockwave to blast out.

The surrounding 1,000 meters instantly caved in, creating a giant pit that was tens of meters deep. If Zhao Fu had been hit, even if he did not die, he would have been heavily injured.

Before Zhao Fu could rejoice at avoiding this attack, the image suddenly appeared behind Zhao Fu and kicked at him.

Bang!!

Zhao Fu's body flew out like a sandbag, heavily crashing onto a small hill 1,000 meters away. The small hill was instantly destroyed, causing countless rocks to fly everywhere.

"Your strength is not enough to withstand this Sovereign. Kneel and I will allow you to die!" the image mockingly said.

Zhao Fu powerlessly lay among the rubble, his body covered with blood. His aura was quite weak, and the image once again blurred and appeared before him. The image prepared to end Zhao Fu's life, as it seemed that Zhao Fu could no longer retaliate.

Suddenly, the image was startled and wanted to retreat but was blasted flying by a massive amount of energy, crashing hundreds of meters away with a look of shock on its face.

A mass of gray aura had come out of Zhao Fu's body, causing the temperature of the surroundings to fall. A chilling wind started to blow as an icy, terrifying aura swept out, and there seemed to be the sound of ghosts howling as well.

Zhao Fu's body lost all traces of blood and became extremely pale. His hair also became gray-white as fangs grew in his mouth and his hands became ghost-like claws. His body gave off a terrifying ghostly power, and the ground around him started to crack.

"Six Paths of Reincarnation Power! How could a weak bug like you obtain this sort of power?" Feeling that cold energy from Zhao Fu, the image looked extremely startled and cried out. The Six Paths of Reincarnation Power was not something that could be obtained by humans, and even gods might not be able to. Yet, this person was using it!

Zhao Fu did not answer his words and turned into a black blur and flew towards the image. The image's expression became serious and stretched out a hand towards Zhao Fu, causing countless traces of blood-red aura to gather at its hand.

Boom!!

The image grasped at the air, and an explosion sounded out as a formless, 1,000-meter wide hand grabbed Zhao Fu's body. This power was incredibly terrifying, and even a mountain would be crushed.

However, Zhao Fu roared, causing an even stronger wave of ghostly qi to erupt out of his body. The Six Paths of Reincarnation Power was simply too powerful, and Zhao Fu could not control it properly. His mind started to become hazy, and he became more and more like a ghostly demon, instantly breaking free of the formless hand.

He appeared in front of the image, punching out with enormous strength and sending the image crashing into a mountain hundreds of meters away. The face of the mountain was left with a massive crater and countless cracks, socketing the image within it.

The image became furious – it had never been sent flying by a low-grade human like this before.

Boom!!

At that moment, Zhao Fu already reached the image, stabbing his sharp claw through the image's chest. The image did not expect this and could only hatefully glare at Zhao Fu, gnashing its teeth as it said, "You weak bug, this Sovereign won't let you off!"

The image's body gradually disappeared, and Zhao Fu violently coughed up a mouthful of blood. He felt as if his body was being ripped into countless pieces, and blood started to flow out of his skin. Zhao Fu wanted to stop the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power, but something abnormal happened.

"Arghhhh!!" Zhao Fu howled as a cold and gloomy aura burst out from beneath him like a volcano erupting, and a hellish will began to enter his body.

In a place filled with Yin Qi, there were countless black coffins orderly put together. There were 25 million of them, covering as far as the eye could see, and they formed a grand scene. At that moment, all of the soldiers' corpses within those black coffins opened their gray-white eyes.

Chapter 853: Ghost World

Boom!!

A shocking explosion rang throughout the entire human world. When all of the soldiers' corpses opened their eyes, an ocean-like wave of Yin Qi exploded out, forming a pillar of Yin Qi that shot into the sky.

The pillar of Yin Qi was tens of thousands of kilometers wide, seeming to connect the heavens and the earth. The sound and shockwaves it gave off make it seem as if the world was ending, creating a shocking scene.

In front of this pillar of Yin Qi, countless people felt incredibly tiny and insignificant; this power was not something that they could resist.

Yin Qi continuously shot into the sky, forming countless dark clouds and covering the entire sky. The temperature rapidly fell, and a chilling aura spread out.

The clouds of Yin Qi continuously spread out, covering the entire human world in just a few moments. The ghostly qi filled the entire world, and the human world seemed to lose all life, turning into a gray-white world filled with ghostly qi and a gloomy aura.

As ghosts sensed this overwhelming Yin Qi, they delightedly flew into the sky and swam about, giving off chilling howls. It seemed as if the world had turned into a world of ghosts.

Near the human world, the Fish Scale world, Dark Demon world, and Grassi world had only just come back to their senses from the descent of the Celestial Emperor Star and felt quite afraid of the human world.

They were not sure what had happened in the human world, but that Will that made even the heavens and earth want to submit struck terror into their hearts. They would never be able to forget that sort of power, and it would become a nightmare for them.

Even the Dark Demon world, which had looked down on the human world this whole time, found that it had been wrong. These humans, who they had looked down on, were actually the Dark Demon race's greatest enemies.

At that moment, an extremely gloomy and cold aura came from the human world again. All people in those three worlds' hairs stood no end, and they gulped. Looking at the Yin Qi rushing over from the human world, their bodies trembled in terror.

Just what was happening in the human world?

The hellish intent continuously flowed into Zhao Fu's body and corroded it. It felt like an extremely chilling qi had invaded Zhao Fu's body, slowly tearing it apart. Even his soul was being slowly ripped apart, filling Zhao Fu with immense pain.

Zhao Fu had not yet undone his Six Paths of Reincarnation state, and he still looked like a ghost. Within his body, the golden dragon was quite shocked, not knowing what was happening, but it had an ominous feeling.

Suddenly, a hellish intent wrapped Zhao Fu's body and instantly brought Zhao Fu within that massive pillar of Yin Qi.

At the center of the pillar of Yin Qi, which was the Ghost Seal Formation, there had been something growing this entire time. Because of what the golden dragon had said, Zhao Fu did not stop it, but he had never thought that something like this would happen.

Zhao Fu's body was currently powerlessly floating within the pillar of Yin Qi, and the hellish intent continuously corroded his body and soul. The intense pain caused him to continuously scream, and his voice became quite hoarse.

Within the Ghost World Pearl, even the Six Paths Demon Images bound by chains felt a sense of terror. They madly roared as they struggled, but they were completely helpless. Wounds started to appear on their bodies, and boundless black blood was drawn out by a formless energy, fusing into Zhao Fu's bloodline.

