

The Power 49

Chapter 49 Attack

It was getting late, and the emperor was indeed going back to the palace. If Lu Yan was not very dangerous, he would have left a long time ago.

"Chu Yining stayed and led a thousand imperial troops to protect Zhuangzi, and Wang Shipu stayed..." The emperor glanced at Xie Zhiwei, "Help Miss Xie well."

Wang Shipu couldn't wait to accept the emperor's order, so that he could help Miss Xie in an open and honest manner.

The sun has set, everyone can finally set foot on their way home, Xie Zhiwei asked Zhao Quan to go back to the mansion with the emperor and his party to report to the eldest wife that she and Xie Mingxi will stay in Zhuangzi overnight today.

Xue Shipeng reluctantly left. If possible, he also wanted to stay and serve Lu Yan, but the emperor didn't speak.

Alas, it was a good plan, and Cheng Yaojin, Xie Zhiwei, was killed halfway through, it was really depressing.

Back to Xue's house, Xue Shipeng didn't have time to freshen up, so he went to Guanju Courtyard, the courtyard where Xue Wanqing lived.

This is the main courtyard. If it hadn't been for Pang's dislike that Xie's had lived in it, and it had been burned by fire, Xue Wanqing would not have lived there.

The location is good and the area is large, with three courtyards and five rooms wide.

After some repairs, although it is not exquisite enough, it is still one of the few good courtyards in the Xue family. This is also one of the conditions that Xue Wanqing and Xue Shipeng raised in this transaction.

Xue Wanqing was writing at her desk. She knew very well that the current emperor loves piano, chess, calligraphy and painting. Gain a reputation as a talented woman.

According to the plot in the book, after the beginning of the new year, in about three or four months, a female master from the south of the Yangtze River will come to Beijing. At that time, she will raise some funds to open a female school in the capital with the support of the queen. Only ten students are admitted.

Because it was the first time, this year's admissions examination mainly focused on piano, chess, calligraphy and painting, which made her famous and shook the government and the public. The ten female students selected will also be awarded the title of Talented Women.

In the book, among the ten people, Xie Zhiwei has a place.

Originally, Xue Wanqing's name was also there, but Xue Wanqing was worried that the plot would change after she crossed over. After all, she had never learned calligraphy in her previous life, and she could only write hard-tipped calligraphy. , There is a lot of feudal dross.

"Girl, the grand master is here!" Cuixiang raised the curtain and came in and said.

Xue Wanqing hurriedly put away the written words. In fact, when traveling through this kind of thing, she can only accept the memory of the predecessor, but cannot accept the skills of the predecessor, and the predecessor is still talented.

As for her, fortunately, before transmigrating, she attended the Peiyou class, and her calligraphy and painting were not very good, but she dabbled in Go and learned Guzheng.

In this way, it is quick to pick up.

After Xue Wan cleaned her hands, she came out of the small study room in Dongci Room. Xue Shipeng was already sitting on the head seat in the Ming Room, and the maids served him tea. The cup was relieved.

"Greetings to Daddy!"

Xue Wanqing didn't have any feelings for this cheap father, but she also knew that only a loving father and a filial daughter would be good for her, so she saluted respectfully.

"Qing'er, sit down!" Xue Shipeng said impatiently, "Qing'er, Mr. Lu was indeed hit by an arrow, but the arrow was aimed at the emperor, and my father wanted to sacrifice his life to save him, but it's a pity that he left Too far."

Xue Wanqing was also a little surprised. The book only said that Lu Yan's life was hanging by a thread in this accident, but it didn't say that the other party was targeting the emperor. But no matter what, her cheap father is afraid of death and pain, not to mention that it is impossible to accompany him personally, but fortunately he doesn't have one. She is still worried that in a critical moment, her father will hold the emperor to block arrows and harm the nine clans.

"Father, please tell me what happened today!" Xue Wanqing said.

How Xue Shipeng ambushed himself nearby, how he saw the refugees attacking Shengjia with his own eyes, how the guards protected the emperor, how Lu Yan was besieged by the refugees, how he took the opportunity to appear and rescued Lu Yan, after the emperor was defeated, he did not go to Cheng Xiangrui County, on the way back home, was ambushed by Yunyun halfway.

Finally, Xue Shipeng asked worriedly, "I don't know if Master Lu can survive this time. I heard that it is the poison of hook kisses. If he survives, I don't know if he can remember being a father this time." Desperate to save?"

"Father is unlucky this time, and it is indeed worse than Qing'er's expectations, but it doesn't matter, Mr. Lu has always had a clear grievance, no matter what, father rescued Mr. Lu at a critical moment. If he has the opportunity, Mr. Lu will definitely I will know how to repay you."

Xue Wanqing recalled that in the book, after Lu Yan learned of Xie Zhiwei's identity, he guarded Xie Zhiwei like a * all his life, just because Xie Zhiwei had saved Lu Yan's life when he was three years old.

Zhao Quan reported that Xie Zhiwei and Xie Mingxi were going to stay in Zhuangzi overnight. Because the emperor was involved, he didn't say the real reason, he only said that Zhuangzi was fun, and he wanted to play there for another day.

Yuan's method was still a bit weak. She only knew about this matter, and before she had time to react, Chunhui Hall knew about it.

The old lady sent someone to call Yuan, and Yuan hurried over. He had just entered Chunhui Hall, and before he had time to greet him, the old lady snapped, "Kneel down!"

Yuan Shi took a deep breath, and she couldn't help but think of what Xie Zhiwei said, "Mom, no matter what we do, the old lady can't treat the eldest house kindly, so why should we do more? Just show some kindness, don't worry about it." Yes, there is no need to do more, what should be fought is still to be fought."

"Mother, I don't know what my daughter-in-law did wrong?" Yuan asked puzzledly, her shoulders were straight, and her expression showed a rare stubbornness.

This daughter-in-law comes from a family of military generals, and her father and brother are both fierce generals in the battlefield. But in the five or six years since entering Xie's family, Feng Shi only feels that she has a very good temper, and she will do whatever she says, and she has almost never disobeyed her. Following Xie Zhiwei's unfilial son-in-law, do you want to learn from it?

"If you do something wrong, if you don't know it's wrong, it's just adding more mistakes!" Feng Shi was furious, and said to Xiao Shi, "Tell me, what exactly did your sister-in-law do wrong?"

"Sister-in-law, how old is the eldest girl?" Xiao obeyed her mother-in-law, stood up and asked.

"The eldest sister's birthday is the eighth day of May, and she is ten years old this year."

"A ten-year-old child, I don't know why the sister-in-law has such a big heart, she dared to let her family spend the night outside. If something goes wrong, what will the face of the Xie family be? Should all the girls of the Xie family be white?" Ling took her life?" Xiao said righteously and sternly.

Yuan's face turned pale with anger, "Second brother and sister, Mei Mei went out, the maid and the house guard, a total of more than ten people escorted them, and they were at Zhuangzi not far from the suburbs of Beijing. The Zhuangtou belonged to Cui's family The family has a son, there are still many farmers on the village, at the foot of the emperor, in front of the imperial city, what can happen?"
