

The Order 6171

Chapter: 6171

Chen Ping asked!

“I only found a few pole stones, encountered a monster once, and two saints were injured.”

Binglu replied!

“Is the injury serious? Let me see...”

When Chen Ping heard that the saint was injured, he said!

“It’s not serious, it’s just a skin injury!” Binglu said!

“Let you see, I have to take off my clothes and touch them, who can bear it?”

Lan Yingying muttered!

She is still upset!

After hearing this, Chen Ping smiled awkwardly and said nothing more!

“Mr. Chen, how did you gain?” Binglu quickly changed the subject and asked!

“There should be hundreds of them, and the harvest is not very large. We must find the pole stone mine. If we continue to search like this, I’m afraid we won’t be able to find enough for Guanghan Palace in a year.”

Chen Ping frowned slightly and said!

“I heard from the Palace Master that the closer to the chaotic land on the border, the more pole stones there are. It’s just too dangerous. If you accidentally get involved in the chaos, you will definitely die!”

Binglu said!

“Don’t rush yet. After all, the only ones who know about Jishi are us and the Mu family. The others are still looking for the place where the immortal fell.”

“And that pole stone is of little use in the hands of other monks.”

“Let’s rest for a few hours and then continue searching...”

After Chen Ping finished speaking, he took out some elixirs from the storage ring and handed them to Binglu: “Let everyone eat these elixirs. Although they cannot improve their strength, they can quickly restore their physical strength.”

Binglu asked everyone to take the elixir and start to rest, while Chen Ping sat cross-legged and studied the Immortal Finger!

The ancestor of the Ji family said at that time that only by understanding the origin of time can one practice this Immortal Finger!

But when Chen Ping was studying the Immortal Finger, he suddenly noticed movement in his storage ring!

Chen Ping hurriedly searched with his spiritual consciousness. It didn't matter, and he almost died of anger!

I saw that the little sky-swallowing beast woke up at some point, and was devouring the pole stone!

Chapter: 6172

When Chen Ping discovered it, hundreds of pole stones had been swallowed up.

"Damn it, I spent a lot of effort to find this, and you ate it all for me?"

"Spit it out, spit it out for me..."

Chen Ping yelled at the little sky-swallowing beast!

But the little sky-swallowing beast didn't seem to hear the above, and fell asleep after eating!

Chen Ping looked at the little sky-swallowing beast and was helpless!

It seems that after finding the pole stone, it cannot be placed in the storage ring!

"Boy, why are you so stingy? My mount is still young, what's wrong with letting it eat something?"

“When I regain my memory and rebuild my golden body, I’ll pay you back at the worst possible time.”

“This is investment now, kid. Do you know what investment is?”

“When you get to heaven from now on, I can protect you. The immortal stones and spiritual grass in heaven are no better than these broken stones!”

Demon Lord Chiyun saw that Chen Ping was angry and quickly comforted him!

“Why.....”

Chen Ping sighed, helpless!

After all, this little sky-swallowing beast saved his life, so just eat it!

These more than a hundred pole stones are not of much use to Guanghan Palace. Now they must find a large number of pole stones!

A few hours passed quickly!

Chen Ping gathered everyone and started to search under the cover of night. With the metal rod, he could find it even in the dark!

However, Chen Ping and the others followed the guidance of the metal rod and gradually approached the chaos at the border!

After all, the closer you get to the Land of Chaos, the more pole stones there are and the stronger the magnetic field!

But because it was dark night, Chen Ping and the others didn't notice this!

Chapter: 6173

When it was dark, Chen Ping suddenly realized something was wrong!

They saw a terrifying crack appearing in front of them. This crack was as if it had been chopped down with a sword and separated the entire world!

On one side of the huge crack, howling cold winds were flying around, and countless space fragments were spinning, as if they were trying to harvest everything!

The space in front of everyone's eyes was distorted, like chaos, and it was impossible to see clearly what was inside!