The purest Yin Qi in the pillar of Yin Qi flooded into Zhao Fu's body, and the massive amount of Yin Qi once again caused Zhao Fu to go through changes.

On the ground, the Ghost Soldiers simultaneously pushed open their coffins and walked out. They looked up at Zhao Fu in the sky, their gray-white eyes filled with a resolute will.

"We pay our respects to the Emperor!" the 25 million Ghost Soldiers' voices boomed like thunder. They all half-knelt with their heads lowered, calling out respectfully.

In that moment, the countless ghosts, including even Great Qin's Black and White Impermanences and Yin Soldiers, felt an incredibly powerful might. This might weighed down on their souls and was something that they could not resist.

All of the ghosts knelt on both knees towards the pillar of Yin Qi in respect and terror.

“Roarr!!” In that moment, a dragon’s roar sounded out throughout the entire world. Under the pillar of Yin Qi, a gray, ghostly dragon giving off an Emperor’s aura that could cause all ghosts to submit entered Zhao Fu’s body.

Boom!!

A massive explosion shook the entire world. The enormous pillar of Yin Qi expanded out to become tens of times larger, and the ocean of Yin Qi continuously flooded into Zhao Fu’s body.

Rays of gray light shot past mountains, oceans, out of the human world, past the surrounding worlds, and past the surrounding thousands of worlds. Feeling the coldness from those rays of gray light, everyone’s body froze, and they looked in the direction of the human world.

A gray star that looked like a moon gave off a ghostly intent and an eerie might that made the entire world want to submit.

In that moment, the elder from the Heaven Path Sect’s expression became one of dismay as he looked towards the distance with eyes as sharp as swords.

His disciple had just ordered people to collect information on the Celestial Emperor Star, and seeing his Master’s expression become so serious, he asked curiously, “What is it, Master?”

The elder could no longer remain calm. His hand slightly trembled as he said, “In that direction, there is a Nether Emperor Star Descending!”

Hearing this, the disciple also felt quite shocked, “Nether Emperor Stars are the sovereign stars of the Death Race. This is the fourth in the past 100 years; the Death Race must be incredibly happy. Who would have thought that right after a Celestial Emperor Star descended, a Nether Emperor Star would also descend. It’s also in the same direction; what a coincidence!”

Because Nether Emperor Stars belonged to the Death Race, they were relatively rare. Above the Heaven Awaken World was the Godly Spirit World that had all sorts of godly spirits, and below the Heaven Awaken World was the Ghost World that contained countless Undead.

The Ghost World was about the same size as the Godly Spirit world and was the final place for countless living creatures. It was an ancient world that appeared during early times, and it was a world that relied on the Heaven Awaken World for its existence.

The Ghost World was filled with all sorts of ghosts and had many ancient races, including the Black and White Impermanences and Yin Soldiers. They all lived in the Ghost World.

Chapter 854: Fate Sovereign

Compared to the Godly Spirit World, the Ghost World had a closer connection to the Heaven Awaken World. There were not as many restrictions, and they could even use certain things to move freely between the worlds; this was not possible for the Godly Spirit World.

The Heaven Awaken World had many people from the Death Race, but the Death Race was somewhat different to the Ghost World's races. Even though they were all created from Yin Qi, there were some differences.

Most of the Ghost World's races came from ancient times and were mostly extremely pure. They contained a trace of Yin Qi source energy. Even though most of the Death Race had Yin Qi and their bloodlines had Yin attributes, compared to the Ghost World's races, they were quite impure and weak.

Only someone with the purest Ghost World Bloodline could awaken a Nether Emperor Star. It was quite rare for people from the Death Race to be able to awaken the Nether Emperor Star, and even in the Ghost World, it was quite rare.

As the sovereign star of the Death Race, the Nether Emperor Star was an extremely noble existence. It had the ability to make countless ghosts submit, and ordinary ghosts were unable to resist. It was able to suppress even the souls of ghosts due to the immense Fate it contained.

Even though there were many Death Race Empires in the Heaven Awaken World, there were very few with extremely pure bloodlines, and thus, there were very few Nether Emperor Stars. According to the direction the elder was pointing in, there was only one Empire that could achieve this.

"Master, the Death Race and Human Race's relationship has been quite good recently. Now that the Ghost God Empire has awakened a Nether Emperor Star, should we go and express our congratulations?" the disciple confidently asked as he smiled.

The elder shook his head, his expression serious as he replied, “It’s not the Ghost God Empire; it’s still a remote region on the boundary that awakened this Nether Emperor Star!”

“What?” The disciple felt incredibly shocked. The Celestial Emperor Star from before had descended in a remote region, and now this Nether Emperor Star had also descended in a remote region. This was simply too shocking; there had never been two Emperor Stars descending in remote regions before.

Moreover, the conditions for awakening a Nether Emperor Star were even more demanding than that of a Celestial Emperor Star. Not only did one need a Sovereign Bloodline, but one also needed a pure Ghost World Bloodline. How could someone in a remote region fulfill both of those requirements? This disciple simply could not work out what was happening.

At that moment, the elder said something that made him feel even more shocked, “The aura that this Nether Emperor Star gives off is extremely similar to the aura that the Celestial Emperor Star gave off. It’s quite likely that the same person awakened both of them!”

Upon hearing this, the disciple felt immensely shocked, and his voice trembled as he said, “Master, this is impossible! The Celestial Emperor Star is our Human Race’s sovereign star, and only someone with an extremely pure Human Bloodline can awaken it, while the Nether Emperor Star requires an extremely pure Ghost World Bloodline!”

Both of these stars were two different Races’ sovereign stars, and even ordinary Empires could not awaken one. Anyone who could awaken even one would have an enormous amount of Fate.

Perhaps in the entirety of the Heaven Awaken World, no one had ever awakened two sovereign stars! Even if someone could obtain two Fate Stars, they would at most be ordinary stars. However, these were both sovereign stars!

Moreover, there was no way to explain how that person had fulfilled the issues of both of the bloodlines. One was a Human Bloodline and the other was a Ghost World Bloodline, and both had to be extremely pure in order to obtain those Races’ Fate.

A single person awakening two sovereign stars was simply unimaginable and inexplicable.

The elder’s expression was quite serious as he shook his head, unable to answer his disciple’s words. This matter was indeed quite shocking.

“Master, what should we do?” The disciple deeply breathed in and out a few times before calming himself down. This was definitely something that would shake the entire Heaven Awaken World – a Celestial Emperor Star descending was already shocking enough, and now, two Emperor Stars had descended.

After thinking for a while, the elder said, “Gather all of the Elders!”

