

The Order 4861

Chapter: 4861

If a fight really breaks out, it will be difficult for the five of them to leave here. After all, it has aroused public outrage and everyone wants to kill the five of them!

Ning Caichen gritted his teeth, with murderous intent bursting out of his eyes. Now that he had the confidence, he said with a fierce face: "Kill to pay for life, debt to pay for money, this principle has not changed since ancient times..."

"You five have done many evil things, and today is the day you die..."

Feeling the murderous aura bursting from Ning Caichen's body, Huo Sha was no longer arrogant and didn't say a word!

Jin Sha spoke up and said: "Master Ning, this is a misunderstanding, a complete misunderstanding. As for Huo Sha killing Mr. Ling, we must give an explanation to the Ning family."

"It's just that now we are in the land of treasure. The treasure has not been found somewhere. If we start killing, none of us will be able to get out of here."

Jin Sha wants to persuade Ning Caichen that as long as Ning Caichen doesn't cooperate with Chen Ping to form an alliance, they don't have to be afraid anymore!

Jin Sha now wants to take revenge on Chen Ping and slap him back!

"Fart, I'll kill you and then say there's a misunderstanding, okay?"

"Today, I, Ning Caichen, and you, the Five Elements and Heavenly Evils, are at odds with each other and will fight to the death..."

Ning Caichen's aura burst out, ready to attack at any time!

Everyone was ready to fight, and Chen Ping's eyes were slightly focused, and the aura on his body was rising!

Chen Ping knew that the most troublesome thing was these Five Elements Evils. As long as they were killed, this treasure land would be safer!

After all, it is difficult for the Ning family to deal with Chen Ping with the current strength, and it is not easy for Chen Ping to get rid of all the Ning family members!

The strength of both sides is somewhat balanced. The only thing that is unbalanced is the Five Elements Evil!

If Chen Ping and the others do not unite, they will be defeated one by one, and in the end, only these five people will be left in the entire treasure land!

At this time, the Five Elements Demons have become the target of public criticism, and everyone wants to kill them!

The five members of the Five Elements Demons looked at the angry eyes in front of them, their faces uglier than eating shit!

But just when the war was about to break out, the dark altar suddenly became brighter!

There was a dazzling white light all around, shining at these people, which made everyone who was about to start a fight stunned!

And the old man slowly appeared from the white light, and then looked at everyone quietly!

"It's very good. It's God's will that you people can get here. Now you are only one step away from the treasure."

"But to congratulate you guys for being here, there's a reward for everyone."

After the old man finished speaking, he waved his palm lightly, and suddenly countless ice soul fragments fell from the sky above the altar in an instant!

Chapter: 4862

Looking at the ice soul fragments falling like raindrops, everyone was stunned!

Immediately afterwards, he started to snatch it crazily and put it in his pocket!

There is no need to grab the ice soul fragments that are raining all over the sky, just lower your head and pick them up!

Those who were originally tense and thinking about killing the other party started to pick up the ice soul fragments!

Chen Ping bent down and picked up a fragment of ice soul that was only the size of his thumb. He looked at it carefully. Although a spiritual power penetrated into it!

The aura fed back from the ice soul fragments made Chen Ping feel something was wrong.

He had absorbed ice soul fragments outside, but it didn't seem like this kind of aura!

But Chen Ping couldn't tell what was wrong exactly!

Chen Ping tried to absorb an ice soul fragment, but after the energy of the ice soul fragment entered Chen Ping's body, Chen Ping was unable to absorb and digest it.

My own Heart Condensation Technique seems to interfere with this power and cannot be used for my own use!

At this moment, Chen Ping was a little confused. He had never been in this situation before. You must know that the Heart Condensation Art can refine anything!

Although he doesn't know the reason, Chen Ping can be sure that there is something wrong with this ice soul fragment!

Not only is there something wrong with this ice soul fragment, but so is this old man!

"These ice soul fragments are a reward for you. You can only absorb them here. You can absorb as much as you want. Even if you pack them up, you can't take them out at all."

