

The Order 7261

Chapter: 7261

“Damn thing, I almost made a fool of myself...”

Lin Keting stared at the three statues angrily, and then slapped one of them with her palm.

Bang!

Lin Keting slapped it down, but the statue didn't move at all.

Lin Keting then remembered that she had no spiritual power at all, and she had no sword power. She could only get rid of the illusion by relying on the runes in her palms.

However, everyone was very surprised when they saw that Lin Keting did not faint and was knocked down by the illusion, but no one dared to approach.

“Miss, let me come...”

Seeing this, the blind elder on the right waved his long sword in his hand, and a sword intent followed the trend.

boom!

The sword struck the stone statue so hard that it instantly shattered.

After the stone statue collapsed, there was a dagger hidden in the stone statue. The dagger looked blood red, and there was even a bloody smell emanating from the dagger.

“What is this?”

Lin Keting reached out to grab the dagger, but was stopped by Chen Ping with a quick step.

“Ms. Lin, don’t touch this thing. This dagger contains too much evil energy. Your current body simply cannot bear it.”

The moment the dagger appeared, Chen Ping noticed the sinister aura on it.

If everyone’s strength is not suppressed, the evil energy on the dagger may not cause any harm.

But now ordinary people cannot bear even a small amount of Yin evil energy entering their bodies.

Lin Keting looked at Chen Ping, and then took her hand back. Now she had trust in Chen Ping.

“Demon dagger, this is a divine weapon from heaven...”

A middle-aged man in black robes suddenly shouted excitedly at this moment, and then rushed over desperately, trying to take the dagger in his hand.

Seeing this, the blind elder on the right stretched out his long sword and directly stopped the middle-aged man in black robe. He said coldly: “Damn, this is something our eldest lady discovered. How dare you touch it?”

The middle-aged man in black robe was stunned, and then took two steps back. Just now, the blind elder on the right slashed the stone statue with his sword, and they all saw it with their own eyes!

In this place where spiritual power is banned, Elder Youblind still has this kind of strength, so of course he is afraid.

“Although you broke this stone statue, we discovered it first. If you say this thing belongs to you, we will not accept it.”

Chapter: 7262

The old man who just spoke said.

He fought hard and just retreated. Now there is a magic weapon inside the stone statue, but they can't get it. Who will be convinced!

“That's it, the stone statue we found first...”

“You open the entrance circle. We paid the spirit stones to come in. Can't everything in here be yours?”

“At worst, we can spend the spiritual stones to buy the head office, right?”

Everyone was a little dissatisfied and started shouting!

If all the treasures encountered along the way were possessed by Lin Keting, wouldn't they have come in for nothing?

Now everyone's strength is limited, but the sword power of the right blind elder is not restricted. In this case, no one can be the opponent of the right blind elder, and they can only serve as foils in vain.

"Shut up, everyone. If you want to get the treasure, ask me about the sword in my hand first."

The blind elder on the right waved his sword, and everyone shut their mouths instantly.

Although everyone did not dare to speak due to pressure, their eyes showed dissatisfaction!

"Elder Right Blind, why have you become so reckless in doing things!"

Lin Keting glared at Elder You Blind, who could only retreat!

"Everyone, you are right. This thing does not belong to me, and I cannot bully the weak."

"The way I see it, if anyone wants this dagger, they can exchange it for spiritual stones."

"Of course, we all share the spiritual stone equally, so that everyone can benefit and not enter here in vain."

Lin Keting said!

Lin Keting's words instantly made everyone raise their hands in agreement. After all, this is the best solution!

Everyone who sees it has a share, so no one will have any opinions!

But when the middle-aged man in black robe saw this, he frowned slightly and said: "Girl, if you compare with spiritual stones, we are afraid that no one can compare with you. By then, we will fall into your hands. Just some spiritual stones."

It can be seen that the middle-aged man in black robe is very fond of the magic dagger, but if it comes to exchange for spiritual stones, I am afraid that only Lin Keting has the most spiritual stones here!

After all, Lin Keting had already collected a lot of spiritual stones at the entrance.

"Don't worry about this. I won't participate. I don't care about this magic dagger..."

Lin Keting shook her head and said!

Chapter: 7263

Upon hearing that Lin Keting was not participating, the middle-aged man in black robe's eyes lit up!

"Chen Ping, do you want it?" Lin Keting looked at Chen Ping and asked!