Hearing this, the disciple quickly left to notify the Elders of the meeting.

Within the Heaven’s Will organisation, a few people reported to the leader – the Fate Sovereign – about two sovereign stars descending.

A young woman who possessed ethereal looks and was wearing a white dress slowly walked over, and everyone nearby automatically made way. They all lowered their heads respectfully; even though this young woman looked quite young, she had lived for an extremely long time.

She was the leader of Heaven’s Will, and her power surpassed that of ordinary people. She ordinarily remained within Heaven’s Will and very rarely left. However, she was someone who all of the top factions in the Heaven Awaken World wanted to befriend.

The elders who had coughed up blood and collapsed walked up to her and bowed, calling out, “Fate Sovereign!”

The young woman lightly nodded and said in an elegant tone, “Tell me everything in detail!”

The elders told everything to the young woman, from finding the Celestial Emperor Star to seeing two Fate Stars, to then being blasted away by the two stars like bugs.

A rare look of surprise appeared on the young woman’s face. She walked over to the Heaven’s Secret device, and everyone looked towards her, feeling quite curious.

Back when the sixth Celestial Emperor Star had descended, the Fate Sovereign had not bothered looking into it, but now, it seemed that she was going to personally act. As the Fate Sovereign, her power was something that they could not compare to, and they believed that the Fate Sovereign could work out what was happening.

After the young woman went to the side of Heaven's Secret, it started to quickly spin, and the young woman's consciousness gradually entered it. After following the tracks left by the elders before, she quickly found the golden star.

If the elders' consciousnesses were bugs, then the Fate Sovereign's consciousness was a massive beast.

Looking at this enormous golden star, the young woman became quite serious. She pushed against its massive might and advanced, and after seeing the red star next to it, her pupils constricted, feeling quite shocked.

The young woman could immediately tell that this was a star of disaster fused from a Myrtle Imperial Star and a Chaos Devil Star. The aura of disaster and killing it gave off caused even her to feel shocked.

This person actually had two Fate Stars; one was a Celestial Emperor Star and the other was a Chaos Imperial Star. This person would definitely cause massive waves in the future, changing the situation in the entire Heaven Awaken World. His potential was simply unimaginable.

The young woman's expression became quite serious, and she stood there and looked closely at the two stars, trying to see the path of Zhao Fu's fate.

At that moment, the two stars sensed the young woman and gave off intense lights, once again blasting out with immense might.

The young woman immediately performed hand seals, causing a white barrier to surround her. Against this attack, the young woman could only just hold on.

Chapter 855: Six Paths

Boom!!

A heaven-splitting sound rang out as the space within Heaven's Secrets violently trembled. Feeling this energy, a look of shock appeared on the young woman's face. She looked to the side and saw a star that looked like a ghostly moon slowly appearing.

Bang!

A muffled explosion sounded out as the young woman's consciousness was blasted back. She had barely been able to resist the power from the two stars earlier, and facing three stars, she was completely helpless.

As her consciousness returned to her body, her physical body was also blasted back by a formless energy, and she coughed up a large mouthful of blood. This startled everyone present – even their most powerful Fate Sovereign had been injured and had not been able to find the location of that person.

Their Fate Sovereign was incredibly powerful and they trusted in her abilities, so they could not understand what had happened.

Suddenly, they all sensed something and looked towards the distance and found that a Nether Emperor Star had descended. The aura was quite similar to that of the Celestial Emperor Star that had descended earlier, making them wonder if that person had awakened a third star. Instantly, they all looked incredibly shocked and could not believe this.

They quickly helped the Fate Sovereign up and asked her, "Fate Sovereign, what is going on? Could it be that this Emperor Star..."

The young woman coughed up a mouthful of blood and looked into the distance, a bewildered expression on her face, and she said, "This matter is to be listed as a top-grade secret of Heaven's Will. No one is to talk about it, and all of the Heaven's Will Elders are to report to the Heaven's Will Pavilion!"

Hearing this, everyone felt quite shocked. They could guess as to what it was about, but they did not dare to say anything, as they understood the importance of this matter. Soon, all of the Elders gathered at the Heaven's Will Pavilion.

Within the Holy Book Pavilion, the scholarly middle-aged man's smile died down, and he looked into the distance seriously.

Seeing the middle-aged man like this, someone asked jokingly, “Pavilion Master, why did you suddenly become so serious? Did another Emperor Star descend or something?”

The scholarly middle-aged man looked away and said seriously, “Yes, another Emperor Star has descended, but it’s the Death Race’s Nether Emperor Star.”

Hearing his words, everyone felt incredibly shocked. They had never expected that two Emperor Stars would descend in such a short period of time; this was another big matter that they could record.

One of the people smiled and said, “Pavilion Master, isn’t this good? This will give us more content to write about. Since they descended at such close timings, perhaps there is a connection between them. Maybe two Empires will start fighting.”

Everyone smiled as they looked at the scholarly middle-aged man, but the middle-aged man’s expression was still incredibly serious as he said, “The Holy Book Pavilion cannot have anything to do with this matter. We can only mention this matter but cannot talk about it in depth!”

Seeing the Pavilion Master so rarely serious, everyone felt quite confused but still followed his orders.

“Sir! Sir! That orb of blood has gone through changes again!”

The Heaven Spirit Financial Group’s higher-ups had just listed that orb of blood as the top priority to monitor and prohibited all people from talking about it. Just as they were about to engage in detailed discussions about the Celestial Emperor Star, a cry of terror sounded out, making them feel quite displeased. However, after hearing what that person had to say, their expression changed.

At the same time, they looked into the distance and sensed that gloomy aura, causing them to look incredibly shocked – could it have to do with that person again?

The higher-ups hurriedly went to a room and looked at the orb of blood floating in mid-air. It was now giving off a ghostly light and an eerie aura, causing everyone to tremble, feeling as if they were being stared at by a ghost.

“It really... is related to him!” Even the higher-ups, who were normally extremely calm, felt greatly shocked. This person had once again exceeded their expectations – two Emperor Stars had descended on him. If it wasn’t for the fact that they had seen the proof themselves, they would not have been able to believe it.

“Give out the order! Anyone who leaks information about this matter will be killed without mercy!”

The people responsible for managing this orb of blood understood how important this matter was. They decided to forever hide this matter in their hearts and never speak of it. However, after hearing this new order, they looked at each other with eyes filled with disbelief. This time, it was an order with a punishment of death – they had once again underestimated how important this orb of blood was.

This matter was now the greatest secret of the Heaven Spirit Financial Group, and they absolutely could not tell anyone even until they died.