Seeing the people frantically picking up ice soul fragments, the old man slowly said!

Hearing what the old man said, those who picked up the ice soul fragments and packed them up were dumbfounded!

So they all found a place to sit cross-legged and began to frantically absorb the energy from the ice soul fragments!

Chen Ping also sat down slowly, but he did not absorb the energy in the ice soul fragments!

Seeing everyone sitting cross-legged and practicing with their eyes closed, the old man smiled slightly and slowly disappeared!

Soon, the surroundings of the bright altar became dim again, and a black aura gradually filled the air, wrapping everyone up!

Now even if they are sitting across from each other, no one can see each other, but now everyone is trying their best to practice, and no one cares about the black mist that suddenly appears!

As the black mist rose, a strange aura made the entire altar extremely gloomy!

Chen Ping looked around, feeling uneasy in his heart!

Everyone is desperately absorbing the energy of the ice soul fragments, forming vortexes above their heads, which shows how desperate these people are!

Chapter: 4863

Although Chen Ping couldn't see anyone else at this time, his spiritual consciousness could be emitted normally!

“Stop absorbing it and stop practicing...”

Chen Ping used sound transmission technology to shout in the ears of Ji Yun, Lao Sun, Gao Qisheng and others!

After hearing Chen Ping's voice, these people all trembled slightly and woke up from their cultivation!

When they saw the black fog around them, they were also shocked!

“Mr. Chen, what's going on?”

Ji Yun asked very puzzledly!

“There's something wrong with this ice soul fragment and it can't be absorbed anymore. I'm afraid it's a trap!”

Chen Ping whispered!

“Trap?” Everyone was stunned, not understanding what the trap Chen Ping was talking about!

“I don’t know. Anyway, I feel something is wrong. You should immediately cut off and absorb the ice soul fragments.”

Chen Ping reminded!

Although these people have woken up from practice, they are still running their skills and absorbing the energy of the ice soul fragments!

Hearing what Chen Ping said, Ji Yun and Lao Sun began to stop the operation of their skills and stopped absorbing the energy from the ice soul fragments!

But when they tried to stop, they found that they couldn’t stop at all!

The energy in the ice soul fragments seemed to have independent consciousness. Even if they stopped their exercises, they still poured into these people’s bodies!

“Me too, I can’t even stop my skills!”

“I can’t control myself anymore. What’s going on?”

At this time, many people were shocked because they found that they could not control their own cultivation at all!

The energy of the ice soul fragments continues to enter the body. If this continues, they will explode and die sooner or later!

Chen Ping didn’t expect this to be the case, and hurriedly warned: “Don’t panic, I will find a way...”

Chen Ping began to tentatively absorb some of the energy from the ice soul fragments. Later, he didn't absorb it at all, so it had no effect on him!

Chen Ping's consciousness shrouded Ji Yun and the others, feeling the path of that power entering everyone's body!

Chapter: 4864

Chen Ping tried to cut off this power for them, but he failed several times!

After a moment of silence, Chen Ping made a bold decision!

He decided to attract all these powers to himself, and then help his friends and others get rid of this power!

After thinking of this, Chen Ping and Ji Yun began to absorb the power from the ice soul fragments!

With the activation of the Heart Condensation Art, a huge suction force instantly sucked in the power from Ji Yun!

Ji Yun felt relieved and breathed a sigh of relief. Otherwise, if he continued like this, he would explode and die sooner or later!

Chen Ping followed the same method and attracted the power of Lao Sun, Gao Qisheng and others into his body!

At this time, because of the black fog, it was impossible to see clearly!

If you can see clearly, you can see that energy visible to the naked eye is swarming into Chen Ping's body!

Chen Ping's face became a little ugly. No matter how he operated the Heart Condensation Technique, the power that entered his body could not be refined at all!

Now Chen Ping is using his body to carry this power and rush forward!

“Mr. Chen, how are you?”

Ji Yun asked Chen Ping!

“I’m fine. None of you should absorb the energy of this ice soul fragment. I need to take a good rest!”