"I don't want it. I don't care about this kind of magic weapon. The weapon in my hand is much stronger than this magic dagger."

Chen Ping also shook his head.

Whether it is the Dragon-Slaying Sword, the Dragon Pattern Bell, or even the Divine King's Bow, the real power it unleashes is more powerful than this magic dagger!

Seeing someone give up again, the middle-aged man in black robe's eyes brightened even more!

“Everyone, this magic dagger is very important to me, and it contains a strong evil spirit. Now that we are ordinary people, I am afraid that we cannot withstand this evil spirit.”

“But I’m not afraid, so I hope everyone will give me this magic dagger. I’m willing to pay 100,000 spiritual stones...”

The middle-aged man in black robe followed everyone politely and said!

He was very afraid that someone would snatch the magic dagger from him. Then he would be in trouble if he didn’t have enough spiritual stones.

“One hundred thousand spirit stones? Are you fooling a kid here? I’ll give you 150,000 spirit stones!”

Someone immediately retorted. After all, the higher the price, the more spiritual stones everyone would get, so it was impossible for this middle-aged man in black robe to take away the dagger so easily!

“You...” The middle-aged man in black robe frowned. Although he was angry, he had no choice but to say: “I will offer two hundred thousand spiritual stones. I hope you...”

“Three hundred thousand spirit stones...” The old man who was the first to speak spoke.

Before the middle-aged man in black robe could speak, others began to shout about the price increase!

The middle-aged man in black robe was so angry that he had a frozen expression. Many people here were obviously just playing haha. They didn't really want the magic dagger, just to raise the price!

"One million..."

The middle-aged man in black robe knew that if this continued, the price would rise endlessly, so he gritted his teeth and shouted out the sky-high price of one million spiritual stones!

Sure enough, everyone was shocked when he shouted out the one million. They all looked at the middle-aged man in black robe and saw that no one was raising the price!

Seeing that no one was improving, the middle-aged man with a black screen finally breathed a sigh of relief!

Lin Keting glanced at it: "If no one raises the price, then this magic dagger belongs to this fellow Taoist!"

Chapter: 7264

"Give it to him. It's already reached one million, and no one will compete with him."

"It seems like this guy really likes him, but we can just pick up a lot of spiritual stones for nothing, and we're content with that."

"This method is really good. Even if I don't get a single treasure, I'll still be happy. Anyway, I can get the spiritual stone."

Everyone is happy and no one is raising the price!

“Fellow Taoist, this magic dagger belongs to you...”

Lin Keting looked at the middle-aged man in black robe and said!

The middle-aged man in black robe rushed over with excitement on his face, and then grabbed the magic dagger. Feeling the sinister aura inside the magic dagger, the middle-aged man in black robe’s body was shaking with excitement!

“Fellow Taoist, now that we have the things, it’s time to get the spiritual stones. Everyone is waiting!”

Lin Keting asked.

The middle-aged man in black robe was embarrassed and his expression became unnatural!

Seeing the appearance of this middle-aged man in black robe, Lin Keting immediately thought that this guy probably didn’t have that many spiritual stones and was just bidding randomly.

Others also noticed this situation, and someone immediately stood up and said: “Brother, if you can’t take out the spirit stone, put the things back, otherwise don’t blame us for being rude.”

“That’s right, if you don’t have a spirit stone, why do you ask Nahuan to do it? Are you making fun of us? Even if our strength is blocked, to kill you, one person and one kick is enough.”

“Take out the spiritual stone. If you don’t, we will kill you right away...”

Everyone was filled with indignation and prepared to attack the middle-aged man in black robe.

After all, this is related to everyone's interests. If the middle-aged man in black robe doesn't dig out the spirit stone, Lin Keting agrees, but neither does anyone else.

This is the bundling of interests, which shows that Lin Keting also has some tricks.

"No, don't worry, I didn't say not to take the spirit stone."

The middle-aged man in black robe was frightened when he saw the angry looks of everyone. If he was beaten by these people, he would probably lose his life.

"Everyone, I only have 500,000 spirit stones with me, but I can borrow them."

After the middle-aged man in black robe finished speaking, he looked at Lin Keting and said: "Girl, I will borrow five hundred thousand spiritual stones from you. I will return them to you immediately after I leave here."

"You and I are not relatives, and I don't know you. Why should I lend you the spirit stone? If you run away, who should I go to?"

Lin Keting looked at the middle-aged man in black robe feeling very ridiculous and said.

