

The Order 6961

Chapter: 6961

“I’ve been hanging around this sea in the Western Region a lot, so I’m quite familiar with it.”

Feng Xing said!

“You are from the Central Region, why did you come to the Western Region to hang out?”

Bao Longxing asked!

“The Western Region is the place with the most pharmacists and the most pharmacist families in the entire heaven and human world.”

“Furthermore, Yongle City in the Western Region is the location of the Western Region Pharmacist Association, and it also holds pharmacist conferences, so I don’t have a teacher, so I can only secretly learn the art here.”

“Yongle City is close to the sea, so I am very familiar with this sea, and I have visited Medicine God Island many times!”

Feng Xing explained!

When Su Tianshuo heard this, he couldn’t help but nodded. Like Feng Xing, whose family is not from a medicine refining family. It is indeed very difficult for him to become a pharmacist and learn alchemy by himself!

You can only rely on self-study and stealing skills, but in Yongle City you can communicate with many pharmacists and grow the fastest!

“You just said you could kill those people behind you. What happened?”

Su Tianshuo asked!

“President Su doesn’t know something. We don’t want to go back to the Western Continent now. Instead, we turn around and head south. In about an hour or so, we will enter a stormy sea area. Storms blow regularly in that place!”

“I heard that the storm comes from the giant beast deep under the sea. There will be a storm on a fixed date every year. As long as we lead the people behind us to the storm area, we can use the storm to kill them and let them go to the bottom of the sea to feed them. Monster.”

Feng Xing said!

“Then wouldn’t we also encounter storms and feed the monsters as well?”

Bao Longxing asked in confusion!

“Master Bao, don’t worry. I am familiar with the path of the storm. I will avoid the storm before it comes.”

“Now we only have this way to go. If we continue to the Western Region Continent, we probably won’t see the mainland and will be overtaken by them.”

Feng Xing explained!

Bao Longxing fell silent because he didn’t know whether he should believe this seal of approval!

After Su Tianshuo thought for a moment, he immediately said loudly: "Turn the helm and head south..."

Su Tianshuo decided to believe Feng Xing for once, after all, what he said was true!

Chapter: 6962

Apart from this method, Su Tianshuo can't think of any better way to save his life!

The spirit boat changed its course, and driven by the spiritual power of many pharmacists, it quickly sailed towards the distance!

In this way, they will be farther and farther away from the land!

Seeing Su Tianshuo and others suddenly changing course, Chen Ping and the others were all confused!

"What is going on? Why did people like Su Tianshuo change their course? Don't they want to go back to the Western Region?"

Chen Wenliang said in confusion!

"Did this guy see that we were about to catch up and knew that we would not let him go even if we escaped to the Western Region, so he planned to escape to another place?"

Zhen Yuandao said!

“Is he escaping there? This direction seems to be towards the south. There is a vast sea and there is no land there. I am afraid there is not even an island?”

Zhou Qian said very puzzled!

Chen Ping frowned and kept looking around, because he didn't know what these guys like Su Tianshuo were going to do.

“Maybe I know what they want to do!”

At this time, Zhong Qing spoke!

“Senior Zhong, do you know?” Chen Ping looked at Zhong Qing!

“They should be heading for the stormy sea. On their spiritual boat, there must be someone who has been hanging around here all year round.”

Zhongqing said!

“Storm Sea Area?” Everyone was stunned!

“How come I haven't heard of such a sea area in all these years?”

Zhen Yuandao asked!

“This stormy sea doesn't blow up every day, but it happens at certain times. I don't know the specific time.”

“But I heard others say that this storm is too scary, and there are quite scary monsters in that area.”

“I think Su Tianshuo must have led us to the stormy sea area, and then caused us to encounter the storm and all fall.”

“This guy is so vicious...”

Chapter: 6963

Zhong Qing is also a casual cultivator and has been in Yongle City, so he still knows something about this sea area!

Everyone was silent after hearing Zhong Qing’s words!

Chen Wenliang frowned: “What should we do? Are we just watching Su Tianshuo and the others escape, and we won’t pursue them?”

“If it doesn’t work, I’ll go back first. These guys will return to the Western Region sooner or later.”

Zhen Yuandao had the intention of retreating.

“I think it will work. Many of our Zhou family members have been injured, and we really don’t have the energy to catch up.”

