

The Power 151

Chapter 151 Qingqing

Princess Huayang and County Princess Huihe had radiance in their eyes. They and Xue Wanqing were admiring everyone. They felt that today was not a waste of time. Fortunately, they listened to Xue Wanqing's words and stood up. She said There is no mistake, as relatives of the emperor, this is the world, they are boats, and the people are water, water can carry a boat and capsize it.

They avenge the grievances of the common people, and it is their duty to eradicate the evil and the strong.

The guards of Xie's family brought the mare and pony over. Xie Zhiwei found a tea shed in a remote corner of the horse market, and sat down, feeling as sick as eating flies, but he couldn't just go back like this.

"Didn't you say you want to buy some Hequ horses? Why don't you go and have a look?" Xie Zhiwei asked.

Xiao Xun sat on the bench, with one foot on the crossbar of the bench, and his elbow resting on his knee. His face was full of impatience, and he said in a vicious voice, "If you don't go, how can you go?"

"Then what about the Hequ horses you want?" Xie Zhiwei asked. Originally, she also wanted to buy a few Hequ horses back home. Right now, it doesn't seem suitable. People who pass by are all looking at them, making people very uncomfortable. .

"Yang Yunqi is here, let him stay here, let's go!" After Xiao Xun finished speaking, he stood up.

Not far away, a sedan chair was moving towards this side quickly. It was obvious at a glance that the county magistrate of Suanzao County got the news and rushed over.

Xiao Xun and others naturally didn't want to deal with a county magistrate, and they didn't even buy a horse, and left immediately, as if a hundred thousand pursuers were chasing after them. Along the way, everyone felt bad luck.

Xu Liang said angrily, "It's still early in the morning. As a result, let alone the Hequ horse, I didn't even see the horse hair. I said, who attracted the female plague god?"

Xie Zhiwei didn't speak, the oncoming wind blew the veil on her face, making her breathing difficult.

Mu Guihong glanced at Xiao Xun wordlessly, Xiao Xun swung his whip at him, not intending to deflect Mu Guihong's whip and hit the white horse under his crotch.

The horse was startled, neighed, and rushed forward a long way, Mu Guihong's voice came over with the wind, "Ah Xun, you beat my Yinshuang to death, and then your flying snow fell, You have to give me one."

Xiao Xun didn't bother to talk to him, and said to Xie Zhiwei, "Master, today I let you go home empty-handed, my Feixue is about to give birth, and when the pony is full moon, I will give you one."

"Hey, hey, don't, I made an appointment first." Mu Guihong was so anxious that he pulled the reins hastily and slowed down the horse.

Xie Zhiwei looked at Feiyun Zou under Xiao Xun's crotch, and Xiao Xun seemed to see her doubts, and explained, "It's not Feiyun, it's Feixue, and Feixue is also a thousand-mile horse, very psychic. The cub shouldn't be bad."

Mu Guihong finally waited for them, and explained to Xie Zhiwei next to him, "The father of Feixue's child is Feiyun, and Feiyun is also a good horse. He saved Ah Xun's life on the battlefield. I will wait for this child to wait for him." It's been a long time, county lord, or you can wait until the next child!"

Xie Zhi smiled a little. Why didn't she want a good horse delivered to her door?

"Mu Xiaowang, if you can give me Feixue's baby, when you go to the battlefield someday, I will make you a bottle of good wound medicine, the kind that saves your life, how about it?"

Oh, it's so hard to choose between a good horse and a life-saving medicine!

Xu Liang said on the side, "Master, didn't you take my pulse last time and say that I have a slippery pulse? I am a man, and you can actually give me a slippery pulse. The medicine you made can save my life? You're not lying to Little Prince Mu, are you?"

"Shut up!" Xiao Xun recalled being bullied by Xu Liang back then, without even saying hello, he directly touched Xie Zhiwei and sisters, but was killed by Xie Zhiwei back, and made such a big embarrassment, so he couldn't get angry. At one point, he glanced out of the corner of his eye, seeing Xie Zhi smiling so that his eyes narrowed into a line, he couldn't help laughing.

"What's the matter? Ah, what's the matter? Don't you tell me something funny?" Little Prince Mu asked, not caring about the little pony, and hurried over to stand shoulder to shoulder with Xu Liang.

Xu Liang recalled that day when he was frightened out of his wits, thinking that he was wronged because of his near death, so he talked about it, and only skipped the matter of touching porcelain.

Mu Guihong didn't wait for Xu Liang to finish, he laughed and stroked Xu Liang's shoulder, "Oh, my mother, I have known you for so many years, I really don't know you are a beauty! Beauty, and don't tell the truth, whose seed is in the belly?"

Zi Mo rode a horse and followed the girl, holding back his stomachache from laughing.

However, Mu Guihong was still bathed in Xu Liang's murderous eyes, but he hadn't heard such a joke for many years, and his interest still remained undiminished, "Liang Qingqing, isn't this son treating you well enough? I promise you my son The position of concubine, you are still stealing people behind my son's back, and you are pregnant with his flesh and blood, tell me, are you worthy of my son's infatuation?"

Mu Guihong sang very well, Xie Zhiwei finally couldn't hold it any longer, lay on the horse and laughed, shaking his body, Xiao Xun saw that he was frightened, and whipped towards Mu Guihong's horse, "Why do you How about so many plays?"

Seeing that Xie Zhiwei was about to fall off the horse, Xiao Xun hurriedly stretched out his hand to pull her back, and seeing that she sat upright quickly, he couldn't help but annoyed, "Stop laughing, what's so funny, just fall carefully!"

At this moment, Mo Hen chased after him quickly, and shouted, "Your Highness, Your Highness, the Young Master was entangled by that kicker, and told us to wait for him in the tea house five miles south after leaving the city." !"

Xiao Xun scanned around, but he didn't see Cao Yunci, he couldn't help wondering, "When did he disappear?"

Xie Zhiwei always felt that Xiao Xun couldn't speak, and the eldest son of the Marquis of Wu'an's mansion was alive and well, so what is "gone"? However, Cao Yunci was really absent, and he must have missed them when they fled.

"The nuns are still waiting at the inn, should we go around or pass through the city? Let the nuns also wait for us at the tea house outside the city?" Zi Mo asked.

Xie Zhiwei nodded, "Let someone hurry up and say something, the nuns must be already preparing."

Xie Zhiwei came here this time, bringing Guanshi Tong, who is under forty years old, and is the head of Nanny Tong in Xie Zhiwei's yard.

In the previous life, Guanshi Tong's family was her dowry, because Nanny Tong gave her a few words in front of her, telling her to take care of herself and not be too single-minded about being a human being. She didn't like this kind of tactful person very much, and treated the Tong family at a distance. Later, when the Xie family was in trouble, Xue Wanqing asked the Tong family to vote for her.

In this life, Xie Zhiwei will naturally not treat those who were loyal to her in the previous life badly. When she came, she left Nanny Tong at home and asked Guanshi Tong to come and take charge.

Chapter 152 Shallow

The Tong family also has a son and a daughter. The eldest is a son, who is about ten years old, and the youngest is a daughter.

A few days ago, Nanny Tong led her children into the yard to kowtow to Xie Zhiwei. Xie Zhiwei named his son Xiaofeng and his daughter Qianmei, and left Qianmei in the yard to take orders with Gantang. After showing it to Yuan Shi, he sent it to his younger brother's yard.

For this, Nanny Tong was very grateful. This time, Guanshi Tong did his best. Xie Zhiwei also left four guards for Guanshi Tong. Naturally, he was not afraid that five people would not be able to * two horses back to the capital.

Zi Mo quickly rode over the crowd and went to the city. Her riding skills were heroic on the horse, and Mu Guihong praised her, "Master, you are not an easy maid. Your riding skills are better than some men."

Xie Zhi smiled, Zimo and Yaotao are maidservants left by her mother, their father and brother both help raise horses in the Cui family, and they are very good at riding, which is nothing more than normal.

The group of people did not enter the city, but detoured to the teahouse in the south from the official road outside the city.

It was past noon at this time, and there were not many people coming and going. There were no guests in the teahouse for the time being, only Xie Zhiwei and a group of people came.

The teahouse was opened by an old couple. It was a grass shed supported by wood. Two stoves were set up by the side of the road. One was used to make tea and the other was used to steam noodles. Under the small shed, there were three or four tables. table.

Xie Zhiwei waited for a few masters to sit at a table, and because Zi Mo was not there, Mo Hen poured tea for Xiao Xun and Xie Zhiwei, and Mu Guihong and Xu Liang had their own servants to serve them, but these four were all at home People who are used to rich clothes and fine food are just resting in this place, how can they really drink the tea here?

