

The Noble 321

Chapter 321: I'll get revenge for this betrayal!

I can't believe I forgot something so important and Critical, but with all the hustle and bustle after the terrorist attack - starting with Aeloria, Silvia, Eira, mother/daughter issues, Ciel, Akihara, Aurora, Silvia again, Rosy, mother/daughter issues again, the banquet.

Only now I remember that I was going to make Elena wear the microbikini as compensation and psychological damage for disregarding my preparation for the second attack and treating me like a paranoid madman.

She was so cooperative in this preparation, that I didn't even remember it at the time. It is one of those memories that come to you when you least expect it and at the wrong time.

Bang!

"damn, I thought it was something serious, only you would think stupid things like that out of the blue, look you even worried Selene" (Eira).

"uh!, sorry... but it was something really important to me, haah~ will it be too late to complain to her?"

"Oh, come to think of it.... You've been saying for a few months now that you wanted to make Elena use it, even though I haven't met her yet you seem hell-bent on doing it. ...uhm, Sweetheart, if you want it so badly, I can use it."(Lily)

"...Hum, it wouldn't be bad, but you know.... Since Elena is a servant, at least until she says otherwise, it gives it that unique feeling, hum, that immorality and corruption of a profession, huehuehue~."

"Oh, I see what you mean, Sweetheart. That makes a lot of sense. If I were to use it, it would just be another cosplay. Hmm, what can I use to have that corrupted feeling as well?"(Lily)

"Hum, that's a good question. I've been thinking about it too... I came up with that costume you wear to dances, but you know, that's what we had the first time and in fact it's already seductive in itself."

"Ugh! That's right, I did it that way on purpose... plus The nipple shield would already be the limit and we already wore it so. no! Limits are self-imposed things. we can go beyond that!"(Lily)

"Oh Lily, I like the sound of that! It's true, we can also work on the lower end.... Kind of uhm if we use something with just beads or small chains..., stickers?, and-"

Bang! Rumble!!!

"Damn it! Only you two are capable of talking nonsense at a time like this! ....., instead of talking nonsense, why don't you tell me how it went with my father, this old hag told us that- Ugh! Stop hitting me!"(Eira).

"Tell me mommy." (Lily)

"Grrrr, no! And to begin with, how dare you just tell us that my father already knew everything? After introducing him, because of you that fool and I ended up breaking our heads and worrying about nothing!"(Eira).

Oh, I see that while my father-in-law told me everything, Lily did the same with the twins. She was clever in cushioning the repercussions by self-confessing, but she should have done it to begin with.

I won't let her get away with it so easily, this little prank of hers, must have repercussions.

I made a strategic retreat from Lily's side and moved to Eira's side on her couch, with Selene still on my lap.

Lily had betrayed me before by abandoning me to my fate with my father-in-law, although technically in the end it wasn't like that, she made me believe it, because I was omitting so much key information, so I will take my revenge..., betraying her for real.

"Yes, Lily! How dare you play games with us, you even played games with my father-in-law!"

It wasn't the first time I did this today and I have no weight on my conscience for doing it.

"Wait, Sweetheart, why do you have that face? Why do I have a bad feeling? Your words could be misinterpreted and -" (Lily)

"Wait, let him talk, What do you mean she played with my father?"(Eira).

"Yeah, Lily was so mean to him, I even had to give him emotional support. You know, she used him at her whim, taking everything she could from him, leaving him dry, traumatized and with trust issues.... And then she even committed infidelity when she was still legally married. She was very mean to the marquis."

"Mommy was mean... with daddy?"(Selene)

"What! You old hag, that's different from what you told us! You said it was consensual and that my father approved of it."(Eira)

"Wait, Sweetheart is explaining things wrong! Besides at the time it wasn't that bad, he's just exaggerating! it was just a bit of dissatisfaction and..."(Lily)

"Yes he even almost cried when he told me everything!"

"Sweetheart, I know what you're doing!!! explain well! No, Selene, don't look at me like that! I didn't do anything wrong. Eira, what I said before was true, believe me. I can't deny that it did happen, but Sweetheart is twisting events to -" (Lily)

Knock, knock.

Just as I was thinking about how to fan the flames more and get her in trouble with the twins, Lily and for playing games with all of us... the door rang at a time like this could be dangerous.

I motioned the girls to silence and approached cautiously prepared and gathering mana in my hand. You never knew, so when I opened....

"Huh? Aurora?"

The one in front of the door was Aurora. but it was strange as far as I knew at this point, she should be in the same room as my main self so I didn't let my guard down.

I see what happened on that side: yes, she said she was going to sleep, so she went to one of the rooms that had that big guest room, like ours.

My real self made sure of Aurora's position, now that I warned her and in fact in her bed she left an illusion apparently escaped behind our backs and this was in fact Aurora, so I let my guard down.

She scaping off like she was doing something wrong, instead of just warning my main self, it's not like I stopped her from leaving, I just wanted her to be around for any mishaps, if she came where I am I wouldn't mind.

'But why is she came here?'

"May I come in? There's something I want to discuss an important matter with you."

"...Well, come in."

Hmm, talking to me... well, it wasn't unusual. After all, with this identity we were pretty good friends. so I let her in.

I watched, and when we walked in, Eira seemed to panic and said something quickly to Lily and Selene.