Zhou Qian also backed down!

His son was injured, and many people in the Zhou family were also seriously injured, and they had to go back to recuperate!

If you are chasing after you and encounter a storm at this time, others will be able to escape the storm. Everyone in the Zhou family will be injured, but they will not be able to escape!

“How can we forget it? Guys like Su Tianshuo almost killed us all. We must not let them go. Otherwise, we will let the tiger go back to the mountain. We must kill them.”

Some pharmacists do not agree to go back and must be pursued!

“Who knows what dangers there are in the stormy sea, so blindly pursuing them like this is reckless.”

There are pharmacists who object to the pursuit!

For a time, many pharmacists were quarreling with each other, some wanted to pursue him, and some did not want to pursue him!

The entire spirit boat was in chaos!

“Okay, everyone, stop arguing and listen to Fellow Daoist Chen’s opinion!”

At this time, Chen Wenliang shouted loudly!

Everyone shut their mouths and looked at Chen Ping!

Along the way, everyone knows Chen Ping's strength, and many people were saved by Chen Ping, so everyone will definitely listen to Chen Ping's words!

"Our spirit boats can move separately. If anyone wants to go back to the Western Region, they can go back."

"If you want to pursue me, you can pursue me. Everyone chooses voluntarily. No one will force me."

"Even if you go back, you have your own reasons for it. No one will look down on you, and you don't have to worry about it!"

Chen Ping knows that there are many unknown risks in going to the so-called stormy sea area, and more people are not necessarily a good thing!

It's okay to let some people go back. People like those in the Zhou family have no fighting ability at all. They still need someone to take care of them, which will invisibly reduce the overall strength!

Chapter: 6964

Everyone listened to Chen Ping's words, and then silently began to line up, and soon divided into two teams!

Zhou Qian and Zhen Yuandao took some people back to the Western Region Continent!

Chen Ping and Chen Wenliang continued the pursuit with the remaining people. With the people from Liangyi Sect, even if they left half of them, Chen Ping and the others would be more than enough to deal with Su Tianshuo and the others!

Zhong Qing and Granny Zhen chose to stay. After all, Zhong Qing knew more about this sea area than others!

Chen Ping and the others continued to move forward and began to pursue Su Tianshuo and the others!

The spirit boat moved forward rapidly, stirring up waves!

After chasing for an hour, Su Tianshuo's spirit boat was getting closer and closer!

And the whole sky is clear, the sea is rippled, and there is no trace of a storm!

"Zhong Yaozun, the stormy sea area you mentioned should be this one. It looks calm. Where is the shadow of the storm?"

Chen Wenliang asked very puzzledly!

"I've only heard about it. I haven't seen the storm, but we can't take it lightly. I heard that the storm was extremely violent."

"There was once a spiritual boat carrying hundreds of monks who were in the Tribulation Realm. It was instantly torn apart by the storm. All the monks survived, and even the corpses could not be seen."

"Since there are such rumors, and Su Tianshuo and others keep coming in this direction, this stormy sea area must exist."

Zhong Qing was not as relaxed as others, but said with a solemn expression!

When everyone heard what Zhong Qing said, their expressions became much more tense!

Hundreds of monks who have transcended the Tribulation Realm have turned into scum in an instant, which is too scary!

Most of the people on their spirit boats were cultivators in the Tribulation Realm!

If there is really a storm here, I'm afraid I won't be able to run!

It's not easy to cultivate to such a level. Wouldn't it be too unfair to be blown to death by a storm?

At this time, many people regretted following them. They might as well go back to the Western Regions!

Chen Ping also saw the worries in everyone's hearts, so he said: "You don't need to be overly anxious. With the Liangyi Sect here, as long as we set up defensive formations around the spirit boat, the storm will not hurt you."

"Yes, there are fellow Taoists from the Liangyi Sect following us. They are all famous magic sects in the Central Region. We don't need to be afraid at all!"

Chen Wenliang also comforted everyone!

When everyone heard this, they felt a lot more at ease. After all, there were so many formation masters here, and the formation they set up together must be very strong, and the storm should not be able to break it!

Chapter: 6965

Su Tianshuo and others, who were running away at this time, saw Chen Ping and the others chasing after them. Not only were they not afraid, they even showed excitement on their faces!