After a while, Mother Qiu and others arrived, and Mother Qiu hurriedly took the cushions out of the car, and called the maids to come out with a tea set made of mahogany, and took out the red clay stove, tea set, and pine cones from inside. Boxes, a grimacing green tea urn filled with mountain spring water, placed on the table one by one.

Braun went to clean his hands, and soon set up a small stove on the table. The pine cones were lit, and the smell filled the shed.

The three teenagers were stunned seeing this series of actions, thinking in unison, could it be that this is the difference between the honorable family and the aristocratic family? Although they are all brocade clothes and jade food, there are also three or six grades in this brocade clothes and jade food.

"Go get two more tea bowls and pour a cup of tea for Prince Mu and Shizi Xu." Xie Zhiwei ordered,

Begonia-style carved lacquer filled Jin Yunlong holding peaches small tea tray There are only two tea bowls, Xie Zhiwei's maids did not prepare tea bowls for Mu Guihong and Xu Liang because they did not have the master's order.

There is no reason to let others watch her drinking tea.

Mu Guihong saw the two tea bowls brought by Bai Ling, as if he had discovered a new world, and said dissatisfiedly, "Why do we know each other for about the same time, and Ah Xun has his own tea bowl, but I don't? I don't agree!"

"I'm not convinced either, Little Prince Mu, I didn't say that when I met the county magistrate, I didn't have anything to do with you!" Xu Liang also booed.

"Hehe, Liangqingqing, you can do it, you are so proud of being favored, and you are arguing with the Lord?" Mu Guihong reached out to pick Xu Liang's chin, imitating the behavior of molesting a woman from a good family, Xu Liang was angry He slapped his hand violently, "Little prince, you are quite skilled at this hand, where did you learn it?"

"I learned it from you, have you forgotten?"

Is this not over yet? Xu Liang got angry, and when he got up, he was about to fight Mu Guihong. Xiao Xun patted the table, "If you drink tea, drink it well, if you don't drink it, go outside and fight!"

The two settled down, and saw the servant girl pouring tea for Xiao Xun with a bowl covered with green lake water, pink flowers, and nine peaches, while Xie Zhiwei used a white porcelain teacup with a gold-painted hollowed-out belt holder, which looked very unusual, while he himself The two of them seem to be very ordinary.

Xie Zhiwei picked up the tea bowl, took a sip of the sweet and fragrant Longjing, glanced at the two teacups with half-closed eyes, and asked Zi Mo, "Are there any other tea bowls? How can I use these two? Hurry up and replace the two newly prepared tea bowls with blue enamel pinch gold thread for Lord Mu and Shizi Xu."

The corners of Zi Mo's eyes twitched, and without saying a word, he put away the two blue-gray tea cups, and then brought two colorful blue tea bowls from the carriage.

These two looked very good-looking, and the young prince Mu also felt that his breath was smooth. After the tea was poured, he took a sip and sighed comfortably, "The water used to make the tea is the rainwater from the old year, right?" ? It's quite frivolous when you drink it, and ordinary water is not so frivolous."

"Young Master Mu really tastes good, but this water is not the rainwater from the old years, but the water from Yuquan Mountain outside the city. Since I don't like to use rainwater to make tea, I didn't collect this rootless water. "

Xiao Xun was interested in drinking tea with his exclusive lake green teacup, and there were not many people around here, Xie Zhiwei took off the veil covering her face, her lips seemed to be stained with begonia red, with a little tea, It looks more moist and matte.

Xiao Xun took a look, his eyes became a little dark, turned his head away, looked at the official road not far away, thinking, what was he thinking?

Because Xu Liang suffered a loss in Xie Zhiwei's hands once, and when Xie Zhiwei's maid received the two humble teacups just now, his eyes were particularly meaningful, so he couldn't help asking, "County Lord, are those two Could it be that the teacup has some origins?"

Xie Zhi smiled but didn't answer, Zi Mo said angrily, "Of course there is a history, which one our girl uses has no history? Those are the flower cups made by the Dendrobium of the previous dynasty, and this is the only pair in the world Well. These two can be bought for a tael of silver, no wonder the little prince and the eldest son like them."

"You girl, what nonsense are you talking about?" Xie Zhiwei scolded, "The two masters have no rules at all."

"Oh, don't..." Mu Guihong waved his hands, "It's our eyes that are stupid."

Can't help feeling very regretful, drinking tea and having a romantic relationship, it is because they are superficial and embarrassing.

There was a lot of people on the official road, and the heads of horses were seen moving one after another. After a while, they also saw a carriage approaching. It was known that those people must have rushed over.

The tea was almost finished, and Mother Qiu asked the maids to put away all the tea sets, so as not to be contaminated by the raised dust.

Seeing Xue's dilapidated carriage, Xie Zhiwei frowned deeply, and looked away.

After a while, hearing Xiao Xun's angry "Get out", Xie Zhiwei raised his eyes and saw Xue Wanqing standing still a few steps away, bowed to this side, ignored Xiao Xun, and said to Xie Zhiwei, "Daddy Cousin, I heard that you know a little bit about medicine, and Hero Lu's arm was kicked off again by those cruel officials just now, and now the pain is unbearable, can I ask big cousin to help me?"

"Hehe!" Mu Guihong is now annoyed to death by Xue Wanqing, he managed to come here, but he didn't see a good horse, and he wanted to flee back to the capital like a refugee, isn't it thanks to this person in front of him?

Chapter 153 Getting Married

"Miss Xue, if you want to do good deeds, you can do it yourself. What do you mean by dragging everyone into trouble?" Mu Guihong said very bluntly.

"Young Lord Mu, please be careful!" Princess Huayang came over, holding a whip in his hand, looking at the heroic figure, "As you and I are, don't forget at all times, who is supporting us?" People, Mencius said, "The people are the most important, the community is second, and the king is the least." Now we have seen with our own eyes that the officials in Suanzao County colluded with bullies to bully the people and turned a blind eye. Isn't Lord Mu afraid of drowning in the spittle of the officials?"

The anger in Xiao Xun's body was almost substantive. He took a deep look at Xue Wanqing, as if seeing a pile of stinky shit, put the tea bowl in his hand on the table, got up and said, "Let's go!"

Even so, he didn't intend to bother with these idiots.

Xie Zhiwei got up, and whispered to Mother Qiu, "Take all the things back and wash them. It's getting late. Let's go back to Beijing early. I'm afraid we won't be able to enter the city gate."

After finishing speaking, Zi Mo came over to support her, ready to get into the carriage.

"Big cousin, it is said that doctors are benevolent. Presumably, big cousin learned her medical skills from the Cui family, right? I wonder if the Cui family will also evaluate people when they see a doctor, to see if this person's life is worth it or not." Should it be treated?"

Xue Wanqing was not the only one who recognized Lu Zhonglian's identity, Xie Zhiwei also recognized it, she also remembered the previous life, it was Xiao Xun who rescued Lu Zhonglian from death row, and later Lu Zhonglian devoted himself to Xue Wanqing.

When we were in Mashi just now, Xie Zhiwei didn't care, but at this moment, seeing Xue Wanqing actually brought Lu Zhonglian out, she is a daughter of the uncle's family, and gathered a wandering knight by her side, what does she want to do?

Xie Zhiwei couldn't help but think, why would Xue Shipeng, a person who hangs around the Qinlou and Chu Pavilion all the year round, bring his guards to Tiewei Mountain for no reason, just to save Lu

Yan's life? Who told him that Lu Yan would be assassinated when he accompanied the emperor in micro-clothes on a tour in Tiewei Mountain?

And that white tiger!

Xie Zhiwei narrowed her eyes when she saw Xue Wanqing. She and Xue Wanqing had been under the same roof for five years, but she couldn't see through him more and more. Could it be that she is the same as herself?

Xie Zhiwei clenched his fists. If so, it would be great. They meet again on the battlefield. This time, let them fight once again!

"The Cui family is a well-known doctor for generations, and the world knows it. It's hard for Miss Xue to care about my family. It's just that my uncle thinks that I am a woman, and it is really not suitable to show my face to save lives and heal the wounded. I have the mercy of my grandfather's family. Pity me, a woman who only looks forward to it. As long as I am safe and well, I don't need to learn these tiring medical skills, so I didn't teach them. This is not far from the capital, Qianjintang and Huichuntang have doctors who are good at traumatic injuries. I think that since Hero Lu is a knight, he should have the ability to scrape bones to heal wounds, this kind of pain should be bearable."

Xie Zhiwei smiled, "If Miss Xue is really distressed, let's see if there is someone who can set the bones in the guards. If they can straighten the bones, the pain will not be unbearable."

