

The Power 871

Chapter 871 Carefully

As she said that, Bai Ling looked at Xie Zhiwei nervously. This was her own decision, but she didn't want the Wang family to know that the princess was behind this matter.

Xie Zhiwei nodded, "You have done a good job on this matter, you have worked hard, go down to get ten taels of silver, rest for two days, and then come back to work!"

"Thank you Princess!" Bai Ling saluted, then got up and went down. She was covered in dust, so she had to go down to freshen up first.

Xuantao brought a cup of boiled water and handed it to Xie Zhiwei, "Princess, since Miss Wang has fallen out with the Wang family, what should I do in the future?"

Xie Zhiwei thought that the four female masters were going to open a women's school in Taoyuan Academy, so he said, "How is the preparation for Taoyuan Academy?"

Xuantao said, "The four ladies arrived yesterday, presumably they should send in the posts today, if not today, they will be delivered tomorrow at the latest. The academy has already been cleaned up and tidied up, and the servants have also delivered the post." After passing by, the place is not small, and the pavilions, pavilions, waterside pavilions and Changting are very beautiful, so I should be satisfied."

During the conversation, the second door handed in a message, and Xie Zhiwei asked to reply that the four women could come over to talk in the morning, and she wanted to keep someone for dinner, so Xuantao was busy with tomorrow's banquet.

The next day, four people came together, Su Bicheng, Lin Yueying, Xu Peiyun, and Shen Rongan, the four of them entered the Xiao Mansion together, Xie Zhiwei received the four of them in the West Flower Hall, made them serve tea, and sat and talked together.

Xu Peiyun said, "If it wasn't for the fact that the princess is pregnant now, I would ask for advice on a game of chess anyway."

Xie Zhiwei smiled and said, "The future will be long!"

Shen Rongan said, "Back then, when I entered the capital, I heard about the words of the princess. I don't know if the princess has left calligraphy in these years. If I can give you one or two, it would be worthwhile for me to come from the capital to Yanjing again. "

Everyone laughed, Xie Zhiwei was also a little ashamed, and hurriedly asked Xuantao to bring over a large letter she had written a few days ago, on which were written the eight words "Indifferent to Mingzhi, Tranquility and Far-reaching", which had been framed, and she handed it to Shen Rongan, "This is my congratulatory gift for the opening of Taoyuan Academy, Mr. Shen please accept it!"

Shen Rongan couldn't wait to open it. It was a running script, floating like floating clouds, as shocking as a dragon, but rare and majestic, harmonious like a lonely peak. She looked in amazement, and was very satisfied when she saw that the inscription was a small seal with the word "Duan Xian" engraved on it.

Xie Zhiwei kept the four of them for lunch, and then personally sent them out. From the beginning to the end, he didn't mention how to recruit students or who to recruit.

On the way back, Shen Rongan brought it up, "Speaking of which, Princess Duanxian's demeanor is much higher than that of the previous empress. Back then, it was the empress who summoned us to Beijing and rewarded us with the garden. However, if you want to recruit this one today, and another one tomorrow, it turns out that they are all not very good, and they have ruined our reputation for nothing.

Lin Yueying said, "It's too early to say these things now, why don't we gather all the people together as soon as possible, so as to save future nights and dreams!"

After Shen Rongan went back, he hung the words given by Xie Zhiwei on the middle hall. The eight big characters seemed to be tailor-made for this middle hall. Unconsciously, my heart trembled.

The news of Taoyuan Academy's enrollment spread, and many people began to prepare for it.

You know, it is said that the four masters of Taoyuan Academy were invited by Xie Zhiwei, and they were specially trained to be ladies. Children should learn to be chaste and quiet, which is also in line with the current parents' concept of raising their daughters. Many parents hope to send their daughters to be raised.

The new emperor is enthroned, and now the emperor has only Xie Zhiwei as his main wife. Before Xiao Xun was just a prince, many women wanted to be his side concubine. However, His Royal Highness Chen was away fighting all year round. Who knows if it would be possible to become his side concubine? Accidentally became a widow, and now that he is enthroned as emperor, it is impossible not to be a concubine, right?

The "Zhen Jing" proposed by Princess Duanxian has become the standard for parents all over the world to raise their daughters, so that when the new emperor chooses his concubine in the future, he can be in the eyes of the new emperor.

Just imagine, Taoyuan Academy will definitely admit outstanding women, the new emperor cannot fail to notice this, if they can enter Taoyuan Academy, wouldn't they have the advantage of being close to the water?

All of a sudden, some powerful ministers sent their daughters to Taoyuan Academy like a swarm of bees. In order to select the best for admission, Taoyuan Academy decided to hold the exam on the third day of April.

Bailing told Xie Zhiwei all the news he had heard, and was very angry, "I really don't know what these people think in their hearts. Isn't it good to be a good lady? I want to rush to give it to you." It's really shameless for someone to be a concubine."

Xie Zhi smiled and asked, "Who are there?"

"The third girl from Taichang Princess's mansion, the second girl from Dongpingbo's mansion, the eldest girl from Qingyunhou's mansion, I heard there is also a girl from Qiao's family..." Bailing said, secretly looking at Xie Zhiwei's face, but also Can't see the sadness and joy.

"Princess!" Xuantaoyao yelled worriedly, and handed him some tea.

Xie Zhiwei pondered for a moment, tapped his fingers on the kang table, and finally sneered, "Have you found out clearly? What does the Qiao family want to do?"

"I heard that the girl from the Qiao family was originally engaged to be married to the eldest son of the Zhu family, but for some reason, a few days ago, the two families changed their Geng posts respectively. Because of this, the eldest wife of the Zhu family was very angry. , everyone said that the Qiao family is not a thing, it seems that there is a lot of trouble."

"What kind of person is the eldest son of the Zhu family?"

"I heard that he was born with extraordinary looks. He was only seventeen years old, and he has already been selected as a scholar. He is the most educated person in the Zhu family." Bailing told all the things he had inquired about, "I also heard that the servant girl is surrounded by young master Zhu. There is not even a common house, Mrs. Zhu's natal family is the second daughter of the general Li's family, and her sister is married to King Min as a princess."

Only then did Xie Zhiwei believe that why Bailing suspected that the Qiao family wanted to send their daughter to the palace, she couldn't help but think of the eldest girl from the Qiao family she met when she was in Jiji. For those who praised her, Xiao Xun disagreed desperately, saying that Qiao's family is a merchant, and he was afraid of wronging her, so he gave up!

Xie Zhiwei thought for a while and said, "Is Miss Wang here? Did you say anything?"

Bai Ling said, "Miss Wang said that she will leave on March 20th at the latest, and she should be on the way. This servant arranged for someone to inquire about it."

"Well, if it comes, let someone pass the news to me."

On the second day of April, Wang Lijun entered Beijing and handed over a post. Xie Zhiwei invited her to come over for dinner the next day, and asked someone to invite Cui Nanwan to accompany her.

The third update!

Chapter 872 Retirement

The news spread quickly, and someone heard that in order to save Miss Wang, the princess sent her personal servant girl to Jingzhao Mansion. The girl of the Wang family is so smart and talented, she just arrived Yanjing City, the good name spread.

Xie Zhiwei met Wang Lijun two or three years ago, and now it seems that Wang Lijun has lost a lot of weight, and her expression has become more haggard. She respectfully gave Xie Zhiwei a big gift, and Xie Zhiwei hurriedly asked Bai Ling to help her up, " With me, you don't need to be too polite!"

"If it weren't for the princess, I would never be where I am today. I'm afraid life would be worse than death!" Wang Lijun couldn't help but shed tears, "My mother hanged herself in order not to implicate me. At that time, I thought, if anyone can save me from this suffering Among them, I will go through fire and water for her in my life, and I will not hesitate. Princess, after my mother passed away, I brought all her dowry, and I want to present it to the princess!"

