

The Order 6751

Chapter: 6751

Baica said!

“What?” Chen Ping was immediately shocked: “Has Senior Brother Bai never left this place?”

“I haven’t left, but I am very content with myself. When I meet an expert like Master, I can just follow him and practice well. Why bother running around.”

“Don’t we just want to practice and become immortals? Without the worries of worldly things, we can practice better!”

Baica persuaded Chen Ping!

Chen Ping was speechless for a while. Baica was alone. No one was looking for her until she left here, so it was okay!

But Chen Ping can’t do it. There are so many people around him now, and there are so many women, no one can leave him!

So Chen Ping must leave here!

“Senior Brother Bai, besides this method, is there no other way to leave this ghost place?”

Chen Ping frowned slightly and said!

“Of course!” Baicai said!

“What is the solution? Tell me quickly!” Chen Ping asked happily when he heard that there were other solutions!

He doesn't want to be stuck here. After he finishes learning these divine patterns, he doesn't know how many years it will take!

“You can go to Master. As long as he agrees to your leaving, of course you can leave.”

Baicai said!

When Chen Ping heard this, he immediately said like a deflated rubber ball: “Except for seeing him when I came here, I haven't seen him anywhere these days.”

“Where is he now? Senior brother, take me to see...”

“I don't know where Master is, he is probably playing chess with the Array Demon!” Bai Jue shook his head!

“Playing chess?” Chen Ping looked puzzled: “Didn't you say that Master and the Array Demon are rivals? Why are they still playing chess together?”

“Who says you can't play chess with your opponents? They are just opponents, not enemies. There is no hatred of killing your father or taking away your wife, it's just the mutual jealousy of two formation geniuses!”

Baica said!

Chen Ping was speechless for a while, but he could only accept his fate. He said nothing more and silently practiced the divine patterns!

These divine patterns are placed in various locations on the mountain, but Chen Ping has already condensed the natal divine patterns, so there is no need to tell him, Chen Ping can also find the location of other divine patterns!

Chen Ping casually grabbed a jade slip that recorded divine patterns, and then started carving according to the divine patterns on it!

Chapter: 6752

But soon, Chen Ping was surprised to find that the divine pattern actually contained the power of thunder!

That is to say, the formation carved by this divine pattern will erupt with the power of thunder and attack those who enter the formation!

At this moment, Chen Ping became excited!

The divine pattern carved at the beginning did not have any other power. It should be the most basic divine pattern, and it was also used to condense the natal divine pattern and integrate it with the divine pattern!

And these latter divine patterns are similar to enhanced versions of divine patterns, and they contain other powers!

Chen Ping changed places again and discovered that there was wind power in the divine patterns. The power contained in each divine pattern jade slip was actually different!

There are even divine patterns that contain the power of illusion. This should be the divine pattern of the illusion array!

To the fire god pattern, the water god pattern...

There are so many types of divine patterns that surprised Chen Ping!

He never thought that a formation divine pattern would contain such a variety of powers!

If you learn all the divine patterns, wouldn't you be able to master many kinds of power?

Although these powers can only be used in formations and cannot be used individually, this is enough!

What's more, Chen Ping opened the origin space, and many powerful forces also realized the origin. Coupled with these powers in the divine patterns, wouldn't the power be doubled?

Chen Ping did not dare to delay at all and began to quickly carve out the divine patterns!

You know this is the case, why was Chen Ping running just now!

Seeing Chen Ping concentrating on carving divine patterns, Baicai smiled lightly and left!

Chen Ping, on the other hand, completely devoted himself to carving the divine patterns. In just over an hour, Chen Ping actually learned the thunder pattern!

This is also related to Chen Ping's mastery of the power of thunder, so when he learned the divine patterns, his speed was obviously much faster!

Immediately afterwards, Chen Ping began to selectively learn the Fire God pattern, and he learned it very quickly!

In the end, it took five hours for Chen Ping to learn three divine patterns!

And Chen Ping has his own way of learning. Seeing that he already possesses the power in the divine patterns, he starts learning to carve it!

If not, he would carve the divine patterns and remember them in his mind, and then look for other divine patterns!

In this way, even after leaving here, those divine patterns that have not been learned are still in the mind and can be learned at any time!

In a dark cave!

Chapter: 6753

Only a candle the size of a mung bean was beating, illuminating a small space!