I wondered what it would be, but remembered that I had told Aurora, that as Seraphina I was dating the twins' mother.

Whether she believed me or not, I told her. And by logic, Aurora, who is an integrate at Boys' Night Out, knows Lily...and knows that I'm dating her as Chris.

Now, if she finds out Lily is the twins' mother, she would connect the dots and.... I think I'd finally get to the truth.

'Uhm... even I'm not sure if that would be good or not.'

I didn't mind telling her, but I felt that, with such a deciding factor, it would be too easy. I wasn't that impatient to join Aurora to my harem.

I know that these things must be calmly and in their own time. Even with Elena, who was the first ,and with whom, honestly, I was a little impatient, it took me over a year to build something.

I'm not always going to be as lucky and fast as with Selene. That's why I didn't mind following this game and building something solid slowly.

Same with Lys... and well, Cordelia. Especially that last one, I'll take my due time.... Plenty, if I can.

"Hey, why is Leyla-onesan here?"(Aurora).

Aurora, who while I was lost in my thoughts saw the twins and Lily, came up to me and spoke softly.

Which seems useless to me with the good beast-woman audition that the three of them have.

"Well, she came with her husband, you know he was a nobleman, right? But now they've separated, and she's staying with me."

"... You really aren't afraid of anything. ... But I want to talk to you in private, so..."(Aurora).

"Hmph, I heard you. Well, never mind, I also have to talk privately with this old hag. Selene, come, help me take her; she needs a chastisement." (Eira)

Just as I thought, Eira heard Aurora's whisper that she wanted to talk alone with me.

Although that was bad luck for Lily who now has to face her daughters alone... or maybe good, as I planned to fan the flames a little more.

"Uhm, she's bad, punishment!"(Selene).

"No, wait, like I said I still didn't make myself clear, it's a misunderstanding! Sweetheart, help me, clear it up with me, sweetheart!!!..." (Lily)

"Quiet, you old hag, or I'll make Selene-!" (Eira).

"No, all but that!" (Lily)

"I haven't said anything yet... there's still going to be punishment!" (Eira)

"Wait, honey, use your skill, look at my pure intentions, check that I didn't do anything wrong." (Lily)

"Hmph, do you think I don't know you? It's no use, if you think teasing us and playing pranks is something honest and pure. you don't fool me, you lying pervert!" (Eira)

"Mhm, you perverted liar." (Selene)

"Noooo! Don't call me that! I may be a pervert, but I didn't lie, nooo!.... Sweetheart, I'll get revenge for this betrayal!" (Lily)

Eira, with Selene's help, grabbed her and dragged her into one of the rooms while she resisted and vowed petty revenge on me... when she was the one who started it.

Plack!

Finally, when the door closed, I stopped listening to her.

Chapter 322: Play dumb

"uhmm..., is she going to be okay? Shouldn't we help her?"

"Na, they get along fine. Everyone in my harem is like family; those three especially are very close. They'll just have a chat, because Lily's been making tasteless jokes lately."

"Hum, well, if you say so. Okay, let's get to what I came for...but out of curiosity, those three are your only partners, right?"

"...No."

Well, I hesitated a bit, but in the end I decided to tell the truth. Mainly because I didn't know what Aurora's point was in coming here... although I found it curious that that was the first thing she asked.

"Wait! Is it true what Cordelia said earlier, that you're dating her mother?"

"...Yes."

BOOMM!

Again I hesitated to answer, since it wasn't just my secret. But I guess it doesn't matter as long as it doesn't get out that Astrid is Cordelia's mother...or that I'm dating Astrid, even though she's living with me. Those details haven't come out.

Also, since Astrid said she wanted to keep up to date on what's going on and join our meetings we now do it in her office when we finish practice and club activities.

I found it curious that I had just gotten rid of Selene's pressure to bring Eira into my harem, only to be replaced shortly after by Astrid's pressure to bring Cordelia in.

I don't know how to explain it, but I feel that there is something fundamentally wrong with my harem. But since everyone and I are happy, I'm not going to make a big deal out of little details like that.

"Is there anyone else, like Silvia, Cordelia herself, or.... I don't know, Alice or Elena?"

On the other hand, I don't know what Aurora's sudden questions are about.

"No!...Mmm.... I'm trying with Lys, though."

Some say that omitting the truth is lying, but I think there are some things that are better left unsaid.

Luckily I was able to give a resounding no regarding Silvia. It's her fault for asking right away.

"Well, that's obvious! The whole group, maybe except Lys herself, notices it."

"True, she's a little hard on the romance thing, but I think Cordelia is another one."

"Well, I also thought you were going after her and Silvia, but I guess I was wrong."

"Oh, you're quick on the uptake. Indeed, Silvia is just my friend. And Cordelia, well, I think it's fruitless...just between you and me, I think men aren't to her liking, at least romantically, just like you."

"Hey, I told you it's not like that."

"...Yeah it's not like that. Fiona-onee-san will be sad. I don't know how you do it, but when she knows there was no interest, she'll be sad."

It's not like from this side there's anything conclusive that has given me to understand her tastes, and I'm not supposed to know, but since I know, I usually tease her.

Since she gets along with the onee-sans I usually use it to question her tastes, and since she thinks it's just speculation on my part, she denies it.