Xue Wanqing didn't understand the meaning of Xie Zhiwei's words, but Lu Zhonglian was a sensible person. When he heard the word "distressed", he had to stand up and salute Xie Zhiwei, "I didn't know it was the county lord, I'm sorry! County lord Since she and Miss Xue are cousins, she should not humiliate Miss Xue in words. Miss Xue is kind-hearted and compassionate, and she can't see the suffering of people in the world. Please help me, there is really no such thing as 'distressed' in the mouth of the county magistrate."

The fate in this world is really ridiculous!

Xie Zhiwei glanced at Lu Zhonglian lightly, and sneered, "Even so, the hero Lu will suffer!"

After finishing speaking, she came out of the teahouse, Xiao Xun followed behind her, put her thumb and index finger together and blew in her mouth, a loud and clear whistle sounded, and Feiyun who didn't know where to hide and ate grass rattled. Coming over, he arched Xiao Xun's body with his muzzle and nose, as if to say, "I'm coming!"

Xie Zhiwei looked enviously, and at this moment, his thoughts of wanting Xiao Xun's little pony to fight against Mu Guihong were agitated. He wondered what the offspring of Feiyun and Feixue would be like?

Should be so aura, right?

Xue Wanqing glanced at Xie Zhiwei sympathetically, and felt that her eldest cousin was really as stupid as in the book, and she actually believed in the idea that a woman who has no talent is virtue. No matter a man or a woman, no matter in any era, one has the ability, not to mention anything else, at least has the capital to live in the world. Does she really think that the three obediences and four virtues can save her life?

What an idiot!

Xue Wanqing didn't bother to talk to Xie Zhiwei, and she didn't really want Xie Zhiwei to heal Lu Zhonglian's arm. Whether she has the ability to do so is up for grabs, and the book didn't say that Xie Zhiwei would detoxify, and Lu Yan's eunuch's poison, Xie Zhiwei I also said that it just so happens that the Cui family has a detoxification formula for hook kisses, and Xie Zhiwei is just a blind cat catching a dead mouse.

Xue Wanqing's move was firstly to buy Lu Zhonglian's heart, and secondly, to make Xiao Xun look at her with admiration. A person must at least have a kind heart. Which man doesn't like a kind woman?

"The prince of the county!" Xue Wanqing stopped Xiao Xun, "Wanqing wants to recommend someone to the prince of the county..."

"Oh?" Xiao Xun laughed angrily. Is this woman sick? She hangs around in front of him twice a day, and he casts his eyes on Lu Zhonglian, "Why, do you want to recommend him to the king? Are you so important?"

Seeing that the dog Xiao Xun was about to be unable to spit out ivory, the county magistrate Huihe, who had already looked at Xue Wanqing with admiration, hurriedly said, "Ah Xun, Miss Xue has a kind intention, just accept it if you are willing to accept it!"

"Wanqing originally thought that the prince of the county was young and talented, he was appreciated by the emperor, and he had a heart for the country and the people. I don't want to, it is Wanqing who has seen the prince of the county!"

"Hey!" Mu Guihong couldn't help laughing, and pushed Xiao Xun, "Ah Xun, let's go, why are you talking so much nonsense?"

He took two steps, turned his head and said to Xue Wanqing, "Miss Xue must be talented if she can write such a beautiful sentence as 'Autumn Window and Wind and Rain'. Yes, in the future, please don't think highly of us, it's best to stay away from us!"

"Not bad, not bad!" Xu Liang covered his face with his sleeve, "Don't know me, don't know me!"

Seeing Xiao Xun and others leave together around Xie Zhiwei's carriage, Hui He jumped up and down in anger, she was full of unwillingness, and said angrily, "The Xie family is still a big family, bah, I have never seen a girl from any family before, Being with a group of men is so inseparable."

Xue Wanqing smiled, walked over, and said gently, "Huihe, you don't have to blame others, just ask yourself, if you feel unwilling, go after it boldly, but I advise you, it's not good for cousins to get married."

Chapter 154 Mind

Huihe was stunned by Xue Wanqing's words, inevitably embarrassed and angry, stomped his feet and said, "I don't understand what you are talking about!"

"I'm telling you the truth. I've heard from my cousin about this matter before, saying that the ancestors of the Cui family had done research, and cousins got married, which is not good for offspring, resulting in deformed children or offspring with mental disabilities. very likely."

Huihe was so frightened that her eyes widened. She tried her best to think of several examples of cousins getting married. Among them, she heard that a nephew from an aunt's family was married to cousins. My aunt died laughing, and said it every day.

"Huihe, listen to me, women should bravely pursue their own happiness, but the premise is that this man takes himself seriously, and you are sure that you can handle this man, otherwise, everything will be in vain. What's more, you look at that person's goodness and that kindness, but it's just a kind of thinking that you can't get what you want. If you think about it carefully, is this the truth? You are still young, and you don't know what love is at all!"

Huihe's eyeballs were about to pop out, her face was flushed, but luckily no one was eavesdropping, she kept this thought in her heart for a long time, the more Xiao Xun dismissed her, the more unwilling she was, Thinking about it now, it was just a trick she always loved to play when she was a child. The more she couldn't get it, the more she wanted it.

"Then tell me, what is...well, that...love?" Huihe still didn't dare to say that word casually.

After all, it's the little girl's mind!

"Love!" Xue Wanqing smiled, "How should I put it? When you fall in love with someone with all your heart, you can experience it! That's a kind, how should I say it?"

Xue Wanqing hummed softly: "Love is in a daze

When the world first opened

The rose that has already bloomed

Love is to break through the world of mortals and look forward to the autumn water

Just because the one you love doesn't say you regret it

Love is a lifetime

reincarnation again and again

Regardless of whether it is in the southeast or northwest

Love is a paragraph

A trace of right and wrong

Teach lovers never to be able to say goodbye..."

Xue Wanqing's voice was very low and soft, but it fell into Huihe's ears, like a Sanskrit sound, and Huihe felt insane.

A feeling of heart palpitations that she had never felt before, every drop of blood in her body was boiling, she looked at Xue Wanqing adoringly, she just thought, why does this young lady in front of her who is younger than herself know everything?

She knows her suffering, and understands her own pain, and she guides herself to a bright path.

And in my life, will I really meet such a person? If it is possible, then I am really willing to die for him!

"What are you talking about? Just keep it from me?" Princess Huayang walked over, Huihe realized that she was dying of shame at this moment, and looked at Xue Wanqing for help.

Xue Wanqing gave her a look that reassured her, and said with a smile, "We are saying that there are lovers in the world who will eventually get married!"

Princess Huayang couldn't help but see that person in front of him. He had been waving a fan all year round, looking at the foolishness, but he was always out of shape. Thinking of the person who once helped him to prevent himself from falling into the water, Hua Yang's face turned red, he was embarrassed, and urged, "Let's go, it will be too late, I'm afraid we won't be able to enter the city!"

Xie Zhiwei and the others walked in front, and Cao Yunci and Xue Wanqing and the others followed. On the way, they complained several times, "Is this Miss Xue sick? You are all gone, and she actually made the pregnant woman ten months pregnant?" The county magistrate brought me in front of me, and the county magistrate bowed to me. He said in front of me that he had been the county magistrate for nine years. There are more than 300 households, and now there are more than 1,000 households, and they all catch up with Yunyun in Shangxian County, which confuses me!"

The little marquis walked halfway and didn't come back to his senses. Xiao Xun was annoyed by his nagging. He had a stomachache and hadn't recovered yet, so he got into Xie Zhiwei's car.

He didn't know if he had become a thief the first night, and he began to doze off after getting in the carriage, his head was moving, and his body was swaying back and forth with the carriage.

Xie Zhiwei looked at the damage on his bright red lips, feeling a little embarrassed on the one hand, but on the other hand worried that if he did it again, would it be scratched again?

A group of people rushed into Zhu Nanxun Gate before the sun set, and after entering the Zhuque Gate in the inner city, they went up Nanmen Street. Mu Guihong knocked on the wall of the car with a whip and shouted, "Ah Xun, I He and Xu Liang left first, you send the county master back?"

Xiao Xun finally opened his eyes. He looked around in a hazy way. After seeing Xie Zhiwei, he realized where he was. He didn't know if he heard Mu Guihong's words clearly, so he let out a "huh", there was an eager sound of horseshoes outside, and it seemed that Mu Guihong and the others ran away in haste.

When the car arrived at the crossroads in front of Hengjie, it was about to turn right into Tianshuijing Street, and Prince Xiang's Mansion was on Yuelu Street in Xingguofang, Xie Zhiwei reminded, "Since the prince is tired, why don't you just get off here. I'm almost there anyway."

