

The Order 4091

Chapter: 4091

“Brother Ali, we don’t blame you. Since we are destined to be like this, let’s fight happily with these demon wolves!”

A villager from Dashi Village said!

“Ali, you have done a great job. You are doing it for our own good. No one will blame you. It’s a pity that after we die, life in Dashi Village will be even more difficult!”

An older villager from Dashi Village said!

“I’m not afraid of death, but what will happen to grandma if I die? Her eyes haven’t been cured yet...”

Yun’er looked depressed. She was not afraid of death, but just worried that no one would care about the old woman!

“Zhuzi ran back to the village, and maybe he will bring the old village chief and others to rescue us!”

Someone said optimistically!

“Impossible, this place is too far away from Dashi Village, and even if the old village chief brings everyone to rescue, I’m afraid he is no match for these demon wolves. Instead of all dying in the mouth of the demon wolf, it is better not to let them come to rescue! ”

Said the elderly villager of Dashi Village!

For a time, pessimism filled the hearts of all the villagers in Dashi Village!

“We all have a battle of spelling. We can’t go further into the depths. These monster wolves are deliberately driving us into the depths. Maybe it’s their wolf den. We can’t retreat any longer and fight our way out!”

Ali held the weapon and said in a deep voice!

Everyone nodded and clutched the weapons in their hands tightly. They had already discovered the wolf pack’s intention!

“kill.....”

Ali roared and rushed towards the wolves first!

“kill.....”

Everyone in Dashi Village rushed forward. It is often in times of despair that people can unleash their full strength!

“Ouch.....”

Upon seeing this, a demon wolf rushed directly towards Ali who was rushing at the front!

Whoosh.....

But just when the demon wolf rushed in front of Ali, an arrow suddenly shot from the side, instantly penetrating the neck of the demon wolf, and then with huge force, the entire demon wolf flew away. Then he was nailed to the tree hard!

This sudden change made Ali and others stunned for an instant. Even the demon wolves turned their heads, as if they felt the danger!

“Brother Chen Ping, you...you are simply awesome...”

Chapter: 4092

Zhuzhu looked at the demon wolf nailed to the tree and said excitedly!

At this time, Chen Ping was holding a bow and arrow with a pillar in his hand. He was the one who shot the arrow just now!

Zhuzhu’s bow and arrow are just mortal objects. If Chen Ping recovers his strength and takes out the Divine King’s Bow, with one arrow, at least half of these demon wolves will die!

“Brother Chen Ping.....”

“Chen Ping...”

After Ali and Yun’er saw Chen Ping and Zhu Zhu, they shouted out in shock!

Chen Ping led the pillars and walked slowly towards Ali and the others. None of the demon wolves on both sides dared to attack!

Ali and the others were shocked when they saw that there were only two people, Chen Ping and Zhu Zhu!

Yun’er was even more anxious and said: “Brother Chen Ping, why are you here? Leave quickly, it’s too dangerous here...”

Yun’er wanted to let Chen Ping escape quickly while these demon wolves didn’t react!

There are so many demon wolves, even Chen Ping and Zhu Zhu are here to die in vain!

“Yun’er, I asked Zhuzi to bring you here to save you!”

Chen Ping said!

“Brother Chen Ping, if you were not injured, you might be able to save us. Now you are so seriously injured that you have not recovered at all. You can only die if you come here.”

Yun'er looked anxious!

Now there are hundreds of demon wolves in the entire wolf pack. As the saying goes, an elephant will be killed by too many ants. Even if one or two demon wolves are no match for Chen Ping, can Chen Ping still be able to cope with so many demon wolves coming together?

In fact, Chen Ping has also thought about this problem, but now Chen Ping still has confidence in his heart, because he knows that these demon wolves do not dare to attack him!

“Yun'er, don't worry, I have a way to rescue you!”

Chen Ping said confidently!

“Chen Ping, I'm very grateful that you can come to save us, but there are so many monster wolves that you can't handle at all. Just take the pillar and leave. Don't die here in vain!”

Ali doesn't believe that Chen Ping can deal with the wolves!

“Brother Ali, sister Yun'er, maybe brother Chen Ping can really rescue you. Brother Chen Ping has recovered very well now. The group of Daqing Village people who arrested you were all killed by brother Chen Ping!”

