

The Order 1301

Chapter: 1301

At that time, Chen Ping had also entered the realm of Wuzong. With the Dragon-Slaying Sword in his hand, he might be able to fight with the peak Wuzong.

With Chen Ping's current strength, facing the peak of Wu Zong, he has no chance to make a move.

"That's what kind of treasure Director Guo has never seen. How can he look at a mere dragon crystal..."

Zhao Wuji hurriedly praised him from the side.

"Pavilion Master Zhao, you don't need to flatter me. I'm not interested in dragon crystal, but you know what I like, and I hope you can promise me that you can do it..."

Guo Wei said coldly, not feeling complacent because of Zhao Wuji's praise.

After hearing what Guo Wei said, Zhao Wuji paused for a moment, then nodded and said: "I will definitely accomplish what I promised Director Guo, but Mr. Chen's matter..."

"Don't worry. In the name of the Martial Arts Association, I will send a notice to all the clans and sects. Before the international competition, no one can touch Chen Ping. After all, he represents our country, Daxia, in the battle!"

Guo Wei said.

"Thank you so much, Director Guo..."

When Zhao Wuji heard this, he immediately became happy.

As long as the various sects and aristocratic families don't cause trouble for Chen Ping before the game, when the game is over, he can secretly send Chen Ping out of Kyoto. Chen Ping can hide anywhere in the mountains and rivers.

After Guo Wei glanced at Chen Ping twice more, he stood up and left. As he was leaving, Guo Wei suddenly flicked his fingers, and a white light instantly entered Chen Ping's body.

Chen Ping's face was startled, and he hurriedly wanted to force the white light out, but he couldn't find the white light despite all his spiritual energy running for a week.

"Director Guo..."

Zhao Wuji was also panicked. He didn't understand how Guo Wei, who said so well, suddenly took action against Chen Ping.

"You don't need to panic. I just left a mark on him. He is not allowed to leave Kyoto until my affairs are finished..."

Guo Wei left directly after speaking.

Chen Ping frowned slightly and searched his body again, but could not find any mark at all.

"He is indeed a master at the pinnacle of the Martial Sect. He is really powerful..."

Chen Ping watched helplessly as the other party put a mark on him, but he couldn't stop it. He couldn't even find any trace of the mark. This showed that the gap in strength was too big.

After Zhao Wuji sent Guo Wei away, he came back and said, "Mr. Chen, you can rest assured now. The Martial Arts Alliance has spoken and those sects and aristocratic families will not dare to attack you for the time being..."

"Pavilion Master Zhao, what conditions did you agree to that person?"

Chen Ping knew that the reason why Guo Wei helped him was entirely because Zhao Wuji agreed to the other party's request.

Chapter: 1302

"It's nothing. Mr. Chen just needs to prepare for the competition with peace of mind. I will take care of the other things..."

Zhao Wuji did not say.

Chen Ping saw that Zhao Wuji didn't say anything, so he didn't ask further questions. Chen Ping didn't know anything about the intricate network of relationships in Kyoto, so it was useless to ask.

The next day, the Martial Arts Alliance spread a message on the Martial Arts Forum: Chen Ping joined the Dharma Protector Pavilion and will participate in the international competition in a few days. Before the competition, regardless of any personal grudges and hatreds, no one will be harmed. No sect family is allowed to cause trouble to Chen Ping...

This news immediately exploded. The last time Chen Ping fought Qin Xiaolin and killed Qin Xiaolin, it caused a wave on the forum. However, only a part of it was known. Many martial arts masters would not pay attention at all. After all, it was a competition of low-level strength, and they were not interested.

But this time is different. This is news from the Kyoto Martial Arts Alliance. No matter which sect family in Daxia Kingdom, they will pay attention to this news.

"Who is this Chen Ping? He can actually ask the Kyoto Martial Arts Alliance to speak for him."

"Is this the guy who swallowed the dragon crystal?"

"What's the power behind this kid? He can't be a young man from some aristocratic family, right?"

"Awesome, I can make the Kyoto Martial Arts Alliance speak for me in this life, and it will be worth my life..."

Many people started a lively discussion on the forum, and the name Chen Ping instantly became a household name in the martial arts world.