Under this bright light, two old men were sitting cross-legged, with a square chessboard between them!

One of these two old men is the ancestor of the divine pattern, and the old man opposite him is wearing a black robe, hiding himself in the darkness!

“Array Demon, you’ve got it right. This game of chess has been played for more than a hundred years. I’ve really had enough of you.”

“Lock yourself in this dark place all day, and wear a torn black robe, pretending to be a big-tailed wolf.”

The ancestor of Shenwen looked at the old man opposite and said very dissatisfied!

“Hahaha, senior brother, are you worried about the disciple you just deceived, so you are anxious to go back and have a look?”

The Array Demon laughed loudly!

“Stop it. How many times have I told you that you are not allowed to call me senior brother? We are no longer senior brothers. Master has removed you.”

“You chose the devil’s path instead of taking the right path. You and I have different paths and do not work together.”

“You should settle down quickly. I don’t have time to stay with you in this dark and cold place.”

The ancestor of the divine pattern said impatiently!

“Hahaha, you said you wouldn’t accompany me, but after so many years, haven’t you come as promised every time?”

“Although Master removed me, I have always recognized you as my senior brother. If you hadn’t begged me back then, I would have been killed by Master.”

“I will always remember this kindness!”

The array demon laughed!

“Since you think I am kind to you, then you should stop trying to become my apprentice in the future. Although there are many outstanding people in the world of heaven and earth, there are too few formation geniuses. It will not be easy for me to find an apprentice.”

“Also, can you admit defeat and admit that your formation skills are not as good as mine? After all, I am also your senior brother. Is it not a shame for a junior brother to lose to a senior brother?”

The ancestor of the divine pattern asked!

“That won’t work. One code equals another. You said there are too few formation geniuses in the world of heaven and humans. Of course I have to find a successor for my lifelong cultivation.”

“It’s not appropriate for me to run around like this right now, but that’s okay with you. If the apprentice you find can’t stand my temptation and joins me, that’s God’s will.”

“As for the formation technique, I’m much stronger than you. Stop pretending in front of me. How has your strength declined over the years? Are you confused?”

“But if you admit obediently that your formation skills are not as good as mine, I might consider it and stop trying to pry your disciple.”

The array demon said with a sneer!

Chapter: 6754

“Fart, even if my strength is declining, my formation skills are not comparable to that of a demon like you.”

“If you’re not convinced, let’s have a competition and see if I don’t beat you until you cry for father and mother.”

The ancestor of the divine pattern got angry, stood up and pointed at the array demon and said!

“Biji, I’m more afraid of you...”

The array demon also stood up suddenly!

Then the two people flew directly out of the cave and started gesticulating!

For a moment, all kinds of divine patterns were flying around in Tai Ugami, as if it was the end of the world!

In the cave, the lonely chessboard is still there!

This game of chess can be played for more than a hundred years, and that’s why!

Before a chess piece fell, the two people were competing!

The sky is dark and the earth is dark, the sun and moon have no light...

I don’t know how long it took, but both of them were tired, and they were breathing heavily!

But they were staring at each other, and there was no way to determine the winner!

“It’s over. I don’t know when I will be able to replenish this consumption. Immortal energy is scarce in the world of gods and humans. If I want to recover, I’m afraid it will be the Year of the Monkey and the Horse.”

The array demon said breathlessly!

“It’s all your fault. You’re so stubborn. Otherwise, would we be able to start a fight?”

The ancestor of Shenwen also regretted it!

When can this be replenished? If this is in heaven and there is fairy energy everywhere, then it doesn’t matter!

But here is the world of heaven and humans, which is full of rich spiritual energy. This spiritual energy is used by monks for practice. People like them in the heavenly world must use immortal energy!

It’s always like this between two people. They start fighting when they don’t agree with each other, and then they regret it after the fight. Then they can’t make up for it, and their strength keeps declining!

“Senior brother, don’t you still have blood jade? Give me a few to use!”

The array demon said!

“Go away, that’s my lifeblood, how could I possibly use it for you!”

The ancestor of the divine pattern cursed!

Chapter: 6755

“If you don’t give it, you won’t give it. Why are you still scolding me...” The formation demon rolled his eyes at the ancestor of the divine pattern, and then said: “Senior brother, don’t you care about your newly captured disciple? Don’t you want to see if he succeeds.”