Within a ghostly qi-filled palace, the expert from the Death Race was just admiring the Human Race for having a Celestial Emperor Star descending. Sensing the eerie ripples from far away, his expression changed – even though it was a Nether Emperor Star, he did not feel happy at all.

Not only was it because this Nether Emperor Star’s aura was quite similar to that Celestial Emperor Star’s aura, but as someone part of the Death Race, he could also clearly sense that this Nether Emperor Star was quite hostile to the Death Race. It gave off a pure Ghost World aura and an aura of chaos and violence.

This aura felt like that of the Six Paths Demon Images, but how was that possible? He could not understand this, and the ill intent it gave off made it impossible for him to feel happy about it.

It was not just him – all of the experts from the Death Race looked at the Nether Emperor Star giving off the Six Paths aura and looked quite serious. Not a single one of them seemed happy at all.

The God Race, Demon Race, and Devil Race, which had been trying to find the owner of this Celestial Emperor Star, all suddenly fell silent as if nothing had happened.

Many minor figures in the three Races felt quite confused, but the experts all became serious and took this matter incredibly seriously.

All discussions about this Celestial Emperor Star suddenly ceased, making everyone feel quite perplexed. However, from the reactions from the experts of the various Races, they could understand that this matter was not so simple anymore.

“Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar! Roar!”

Within the depths of the Ghost World, six massive, furious roars sounded throughout the entire Ghost World. Yin Qi started to become chaotic, and countless ghosts howled in fear. Everyone within the Ghost World looked quite shocked.

They knew what it was that had caused those sounds – they were the most terrifying existences in the Ghost World, the Six Paths Demon Images responsible for guarding the Six Paths of Reincarnation.

What had happened? Why were the Six Paths Demon Images so furious?

All of the Ghost World’s large factions started to investigate this matter, as it was quite a big deal. After all, it was the Six Paths Demon Images who had caused this commotion. Through their investigations, they discovered that a Nether Emperor Star giving off the Six Paths aura in the Heaven Awaken World.

In response, everyone fell into silence.

Chapter 856: Five Pupils

Back at Great Qin, within the gigantic pillar of Yin Qi, Zhao Fu’s body went through some changes. He no longer looked like a ghost and returned to his human appearance.

He no longer had fangs in his mouth, and his hands were no longer claws. His appearance did not look savage anymore, and his body was not as pale. His skin was still slightly pale but had some ruddiness, and his hair was still gray-white.

The biggest changes were in Zhao Fu’s eyes. Before, Zhao Fu’s left eye had four pupils: two blood-red, one white, and one gold. Each of the pupils gave off different auras: The blood-red ones gave off evil and murderous auras, the white one gave off a peaceful aura, and the golden one gave off a noble aura.

Now, there was an extra gray pupil in Zhao Fu's left eye. This gray pupil looked like a ghost's, and it gave off an eerie aura. Normal people would feel quite frightened when looking at it and would not dare to look at Zhao Fu directly; otherwise, they would probably have nightmares for a few days.

Apart from this, Zhao Fu's right eye also went through some changes. Before, Zhao Fu's right eye had three pupils layered together. Now, there were four pupils layered together, with an extra gray layer. The six gray dots around the pupil also became a bit bigger.

There was also now a gray ghostly dragon within Zhao Fu's body. It was as big as an ordinary dragon, but it had four eyes and a bone horn on its head. It gave off an eerie and terrifying aura of a ghost and was extremely powerful.

The Six Paths Demon Images within the Ghost World Pearl looked quite weak and were no longer as ferocious; it seemed that they had been heavily injured and needed a long time to recover.

Zhao Fu opened his terrifying eyes and stood between the heavens and earth. His aura seemed quite strange – it seemed somewhat human and yet somewhat ghost-like, but it was extremely powerful and gave off the might of an Emperor.

Zhao Fu came back to his senses, and the Nether Emperor Star slowly disappeared into the sky as the abnormal signs in the surroundings also disappeared.

The massive pillar of Yin Qi gradually shrank, and the clouds of Yin Qi covering the human world also receded. The Yin Qi that filled the heavens and earth gradually dissipated, and a few rays of sunlight started to pierce through the clouds, restoring warmth to the human world.

Everyone let out a sigh of relief and looked towards the direction of Great Qin. No one would believe that this had nothing to do with Great Qin.

After experiencing the abnormal signs from the Celestial Emperor Star and Nether Emperor Star, everyone prepared themselves for more, not letting their guards down yet.

After a while, nothing happened, and the warm sunlight was still shining; the birds were still singing and there were light breezes. Only then did they relax.

From the three General Stars gathering, to the golden star descending, to the ghostly moon-like star descending, no one had expected so many things to happen. This was much more terrifying than even when the Myrtle Imperial Star and the Chaos Imperial Star had descended.

What was even more unexpected was that Great Qin's Fate Star now was not only the Chaos Imperial Star; there was also a mysterious gold star and that ghostly moon-like star. No one understood what was happening with those two stars.

They had never seen those two stars before and naturally had no idea what they were. However, they could tell that they were at least King Stars, or else they would not have been able to cause such a disturbance.

Now, Great Qin's Legatee's potential was simply terrifying. He had three Fate Stars that were at least King Stars, making his future unlimited. This made the leaders of the various factions felt a headache coming on – Great Qin's Legatee was becoming greater and greater.

They desperately thought of ways to suppress Great Qin, but they felt incredibly helpless. The gap between them and Great Qin was too huge.

As the time for the destruction of the world came closer and closer, many large families decided to make a decision. This matter completely destroyed their hopes of making a name for themselves, and they could only dispiritedly run to the Ying family, hoping that Great Qin would take them in.

Ever since Great Qin had conquered one-third of its territory, Vietnam had viewed Great Qin as its greatest enemy, wanting to find an opportunity to take revenge. However, after this, they realized how naïve they were. They were like a few ants wanting to kill a massive dragon.

When the Celestial Emperor Star, giving off boundless heaven's will, descended, they felt completely helpless. Their minds felt as if they had taken a great blow, going completely blank, and their bodies had automatically knelt in the direction Great Qin was in. It was not just a few people but everyone in Vietnam; very few people could even resist this terrifying might.

Facing someone who was so many times more powerful than them, they felt greatly discouraged, and some factions started to change their minds. If they continued on like this, all of Vietnam would be destroyed at Great Qin's hands sooner or later. If they did not want to die, they could only choose to submit.

As such, they could not continue to view Great Qin with hatred and calmed themselves down so that they could make a rational decision. If Great Qin was willing to take them in, they would submit to Great Qin.

