

The Order 4231

Chapter: 4231

“Become the Third Junior Brother?” The second elder was slightly startled, and then said curiously: “Since I am the disciple of your Third Junior Uncle, how can I bring it with you? You kid won’t want to change the disciple while your Master is away, right? ?”

“The second uncle was joking. Master once told me that even if I become a disciple of the third uncle, he is still a disciple of our Jade Cauldron Sect. As a senior brother, I should do this!”

Nie Heng laughed twice and said!

“Yes, you have a very high level of consciousness.” The second elder praised Nie Heng, then looked at Chen Ping and said, “What’s your name?”

“Chen Ping!” Chen Ping said calmly!

“Since you want to join our Jade Cauldron Sect, why don’t you become a disciple of my senior brother, but why do you want to become a disciple of my third junior brother?”

The second elder asked curiously!

After all, Hu Yixiao is now the sect leader. Who doesn’t want to be under Hu Yixiao’s sect, so that his status in the Jade Cauldron Sect will be much higher!

The place where the third elder lives is difficult, and there are no resources for his disciples. Apart from the few loyal disciples who followed him, how can there be anyone who will worship the third elder!

“I worship whoever I like, no matter why...”

Chen Ping said calmly!

The second elder was stunned. He didn't expect Chen Ping to speak to him in such a tone. After all, the disciples who came to take the assessment were all very respectful to him and even secretly gave him gifts!

Now, even if Chen Ping doesn't give gifts, he still dares to talk to himself in this tone. It's simply too presumptuous!

"What a good boy, you have the arrogance of a young man, but arrogance is useless. The test requires strength. Whether you can pass the test depends on your luck."

The second elder finished speaking with a sneer, then took out a token and handed it to Chen Ping and said: "This is an assessment token, used to save your life. If you are in danger during the assessment, you can crush the token and someone will naturally rescue you!" "

"But the ugly words are ahead. When you enter the assessment field, your life and death are determined by your destiny, wealth and honor. If you die inside, it has nothing to do with our Jade Cauldron Sect."

Chen Ping looked at the token in the second elder's hand, but did not reach out to take it. Instead, he said lightly: "I don't need this assessment token. If my life is really in danger, it is because I am too weak. Even if I die, inside, it has nothing to do with the Jade Cauldron Sect!"

"Okay, you have courage. I haven't seen such a courageous young man in a long time. I hope you won't disappoint me..."

Although the second elder was praising Chen Ping, there was a hint of coldness in his eyes!

The second elder waved his hand and saw a ray of white light entering the assessment venue, and soon the formation of the assessment venue slowly opened.

"Go in..." the second elder said!

Chen Ping walked towards the assessment venue, and just when he was about to enter, he suddenly stopped!

“What? Do you regret it?” Seeing Chen Ping stop, the second elder asked!

“I just want to ask about the time limit for this assessment.”

Chapter: 4232

Chen Ping said!

“Ten hours. If you can come out within ten hours, it will be considered a success.”

“After you go in, I’m going to sleep. Without the assessment token, if you are in danger, no one will be able to go in and save you.”

The second elder said coldly!

“I just want to ask, is there a minimum time limit?”

Chen Ping asked!

“The minimum time requirement?” The second elder was stunned, and then understood Chen Ping’s intention, and sneered: “Boy, you haven’t gone in yet, so don’t ask so many questions. Let me tell you, since I took over this assessment place, I can There is only one disciple who passed the level in three hours, and that is Nie Heng!”

“You don’t think you are better than Nie Heng, do you? I have seen the disciples who participated in the assessment be arrogant, but in the end they were all suppressed. I advise you to keep a low profile, so as to save some face for yourself.”

After hearing the words of the second elder, Chen Ping smiled lightly: “Face is earned by oneself, not reserved. It will take ten minutes at most. I don’t think you should go to bed at this time.”

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he walked directly into the assessment formation!

Looking at Chen Ping's disappearing back, the second elder stood stunned for a moment and said: "Nie Heng, this guy is a weird guy that your third uncle found from somewhere. He is so crazy..."

"I...I don't know either..."

Nie Heng swallowed and said!

But Nie Heng knew that Chen Ping might not be arrogant, but that Chen Ping really had that ability!

When Chen Ping walked into the assessment area, he looked around and found that this formation was just a simple offensive formation and was not very powerful, so Chen Ping didn't care and walked straight forward!