After Chen Ping finished his instructions, his entire popularity sank into his dantian, and he began to channel that power!

If he keeps allowing this power to roam around in his body, Chen Ping’s body won’t be able to hold on no matter how strong it is!

So Chen Ping saw if he could attract this power elsewhere!

After thinking about it, Chen Ping suddenly thought of a place where he could guide this power into his own original space!

His original space is as big as the universe of stars, and this little power entering it is just a drop in the bucket!

At that time, even if this power is allowed to roam freely in the original space, there will be no consequences!

It’s just that Chen Ping doesn’t know this power yet, so he doesn’t know if it can be introduced into the original space!

Chen Ping was placed entirely in the original space, and then a ray of consciousness guided that power!

Soon, under Chen Ping's guidance, that power actually entered Chen Ping's original space!

After entering the origin space, that force became more restless and began to fly into the sky and into the earth, shuttling through the origin space like the star universe!

Chapter: 4865

And this force is constantly growing, because a steady stream of power is still entering Chen Ping's body.

But this time, Chen Ping is no longer afraid. After all, his original space is so huge that it is almost impossible for this force to fill the entire original space!

"Mr. Chen, Mr. Chen..."

Seeing that Chen Ping was silent for a long time, Ji Yun quickly shouted twice!

"I'm fine!" Chen Ping came out of the original space and said to Ji Yun!

"Mr. Chen, what should we do now? Do we want to escape?"

Gao Qisheng asked in a low voice!

Now that we know it's a trap, we must escape immediately. Staying here will cost you your life.

"Escape? I'm afraid there's no chance..."

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he heard a scream!

There was a black mist blocking everyone's view, but their spiritual sense detected that a monk had absorbed too much energy and his body couldn't bear it, so he blew himself up!

Along with the monk's self-destruction, a very conspicuous white light floated into the air and disappeared!

As the monk's body was bursting, many people woke up from their cultivation state!

Some casual cultivators are still very pale, and their bodies seem to have reached their limit. They want to stop, but they can't stop at all!

Even the Five Elements Demon and Ning Caichen and others felt strange. When they wanted to stop absorbing energy, they found that they couldn't stop!

This time, everyone panicked!

"What's going on? Why can't I stop? The energy in this ice soul fragment has been trying to be transported into my body!"

"I can't stop either, I can't hold on any longer!"

"I'm going to be bursting, I'm going to be bursting..."

boom.....

Another monk's body exploded instantly, followed by another white light rising!

Along with the sound of explosions, the black mist that originally enveloped the entire altar slowly disappeared!

When the black fog disappeared, everyone saw the old man looking down at everyone in mid-air!

And above the altar, there was blood everywhere after the monk exploded!

Chapter: 4866

This scene shocked everyone!

“Senior, what... is going on? Why can't we stop practicing?”

“The energy from this ice soul fragment is still pouring into our bodies!”

Jin Sha asked the old man with a nervous look on his face!

“That's right. Do you think anyone can get my reward?”

“You think anyone can share this treasure of mine?”

The old man snorted coldly!

Hearing what the old man said, everyone was frightened and trembling with fear!

“Senior, you...why are you like this?”

Jin Sha asked very puzzledly!

“Do I need to explain to you?” the old man sneered!

He couldn't possibly tell why!

“Let me tell you what this old guy is doing!”

Chen Ping said slowly!

When Chen Ping said this, everyone looked at Chen Ping!

“Brother Chen, do you know?” Lao Sun asked!

“Of course I know. In fact, there are no treasures of the ancient body refining clan here, because the ancient body refining clan’s techniques and some treasures have long been in my possession!”

“So these ice soul fragments are just bait. The purpose is for all of us to absorb them, and then use the energy in the ice soul fragments to explode everyone.”

“After everyone dies, their cultivation will turn into a white light and be sucked away by something. As for what it is, only this old guy knows.”

Chen Ping looked at the old man coldly and said!

“Brother Chen, what do you mean? Is it all fake?”

Lao Sun is puzzled!

“Yes, are they all fake? Isn’t this old man the ancestor of the ancient body-refining clan?”