The aura of danger spread around, everyone felt their hairs standing on end and their hearts became tense!

The sense of oppression brought by this space chaos to them is really too strong!

It seems that when the world of heaven and earth was created by a strong man, the border was deliberately made very scary to prevent anyone from crossing the border by mistake!

"Mr. Chen, look at what's on the other side..."

At this time, Binglu suddenly pointed to the opposite side of the huge crack and said!

I saw densely packed pole rocks piled together in the snow opposite!

It looks like there are thousands of them at least!

“There are so many pole stones, you can get them just by crossing here!”

Chen Ping looked at the crack which was not very wide and said!

Although their flight is suppressed here, this crack can still be easily crossed!

However, the most dangerous thing is the twisted and deformed chaotic space opposite!

If you are not careful and get sucked into it, you will be completely ruined!

Just when Chen Ping was hesitating whether to cross over and take the opposite pole stone, Demon Lord Chiyun spoke!

“Don’t go over here, you can’t go over. I cut this crack with my sword.”

“I remembered some memories. I once fought here. Maybe I still have bones buried in this place!”

Demon Lord Chiyun said with a slight frown!

Demon Lord Chiyun was killed here, so there must have been a battle!

If it is said that this crack was cut by Demon Lord Chiyun with one sword, it would make sense. After all, he is the Demon Lord of the Ninth Level of Heaven, and he still has this kind of strength!

“What else are you remembering? Do you know who the person who killed you is? Do you know if there is a pole stone mine here!”

Chen Ping asked excitedly!

Chapter: 6174

Demon Lord Chiyun shook his head: “I can’t remember who killed me, and I don’t even know if there is any pole stone mine. What pole stone is, to me, it is no different from garbage, how could I pay attention to it? !”

What Demon Lord Chiyun said does make sense!

The pole stone is only helpful to monks who practice ice skills. If it is used for some immortals, demons, etc., it is really like rubbish!

“This crack is not wide either. Why can’t I pass through?”

Chen Ping asked Demon Lord Chiyun!

“Just throw a stone and you’ll know!”

Demon Lord Chiyun said!

Chen Ping picked up a stone with hesitation, and then threw it hard to the opposite side!

But just as the stone was thrown out, a powerful aura came out of the huge crack and instantly tore the stone apart!

“What...what’s going on?”

Chen Ping was very surprised!

“This crack was caused by my sword. In this crack, the power of my sword at that time still remains. Even after thousands of years, this power has not dissipated.”

“With your current strength, it is impossible to cross it. If you reach the Mahayana realm, you may be able to cross it!”

Demon Lord Chiyun said!

“Then what should we do? Just watch and let go of those pole stones?”

“You said you were fine, why did you create such a crack? It’s so annoying...”

Chen Ping was speechless!

Now I saw that I had obtained the pole stone, but there was no way I could get it!

Demon Lord Chiyun rolled his eyes and said: "You think I am willing to cut a crack, but if I hit the opponent with a sword, there will be no crack like this."

Demon Lord Chiyun obviously cut the air with this sword, and a crack appeared as a result!

"Then what should I do? Is there no way to reach the other side?"

Chen Ping asked!

"Of course, I just go around it. My sword didn't go very far! You really thought I could cut the world of heaven and humans in half!"

Demon Lord Chiyun said!

Chapter: 6175

When Chen Ping heard this, it seemed that he could only go around it. He hoped that it was just like Demon Lord Chiyun said, and that the distance was not far away!

"Mr. Chen, I went to explore the way. There are so many pole stones on the opposite side. It would be a pity if I didn't get them!"

Binglu said!

"Don't go over there. It's too dangerous. You can't cross this gap. If you want to go over there, you have to go around it!"

Chen Ping quickly stopped Binglu and said!

“Go around?”

Binglu was stunned!

The other saints were also a little confused. Although this crack looked very wide, it was still easy to cross!

“Didn’t you see that the stone I threw just now was torn apart by the breath in the crack!”