"I didn't come here to talk about that. I just wanted to confirm who you were dating, so I'd be prepared."

"Rather, Aura, and by the way, why your sudden interest in my love life?"

"Yes, that's what I'm getting at. I won't beat around the bush. Christian Leonheard, I want you and I to formalize a relationship and possible engagement."

"Oh, of course... not."

Bang!!

Shit, she almost caught me off guard. I almost said yes.

I mean, I would accept without hesitation if I were Seraphina at this point, but I'm Chris. This was not a simple matter.

Between her and Chris there is just pure and simple friendship. I'm one hundred percent sure that Aurora's tastes run solely towards women.

I checked, and she's not even bisexual, so obviously there was something wrong here.

'I probably misheard...'

'Yes, that must be it.'

'Or we upset her so much that she went a little crazy and got confused.'

'Well, that would be a problem... more like, number 2: stay out of it and concentrate.'

'Oh, sorry, I was just paying attention to this side and it looked interesting. Well, things are at a climax here too, but it doesn't seem dangerous for us.'

'Oh, that's good. For now, let's rectify it and see what he actually said.'

"This... Aurora, I think I misheard earlier, could you repeat that?"

After a quick mental chat, and having decided that we misheard, I wanted to rectify.

"Oh, so that's why you turned me down? Well, you probably didn't hear it right, but I said I wanted to start a formal relationship with you and..."

"Oh, well, then if I answered right: I refuse."

It was a no-brainer, this was obviously not a good thing for me, and I was obviously going to refuse.

I couldn't see it as anything but a ploy by Aurora. Now, what was the goal, is she probing me, a change of focus? I don't know, but it's definitely not from the point of view of a girl in love asking out the guy she likes.

She must be up to something. She's crafty, but I can handle it. Whatever her goal is, I won't be baffled and I won't let her off that easy.

"Why do you reject me, is it because I'm not pretty, is that why you don't want me in your harem?"

"...Uhm..."

I don't know what she even wants me to answer, but she's not going to get pity from me. I know she's beautiful-very beautiful.

'umh, what to do'

'Provoke her. She tends to make her intentions clear when she gets hot.'

'Yes, that's a good idea.'

My main self continued to help me. 'Aurora is very cunning, so I have to be cautious here. She wouldn't do silly things for no reason, although sometimes it's true that she tends to put too much spin on things.

'well, I'll play dumb and provoke her, see what happens.'

"What's the matter, say something!"

"Hum, well, I don't know why you think I would accept at first... not to mention that I only see you as a friend... but as I told you, there is a.... how shall I put it...minimum standard, yes, that's it. So I politely decline your proposal."

"Huh? Are you serious?"

"Huh? Why do you look surprised? You are, to put it without any offense and not at all superficially, very simple."

"...."

I played dumb. I used logic: it should be obvious from my point of view. I don't know if she expects something like me to acknowledge that she's beautiful, but if she wants to play a complicated game, I will too. I know that provoking her will make her fall first.

"You have to be a beauty like Lily or as cute as the twins. My tastes are high, so I think you should give up on me. Besides, you're pretty skimpy in the boob department, but you seem to have potential in the ass, though I'd have to check it out, and only after that would I give it some thought."

"Y-You pervert, you're just like all the boys!"

"Hey, and that's when I was stepping back and giving you a chance, but hey, your loss. It's not like I'm thrilled to have someone as simple as you in my harem."

I tried to provoke her even more to see if she was still persistent on this subject.

"Gh! You're playing dumb, I know you know that! I heard that you and Seraphina have a kind of... unique... relationship, right?"

he seems to come with something on his mind, now I change the subject . Maybe he plans to confuse me, but he got the wrong person.

I can with this easily, Elena praised me by telling me that in playing dumb no one was better than me, it was one of her rare compliments.

"...Uhm, no. I'm just the son of one of her knights, and she sponsors me."

"Can you stop telling lies, I understand approximately what you guys are up to. I just wanted to confirm that, can't you answer me that much?"

"Oh, so you heard. Well, I'll tell you."

"Huh, no, wait, you don't need to...!"

"Yeah, well, the truth is that I'm the eleventh prince of a neighboring country running away from the succession fight, and she helped me hide, because of our love since childhood, that's why we must keep our true relationship a secret."

"Huh, was that it, I didn't think there was such a thing?"

"Nah, just kidding. For starters, none of the kingdoms have that many princes, and have you even heard of any successions in the works? What do you do when you go to the academy?"

"Fuck, Chris, stop being smart and talking nonsense, this is an important issue!"

"You're the one talking nonsense. If you want to know what's going on between me and Seraphina, she'll tell you no problem. No, in fact I can tell you."

If she wants to know, I'm always open to tell her; it's she herself who makes it complicated on her own, going so far as to actively refuse, like Lily, even though I already told her I could tell her without any conditions.

Maybe she wants that wish I promised her as a reward if she guessed what was really going on, she seems seriously focused on my relationship with Chris, not that it's a bad way to go, but it's just the superficial of what my secrets are.

However, it's fun to see her try, and her original hypotheses that she tells me, but all she has to do is ask me at any time and I'll tell her, but she doesn't. I think it's just her stubbornness and that she took it as a personal challenge.