Zhuzi believed Chen Ping's words because he saw with his own eyes that Chen Ping killed those people in Daqing Village!

Hearing that Chen Ping had killed all the people in Daqing Village, Ali and the others looked a little surprised, and then looked excited on their faces!

Chapter: 4093

“That’s great. Those beasts are all dead. It’s worth it even if we die...”

A villager from Dashi Village said happily!

“Don’t worry, since I’m here, you won’t die...”

Chen Ping said with a faint smile!

But at this moment, the leader of the demon wolf roared, and many demon wolves surrounded Ali and the others again. This time, Chen Ping was also surrounded!

The leading demon wolf must have sensed the threat from Chen Ping and directly commanded a dozen demon wolves to rush towards Chen Ping. The other demon wolves were also ready to attack at any time!

When Ali and the others saw this, they could only drag their extremely tired and scarred bodies, holding weapons and preparing to follow Chen Ping to fight these demonic wolves!

“Don’t move, I am enough!”

Chen Ping actually stopped Ali and the others, and then his eyes narrowed slightly!

Waves of breath burst out from Chen Ping’s body, and this breath actually contained the power of dragon and phoenix!

Although Chen Ping has not fully recovered, as long as the power of dragon and phoenix explodes a little, it can exert a great sense of oppression on those monsters!

Sure enough, after Chen Ping's breath burst out, the demon wolves that were originally rushing towards Chen Ping stopped instantly!

The leader of the demon wolf looked at Chen Ping with fear in his eyes, and his body was trembling slightly!

“Ouch.....”

The leader of the demon wolf suddenly let out a cry of panic!

Then hundreds of demon wolves turned around and ran away without any hesitation!

In just ten seconds, there was no demon wolf left at the scene, and only a few dead demon wolf corpses were left lying on the ground!

Everyone was stunned when they saw this scene!

Although Chen Ping was mentally prepared, he never expected that he could scare these demon wolves like this just by emitting a little power of dragon and phoenix!

However, these demon wolves are not very strong, so of course they are scared when they feel the aura of the mythical beasts. I just don't know if the power of dragon and phoenix will work when encountering high-level demonic beasts!

“This...what exactly is going on?”

Alimon asked in a circle!

“Is it possible that a more advanced monster is coming and will scare those monster wolves away?”

The elderly villager from Dashi Village said!

Chapter: 4094

“That should be the case, otherwise how could these demon wolves escape in such a hurry!”

A villager from Dashi Village echoed!

“There are no high-level monsters at all. These monster wolves must have been scared away by Brother Chen Ping!”

Zhuzhu said loudly!

Although he didn't know how Chen Ping scared away the demon wolf, he now regarded Chen Ping as an omnipotent person.

“Okay, don't worry about who scared you away. Now while the demon wolf has escaped, we should leave this place quickly. If the demon wolf pack comes back, or there are more advanced demon beasts, then we will be in trouble!”

Ali ordered everyone to leave here quickly!

“Brother Ali, what should I do with these demon wolf corpses? These demon wolf corpses can be sold for a lot of money. It would be a pity to leave them like this!”

A villager from Dashi Village said!

Everyone looked at the corpses of those monster wolves and felt very sorry!

In fact, Ali also knew that these demon wolf corpses could be sold for a lot of money, but they were all injured now and there was no way to take away these demon wolf corpses. Moreover, the demon wolf pack that left might come back at any time, and they had no time to take away the demon wolf beasts. Dan!

“No, leave the green hills without worrying about having firewood. If we all die here, no matter how many demon wolf corpses are there, it will be useless to us. Leave here quickly...”

Ali said loudly!

When everyone saw this, they could only look at it reluctantly and prepare to leave!

“Brother Ali, brother Chen Ping has a storage ring that can take away all the corpses of these demon wolves!”

At this time, Zhuzhu said to Ali!

“Storage ring?” Ali was stunned, then looked at Chen Ping and said, “Do you have a storage ring?”

Chen Ping nodded and said, “I do!”

Ali looked at Chen Ping in disbelief. He didn’t expect that Chen Ping had a treasure like a storage ring. You must know that there are not many treasures like storage rings in the world of gods and humans!