Chen Ping said!

“It’s just a stone. What does that mean? The strength of our bodies cannot be compared to that of a stone.”

Lan Yingying said!

“Yes, as long as we wrap our bodies with breath, it will be fine. If we go around this, we don’t know how long it will take!”

Binglu also opposed the detour, after all, the crack could not be seen to the end!

There are piles of extreme rocks in front of them. They have to take a detour. What if they are discovered by others!

“We must go around, this is an order!”

Chen Ping said with a stern expression!

He can't use people to test it, Demon Lord Chiyun will never lie!

Seeing Chen Ping's stern tone, Binglu stopped speaking. After all, the palace master said before leaving that they should obey Chen Ping's command!

Moreover, they have seen Chen Ping's true strength, so they also surrender to Chen Ping!

However, Lan Yingying seemed to have some different opinions, but she didn't say anything!

Chen Ping led the way for more than ten miles, and many saints followed behind. If they found danger, they could retreat in time!

But just as she was walking forward, Lan Yingying found the ice dew!

"Binglu, why do you want to listen to Chen Ping? This pole stone is clearly right in front of us, but we are not allowed to get it, and we have to take a detour. This will take a detour in the year of the monkey, horse and moon!"

Chapter: 6176

Lan Yingying asked Binglu!

"Sister Yingying, this is the palace master's wish, let us follow Mr. Chen's arrangements!"

Binglu said!

“We’ll follow Chen Ping, and you can secretly send two saints over to get the pole stone back.”

“Then Chen Ping won’t find out. I’ll tell him when I get the pole stone back and see what else he can say.”

“It’s just a crack, how scary it can be!”

Lan Yingying said to Binglu!

Although Lan Yingying is older, she is only responsible for managing the outer disciples, so she has no right to order the saint, so she can only ask Binglu!

“Sister Yingying, this is not good. If Mr. Chen finds out, he will be angry.”

Binglu is in a bit of trouble!

“It’s okay, we also want to get the Jishi. Once we get the Jishi, he can’t say anything!”

Lan Yingying is still persuading Binglu!

Binglu hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said: “Okay, I’ll make arrangements!”

Binglu then arranged for the two last saints to quietly cross the crack and retrieve the pole stone while the others moved forward!

The two saints nodded and began to prepare!

Chen Ping didn't know Binglu's arrangements at all, and was still exploring the way ahead. After all, this place was an unknown area, and he didn't know what dangers there were!

Binglu and the others were following behind. They had just walked forward for a while when the last two saints looked at each other and then jumped up!

The two people instantly jumped into the air and headed directly towards the other side of the crack!

But just as the two of them reached the sky above the crack, suddenly countless blade-like breaths spurted out from the crack!

Before the two saints could react, they were instantly crushed by the aura and fell into the crack!

This sudden scene scared everyone silly!

Especially Bing Lu, whose face was full of self-blame, and Lan Yingying, who had her eyes wide open and couldn't believe what she was seeing!

Chen Ping also noticed something was wrong and instantly flashed back with the fire-bending step!

But it was too late. He had no way to save the two saints. He could only watch the two saints being strangled and falling into the crack!

Chapter: 6177

Chen Ping's eyes burned with anger!

"Binglu, what on earth is going on? Give me an explanation!"

Chen Ping gritted his teeth, his voice was terrifyingly cold!

Binglu's body was trembling slightly, with fear and sadness!

Two sisters lost their lives due to her ignorant orders!

Although they all know that the polar regions are extremely dangerous and they may lose their lives at any time!

But Binglu felt very guilty for losing her life because of her stupid order!

"I...I want them to go to the other side to retrieve the pole stone, so they don't have to go around. Who knows..."

Binglu couldn't speak anymore and shed tears of regret!

"Did you turn a deaf ear to my words? Didn't I say you are not allowed to cross the crack?"

Chen Ping yelled!

Binglu's face was filled with self-blame and she kept crying!