"No, I don't think it will do any good even if you say something. I just want to understand how to proceed, based on what kind of relationship you two have. But I already think I get the idea, I'll ask you again, I want you to be my romantic partner, with the possibility of marriage in the future."

"No! What the hell, I told you no! Your face is too simple and-"

"And now?"

"..."

Suddenly the situation changed, and I was a little surprised. Aurora transformed and returned to her beautiful base appearance.

Chapter 323: True intentions

Yes, she transformed, but not to her current appearance, but to the human form she had before her demonic growth phase with black hair and golden eyes.

I don't quite understand what she's going for with this whole couple thing, to the point of showing me part of what she really looks like, just to get me to stop using her appearance to reject her.

But I want to believe that I know her at least a little bit, and everything in me screams that this is one of her devious plans.

There is no real interest here. Just some hidden intention; he wants to use me for something other than what he is asking me for.

I too thought he was just refusing to let me tell him my secret, because of his stubbornness and pride , but it seems that even from third parties like me he refuses to get the straight answer.

'So it's okay if it's indirect as usual?'

'that's why she was asking about the relationship between us?'

'Or has she already found the answer?'

'or does she think I don't know so much?'

'well let's get to the bottom of this, Elena didn't praise me for nothing.'

"If I'm this pretty, you'd go out with me without asking, right?"

"Pff.... well, now I know you can disguise yourself, but it's still a disguise. I know I'm very handsome and irresistible, but just give up. You and I are not meant to be. If you're so desperate for a boyfriend, why don't you try Ivan? Maybe he'll buy into that disguise and-"

"Grrrr! This is my real appearance, you fool! The Aurora you see every day is the disguise! Besides, who'd want to date a shallow like that idiot?"

"And so am I as I said there is and a minimum standard and I don't think that's your true appearance. Give me proof."

"You're just a womanizer! Why are you suddenly playing hard to get, you idiot?"

"Huh? What did you say? I don't date just anyone! All my girls are cuties that I love with all my heart, and my heart tells me that you just want my body, you selfish woman."

"...Who wants your body? You keep playing games, I told you to take me seriously."

"I am, I really am! Now I'm starting to believe you really are a man, with that kind of taste and all as proof. You're having fun fooling us with your real gender. What bad taste, what a bad way to use your skill!"

"Damn right! You keep playing dumb, this is going nowhere. Fine, I'll show you how serious I am. I know you know anyway, because your girlfriends know it too. here's my true appearance!"

She was already starting to lose her patience, and just then I noticed that she deactivated her entire transformation, even the artifacts I had given her.

Now she was really showing her true demonic hybrid form: black hair, pink locks, heterochromatic eyes - one pink and one gold-, horns and tail.

'Let's see... in this situation, I should...'

"...Oh no! A demon infiltrated replacing Aurora! Damn, Aurora must have died! Damn it, you died so young...and I think a virgin too. I swear I'll take revenge for you!"

"Are you done? "눈_눈

"...Yes."

Well, I wanted to keep playing dumb, but she looked at me very piercingly and menacingly.

For a moment, my instincts told me that it would be really bad to continue, so I'd better stop.

Under her intense gaze, I sat back down, but really... I guess it's true: if the twins know, it's no wonder I do too.

'hum, but for him to show me his demonic appearance at this dangerous time...'

'although, following your logic, I should know. Still, there was some risk that I wouldn't know.'

'Will she want to use her charm?'

"Haa~ Why are you two equally dumb...? I imagine you know all about me, right? I don't know what kind of relationship you two have exactly, but I have to assume you know as much as your girlfriends, at least."

I thought there was something fishy going on when she seemed surprised at my rejection, but it seems she was coming with the premise that she already knew everything, huh? Still, it seemed like she was hesitant to show herself fully, because I played dumb.

She stopped being cautious though because she lost her patience.

'well, I guess now it's like a restart, a new starting point. Let's go with the initiative.'

"Alright, Aurora! Miss half-demon, transvestite princess, terrorist? what's the point of all this? If, as you thought, I already know everything, now tell me: what do you know and what do you want? At least by coming to see me and confirming that I know so much..."

"Yes, I knew you knew everything, and you kept playing ignorant."

"Hey, wouldn't it be easier for you to go straight to your purpose by just charming me? Why don't you do it now that you're good... pretty?"

That made me curious. If she already revealed that she's half-demon anyway, why not use that ability that -if I had to say so- is very good, and a key characteristic of her race?

"Do you think I'm dumb? If you already know so much about me and you're not nervous, it obviously wouldn't work. Besides, you're blessed by Aeloria. It's well known that regardless of blessing, everyone is resistant or even invulnerable to things like enchantment."

Well, his reasoning is logical. But right now I'm a doppelgänger who is already using morphogenesis, so if she does, I think that quite possibly - along with her beauty and adding the fact that I like her - I would fall very easily.

She could easily achieve her goal if she did. Well, she's the one who missed the opportunity.

Likewise, my main self would forcibly remove me from this doppelgänger if she thinks it's necessary.

"Well, it looks like we're being honest, right? Tell me what you want and why you're telling me nonsense from the beginning."

"Fine. First swear to me by the name of your goddess that you have no relationship with Seraphina. For a blessed one like you there is nothing worse for your future than lying by doing that."