But this is not the result Chen Ping wants. He just wants to practice quietly and quietly. When his strength allows, he will kill the Long family and rescue his mother. And the man who betrayed his mother will also be his biological father. Chen Ping now wants to know who his father is.

Such a perverted Heart Condensation Technique can control the entire Tianlong Palace's rings. This is not something ordinary people can possess. A force like Wuying Villa is just a portal of Tianlong Palace. This shows how perverted Tianlong Palace is!

When the time comes to find all the thirteen halls of Tianlong Hall, Chen Ping cannot believe how powerful Tianlong Hall will be at that time, and as the master of Tianlong Hall, he should have no problem destroying a Long family.

Chen Ping still doesn't know that in the future, he will conquer the entire world and even the entire star field as the master of Tianlong Palace, and the strength of Tianlong Palace has long exceeded his imagination.

Xuanyuan family hall!

"Damn, how did this kid get into the martial arts alliance?"

Xuanyuan Yan looked at the message sent by the Martial Arts Alliance on the forum and threw the phone in his hand to the ground in anger.

"Brother, this must have come from above. The Martial Arts Alliance has given me face. That guy Chen Ping is also fighting on behalf of the Dharma Protector Pavilion. I think he might just want to use his official status to provide himself with protection..."

Xuanyuan Rong said from the side.

“Hmph, his status as a Dharma Protector Pavilion instructor can’t protect him. When he finishes the game, I’ll see who can protect him...”

Xuanyuan Yan’s eyes flashed with murderous intent.

One of his son’s arms was cut off by Chen Ping, and Xuanyuan Rong was beaten and humiliated by Chen Ping. However, Xuanyuan Yan did not get any benefits when he fought with Chen Ping, which made Xuanyuan Yan crazy.

Long family!

Chapter: 1303

Long Jingguo looked at the news from the Martial Arts Alliance and narrowed his eyes slightly. The expression on his face could not tell whether he was sad or happy.

“This kid seems to have some tricks up his sleeve. He knows how to use the power of officials and let the martial arts alliance help him speak out...”

Long Jingguo said calmly.

“Master, this news from the Martial Arts Alliance is not aimed at our Long family. It should be sent to other sect families. After all, many sect families are snooping on the dragon crystal in Chen Ping’s body, especially the Xuanyuan family. One of Xuanyuan Kai’s hands was chopped off by this kid, and he also took away Xuanyuan Rong’s position as instructor of the Dharma Protector Pavilion. Now Xuanyuan Yan is probably going crazy...”

Long Xingxu said from the side.

“Looking at this kid’s temperament, he does have some blood from my Long family. If this Chen Ping is really my nephew, I would still be reluctant to kill him...”

Long Jingguo smiled coldly.

“Master, raising a tiger is a danger. If this Chen Ping is really the eldest lady’s son, I’m afraid he will...”

“Are you teaching me how to do things?” Long Jingguo frowned slightly, and the extremely cold aura on his body instantly enveloped Long Xingxu.

Long Xingxu was so frightened that he was sweating profusely and hurriedly knelt down on the ground:
“Master, I know I was wrong...”

“Remember, you are just a branch of the Long family. Don’t really think of yourself as the eldest young master of the Long family, pointing fingers. Pay attention to your own identity...”

Long Jingguo said with sharp eyes.

Long Jingguo’s position as the head of the family was not easy to come by. He had worked hard, disowned his relatives, and blocked his own father to get the position.

He regards this position as more important than anything else, and of course he will not let the side branches of the Long family interfere in the affairs of the Long family. They only know how to obey and do things.

“I remember.....”

Long Xingxu nodded repeatedly.

“You also go and send a message on behalf of my Long family. No one can kill Chen Ping, otherwise don’t blame my Long family for falling out...”

If Chen Ping is really his nephew, Long Jingguo plans to threaten his sister with Chen Ping’s life. If Chen Ping dies, it will lose its value.

“I understand...” Long Xingxu retreated.

Soon, another message popped up on the martial arts forum.

It was issued by the Long family, warning the sects and families not to kill Chen Ping.

The martial arts alliance and the Long family actually all spoke out for Chen Ping, which shocked everyone in the martial arts world.