Xie Zhiwei was also inevitably moved by her sincerity, but smiled, "What do I want your mother's dowry for? If you have the heart, donate three thousand taels of silver and send it to Taoyuan Academy, and you can make a name for yourself."

Cui Nanwan said from the side, "That's the reason. A few days ago, I also donated 5,000 taels of silver. Over there, Master Shen was in charge, saying that they wanted to engrave the names of some donors on the stone tablet."

Xie Zhi smiled and said, "It should be." She said to Cui Nanwan, "Cousin, Miss Wang has come to Yanjing, and you will have a companion from now on."

Wang Lijun saw that Cui Nanwan was dressed as a woman, but her expression was heroic and heroic. She had long heard that the monarch's cousin was a divorced woman. She had a very close relationship with the princess, and the princess treated her well. Taking great care of her, for a moment, she was filled with emotion, and decided to make good friends with Cui Nanwan.

Cui Nanwan had heard Xie Zhiwei talk about Wang Lijun a long time ago, and she was full of sympathy for her, and also developed a friendship with her. With Xie Zhiwei's matchmaking, the two quickly became good friends.

The Qiao family registered for Qiao Tongxiao at Taoyuan Academy, and the Zhu family soon got the news. Mrs. Zhu was trembling with anger, and threw her favorite Jihong tea bowl to the ground with a wave of her hand, and said angrily, "She looked at it Others don't know what her idea is? A merchant wants to fly on a branch to become a phoenix, does she think that the palace is so easy to enter?"

The mother-in-law Yan Shi beside her hurriedly asked the maid to come in and sweep away the debris, and persuaded in a low voice, "Madam, this is a good thing. Fortunately, the marriage was annulled. If not, it will be even more troublesome to marry in the future with such a personality."

Mrs. Zhu also understood this truth, but she felt sorry for her son, and asked, "Where is the young master? What are you up to? Go and call him!"

Nurse Yan hastily asked someone to shout, and said, "Eldest Young Master didn't take this matter too seriously, maybe there are still good things ahead for Eldest Young Master."

Zhu Tong happened to come to find his mother on something, and when he came in, without waiting for his mother to speak, he said, "Mom, my son has a request, please allow me!"

Mrs. Zhu felt very sorry for her son. If she hadn't retired the engagement, she originally wanted to set the wedding date in the second half of this year. The weather is fine, and the new capital is set in Yanjing. The new emperor ascends the throne. I don't know how lively it is.

"Tell me, is there anything mother can't agree to?" Mrs. Zhu said with tears, even if her son asked her to kneel and beg the Qiao family, she would still be able to do it."

"Mother, there are three students from the capital, and my son has made friends with them. My son wants to invite them to stay at home for a few days." Zhu Tong said.

"What's the matter? As the saying goes, it's not easy to live in the capital. Nowadays, many people are moving to Yanjing. It used to be only the accompanying capital of Beiqi. There are not as many restaurants and inns in the capital. It's easy to say that there are business travelers here. Since they are students if you can live together with those people, you just invite, and my mother will let you tidy up the guest room."

These three people were Zhao Bingzhong, Yang Shenyuan and Xu Jian. After they arrived in the capital, they heard that Xiangshan Academy still had an exam. They were busy preparing for the exam, but they couldn't find a place to stay here.

When the three of them were eating in the restaurant, they met Zhu Tong unexpectedly.

At that time, Zhu Tong was arguing with the people of Qiao's family. He had no one with him, and was pushed and shoved by Qiao Anyuan's people. Yang Shenyuan couldn't stand it, so he got up and prepared to persuade them to fight. While talking to each other, Yang Shenyuan heard that Zhu Tong was being pushed by Qiao's family. He couldn't help being furious about the divorce, and helped Yang Shenyuan scold Qiao Anyuan.

Afterwards, he himself regretted it. After all, this place is not as good as the capital. Back then, when Duanxian Princess entered Yanjing City, he had to support the four major families.

Zhu Tong was very grateful to the three of them for helping him out of the siege and for helping him to uphold justice. Hearing that the three of them came to Xiangshan Academy, he invited the three of them to stay at his home temporarily.

Mrs. Zhu personally led the people to clean up the guest room. When the banquet was held in the evening, she was very happy to see three people, all of whom were gentle, gentle and courteous men who came from the Imperial College. They were preparing for next year's spring. , I feel that this is God sent someone to support his son.

At the banquet, Zhao Bingzhong, who is extremely upright, asked Zhu Tong what was going on with the marriage between Qiao's family. Mrs. Zhu was separated by a screen, and her heart trembled when she heard it, but she didn't stop her. She also wanted to know what her son thought. She wanted to ask several times, but she didn't dare to speak.

"It's nothing. There was a marriage contract when I was a child. A few days ago, I had a serious illness and asked my mother to help me get rid of the marriage." Zhu Tong was helping Miss Qiao maintain her reputation. He had a serious illness and retired the engagement. It's good for Miss Qiao's reputation.

Ms. Zhu burst into tears immediately. She thought, maybe in her son's heart, Miss Qiao is still very important, otherwise, why would he defend him like this.

Zhao Bingzhong and the others knew from the dispute between Young Master Qiao and Zhu Tong that this marriage was probably not what Zhu Tong said, and it was very likely that the Qiao family was rude. As rampant as Zhu Tong was, his face flushed with anger, but he was helpless.

The three of them could tell whether Zhu Tong had a serious illness or not. How could a person with a serious illness be in such good health that he could eat and drink?

Zhao Bingzhong stopped asking about Zhu Tong's marriage, but talked about the Taoyuan Academy exam. The girls had to take the piano, chess, calligraphy and painting exams respectively. I have heard that Princess Duanxian's piano, chess, calligraphy and painting are unmatched, so what's the point of these people flocking to learn now?"

"Hehe, does it mean something? I've heard that many people are rushing to the emperor's choice of concubine. The new emperor has ascended the throne, and now there is only one wife in the harem. After so many years, I heard that when the emperor was in the hidden residence, I don't even have a concubine around me, so these women are so thoughtful?" Yang Shenyuan said.

Today's update!

Dear friends, if you have a ticket, hold a ticket at the venue, waiting for your ticket to renew your life!

Chapter 873 Special pet

Xu Jian was still listening and didn't speak. He has always been reticent, but he is very safe and righteous. Therefore, most of the time he does not speak, and no one thinks it is wrong.

Zhao Bingzhong said, "Taoyuan Academy was originally given by Duanxian Princess to four female masters to open the academy. When the four female masters were in the capital, they were very strict in recruiting students, and there were also several gentle and virtuous women. They all married into high families, which made many people think about it."

It was the first time for Mrs. Zhu to hear such remarks, and the mother-in-law beside her was also shocked. If she wanted to say something, Mrs. Zhu gestured to tell her not to say anything. After leaving the flower hall, Mrs. Zhu stood in the courtyard, caressing his chest slowly, he snorted coldly, "I mean, the Qiao family originally had such an idea."

Nurse Yan still couldn't believe it, and said, "Madam, we have never heard of these words. Is what these students said true?"

"Whether it's true or not, in short, there is nothing wrong with it. I am also confused. I have lived a stable life at home for so many years, so I don't take it seriously, but I don't want to. This is not what it used to be, and it can't be like this in the future. Here it is no longer a marginal land, but at the feet of the emperor."

Sister Yan couldn't help but think of the girl who was bright and beautiful when she was young, but she was full of majesty in her gestures, and couldn't help but sweat for her, "Ma'am, I heard that the princess is pregnant, and the new emperor is in the capital again. I don't know if someone took the opportunity to cause trouble?"

Mrs. Zhu thought for a while, then smiled, "I don't know, it depends on the methods of our princess, and also on who the new emperor is. Although I also have a daughter, I am not willing to give her away. sent to the palace."

Don't talk about anything else, just look at the Princess and Jihou before consummating the house with Prince Chen. This powerful family, if the first wife does not come out, the concubine's room will not be allowed to give birth to heirs. There are many ways to guard against these, but I heard that there is no concubine room connected to Prince Chen.