Just after Chen Ping took a few steps, several spiritual lights suddenly appeared in the air, and then these spiritual lights continued to shoot towards Chen Ping!

Chen Ping just glanced briefly, with a sneer on his lips, and walked straight forward, not caring about the aura at all!

Whoosh whoosh whoosh.....

The auras of light that hit Chen Ping were all bounced away, causing no harm to Chen Ping at all!

Chen Ping has not even activated his indestructible golden body. With his powerful physical body alone, it is impossible for these simple offensive formations to harm Chen Ping!

If these auras can hurt Chen Ping, then no one of the outer disciples who come to take part in the assessment will ever pass!

At this time, outside the assessment area, a smooth stone slab reflected Chen Ping's situation at the assessment area. This was also to prevent anyone from cheating!

When the second elder saw that Chen Ping ignored the attacking formations and walked forward leisurely, he was shocked!

The boss's mouth was open and his face was filled with incredulity!

Chapter: 4233

You must know that many disciples cannot pass this first level. This level tests the flexibility of movements. It is not about resisting these attacks directly with the body, but about avoiding them!

Now Chen Ping ignored those attacks and walked straight forward. The second elder had never seen this way of clearing the level!

Nie Heng was not surprised at all when he saw this scene. He had experienced Chen Ping's physical strength before!

"Damn, this kid is so evil..."

The second elder said, and then a white light penetrated into the formation of the assessment place!

He is adjusting the difficulty of the assessment to make it more difficult and the attack of the formation stronger!

If there were no means to control the assessment, who would secretly give him gifts?

"Uncle Second Master, what are you..."

When Nie Heng saw this, he quickly tried to stop the second elder!

“Shut up and go away. Is this your master’s disciple? Why are you meddling in your own business?”

The second elder glared at Nie Heng, scaring him back!

But even if the second elder raised the level of the assessment to the maximum, Chen Ping still went on a rampage and ignored it at all!

And those formation attacks, hitting Chen Ping, were like scratching an itch. Even if such a simple formation was being adjusted, how powerful could it be?

In the dumbfounded expression of the second elder, Chen Ping walked around the assessment area and walked out. Then he shook the dust off his body and said, “Okay, I passed the level. It didn’t take ten minutes, right?”

The second elder was still in shock and did not react, but Nie Heng hurriedly said: “No, no, it only took eight minutes...”

“Does this mean I passed the assessment? Am I already a disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect?”

Chen Ping asked!

“Theoretically, it’s just...”

Before Nie Heng finished speaking, he looked at the second elder on the side!

Because only when the second elder nods and issues the Jade Cauldron Sect inner disciple token, he is considered an official Jade Cauldron Sect inner disciple and can enjoy various benefits of the Jade Cauldron Sect!

“Uncle Second Master, have you passed this test?”

Nie Heng asked the confused second elder!

“Ah?” The second elder was awakened, and after saying “ah”, he nodded: “It’s over...”

“Now that it’s over, I’m leaving...”

Chapter: 4234

Chen Ping plans to go down the mountain to find the third elder. He wants to know about the Jade Cauldron Sect’s Tibetan Medicine Pavilion!

“Wait a moment.....”

Just when Chen Ping turned to leave, the second elder suddenly called him.

“Didn’t I pass the assessment? Is there anything else?”

Chen Ping asked!

“You have passed the assessment, but you just passed this kind of assessment. Although I don’t know what kind of hard Qigong you practice that can make you invulnerable, but if you think it is so easy to become an inner disciple of our Jade Cauldron Sect, you are wrong! ”

“All of our Jade Cauldron Sect disciples are pharmacists, and each of them can refine elixirs. So if you want to become an inner disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect, you can’t do it just by relying on brute strength. You need to be able to refine elixirs.”

“I won’t embarrass you. You only need to refine a fifth-level elixir within an hour, and I can issue you a token to become a true inner disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect!”

The second elder said to Chen Ping!

“Uncle Second Master, when did the inner sect’s assessment include the alchemy part?”

Nie Heng asked in confusion!

Because this link has never been included before, why is alchemy suddenly added today?

“When was it added? Do I still need to inform you? I am the supervisor of the assessment. I can add whatever links I want!”