Lan Yingying stepped forward and said to Chen Ping: "What are you yelling at? We also wanted to get the pole stone as soon as possible. Who knew that this kind of thing would happen, and we didn't want to."

"I asked Binglu to do this. It's all my responsibility. You can yell at me..."

Chen Ping looked at Lan Yingying, his eyes full of anger!

He knew that Binglu would definitely not disobey his orders, and now it seemed that Lan Yingying was really the one who was behind it!

"Your idea, then why don't you go get the pole stone back? Because of your ignorance, two saints lost their lives in vain."

"Go on your own. If you die, you don't have to be responsible for others."

"I think you just don't dare. The people who followed you are all dead, but you are not. Did you abandon them and escape for your life when you were in the most danger?"

"Don't think you are great. If you hadn't followed us, you would have been a corpse by now."

What Chen Ping said was hard to hear. He couldn't control his emotions!

Such a stupid person will really kill many people!

"No, I didn't, I didn't abandon anyone, you can't say that about me..."

Lan Yingying seemed to be stimulated by Chen Ping, trembling all over, yelling, and then ran away alone!

“Sister Yingying...”

When Binglu saw this, she wanted to chase her, but was stopped by Chen Ping!

“Leave her alone and let this idiot wake up!”

Chen Ping ignored Lan Yingying and continued moving forward with Binglu and the others!

But even though Chen Ping said that, he was still a little worried in his heart!

That Lan Yingying is not actually bad, nor does she want to harm her sisters, she is just stupid!

If Lan Yingying was bad, she wouldn't have warned Chen Ping loudly when she was in Nanjing City, then Shen Jizi was a liar!

Sometimes, stupid women can really kill people, especially self-righteous stupid women!

When Chen Ping figured it out, he wanted to find Lan Yingying back, but Lan Yingying was no longer around!

Now Chen Ping can only pray that Lan Yingying doesn't encounter any danger!

After all, she is also from Guanghan Palace.

Chen Ping and the others walked forward cautiously. Although they also encountered monsters on the way, Chen Ping dealt with them in advance and did not let Binglu and the others take action. This was also to allow Binglu and the others to preserve their strength!

When I encountered some monsters with low strength, they were all scared away by the snow bear monster Chen Ping was sitting on!

Chen Ping didn't pursue him either. After all, he wasn't here to kill monsters and get beast pills!

Chapter: 6178

After walking forward for more than an hour, he finally saw the end of the crack. Chen Ping breathed a sigh of relief and calmed down his consciousness slightly.

After all, it was an unknown route, and there was no telling what dangers there would be. Chen Ping was always holding his breath and concentrating on the front!

The Saintess and others in the back were in a low mood, especially Binglu. He always felt that he had killed two sisters!

"Through this rift, you are getting closer to the Land of Chaos. Everyone must be more vigilant. If you are accidentally sucked into the Land of Chaos, you will definitely die!"

Chen Ping said to many saints!

"Obey!" This time, all the saints obeyed Chen Ping's words!

“Binglu, stop blaming yourself. You must cheer up. The mission of Guanghan Palace’s development lies with you. I can’t help you forever. You must shoulder your responsibilities!”

Seeing Binglu looking a little decadent, Chen Ping warned!

“Mr. Chen, I understand!”

Binglu nodded!

The group of people walked around the huge crack. Not far away was a twisted space and a chaotic world. Everyone was a little worried!

Chen Ping was still in front and started to turn back!

Those thousands of extreme stones must be obtained!

“Ji Shi...”

Suddenly a saint girl shouted and ran towards Jishi!

Everyone saw that there were hundreds of pole stones not far away, like blooming flowers, shining brightly on the thick snow!

“The closer you are to Chaos, the more pole stones there are. It’s really like this...”

Binglu sighed with emotion!

“Don’t come close...”

Chen Ping turned around and shouted at the saint!

But it was too late, the saint girl had already ran to the pole stone, and excitedly started to put the pole stone into the storage bag!