In this case, Jiaofang's exclusive favor is either because Xie Zhiwei is too cunning, or because Prince Chen is determined to give face to his first wife.

Mrs. Zhu said, "Send a message to the Xiao Mansion, I'm going to visit the princess."

It's fine if you don't know what the Qiao family is thinking. Now that you know, Mrs. Zhu really can't swallow this breath.

Xie Zhiwei just asked Mrs. Cui to come over for a talk. Mrs. Cui was wearing a long-body beige with crimson satin embroidered with eight clouds and bat patterns, and a red gold and white jade-shaped hairpin on her head. She brought a cart full of gifts. All kinds of tonics, food, and two fat old hens in a cage, a basket of eggs, a basket of pigeon eggs, and a box of children's clothes are all made of Songjiang Sansu cloth, which is extremely soft and comfortable.

"These Songjiang Sansuo cloths are nothing compared to tributes. They are more or less flawed, and they were obtained with great difficulty. Except for the old lady who left some for underwear, I had people sew all the children's clothes for the rest. It is enough to wear it until two or three years old."

Children look different every day, grow extremely fast, and can wear them until they are two or three years old. Is this going to cut all the Songjiang Sansuo cloth accumulated at home?

Songjiang Sansuo cloth fine cloth is as bright as silver. It is a tribute to the imperial court every year. Due to the extremely low output, almost none of it flows out. The palace uses this cloth as underwear.

Even for a family like Cui Xie, there are several pieces of Songjiang Sansu cloth in the family, which are all defective products screened out from weaving, and are reserved for the elders in the family, but the Cui family uses them all for their unborn children. The child made underwear.

Xie Zhiwei took out the clothes one by one to look at them, and Mrs. Cui said, "Your grandmother looked at each piece of clothing very carefully, for fear that there might be a thread or something that would hurt the child's skin. The baby is just born, and it is more expensive than tofu." Even tender, your grandmother and I are really worried about letting other people make this underwear, so we let a few close people in the family sew it with our own hands."

She heard that she was pregnant, but it was only a month or two. Xie Zhiwei said, "It's not urgent, just take your time. Auntie is too urgent."

Mrs. Cui helped her fold the clothes, and said, "The ones that have been washed have been steamed in the steamer again. A few days ago, when the sun was out, I moved them out to dry them. You pack them well and wait for them to be washed in the future." When you wear it, let the maids around you wash it thoroughly."

She looked at Xie Zhiwei's belly, "Look at the pointed one, it should be a son, it's only been three months, why is it so big?"

Xie Zhi smiled, "Maybe it's because I ate well and slept soundly. After three months, I didn't respond much. I ate too much."

"I will ask your third cousin to take your pulse tomorrow, and you should pay more attention to yourself." Then, Mrs. Cui started to talk about business, "If you don't ask me to come over, I will come here too. Days, I took the horoscopes of your third cousin and sister Ying together again, chose a date, and planned to set the wedding date on the eighth day of February next year. I can't see a year, and there are many things to do Ready, how about you?"

Xie Zhiwei said, "Sister Ying will marry Ji in August this year, and it would be the best time to set the marriage next year. Just in time, I heard from my mother a few days ago that the Yuan family and the third aunt were also discussing the date of the wedding. In the second half of the year, after the third sister leaves the cabinet, it's time for the fourth sister to get married."

"The elders and the younger are in order. I also heard that the Yuan family sent someone to discuss the wedding date. After inquiring about it, they decided on next year. I'm afraid it will be the same as this year."

It is impossible to be heavy again, probably because I am worried that if the fourth younger sister marries first, the Xie family will be embarrassed!

Xie Zhiwei is sincerely grateful to Haishi, "Auntie is the safest thing to do. Mother will be very grateful to you if she knows it!"

The two talked about their marriage for a while, and Xie Zhiwei said, "I'm looking for my aunt, because I have something to ask my aunt to help run around."

"What's the matter, you just say it, why should you be so polite between us!"

"It's for the marriage of Prince Yanping."

Xie Zhiwei then told about the fact that Xiao Wei had taken a fancy to Ming An's daughter-in-law, and said, "I also ask my aunt to help me be this great matchmaker, what the emperor and I mean is to marry my younger sister in the second half of this year, and marry my younger sister in the first half of next year. "

Mrs. Cui didn't expect such a thing. To her, it was naturally not a problem. She smiled, "I thought it was something. It's a good thing. I'll leave it to me first. Go check it out, and when I have news, I'll come over and tell you!"

"Now it's the national mourning period, so it's not good to talk about marriage blatantly, but my younger brother and younger sister are not too young, so I can't keep procrastinating like this. I originally planned to settle these two things early, but you see, did not catch up, but it would be a pity to miss this good family."

The first update!

Chapter 874 Climbing the Dragon

Mrs. Cui understood that this marriage had probably been tried a long time ago, and now that it happened to coincide with the national funeral, and Xiao Wei was named the county king, Xie Zhiwei wanted to tell the Ming family through himself that the marriage would continue as usual.

On the Gu family's side, Xie Zhiwei also asked Mrs. Zeng to bring a message. Once the filial piety period is over, marriage negotiations will begin.

The emperor passed away on the second day of March. Xiao Wei and Xiao Lingsu are nephews. They don't have to obey the three-year filial piety period, but according to nine months, they will arrange Xiao Lingsu's marriage before the end of the year. The best.

After the two of them finished talking about their marriage, Mrs. Cui couldn't hold back, and told about the recent developments in Yanjing City, "I think those people are crazy about climbing the dragon and the phoenix."

Xie Zhi smiled and said, "No, I also heard that the girl from the Qiao family told the young master of the Zhu family that the wedding date was fixed and the dowry was almost ready. As a result, when the four girls came, I heard that Taoyuan Academy enrolls students, and they even called off the marriage."

"why is that?"

Xie Zhiwei shook his head, "I don't know, I just think, isn't this putting the cart before the horse? Originally, women learn piano, chess, calligraphy and painting, and cultivate their morality, in order to better support their husbands and children in the future. In the end..., could it be that the young lady of the Qiao family wants to play the piano? Follow the path of the four female masters in chess, calligraphy and painting?"

While talking, Bai Ling came in and said, "Princess, Mrs. Zhu asked to see, she said she heard that the princess is pregnant, and she personally sent many gifts."

Xie Zhiwei and Mrs. Cui looked at each other. Mrs. Cui was about to stand up and leave, but Xie Zhiwei stopped her, "Since my aunt is here, how can I leave without eating? Just stay and listen to what Mrs. Zhu said?"

Mrs. Zhu didn't expect Mrs. Cui to be there, she was so happy, after saluting with the two, Xie Zhiwei offered a seat, and Bailing moved a brocade stick over and put it on the side of the couch, and she sat on half of her buttocks.

Mrs. Zhu asked Xie Zhiwei how she was, and how she was eating, with concern.

Xie Zhiwei looked at it funny, and saw that Mrs. Zhu was indeed from the general family, and she didn't seem to have any plans at first glance, so she simply asked, "I heard that Young Master Zhu has a bad disease? I don't know what it is? My third cousin of the Cui family is very skilled in medicine." Why don't you ask my third cousin of the Cui family to take a look?"

Mrs. Zhu wiped away her tears, "It's fine, it's because these two children have no fate, seeing that the wedding date has been fixed, and this incident happened, I thought it was a serious illness, but after two days of raising it, it will be fine. Thank you Princess for your concern!"

Xie Zhi smiled, "This seems to be a misunderstanding, it was just a good marriage, and it is really a pity that it just disappeared."

"That's not true!" Mrs. Zhu said, "Poor my son, I'm getting old, and my marriage is not settled right now. I'm really having a hard time, and I can't sleep at night."

"What's the matter? I heard that Master Zhu entered school at a young age, studied hard for two years, passed the provincial examination, and became a Juren. Are you afraid that he will not have a good marriage?" Mrs. Cui said.