Xiao Xun let out a "hmm" in high spirits and lack of money again, lifted the curtain of the carriage and looked out, "You're back so soon?"

Xie Zhiwei said inwardly, is this fast?

She was worried that Xiao Xun would not get out of the car, when she heard him yell, "Stop", the carriage stopped, and he kept busy, this time nothing happened, turned over and got on the horse very nimbly, without seeing anything. As he said just now, the weakness of not being able to sit on horseback made Xie Zhiwei realize what life is like.

Xiao Xun got on the horse, and did not turn around, instead, he accompanied the carriage and walked towards Tianshuijing Street, Xie Zhiwei opened the curtain of the carriage to look at him, and asked, "Your Majesty, why don't you go back, and still go this way? "

"Oh, casually, it's still early, so I'm not in a hurry to go back."

Xie Zhiwei didn't bother to pay attention to him, when he arrived at Xie's house, the carriage went straight into the east corner gate, Xie Zhiwei looked back again, and saw Xiao Xun immediately at the east corner gate, made eye contact with her, and stared at each other for a while, when Xie Zhiwei slightly. When he was at ease, he turned the horse's head, patted the horse, and left.

Xie Zhiwei lowered the curtain, the car stopped in front of Yimen, got out of the car, and saw Mother Tian who came to pick her up, she asked, "Where's mother?"

"My wife was waiting in the yard. I just accidentally fell down. A while ago, she was complaining about her leg pain. Now she said she was going to come, but the servants had the courage to stop her, so she didn't come."

Xie Zhiwei became anxious when he heard this, and hurried towards Fuyun Courtyard, and asked, "What's going on? How did you fall? Did the doctor take a look?"

"After hearing what the girl said, I invited the old doctor Chen from Huichuntang. He came to see it and said that the bone was a little damaged, but everything else is fine. Please don't move it for the next few days, for fear of falling into the root cause of the disease."

Today's update!

I don't need to say this song, everyone knows it, right? "There Are Lovers in the World", I remember it was sung by Zhou Huajian and Qi Yu, it is a very old song, let me borrow it.

Xiao Xun: Girls who pass by, leave Piao Piao behind, their lips are broken, and Piao Piao needs to be repaired!

"That's it!" Xie Zhiwei walked into the door of Fuyun Courtyard in a few steps, and when she entered the courtyard, she started running. Seeing that there was no one in the room, she rushed into Xici Room and rushed to Yuan Shi, "Mother, What's going on? How could you be so careless? Is there any injury besides the leg?"

"No, nothing!"

Yuan Shi said it was fine, but when Xie Zhiwei held her arm, seeing her frown fiercely, she hurriedly got up, rolled up Yuan Shi's sleeves, and saw that there was a big scratch on her arm, which was soaked. When the blood came, I couldn't help but gasped, tears rolled in my eyes.

"Zi Mo, go to my pharmacy and get that green ointment in a glass bottle."

"Yes, girl!" Zi Mo looked at the large bruise, felt very sorry for his wife, and left quickly.

Xie Zhiwei touched Yuan's whole body again, and saw a little bruise on his forehead, so he knew that Yuan's reckoned that men and women were different, so he only asked old doctor Chen to help look at the legs, and other places No injuries were mentioned.

Zi Mo quickly brought the ointment, Xie Zhiwei asked someone to prepare warm water, washed Yuan Shi's wound again, and then carefully applied the ointment on Yuan Shi, and told Nanny Tian, "Apply it every morning and evening. , Try not to get wet when taking a bath, scabs will form in two or three days, and it will be fine in six or seven days, without leaving scars."

Nurse Tian held her hands together, and said with a smile, "The girl is so filial to the wife, and the servants are also happy to see it."

Yuan Shi has been immersed in unexpected surprises and touches. She foolishly asked Xie Zhiwei what to do for her. Said, "Mei Mei, mother is fine, who doesn't fall while walking?"

"Well, I see, mother should take a good rest first. By the way, where are my brother and father?" Xie Zhiwei remembered that he didn't see these two people after returning.

"After you left today, your father took your younger brother out to ride a horse, and he hasn't come back yet."

While talking, Yanmei ran in from outside and said, "Madam, Miss, the Eldest Master and the Fifth Young Master are back!" When she said that, there was joy in her eyes, as if it was a relative she hadn't seen for many years.

Xie Zhiwei saw it, his eyes were deep, and he said calmly, "Mother, father and brother are back, I'll go out to greet them!"

Ms. Yuan was going to get up habitually. Xie Zhiwei pressed her on the kang and told Nanny Tian, "Put the food on the kang table after a while, and let the kitchen serve a bowl of bone soup."

The eldest girl is considerate of Yuan Shi, and as Yuan Shi's personal nanny, Tian Nanny is naturally happy to hear it, and agrees, "Yes, slave girl will go and order."

"By the way, mother, I saw that you drew two patterns the day before yesterday. I want Yuqing and the others to embroider two handkerchiefs for me according to those patterns. When you are free, send them to my yard for me. go."

Ms. Yuan didn't care, but Nanny Tian was taken aback for a moment, and then laughed quickly, "The servant girl will send it to the eldest girl later."

The two of them knew each other.

Xie Zhiwei went out and met Xie Yuanbai and his son at the gate of the courtyard. Before Xie Zhiwei could greet his father, Xie Mingxi rushed over, "Sister, I miss you so much!"

"Really? That's what the book says, not seeing each other every day is like three autumns?" Xie Zhiwei stroked his younger brother's hair with a smile, "You went out riding a horse with your father today, and you also had a good time?"

"En!" Xie Mingxi nodded sharply, "Sister, have you bought the pony you bought for me?"

"Of course, you must never have imagined that it is a thousand-mile horse. I even bought the mother of the little horse for you. The little horse is still suckling. Fortunately, you don't know how to ride a horse for the time being. When the pony comes back, you must get along well with it and have a heart-to-heart connection. When you become a general in the future, it will help you make meritorious service on the battlefield!"

Xie Yuanbai was listening to his daughter teaching his son how to raise horses. Seeing his son's questioning eyes, Xie Yuanbai nodded, "Your sister is right. On the battlefield, every horse is the second priority of soldiers. If your sister can buy you a still suckling foal is not easy!"

"Sister, I like you the most!" Xie Mingxi was so moved that he hugged Xie Zhiwei and was about to hug her, but Xie Zhiwei hurriedly pulled him back, "Sister also rode a horse for a long time today and ran a long way. You haven't washed up yet, you and Dad go back to the yard first, and wait for us to wash up before serving dinner."

Xie Zhiwei sent her father and younger brother into the yard, finished speaking, and was about to go back, she thought about it, and stopped her father, and stopped for a long time before saying, "Father, mother fell down today, but luckily the injury is not serious! "

Xie Yuanbai's eyes narrowed. Although he didn't know why Yuan Shi fell, he knew many things in his mind. He nodded, "I see, I'll go see your mother!"

Here, the three of Xie Yuanbai and his son did not mention washing and eating.

In Chunhui Hall, Mrs. Feng heard that Mrs. Yuan fell badly, so she invited the doctor from Huichun Hall to see her. Because of the broken bones, she might have to take care of her for a while.

Chunhui Hall also set up a meal, Bai Meizhi helped Feng Shi to the table, and said worriedly, "Auntie, why did the eldest cousin fall? This is inconvenient to move, and I can't take care of many things. The eldest cousin Coming back from the outside, there is no one in charge in the yard, Sister Wei and Brother Xi are still young, who will take care of them?"

Bai Meizhi was very worried, she was really worried, the old lady had already made up her mind to send a room or a concubine to the eldest room, otherwise she would not acquiesce in the Yuan family returning to Fuyun Courtyard from the Listening Hall. Oil was poured on that corridor, if Yuan Shi fell to his death, it would be a one hundred and one thing, but if he could not fall to his death, he would have a long and short fall, even if his leg bone was damaged like now, it might not be a bad thing.

"Hey, the boss finally came back, and now there is no one who is warm and cold, what should I do?" Feng was so sad that he seemed to be unable to eat.

Bai Meizhi held the spoon tightly, she repeatedly restrained her urge to say that she wanted to serve the old man, but she couldn't say that it was not good to send it to the door, and the important thing about marriage was the order of her parents. The matchmaker's words, although she is going to be a concubine for the eldest cousin, but it cannot be proposed by her daughter's family.

Thinking of this, Bai Meizhi felt very wronged. On the way she came, she met a robber. It was clearly her cousin who rescued her from the sky. This was fate.

How could the big cousin not take this matter seriously? Does he know what his daughter's family is thinking?