"Why all the spinning, is that really necessary?"

"Yes."

"Huh? Well... I swear it. And let my goddess be witness: between me and Seraphina there is no relationship. May, as her blessed one, her divine punishment befall me if I lie."

"..."

What I said is of little use and there will be no repercussions, nor will Aeloria listen to me, with my protection, whether it is true or not, but this did not seem to move forward if I did not say it.

She showed her demonic side even with the risk, so even if it sounds like she's asking me nonsense or just plotting something-which may still be the case-it must be something more serious than I thought.

"Hum, but... Aurora, I'm going to be honest with you: are you asking me on a date with you because of Seraphina's secrets and what we're up to, and why I was able to make that oath, even if it sounds contradictory. If so, as I said before I will tell you, no problem, so you don't have to do this".

If my fun forces her to do things like this, I'd rather stop. It stops being fun when it starts to affect them negatively.

If she's asking to date someone she really doesn't like just for information, it's best not to continue.

"I already told you it's not necessary. It's enough for me to know that you don't really have any cooperative or plotting relationship. Although... it still doesn't seem that simple. I assume you're bound by some kind of contract. I don't think you can say much to begin with."

"Hum, not really. I told you I can tell you what's going on..."

"No, I understand. You'll probably tell a lie, which she prepared for a moment like this. She's very thorough. My situation is similar. We have a sort of contractual connection, but we don't have a relationship per se. You don't need to tell me anything. I just want us to formalize a relationship."

'No, Aurora, what do you mean we don't have a relationship? That hurts my heart.'

'She really wouldn't trust even if we told her the truth.'

'We ruined her by teasing her so much.'

'I'm not even that meticulous, am I?'

'I thought she might have really gotten it right, about the secret and came to check it out.'

'She doesn't seem to, and she still sees us as separate entities.'

'Or is she just feigning ignorance?'

'Damn... she's mean too. Maybe she's toying with us, out of revenge.'

'She's learned to disguise her lies better... I'd have to make contact to know.'

'And why the hell is she bringing up the relationship thing, what's that got to do with it?'

'If we accept...maybe her goal is to create conflict with Seraphina?'

'She wants to use me to cause jealousy myself, is that new?'

There were so many thoughts, but in the end I was getting tired of this game of intrigue between us, so I better decided to be more direct.

"Hey, but... why do we always come back to that, what does it have to do with everything else? Besides, over there I heard that you like women. Especially Seraphina, with whom you're about to start a relationship. I don't understand your point."

"Yes... I knew you knew so much, that's why you didn't take me seriously. I should have been direct from the beginning. Okay, I'll be honest. Everything you said is true, and I understand your skepticism. Still... it's not as simple as you said."

"..."

'uhm, considering that she likes me (Seraphina) .... so is it to make me jealous, is this really all about that, is that why her questions about...'

'No!?! More importantly, did she just accept that she likes me!?! She did say that, didn't she?'

'Oh, it's true! She said it clearly, didn't she?'

'hey don't get distracted, that's basically a statement.'

'holy shit, it's true'

Chapter 324: Two heads are better than one

I almost glossed over this because I didn't understand what this was all about, but it's true that was technically a confession.

I wanted to ask her, she said it so easily that I almost didn't think anything of it...that's something she always denies and is reluctant to admit.

It may sound like overconfidence, but I think so. I may not have been entirely sure before, but after the incident of her growth phase and her mother, I felt the change in her.

That's why I was also unconcerned and didn't bother to hide my secrets from him, of course keeping a level where he wouldn't guess easily.

I was not dense and now believed I could recognize when a girl was truly interested in me.

But it didn't escape me that it could just be me getting my hopes up, so I asked the girls just in case at our meetings.

There were different opinions; some had their doubts, but the rest said affirmatively that maybe I wasn't wrong.

Mainly Eira's opinion, who wouldn't hesitate to put me down if my thinking wasn't correct.

Also, the twins didn't register any ill intent from her towards me even when I was actively bothering her.

And it's not like I was always bothering her, it was just a once in a while thing and most of the time we talked and interacted normally.

So I figured it was just a matter of time until Aurora felt comfortable in starting a relationship.

Although I also noticed that she was a bit opposed to the harem thing. I don't blame her: being born into a harem of a king who couldn't and didn't know how to handle it, to the point that a demon snuck in, must not have been a good experience for her.

"You are the strongest person I know among our age group."

I missed my chance to question her by getting lost in my thoughts, and she continued.

I listened to see what her point was, but I wanted to ask her if she meant it as I think she did.

"And from living with her, I've come to realize that she doesn't dare provoke you directly, even when she could. She doesn't cross lines with your girlfriends, and she didn't say anything to you when you did something to hers, like the time with Elena or Alice."

"Huh? Well... yeah, that happened, didn't it? Uh, but about earlier, you said that to you Seraphina-"

"Wait, let me finish. I want us to formalize a relationship for two reasons. The first one, is that I'm tired of my family still insisting on pairing me up with William. They seem to think I have a better chance than my sister, since I'm in their group. But I don't like him at all. You know why."

"But... wouldn't it be the same with me?"

Oh, now I understand. That's why it was his insistence on formality and commitment. It wasn't to probe me or confuse me, there was a real reason.