The various Dynasty Legatees' expressions were all quite unsightly. They had not been able to fully withstand the heaven's will to kneel either, and as the Legatee of a Dynasty, kneeling to someone else was an incredible humiliation.

What angered them even more was that not only did they kneel, but all of their subjects had also knelt to Great Qin. This made them almost go mad with anger, hating Great Qin to death.

Out of the Eight Legatees, only Tina Pendragon had been able to withstand that heaven's will, but she had been heavily wounded as the price. It was essentially impossible for humans to resist that power, and even some Kings in the Grassi world could not withstand it, much less humans who were not yet Kings.

This matter not only shook the human world but also the Fish Scale world, Dark Demon world, and Grassi world.

The Grassi world decided to change its original plan – before, they had decided to wait until the Heaven Domain Boundaries were gone to invade the human world. They viewed the human world as sheep, but now, it seemed that the human world could actually be a ferocious tiger. If they weren't careful, they could be in trouble.

The Dark Demon world was also greatly shaken. They completely gave up on any ideas of looking down on the human world, and almost all the factions gathered together to discuss how to deal with the human world in the future.

The Dark Demon world's World Protector, Mo Qi, once again entered the human world to observe it. He did not act as unrestrainedly as before because there was a being even more terrifying than him here.

The Fish Scale world deeply regretted what they had done – if they had known this would happen, they would not have invaded the human world. Not only did they lose so many people, but they might also have brought great trouble upon themselves. In the future, there would definitely be a battle between the humans and Fish Scale people, and when they thought of that, their expressions became quite unsightly.

The Fish Scale world's World Protector, a young man with golden fish scales, had finished his long period of cultivation. He also stepped into the human world for the first time and seriously observed the humans.

Chapter 857: Half Human Half Ghost

Zhao Fu stood in the air and examined his body. He was not sure how to describe himself, as his bloodline had become quite strange – it seemed like that of the Human Race but also like that of the Death Race. This was because he had fused in the Six Paths Demon Images' Bloodline, so it was quite difficult to tell.

Zhao Fu's current appearance was now his fixed appearance, and it could not be changed. His body now had some Six Paths of Reincarnation Power – it was not from the Six Paths Demon Images but something that belonged to himself.

The Six Paths of Reincarnation Power was one of the top-tier powers in the Ghost World and could completely suppress all lower-tier powers. Even the Ghost King's Ghost King Power could not rival the Six Paths of Reincarnation Power.

There were also two new dragons in his body. One gave off an extremely noble and powerful Emperor's aura, while the other gave off an extremely eerie and powerful Emperor's aura.

Zhao Fu could not help but ask the golden dragon, "What's going on?"

Now, Zhao Fu had four Fate Dragons. Out of all of them, the golden dragon was the most special, as it not only had its own consciousness but could also think independently and knew much more than Zhao Fu.

The golden dragon could only shake its head and say, "I don't know why you were able to cause so many things. The gathering of the three stars seemed to have been the catalyst to all of this. Ever since you awakened the Chaos Imperial Star, your fate has no longer been constrained by the heavens.

“After fusing with me and the Heaven Murder Empire’s Fate and obtaining the Heaven Murder Bloodline, you have become more and more unpredictable. The reason you were able to awaken two Emperor Stars was because of the amount of Fate you had gathered.

“Of course, another thing that greatly helped was your Origin Mark. Without the help of the Origin Mark, it would have been quite difficult for you to awaken those two stars. You should thank that young woman for giving such a valuable Origin Mark to you.

“Now, you understand how important an Origin Mark is. Even those higher beings can’t help themselves from wanting to steal it; after all, the Origin Race is simply too rare and has disappeared since ancient times. That young woman’s identity is far more complicated than what you think.”

After hearing the golden dragon’s words, Zhao Fu sighed. He had to hide the Origin Mark in the future and could not release even a tiny bit of its aura. He had already offended a higher being.

That had only been a clone of the higher being, yet it was more powerful than ordinary godly spirits. It was only by using the Six Paths Demon Images’ power that Zhao Fu had been able to defeat him. If the main body had descended, even if he had used all of his powers, Great Qin would have been destroyed by that higher being.

Back then, Zhao Fu did not have time to hide his appearance, and Great Qin’s position had been discovered. If that higher being came, Great Qin would face a catastrophe.

That higher being’s power was simply too terrifying and made Zhao Fu feel greatly threatened. However, Great Qin was based here and could not move; if he came, Great Qin would be doomed. Apart from establishing a Kingdom, the only thing Zhao Fu could do now was restore his Six Paths of Reincarnation Power.

Because Zhao Fu had used the Six Paths Demon Images to awaken the Nether Emperor Star, they not only looked extremely wounded, but most of their source energy had also been absorbed by Zhao Fu as well. By restoring his Six Paths of Reincarnation Power, Zhao Fu would be able to have a trace of resistance against that higher being.

After thinking to himself for a while, Zhao Fu looked at the Ghost Soldiers kneeling on the ground and said, “All rise!”

The Ghost Soldiers simultaneously stood up and stood there like wooden blocks. They obeyed Zhao Fu's commands and seemed like perfectly loyal soldiers; even if Zhao Fu ordered them to die, they would not hesitate.

Earlier, the Ghost King Seal had already shown signs of melting, and within this valley, the Ghost King Seal, the various Gravestones, the Flag, and the Yin Qi Formation had all fused together, forming that ghostly dragon that had entered Zhao Fu's body.

Even though the Ghost King Seal had disappeared, Zhao Fu could now innately control ten million Ghost Soldiers. After all, the Ghost King Seal had most likely fused into the ghostly dragon.

Zhao Fu had never thought that such a thing would be created. He did not know if it was good or bad, turning into a half human, half ghost bloodline.

At that moment, Bai Qi and the rest of Zhao Fu's subordinates hurried over. Facing those Emperor Stars and the higher being, all of them felt incredibly powerless. Now that things had ended, they were extremely worried about Zhao Fu's safety and rushed over.

"Your Majesty, are you alright?" The various Generals came to Zhao Fu's side and looked at him with concern. At the same time, they could clearly feel that Zhao Fu's aura had become more powerful and colder as well.

Zhao Fu slightly smiled and said, "I'm fine! Let's all go back together!"

Following this, Zhao Fu and his subordinates returned to the Great Qin City and made some arrangements. The first thing to do was the issue of defense: They now had to be on their guard against three countries. Also, they had to increase the construction of the Great Wall and clear out more regions.

Great Qin now only lacked a tiny bit of EXP in order to establish a Kingdom, and they could not let EXP hold them back. After clearing out all of the regions, even if they did not level up, it would be quite soon.