Chapter: 7265

"No, I will never run away. I can hand over a ray of my life soul in your hands. If I run away without returning the spirit stone, you can completely destroy my life soul."

The middle-aged man in black robe actually offered to borrow the spirit stone with his life soul.

This decision shocked many people. You must know that in the eyes of the monks, the life soul is just life. If you hand the life soul into the hands of others, it means that your life will be manipulated by others.

Now this middle-aged man in black robe actually wants to borrow the spirit stone with his life soul. It seems that he really intends to return the spirit stone.

Lin Keting looked at the middle-aged man in black robe and nodded and said, "Okay, I'll lend you five hundred thousand spiritual stones."

After saying that, Lin Keting threw out a storage bag with half a million spirit stones in it.

The middle-aged man in black robe gathered together his own spiritual stones and the spiritual stones given by Lin Keting, and then placed them directly on the ground.

Lin Keting distributed the millions of spirit stones according to the number of people present.

These people were holding the spiritual stones they had picked up for free, all smiling happily.

The middle-aged man in black robe stretched out his palm and slowly approached his sea of consciousness, intending to extract a ray of life soul to Lin Keting.

"No need to pledge your life soul. I believe in your words. You will return these five hundred thousand spirit stones."

Lin Keting stopped the middle-aged man in black robe.

The middle-aged man in black robe was slightly startled, then looked at Lin Keting gratefully and said, "Thank you very much, miss. I will definitely repay you with double the amount of daily chemicals."

After the middle-aged man in black robe finished speaking, he stood up and walked back. He was about to leave the battlefield of gods and demons.

Once you get the magic weapon you want, there is no point in staying on the battlefield between gods and demons. If you lose all the magic weapon, then the gain outweighs the loss.

“Girl, do you believe him so much? You must know that he is a demon cultivator, and you met by chance, and you don’t even know his identity.”

“If he simply doesn’t return the spirit stone to you, where will you find him?”

Among the crowd, the old man asked Lin Keting very puzzledly.

But who knows, Lin Keting smiled slightly and said: “If he dares not to return the spirit stone, then there will be no place for him in the entire world of heaven and man. Even if he goes to heaven and sea, I will have a way to catch him.”

Lin Keting is extremely confident. Her self-confidence is definitely not fake, but innate.

From this, we can also deduce the identity force behind Lin Keting, which is absolutely terrifying!

“Everyone, since this first stone statue contains magical weapons, I guess there must be good things in the other stone statues. Now let’s open it and take a look. No one is allowed to fight for it. The rules are still the same.”

Lin Keting said to everyone!

Everyone nodded, who dared to fight for it? The blind elder on the right was holding a sword and watching with eager eyes. If anyone made any move, he would strike with his sword!

Chapter: 7266

Seeing that everyone agreed, Lin Keting looked at Elder You Blind and said: "Elder You Blind, you..."

"I'll do it this time..."

Chen Ping didn't wait for Lin Keting to finish speaking and stood up directly!

He also wanted to test his sword power to see if he could cut open the stone statue in front of him.

Lin Keting nodded, and then waved her hand to ask the blind elder to retreat!

Chen Ping was holding the Dragon-Slaying Sword. He didn't know how to unleash his sword power. When killing those sand scorpions, he relied on his feeling!

Now if he deliberately used his sword intention, Chen Ping might not be able to do it.

Chen Ping stared at the stone statue and suddenly slashed out with his sword!

"cut....."

Following Chen Ping's roar, the Dragon-Slaying Sword struck the stone statue fiercely!

The head of the stone statue was directly chopped into pieces, but there was no damage to the body of the stone statue.

Just now, Chen Ping just used brute force to chop directly on the stone statue.

He did not display his sword intent.

But being able to split the head of a stone statue into pieces with just brute force is impressive.

“Boy, you can’t use your sword?”

Upon seeing this, the right blind elder asked slightly sarcastically.

Chen Ping did not speak, but once again used the dragon-slaying sword to slash at the stone statue.

Dang Dang Dang.....

Chen Ping slashed several times with his sword. Although the stone statue was finally broken into pieces, it was not with the sword’s will. The ones he slashed with one sword were all smashed open by Chen Ping with brute force!

If the Dragon-Slaying Sword wasn’t a magical weapon, smashing the stone statue open in this way would probably have damaged the sword in his hand.

The stone statue was broken, and inside was a battle axe, glowing with a cold light.