I really thought it was nonsense just to puzzle me. But I think it's unnecessary; how Seraphina could help her get rid of it. She just had to ask me.

'Well, let's look at her second point and then help her. As Seraphina there are few things I cannot do in this realm. Instead of Christian, she should have come with Seraphina.'

'yes, Aurora tends to overthink things.'

I thought that in the end this matter was just Aurora going the hard and long way, instead of just asking me.

If that's all she was asking me for, it's not necessary and I can easily help her with my real identity. Or so I thought, until I heard her second reason.

"And there goes my second point: and why it has to be you. With you I'm free from being bothered because, well, you're the second best choice as Aeloria's direct blessed. plus you already know all my secrets, But there's something that greatly differentiates you from Will, and the reason why I'm asking this of you and not him, is that being by your side... I can keep Seraphina away from me."

'Let's see... now what did I do wrong? '/_ \

..

"Haa~, mn.... mn?"

it's dark, I started to regain consciousness as I woke up, and slowly my senses did too. It's really nice... I slept great.

"it's still dawn."

Now it only remains in my memories, how hard it was just to have a pleasant night's sleep, one that gives me peace and the sense of tranquility, that I have now.

Truly, just resting in the mental sense was difficult, now I feel that just because I came to this world there was a positive change in me.

Not because it was my fantasy or desire from my previous life, but because I really started to make sense of my life when I came here.

It was shocking to die and reincarnate as a woman, knowing my future and everything else, but because of that I inevitably had to change and I think I did it well, as my alternate self would have wanted.

Sometimes you just need a little push when you need it to move forward. although in my case , it wasn't little, in any sense... but still, I don't have many complaints anymore.

After all, although not everything was good and positive, I feel that I am really happy at this moment, I have long ago fulfilled my dream, and the only thing left now is to protect it.

Both Adrian, Seraphina , Christian ... in the end, it does not matter who is my real "I". Maybe none of them are, or all of them are.

In the end, what really matters is that I am here, in this place, and that is enough. If it's for my loved ones, I can be an abysmal monster, without any qualms.'

..

I don't know why I suddenly became nostalgic, but it seems I couldn't go back to sleep, and it was still dark.

'Well but it looks like it will be dawn soon.'

I closed my eyes anyway and just concentrated on the sensations I was looking for more comfort.

Immediately I felt two presences at my sides. Without much thought, I moved towards the nearest one. she wasn't far away, I just had to move a little and extend my arm .

My arm wrapped around her waist, and I pulled her closer to me and snuggled up to her.

She was turning her back to me, but just by feeling her warmth and back against me and holding her like this, I knew who she was.

I had no doubt it was Elena. Her warmth, her fragrance, the sensation she gave me when I hugged her..... everything was unique and unmistakable.

The feeling was comfortable and pleasant. The warmth and peace of having another being to trust, love, and just be... could not be surpassed by anything.

His body odor was sweet, intoxicating, and very pleasant. I feel like, even after feeling him almost every day, I couldn't get enough of him at all.

I let myself get carried away at this great comfort. But I wanted to be closer to her. I hugged her even tighter even passing my other arm under her, and resting my chin to her shoulder making her be very close to me and still I felt it wasn't enough....

'I'd like more... huh!?, at what point did she appear? Hum...what are you telling me..., well why not?'

My greed, no matter how much comfort, never ceased; I simply wanted more. But at that moment a third party came along and brought his great idea to satiate this need for more, to which I thought was something viable and reasonable.

I felt things out first, and as Elena didn't seem to wake up despite all my fussing, I realized this was definitely my chance to put into action the idea that seemed so logical to me.

I felt what I was facing and even without seeing I knew that Elena today was wearing Satin sleep shorts, yes, indeed it was the second best option, as she also used to wear long pants to sleep.

Dragging my hand that was on her, I felt Elena's soft skin as I made my move , and as we were both laterally on the bed, it took me a little.

But finally, somehow and with a lot of experience, and a little bit of morphogenesis.

Using one of the leg holes, I was able to pull aside her shorts and underwear, the fabric of both was very high and flexible and I was able to do it without waking her up.

That left her precious place uncovered. yeah, my goal was clear and more because the one who had the idea was close to the area, Ehem!, I want to emphasize that it was all the idea of the guy below.

I was careful and guided the mastermind behind this idea, against Elena's exposed vagina.

"hum~"

'hey go easy she might wake up'

'ok'

'.....'

I don't know if I'm half asleep; I imagined it...or it's a parallel thought messing with me, but I'm going to ignore that there was a response.

My Shenlong as a mastermind knew how to proceed and began to reduce its size; it became much thinner and smaller, as the operation required care and precision.

Slowly but relentlessly, he worked his way into Elena's entrance. With my cooperation, moving my waist in a joint effort, we felt Elena's soft, warm insides slowly envelop us.

Again I was very careful, and although she had her back to me, I was watching for any reaction from her and in case she woke up.

'good!'

Eventually we were spooning again, but this time with Shenlong inside Elena.

The important thing is that, as we theorized, the feeling of comfort was better than before.

'Yes everything where it should be.'

With that thought, I felt that satisfied and I felt that I could fall asleep once again.

Chapter 325: Horny tomorrow (R18)

But just when I thought I was about to get it, and I almost let myself get carried away with immense comfort.