"President Su, these guys were indeed fooled, but it seems that a few spirit boats did not follow. They must have returned to the Western Region."

Bao Longxing said!

“It doesn’t matter, as long as Chen Ping comes with him, we can use this stormy sea area to kill Chen Ping, and we can get the hundred-year tribute from the Demon Sealing Alliance.”

“With these resources, we will be able to annex other people sooner or later...”

Su Tianshuo raised his lips slightly and said!

“That’s true. It’s just that the sky here is clear and the wind is calm. Is there any sign of a storm?”

“I don’t know if what Feng Xing said is true. Stop trying to frame us.”

Bao Longxing looked up at the clear sky and said!

“Master Bao, what reason do I have for deceiving you?”

“Didn’t I say that in this stormy sea area, storms don’t happen anytime and anywhere. They need to have a specific time.”

“If you don’t believe me, you can change course at any time.”

Feng Xing didn’t know when he was behind Bao Longxing!

Bao Longxing suddenly felt embarrassed!

Su Tianshuo hurriedly spoke up and said, “Mr. Feng, Master Bao is also outspoken. Don’t worry about it. Of course we believe you, otherwise we wouldn’t have driven the spirit boat here.”

Su Tianshuo knew that at this time, the only person they could count on was Feng Xing, so he humiliated him very politely!

When Bao Longxing saw this, he quickly apologized: “Mr. Feng, I speak freely and I dare not question Mr. Feng. I hope you will not remember the faults of villains.”

If things were normal, Bao Longxing and Su Tianshuo would probably not even look at Feng Xing, but now, they can only swallow their anger!

When Feng Xing saw that Su Tianshuo and Bao Longxing were both so polite to him, he suddenly felt proud. He looked at the sky and said, “Change the course, like heading southeast.”

“It won’t take more than a quarter of an hour. The storm is probably coming...”

“Going southeast...”

Su Tianshuo quickly issued the order!

“Mr. Chen, Su Tianshuo and the others have changed direction again.” Upon seeing this, Nie Heng hurriedly said to Chen Ping!

“Follow him...”

Chapter: 6966

Chen Ping said!

Just when Chen Ping's spirit boat was chasing Su Tianshuo and the others, the spirit boat suddenly shook!

Even the spirit formation that made the spirit boat move forward dissipated instantly after a few blinks of light and death!

Without the stimulation of the spirit formation, the spirit boat has no way to move forward!

"What's going on? What's going on?"

Chen Wenliang and the others also rushed to the bow one after another!

Everyone was shocked, and everyone looked very nervous!

The originally clear sky began to turn into pitch black!

Dark clouds are like rolling waves, falling from the sky and gathering together!

The sharp brilliance kept flashing in the dark clouds, like thousands of snakes dancing, and the calm sea seemed to be attracted, and huge waves suddenly turned up!

The huge waves rolled like a tsunami, and the impacting spirit boat swung around. Everyone was swaying and found it difficult to stand!

Densely dense monster beasts appeared in the waves of the sea. These monster beasts seemed to be frightened, jumped out of the water from the bottom of the sea, and then desperately moved forward through the waves!

The flying monsters also screamed and flew into the distance, but they were struck by thunder and lightning and fell to the sea in an instant!

Not long after, the entire sea surface was covered with the corpses of monsters. The scene was extremely terrifying!

When everyone saw this scene, they were immediately frightened!

These thunders are comparable to the thunder tribulations experienced by monks when they undergo tribulations. Each one is extremely terrifying and even causes turmoil in the world!

“Gu Tianchao, immediately lead people to set up a defensive array, and repair the spirit array of the spirit boat immediately!”

Chen Ping looked at the terrifying storm and frowned slightly.

After receiving the order, Gu Tianchao immediately led the disciples of the Liangyi Sect and chanted in a low voice one by one, with light emitting from his palms.

These rays of light converged in one place, and then formed a shield, wrapping the entire spirit boat!

The spirit boat that was originally swaying around suddenly calmed down, and everyone’s hearts also calmed down a lot!

The spiritual formation of the spirit boat was also repaired, and with the stimulation of spiritual power, the spirit boat started moving again!

Because of the protection of the formation, the spirit boat ran very smoothly.

Many pharmacists gradually lost their fear, and they all ran to the bow of the ship and looked at the terrifying scene outside!