The second elder was already in a bad mood, and now he cursed Nie Heng and vented his anger!

Nie Heng was scolded and fell silent, but Chen Ping could see that this second elder was obviously trying to make things difficult for him!

But for Chen Ping, refining alchemy is simply a piece of cake, and it is such a low-level fifth-level elixir, Chen Ping has it at his fingertips!

“No problem, I can make pills.”

Chen Ping said!

“Okay, I will order someone to bring the cauldron and medicinal herbs, but the time is only one hour, so you must make good use of it.”

The second elder raised his lips and said!

“No need to go to so much trouble. It’s just a low-level fifth-level elixir. Why do you need a furnace?”

“As for this medicinal herb, it’s all over the mountains and plains here. Just pick a little and it’s enough.”

Chen Ping stopped the second elder and said!

The second elder was stunned for a moment, then frowned and said, "Boy, this is alchemy. It's not like you have a strong qigong and you can go on a rampage and refine the elixir. Do you have to think clearly?"

Chapter: 4235

"Think clearly, if I can't practice the fifth-level elixir within ten minutes, I will quit on my own."

Chen Ping said indifferently.

"Okay, I want to see how you can make a fifth-level elixir without a cauldron and medicinal herbs. It's just a dream to refine it in ten minutes."

The second elder was amused by Chen Ping's arrogant look!

You must know that alchemy is different from other exams. Even if you have all the skills, if you don't know the alchemy skills and knowledge, you will not be able to refine the elixir!

Chen Ping ignored the second elder, but looked around and found a broken earthen pot not far away, but the bottom was not damaged and could still be used!

Then Chen Ping looked at the mountain wall on one side, then jumped up and grabbed a handful of herbs from the mountain wall.

Throwing the medicinal herbs into the earthen jar, Chen Ping blew it with one finger, and a stream of spiritual fire began to pulse at Chen Ping's fingertips.

Then Chen Ping threw the spiritual fire into the earthen jar, and the herbs in the earthen jar burned.

The second elder couldn't help but sneered when he saw Chen Ping refining the elixir so casually. He didn't believe that he could refine a fifth-level elixir in this way.

Not to mention the fifth-level elixir, even an ordinary small pill cannot be cultivated, the procedure is wrong!

Just as the second elder was sneering, waiting to see Chen Ping's joke, suddenly the jar seemed unable to withstand the heat and burst open!

This sudden explosion even startled the second elder!

Seeing the exploding earthenware jar, the second elder was stunned for a moment, and then burst into laughter: "Hahaha, are you bragging too much? You still want to use this old earthenware jar to make elixirs. It's just crazy. Now the earthenware jar has exploded. , let's see what else you use to make alchemy!"

Chen Ping just smiled and ignored the second elder. Instead, he walked to the exploding jar, bent slightly and took out a pill from the broken jar!

Chen Ping walked up to the second elder with the elixir and said, "Look at this elixir. Is it a fifth-level elixir? Does it comply with the rules?"

The second elder was stunned. He took the elixir and looked at it carefully. He found that the elixir was indeed a fifth-level elixir and there was nothing wrong with it!

But in just a few minutes, and Chen Ping's alchemy refining procedures were all wrong, there was no way he could throw spiritual fire into the herbs and burn them directly!

You need to know that to refine the elixir, you need to boil the herbs into a viscous form, slowly bake the essence with spiritual fire, and finally slowly condense these essences together to form the elixir!

You must know that this process is very slow and complicated and requires one step at a time. But how could Chen Ping save so much time and effort?

“You shouldn’t have hidden this elixir on your body for a long time, right? How could someone refine a fifth-level elixir so quickly, and how could the procedure be incorrect and the elixir be burned out with just a burst of spiritual fire?”

The second elder insisted that Chen Ping did not know how to alchemy at all. He had prepared the elixir long ago, and now Chen Ping conjured it up like a magic trick!

Seeing that the second elder insisted on him, Chen Ping raised the corner of his mouth and said: “Don’t think that if you can’t do it, others can’t do it. If you can’t do it, it’s because you are stupid. Even if you are given a furnace and herbs, you may not be able to do it.” Refining a fifth-level elixir so quickly!”

Chen Ping angrily said to the second elder without any courtesy!

Chapter: 4236

“you.....”

The second elder was speechless by Chen Ping, and finally threw the elixir to the ground angrily. No one wanted such a low-level elixir!