'Hey, you insatiable bastard, don't grow up!'

There was a non-conforming, rebellious bastard who wanted even more; it seems that being enveloped by Elena wasn't enough for him, and he began to grow and make Elena squeeze him and envelop her even more.

It was dangerous because the feeling was starting to tempt me and the comfort I was originally looking for started to turn into something else.

Come to think of it, complying with that bastard's ideas wasn't a good idea to begin with, whenever I heed him it always ends badly for me, I remembered that too late.

'Hey, stop it! If you grow any more, Elena will notice.'

"Humgmn~"

'See! Stop it.'

'No!'

'You son of a bitch, since when do you talk?'

'I don't! You're just half asleep.'

'...'

'And don't bother me, I'm busy here.'

Yes, I know I haven't solved my bad habit of talking to myself, as well as thinking too much, and more so since I have parallel thinking.

But I think it was my first time arguing with my penis, at least it's the first time that motherfucker ever talked back to me, but I'm going to reasonably assume as he said it's because I'm half asleep.

"Mngh ~... what's wrong?haah..."

'Damn, you woke her up already. Fine, I'll cooperate just this once, but if it goes wrong I'll let Elena cut you.'

'...'

"Good morning, Elena."

"eh?.... Good morning... Mmm?~ aah!."

Yes, the bastard below had already grown to the size that filled Elena completely; definitely, even half asleep she would still notice it.

"Yeah, well, if you're wondering why you're feeling something weird, inside you, it's just that it was a little cold and your insides were warm, so.... does it bother you?"

"... so early... mnh~..."

" Mwa~..."

I knew that words wouldn't be enough, so I moved a little aside her scattered hair and started kissing her neck while my hand that wrapped around her started to approach her breast and gently caress them with soft movements.

And the other I arranged it to go under her head, so that she could use it as a pillow while I stroked her straight black hair a little, I had to put her in a good mood.

" Haa~ mngh! No, haa~!"

"My beautiful Elena, you don't know how much I love you. You love me too, don't you?"

I whispered in her ear as she started to let out little moans instead of scolding me which gave me a good feeling and I wanted to check her willingness right now.

".... Yes."

Good! she won't go into work mode, nor scold me that's the best possible situation and now that I know that, why not go a little more there, with my Elena acting cute.

"Come on, say it in words; you know that's my daily source of energy."

"mnhm~.... "Having too much ahh!~, of it will only make you more uncontrollable mng!...."

"(ノ ^ ) then you won't tell me!"

I spoke sadly, in my defense I thought I would use that energy for a world good, like peace or something, well it's hard to make her say it, but I'll settle for....

"...I love you too."

"Hue~ my pretty Elena!"

At last she seemed to reconsider and said it, I got excited at her words I still sideways on the bed lifted my top a little and leaned towards her.

I used my hand that was caressing her hair and moved down a bit gently making te her cheeks and outlining her soft lips.

At the end I took her chin and by turning it a little I was able to gently guide it up where I was waiting to devour her sweet addictive lips, which were honest and confessed their love to me.

Mmmmuaah~

I began with a passionate kiss.

She was softer with me from the start and didn't resist at all. Our lips met and our tongues began to tangle.

Being our bodies so close I could feel her breathing becoming more agitated and I could clearly feel her heart racing and sounding louder, the default heat was also increasing as well as our passion.

She was definitely very awake by now and understanding the situation. Still, she did not push me away.

Her insides were also starting to get wetter and squeezing me; it felt really good and she also seemed to feel my happiness inside her, giving her her own.

Mmmmua-min -mua

I felt even in the midst of our kissing, little choked moans coming from her, they were soft, but did not escape my attention.

I also felt her cherries begin to harden and my fingers began to play with them, again with a soft and gentle but also provocative movement, increasing the heat between us even more.

I had no more doubts, but I wanted to hear it from her.

"muhaa!~ so, Elena, is it okay if I continue...?"

"Hah!~it's not like I can stop you, mngh!~ just don't be rough or you'll wake Alice."

"Oh!, my Elena, I wondered why you aren't always this sweet to me,"

I said as I gave her soft kisses all over her face, which she received very well, her face flushed and very cute.

She is so sweet and responsive, when she puts aside her role as a maid, that I always wish she would be that way with me.

"I can do it!"

"Huh!!?, really?"

I was surprised, this can change everything.

"Shh , keep your voice down. Yes, but the condition is that you are a decent person, at least to the point of not doing anything criminal."

"..."

"Until then you will be my lady, or Sir Christian."

Damn, I don't get the point. I'm a person of great decency and would never be a criminal; she's just telling me excuses to maintain her maid fetish.

But hey, so what? It's not like I can live without the cold stares she gives me either and I already have a fetish for seeing her dressed as a Handmaid when we're not at the academy too.

Every aspect of Elena appeals to me, and I love them unconditionally..... Well, the only thing I would rule out is that she uses George to beat me up; just that...or is it?.

"Ehem!, Well, for someone hell bent on being my maid, you have a lot of fun teasing me, why don't we go with a little punishment, for my beautiful but rebellious Elena."

" Umngh!~ let me know, aahh!~ we mustn't make too much noise."

I teased her a little and did a little Waist wiggle, now the wetness was considerable and I could move more freely.