None of them understood why the Long family suddenly jumped out to save Chen Ping's life.

Could it be that Chen Ping has anything to do with the Long family?

Chapter: 1304

Only Chen Ping and the Long family knew about this matter. After all, this kind of thing was a family scandal. How could the Long family publicize it and let everyone know about it?

"Mr. Chen, take a look quickly..."

Taking the news from the Long Family on the martial arts forum, Zhao Wuji hurriedly found Chen Ping: "The Long Family has also spoken out to protect Mr. Chen. Is there any connection between Mr. Chen and the Long Family?"

Zhao Wuji was very surprised. He had never heard that Chen Ping had anything to do with the Long family. If Chen Ping really had a relationship with the Long family, then there would be no need for the official protection of the Dharma Protector Pavilion in Kyoto.

Chen Ping looked at the message sent by the Long family. Although he didn't know why the Long family sent this message, he was certain that the Long family must have suspected his identity.

At that time, both Long Wu and Lao Longtou warned him to keep a low profile as much as possible so that the Long family would discover him as late as possible. After all, that way Chen Ping could spend more time practicing.

But now, the Long family must have doubted his identity. The reason why they sent out such a message was because Chen Ping would be of use to the Long family only if he was captured alive by the Long family.

“I have nothing to do with the Long family. Maybe they saw the message from the Martial Arts Alliance, so they followed the news...”

Chen Ping said casually.

When Zhao Wuji saw this, he didn't ask anything. With the power of the Long family, there was no need to gain popularity. There were many vassal families under the Long family, and they almost accounted for one-third of the entire Kyoto martial arts world.

Moreover, the Long family is also very important in the Martial Arts Alliance and has a strong voice. There is no need to take advantage of the popularity of the Martial Arts Alliance.

With the news posted by the Martial Arts Alliance and the Long Family on the Martial Arts Forum, Chen Ping must be safe before the competition. No sect family would dare to attack Chen Ping at this time, unless they no longer want to live.

Chen Ping also seemed to have a talisman, wandering around Kyoto all day long. Anyway, there were still a few days before the competition, so Chen Ping happened to be strolling around Kyoto.

Originally, he wanted to visit Zhao Ligu and see how Zhao Ligu was recovering, but in the end he didn't go because Chen Ping knew that he was now a celebrity in the martial arts world. If he went to Wuying Villa and said It might even bring disaster to Wuying Villa.

Because he was not very familiar with Kyoto, Chen Ping asked Bai Zhantang, a native of Kyoto, to be his guide.

Xiaolan also followed Chen Ping, eating Kyoto delicacies and sightseeing the beautiful scenery of Kyoto, not to mention how happy she was.

“Zhantang, Kyoto has always been the imperial capital. Many emperors’ tombs are here. It’s just a good time to take us there...”

Chen Ping wanted Bai Zhantang to take him to the emperor’s tomb.

The tombs of emperors have always been filled with treasures. Maybe that place is full of spiritual energy. If you are lucky, you might pick up a treasure.

“Mr. Chen wants to go, then I will take you there...”

Bai Zhantang drove the car: “Actually, there is nothing to see in those imperial tombs. Many of them have been excavated, and the ones you see now are all renovated, which is fake, and not interesting...”

When Chen Ping heard this, his originally high interest suddenly dropped a lot, but since he was already heading there, let’s just take a look!

Soon, Chen Ping and the others arrived at the place, which covered tens of thousands of square meters and contained more than a dozen mausoleums, large and small. Since it was not a tourist time, there were not many people visiting the place.

Surrounding these tombs are some low hills with green trees and a very good environment. In front of the hills is a small river only a few meters wide, which was probably dug manually.

Chapter: 1305

“There are mountains and rivers. These emperors enjoyed it so much after their death...”

Chen Ping couldn’t help but sigh secretly.

“Mr. Chen, please wait a moment, I’ll buy tickets...”

Bai Zhantang wanted to buy tickets, but was stopped by Chen Ping.

“No need to go, there’s nothing to see, let’s just walk around outside...”

As soon as Chen Ping got out of the car, he already noticed that the spiritual energy here was very weak, and there was no aura from the treasures that Chen Ping imagined.