During this period of time, Zhao Fu decided to be more low-profile and avoid all battles, focusing on steadily developing. Everyone obeyed Zhao Fu's orders and sped up those things.

Zhao Fu then called over Li Si and asked him to make a high quality Yin Wood Coffin out of the best quality Yin Wood.

Hearing Zhao Fu say this, Li Si was given a big fright and asked Zhao Fu about his body – after all, anyone would feel incredibly worried upon their liege asking them to prepare a coffin.

Seeing that Li Si had misunderstood, Zhao Fu smiled as he explained. The recovery of the Six Paths Reincarnation Power required a large amount of Yin Qi, and that valley had become a special place that could create a lot of Yin Qi. He would stay there for a while, and coffins were the best tools for gathering and preserving Yin Qi.

After hearing Zhao Fu's explanation, Li Si felt much more at ease and ordered people to make the best quality coffin possible.

Of course, Zhao Fu would not stay at the valley all day, every day; he only went at night to absorb a large amount of Yin Qi in order to recover his Six Paths of Reincarnation Power. He remained within the Great Qin City during the day to take care of various matters.

After resting for a few days, a large group of women came to see Zhao Fu. They were essentially all Vietnamese players; before, when Zhao Fu had attacked Vietnam, not only had he destroyed five Dynasty Legacies, but he had also taken down many factions.

Most of these women had been brought back in passing. They were all women from the Dynasty Legacies, and they all had a large amount of Phoenix Qi.

Most of these women were relatives of the Dynasty Legatees, such as their mothers, sisters, aunties, cousins, etc.

Of course, Zhao Fu only glanced at them before making them concubines and ordering people to take them to their residences, not paying much mind to them.

Chapter 858: Vietnam

Before, they had all been incredibly teary and either looked at Zhao Fu hatefully or angrily. Even though their looks were all quite good, Zhao Fu was not someone who was interested in just any woman. Seeing them so teary, he lost all interest in them.

He did not have to refine any Nation Armaments, so there was no need for him to have any relations with them. He ordered people to take them to their residences and essentially forgot about them.

Now, a few days had passed, and Zhao Fu had no idea why they had all suddenly asked to see him. Originally, he did not want to see them, as there was no need to waste his time and their time, but after thinking about it, they were his concubines and his women at least in name.

As such, Zhao Fu agreed and had them enter the palace. Following this, 120 or so women walked in and respectfully bowed to Zhao Fu, making him feel quite surprised.

The woman at the head of all of these women was an elegant-looking woman, and she smiled as she said, “Your Majesty, after thinking about it over these few days, we are willing to serve you, but can you please spare our families? We really will serve you with all of our hearts.”

Zhao Fu understood and lightly laughed; it seemed that they understood their fates and knew that Vietnam was not a match for Great Qin. The destruction of Vietnam was something that would happen sooner or later, so they decided to think about their families.

After the matter of the two Emperor Stars awakening, many factions wanted to join Great Qin, but Zhao Fu only accepted some system factions. He did not accept any player factions, as he did not trust them.

However, accepting players in was something that would happen sooner or later; Great Qin couldn’t just have a mere handful of players.

Zhao Fu lightly nodded before replying, “If your families are willing to submit, I will not harm them.”

A look of delight appeared on the women’s faces, and the face of the one leading them became slightly red. She looked at Zhao Fu while taking her clothes off, saying, “Your Majesty, we’ll come and serve you now!”

The other women also blushed and started to slowly take off their clothes. At that moment, two young girls ran in, one of whom had nine tails. She was dragging a paper kite and happily ran over, calling out, “Your Majesty! Fly kites with us!”

There was a green-haired, green-eyed girl following behind her shyly, looking at Zhao Fu with a hopeful look.

This caused all of the women’s faces to become even redder, and they awkwardly stood there as they looked at the two young girls.

Zhao Fu had the Vietnamese women leave before taking Little Nine and Little Rose to a flat place. At the same time, he brought Black Forest, Moon Wolf, and Fat Cat.

Because of how busy he had been, he had not had much time to spend with them. Little Nine and Little Rose sat on Black Forest and Moon Wolf, respectively, their little hands holding onto the kite strings as they excitedly laughed.

Zhao Fu relaxedly sat on the green grass, looking at the scene in front of him and enjoying the breeze, while Fat Cat lazily lay beside him.

These days had been quite leisurely, and such days would be quite rare in the future. In actuality, being an ordinary person would not be too bad either. Some multimillionaires felt this way too, deciding to work as ordinary employees of companies.

After returning to the real world, the family leaders came to visit him, notifying him of a banquet, as many factions had asked to join Great Qin. Some of the player factions that had become Great Qin’s factions wanted to know when they could enter Great Qin.

Even though Great Qin had acknowledged them, they had still been kept outside of Great Qin’s territory and still had not been able to go in, making them feel quite unsettled.

The current Zhao Fu was not the same as the Zhao Fu from before. As soon as he arrived at the banquet, he became the center of attention. Countless people walked over to greet him and flatter him; these people were all quite experienced.

Zhao Fu understood that these people only came over to greet him so courteously and flatter him because of Great Qin's Legatee. If he did not have Great Qin's Legatee behind him, they would not even bother to look at him.

Indeed, without Great Qin's Legatee's support, Zhao Fu would just be an unremarkable minor figure; how could he have the right to stand with them? He would not have the right to speak with people like them, and even if he did, he would have to act incredibly servilely.

In actuality, most of these people looked down on Zhao Fu because he was nothing; everything had been given to him by Great Qin, and without Great Qin's Legatee, Zhao Fu would just be a bug they could crush at any moment.

Many of these people had such thoughts, but because they feared Great Qin's Legatee, they could only hide these thoughts within their hearts. They did their best to curry favor with Zhao Fu, treating him like a friend whom they had known for many years.

However, none of them would be able to guess that Zhao Fu was actually Great Qin's Legatee who they feared so much. However, Zhao Fu had no intentions of leaking any information and simply gave a few courteous replies.

Right now, Zhao Fu did not want them to enter Great Qin and planned to wait until the Heaven Awaken World devoured the real world. Only then would he be able to fully grasp them within his hands and would not have to worry about any rebellions. Only then would he be able to trust them.

When they lowered their heads, kneeled on the ground, and realized that he was Great Qin's Legatee, he wondered just how they would feel.

Saying that he was the representative of Great Qin's Legatee was a nice way of putting it; one could also say that he was a pawn of Great Qin's Legatee who could be discarded at any moment. How could such a pitiful figure stand on equal terms with Great Qin?