At this time, the second elder felt a little regretful. He would have known better if he had asked Chen Ping to refine a high-level elixir. He thought that Chen Ping was just a newcomer to join the Jade Cauldron Sect. If he directly allowed Chen Ping to refine a high-level elixir, it would definitely cause dissatisfaction. Because this was simply impossible, he asked Chen Ping to refine low-level fifth-level elixirs!

But now it seems that Chen Ping not only has hard qigong, but his alchemy skills are also unique!

“Have I passed the examination now and become a disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect?”

Chen Ping asked the second elder!

Although the elder was angry, this was what he had promised personally. Now that Chen Ping had passed the test, he could no longer ignore it!

“Yes, you are already an inner disciple of the Jade Cauldron Sect...”

After the second elder finished speaking, he threw a token to Chen Ping, then turned around and left. If he didn't leave, he didn't know how long he would be embarrassed here!

“Mr. Chen, my Second Master Uncle has a small belly, especially his eldest disciple Kuang Biao. He is a vengeful master. If he knows that you have offended Second Master Uncle, this guy will definitely cause trouble for you.”

Nie Heng said to Chen Ping!

“What are you afraid of? Aren't you the senior brother of the Jade Cauldron Sect? Isn't that guy not even afraid of you?”

Chen Ping knew that Nie Heng had a high status in the Jade Cauldron Sect. With Nie Heng here, would anyone dare to cause trouble for him?

Nie Heng's face turned slightly red and he said, “This Kuang Biao is really not afraid of me. He always says that I have robbed him of his senior brother position, and he has been fighting with me for the position of the future successor of the Jade Cauldron Sect.”

“What's going on?” Chen Ping was stunned!

After Nie Heng's explanation, Chen Ping finally understood that Kuang Biao became a disciple of the second elder earlier than Nie Heng. However, after Nie Heng became a disciple of Hu Yixiao, Hu Yixiao became the sect master, and Nie Heng's status also increased along with his master. He became the senior brother of the Jade Cauldron Sect!

The real senior brother is Kuang Biao. After all, he became a disciple relatively early. It is a pity that the second elder he worshiped did not worship Hu Yixiao. Otherwise, Nie Heng would not be the senior senior brother of the Jade Cauldron Sect!

So Kuang Biao has always looked down on Nie Heng, and he calls himself Senior Brother of the Jade Cauldron Sect. However, in order to prevent the two from fighting within the sect, he sent Kuang Biao out, so there are fewer opportunities to meet him. , and there will be less conflict!

“Now that the matter has come to this, then let him go. If you want to take revenge, then I will wait...”

Chen Ping smiled lightly and didn't care at all!

“Mr. Chen, don't you live in my mansion? After all, the environment here is much better than at the foot of the mountain.”

Nie Heng asked Chen Ping!

“No, I still like to be with the third elder!”

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he walked towards the outside of Jade Cauldron Sect!

Chapter: 4237

After returning to the dilapidated house of the third elder, the third elder looked at the inner gate token that Chen Ping got back and couldn't help but be surprised: “Mr. Chen, you finished the assessment so quickly?”

Chen Ping nodded: “The inner sect assessment is quite simple...”

“That's right. This kind of assessment for outer disciples, how can it be so difficult for you to survive?”

“Since you passed the assessment, you can be considered a member of our Jade Cauldron Sect. Practice hard here for a few days. When the medicine pool is opened, I will fight for you to get a chance.”

“It's just that the resources here are poor and I have nothing to give you. You can only rely on the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to practice.”

The third elder said with some regret. After all, Chen Ping had healed his body and he had nothing to repay Chen Ping.

“Thank you so much, Third Elder. It’s enough to have the opportunity to enter the medicine pool!”

“I wonder how the third elder’s health is?”

Chen Ping asked about the physical condition of the third elder. The elixir refined yesterday, if there are no accidents, the toxins in the third elder’s body should be completely removed!

“My health is much better and the toxins in my body have disappeared, thanks to Mr. Chen’s intervention.”

The third elder looked at Chen Ping very gratefully and said.

“The third elder who hangs the pot to save the world should be a person who lives a hundred years. This is also your own fate.”

If Chen Ping had not seen that the third elder was kind-hearted, he would not have come to the rescue.