Xie Zhiwei nodded and said, "That's it, men's marriages are always easy to talk about, unlike women, it's really hard to talk about marriage after the flowering period. In my opinion, instead of worrying about these things, Mrs. Zhu might as well persuade Young Master Zhu to read it carefully. , you will be successful and famous in the future, so you still worry about not having a daughter from a good family to marry you as your daughter-in-law?"

Mrs. Zhu sounded reasonable, but after all, her son's marriage was a thorn in her heart. What she originally thought was that it would be best if Xie Zhiwei could help point out a marriage, so as to slap the Qiao family in the face. But that's all.

Xie Zhiwei also understands her thoughts, but no matter what, the Zhu family is now a merchant, as long as the young master of the Zhu family is not famous for a day, no matter whether it is a powerful person or a nobleman, he will not marry his daughter to the Zhu family.

As for why Mrs. Zhu married from Jiangmen to a merchant's family back then, this can only be said to be a strange thing.

Although disappointed, Mrs. Zhu's visit was still very rewarding. She accompanied Xie Zhiwei and Mrs. Cui for lunch, and then bid farewell to Mrs. Cui. the door.

A carriage stopped at the door, and two girls got out of the carriage, one with a woman's hair bun, and the other dressed as a girl. They looked about seventeen or eighteen years old, and they were a little surprised to see the three of them. Seeing Li, Xie Zhi smiled and introduced, "This is Mrs. Zhu, this is my cousin Cui Nanwan, and this is Miss Wang Lijun, my guest."

"Mrs. Zhu!"

The three of them greeted each other again. Cui Nanwan and Wang Lijun had met Mrs. Cui's family before, so they didn't need to meet again. Mrs. Zhu was very shocked. She had never heard of Miss Wang's family before, so she looked at Miss Wang carefully and saw her calm demeanor and calm expression, so she had a good impression of her.

After seeing Mrs. Cui and Mrs. Zhu away, Wang Lijun and Cui Nanwan helped Xie Zhiwei to come in, and said, "I just went to Taoyuan Academy with Sister Cui, and I need a teaching assistant there, so I signed up for it. It's okay, sister Cui's business, I just need to invest some money, and if I make money, sister Cui will give me some bonuses, so I'll just help out there."

"This arrangement is pretty good!" Xie Zhi smiled, "Are you here to tell me?"

Cui Nanwan said, "I invited sister Lijun to live with me and be my companion. I see that my cousin has been helping people as a matchmaker. If there is a good man in Yanjing City, cousin, don't forget to pay attention to sister Lijun." One or two."

Wang Lijun blushed and cast a glance at Cui Nanwan, "I don't intend to ask for a good man, I just plan to spend my life with Sister Cui and forget it."

"Okay, I can't ask for more!"

Xie Zhiwei watched the two of them bickering, and only thought it was very funny.

The two sent Xie Zhiwei to the main courtyard, and because it was Xie Zhiwei's lunch break, they said they had something to do and left first.

Mrs. Zhu paid attention to Wang Lijun, but when she heard that Wang Lijun was also in Taoyuan Academy, her heart turned cold, and she said in her heart that she was a dragon and a phoenix again. But she couldn't figure out why Xie Zhiwei was so nice to a woman who wanted to be her husband's concubine. Logically speaking, Xie Zhiwei was very shrewd and his thoughts were always elusive. The merchant's daughter has a good face.

A few days later, Mrs. Zhu heard that Wang Lijun was only a teaching assistant at Taoyuan Academy and had a close relationship with Cui Nanwan. She realized that she might have misunderstood someone. She passed by Taoyuan Academy several times and met Wang Lijun twice. It is also cooked.

"This is the country's filial piety. After these days, I will invite you and Miss Cui to come and play at home!" Mrs. Zhu said enthusiastically.

Wang Lijun didn't pay much attention to it, thinking that Mrs. Zhu was looking at the face of the princess, she smiled and said, "Then I won't be polite, if you invite me, I will definitely go."

The second update!

Chapter 875 Twins

"If you don't come, I will be angry." The more Mrs. Zhu said, the more she liked Wang Lijun's cheerful temperament, so she simply asked, "Seeing that the girl is very popular with the ladies, why don't you say anything?" "Worship at the door?"

Wang Lijun said in her heart that even if she wanted to worship under the door, she would not say at such a sensitive time, "I'm not afraid of your jokes. When it comes to piano, chess, calligraphy and painting, I am willing to appreciate them. I really want to learn from them." I can't sit still. The princess invited the four masters over, and now that she is pregnant, I said that I have nothing to do anyway, so I might as well help out and find something to do, and it would be good to educate her by the side."

Mrs. Zhu smiled a few times in response to the occasion, she knew what she was doing, and she was very happy. She broke up with Wang Lijun, and then she thought about how to invite her to the house, how to let her son take a look, and if both of them are satisfied, how to achieve success. This marriage.

This matter must be told to the princess.

Nurse Yan saw it, and said, "Madam, after all, you are marrying a daughter-in-law. This is not the same as marrying a daughter. You have to find out about the affairs of the Wang family."

"Oh, I forgot if you didn't tell me. I forgot about it because I thought of the close relationship between the girl from the Wang family and the princess."

After Mrs. Zhu went back, she sent a capable steward to Jingzhao Mansion to inquire about the Wang family.

Lu Yan arrived in Yanjing City at the end of March. Xie Zhiwei came to greet him at the gate after receiving the news. From afar, he saw him wearing a royal blue golden silk robe with blessings and longevity patterns, a stone blue cloak on his body, and a white hair sticking out of his crow-feather hair. Yuhan, seeing Xie Zhiwei waiting at the door from afar, the corners of his lips curled up involuntarily.

"Big brother!" Xie Zhiwei took two quick steps and descended two steps, holding up her skirt with an eager look.

Lu Yan was afraid that she would be bumped by the horse, so he reined in the horse ten steps away, turned over, rushed over in two steps, hugged her in his arms, patted her on the back lightly, and Let go quickly.

The matter of the blink of an eye, it seems that, just now, his actions were just illusions of people's eyes.

Xie Zhiwei raised the corners of his lips, "I thought you would come two days later, but I didn't expect it to be so soon!"

"The road is very peaceful, and things are walking slowly behind. Ah Xun is very worried about you, and I am also very anxious, so I hurried back." Lu Yan looked at her, and stretched out his hand to support her behind, "I heard what Ah Xun said before. You can't even eat well, how are you doing now?"

"I'm fine now, I'm fine now. I'm eating well and sleeping soundly." Xie Zhiwei said, "Big brother, Linghua's delivery date is approaching. I sent two nuns to take care of her, but I don't have any reliable ones here." My steady wife, I still need to pick a few wet nurses."

"I will hand over these matters to the Ministry of Internal Affairs. It just so happens that you are also getting ready, so you can choose the candidates together." Lu Yan glanced at her protruding belly, and asked worriedly, "Is it true? Very hard?"

Xie Zhiwei's belly is bigger than usual. She always thinks it should be the reason for her good looks, and she doesn't bother to care whether it's a boy or a girl, or whether it's twins.

In her previous life, she had been thinking about the child for many years, but in the end, it came to nothing. In this life, she wanted to keep all the surprises behind.

"Fortunately, it's not hard, but I feel very happy." Xie Zhi smiled.

The two of them went to Lilac Garden to pay respects to Mrs. Rong. After receiving the news, Mrs. Rong was already standing under the eaves of the corridor watching. After Lu Yan saw it, he took two quick steps forward and was about to kneel down when Mrs. Rong grabbed him, "Good boy, what are you doing with such a big ceremony?" , the ground is bare and cold."

Xie Zhiwei always felt that her mother-in-law treated Lu Yan much better than Xiao Xun. She stood aside with a smile, and Mrs. Rong scolded her funnyly, "Come in quickly, stand there stupidly!"