When Zhao Fu revealed his true identity, who knew how they would react?

Zhao Fu quickly concluded this banquet. His requirements for accepting the various factions were not too strict; anyone who wanted to join Great Qin would have to show their sincerity.

Soon, many women, treasures, and resources were gifted to Great Qin in order to show the factions' sincerity.

Zhao Fu saw many superstars, models, and singers, all of whom came willingly and did not seem like they were forced.

He was not sure what they were thinking – they were all incredibly popular and had great looks and figures; they should be able to find better options, yet they were willing to jump into a pit of fire and become an insignificant concubine of Great Qin's Legatee.

Looking at them and seeing how stunning they were, Zhao Fu tried to change their minds, saying, "There's no need for you to do this; Great Qin's Legatee is not as great as you think. Even after you enter Great Qin, you will not be favored highly by Great Qin's Legatee, so I'm sure there are better options out there for you."

Chapter 859: Clear Sable Sword

One of the famous singers hurriedly cut off Zhao Fu and said in a small voice, "Are you not afraid of dying? You dare to talk about Great Qin's Legatee like that? We know he's not good, but we have no other choice. We know that the real world is going to be destroyed soon, and only he can give us a safe and fulfilling life.

"In actuality, there's someone else I have my eyes on, but the world will belong to Great Qin's Legatee sooner or later. Even if I become someone else's woman, with how licentious Great Qin's Legatee is, he will still snatch me for his pleasure.

"I know that most men like women to be virgins and think that women who have been with men before aren't clean. As such, if I stay a virgin for him, I'll receive more affection from him.

"Since we're going to be taken by him sooner or later, it's better to take the initiative; maybe then we'll be given better treatment. If we wait until we're snatched, adding on the fact that we won't be 'pure' anymore, we might be treated coldly and die somewhere without anyone knowing."

Zhao Fu really did not know what to say. He was Great Qin's Legatee, and hearing her speak about him like this, he wondered if he really was as bad as that.

Zhao Fu dryly coughed before saying, “Great Qin’s Legatee is actually not too bad; he cares about his subjects, is fair to all, and treats his subordinates well...”

“You don’t need to say this; I know you’ll definitely try to say good things about him. I know what sort of person you are!” another young woman said, discourteously cutting Zhao Fu off.

Zhao Fu felt quite speechless; he was indeed trying to save some face for himself.

“Alright, that’s enough. You’re called Zhao Fu right? When are you going to take us to Great Qin?” a woman with an extremely good figure, looking like a model, asked impatiently.

These women all looked quite prideful, and Zhao Fu replied, “I haven’t decided whether I want to send you to Great Qin or not!”

All of the women, who did not even want to bother with Zhao Fu, felt incredibly shocked and stared at him.

One of the women coldly harrumphed and said, “Do you know what the consequences are? With how lustful Great Qin’s Legatee is, it’s impossible that he won’t want us. You’re just a minor figure working under him, so if you dare to not send us to him, you’ll be dead meat! Plus, I remember everything you said about him before; you’d best watch yourself!”

This woman’s figure was incredibly sexy, and he remembered that he had watched a few movies she was in. He originally had a good impression of her but not anymore now that she treated him so condescendingly.

Zhao Fu coldly harrumphed and did not reply, refusing to send them.

The singer who had spoken first tried to persuade him in a soft voice, “Zhao Fu, I know you have good intentions, but this is our decision. Please help us!

“Even though we know that he’s not good, the world is in such chaos, and without someone powerful protecting us, our outcome will be quite grim. We might even become a sex toy for countless men and might lose our right to even be human. You stay within Great Qin, so you don’t know how evil and cruel the outside world is.

“The outside world is incredibly chaotic, and we are doing this voluntarily. No matter what happens, we won’t blame you. If you don’t help us, that will be the same as destroying us.”

This made Zhao Fu feel quite helpless, so he could only agree, although this would only add to his reputation of being licentious. However, since this was what they wanted, he could only accept them.

Hearing that Zhao Fu was going to accept them into Great Qin, they all looked at him gratefully. He wondered how they would feel after knowing about his true identity.

However, Zhao Fu temporarily did not bring them to Great Qin because a mysterious faction had sent something to Zhao Fu. They had not revealed their identity, and the thing that they had sent was a sword.

This sword was about one meter long and two finger widths wide, and it was completely black. There were golden inscriptions on it, and it gave off an ancient aura but did not feel very sharp.

Zhao Fu could sense that this sword was not ordinary at all, as it gave off a dignified and benevolent sword intent. This sword intent was extremely powerful and ancient, and even an ordinary Epic grade weapon in the Heaven Awaken World would not be able to compare to it. This sword intent could rival even a Saint Armament.

Who would gift such a valuable sword to him? Zhao Fu simply could not understand. However, Zhao Fu knew of this sword’s background.

This was the second-ranked sword out of the Ten Legendary Swords, the Clear Sable Sword. The first-ranked sword, the Regulus Sword, was a sword of legends, while the Clear Sable Sword was a sword more grounded in reality. If it wasn’t for the Regulus Sword, the Clear Sable Sword would definitely be the top sword in China.

The Clear Sable Sword was created by the legendary master of sword-making, Ou Yezi, together with the help of his wife Zhu Jun, wife Mo Xie, and junior apprentice brother Gan Jiang, for the monarch Yunchang.

Ou Yezi was a grandmaster-level figure in the ancient world of sword-making. His sword-making skills were unparalleled, and he was the number one expert in the ancient world; even now, his name was heard of by many.

The Clear Sable Sword was a sword but also an eye.

This long, black sword made it hard for others to sense how sharp it was, and it instead gave off an aura of tolerance and benevolence. It was like a deep, black eye of the heavens, looking down on every action of a king.

If a ruler was virtuous and capable, the sword would remain with them and help the kingdom prosper; if a ruler was immoral and incapable, the sword would desert them, and the kingdom would fall to ruin.

When Ou Yezi completed the sword, he could not help but shed tears, because he had finally completed his lifelong dream: To create a weapon that was firm and indestructible yet did not give off any killing intent.

After the Clear Sable Sword was forged, it was given to the King Yunchang and passed on to his son, King Goujian. After losing in battle, he gave the sword to the King of Wu, Fuchai. However, King Fuchai was tyrannical, and the Clear Sable Sword left him, going instead to the King of Chu. From then onwards, the Clear Sable Sword had been a sword that represented justice and kindness.

As the saying went, ‘those who acted with kindness would have no enemies’ – the Clear Sable Sword was a sword of kindness.