“I didn’t expect that you would have such a treasure on your body. Are you willing to help us take away the corpse of the demon wolf?”

Ali asked!

“No problem.” Chen Ping smiled lightly, then waved his hand, and the demon wolf corpses instantly arrived in the storage ring.

Everyone saw that the body of the demon wolf was really gone, and everyone looked at Chen Ping happily. Their attitude towards Chen Ping was also changing!

After all, Chen Ping is an outsider. Although he has lived in Dashi Village for many days, many villagers in Dashi Village are still hostile to Chen Ping!

Chapter: 4095

But now I see that Chen Ping has a storage ring and helped them take away the body of the demon wolf. Everyone is very grateful!

“Okay, let’s go...”

Ali led everyone and started to return the same way.

“Yun’er, are you okay? Can you still leave?”

Chen Ping saw that Yun’er was injured, so he asked with concern!

“Brother Chen Ping, I’m fine, I can leave!”

Yun’er shook her head and said!

Ali and his party were all injured, so they were not moving very fast. At this time, some people began to sigh.

“Although we escaped death this time and got so many demon wolf corpses, if we want to cure the injuries on our bodies, I’m afraid selling these demon wolf corpses won’t be enough!”

Someone said this, and everyone who had obtained so many demon wolf corpses became depressed!

“These pharmacists are just eating people without spitting out their bones. Their elixirs are so expensive!”

“I’d rather be patient and not see it. At worst, I just need to resist for a few more days. The wounds on my body will eventually heal slowly.”

The elderly villager from Dashi Village said!

“Uncle Liu, don’t say that. Wounds are very easy to get infected, especially those caused by monsters. Have you forgotten that last year my uncle was bitten by a monster, and he felt so distressed that he didn’t pay for the treatment, and he died in the end?”

Zhuzhu said to the elder Dashi Villager!

This time, the elder Dashi Villager lowered his head and stopped talking!

Everyone was listless and the atmosphere became very depressing!

Yun’er looked at her injuries and was also worried. She originally wanted to hunt more to earn money and treat her grandma’s eyes, but now she doesn’t have the money to treat her eyes, and now she is injured again!

“Yun’er, is it difficult to treat these injuries here?”

Chen Ping asked very puzzledly!

Because these traumas can be cured with only some simple medicinal materials, not expensive medicinal materials, but why is it so difficult?

“Of course it’s difficult. When we are injured, we have to go to a town hundreds of kilometers away to find a pharmacist for treatment. They charge very expensive prices.”

Yun’er said to Chen Ping!

Upon hearing this, Chen Ping decided to collect some herbs in the mountains and treat the villagers in Dashi Village. Although Chen Ping’s strength had not fully recovered and there was no way to refine high-level elixirs, he still wanted to refine some elixirs to treat these injuries. Very simple!

Chapter: 4096

“Ali, take them back first. I will collect some herbs on this mountain range and go back to heal your injuries!”

Chen Ping said to Ali!

When Ali heard this, he immediately looked at Chen Ping blankly: “Are you going to collect medicine? Are you a pharmacist?”

Everyone else also looked at Chen Ping with shock on their faces, waiting for Chen Ping’s answer!

“I just learned some alchemy skills and am not much of a pharmacist, but I can still treat this kind of trauma without any problem.”

Chen Ping said very relaxedly!

When Ali heard this, he immediately became very excited. He stepped forward and grabbed Chen Ping’s hand and said, “You...are you telling the truth? You didn’t lie to me?”

Chen Ping looked at Ali’s excited look and said with confusion, “I’m not lying to you. I’m just treating your injuries. What’s the point of lying?”

“marvelous.....”

Ali happily stepped forward and hugged Chen Ping directly!

Others also happily surrounded Chen Ping, with admiration for Chen Ping in their eyes!

Even Zhuzi stepped forward and looked at Chen Ping in disbelief: “Brother Chen Ping, you are actually a pharmacist? I didn’t expect that you are so strong and you are also a pharmacist?”

Seeing the expressions of everyone, Chen Ping was a little confused. He didn't understand that even if he was a pharmacist, these people wouldn't be so happy, right?

Isn't it possible to treat their injuries? Why are they all so happy as if they saved their lives?