“But I sent the Night Demon to tamper with that thatched house. Even if that kid is talented and intelligent, I’m afraid he won’t be able to refine the divine pattern.”

“Hmph, I’ve known for a long time that you sent the Daredevils to cause trouble, but with my eldest disciple here, your Daredevils’ efforts will be in vain.”

After the Divine Pattern Patriarch finished speaking, he waved his palm lightly, and a picture instantly appeared in mid-air!

Above the screen is the area where Chen Ping practices. In fact, this area is just a small space that the ancestor of Divine Patterns worked hard to open up after being trapped in the world of heaven and man!

Because the strength was damaged at that time, the space opened was not very large. Within this space, it was relatively safe, so the divine pattern ancestor would put various divine patterns in it!

The reason why Chen Ping couldn’t leave was because he didn’t know that the space he was in was not the world of heaven and humans at all, but a new space!

Maybe Chen Ping didn’t expect that there are still people in the heaven and human world who can open up the space world. He always thought that he was still in the heaven and human world, so he tried his best to escape!

However, not everyone has a way to enter this spatial world. The Array Demon can easily enter that spatial world!

There are also night demons raised by the array demons. These people have been raised one by one by the array demons for so many years. However, these people can only move at night and cannot move during the day!

This is why Chen Ping only sees those red eyes at night!

“Hey, has this apprentice of yours already mastered the natal divine pattern?”

The Array Demon couldn't help but be surprised when he saw that Chen Ping had left the thatched house!

“Hahaha, you are really talented. I have already told you that your little tricks are useless.”

The ancestor of Shenwen laughed, but quickly shut his mouth and looked at Chen Ping in surprise!

“What...what is this guy doing?”

The ancestor of the divine pattern saw that Chen Ping kept looking for the divine pattern, and then started practicing immediately!

If he can master the divine patterns quickly, he will be more attentive. If he cannot master the divine patterns quickly, he will engrave them in the sea of consciousness so that he can practice in the future!

But even so, Chen Ping has now mastered four divine patterns with different powers!

At this speed, it is simply a once-in-a-millennium experience!

“Holy crap, what are you doing? This guy just condensed his natal divine patterns, and he actually turned them into so many different divine patterns at once? Isn’t this too outrageous?”

The array demon is also full of surprise!

Even when they were studying in heaven, they had never seen such a talented person!

“I understand. He is memorizing my divine patterns. He plans to practice slowly after leaving.”

Chapter: 6756

“This guy is ridiculously strong. Maybe this guy can really break the Heaven and Earth Formation.”

The face of the Divine Pattern Ancestor showed excitement!

Upon hearing this, the array demon suddenly became excited: “That’s great. Such a talented person cannot be delayed by you. I also want to pass on my magic pattern to him.”

After the array demon finished speaking, his figure suddenly disappeared in a flash!

The ancestor of Shenwen was shocked and shouted quickly: “If you dare to steal my disciple, I will fight with you...”

After saying that, the Divine Mark Patriarch also quickly chased after him!

Chen Ping is currently carving divine patterns and doesn’t care about anything!

After all, if you are trapped in this place and are protected by Baicai, you will not be in danger!

But just as Chen Ping was carving the divine patterns, a strange aura suddenly surged, causing him to open his eyes!

I don't know when, but there was an old man in black robe in front of me!

The old man looked at Chen Ping carefully, with a look of disbelief in his eyes!

"Boy, how many divine patterns have you mastered now?"

the old man asked!

Chen Ping looked at the other person, frowned slightly and said, "Who are you? Why should I tell you?"

"Hahaha, who am I?"

The old man laughed and waved casually!

The sky instantly became extremely dark, and formations appeared in the dark sky!

The complexity of these formation patterns is no less than what Chen Ping is now describing as divine patterns!

And these formations are like stars, filling the entire sky!

Seeing such a huge array pattern, Chen Ping was stunned!

However, among these formations, waves of demonic energy are constantly emanating!

At this moment, Chen Ping instantly understood who the person in front of him was.

“Are you an array demon?”

Chen Ping asked in surprise!

Chapter: 6757

“Yes, I am the Array Demon. The divine patterns you practice are not the best at all. My magic patterns are the best.”