The third elder smiled faintly, and then shouted outside.

“Fang Shu...”

Following the shouts of the third elder, a young man soon came in!

And this person is the one who blocked Chen Ping yesterday!

“Master, what’s the matter?”

Fang Shu asked!

“You take Mr. Chen, arrange a place for him, and choose a better room...”

The third elder finished speaking to Fang Shu, then looked at Chen Ping and said, “Mr. Chen, this is my eldest disciple Fang Shu. He will be responsible for your food and daily life these days.”

“Thank you, Third Elder!” Chen Ping thanked him!

“Mr. Chen, please come with me...”

Fang Shu said to Chen Ping very respectfully!

Chapter: 4238

Today’s Fang Shu’s attitude toward Chen Ping has completely changed. After all, Chen Ping saved his master, and Fang Shu is deeply grateful to Chen Ping!

Moreover, Chen Ping’s alchemy skills also impressed them all. He was able to refine such high-level elixirs and produce such beautiful elixir clouds. I am afraid that not many people in the Jade Cauldron Sect can do it!

Fang Shu found the cleanest room for Chen Ping and said, “Mr. Chen, you can live here first. The conditions are a little simpler. I will send someone to deliver three meals a day on time. In addition, if Mr. Chen wants to move around, I can accompany you.”

“Thank you...”

Chen Ping said thank you!

After Fang Shu left, Chen Ping sat cross-legged on the bed, running the Heart Condensation Technique, absorbing the spiritual energy of heaven and earth and began to practice!

But just after Chen Ping fell into meditation, he suddenly felt something sound outside the window!

Chen Ping opened his eyes, listened carefully, and found a cooing sound outside the window, like a bird chirping!

Chen Ping sat still. After all, it was normal for birds to appear in a place like this!

But the bird seemed to be calling Chen Ping, it kept cooing, and knocked on the window from time to time!

Seeing this, Chen Ping could only get up and open the window, and found a bird with colorful feathers. The bird's eyes were very bright. When Chen Ping opened the window, the bird flew directly onto Chen Ping's shoulder. , and raised his leg, letting Chen Ping see a note tied to his leg!

Chen Ping took off the note, and after opening it, he realized that this beautiful bird actually flew from Demon Imperial City, and the content on the note was written by Princess Isa!

Tell Chen Ping that the mole monster in the Demon Imperial City has not gone to the village to steal anything. It should be the rat monsters in other royal cities. The stealing behavior of the mole monster is not allowed in the Demon Imperial City of Yihe. of!

Since it's not the Demon King's City, it's most likely the mole monster from the Mingli King's City. Chen Ping can only pray now, hoping that the mole monster who stole the God's King's Bow has no idea of the value of the God's King's Bow. That's great!

Now he has no way to go directly to the Mingli King's City to investigate. At the moment, he can only solve the matter of the Jade Cauldron Sect, improve his strength, and then look for the God King Gong!

Chen Ping let the bird fly back, then closed the window and started practicing again!

For three days in a row, Chen Ping did not leave the room. Three meals a day were brought to Chen Ping. Chen Ping quietly waited for the time to open the medicine pool!

On this day, Chen Ping meditated as usual, but outside the room, someone seemed to be quarreling. The quarrel woke Chen Ping up, and he walked out!

Chen Ping saw that all the disciples of the third elder had gathered in the courtyard. There were only about ten of them in total, and Fang Shu was reprimanding these people loudly!

“Why are you all so cowardly? Why don’t you come with me to the inside of the sect? You know that we are also disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect. How can we go to our own sect and scare you like this?”

Fang Shu roared loudly!

“Senior brother, it’s not like you don’t know that every time we go there, we are bullied and insulted like dogs. It’s so embarrassing...”

“That’s right, the last time someone poured water on me, I didn’t dare to say anything, for fear of withholding the supplies given to us.”

“We are not timid, we are too cowardly and can’t stand the anger...”

Chapter: 4239

All the junior fellow apprentices were talking one after another, and some even started to cry in grievance. This made Fang Shu sigh, not knowing what to do!

“What’s wrong?” At this time, Chen Ping came over!

Seeing Chen Ping coming, Fang Shu quickly waved his hand for everyone to disperse, and then said: “Mr. Chen, it’s nothing. I just asked these guys to follow me to the sect to collect supplies. No one dares to go.”