After recalling the information about the Clear Sable Sword, Zhao Fu could not help but feel quite startled – why did someone gift him this sword of kindness? Could it be because they wanted him to show more kindness and stop killing?

Zhao Fu held this sword and felt quite uncomfortable. The path that Zhao Fu walked was not the path of kindness, one that convinced people to surrender through amicable means – it was one of domination through continuous killing.

This sword did not suit him, and just as he was about to put the sword down, he felt that within a boundless darkness, an eye suddenly opened. Zhao Fu’s hairs stood on end and looked at the sword in shock – this sword actually had its own consciousness.

Chapter 860: Eye

This eye was not scary and did not contain any ill-intent, nor did it contain any joy. It simply looked at Zhao Fu peacefully without reacting at all.

Zhao Fu inwardly felt quite uncomfortable at suddenly being looked at like this. Even though this sword did not have any ill intent, Zhao Fu did not like this sword much. He did not know just who this mysterious faction was and why they had given him the sword of kindness.

They most likely knew that he was not a kind person, so why had they sent this sword to him? Zhao Fu could not understand.

This sword really did not suit him, and he did not want to use it either. It made him feel uncomfortable, and this was the first time that Zhao Fu did not want to use a sword. It was not because its quality was not good enough; indeed, the Clear Sable Sword was one of the most famous and top-quality swords in all of China.

However, Zhao Fu simply did not want to use it. It was not because he despised it but because he walked on a different path. As such, he decided to gift it to someone who was more suitable.

Not all of the swords Zhao Fu had were related to darkness; the Seraph Sword and Royal Wood Sword were light-attributed, but that was only in terms of their attributes. Zhao Fu's Emperor's Power was one of commanding, and light or darkness did not matter, allowing him to use all of them.

However, this sword gave off a sword intent filled with kindness; Zhao Fu was not an especially kind person, so it did not feel very suitable.

Zhao Fu put the sword back in its box and decided to see if he could gift it to anyone. However, Zhao Fu was surprised to see that the eye did not disappear – it seemed to remain within his heart, peacefully looking at him. What was going on? Didn't he put the sword back? Why did he still have this sort of feeling?

Zhao Fu felt quite surprised and immediately gave the sword to his bodyguard and had him pick it up to see if anything happened.

However, after the bodyguard picked it up, he shook his head, indicating that he did not feel anything. To him, the sword was just a normal sword or even a wooden sword that gave off no killing intent or intent to harm.

Zhao Fu still could not believe it and gave the sword to someone else, and he even had that person swing it a few times. However, that person felt the same.

Now, Zhao Fu was certain that only he had felt that when he picked up the sword. It was most likely that the sword could see his identity. Indeed, even if Zhao Fu could hide it from people, he could not hide it from such items, as they could see into a person's essence.

Surely this sword wasn't sent by some mysterious faction to make him feel uncomfortable.

Zhao Fu simply could not imagine why that mysterious faction would gift him a sword like this. He could not help but wonder just who this mysterious faction was.

Historical records had said that the Clear Sable Sword had been passed from person to person; during the Tang Dynasty, it had been obtained by Xue Rengui, and it had then been obtained by a famous general of the Southern Song Dynasty, Yue Fei. After Yue Fei and his son were killed, the whereabouts of the Clear Sable Sword became unknown.

However, Zhao Fu felt that this was false – from the very beginning, the Clear Sable Sword was a sword for Kings. Putting aside ordinary people, even ordinary Generals would not be able to use it. Only Kings would receive the recognition of this sword; at the very least, that was what Zhao Fu believed.

Zhao Fu could not do much about this and put the sword away for now before looking at the women and saying, "I'll give you one last chance. Don't regret your actions and don't blame me!"

Hearing this, all of the women said gratefully, "Thank you!"

There were some, like the model from before, who coldly harrumphed and said, "It's in your best interests not to say anything bad about us to Great Qin's Legatee; otherwise, I'll also leak the things you said about him. Let's all keep our lips sealed!"

"As long as there's no one saying anything bad about us, with our looks and statuses, I'm sure ordinary people like you have all lusted after us in movies. I'm sure Great Qin's Legatee will like us as long as you don't say anything bad about us!"

Zhao Fu did not know what to say. Before, he had indeed fantasized about being with such women before, but this was normal for any ordinary man or woman.

In the end, Zhao Fu could only bring them to Great Qin. Because all of the regions had been connected, getting there was no problem at all. At the same time, Zhao Fu gave them each a Reality Fruit to eat, bringing their bodies into the Heaven Awaken World.

“You’re in Great Qin now!”

After passing through the teleportation channel, Zhao Fu brought these women to the Great Qin City. Looking at the grand buildings and wide, bustling streets, they were instantly dumbfounded at how lively Great Qin was.

It was the first time they had seen such a scene. Even television shows could not portray imperial capitals so well.

Zhao Fu had people take them to the palace, and just as he was about to casually make them concubines, he remembered how cold and arrogant some of them had been. As such, he walked over to the model and lifted up her chin.

They were within Great Qin’s palace now, so Zhao Fu did not hold himself back, but he gave the women all a great fright. They were all gifts to Great Qin’s Legatee, and they now belonged to him. Zhao Fu was just a subordinate of Great Qin’s Legatee, yet he dared to make a move on them like this.

This Zhao Fu was simply too daring! Moreover, this was inside the palace – wasn’t he afraid of death? He was too stupid! The women were all stupefied to notice everyone’s reverence and respect towards Zhao Fu.

The model coldly swatted aside Zhao Fu’s hand and said angrily, “What are you doing with your paws?”

The singer hurriedly walked over and said, “No one else saw this, but Zhao Fu, do you really want to die? If you try to make a move on us, Great Qin’s Legatee will definitely kill you!”

“Also, Miss Zhang, I’m sure you don’t want Great Qin’s Legatee to know about this either; everyone, let’s just pretend that this never happened and wait for Great Qin’s Legatee to come. Please don’t make any trouble!”

Zhao Fu lightly laughed, and the model referred to as Miss Zhang coldly glared at him, not wanting to pursue this matter further. After all, if Great Qin’s Legatee heard about this, it would not be good for her either.

However, at that moment, Zhao Fu stretched out his hand and stroked the face of the singer. This caused all of the women to gasp – Zhao Fu was simply too unbridled and dared to act so wantonly. Flirting with Great Qin’s Legatee’s woman once could be disregarded, but this was the second time, and he was become more and more unrestrained.

Zhao Fu did not want to live anymore! Was it because he had never seen so many superstars before that his mind had collapsed? He would definitely die a terrible death; Great Qin’s Legatee would definitely slaughter him!