“Stop practicing the divine patterns and learn the magic patterns with me. I will ensure that you can ascend to heaven.”

The array demon is tempting Chen Ping!

“Are magic patterns so powerful?” Chen Ping didn’t believe it!

“Of course it’s great, can’t you see it? And if you learn from me, I will teach you personally, unlike my senior brother who spends all his time trying to gain fame and pretentiousness, even accepting apprentices and refusing to teach himself.”

The array demon said bad things about the ancestor with divine patterns!

“You fart...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the figure of the divine pattern ancestor appeared, and then said to Chen Ping: “Don’t listen to his nonsense, the magic pattern is not as powerful as the divine pattern, and you have now condensed the natal divine pattern, it is impossible to I’m practicing magic patterns.”

“You can practice. I can remove your natal divine patterns, and you can re-condensate your natal magic patterns.”

The array demon hurriedly said!

“Array Demon, are you going too far to pry my apprentice in front of me?”

The ancestor of the divine pattern is angry!

“Brother, why are you swearing again? You have no quality at all.”

The array demon said unhappily!

“You have quality. If you try to pry someone else’s disciple into being a person of quality, then you have to be shameless.”

The Divine Pattern Ancestor roared angrily!

At this time, the two old men actually quarreled over Chen Ping. If they hadn’t started fighting just now and the two of them had consumed too much and hadn’t replenished their supplies, they would probably have started fighting again!

Chen Ping looked at the two people arguing and was speechless for a while!

And it sounds like these two are still brothers, but Chen Ping doesn't understand how the two brothers became like this!

"Stop, stop..."

"You two, stop arguing!"

"I am not anyone's apprentice, so why are you arguing?"

Chen Ping said quickly!

The two of them were stunned. The ancestor of the divine patterns looked at Chen Ping and said: "You have condensed all the divine patterns of your life, and you actually said that you are not my disciple?"

Chapter: 6758

"Of course not. I didn't become a disciple. You trapped me here and asked me to learn."

"I have learned your divine patterns and can respectfully call you senior, but you are not qualified to be my master..."

Chen Ping's words made the ancestor of Divine Patterns stunned!

However, the Array Demon burst into laughter and said, "Hahaha, if this young man has a future, this is what he should be like!"

The ancestor of the divine pattern blushed and said: "I am a star formation immortal in the heavenly realm, not qualified to be your master? Are you too crazy?"

The ancestor of the divine pattern is going to be pissed to death!

"Senior brother, despite being a good man, you were brave in the past. You are still a bastard Star Array Immortal. You can't even return to the heaven. Your strength is constantly declining. Only a fool would become your apprentice."

"Young man, if you accept me as your teacher, I will teach you the magic patterns, and I will have a place in the heaven."

The array demon said to Chen Ping!

"Aren't you also trapped here and unable to return to the world of heaven and humans? So you are not qualified either."

Chen Ping said!

The Array Demon was stunned for a moment, then said angrily: "Boy, I think you are extremely talented, that's why I accepted you as my disciple. Do you think anyone can accept me as my disciple?"

"You two are desperately trying to accept me as your disciple. You must have some agenda, right?"

"But if you don't tell me, I don't want to ask about the magic pattern. I don't want to learn it either. I just want to leave this crappy place."

"I still have a lot of things to do, let me get out of here now!"

Chen Ping knew that there must be a reason why these two people were trapped in the heaven and human world and could not return to the heaven world!

But they are looking for talented people to teach their unique skills, and it is not just for the sake of recruiting disciples!

Although Chen Ping really wanted to learn divine patterns or even magic patterns, he couldn't show it!

The more he shows that it doesn't matter, the better it is for him!

Sure enough, when Chen Ping said this, the Divine Pattern Patriarch said: "You don't need to be a disciple. Now that you have condensed your natal Divine Patterns and learned so many divine patterns, it would be a pity to leave now."

"I don't force you to become a disciple. You just need to learn these divine patterns. Once you learn them all, you will be able to see the nature of this world clearly."

"Boy, you don't have to worship me, I'm willing to teach you personally." Upon seeing this, the Array Demon hurriedly spoke!

For someone with extraordinary talent like Chen Ping, they are not willing to give up!

If Chen Ping really succeeds, he will have a chance to break through the great formation of heaven and earth in the heaven and human world. If they are trapped here, they can leave and return to the heaven!