It seems that this place has really been hollowed out, and now only a frame remains for later repairs.

Chen Ping and the others walked along the artificially excavated river towards the hill.

Although the aura here has not changed much, the air is much fresher. In addition, there are few people here, so it is still a good place to relax!

After passing a small bridge and preparing to walk up the hill, Chen Ping suddenly stopped. Then he frowned slightly and instantly exuded his consciousness. At this moment, Chen Ping appeared in places hundreds of meters away. Level your mind.

“What a powerful aura...”

Chen Ping felt a powerful aura. Judging from the aura he felt alone, the opponent must have reached the Wuzong level.

But how could Wuzong appear in this place? Moreover, he also exuded his own aura, which was obviously a warning, warning other warriors not to approach.

“Mr. Chen, there seems to be someone here, and they have made this place their own territory...”

Bai Zhantang also felt this powerful aura, but he couldn’t feel the opponent’s level of strength.

“This is a public place, and it doesn’t belong to anyone. We just need to move forward...”

Chen Ping said calmly.

Chen Ping wanted to see what this martial arts master was doing. You must know that the mighty martial arts master would not come to this place to practice, let alone expose his aura easily. Now that the other party is doing this, there must be something wrong.

Chen Ping and the others continued to move forward. The further they moved forward, the stronger the tyrannical aura became. But along with that aura, Chen Ping actually felt another aura from it. After feeling it carefully, Chen Ping felt a little He was stunned for a moment: "Why is there Yin Qi here? Is it an evil cultivator?"

If there is an evil cultivator here, then it is possible. After all, evil cultivators cannot be seen and they need to practice in a place with few people. This is the right place.

Upon hearing the evil cultivator, Bai Zhantang and Xiaolan's expressions changed slightly, while Chen Ping's face became more and more excited.

If it is really an evil cultivator, then Chen Ping is welcome. He can just use the cultivation of this evil cultivator to help him practice and absorb the cultivation of these evil cultivators. No one in the martial arts world will blame or take care of it. After all, these None of the evil cultivators are good people. They all rely on absorbing other people's energy or yin energy to practice.

As Chen Ping and the others got closer, the powerful aura became stronger and stronger.

Finally, Chen Ping and the others came to the hill and saw an old man sitting cross-legged on the ground about a few dozen meters away. Around the old man, seven shining crystal balls were constantly surrounding him. Rotate.

Chapter: 1306

"Seven-star formation?"

Chen Ping said with some surprise when he saw this.

"who?"

Chen Ping's voice instantly alerted the old man, and seven flashing crystal balls instantly rushed toward Chen Ping and the others, and a figure also rushed over at the same time.

When the seven crystal balls arrived in front of Chen Ping and the others, they instantly surrounded the three of them.

At this moment, the old man had also appeared in front of Chen Ping.

"Who are you? Why are you spying on my practice?"

The old man asked with a stern face and full of majesty.

"We are just here for sightseeing, and we don't mean to disturb your cultivation..."

Chen Ping discovered that the old man in front of him was in the realm of Wuzong, but he was not an evil cultivator, because he did not feel a trace of Yin Qi from the old man, but Yin Qi was constantly coming out from the ground at this moment.

"Fart, I can tell at a glance that you are warriors, and your strength has reached the peak of Grand Master. How could you have barged in unintentionally? I have released my aura for hundreds of meters around you. There is no way you can feel it. arrive....."

The old man glared at Chen Ping, completely believing what Chen Ping said.

"Since you don't believe it, I can't help it, but I don't think you are practicing martial arts. This seven-star array seems to be used to locate holes and explore tombs. You have set up a seven-star array here. Could it be that this is an ancient tomb?"

Chen Ping asked pretending to be confused.

Feeling the Yin Qi emerging from the ground, Chen Ping had already guessed that there might be a mausoleum under the hill, otherwise there would not be so much Yin Qi.

Hearing what Chen Ping said, the old man's eyes suddenly flashed with light, and an invisible murderous aura enveloped Chen Ping and the others.

It seems that Chen Ping was right, this guy wants to kill Chen Ping and others.

"What nonsense are you talking about? There are no ancient tombs here. I'm just practicing. I advise you to get out of here, otherwise don't blame me for being rude..."