Xie Zhi covered her lips and smiled slightly, and Nanny Rong helped her up the steps herself, Xie Zhi smiled and said, "Mother, you usually dote on me when Big Brother is away, but as long as Big Brother comes, Ah Xun and I it's about to stand aside."

Lu Yan turned his head to look at her, his brows and eyes softened, and he looked in a good mood.

Rong said with a smile, "He spends more time away from me, and if you don't tell me to love him more, you'll get jealous."

Lu Yan couldn't help laughing out loud, and Aunt Rong also jokingly said, "Fortunately, there are only two. If there are more, every day, the empress will be so worried."

Rong glanced at Xie Zhiwei's stomach, "When this little one comes out, I don't care about anyone else. I only love this one."

Nurse Rong said, "Look, the princess has more than one stomach. How can it be three or four months before the stomach grows like this?"

Lu Yan couldn't help but glanced at Xie Zhiwei's stomach, and felt a cold sweat in his heart. He always felt that he should not hold back his strength in the confrontation with Xiao Xun in January.

It's really cheap, that kid!

"I don't know, maybe I ate too much." Xie Zhiwei touched his swollen belly habitually. It happened to be in September when he gave birth, and the weather was cool and not cold. It seemed that this was another blessing.

Rong nodded, "I still need to move around more, it's not easy to live when I'm afraid of being born."

Lu Yan was in a hurry, "The palace hasn't had any children in the past few years. I don't know if there are any good wet nurses and stable women. I heard that the third princess will give birth in June, so I will send it to the third princess first. If it is good Use it, we'll stay."

Is this using Ayaka as a test subject?

Xie Zhiwei couldn't help raising his eyes to look at Lu Yan, seeing him frowning with a pair of sword eyebrows, he didn't seem to notice what he said, and said as usual, "Originally after the Chinese New Year, I started to inquire after I got the news, but this child is not easy to come by. The identities are different. I found seventeen or eight of them, but none of them were of the same kind. I brought them all this time, even the Wen woman in the capital who is said to have handed down her craft for ten generations. I don't know the details. Know how?"

This is really worrying!

Rong said, "Don't be too nervous. Linghua's family can't count on people from her mother-in-law's family. She can only count on people from her mother's family. However, the princess and Zhao's family are both pregnant. Tomorrow, Nanny Rong will leave Let's send some of the candidates selected by Ah Yan there, so that she can feel at ease."

Xie Zhiwei couldn't finish talking for a while after listening to these things. She was worried that Lu Yan didn't have a good meal on the road, so she said, "Brother, are you hungry? Or, eat something first, freshen up, and we will stay here with mother later." Lay out the meal, and give you a warm welcome?"

Rong hurriedly said, "This is the real business. There are still two months left for the birth of the baby. Don't worry. It's really hard for you to rush here all the way. Let's settle you down first."

The third update!

Chapter 876 Concubine

Lu Yan still lived in his own courtyard, when Xie Zhiwei sent him there, Lu Yan said, "Ah Xun means, I want you to move to live in the palace first, to familiarize yourself with the environment. things are taken care of much better."

"Did Ah Xun say when she will be back?" Xie Zhiwei asked, she was pregnant now, and there was no one around her, so she still felt very uneasy.

"When Emperor Daxing's coffin enters the underground palace, he will come back. At that time, I will go back to the capital. There will be a lot of things to be sealed and transported over there. There will be many things."

Xie Zhiwei nodded, "Well, I haven't visited the palace yet, and I heard from Ah Xun that it was all designed by you, big brother."

"I'll send you a copy of the picture I drew later, you can take a look first."

"Is there a place for concubines to live?" Xie Zhiwei asked with his head tilted.

Lu Yan was stunned for a moment, then laughed, he couldn't help but patted Xie Zhiwei's head, "No, there is no money for the concubines to build palaces, but they will be built in the future. Don't worry, I'm here, I won't let Concubine Axun. If he wants to, he has to pass me first."

Xie Zhi smiled, "Brother, you don't know, many people are impatient. I invited four female masters to the capital to open an academy. Originally, I wanted to help move the capital. However, it has a different meaning."

The two talked while walking, Xie Zhiwei told about the fact that the Qiao family had broken off the engagement with the Zhu family in order to send their daughter to the palace.

Lu Yan frowned fiercely with his two sword eyebrows. His long and narrow eye tails were upturned, but he didn't look like a monster.

"People are always like this. No matter what you do, they will interpret it as beneficial to them. If you take good care of your baby, you don't have to care about other things. If you like to see someone, you can see them. If you don't like them, it's okay to see them. "

Lu Yan turned his head to look at her, with imperceptible pampering hidden in his eyes, and his voice was as soft as the warm wind in March, "Whether it's Ah Xun or me, I didn't do this to make you wronged. You also Don't be afraid that others will say that you are jealous, or what, you don't have to live in the words of others and be kidnapped."

Xie Zhiwei relaxed for no reason, she pursed her lips and smiled, a branch of apricot blossom came in from the white wall next to it, and it just landed on her head, but her face was so bright that it overwhelmed the beauty of the apricot blossom .

Lu Yan raised his hand to help her lift the apricot flower, and only after she had passed by did he let go.

Entering the courtyard where Lu Yan lives from the hallway, everything is cleaned up, the room is spotless, and the book that Lu Yan read when he left last time is still on the desk, pressed with a paperweight, which happens to be the one he opened at that time. one page.

In front of the window, I don't know when a clump of bamboo was planted, only as tall as a person. The emerald green leaves are reflected on the silver-red window paper, like a meticulous painting, so beautiful.

Lu Yan's eye sockets were a little hot. He took the teapot from Mi Tuan's hand, poured a bowl of boiled water for Xie Zhiwei himself, and handed it to Xie Zhiwei, "I'm not here, please take care of me."

Xie Zhi smiled and said, "Why did the eldest brother suddenly become polite to me? Mother is also thinking about it every day."

Lu Yan sat on the coffee table with her, looking around, as if he had never been here before, but in fact it was because he remembered too much, and when he came back, he felt a little excited.

"I'm not being polite to you anymore, I want to wait until you and Ah Xun move into the palace, this house will stay, and I will live in this house from now on."

"Okay, if Ah Xun bullies me, I will come out of the palace and have a place to live." Xie Zhi joked with a smile.

Lu Yan turned his head and glanced at her, feeling very helpless, "How old are you, to say such things. You can talk about it in front of me, but in the future, you can't just say whatever you want."

"I see!" Xie Zhiwei was a little shy, lowered her head, and also felt that she really came back alive, why did she speak out?

After the tea was finished, Xie Zhiwei just stood up, "Brother, go and wash up first, I'll go back and prepare dinner."

Lu Yan asked Zhima to take her back, Xie Zhi smiled and said, "It's only a few steps away, and it's in my own home, why do I need someone to take her back?"

"You are a person with twin bodies now, it is better to be cautious in everything, Zhima will send you back, and I will know soon whether you have returned safely or not."

Xie Zhiwei had no choice but to accept Zhima's escort.

Along the way, Zhima talked to Xie Zhiwei about what happened in the capital, "The empress dowager objected in every possible way. Before the emperor died, she first made King Jingjiang the crown prince, and later said that she would make King Yanping the prince. Resign, the emperor and the governor are not in a hurry at all, hey, but we slaves are so anxious to death, I'm afraid there is something wrong."

Xie Zhi smiled, "Which master do you follow, you are not following, whoever is the master, you people who do things are indispensable!"

"You can't say that. Although they all have to do things, from ancient times to the present, it has been said that birds have to pick high branches, let alone slaves are still human. Besides, slaves follow Mr. Lu, I'm used to being with the emperor, wouldn't it be much more convenient to do things?"

"It makes sense!" Xie Zhiwei asked, "Is the emperor in good health? Is he busy every day?"

