

THE LUST OF MY HUSBAND

Chapter 3 - 3: Hypocritical

Jermaine said meaningfully, "Although Benson is a bit violent and will not survive a year, the Leach family is the richest in F City, which has wealth and influence."

"Even if Benson dies, you'll still be Mrs. Leach and have comfortable and wealthy life forever."

"Jill, Dad is doing you a favor. You are not well educated and have a bad reputation. It's your luck to marry..."

Juliana didn't bother to listen to his sham words. She turned her back to him and lay down: "Call me when the Leach family's car comes."

Jermaine said no more and went out since she had compromised. He asked the maid to keep watch outside the door lest Juliana escape or kill herself again.

After Jermaine went out, Juliana read the top news on her phone.

[Miranda Sanchez, the most famous socialite in S City, died at 9:00 a.m. and left the property of the Sanchez family to her fiancé...]

Juliana didn't read it carefully but clicked on one of the interview videos.

It was a reporter interviewing Stewart.

Juliana clenched her fists and breathed heavily when she saw Stewart's tired face, his red eyes swollen with tears, and his heartbroken look.

Hypocritical!

In the video, Stewart managed to say between sobs, "I won't change the name of Sanchez Group. It's the only proof that Miranda has been in this world."

He said, "Except for the company and real estate, I will donate the remaining 100 million dollars of Miranda's assets that she left behind to people in need."

"I am very much in love with Miranda and I will not be in a relationship or get married for three years." Added Stewart.

Juliana saw that Stewart was wearing a white coat and glasses, elegant and gentle, not at all like he was in the operating room.

But this was the man who had cut her heart open and said those cold and heartless words!

Wendy said Miranda's heart was dirty and they ripped out her heart just because she had loved him!

And they even deceived Timothy!

Juliana took a deep breath. There was no need to waste her time to be resentful since she could not take revenge at the moment.

She searched for Timothy Greene to find out his current situation but found no news about him at all.

Well, the Greene family was the wealthiest and most powerful in S City and Timothy was a low-profile person, so there was no news about him.

Thinking that Wendy was a voice actress, Juliana worried that she would use her voice to deceive Timothy.

But on second thought, that would be very inappropriate. In case Wendy found out about her, the Lewis family couldn't protect her.

The Leach family could help, but she was not yet a Leach young lady, and even if she was, the Leach family might not be willing to protect her.

She considered a lot.

In the end, she decided that she couldn't act recklessly now that she wasn't sure if the Leach family would back her up.

She had to stay alive to get her revenge!

Juliana looked down at her fingers and smiled lightly, "Heh, Wendy, I won't let you do what you want."

At half past five, the car from the Leach family arrived.

Jermaine came to call Juliana. Seeing that she was in a white dress with a pale face and her hair draped like a ghost, he said angrily, "Why don't you put on some makeup and change your clothes? Are you trying to scare others like this?"

Juliana ignored him and went straight downstairs.

Jermaine was anxious but could do nothing about it. After all, the car had arrived and there was no waiting.

By the stairs stood Selene Lewis in a white slip dress, who looked lovable, sweet, and tender.