Chapter: 6967

Many monsters fled in panic, only to be struck to death by lightning!

“President Su, those guys don’t seem to be afraid of the storm. Their spirit boats are protected by the formation.”

Bao Longxing saw Chen Ping and his team’s spirit boat, with lights flashing all around, moving forward without any hindrance, and hurriedly said!

Su Tianshuo also noticed it, so he frowned and said, “Damn, I forgot that they are followed by people from the Liangyi Sect. These guys are all formation masters.”

“Now, we’re going to be in trouble. I’m afraid this storm won’t be able to stop them at all, let alone strangle them.”

“President Su, Master Bao, don’t worry, it’s just an appetizer now, the real storm hasn’t come yet.”

Feng Xing said confidently!

“Is there a worse storm? That would be great...”

When Su Tianshuo heard this, he immediately became happy!

Their spirit boat was on the edge of the storm and was not affected at all. They watched proudly as Chen Ping and the others struggled in the storm!

Rumble.....

Suddenly, there was a huge sound, and the entire sea seemed to be shaking!

From the sky, streaks of thunder fell like raindrops, and the waves on the sea formed huge whirlpools, constantly stirring.

Tornadoes swept through the sea water and connected with the dark clouds in mid-air!

In the strong wind, wind blades continuously impacted the spirit boat’s defensive formation!

The void was torn apart by the storm, and the cracks exuded a cold and strange atmosphere. Countless wind blades, combined with the cracks in the void, swallowed everything!

Chen Ping’s spirit boat was like a small leaf, shuttling in the raging wind and waves.

Feeling the strong winds and waves, as well as the countless thunders hitting the defensive formation, all the pharmacists became solemn, their faces were pale, and cold sweat broke out on their foreheads!

Because they felt that this spiritual boat could be overturned at any time, and they were torn apart by the storm!

There was no expression on Chen Ping's face at this time, and his eyes were fixed on the biggest storm among them!

The defensive formations set up by Gu Tianchao and the others could still withstand these small storms, but among these storms, a storm with a diameter of dozens of miles was slowly forming, which was the most deadly.

Chen Ping took out the Wind-fixing Bead from the storage ring. It was taken for him by the surrendered old turtle in the sea of ink!

However, Chen Ping was not sure whether this Wind-fixing Pearl could withstand the storm of dozens of miles!

Everyone was dumbfounded when they saw the huge storm forming in front of them!

Chapter: 6968

The breath of death hangs over everyone's head!

On top of the spirit boat, there was even more chaos, and even the timid ones began to tremble and burst into tears!

"Master, this storm is too huge, I'm afraid our formation can't bear it."

Gu Tianchao looked at the huge storm gradually forming in front of him and said worriedly!

Upon hearing what Gu Tianchao said, Chen Wenliang was still in love and they hurriedly joined in!

“Fellow Daoist Chen, what should we do about this? Are we all going to die here?”

Chen Wenliang asked!

“Don’t worry, as long as we pass through the storm and enter the center of the storm, we will be safe. The central area of this huge storm must be quiet.”

Chen Ping looked at the storm that was dozens of miles in diameter. He knew that for a storm of this size, the center was the safest!

We must find a way to let the spirit boat pass through the edge of the storm quickly, because the edge of the storm has the greatest destructive power!

Listening to Chen Ping’s words, everyone was very worried!

“Master, I’m afraid that if we want to penetrate into the center of the storm, this formation will not be able to withstand it.”

Gu Tianchao reminded again!

Everyone also felt that this shaky spiritual boat could not withstand the devastation of such a huge storm!

“Don’t worry, if the formation is broken, I still have treasures in my hand and should be able to withstand this storm.”

Chen Ping said slowly!

Seeing Chen Ping say this, Gu Tianchao didn’t say anything!

Everyone else was silent and praying silently!

The spirit boat quickly reached the edge of the huge storm. At this time, the wind blades generated by the storm crackled against the spirit boat’s defensive formation!

Cracks appeared in the defensive bursts instantly, and they were about to be shattered.

Gu Tianchao glanced at Chen Ping, and then led others to desperately use their spiritual power to repair the broken formation!

Everyone in the Liangyi Sect gritted their teeth and forced the spirit boat into the storm. But as soon as they entered the storm, the defensive formation suddenly shattered!