Chapter: 4867

Zuo Qing also asked!

“However, he is not the ancestor of the ancient body refining clan. There is another ancestor of the ancient body refining clan.”

“Although the two people look similar, their personalities, styles and auras in their bodies are all slightly different.”

Chen Ping nodded and said!

“What are you talking about? It’s like you’ve met the ancestor of the ancient body refining clan.”

Jin Sha shouted at Chen Ping!

“I’m not talking nonsense, let this old guy talk for himself!”

Chen Ping looked at the old man solemnly!

Everyone looked at the old man and saw that the old man did not refute Chen Ping or deny it. Instead, he had a strange smile on his lips!

This kind of smile makes people’s hearts go crazy!

Suddenly, fear began to spread in everyone’s heart. They wanted to know, who is this old man? Why go right to them!

“Boy, I didn’t expect you to have met my brother. But now that you have seen through everything, it’s already too late. It’s impossible for any of you to leave here!”

“But my brother and I are twins. We are almost the same in terms of body shape and speech and behavior, but you can tell them apart in the details.”

“You are indeed very good. If possible, I would like to accept you as my disciple, but it’s a pity that my brother acted first and gave you all the skills and treasures of the ancient body refining clan!”

The old man spoke slowly and showed his appreciation for Chen Ping!

Hearing the old man's personal admission, everyone's hearts instantly sank to the bottom, and everyone's eyes were full of despair!

Chen Ping also looked a little surprised. It turned out that the old man he saw in the thatched house was the real ancestor of the ancient body-refining clan, and he was also a twin with the old man in front of him!

But in this case, both of them should be members of the Ancient Body Refining Clan, but it was obvious that the old man in front of him didn't care about the Ancient Body Refining Clan!

"Can you tell me, who are you?" Chen Ping asked doubtfully!

"Of course. After all these years, finally someone can listen. None of you can escape from here anyway."

After the old man finished speaking, his body slowly landed on the altar, facing Chen Ping!

At this time, from time to time, there would be monks who couldn't bear it any longer and would explode and die, with their entire cultivation level also being absorbed away!

But in the eyes of the old man, there was no change in expression at all, as if killing dozens of monks and then crushing dozens of ants made no difference!

"I tell you who I am."

Chapter: 4868

"I was once the proud son of the Ancient Body Refining Clan, but I was always suppressed by my brother."

"I'm not willing to give in. I've been practicing hard, but I still can't surpass him."

“It wasn’t until I got a magic skill and practiced it secretly that my strength improved by leaps and bounds. My brother was already not as good as me.”

“But even though my brother is not as good as me, the position of leader of the Ancient Body Refining Clan is still given to my brother...”

“I’m not convinced, why should I give it to him? I am the proud son of the Ancient Body Refining Clan.”

“Tell me, if I am the strongest, can I become the leader of the clan?”

The old man looked at Chen Ping and asked loudly!

“You have evil intentions. You practice magic and want to be the leader of the clan. Do you want all the Ancient Body Refining clan to become demons and become incapable of cultivating?”

Chen Ping said with a cold smile!

“Fart, what’s wrong with being a demon cultivator? In this world, strength is respected, and having strength is the way to go.”

The old man roared angrily, his face full of ferocity!

“So you try to trick your brother into coming here, and you want to kill him here, and then go back with the ancient body-refining clan’s skills and treasures, playing the role of your brother.”

“But I don’t think your brother would rather die with you than let you succeed and harm the entire ancient body refining clan.”

“So the remaining souls of you two brothers are sealed in this dark place!”

“You tricked us here just to absorb our strength so that you can reshape your body and leave this hellish place.”

“Is my guess right?”

Chen Ping asked the old man.

The old man was stunned for a moment, then laughed loudly and said: “Yes, your reasoning is correct. I have never seen such a smart boy.”

“It’s a pity, it’s such a pity, but you should feel lucky that your death can lead to my rebirth.”

“No wonder the true ancestor of the ancient body-refining clan reminded me not to move forward. It turns out that he already knew it.” Chen Ping murmured to himself!