Lin Keting used the same method to sell the battle ax. Of course, everyone would share the spirit stone equally!

Chen Ping was holding the Dragon-Slaying Sword, and his mood had never been very high. He didn't understand why he suddenly couldn't use the sword's intention?

“Senior, what exactly is sword intent?”

Chapter: 7267

Chen Ping could only ask Demon Lord Chiyun to see if he understood.

“Don't ask me, how do I know that thing? I don't have any use for it. Who can seal my strength?”

Demon Lord Chiyun shook his head quickly!

But what he said is true. If the strength is there and it is not sealed, there is no way to use the sword intention.

Things like sword intention are probably used most in the secular world. After all, they are ordinary people and have no spiritual assistance. They can only rely on practicing sword intention to improve their strength.

It should be similar to the state where man and sword merge into one.

While Chen Ping was meditating on the meaning of the sword, the third stone statue was also opened by Elder Youblind, and the contents inside were also sold.

Chen Ping did nothing. By the time he reacted, he had already earned tens of thousands of spiritual stones in vain.

But Chen Ping didn't seem happy either. After all, those few blows he had just made were a bit embarrassing.

"Still thinking about Jianyi?"

Lin Keting saw Chen Ping's thoughts and asked.

Chen Ping nodded: "What exactly is the sword intention?"

"I don't know, I haven't cultivated sword intention." Lin Keting waved her hands quickly.

The blind elder on the right smiled and said: "Boy, the sword's intention can only be understood but cannot be expressed in words. I will give you another sword strike to see if you can understand the mystery. That is your own business."

The right-blind elder said, raising the long sword in his hand to strike out!

But before he could take action, the sword in Elder You's hand began to shake violently, causing Elder You's expression to change drastically.

"Elder Right Blind, what's wrong?"

Lin Keting asked quickly.

“Miss, Blind Zuo must be in danger outside.”

The right blind elder said.

“Danger?” Lin Keting frowned slightly: “Did he get into trouble again? Go out and have a look immediately and try to stop him so that he doesn’t get into trouble again.”

“Miss, what should you do?” Elder You Blind asked.

“Don’t worry, he’s still here, and I still have life-saving things in my hand. Everything will be fine.”

Lin Keting pointed at Chen Ping and said.

Chapter: 7268

The right-blind elder glanced at Chen Ping, and then said: “Boy, protect our eldest lady. If our eldest lady makes any mistakes, there will be no place for you in the entire world of heaven and humans.”

After saying that, the right blind elder quickly ran towards the entrance of the battlefield of gods and demons!

Chen Ping, on the other hand, was speechless. Who had he provoked? Why did he suddenly start to take responsibility?

Seeing Chen Ping like that, Lin Keting smiled slightly and said, “Don’t worry, he is just scaring you, nothing will happen to you. Even if something happens to me, it has nothing to do with you.”

“As long as I’m here, nothing will happen to any of you.”

Chen Ping patted his chest and started to brag.

When everyone heard Chen Ping's words, they all expressed their intention to follow him together. They all saw the broken stone statue that Chen Ping had just smashed with his sword!

Without spiritual power, Chen Ping still has such strong physical strength. If there is any danger, Chen Ping can still stop it.

So everyone chose to follow. The main reason was that if they couldn't get the treasure, they could still get the spirit stone, so there was no loss at all. These people were still very good at settling accounts.

Lin Keting did not refuse anyone who came, and then she led everyone on the road.

Outside the battlefield of gods and demons!

Elder Zuo Blind followed Tiansha and Tianluo and fought hard.

There were several sword-wielding monks, four of whom were seriously injured and fell to the ground without knowing whether to live or die. But even so, none of the sword-wielding monks flinched!

Elder Zuo Blind also became angry, and the sword in his hand kept attacking like thunder!

But with the cooperation of Tiansha and Tianluo, Elder Zuo Blind was still at a disadvantage!

Blood has begun to flow out of his left arm. The blind elder Zuo is injured!

“Damn it, I don’t know if the blind man on the right has received my message and is here to help. I’m probably going to run away, or I’ll really die in the hands of these two little bastards.”

Elder Blind Zuo prayed in his heart, hoping that Elder Blind Right had received his message!

Although he thought so in his heart, there was no fear on Elder Zuo Blind’s face, and he still yelled and cursed!

I’m timid in my heart, but I can’t be timid in terms of momentum!