Everyone was shocked and quickly mobilized their body’s maximum potential to resist this terrifying storm!

However, after everyone prepared for a long time, they found that although the defensive formation was broken, the wind blades generated by the storm did not come towards everyone!

Chapter: 6969

The raging storm seemed to be dodging the spirit boat!

“What...what is going on?”

Chen Wenliang’s face was full of shock. He didn’t understand why the storm was surrounding the spirit boat!

“Mr. Chen, what is that in your hand?”

At this time, Nie Heng discovered the Fengfeng Pearl in Chen Ping’s hand, and asked curiously!

“This is the wind-fixing bead, which can avoid the threat of the storm.”

Chen Ping said with a faint smile!

I saw the Fixed Wind Bead emitting a soft light, and there was a whistling wind sound inside the bead!

“Fixing Wind Bead? Fellow Daoist Chen actually has such a treasure. No wonder you are so confident.”

When Chen Wenliang heard this, he hurriedly came over and took a good look at the Wind-fixing Pearl!

Others also gathered around. This was their first time seeing a treasure like Chen Ping!

With the Wind-Fixing Pearl in hand, the spirit boat continued to move forward and soon penetrated the edge of the storm!

When they reached the center of the storm, the vision of heaven and earth disappeared, and there was only the endless howling of the storm all around!

Sure enough, the center of this huge storm is safe and very calm!

However, on this sea surface, there are densely packed corpses of monster beasts. These monster beasts should have been strangled by the storm!

“We are safe for the time being. There are so many monster beast corpses. If anyone wants the beast elixir, you can go get it yourself...”

Chen Ping said to everyone!

When everyone heard this, they jumped into the sea one after another, and then dug out the beast elixirs from the dead monsters!

Chen Ping, Liu Ruyan, and Nie Heng also jumped out of the spirit boat and looked at the densely packed monster corpses on the sea. In the hurricane of the surrounding storm, the spiritual energy was chaotic, and there were many stars twinkling!

“Mr. Chen, what are the stars in your hurricane?”

Nie Heng asked!

Logically speaking, there should be no light in a hurricane!

“It should be the light emitted by some spiritual stones or treasures.”

“In this vast sea, anything can exist.”

Chapter: 6970

“Let’s go over and take a look, maybe we can find something!”

Chen Ping has the Wind-fixing Pearl in his hand, so it won’t be a problem to enter the hurricane!

An entire spirit boat can be protected, so it is very easy for the Fixed Wind Pearl to protect the three of them!

“Fellow Daoist Chen, can you take me with you?”

At this time, Chen Wenliang came closer and asked!

He had long seen that Chen Ping wanted to enter the hurricane. Other monks could not enter, but Chen Ping had no problem because Chen Ping had the Wind-fixing Pearl!

“President Chen, of course you can...”

Chen Ping readily agreed.

The group slowly approached the hurricane on the edge of the storm. When they entered the hurricane, they found a lot of spiritual stones flying in the air!

“What kind of spiritual stone is this that emits such a dazzling light?”

Nie Heng asked very curiously!

“The gold-replenishing stone, this is the gold-replenishing stone. This kind of crystal is extremely valuable.”

Chen Wenliang looked at those spiritual stones and shouted excitedly!

“What is the mending stone?”

Chen Ping asked!

“Fellow Daoist Chen, this gold-replenishing stone is a very rare spiritual stone. It can not only improve your cultivation, but most importantly, it is of great help to monks who practice the origin of gold.”

“However, in the five major regions of the heaven and human world, this kind of spiritual stone is extremely rare, but I didn’t expect that there are so many in this sea area. It turns out that these gold-replenishing stones are all in the sea.”

Chen Wenliang said!

Chen Ping heard that it was of great help to the origin of the metal system, so he waved his hand and a gold-enhancing stone came into his hand!

Chen Ping just happened to realize the origin of the metal system. With this gold-replenishing stone, he can make his origin power much stronger!

“Let’s do it together, but don’t be too far away from me, otherwise the Wind-fixing Pearl will have no effect.”

Chen Ping said!

Liu Ruyan and the others nodded, and then began to collect the gold-enhancing stones in the hurricane!

The other pharmacists were excitedly harvesting the beast elixirs from the monsters, and there were also some scattered spiritual stones and treasures on the sea surface!