Chapter: 6759

Chen Ping looked at the array demon, and then at the star-like magic patterns in the sky. The aura emanating from the magic patterns could actually make the natal divine patterns in Chen Ping's body react!

It's just that the natal divine pattern reacts very strangely, it's different from when he learned other divine patterns!

"Is there any connection between the magic pattern and the divine pattern?"

Chen Ping frowned slightly, and instead of answering the Array Demon's words, he jumped!

Chen Ping rushed into the magic patterns that filled the sky!

Seeing Chen Ping's actions, both the Array Demon and the Divine Pattern Ancestor were stunned!

They don't know what Chen Ping is going to do!

"Brother, what is this guy going to do?"

The array demon asked!

"Maybe he wants to learn the magic pattern." Seeing Chen Ping rushing into the magic pattern, the ancestor of the divine pattern said!

"The natal divine patterns on his body have not been removed yet. How can he continue to learn the magic patterns? This will kill people..."

The array demon said in surprise!

The ancestor of Shenwen was not talking, nor was he trying to stop Chen Ping!

Chen Ping rushed into the sky full of magic patterns, and the natal divine patterns in his body began to tremble regularly!

It's like sensing the magic patterns all around!

Chen Ping was a little unbelievable. How could his natal divine pattern sense the magic pattern and have some connection with the magic pattern?

These are two different formation patterns and there is no way they are related!

Chen Ping slowly revealed his natal divine pattern, and saw the natal divine pattern flashing around his body!

At the same time, Chen Ping's eyes slowly turned red, and he was constantly thinking in his mind!

"Could it be that both the magic pattern and the divine pattern evolved from one type of formation pattern?"

Chen Ping had a bold and absurd idea!

After all, gods and demons have different paths. How could magic patterns and divine patterns evolve from the same divine pattern!

But if not, then why can my natal divine pattern sense the magic pattern?

Chen Ping decided to try condensing the magic patterns. If he did not encounter backlash or resistance during the process of condensing the magic patterns, it would prove his guess!

Chapter: 6760

Chen Ping looked at a magic pattern and began to carve it in mid-air. You must know that Chen Ping already has the natal divine pattern in his body at this time, and he can have a good understanding when carving the divine pattern!

But the magic pattern is different. However, when Chen Ping was carving the magic pattern, he didn't find anything wrong at all, and it was very smooth!

It seems that what I thought was right, even if you learn the divine patterns, you can still practice the magic patterns!

Without any worries, Chen Ping started to carve the magic patterns quickly, and the magic patterns flashed in Chen Ping's body. I don't know how long it took, but spiritual power surged from all directions, rushing towards Chen Ping like a rushing sea!

The magic patterns all over the sky were also trembling slightly, as if they were responding to Chen Ping!

The Array Demon and the Divine Pattern Ancestor were dumbfounded when they saw this scene!

"What the hell? Is this guy going to condense his natal magic pattern?"

The array demon said in surprise!

A look of shock flashed across the face of the ancestor of the divine pattern: "How is it possible that the divine pattern of destiny and the demon pattern of destiny can be condensed on one person at the same time?"

It's unimaginable, this kind of thing is so shocking!

They never thought that magic patterns and divine patterns could appear on the same person at the same time!

At this time, Chen Ping's body was surrounded by black mist, and demonic energy continued to emerge from those demonic patterns!

The whole sky is trembling!

Even the ground beneath your feet is trembling!

"This guy is a human, a monster, and has the auras of all three clans in him. Now he can combine the magic patterns and the divine patterns into one body. This cannot be explained by talent."

The array demon's expression changed drastically!

"My space world won't be destroyed by this kid, right?"

The ancestor of Shenwen is very worried!

With his current strength, if he was asked to open up a space world, he would not have that ability!

"Senior brother, if this kid can break through the great formation of heaven and earth, you still want a shitty space world, and the two of us will return to the heaven."

The array demon's eyes began to show excitement!

This guy Chen Ping is a genius, maybe he can really break through the great formation of heaven and earth!

At this time, Chen Ping had no idea what the two of them were thinking. All he saw was that in Chen Ping's sea of consciousness, his natal divine patterns were trembling!

At the same time, on one side of the natal divine pattern, the natal magic pattern is also slowly forming!