"The emperor was not allowed to leave because he wanted to hold a funeral for Emperor Daxing. Otherwise, it would be the emperor who came back. After Mr. Lu came back, the emperor had to be busy with the funeral every day, and he had to be busy with many things in the court. The people in Chuzhou over there Although Chen Min was executed, some of the people who ran after him were still on the run, and they had to be arrested, and the emperor was also thinking about the princess and the prince in her belly."

Xie Zhi smiled, and when she arrived at the main courtyard, she said, "I saw it with my own eyes, you go back, I'm afraid Mr. Lu needs someone to serve him, and there are not many people around him to serve him."

Zhima insisted on sending Xie Zhiwei into the house, and waited for her to go up the porch and enter the door before saying goodbye and leaving.

In the evening, Xie Zhiwei set up a table in the open room of the Lilac Courtyard. Since they were all close friends, they didn't divide the table up. They sat around and had a reunion dinner, which was regarded as a welcome for Lu Yan.

Lu Yan explained the affairs in the palace in detail again, "It was the two county kings who cooperated with Zeng Shiyi in the funeral. Ah Xun meant to let them move into the palace first, so as not to be too heavy in the future and not suitable for another environment. The three halls in front and The three main halls in the back have all been repaired, on the left are the Fengxian Hall and the Zhai Palace, on the right are the Hall of Mental Cultivation and the Compassionate Ning Palace, the empress will naturally move to the Compassionate Ning Palace."

"Where's Yin? Won't she follow?" Rong asked.

"Next to Fengxian Hall, a new Leshou Palace was built last year. It can be regarded as an inner city, a palace within a palace. According to Ah Xun and I, the Empress Dowager should be placed there!"

Today's update!

Dear friends, after reading, remember to vote!

Rong asked, "What does Yin say? Will she come after the business of Emperor Daxing is over? Wouldn't she come after three invitations and four reminders? If Ah Xun canonize her as the Empress Dowager in the future, Will she have another moth?"

When Rong spoke, her eyes were frosty, and her voice was very indifferent. She laughed at herself, "I never dreamed that she would have such thoughts. She is also a cruel person, and she should be a good person." , protecting Ah Xun everywhere, not pretending to the Emperor Daxing, but in fact, he is looking forward to his son becoming the emperor."

Back then, Empress Yuan was still so kind to her. She had dystocia and lost her body. Emperor Daxing was raised under Empress Yuan's knees. Empress Yuan loved her so much that she often asked the first emperor to visit her in the palace. After a few days, she She was pregnant with King Xiang again.

Both Xie Zhiwei and Lu Yan could understand Rong's feelings. Back then, Emperor Daxing won the country from Emperor Zhaoyang. I am afraid that the Empress Dowager made a lot of efforts behind her back.

Neither Lu Yan nor Xie Zhiwei could answer Rong's questions.

She also knew it in her heart, and sighed, "The word 'filial piety' is bigger than the sky. In the past, Ah Xun could ignore these things and do as he pleases, but in the future, there will be more constraints."

Lu Yan said, "Your Majesty, you are not afraid of these things, and there is me!"

Rong looked at Lu Yan distressedly, "Ah Yan, you can't do all the evil things, don't carry everything alone."

Lu Yan lowered his eyelids, a stream of light flashed in his eyes, his nose suddenly felt a little sore, he just felt that the persistence for so many years was actually worth it, "There are many things, even if I want to carry them, Ah Xun will not let them."

This time, Ah Xun let him come back. He was alone in Beijing, and he had to face many difficulties.

When she was crying, the Empress Dowager asked someone to call Princess Taiping and Mrs. Qingyunhou from her natal family into the palace to speak. She looked at the courtyard in front of the Qingshou Palace with tears in her eyes, "Who would have thought that Emperor Daxing It's gone so soon, he greets Ai's family every day, as if it happened yesterday. Ai's family is old, and they can't stand this, not to mention, a white-haired person sends a black-haired person, God, how does Aijia live? ah!"

In the courtyard, weeds had grown in the cracks between the bricks, and the empress dowager only found out after returning to the palace.

Mrs. Qing Yunhou followed the eyes of the empress dowager and looked out. As the empress dowager's natal family, she naturally wanted to help the empress dowager, so she wiped away tears, "The empress dowager still wants to open up, your majesty I am still young and ignorant, and there are too many places to rely on the empress dowager in the future. Not to mention anything else, in this harem, the empress dowager is always watching. Duanxian princess said that he came from a noble family of poetry and etiquette, so he can be a man to the end It's still too frivolous, I heard that the emperor is not even allowed to have a roommate, how can this be a bit of womanhood?"

"It's thanks to the eldest daughter brought up by the Xie family, what a joke!" Mrs. Qing Yunhou was filled with indescribable indignation.

Beside, Princess Taiping took a sip from the cup of tea, and swallowed all the words that filled her mouth with a sip of tea.

Xiao Xun ascended the throne and became the emperor. I heard that on the day he sat on the dragon chair, he didn't even wear a dragon robe, but the civil and military officials of the Manchu Dynasty still knelt down in front of the coffin of the Daxing emperor and shouted long live.

There is a censor's "dead remonstrance", originally it was good to just pretend, but who knows that he was almost forced to death, the civil servants were ashamed and angry, and the generals burst into laughter. If there is no accident this year, this joke can make people laugh. Talk about a year.

Except for Xie Zhiwei, Xiao Xun is indeed impeccable.

"Mrs. Qingyunhou, Ling Ai is going to be old this year, right? Is it okay?" Seeing that the Empress Dowager was difficult to answer, Princess Taiping simply changed the subject and asked with a smile.

When Mrs. Qingyunhou talked about her daughter, her face was full of smiles, "Our child, I and her father were not willing to coddle since childhood. The girl is a spoiled guest in her mother's house, but she loves the pine and harms her. She will come to her in-law's house in the future. , that is to be ruled, it is better to raise the child strictly, not to earn honor for the family, at least, she married into her in-law's family, and she will not be despised by her mother-in-law, so she will be Amitabha!"

Since it didn't say whether there is Xu family, then there is no Xu.

"I met Miss Yin last year. I took a look at it from a distance, and I said whose girl this is. She really looks like the empress dowager. When I asked, it turned out to be Miss Yin. I said, Although I am old, I still have some eyesight."

Princess Taiping said while looking at the empress dowager. The pair of aunts and sisters-in-law were originally estranged, but now, life is difficult, and the previous rift is nothing.

The Empress Dowager accepted her words with a smile, "Your mouth is getting sweeter with age. Did you come here today after eating honey?"

Mrs. Qing Yunhou blushed from the praise, and said with a smile, "Don't talk about my family, which girl in your family is not a fairy-like figure? I heard that the second girl is married far away? You are willing to change me. I can't bear it!"

This is the sad story of Princess Taiping. The Lu family married Zhang Qinghan to her natal nephew, saying that the old lady of her natal family insisted on doing so, and she couldn't do anything about it. Who are you lying to?

But at that time, something happened to the Dahan family, and the Cui family was arguing with each other again. She couldn't offend all three daughters-in-law, could she? What is it like to spread this word? Princess Taiping had no choice but to knock out her teeth and swallow her blood.

At this moment, Princess Taiping suspected that Mrs. Qingyunhou asked the question knowingly, she smiled and said nothing, Mrs. Qingyunhou was also very clever, and said with a smile, "It must be a good one. I appear shallow."

The empress dowager asked, "How is Qinghan at her in-law's house? Why haven't I heard any good news?"

Zhang Qinghan has been married for three years, and there has been no good news. Her in-laws can bear it. I heard that her grandmother has not arranged a room for her husband under pressure, but her mother-in-law is a little restless. Yes, people sent messages to Mr. Lu several times.

This is what it deserves!

After all, this is a matter of the Xuande Hou Mansion. Even if Princess Taiping gloats in her heart, she can't say it out. When it's important."

The empress dowager sneered in her heart when she heard this, she just felt that Taiping had become a princess of the royal family for nothing, and she couldn't even control her daughter-in-law.

