CHAPTER 74 This is Too Much

Garrett's hungry kisses and eager touches stopped suddenly, only for him to take off his shredded shirt. Lily sighed dreamily at the sight of his large, muscular, tanned chest. She noticed the claw marks and frowned. "He hurt you," Lily said.

"Worth it," Garrett said, allowing Lily to caress his chest only briefly before

Garrett was on her again. There was a sense of need in the way he looked at Lily, in the way he kissed her and then her throat, almost as if he wanted to devour her. His passion was nothing like it was before.

'He's not holding back anymore. He and Berric are aligned as we are,' Dina chimed in briefly, taking Lily out of the moment. A light nip to her nipple brought her back and Garrett growled, "Tell Dina she'll have her chance with Berric but right now it's you and me."

Garrett captured her lips again before Lily could respond. She couldn't help but smile. A part of her wanted this domination, possession. Lily wanted the taint of losing a mate off her. She wanted it to be known that she was his and he was her.

"Garrett, you're driving me insane," Lily moaned. This was nothing that she had expected from him. This was nothing like their previous encounters. Garrett had been so gentle and slow, but now he was rough and aggressive. Oh Goddess, she loved it.

"Get on the bed," Garrett growled, releasing her. Lily didn't have to be told twice. She hopped onto the bed. Lily couldn't contain the shiver of fear mixed with excitement that ran down her spine and made her swallow.

Garrett unbuckled his pants slowly, teasing Lily. His eyes never left hers. The way Garrett was looking at her made Lily hold her breath, as Garrett was completely naked before her. Seeing his erection bounce free Lily began to wonder how it was going to fit in her. Lily didn't have time to think too long as Garrett climbed onto the bed pushing Lily onto her back. He began kissing her thighs and tracing his fingers up and down, all the while never breaking eye contact.

Lily's heart was racing as she widened her legs for him. Garrett smirked and said, "Not yet." He penetrated her with two of his thick fingers, Lily arched her back, gasping in surprise. Garrett pumped his fingers in and out of Lily. Then, added a third earning a shocked gasp as she clutched his hand as the pleasure was almost unbearable.

"Garrett, please... this is too much."

"Do you want me to stop?" Garrett asked. His voice was deeper as he was restraining himself to keep from taking her like a wild animal.

"...No, I just..." Lily muttered.

"I will not harm you, Lily," Garrett said as he seductively licked her juices from his fingers.

Lily could feel herself throbbing in utter excitement and her walls desperately needing something to clench around, be it his fingers or his big, veiny cock. Garrett could feel Berric trying to take control again. The pace was too slowly but he wanted to prepare her for what's next. Garrett quickly flipped them, allowing Lily to be on top.

"What are you doing?" Lily asked. He lifted her waist and brought her up to his face so he could start licking her clit.

"Oh fuck!" Lily moaned, gripping a handful of his hair. Her cursing earned a chuckle from Garrett.

Lily couldn't speak, couldn't think. The feeling was just too much! She rode his face as his strong hands gripped her. He kept her in place as he began to dart his tongue in and out of her.

Who the hell would ever cheat on this man? Lily knew the she-wolves before her were damned fools.

Lily couldn't control the moans and praises coming out of her mouth. She was reaching her peak when Garrett pulled back. Lily whined, "Why did you stop?"

Garrett said nothing as he propped himself up on his elbows allowing Lily to slide down into his lap. His cock bouncing off her round full butt. Garrett lifted her again effortlessly and sat her in his lap where he didn't enter her but his cock lay nestled between her dripping folds. He thrust his hips up, rubbing his cock against her clit making Lily moan.

"Claim me as yours, my Luna," Garrett said huskily. He wanted this to be her decision. Everyone has been telling her what she needs to do, but this needs to be hers.

Lily's hand shook as she took his cock in her hand and raised up slowly to align him with her entrance. Garrett held his breath, his hands clenching the comforter under them to keep himself from taking over. Lily slowly eased herself down on him, gasping at this new feeling as he stretched her in a way that she didn't think possible.

There was a sharp pain causing her to hesitate. She tried to get through it but she couldn't. "Garrett, I can't..." Without hesitation , Garrett flipped them. He was on top, kissing her deeply as he took control.

"It will only hurt for a little while. I'm sorry," he said and quickly fully sheathed himself inside of her. "Oh Goddess, you're tight," Garrett moaned into her ear.

He couldn't help but thrust out and back onto her.

Lily clung to him, wincing at the pain. When the pain began to fade, she began to move her hips again, experimenting. Garrett stayed still fighting the urge to fuck her into oblivion. When he heard her moan, Garrett began moving.

His pace was slow at first, letting her get used to his girth. Then he placed her leg on his shoulder thrusting into her with all the pent up frustration of holding himself back for so long.

Lily's voice was gone as she screamed his name. Wave after wave of pleasure crashed down over her. She could feel her climax building. "Oh my Goddess, I'm about to. I think I'm going..."

"Cum for me, Lily. Come on baby,"

Hearing him talk naughty to her sent her over the edge and she screamed his name as he came. Garrett snarled before plunging his fangs into her shoulder as he released inside her.