She has already shamelessly approached her today, and the big cousin treats her like that, without any tacit understanding of heart-to-heart.

Bai Meizhi lost her appetite at all.

Chapter 156 Visitation

"Sister Mei, what's wrong with you?" Feng Shi finally saw that something was wrong with Bai Meizhi. Seeing that her face was sometimes red and sometimes white, she thought that something was wrong with her body, and asked with concern.

"No, no, auntie, since the eldest cousin is ill, shouldn't Meier go to visit her?" Bai Meizhi quickly recovered, "Meier just thought of going to visit the eldest cousin, don't you know?" What kind of gift is appropriate."

"Why is this so difficult? Let Jin Momo go to my storeroom to get some medicinal materials, and you can just take them there!"

Nurse Jin agreed from the side. She looked at Bai Meizhi coldly, only feeling that she could see a little bit of Bai Meizhi's thoughts.

After dinner, Bai Meizhi took a 30-year-old ginseng donated by the Feng family with her maid, and went to Fuyun Courtyard. After Jinmao waved away the people in the room, she handed it to the old lady. Squeezing her shoulders, she said, "Old lady, it's not that the servant is talking too much. The servant looks at the cousin girl who is not too young. Should the old lady worry about the cousin?"

The old lady sighed, "I've thought about this matter too, anyway, we'll have to discuss it after a new year. Years ago, when I had the opportunity, I would take her to walk around the capital to match those nobles. For the concubine in the family, Sister Mei is easy to talk about, except for one thing, because there is something lacking in life, I just have to see whose family's concubine is more promising, and make up for it."

Jin Momo disagreed, she squeezed lightly, and said in a low voice, "Hasn't the old lady thought about going home? These days, the slaves are watching, and the cousin treats the old lady with sincerity and filial piety. In the future, in this family, the slaves will look, the old man is more partial to the long house, but the second master and the fourth master are not of the same mind as the old lady."

When the old lady heard Jin Momo saying that she wanted to go home, she became alert. Although she loved her aunt and niece, how could she compare to her own son?

The girl from the Hai family matches the fourth child, and the old lady feels that her son has suffered a disadvantage, and sister Mei will definitely fail.

"You mean the long house? Be a concubine for the boss?"

Sister Jin said slowly, "I heard that my cousin met robbers when she came to Beijing. If it wasn't for the old man, I'm afraid something happened. Since ancient times, beauties love heroes, so I don't know what kind of thoughts my cousin might have. The old lady is all about being a cousin, but if there is a future marriage, the cousin will not be happy? Didn't the old lady not do a good thing, but instead do something evil? "

"Furthermore, the servants are also thinking of the old lady. Over there, our people are almost exhausted. Even if we arrange two of them to go in, we won't be able to get on the stage. If there is a cousin girl there to make some arrangements for the old lady, being able to trap the Elder Master's mind, I'm afraid it's not the situation today."

Nurse Jin just clicked to the end. Seeing that the old lady was deep in thought, she stood aside and did not speak. The old lady is not stupid, so she thought that she said she would send the room to the boss. The aunt and niece seemed so out of control, she hesitated to speak a few times, she couldn't help sighing, "Her mother is a concubine, I am a concubine." One hundred times I don't want her to go this way."

"The old lady is thinking about it. The old lady still remembers that year when the old lady asked the Taoist priest of Qingcheng Mountain to test the horoscope for the old man. What did the Taoist say? The old man ordered Rick's wife, and only the woman with gold can hold it ."

This is because the Cui family disappeared back then. The old lady wanted to hire her niece from her natal family to Xie Yuanbai to continue the strings, but the old lady refused to agree, and the dead old lady of the Cui family was also a hindrance. The old lady had no choice but to come up with such a thing 10% off.

After many years, the old lady still remembers what the old Taoist priest said back then, "Even if you hire this one, you will have a short life in the future, but the person with the horoscope that the old lady said can still make a pair with your son. For a long time."

"Sister Mei..."

"The horoscope of the cousin girl, I still remember, it is the fate with gold in the life." Jin Nanny rolled up her sleeves uncomfortably, and there was an extra silk agate bracelet on her arm. He handed it to her, saying that the girl had just arrived, and they were old acquaintances, so she must take care of her for the sake of the second aunt.

The bracelet is solid gold, and the silk-wrapped agate inlaid on it has red and white onyx-like stripes as thin as silk. It is the top grade of agate, and it is very valuable at first glance. This bracelet was one of the things that the old lady gave to the second aunt, and it also passed through her hands. At that time, she still lamented that the old lady treated her sister really well, and it was a pity to give this bracelet away.

Nowadays, using it as a dowry for one's own daughter is a treasure that can be passed down from generation to generation.

Just after eating in Fuyun Courtyard, Xie Zhiwei took a sip of tea after rinsing his mouth. Dan Feng opened the curtain and came in, saying, "Madam, Cousin is here. She brought an old wild ginseng to visit Madam."

Yuan Shi was a little embarrassed, how could she go out to meet people now? If people come in, Xianggong and the children are all there, they just finished their meal, and the family is sitting together talking for a while, will they be interrupted?

Yuan could not help frowning and asked, "Why are you here at this time? How late is this?"

As she said that, she was still going to go to the field to meet Bai Meizhi. No matter how you say it, the visitor is a visitor, and he is here to visit her.

"Mother, my daughter can help you receive it!" Xie Zhiwei stopped her, got up and got off the ground.

Bai Meizhi waited in the bright room, and the maids served a cup of tea. While she was drinking, she looked at Yuan's room calmly. I thought the old lady's room was already very luxurious, but unexpectedly, the furnishings in Yuan's room are even more extraordinary.

I heard that Yuan's natal family was a military general, and his father was transferred to Fuzhou's general army. There was only one brother and sister-in-law in the capital. There were as many as ten carts of annual gifts to Yuan's every year.

Bai Meizhi was immediately shameless, but the sour taste in her heart was lingering, and she thought, Xie's family is noble, and her eldest cousin has been in the army, so she may not be used to these things, otherwise, she would not He will be out racing horses all day today, and he doesn't want to stay with Yuan Shi in the yard anymore.

Hearing the movement, Bai Meizhi hurriedly stood up, saw that it was Xie Zhiwei who came out, she was slightly disappointed, and smiled, "Sister Wei, I heard that my cousin fell, what happened?"

"Mother fell a little hard. I was going to see Auntie Bai. My father was worried about my mother's injury, so he ordered me to come out to treat guests." Xie Zhiwei did not miss the flash of annoyance and unwillingness in Bai Meizhi's eyes, and smiled. "Auntie Bai, it's so late, I'm sorry to trouble you to make a trip."

"Here... can I go in and see your mother? I'm really worried. Since I'm here, I don't feel relieved if I don't take a look." Bai Meizhi looked eagerly at the door curtain of the second room.

"Biao Biao, my mother is taken care of by my father, my brother and I, and the house is full of maids and women. I don't know what worries Aunt Bai? Is it possible that Aunt Bai wants to serve my mother herself?"

Wouldn't that make her a concubine?

Xie Zhiwei held the pastel teacup, covering his slightly raised lips, looked at Bai Meizhi with interest, and saw a dark light flashing in her eyes, he couldn't help sneering, in his previous life, he didn't take this idiot seriously. In this life, she wants to see how many ghosts and ghosts are hidden in this mansion?

Bai Meizhi knew the words of Mingjian, and Xie Zhiwei didn't lower his voice, so it was very easy for the people inside to hear. Since the big cousin didn't take her seriously for the time being, why should she chase after her so hard at this moment?

Big cousin reads sage books, but he is also a man. She heard that Fuyun Court didn't ask for water last night. It stands to reason that the husband and wife should not have been separated for five years!

It can only be said that the eldest cousin is really not interested in Yuan Shi. It can be seen that what Xie Zhiwei said about the eldest cousin not letting Yuan Shi come out is all false.

"Miss Wei is joking! Biao Auntie is just worried about your mother. Sister Wei is so kind to Biao-sister-in-law. It is a blessing that Biao-sister has such a sensible daughter as Sister Wei in her previous life!" Baimei Zhiyi pointedly said .

In the past five years, Xie Zhiwei has been raised under Yuan's knees, and he doesn't know how much ecstasy soup Yuan has poured into Xie Zhiwei, or what methods he used to make Xie Zhiwei obey Yuan's words and maintain it like this.

I don't know if the big cousin understands what she means, ah, man, he never pays attention to the affairs of the back house, and he can't see some tricks, so he will be deceived by the woman. For the sake of Yuan Shi and Xie Zhiwei's "deep mother-daughter relationship", Brother Wang gave her face.