"You should also persuade me. Marrying into someone else's family as a daughter-in-law, you still have to be aware of the general situation. We are here to talk about how Duan Xian loves and is jealous. Don't let people turn their heads and take these words as our face."

The empress dowager is right!

Princess Taiping stood up, then sat down for a while, seeing that Mrs. Qing Yunhou had not left, knowing that she must have consulted with the Empress Dowager when she entered the palace, so she stood up and said goodbye in a timely manner.

The first update!

Sorry, forgot to upload last night.

Chapter 878 Jealousy

The empress dowager did not stay either, and asked the grand maid Fudong to send Princess Taiping out.

After crossing the threshold, Taiping heard Mrs. Qingyunhou eagerly say, "Empress Dowager, how would you like to point Meier to the emperor?"

Taiping didn't dare to stay longer, and hurried over the threshold, fearing that the empress dowager would find out, she heard this sentence.

After returning to the princess mansion, Yang Shi, the stepwife of Xuande Hou Shizi, came out to welcome her. She was the daughter of the former Chief Assistant Yang Fushu.

Perhaps it was because Mrs. Han was too bold. The son of Marquis Xuande doted on this stepmother very much. The old husband and young wife are very loving. Mrs. Yang has only been in the door for a year, and now she is pregnant, which is said to be born in Qiyue.

"What are you doing here?" Taiping got out of the car, hurriedly supported Yang's hand, and glanced at her belly, "Just take care of the baby."

"The doctor said to walk more every day, and the daughter-in-law also heard that her mother was back, so she followed her second sibling out to greet her, and it didn't take much effort."

Mr. Lu bowed her knees to salute the eldest princess Taiping. She knew that she was not welcome, so she didn't say much, and supported Taiping's right hand.

Taiping couldn't get used to Lu Shi's shrewd appearance, so she went all the way back to Lanxuan Hall and sat down in Luohan Hall. She waved the waiters to go down, took the tea that Lu Shi offered, and said, "sit down!"

Where did Mr. Lu dare to sit, but he had to sit, so he only sat on half of his buttocks on the scorpion, as if listening attentively.

Mr. Yang was very embarrassed, and wanted to leave, but Taiping said, "You also stay, it's all a family matter, you should learn to listen to it, and in the future, the big family will still be in your hands."

Back then, the Dahan family died, the Cui family reconciled, and the only serious daughter-in-law in Xuandehou's mansion was the Lu family, so Taiping handed over the gift to the Lu family.

Later, Yang's marriage was a bride, and she became pregnant again not long after, so Taiping didn't ask Lu to hand over the matter of Zhongfei for the time being.

Lu Shi doesn't want to take care of these * things for a day, but she can't take the initiative to say no, if this makes her mother-in-law unhappy and calls her lazy, she will be ashamed to death.

"Yes!" Yang lowered her head, but the corners of her lips were raised high.

She is very satisfied with this marriage, what's wrong with being the second wife, the prince loves her very much, she is a concubine, she will be named the wife of the prince in the future, she gave birth to a son, if it is done properly, her son will still have hope to inherit in the future Knighthood.

Princess Taiping raised her sleeves, and the sleeves were laid flat on her knees. The high bun and complicated and delicate hairpin made her majestic face look even more solemn, "Just now in the birthday palace, the empress dowager specifically mentioned Qinghan, isn't she pregnant now? Has she been married for two or three years?"

Mrs. Lu hurriedly stood up, she lowered her head, her heart skipped a beat, her legs were weak, she couldn't stand upright, her voice was trembling, "Mother, it's only been two or three years, maybe it's because fate hasn't arrived yet!"

"It's okay for us to talk about it at home. If you marry a daughter-in-law in the future, and the daughter-in-law is not pregnant, you can also say the same thing, but after all, it is our child who married into someone else's family."

Taiping sighed, "I also want Qinghan to be well. I am her grandmother, can I hope for her well? But, we can't let people say that because our family is the royal family, the child is the heavenly family." The flesh and blood are so domineering and have a reputation of being jealous, what will her younger sisters do in the future?"

Lu's tears fell immediately, but she didn't dare to cry, she just knelt down and said, "Mother, Qinghan grew up in front of you, you know her temperament, she is the most kind, she was originally The body is weak, which delays the offspring, and now, her grandmother has hired a famous doctor to help her take care of her body, and she should be pregnant soon."

"Well, I don't want to be like this, but since the empress dowager has said this, the time to recuperate cannot be too long. Tell your mother-in-law that if you are not pregnant after half a year, you should take the concubine's house. The medicine was stopped."

Lu Shi knelt on the ground, trembling all over, it took her a long time to make a sound in her throat, "Yes!"

Taiping frowned and waved his hand, "You have been tired all day, go and rest first!"

With a promise from Mrs. Lu, she turned around, staggered, and almost fell to the ground. Afraid of being hit, Mrs. Yang took a step back, watching her staggering out.

In Taiping's eyes, he couldn't hide his dislike for Mrs. Yang, and Mrs. Yang was a little at a loss. Fortunately, Taiping didn't want to see her, so he asked a few words about her health, and allocated a nun beside her to help her raise the baby. She dismissed it.

After returning to the courtyard and entering the main hall, Mrs. Lu couldn't help crying anymore. The nurse next to her was startled, and turned away all the servants in the room. She closed the door and asked, "Madam, What's going on here?"

It took a long time for Mrs. Lu to stop crying. She repeated her mother-in-law's words intermittently. Nanny Ren couldn't believe her ears, "Where is the natal family who volunteered to help the uncle stop the medicine? What if In this way, how will Second Aunt Grandma get a foothold in her in-law's house in the future?"

"I don't know this truth. In the past two or three years, I have been so angry with my natal sister-in-law. Now let me take the initiative to tell my natal family, isn't this driving my Han'er to death?"

Nanny Ren saw Lu's heartbroken look, "Here, why did the empress dowager do this? There must be a reason, right?"

Mrs. Lu shook her head, "I don't know. How can I manage so much now? It only takes half a year. Could it be that Han'er can't conceive within half a year, and she really wants to stop the medicine for Aunt Tongfang who is next to you?"

Nowadays, my uncle doesn't have a roommate or aunt around me. In the future, it's not a question of stopping the medicine, but a matter of helping my uncle arrange a room and flattering my aunt?

It's better to just kill your daughter with a knife.

Nanny Ren couldn't think of anything better, so she could only comfort Mrs. Lu, "Don't worry too much, madam, there must be a way for the car to reach the mountain. Anyway, there is still half a year left. My uncle has just entered school, and there is still a township exam ahead." , that is a single-plank bridge for thousands of people to cross, I am afraid that if the wife asks the aunt to arrange a room for the uncle, the uncle may not be willing to ask for it."

Mr. Lu knew that these were words of consolation. Although she said "I hope so", she couldn't believe it in her heart, but she hated Taiping to death.

She felt bitter, and wanted to talk to someone to help her with an idea, but in the whole capital, she couldn't find anyone who could talk to her, so after a random poking around, everyone moved away.

The next day, when she went to cry for the funeral, she realized that the person kneeling next to her was Mrs. Dongping's uncle. Be aware of who is around you.

The second update!

It's too late to catch bugs, so let's go first, everyone will watch first.

Chapter 879 Nostalgia

Thinking of her own sadness, Mrs. Lu cried very sincerely, which frightened Mrs. Yin, Mrs. Dongping's wife. Seeing many people looking in this direction, she resented Mrs. Lu in her heart, for fear that it would fall into the eyes of those who cared. After a comparison, she didn't seem sad, so she had to howl, but the voice was loud and the tears were few.

During the break, Mrs. Dong Ping asked Mrs. Lu in a low voice, "Second Madam, don't worry about anything, if you can say it, if you can't, just think of a way to solve it. What's the use of crying?" Woolen cloth?"