I started to wiggle my waist, surprising Elena, who didn't seem to want to wake Alice up.

"hue~ I can't help it. Your cute moans are food for my soul, but we can work it out like this."

Mmmwwaahh... splurt mngh!~.

But I easily solved her dilemma by sealing her lips with mine again starting a soft but intoxicating kiss.

"mhnmm~ mhn~♥□"

On the other hand with my waist I didn't make any big or fast movements; as from the beginning I was deep inside Elena.

I just made a small thrust to the front that instead of making a big rubbing just made us rocking coordinately even so that feeling was very good and intimate.

Giving her and me a sensation persistently, hitting deep inside Elena without being too rough or aggressive.

whmp... whmp...

The actual movement was small and muffled, but still pleasurable for both of us. With each thrust, Elena's body received a slight impact that shuddered and shook her, increasing her tension and causing a growing sense of pleasure that threatened to spill over.

"Mnghh!!~"

The heat of our bodies was increasing, and her sweet smell was beginning to overwhelm me.

To further increase the sensation of heat, my hand, which until then had been fiddling with his chest, became bolder.

It gently descended down her abdomen, feeling its way carefully, invading her silk shorts, until it reached the soft relief of her lower belly.

I paused for a moment at her mons pubis, where I felt her soft hair with my fingers.

"mngH!!"

I tugged playfully on some of them, provoking a slight complaint from Elena, but not wanting to discomfort her, I continued my descent.

Her posture, with her pelvis slightly back and legs together, made access a little difficult, but, even so, two fingers patiently managed to find their way to her most intimate place and began to stimulate her Clitoris and vagina

"mnhnm~❤️"

I felt Elena shudder a little from the small orgasm. She was getting wetter and wetter, increasing my excitement even more.

On the other hand, my hand - the one that still served as a pillow for her - stopped holding her chin, as it was no longer necessary. It began to slide downward, running along his neck and collarbone.

Unlike the other hand, which was caressing over the top of her clothes, this one slipped under her pajamas, trailing gently across her skin until I could feel its softness and warmth directly.

"Mnagh!-mwah-nnnhm~"

I began to knead and stimulate them, as there were no more barriers between my hands and them I could feel their soft skin with my fingers, I could definitely feel their heart begin to flutter more and more.

our hearts began to accelerate more and more.

"mmmhn~... mmh... mmh....~mmngH!~❤️"

whmp.... whmp!... whmp... whmp!...

With each thrust of my waist, hers swayed in reaction; our bodies were attached and moving in sync, and just by that small movement I began to feel that she was pushing me over the edge.

Elena's comforting interior was wonderful and sweet to me even though I teased her often, her tongue, too, was shy, but at the same time, she was reciprocating as we enjoyed the moment.

We were both seeking conformity and, in fact, I found it reaching the highest peak both physically and mentally.

Our bodies swaying in sync with each of my pumping; finally, they reached their limit.

"mmmmhhhhgh!~❤️"

I felt Elena, in my arms, tremble slightly, a subtle movement coursing through her body, showing the growing tension building between us.

Her breathing was deepening to the point of hindering our kiss, still, we didn't separate, and a gentle arching of her torso indicated that she was on the verge of losing control.

I could feel her body reacting, anticipating the climax of our connection, and I made sure she didn't stay in that state for long.

I intensified my tongue play, and my fingers naughtily pinched her nipple, while the other also went rougher on her Clit, bringing her to the breaking point.

"mnggh!!~ mnggh~❤️❏❤️❏❤️❏" squish...splish...

She began to orgasm as her moans were drowned out by our intense kissing.

I felt her vagina grab me and envelop me more intensely increasing the Friction,

Her contractions increased the tightening sensation, giving me the climactic pleasure that also pushed me over the edge.

"argh!!!"

Spurt!... Splurt!!

"nghh!!! mmnhhh~!!!!~ummhh!♥️□♥️□♥️"

Psshht!... squish!

I held her firmly and, already lodged as far inside her as possible, began to release. My thick load began to flood her insides, making her contract and arch even further even more.

It was so intense that she, with her free hand, reached around my head and tried to pull me even closer, which was impossible since we were already in a kiss. However, that served to intensify the sensations.

I myself was doing the same with her, holding her tightly and reciprocating.

She also tried to entangle her legs with mine, but due to the position, it was complicated, but I reciprocated and in my position it was easy and made it a more pleasurable to fill her insides with my seed.

"mnghhh!!~♥️□♥️♥️"

her tongue was more erratic and intense, She was expressing with her whole body how good it felt, and for my part besides reciprocating I made sure to keep making pumping motions.

I was releasing inside her to the point of overflowing and making her keep having orgasms, enjoying that intoxicating and almost addictive sensation.

Simply making a small pelvic motion, which Elena was also mimicking in search of a little more relief and release from the strong sensations that kept building over and over, again as my hot seed invaded her insides.

Spurt!... Splurt!!

"Mwahmng~ Hugh! ~❤️❤️❤️"

Splatsh! squelch! Shhhh!!!

We both drifted with the sensations and enjoyed our silent but pleasurable orgasms, which fed back on each other as always.

Again I felt a strong connection to reality. This was my reality and the place I got in the world.

It was truly something I could not describe as anything but wonderful.