When Chen Ping saw this, his body flashed instantly and he headed towards the saint!

But along with the surge in the chaotic space, a huge suction force directly sucked the saint into it!

The saintess didn’t even have time to shout, she disappeared into the chaotic space, and there was no more movement!

Chapter: 6179

Everyone stared at this scene blankly, dumbfounded!

You must know that the pole stone was not very far away from them just now. It was just a little closer and was sucked into the chaotic space!

From this point of view, the place where they are at the moment is probably not safe either!

“I’m repeating it again, no one is allowed to run around, even if they see the pole stone, they are not allowed to take it!”

Chen Ping helplessly ordered the many saints again!

We lost three people without encountering any enemies or monsters. This is a huge loss!

Chen Ping continued to walk, with many saints following behind him. He entered the chaotic space and was certain to die. No one could save him!

Seeing Chen Ping and the others arriving at the place where there are thousands of stones!

“Ouch...”

Suddenly, a roar made everyone stop instantly!

I saw snow wolves with white fur coming out of nowhere, staring at Chen Ping and others with blue eyes!

These snow wolves were filled with aura, their hair stood on end, and they threatened Chen Ping and the others!

There are dozens of snow wolves, all white!

The snow bear monster that Chen Ping sat down became restless and finally shook Chen Ping off and ran away!

It seems that this snow bear monster is also very afraid of this snow wolf!

Especially the dozens of snow wolves. These wolves are all social animals, so they cooperate very well!

“Strange, this snow wolf is exactly the same as the one I saw on the snowfields in the northern region. Could it be that this kind of monster exists in both the north and the south?”

Chen Ping was a little surprised!

He also encountered snow wolves when he was in the snowfields of the Northern Territory.

All the saints took out their frost swords, all of them looked nervous and ready for battle!

If they deal with these snow wolves alone, they are not afraid, but in a place like this, if they are not careful, they will be sucked into the chaotic space, and that is the most deadly!

These snow wolves also seemed to be interested in the pole stone in front of them. They all bared their teeth and stood guard around the pole stone!

Chen Ping knew that if they didn't deal with these snow wolves, they wouldn't be able to get the pole stone!

“Ready to fight.....”

Chapter: 6180

Chen Ping sacrificed the Dragon-Slaying Sword!

Binglu led a dozen saints behind Chen Ping with a fighting spirit!

Everyone has a determination to die in their eyes!

A snow wolf saw that Chen Ping and the others were about to attack, and then roared, dozens of snow wolves roared, and rushed towards Chen Ping and the others!

The endless cold air, like a huge billowing wave, carrying a terrifying aura, rushed toward Chen Ping!

Chen Ping swung his dragon-slaying sword!

A supreme fire instantly appeared between heaven and earth, and the supreme fire burned blazingly, startling the dozens of snow wolves!

This kind of monster is most afraid of the fire!

The appearance of Zhihuo caused dozens of snow wolves to stop attacking!

Binglu saw the right moment and followed a dozen saints to attack at the same time!

More than a dozen frost swords emitted bursts of sword light!

A stream of breath circulated, and then condensed into a cloud in mid-air!

And this cloud began to expand!

When Chen Ping saw this, he raised the corner of his mouth slightly, and a burst of fire shot into the clouds!

The clouds that were originally so cold suddenly gained a touch of warmth.

The clouds rolled and countless ice arrows fell from the sky!

And these ice arrows are all stained with a hint of fire!

The originally incompatible scene actually disappeared at this moment!

When the snow wolves saw this, the hair on their bodies exploded. Dozens of snow wolves gathered all their auras into one place, forming an ice shield visible to the naked eye!

It is very difficult to penetrate this ice shield!

But with the ultimate fire on top of this ice arrow, it can be easily penetrated!

After Zhihuo touched the ice shield, the ice shield was melted instantly!

Whoosh whoosh whoosh.....

A large number of snow wolves were hit and fell to the ground wailing!