Bai Meizhi was twisting the handkerchief, and one silk handkerchief was wrapped around her fingers again and again, and she kept glancing at the second room out of the corner of her eye.

Xie Zhiwei saw it and said with a smile, "My mother is naturally the best mother in the world. If my mother treats me well, I will naturally treat my mother well. Does Auntie Baibiao think I should be a white-eyed wolf?"

She picked up the teacup over and over again, seeing that Bai Meizhi had no intention of leaving, so she had to stand up, "Biao Biao, it's already up, my mother is inconvenient to see guests, and I won't keep you, Nanny Tian , arrange for a woman to take the cousin girl back, so as not to go back late, the old lady is worried."

"Don't bother, I brought my mother and maid, so why bother..."

"No trouble!" Xie Zhi looked at Bai Meizhi with a faint smile, "Biao Biao is also a newcomer, and she is not familiar with the family, and the women and maids around her must not know the way. What's the trouble?"

Bai Meizhi had no choice but to thank her, and Mother Tian sent two women with big arms and round waists to lead Bai Meizhi and her party out, she walked very slowly, and asked the women while walking, "Does Brother Xi live in Fuyun Courtyard? Has the eldest girl always eaten here with her cousin?"

As long as she wanted to ask, she could casually ask her eldest cousin.

The wives got impatient when they were asked, "Cousin girl, the servants are just doing odd jobs on the outside, and they really don't know what's going on in the wife's yard. Masters can also ask about these things when chatting on weekdays, why bother the servants?" Are you the current people?"

The two women looked at each other, they both saw disdain in each other's eyes, and they didn't know where they came from. This shabby household doesn't understand any rules. Can you ask casually about things in the master's yard?

Bai Meizhi endured the disdain from the servants of the Xie family, she lowered her head and pretended not to feel the weird atmosphere, and she stopped humiliating herself, walked quickly through the hall, and stayed in the old lady's five rooms. Going up to the door, Bai Meizhi politely said to the nuns of Fuyun Courtyard, "Thank you nuns for seeing me off, I'm already here, please go back, nuns!"

The two nuns didn't say much, they looked at each other, blessed Bai Meizhi perfunctorily, then turned and left.

Biyou supported her own girl, watched the nuns leave, spat, and cursed angrily, "Hmph, damned woman, she's a dog who can't stand on the stage, and dares to run on girls!"

"Okay!" Bai Meizhi didn't care too much, did she receive more cold eyes from the Bai family? He also deeply understands that if it is not for the serious master of the family, few servants will take him seriously, just look at the attitude of the servants of Fuyun Academy towards Xie Zhiwei.

Do they dare to treat Xie Zhiwei like this? Of course I didn't dare, after all, it's just because my surname is not "Xie"!

Bai Meizhi walked towards Chunhui Hall, and told Biyou as she walked, "Go back and look for that girl, try to please her more, and take the opportunity to talk to her, if there is a chance in the future, are you afraid that her wish will not be fulfilled? "

"Your maidservant knows!" Biyou suppressed the excitement in her heart, if the girl became an aunt, would she also have a chance as a maid?

She doesn't want to be a woman in charge, a fairy-like figure like the old man, she just wants to serve the old man well, even if the old man looks at her out of the corner of his eye, there will be no regrets in this life.

Bai Meizhi patted Biyou's hand lightly, "Give her the pair of golden silk earrings, don't be reluctant, wait for the future...Are you afraid of missing these? Don't worry, we master and servant are here. There is no one to rely on in the house, and I can only rely on myself to plan, I am well, how can I be without you? I still have to rely on you!"

The word "by the side" made Biyou tremble all over. She couldn't help but think of herself, her figure is not bad, and her face is not too bad. The girl has said that her eyes seem to have hooks in them. Can't stand it.

Biyou touched her cheek, and responded softly, "Miss, don't worry, this servant will definitely help you! Even though this servant is less knowledgeable, I know that there are few houses in the capital that can surpass Xie's. How about we It's easy to enter Xie's house, where else is more comfortable and rich than here?"

"That's it! You are usually more vigilant. You have made a great contribution to finding her this time. You will be indispensable in the future!" Bai Meizhi glanced sideways and saw the girl's face Climb to the blush, but also know it in his heart, whispered, "Big cousin's offspring are not abundant, if there is a future, besides you, who else can I rely on?"

"Miss, just remember how good the servant is!" Biyou said in a low voice, so ashamed that she wished she could sneak in.

After walking to the corridor, Bai Meizhi heard the commotion from inside, and couldn't help but look at the maids under the eaves. Those maids were very polite to Bai Meizhi under the order of Jin Jinmao, and blessed her, "Biao girl, The old lady is angry with the fourth master, Jin Nai said, if the cousin girl comes back, please invite the cousin girl in to make the old lady happy."

Chapter 158 Inquiring

Bai Meizhi has only been here for two days, she doesn't know about others, but she knows about the fourth master.

The sons of the Xie family are all rich and handsome, and the fourth master is no exception. As a child, Chun Wei will definitely end in the next year, and he must be a Jinshi who is not yet a weak crown. He promised a girl from the Hai family. The plan is to get married at the beginning of the next year.

Bai Meizhi sighed, feeling sorry for Feng Shi, walked to the door, the servant girl raised the curtain, and said inside, "The cousin is here!"

"Come in, please!"

Hearing Feng's voice, Bai Meizhi breathed a sigh of relief, quickly walked over, and knelt down in front of Luohan's bed, "Mei'er heard her aunt's voice outside, she seemed to be angry, her aunt was filial to her children and grandchildren, and What is there to be angry about? Auntie should take good care of her body, take Meier out later, and tell others that Auntie and Meier are sisters!"

Feng Shi was so teased that he burst out laughing, pointed at Bai Meizhi and said to the wives and wives underground, "Listen to this, she is making fun of my old lady! I don't know how much honey this mouth has smeared today. Come on, say these nice words to coax me!"

"Meier doesn't dare!" Bai Meizhi lowered her head timidly, "Auntie knows that Meier doesn't eat honey, and Meier is just telling the truth!"

"Well, since your sister Yuantao left, only sister Qing can make me happy. Now that I have you, I have something to look forward to in my life."

Feng became angry when he thought of his youngest son, "These days I don't even have a greeting, so you went to Fuyun Academy, and I sent someone to call your fourth cousin, but what did he say, you have to review your homework. I don't know, which book taught him not to greet his mother?"

Bai Meizhi was filled with guilt, "Auntie, could it be because Meier lives in Chunhui Hall, and fourth cousin refused to come here to avoid suspicion?"

"Not really!" Feng waved her hand, and because it was getting late and she was tired, she walked towards the inner room, "He has always had such a temper. A few days ago, before you came, he quarreled with me for a while. If you don't come here, don't come to greet me."

"I don't know why the quarrel?" Bai Meizhi asked cautiously.

Feng looked at her meaningfully, "Your uncle promised a girl from the Hai family to be his wife earlier, but now the Hai family is in a state of collapse, and the girl doesn't even have a decent dowry, so I discussed it with him. Don't say it or deny it, it's just that the family status of the Hai family is really low now, I just mentioned it, and he quarreled with me."

Bai Meizhi didn't see the look in Feng's eyes, her heart skipped a beat, she still knew the name of the Hai family, although it was a bit weaker, but a skinny camel was bigger than a horse, so even the Xie family still disliked the Hai family's family status, what about yourself?

The eldest cousin is the eldest son of the Xie family, and his wife must be the wife of the Xie family. She herself... Thinking of this, Bai Meizhi tightly pursed her lips, already thinking about it.

That night, in the name of gratitude and filial piety, Bai Meizhi personally served the old lady to rest and arranged the old lady properly before returning to Magnolia Courtyard.

She was so tired that she almost fell down, sitting at the table, looking at the candlestick, unable to speak for a long time.

No matter how difficult the road ahead is, she must plan a way for herself. After all, my mother is also the eldest daughter of the uncle's house. If it wasn't for the bad luck back then, she wouldn't have fallen into the situation later on. If the old lady is as honorable as she is now, why would she have to work so hard to plan for herself?

She and her eldest cousin are still nominal cousins. After Cui's death, why didn't she and her eldest cousin have a chance? Where is it Yuan's turn?

Thinking of this, Bai Meizhi tightly grasped the handkerchief in her hand.

On the side of Fuyunyuan, there is Yuan Shi who can't sleep. She closed her eyes and listened to the breathing of the people around her, feeling extremely uncomfortable.

The husband sent his daughter back to the yard, and then sent his son to the front yard. He thought he would stay in the front yard to rest, but unexpectedly, when she was taking a bath, the husband came back. Thinking of just now, her husband entered the ear room and hugged her to the bed, Yuan Shi could only feel the fire burning on her cheeks.