The old man narrowed his eyes and said coldly.

"This is not your home. If we come here for a walk, it's your turn to take care of it?"

Chen Ping said nonchalantly.

"Boy, do you know who I am? I am Hu Baqi from the Hu family. You don't even need to ask, how many people dare to provoke my Hu family in this capital city..."

The old man threatened Chen Ping with a cold face.

"Hu family?" Chen Ping looked confused, not knowing anything about this Hu family.

Chapter: 1307

After hearing about the Hu family, Bai Zhantang's face changed slightly: "Mr. Chen, the Hu family is as famous as the Xuanyuan family, Pilimen, and Wuying Villa. However, the Hu family has always made a living by finding caves and robbing tombs. Many hidden tombs are After being found by the Hu family, many families will cooperate with the Hu family and explore the tombs together to find treasures..."

When Chen Ping heard this, he became even more convinced that the Hu Baqi in front of him must have discovered the ancient tomb here and was definitely not practicing martial arts.

"You look for your grave, and I go my own way. We have nothing to do with each other. You can continue to work..."

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he winked at Bai Zhantang and Xiaolan, and the three of them continued to walk forward.

When Hu Baqi saw this, he was slightly stunned, and then his anger rose: "Boy, my Hu family doesn't even give me face. It seems that you are tired of living..."

After saying that, Hu Baqi slapped Chen Ping with his palm, and the terrifying aura swept over him like a strong wind.

In Hu Baqi's eyes, Chen Ping and the others were already dead. As a martial arts master, he couldn't handle several great masters easily.

Hu Baqi's palm hit Chen Ping directly on the head, obviously intending to kill him with one blow!

"Impatient!"

Chen Ping raised the corner of his mouth slightly, then turned around and followed with a palm strike.

Bang!

After a dull sound, Hu Baqi felt a strong force coming, and his whole body flew backwards in an instant, and his whole arm was slightly aching from the shock.

"this....."

Hu Baqi looked at Chen Ping in shock. He didn't understand how could Chen Ping, a master at the peak of his realm, force his own martial arts sect to retreat?

"Who are you?"

Hu Baqi asked with a solemn expression.

“I won’t change my name in business, and I won’t change my surname in office. Chen Ping is me...”

Chen Ping smiled slightly.

“Chen Ping, are you Chen Ping?”

Hu Baqi’s eyes widened, his face full of surprise.

The recent Chen Ping can be considered a celebrity in the martial arts world. Almost no one does not know him. The Martial Arts Alliance and the Long Family have both spoken out for Chen Ping, which is rare in the martial arts world.

“Do you know me too?” Chen Ping asked after seeing Hu Baqi’s expression.

“I can ask the Martial Arts Alliance and the Long Family to protect you. It seems that you have some real abilities. Today is a misunderstanding. If you have the opportunity, please come to our Hu Family as a guest...”

After Hu Baqi finished speaking, he made a casual move and all eight crystal balls returned to his hand, then turned around and left.

Chapter: 1308

After Hu Baqi left, Bai Zhantang looked at Chen Ping and said, “Mr. Chen, is this really an ancient tomb?”

“I don’t know. It’s just that there is Yin Qi coming out of the ground here. There should be a tomb underneath. However, the Yin Qi is not strong, so I’m not sure. I’ll check it out first...”

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he closed his eyes slightly and walked around with his eyes closed according to the positions of the Five Elements and Bagua. After Chen Ping walked through, deep traces were left on the ground. Soon these traces formed the pattern of the Bagua. .

Chen Ping stood in the middle of the Bagua diagram, with golden light emerging from his palms. Then the golden light in his hand kept popping up and falling around the Bagua diagram.

Buzz buzz.....

After a burst of roaring, the whole hill seemed to be shaking, but it soon returned to calm.

Then all the golden light around the Bagua map disappeared, and the Bagua map on the ground became lighter and fainter, and finally could no longer be seen.

“Mr. Chen, how are you doing?”

Bai Zhantang hurried over and asked.

Cold sweat broke out on Chen Ping’s forehead, but he could not hide his excitement as he said: “This is indeed an ancient tomb, and it is also an emperor’s mausoleum. It’s just that there is a formation in the emperor’s mausoleum. I can’t detect what’s going on inside, but it’s There will definitely be treasures.”