“Receive supplies?” Chen Ping was stunned.

“Yes, although the resources within the sect will basically not be given to us, some necessary supplies must be distributed to us. We people also have to live.”

“However, the sect stipulates that we can only go to the sect once every seven days to collect supplies. Because every time we go, we are humiliated by other elders and disciples in the sect, so these guys are not willing to follow me.”

Fang Shu said very embarrassed!

“Then I’ll go with you...” Chen Ping said!

“No, no, no, how could Mr. Chen do such a thing? If Master finds out, he will scold me.”

Fang Shu waved his hands repeatedly.

You must know that Chen Ping is the savior of the third elder, how can he do such a rough job!

“It’s okay, I live and eat here for free, I should do some work, let’s go...”

Chen Ping patted Fang Shu on the shoulder and said!

Seeing this, Fang Shu could only nodded and followed Chen Ping towards the Jade Cauldron Sect!

Because they were all disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect, it was easy for Chen Ping and the others to enter the sect. After passing through the outer gate, they came to a building. In the yard, Chen Ping saw many Jade Cauldron Sect members. Disciples are waiting in line!

“These should be disciples who receive supplies, but these disciples can come every day to receive whatever they need, but we can’t. We can only come here once every seven days to receive supplies, and the quantity and category are also specified!”

“We are both disciples of the Jade Cauldron Sect. Ever since Hu Yixiao became the sect leader, we have never had a good life!”

Fang Shu sighed and said full of complaints!

“Then why are you still following the third elder? Why don’t you surrender to others?”

Chen Ping asked!

“How is that possible? As the saying goes, once a teacher is always a father, how can I betray the master for some resources?”

“What’s more, I joined the Jade Cauldron Sect and became a pharmacist in order to save the suffering mountain people. Nowadays, people are too utilitarian. Everything requires money and resources. However, those mountain people are in very difficult conditions and have no money at all. , and there are no resources!”

“You can’t just watch them suffer and die from illness just because of this, right?”

Fang Shu said with an upright look!

Chapter: 4240

When Chen Ping saw this, he glanced at Fang Shu with some admiration. In this world of heaven and humans, which is more profitable than the secular world, there are really very few people like Fang Shu!

Soon, it was Chen Ping’s turn to receive supplies. Fang Shu hurriedly took a list and walked to a Jade Cauldron Sect disciple who looked to be only about twenty!

Fang Shu handed over the list, and the young man looked up at Fang Shu and asked coldly: “Is he from the same lineage as the third elder?”

“Yes, yes!” Fang Shu nodded repeatedly!

I saw the other party took the list directly, without even looking at it, and threw it aside and said: “You don’t have supplies to distribute, please come back next time.”

When Fang Shu heard this, he was slightly startled and said, “No, we have supplies every week.”

“I said no, there will be no. Should you distribute the supplies or should I distribute them?”

The young man showed no respect for Fang Shu and said coldly!

Fang Shu could see at this moment that his heart was full of anger, but he was trying his best to restrain himself!

“Junior brother, if you don’t take a look, we must have supplies.”

Fang Shu’s face turned red because of his efforts to suppress him!

“Don’t shout one junior brother after another, who is your junior brother? If I say no, there is no one...”

“Go quickly, don’t block the road here...”

The young man waved his hand and asked Fang Shu to leave quickly!

At this time, Fang Shu couldn’t bear it anymore. He stepped forward and grabbed the other party’s collar and said: “Little bastard, when I joined the Jade Cauldron Sect, you were fucking peeing in the mud. Get me the supplies...” ...”

“I’m beating people, I’m beating people. The disciples of the Third Elder’s lineage are here to beat people and steal supplies...”

Following the young man's shouting, many Jade Cauldron Sect disciples swarmed in and directly surrounded Fang Shu and Chen Ping!

Seeing help coming, the young man raised his lips and said, "Let me go immediately. If you don't let go, I will never let you get the supplies."

After hearing what the other party said, the angry Fang Shu could only grit his teeth and slowly let go of his hand!

The people around him looked at Fang Shu as if they were laughing, their eyes full of ridicule!

Seeing this scene, Chen Ping finally understood why the other disciples of the third elder were unwilling to come!

"Mr. Chen, let's go..."

Fang Shu turned around helplessly and prepared to leave!