“Old guy, you have such a fucking tough mouth. Let’s tear your mouth apart later and see how you continue to yell and curse.”

Tianluo was already so angry that he died!

A fight is a fight. After fighting for a long time, eight generations of my ancestors were scolded by Elder Zuo Blind. It was so irritating.

“You little bastard, if you still want to tear Grandpa’s mouth apart, you don’t even know what your own moral character is.”

“I scolded eight generations of your ancestors. It was your ancestors who accumulated virtue. Do you think I scold everyone?”

Elder Zuo Blind held his sword and floated in mid-air, sneering at Tianluo.

“Fuck you...”

Tian Luo was going crazy. He directly held the sword and attacked Elder Zuo Blind fiercely. The speed was extremely fast. This was because he was angry.

Chapter: 7269

When Tiansha saw this, he also stepped forward with his sword in hand, and the two of them went straight to Elder Zuo Blind.

The blind elder Zuo frowned slightly. If he continued to fight, he would definitely lose.

But now that he turned around and ran away, he was a little worried about his face.

Just when Elder Zuo Blind didn't know whether to fight or flee, a figure suddenly appeared.

"Who are you? You actually attacked the blind man Zuo?"

The right blind elder waved his palm and forced Tianluo and Tiansha to retreat and asked.

When Tianluo Tiansha saw Elder Blind Zuo coming to help, he quickly backed away and looked at Elder Blind Right.

When the blind elder from the left saw the blind elder from the right coming, all thoughts of escaping were wiped away. He immediately pointed at Tianluo and said arrogantly: "Grandson, aren't you going to tear my mouth apart?"

“Grandpa, stand still here. If you have the ability, come over. Come on, come on...”

Elder Zuo Blind raised his fingers towards Tianluo, with a strong sense of provocation.

“Blind Zuo, don’t always cause trouble with cats and dogs. The eldest lady told me not to cause trouble.”

The blind elder on the right was furious when he saw the blind elder on the left. This guy was so capable of causing trouble.

“Right blind man, I didn’t cause any trouble. These two grandsons are from the Demon Sealing Alliance and they injured the eldest lady’s guard. Can you spare them?”

Elder Zuo Blind said.

“What? People from the Demon Sealing Alliance?”

“Fuck him...”

The right-blind elder jumped up, grabbed a spiritual sword out of thin air, and attacked Tiansha and Tianluo.

The blind elder Zuo smiled and rushed forward.

Tiansha and Tianluo were confused. He didn’t understand why these two guys hated the Demon Sealing Alliance so much.

They originally wanted to use the Demon Sealing Alliance to scare each other, but now they have directly angered each other!

Seeing this, Tiansha quickly took out the jade slips that conveyed the message and started moving reinforcements.

He knew that the two of them were absolutely no match.

Tianluo Tiansha retreated while fighting, not wanting to fight.

But the blind elder Zuo and the blind right elder were like dog skin plaster, tightly wrapped around the two people.

Chapter: 7270

The melee continues.

.....

In the battlefield between gods and demons!

Chen Ping followed Lin Keting and led everyone to continue moving forward in the battlefield of gods and demons!

After passing through the valley, everyone's eyes turned out to be a vast expanse of white, and an endless snowfield appeared.

Seeing this scene, everyone frowned!

Not long after I came here, I experienced several regional features.

“Could these be hallucinations? Our strength has been sealed now. Even if it is a small illusion, we may not be able to break free and be trapped inside.”

“How is it possible that several regional styles can appear in a small ruins?”

In the crowd, the old man said with some confusion.

“This is not an illusion!” Chen Ping shook his head.

“How do you know it’s not an illusion?”

The old man looked at Chen Ping in surprise.

“Because I am a formation master. Even without spiritual power, ordinary formations cannot escape my eyes.”

Chen Ping said truthfully.

“Array Master?”

Everyone was very surprised to hear that Chen Ping was a formation master.

After all, in the world of gods and humans, formation mages are also very rare.

“Look, there are footprints on the snow. Has someone been here a long time ago?”

At this time, someone shouted.

Everyone hurried over and found a row of footprints on the snow. However, the footprints were very shallow. It was estimated that they had been partially buried by the snow for a long time.

“The footprints are no longer clear. It seems that someone has been here a long time ago. I’m afraid it will be difficult for us to find the treasure now.”

The old man sighed, his face full of disappointment!

If someone entered in advance, some treasures would also be taken away by the other party.