“Emperor’s Tomb?” Bai Zhantang looked puzzled: “Aren’t all those Emperor’s Tombs excavated nearby? Why is there still an Emperor’s Tomb here? Has no one discovered it for so many years?”

“Didn’t I say before that this emperor’s mausoleum is imprisoned by the formation and cannot be discovered from the outside at all. If it weren’t for the age of the formation, its effectiveness has weakened, and it emits a trace of Yin Qi, I am afraid no one can find it. Yes, Hu Baqi must have felt the Yin Qi emerging here, so he used the seven-star array to visit the tomb here.”

Chen Ping explained.

“Then what should we do? Dig this place up?” Bai Zhantang asked with some excitement.

You must know that there are treasures everywhere in the Emperor’s Tomb, and maybe there will be things to assist in cultivation!

“You can’t dig...” Chen Ping shook his head. The competition was about to start. Chen Ping didn’t have time to dig the grave. What’s more, if he dug it with great fanfare, other sect families would definitely know about it, and those people would watch Chen Ping dig. ?

“Mr. Chen, if we don’t dig up, I’m afraid the Hu family won’t let this place go. If the Hu family takes the lead, nothing will be ours.”

Bai Zhantang said anxiously.

“Don’t worry, Hu Baqi shouldn’t be convinced that this is an ancient tomb. I’ll temporarily seal this place with a formation so that they can’t detect it. We’ll make plans later...”

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he suddenly turned his palms over, and light blue flames appeared on Chen Ping’s palms.

Then Chen Ping flicked his fingers, and light blue flames shot out in all directions. After falling to the ground, they instantly penetrated into the soil.

Seeing Chen Ping’s miraculous methods, Bai Zhantang was both envious and admired. He didn’t know what age and month he was, and he could be so powerful like Chen Ping.

“Don’t mention anything about today to anyone...”

Chen Ping warned Bai Zhantang and Xiaolan.

Chapter: 1309

“Don’t worry, Mr. Chen!” Bai Zhantang nodded.

If such an imperial mausoleum were known to others, they would risk their lives to excavate it. In the face of huge interests, many people would risk their lives.

Not long after Chen Ping left with Bai Zhantang and the others, Hu Baqi quietly came back again.

He used the Seven Star Formation to explore the entire hillock for several hours, but found nothing.

“Am I feeling wrong?”

Hu Baqi looked confused and finally had to leave.

A few days later, the international competition officially begins!

Masters from five countries gathered in Daxia. These five countries are Xiong Country, Aluo Country, Island Country, Yin Country and Tai Country!

This international competition directly attracted the attention of many sects and families in the martial arts world, because this time there was a sword master Watanabe Ichiro who followed the island country. The martial arts world of Daxia Kingdom was too familiar with this sword master Watanabe Ichiro. .

In an international competition six years ago, Watanabe Ichiro used his super swordsmanship to defeat five people from Daxia in a row. Three of them were seriously injured and died. That competition became a shame for Daxia.

Watanabe Ichiro also openly humiliated Daxia’s martial arts community on the martial arts stage. This angered Daxia’s martial arts community. Many people began to plan to intercept and kill Watanabe Ichiro on his way back home. Later, he came forward at the top level to Stopped this behavior.

However, the Daxia martial arts world has also remembered this person. In the martial arts world, there are countless real heroes and secluded masters, but these people will not choose to join the officialdom or participate in competitions.

This makes Ichiro Watanabe really think that there are no masters in the martial arts world of Daxia, and he is bullying others!

After that time, Ichiro Watanabe never came to Daxia again, nor did he participate in competitions. I heard that he was practicing in seclusion.

But this time Ichiro Watanabe came to Daxia again, which instantly made many sects and families in the martial arts world interested and prepared to watch this competition.

In addition, there are many people who want to see who Chen Ping is, who can let the Martial Arts Alliance and the Long Family protect him!

Kyoto Guardian Pavilion Hall!

At this time, everyone in the Guardian Pavilion gathered here, and Zhao Wuji's face was very solemn.