"Can't sleep?"

Xie Yuanbai's magnetic voice came, and Yuan's heart skipped a beat, "No, no, no, no!" She was so nervous that she could speak incoherently.

Xie Yuanbai said, "If you can't sleep, I'll discuss something with you."

"Sir, please tell me!"

"Brother Xi moved to live in the front yard, and the green gauze cabinet on the east side can also be tidied up. I want to turn the east end room into a study."

What to change into a study? Dislike her for not reading much?

Without waiting for Yuan Shi to think about it, Xie Yuanbai said, "I want to use the study."

Just now, he sent his daughter back to the Yizhao courtyard, and stood at the gate of the courtyard, he dared not go in.

The daughter seemed to have guessed what he was thinking, and said to him, "Daddy, mother is gone. Daddy will live a good life with mother in the future. Forget about mother. It is enough to have a daughter to remember mother. Everyone who is alive You have to look forward, don't wait for the future to live up to the people who are sincere to you and then regret it, then it will be too late!"

At that moment, Xie Yuanbai only felt that the heavy burden on his shoulders was taken over by someone. He couldn't help but patted his daughter's head and asked, "Does Mei Mei blame Daddy? After all these years, Mei Mei Didn't Mae Diu manage Mae Mae in the capital?"

"No!" The daughter shook her head and looked at him. Under the light, her bright eyes shone like shooting stars, which was extremely beautiful.

"Daddy, don't let your mother down. Don't ignore Meimei and younger brother. Meimei doesn't blame father!" After the daughter finished speaking, she stepped forward and gently hugged his waist. He understood that this was to make up for his return this time. The loss of the outstretched arms that were lost.

His daughter was educated very well, but this is not his credit. Xie Yuanbai knew that he could not forget his dead wife, but the person who left had already left forever, so he couldn't let down the people around him because of this.

Yuan said "ohhh" twice, feeling that something was wrong, turned her head and said, "I will make arrangements for my concubine tomorrow!"

"No need, I will arrange it."

Yuan Shi met Xie Yuanbai's eyes shining in the dark, she was stunned for a while, staring blankly, forgot to blink, and could only watch helplessly, as she was getting closer and closer in these eyes.

In the end, a little bit of warmth touched her lips like a butterfly, and she touched her lips unconsciously. She unconsciously stretched out her tongue and licked it, but there was no taste, and then she heard Xie Yuanbai laugh softly, a little hoarse The voice said, "Sleep!"

Yuan Shi has been burned to ashes by the enthusiasm in his heart, and he has not recovered in the middle of the night.

Xie Zhiwei sat on the couch in the Xici room, holding a cup of tea in his hand, and listened to Bai Ling, "The servant girl found out, before the wife fell down, only sister Yanmei from the wife's room walked by on that road. Go and listen The road to Shitang used to be followed by the second wife, but now, the only person who walks there is the eldest wife."

"Disciple, they say that teachers are ugly and make trouble"

As soon as he turned his head, the enemy was tortured to the point of crying.

Chapter 159 Questions

Sure enough, it was her! Xie Zhiwei held the teacup tightly, and said coldly, "Go on!"

"It was said that oil was spilled on the ground, but the servant went to the kitchen to ask later, but no one took the oil from the kitchen, so I don't know where the oil came from." Bai Ling was very annoyed, "The servant will go to find out tomorrow. "

Xie Zhi said softly, "You have been out with me for a whole day, and you only came back to inquire so much. It is already hard work. This is not urgent. You go down to get ten taels of silver, and you have to inquire about it from people. , don't you want to socialize? Take it to buy some silk flowers, or buy some delicious food, so as to win people's hearts."

"Yes, thank you, girl!" Bailing did not suspect Yanmei. Speaking of silk flowers, Bailing thought of one thing, "I heard from Juaner in the wife's yard today that she lives in the same room as Yanmei sister. Sister Mei has an extra pair of gold silk earrings in her hand, I don't know if it was a gift from my wife."

Xie Zhiwei thought for a while, her mother didn't seem to have gold earrings, and if she had any earrings suitable for girls, she would be the first to ask her to pick them out, she nodded, "You've been tired all day, go earlier rest!"

Outside the door, Zi Mo came in and said, "Girl, Mother Tian is here with flowers."

Zi Mo also knows that the appearance is just an excuse. Xie Zhiwei wanted Fuyunyuan to look like a flower, but he still had to ask for it himself, and Madam Tian delivered it in person? Either Gan Tang or Qian Mei can help her settle this matter.

"Come in, please!"

Nurse Tian came in soon, and wanted to salute Xie Zhiwei, but Xie Zhiwei hurriedly stopped him, "Nurse Tian is an old man in front of my mother, so you don't have to be polite with me."

As he spoke, he ordered Zi Mo, "Bring a stool for Mammy!"

Nurse Tian was so grateful, she only dared to sit on half of her buttocks.

The two talked a few words first, Xie Zhiwei looked at it carefully, handed it to Zi Mo, and started to get down to business, "I have heard about the thing about my mother falling, and it is said that she slipped on the oil. Well, it stands to reason that there are quite a few people in front of my mother, so why didn't anyone pull her to make her fall like that?"

"Speaking of which, the servant also felt strange. At that time, Miss Danfeng was called to speak by Miss Lanluan in the old lady's room. Xue Xing guarded the yard, and the servant returned to the hearing hall to get the kerchief that the wife forgot there. , there is only Miss Yanmei in front of the wife, and she also fell heavily, presumably she didn't have time to support the wife. The other wives and mothers-in-law are farther away, and their hands and feet are not so fast."

Xie Zhiwei had already figured it out in his mind, and had to admire this girl for being able to wash herself clean, so that no one would doubt her.

She didn't ask any more, but said, "Call Mammy, there is another matter. Mammy also knows that Mammy Qiu is left by my mother. I have been here all these years thanks to Mammy. Her husband There is a nephew in the family who has been adopted by Mammy. He is good, but he is a little bad. He is crippled and has trouble moving. Mammy Qiu wants to find a warm and comfortable person for this heir. I can't decide who is better. Hearing Mammy say that Yanmei is loyal, I looked at her coldly and thought she was a nice person, so I asked Mammy to tell my mother when I go back, and I will exchange the maid in front of me with my mother."

Mother Tian was inevitably disappointed, she didn't show her face, got up and bowed to Xie Zhiwei and retreated, and after leaving the Yizhaoyuan, she let out a long sigh, thinking, if it was her own mother and daughter, the eldest girl must be filled with righteous indignation at this moment ?

Where would you think of looking for a wife for the nanny's heir, and even calling the idea on the wife?

It's just that others don't know the wife's heart for the eldest girl, but Nanny Tian knows it. I can only say that this is fate, and the wife's life is not good.

In this life, the most fearful thing is that if you treat people with all your heart and soul, you will never be able to exchange this sincerity in your life.

The next day, after breakfast, Xie Mingxi was taken to the front yard by Xie Yuanbai to study. Xie Zhiwei invited a few more days to his boudoir's home. His mother fell and was injured, and she had to stay at home to take care of her illness.

At the Listening Hall, Xie Zhiwei had to sit in the town. She was sitting on the chair that Mrs. Yuan used to sit on, a large grand teacher's chair. Although she is small, she has a majesty in her body. I heard that the eldest girl is helping the wife to manage the council, but the lucky person came at this time. Seeing the majesty exuded from Xie Zhiwei involuntarily, everyone's heart shuddered.

Grandma Tian accompanied Xie Zhiwei, stood aside, and waited until everyone had passed the news, before she raised her voice, "Because my wife is not feeling well, I asked the eldest girl to take care of the housework for a few days. These days, the big guy's skin is tighter." , be more careful than in the past, if you fool the eldest girl casually, the wife will not obey if she finds out!"

When Xie Zhiwei saw the people in the underground, there were few who listened to it, and some people were indifferent. I think these people are thinking, no matter who will be the director, how to do it or how to do it, just do things seriously anyway, Xie Zhiwei is also It's not that people are afraid of her, she also values such people.

However, most of the people remained expressionless, and some even rolled their eyes at Nanny Tian. Xie Zhiwei calmly served a bowl of tea, seeing all these people in her eyes, she has been a human being in two lifetimes, and she still recognizes all the women in charge of the family.

After Madam Tian's words fell, Xie Zhiwei lifted his sleeves, smoothed them, and said slowly, "Since Nanny Tian talked about my mother's body, let's start with this matter today! Who is cleaning this corridor in the middle of the Auditorium? Stand up and let me see!"