At that time, he was still doubting the old man, why did he stop him from moving forward?

Feelings are for your own safety!

It’s just that Chen Ping hasn’t gotten the Ice Soul Pill yet, so he can’t turn around and leave!

“I’m very curious, how did my brother escape my eyes and meet you secretly?”

Chapter: 4869

The old man asked very curiously!

Chen Ping actually didn’t know it at first. It wasn’t until now that he remembered the meaning of the real treasure key!

Only those who get the real key to the treasure will see the ancestor of the ancient body refining clan. No wonder only Chen Ping saw it at that time, and no one else saw it!

In this case, the explanation makes sense!

Moreover, only the ancestor of the Ancient Body Refining Clan knew about the existence of this treasure key, and his younger brother had no idea at all!

“Since you don’t want to talk, then I don’t want to listen either. Just wait for death to come...”

The old man said with a sneer!

Hearing the old man’s words, some monks were so frightened that they cried, some shouted, and some kept cursing at the old man!

“Senior, please don’t kill us. We are members of the Demon Sealing Alliance. We are friends with your demon clan. We are really friends.”

Jin Sha hurriedly followed the old man and said!

“You fart, did you lie to me that I am a three-year-old child? You are all called the Demon Sealing Alliance, and you still want to be friends with us demons?”

The old man yelled angrily!

“Senior, it’s true. We have never killed a demon monk.”

“Don’t think we are called the Demon-Sealing Alliance, and we are hunting down all demon cultivators all day long!”

“Actually, we are helping you demon cultivators behind your back. The demon cultivators captured by our Demon Sealing Alliance are all living well!”

“And we plan to unite the demon cultivators so that the demons can have a place in the world of gods and humans!”

Jin Sha was like a pug wagging its tail and begging for mercy!

But when many monks heard Jin Sha’s words, they were all shocked. None of them expected that such a large organization as the Demon Sealing Alliance would not kill demon cultivators, but help the demon clan to revive.

“Trash, it is simply a shame among us monks...”

“If I am lucky enough to leave here, I will definitely expose the ugly face of the Demon Sealing Alliance to the public!”

Many monks said indignantly!

“None of you can leave alive. This is our world.”

Chapter: 4870

Although Jin Sha has not been released yet, he has already said that he and the old man are in the same group!

This is also to better curry favor with the old man so that the five of them can be released!

The old man listened to Jin Sha’s words and pondered for a moment!

“I can release you, but if you dare to play tricks, I won’t be polite...”

The old man threatened Jin Sha!

“Senior, absolutely not, we will never play tricks.”

Jin Sha shook his head quickly, fearing that the other party would regret it!

“Okay, let me release you all!”

After the old man finished speaking, he waved his palm lightly, and the energy that was constantly pouring into Jin Sha and others was cut off in an instant!

Jin Sha and the others felt that they were out of trouble and hurriedly got up and walked to the old man’s side!

After Jin Sha and others got out of trouble, they all looked at everyone with gloating!

“Didn’t you just want to fight the five of us? Why are you so honest now?”

Jin Sha said mockingly!

No one was paying attention to Jin Sha at this time, which made him even more arrogant!

Now almost all the monks have set their sights on Chen Ping. Since Chen Ping has such an adventure, they hope that Chen Ping can rescue them all!

Looking at the eyes of those monks, Chen Ping was also very helpless. So many people were controlled by the strange energy of the ice soul fragments, and they all thought they were getting a big deal, but little did they know that they would all die for greed!

Although everyone has woken up now, it is too late. This is the price...

“You guys are keeping an eye on these people. It won’t take long for them to explode and die.”

“When the time comes that I can reshape my body, just stay with me. Your benefits will be indispensable...”

The old man said to Jin Sha and the others!

“Thank you, senior, we will definitely go through fire and water without hesitation.”

Jin Sha and others hurriedly said happily!

The old man nodded with satisfaction, and then disappeared.

The Five Elements Demons looked at everyone with pride and kept provoking Chen Ping!