"This time, Ichiro Watanabe is here again, and I heard that after this retreat, this guy's strength has increased a lot. Now no one knows what state Ichiro Watanabe has reached. I'm afraid of Mr. Chen... .."

Zhao Wuji was worried that Chen Ping was no match for Ichiro Watanabe.

If Chen Ping is really not the opponent of Ichiro Watanabe, then Chen Ping will be in danger. This Ichiro Watanabe often puts his opponents to death when fighting.

However, there are rules in the martial arts field, and everyone must sign a life-and-death battle, so even if you beat the opponent to death, you will not be punished. After all, the sword has no eyes.

It's just that many participating parties will stop there. After all, there is no grievance or enmity, so why hurt other people's lives and add trouble to themselves.

Chapter: 1310

But this is not the case with Ichiro Watanabe. Those who fight him are either dead or injured, and they are all seriously injured.

“Pavilion Master Zhao, what should we do? There is a team competition this time. If Mr. Chen really loses to Ichiro Watanabe, during the team competition, we...we are afraid...”

Xu Shimao didn't say anything further, but everyone knew what he was going to say.

If Chen Ping really loses to Ichiro Watanabe, the Kyoto Guardian Pavilion will have no one to rely on when it comes to the team competition, and the casualties will definitely be serious.

Ichiro Watanabe was very ruthless against the people of Daxia, which is why after the competition six years ago, it aroused the indignation of the martial arts community in Daxia, and many people were ready to intercept and kill Ichiro Watanabe.

Zhao Wuji was in a dilemma. Now he didn't know what to do. If he used the lives of all the members of the Guardian Pavilion to bet that Chen Ping would win, Zhao Wuji didn't have the courage.

But if he admits defeat now and doesn't participate in the competition, then he and the entire Kyoto Guardian Pavilion will probably become a laughing stock, and perhaps there will never be a Guardian Pavilion as a department in the future.

“Pavilion Master Zhao, I will fight with all my strength. Unless I die, I will not let Ichiro Watanabe leave alive...”

At this time, Chen Ping walked in from outside.

“Mr. Chen...” Zhao Wuji hurriedly greeted him: “Then Ichiro Watanabe was already in the realm of Wuzong six years ago. At that time, five of us Wuzong fought with him and failed to defeat him, let alone this time. Benichiro has just come out of seclusion, and his strength must have increased a lot...”

“Pavilion Master Zhao, if you believe me, there is no need to say anything!” After Chen Ping finished speaking, he looked at all the people in the Protector Pavilion and said: “Do you trust me, Chen Ping? If you can, then follow me to the competition. Yi Xueqian Shame...”

Wow.....

Everyone in the Guardian Pavilion stood up and said with firm eyes: “We believe in Instructor Chen, and we are willing to follow Instructor Chen to avenge our past humiliation...”

The members of the Dharma Protector Pavilion are all highly motivated.

Looking at the high-spirited team members, Chen Ping and Zhao Wuji looked at each other and smiled.

In addition to comparing strength, the competition also involves spirit and will. The sudden increase in team competition this time was initiated by the island country. They believed that the overall strength of the Daxia Guardian Pavilion was low, so they wanted to take the opportunity to collapse the Guardian Pavilion.

Now it is obviously impossible to temporarily increase the strength of the team members, and we can only find ways to increase the fighting spirit of the team members.

Chen Ping took everyone in the Guardian Pavilion and set off towards the competition venue.

At this time, the competition ground on the outskirts of Kyoto was already full of people, with tens of thousands of people coming to watch this international competition.

Many people came because of Ichiro Watanabe and Chen Ping, and many others came with a learning attitude. After all, such international exchange competitions are rare.

After Chen Ping arrived with his people, he found that teams from other countries had already arrived and were sitting on the benches under the ring.

As the master of the Dharma Protector Pavilion, Zhao Wuji found his seat and sat down, while Chen Ping stood behind Zhao Wuji.

On the left side of Zhao Wuji, there is a blond girl wearing a beautiful skirt, and behind the girl, there is a strong man with a strong back and waist, two meters tall, with bulging muscles.

Chen Ping knew that this was the Bear Country's team, but he didn't know how to let a little girl lead the team.