All eyes fell on a daughter-in-law. She was short in stature, wearing a red jacket and a green satin vest with teeth pinched. She had a bun on the back of her head, and two red gold flat squares were stuck in it. Came here, greeted Xie Zhiwei, glanced up secretly, and pursed his lips secretly.

"Slaves from Zhou Fang's family, please greet the eldest girl!"

"From Zhou Fang's family?" Xie Zhiwei pretended that he didn't see the little actions of this daughter-in-law, and knew that his own status alone was not enough to make these people value him, so he said, "Zhou Fang goes out with the second master on weekdays? "

Zhou Fang's family was taken aback. They didn't expect that the eldest girl would know who her man was at such an age. He bowed and said, "Yes!"

"Oh, I still remember that your mother-in-law is Chang Nai who is in charge of combing the old lady's hair? So, Chang is her maiden name?"

Whether to call her maiden's surname or in-law's surname also depends on the owner's mouth.

After Xie Zhiwei finished speaking, he picked up the tea and took a sip, keeping his eyes on Zhou Fang's house. Seeing her trembling all over, he quickly knelt down, "Young lady has a good memory!"

"It's not that I have a good memory! From Zhou Fang's family, let me ask you, where did the oil on the tunnel come from yesterday?"

"Miss, although the servants are in charge of the cleaning in that area, there are a dozen or so little maids under their hands. They do all these jobs. The servants just watch over them on weekdays. Don't tell them to be lazy. How can there be twelve hours of work?" Staring at it?" Zhou Fang's family finished speaking and laughed.

"That's how it is!" Xie Zhiwei seemed to realize it suddenly, and when everyone breathed a sigh of relief, Xie Zhiwei put the tea bowl on the table heavily, "Come on, bring all the ten or so maids in, and I'll pour them in." You have to ask if everyone doesn't know how the oil was poured on it!"

Chapter 160 Interrogation

Zhou Fang's family gasped and trembled with anger, but under the watchful eyes of the four-armed, round-chested woman beside Xie Zhiwei, she could only kneel on the ground peacefully, lowered her head, and wanted to see. What can a sensible girl do?

Nurse Tian had tears in her eyes. Last night, seeing that the eldest girl didn't say anything, she thought that the eldest girl just let this matter go.

After the incident, Nanny Tian asked his wife to investigate carefully, because the daughter-in-law who took care of this generation of cleaning was related to the second room and the old lady, so the wife decided to calm down because nothing happened.

If the matter is really settled, how can the wife gain a foothold in this family in the future? How to stand up in front of servants?

A total of ten rough envoy maids were brought up, and stood in front of the housekeepers, wearing a blue satin vest with pinched teeth, and a sweat scarf of the same color around their waists, bowing their heads to salute Xie Zhiwei.

"Before noon yesterday, the person on duty stood up!"

After Xie Zhiwei finished speaking, five people took a step back. The five people who were isolated looked at each other and had to take a step forward.

"It's the five of you?" Xie Zhiwei glanced at these people lightly, "Now I'll give you a chance, how did the oil that caused my wife fall to the top? If you tell me, I'll take it lightly. If you don't, sell them all, including those with my mother in the house, the Xie family will not leave a wolf with ambitions to frame the master!"

In the auditorium, those who were standing or kneeling raised their heads one after another, they didn't even care about presumptuousness, and looked at Xie Zhiwei. No one thought that a young girl at such a young age could act so violently!

Nanny Tian and Nanny Qiu were also stunned, and they couldn't help but glance at Xie Zhiwei, both impressed by her fierce methods.

The big girls have such skills, they should at least rest assured that the long house has been swallowing their anger in this house for these years, and now there is finally someone who can support the face.

Just as we were talking, Nanny Jin appeared at the door. Ignoring the atmosphere inside, she bowed straight away, "Your servant greets the eldest lady. The old lady is still worried. The eldest lady may not be able to come to the auditorium if she broke her leg. I want to ask the second wife to help the eldest wife to assist the two-day middle school, but I didn't expect that the eldest girl is here, I knew that the old lady can ignore everything and just enjoy the happiness!"

These words were heard by all the daughters-in-law and mothers-in-law. Those who had ghosts in their hearts were all relieved, and the eyes that looked at Xie Zhiwei were not so kind.

"Is Second Aunt here?" Xie Zhi asked with a smile.

Nanny Jin gave a coy smile, and the old lady ordered someone to call for Mrs. Xiao, but Mrs. Xiao actually pretended to be sick and refused to show her head. Let Nanny Jin go.

"The second aunt has been busy with this family for more than ten years, and she accidentally damaged a younger brother in it. My mother and I are very disturbed. Now that I am old, what can't be cleared up? Why do I need to trouble the second aunt?" aunt?"

Nanny Jin felt very uncomfortable being looked at by Xie Zhiwei's dark eyes, thinking to herself, it's no wonder the old lady can't tolerate this big girl, the big girl is indeed evil, ever since she got dirty with her cousin in Famen Temple, she hated her. If you lose the old lady, you don't even want face.

Is this still a little like a daughter of a family?

Mother Jin was afraid of Xie Zhiwei, she was unwilling to meet Xie Zhiwei face to face, and said, "The old lady just said, please go to the Chunhui Hall, since the eldest girl takes over the family's midwife, the old lady has to explain some things face to face. big girl."

It sounds like it is for the granddaughter of Xie Zhiwei!

Xie Zhiwei should be grateful for the thoughtfulness of the old lady. She smiled, her eyebrows were curved, she seemed very happy, she stood up, stroked the dust that did not exist on her skirt, and raised her head, "Then I will go with Jinmao for a while." !"

Nurse Jin breathed a sigh of relief, glanced sharply at Zhou Fang's family who was kneeling on the ground, and waved, "It's all gone!"

The daughters-in-law and mothers-in-law breathed a sigh of relief, and were about to move, but Xie Zhiwei stopped, and a pair of peach blossom eyes swept towards everyone like cold arrows, and sneered, "It's gone? What Jinmao mean, my mother is in vain. A fall? I thought that the old lady knew about this, and she should correct the atmosphere in this house. Anyone can frame the master. Today, if you pour oil on the ground, tomorrow you should poison the tea gone?"

Nurse Jin's heart skipped a beat, she seemed to see that Cui Shi was back then, no, even Cui Shi was not as ruthless as the big girl is today.

She swallowed, "Miss, the old lady has already found out that she is the dumb mother-in-law of Chunhuitang. She went to get the sweet-scented osmanthus oil, but the old lady is old and her legs and feet are inconvenient, so she accidentally fell. The oil was splashed on the ground, and she was too confused, instead of staying there, she ran to find someone to clean it, and at this time, the eldest lady came."

Nanny Jin didn't even need to write a draft when she lied. She said something neatly and then sighed, "The old lady invited the eldest girl over, and she planned to talk to the eldest girl about this. The dumb mother-in-law should have been handed over to the eldest lady. How can I punish her?" You are free to fight or sell, but the eldest girl also knows that our family is the most sympathetic to the poor and the weak, and the dumb mother-in-law is also from the Lu family, so she must be more tolerant than an unusual servant..."

The so-called Lu family belonged to Xie Tiao's first wife, who was the grandmother of Xie Zhiwei's direct relative.

The corners of Xie Zhiwei's eyes twitched, and he was also a dumb mother-in-law. She couldn't answer the question and didn't say it. She couldn't even hear it, so she could only make gestures. Is this bullying Xie Zhiwei that she couldn't ask the dumb mother-in-law?

Xie Zhiwei smiled faintly, looked at Nanny Jin, and forcefully forced her to swallow the long talk she was about to say later, with a soft voice, "Even so, everyone stays here, and I will ask you when I come back later." ."

After finishing speaking, Xie Zhiwei gave Bai Ling who was standing outside a wink, and walked away calmly.

Bai Ling looked at the five maids there, and saw that one of the legs was obviously trembling, so she became more concerned. She remembered that the little girl was named Zhuer, and she saw Zhuer early yesterday morning and didn't know why. Something, leaning on a broom, Biyou, the maidservant of the cousin of the Magnolia Courtyard, was talking.

In Chunhui Hall, the old lady used the excuse of resting now, and didn't ask people from each room to say hello. It was fine on weekdays, and people from several rooms didn't come. She looked extraordinarily clean. Xie Zhiwei heard a voice coming from inside the courtyard, The maid who opened the curtain cage said, "The eldest girl is here", and there was a moment of silence inside.

Xie Zhiwei walked around the standing screen at the door, Bai Meizhi had already greeted her, she stepped forward to hold Xie Zhiwei's hand affectionately, Xie Zhiwei avoided it calmly, smiled at her, and didn't mean to salute, and walked away Arriving at the bed, blessed the body, "Greetings to the old lady!"