"Brother Chen Ping, I really didn't expect you to be a pharmacist. You don't know that pharmacists are a very respected and envied profession here."

"If you can become a pharmacist, you will have nothing to worry about for the rest of your life. But in our Dashi Village, we have never had a pharmacist in thousands of years!"

"It's better now. We people in Dashi Village no longer have to go to the town to see a doctor, and we no longer have to be slaughtered. There is hope for my grandma's eyes!"

"Brother Chen Ping, can you heal my grandma's eyes?"

Yun'er asked Chen Ping excitedly!

But Chen Ping shook his head. Chen Ping had actually observed the old woman's eyes a long time ago. Because these eyes had been blind for many years, it seemed that they were caused by poison, so Chen Ping had no way to cure them!

But there are no absolutes in everything. Maybe if you find a kind of fairy grass that is specially used to treat eyes, this old woman's eyes can be restored!

"Yun'er, with my current ability, I still can't cure your grandma's eyes!"

Chen Ping said slightly guiltily!

When Yun'er heard this, she immediately felt very disappointed and lowered her head slightly!

Chapter: 4097

“Yun’er, although Brother Chen Ping can’t heal your grandma’s eyes, you don’t have to be discouraged. After we sell the body of the demon wolf, we can ask Divine Doctor Zhang to treat your grandma.”

Ali stepped forward and comforted Yun’er!

Yun’er nodded and then showed a smile!

“Brother Chen Ping, shall I go with you to collect herbs? I am familiar with the terrain here!”

Zhuzi wanted to go with Chen Ping to collect herbs.

In fact, Zhu Zhu also had a plan in mind, which was to learn more skills from Chen Ping. It would be even better if he could learn some alchemy skills and become a pharmacist!

In fact, Chen Ping also saw what Zhuzi was thinking, but he still said: “Zhuzi, you can collect herbs with me when you have time in the future. Now that Ali and the others are injured, you should escort them back to the village!”

“Brother Chen Ping, just let Zhu Zhu follow. We have now left the territory of the Demon Wolf Clan. Nothing will happen. We can go back by ourselves!”

Ali also wanted Zhuzi to learn more from Chen Ping!

After all, Chen Ping is an outsider and will leave Dashi Village at any time. If Zhu Zhu can learn to be a pharmacist, it will be a huge wealth for Dashi Village!

Seeing what Alidu said, Chen Ping agreed, then left the team with Zhuzi and started picking herbs!

Because the world of heaven and humans is full of spiritual energy, there are countless spiritual grasses in the mountains. If these spiritual grasses were in the secular world, they would be priceless treasures, but here they become weeds with no one to pick them!

Even though the spiritual energy in the secular world is now recovering, some spiritual grasses cannot grow into shape in a year and a half. Some spiritual grasses need ten years or even a hundred years to grow!

“Pillar, did you see this kind of oval, light green leaves called...”

Chen Ping was picking herbs and explaining them to Zhuzi. He was also teaching Zhuzi some of the most basic pharmacist skills!

If you can't even identify medicinal herbs, you can't become an alchemist!

Zhu Zhu also studied very seriously. He could remember what Chen Ping taught him once, and then he helped Chen Ping collect herbs!

Before dark, Chen Ping and Zhuzi collected a lot of herbs and returned to Dashi Village!

Ali and the others had come back a long time ago. The old village chief had sent people to clean the wounds of Ali and the others, and got a black plaster to apply on Ali and the others!

These are just some of the folk remedies in Dashi Village. Some people are injured and have no money for medical treatment, so they can only apply this folk remedy on the wound. As for whether it will heal, it is up to God!

Chen Ping and Zhuzi had just arrived at Dashi Village when the old village chief and everyone in Dashi Village were already waiting in the village square!

Seeing Chen Ping back, the old village chief and all the villagers in Dashi Village knelt down in front of Chen Ping!

“Mr. Chen, thank you for saving our Dashi Village...”

The old village chief said with excitement!

Chapter: 4098

If Chen Ping hadn't rescued Ali and the others, their Dashi Village would have been even less able to survive after losing these young talents!

"Old village chief, what are you doing? Get up quickly..."

Chen Ping quickly helped the old village chief up and asked all the villagers to get up too!

"Mr. Chen, if it hadn't been for you this time, Ali and the others wouldn't have been able to come back. Ali told me everything that happened. I didn't expect you to be a pharmacist. You are so secretive."

The old village chief praised Chen Ping!

"This is what I should do. If it weren't for Dashi Village, I would have died in the jungle long ago."

As Chen Ping spoke, he took out all the demon wolf corpses from the storage ring and said, "Old village chief, send someone to deal with these demon wolf corpses. I'm going to refine some elixirs so that Ali and the others can respond as soon as possible. !"

"Okay, okay, whatever Mr. Chen needs to do, just ask in Dashi Village. From now on, all the villagers in Dashi Village will be at your disposal!"

The old village chief said three good words in a row!

Chen Ping didn't ask for anything, he just asked for a pot, then rushed back to Yun'er's yard and started refining the elixir in the yard!

Medicine for treating injuries is not difficult to make. Chen Ping made some medicinal powder and asked the old village chief to apply it on Ali and the others. It only took two days for these people to recover!

As for Yun'er's injuries, it only took Chen Ping one day for Yun'er to recover without leaving even the slightest scar on her body!

Moreover, after the people in the village knew that Chen Ping was a pharmacist, they all came to see Chen Ping for medical treatment. Chen Ping seemed to be a country doctor, but he also responded to the villagers' requests!

“Brother Chen Ping, we are going to the town to sell demon wolves today, will you go?”

Yuner asked Chen Ping!

“Okay!” Chen Ping nodded!

After staying in Dashi Village for several days, Chen Ping also wanted to go out for a walk and see the cultural environment of the Celestial Realm!

At this time, at the gate of Dashi Village, Ali and the others had already packed the corpse of the demon wolf and carried it on their shoulders. When they saw Chen Ping coming, Ali and others followed Chen Ping and thanked him.

Chen Ping now has a high prestige in Dashi Village, and the villagers of Dashi Village also regard Chen Ping as one of them!

The group of people set off towards the town. The nearest town to Dashi Village is Qingshi Town, which is hundreds of kilometers away. Many nearby villages take their things to Qingshi Town to sell them, and then buy some daily necessities from Qingshi Town. !

In fact, these low-level monks in the heaven and human world live the most basic life. Although everyone has a dream of becoming an immortal, not every monk can ascend to become an immortal!

Like the monks at the bottom, I am afraid that among tens of millions, not one will ascend to immortality. The road to becoming an immortal is too difficult and requires too many resources!

Although one hundred kilometers is not close, in the eyes of these monks, it is not far. It only took one hour for everyone to arrive at Qingshi Town!

Chen Ping looked at the Qingshi Town in front of him. It was not as majestic as he imagined. It was just a village with a relatively large population. There was a square on one side of Qingshi Town where people sold their things!

Chapter: 4099

Most of the things sold here are the corpses of monsters and beasts, and there are also some strange stones or spiritual herbs, but when Chen Ping sees these things, few people care!

After Ali and the others arrived, they did not sell like others. Instead, they went directly to a house made of stones. Before they even got there, Chen Ping smelled the strong smell of blood inside the house!

“Boss Li, the goods have been received...”

Ali shouted outside the house.

At this time, a tall and thick man walked out of the stone house. His body was still stained with blood. He glanced at Ali and said, “It turns out to be Ali. What do you need to pay today? You haven’t been here for several days!”

“Boss Li, today I want to hand over the corpses of ten demon wolves!”

After Ali finished speaking, he asked everyone to put the body of the demon wolf on the ground!

Boss Li looked at the corpses of the demon wolves and said with some disbelief: “Ali, were these demon wolves hunted by you?”

“Of course, if they weren’t hunted by us, could it be that they were robbed by others? Our people in Dashi Village are not like Daqing Village. They are all bandits!”

When Ali thinks of those people in Daqing Village, he becomes filled with anger!

Boss Li glanced at Ali, opened his mouth, but stopped talking!

Finally, he hesitated and said, "Ali, I can only give you five spirit coins for each of these monster wolf corpses."

"What? Five spirit coins? Is this too little?"

"That's right, we came to hand over the body of the demon wolf two days ago, and we got twenty spirit coins in return!"

"Boss Li, your business is too dark."

As soon as Boss Li finished speaking, the people in Dashi Village started shouting!

Ali's expression was also a little ugly and he said: "Boss Li, we have known each other for a long time. I also know the price of the demon wolf corpse. Isn't your five spirit coins a little too cheap?"

Boss Li looked around and found that no one was paying attention to them. Then he followed Ali in a low voice and said, "Ali, just because I am an old acquaintance with you, I will give you five spirit coins per head. If you go and give Others, others may not dare to accept it!"

"The people in Daqing Village have spread the word, saying that a group of people from their village's hunting team did not go back and were killed on the territory of the Demon Wolf Clan!"

"So the people in Daqing Village said that if they see someone coming to hand over a large number of demon wolf corpses, they must not accept it, and they must report it to them, saying that those demon wolf corpses must have been snatched from them."

"Now that I give you five spirit coins per head, you are already taking a risk. I advise you to dispose of the body of the demon wolf as soon as possible, otherwise others will discover it and report it to Daqing Village. Your Dashi Village will be in danger!"

Ali was a little confused when he listened to Boss Li's explanation. Originally, he thought he could make a small fortune by getting so many demon wolf corpses, but now it seems that he was overthinking, and he didn't expect Daqing either. People in the village will do this!

Everyone else in Dashi Village was also very disappointed at this time, especially Yun'er. She originally thought that after selling the body of the demon wolf, she would be able to ask Doctor Zhang to heal her grandma's eyes after getting the money, but now she is selling this. After counting the money, there won't be much left in her hands!

"Just kill all these beasts in Daqing Village..."

Chapter: 4100

Zhuji was so angry that he muttered in a low voice!

"Boss Li, can you give me a little raise?" Ali begged to Boss Li!

"No, if you don't sell it, forget it!"

As Boss Li said this, he was about to turn around and return to the room, but was stopped by Ali: "Boss Li, five spirit coins, just five spirit coins!"

Ali could only compromise. If Boss Li didn't accept it, then others would be even more afraid to accept it!

After exchanging the demon wolf corpse for spirit coins, everyone lowered their heads and looked unhappy!

And Chen Ping also knew that Daqing Village was actually so powerful nearby. Many people were afraid of Daqing Village!

Ali took the spirit coins and did not share them with everyone. Instead, he glanced at Yun'er and said, "Yun'er, let's take the money and ask Doctor Zhang to treat your grandma's eyes..."

Yun'er was stunned for a moment, then quickly shook her head and said: "Brother Ali, this is the money that everyone earned with their lives. You can't give it all to me, so let's share it with everyone!"

"There's no need to separate. This is what we all want."

"Yes, our lives are saved, no matter how much the score is!"

"Yun'er, just take the money and hire Dr. Zhang. He can cure your grandma's eyes. This has been your wish for many years!"

The villagers from Dashi Village who followed all said to Yun'er!

After listening to these words, Yun'er was moved to tears and said: "Thank you everyone..."

"Okay, you all go back, I'll accompany Yun'er to ask for Dr. Zhang!"

Ali asked everyone else to go back!

Only Zhu Zhu, Chen Ping, Yun'er and himself were left behind, and then they took the money to hire Dr. Zhang!

Follow the narrow streets of Qingshi Town until you reach the end. There is a shop with a sign on the left hand side, with the words "Security Hall" written on it!

"What's this name?" Chen Ping looked at the signboard of Bao'an Tang and was puzzled. He didn't understand why it had such a name for a medicine shop and clinic!

"Brother Chen Ping, the name of this security hall means to keep you safe. As long as you enter this door, no matter how serious your injuries are, he can keep you safe. That's why it's called security hall."

Zhu Zhu followed Chen Ping in explaining!

Chen Ping smiled faintly. He didn't expect that the miracle doctor could be quite good at it. This made Chen Ping very curious and wanted to see how good the miracle doctor's medical skills were.

Chen Ping followed Ali and the others into the security hall. At this time, there were many people in the security hall asking for medicine. Behind an Eight Immortals table, a man in his thirties, with his eyes slightly closed, looked calm and calm. Give someone a pulse!

“Brother Chen Ping, this person is Doctor Zhang...”