Mrs. Lu couldn't help turning her head to look at Mrs. Dong Ping. Speaking of which, she is really not a beautiful woman. She has a long face and a pointed chin. She only has a pair of beautiful eyes. The June Snow here is not outstanding in the blooming flowers, but it is also memorable.

Such a person, in the midst of Princess Changshou's stalking, defended his marriage, the position of Mrs. Uncle, and the birthright of several children. He can only be said to be a ruthless person.

Mr. Lu lowered her head, and asked from the bottom of her heart. If she were to change herself, she would definitely not be able to do what Yin's did. I'm afraid she would ask for a decision, but what about after that?

It is she who suffers, and the children.

Perhaps, Yin could give her an idea, but she was a little hesitant. After all, it was related to her daughter's happiness, and it would be really bad to spread the word.

Mrs. Lu hesitated for a long time until the mourning was over. She walked slowly, and Mrs. Yin also walked in front of her unhurriedly. When she got out of the palace gate, Mrs. Yin turned her head and said to Mrs. Lu, "Second Madam, if you have any questions, please tell me. As the saying goes, three cobblers are the best of Zhuge Liang. If I can't give you an idea, I can also comfort you. Some words have been spoken, and it is better to press them. Be strong."

Mrs. Lu asked her family's car to follow, and she got into Mrs. Yin's car, crying and telling her about her distress. Mrs. Yin frowned and said with a smile, "What's so strange about this? It's an individual raised by an individual. It hurts, the second aunt neither crawled out of the belly of the eldest princess, nor crawled out of the belly of the empress dowager. I wonder if you know the head of Huihe County?"

Mr. Lu froze for a moment, then shook her head. Mrs. Yin actually mentioned Huihe to her. What does this mean?

"At first, I was thinking that the reputation of the county head of Huihe is not very good, but it doesn't matter if the daughter's family is not married, even if she is a county head. I wanted to match her with my natal nephew. I Although the natal family is neither rich nor expensive, what a woman wants to live in is a man who loves her, which is better than anything else."

Mrs. Lu agreed with this point, nodded, and said to herself, for this point, Mrs. Yin's plan is not wrong.

Yin sighed, "That child, it's okay to look down on my natal nephew, she actually ran out of Beijing for a monk. The child is young, so parents have to help her steer the helm, but unfortunately, she still Wrong step, wrong step, wrong step, I heard that she had an affair with that monk and gave birth to a daughter, I don't know what she will do in the future?"

Mr. Lu let out an "ah", felt very rude again, and quickly covered her lips, "This, this, what a pity!"

Yin said, "Yeah, after I heard about it, I felt really sad for the child. My uncle said that he would bring her back, so what, I said, it's fate after all, parents didn't give the child a good What's the point of blaming the child for the future of the future?"

The Lu family recognized it very much, she shed tears, "This is also a poor child!"

"No, since the child was the head of the county and the eldest princess only had this kind of bloodline, it is inevitable that she was raised a little bit arrogantly, but the child is a child after all, what does she know, if she goes the wrong way, the parents have to help To make amends, they are all ignored, the child is young, and it is a daughter's home, what can we do?"

Hearing what she said, Mrs. Lu's heart disappeared, "I don't know what to do, as long as I think about how my Han'er is enduring hardships, living like Huanglian, my heart will Sad as hell."

Yin smiled and said, "Don't be sad, I just said this to say that Second Aunt's grandma is better than other children with you. We are all parents, I can understand your feelings, To be honest, if I hadn't had children back then, how could I have survived that hurdle?"

It was the first day for Mrs. Lu to know Mrs. Yin. She couldn't help but think that in those days, Uncle Dongping was asked to divorce his wife in the palace. It was really hard for her to imagine how Mrs. Yin survived that test?

She also believed Yin's words, such a capable person, why should he live tremblingly under the threat of imperial power?

If you are a mother, you are just strong, otherwise, how many people will make compromises for such a dilapidated uncle's house. After so many years, they will become a joke in the eyes of the world.

"It's not easy for you, I feel much better after hearing what you said!"

"Second wife, I heard that the second aunt used to be very close to Princess Duanxian. For this kind of thing, it is not easy to find a doctor outside, but Princess Duanxian is also a woman. Why don't you let Princess Duanxian take a look? ?"

Lu Shi was suddenly enlightened, and she suddenly wanted to slap herself twice, but she only knew that she was anxious, but she didn't think of it.

"Look, I'm so confused, why can't I think of this? I actually forgot about the princess!"

Yin smiled and said, "It's common to be dark under the lights. Besides, the second aunt also married far away. It's a common thing that you don't think of it for a while."

"Yeah, when I was a girl, I could still play together often. Now, one thing, one thing, it's been two or three years, and I can't usually think of these things."

As if she had suffered a heart attack, she got off the car in the alley where Uncle Dongping's mansion is located. After saying goodbye to Mrs. Dongping, she got into her own carriage and summoned the woman beside her to talk.

"If Han'er is sent to Yanjing, there must always be a reason, but this reason is hard to find."

The mother thought for a while and said, "Didn't my uncle say that he wanted to find a good academy when he entered school? I heard that the emperor allocated the Xiangshan Bieyuan and invited a Mr. Yang to be the head of the mountain. How many supervisors from the Imperial College are going there? Reading, my wife, why don't you tell my uncle the news, if my uncle is tempted, and try to get my aunt over here, it will save..."

It also saves you from living a difficult life in front of your mother-in-law.

Lu's eyes brightened, "This is a good way. The princess will give birth in the second half of the year. I will tell Han'er in advance and let Han'er make some preparations. It is best to make some small clothes for the princess's child. In the future I personally sent it to the princess, the princess is a nostalgic person, once I tell about Han'er, she won't ignore it."

The third update!

Chapter 880 Enthronement

Lu closed her eyes, now she has no choice but to rejoice that she was lucky enough to marry her daughter away decisively back then, and didn't let the eldest princess polish the relationship between Han'er and the princess, otherwise, it would be difficult to speak now up.

In the end, you still have to rely on the princess. The Lu family is very reluctant to ask for favors. It is a bad thing to owe favors. No matter how good the handkerchief is, you can't help over and over again. Come out by yourself.

However, there is really no way right now.

Lu's elder brother, Lu Tianxi, is the magistrate of Wuchang Prefecture, and has served in that position for three consecutive terms without moving. Her elder brother is a responsible person, but his sister-in-law is greedy. It is said that the person who helped the defendant was pushed away by taking money from others. The words passed by the officials, in turn, entrap the sufferer.

Lu Tianxi was twice listed as a Jinshi. Her father was a governor and was kind to many people. However, Lu Tianxi was not promoted for three consecutive terms. It cannot be said that it has nothing to do with his sister-in-law.

On the contrary, the sister-in-law always said openly and secretly that she has no foundation at all in Princess Taiping's mansion for so many years, and she can't even help her natal brother, so she can't be used.

But how would she explain these things? Lu's anxiety is now like this, and there is another case. Her mother is getting old and her health is getting worse. A few days ago, her daughter wrote to say that her mother is bedridden. If something happens, her daughter will not have a son and a half. , how to gain a foothold?

Back home, Lu still wrote a letter to his daughter, and sent his confidants to Wuchang Mansion.

After Emperor Daxing stayed in Linde Hall for seven to forty-nine days, Qin Tianjian selected an auspicious time, and Zi Palace came out from Shuntian Gate. After Zigong was put in place, the underground palace was sealed, and the era belonging to Emperor Shoukang was over.

Xiao Xun stood in front of the mausoleum in filial piety. Xiao Changyuan and Xiao Changyao each burned a stick of incense. After kneeling three times and nine times in front of the statue, they turned around and stood in front of Xiao Xun. He wanted to salute, but Xiao Xun held him back. They, "My brother, don't have to be like this!"

Xiao Xun walked out, accompanied by Xiao Changyuan and Xiao Changyao, he asked Xiao Changyuan, "Are you going back to Yunnan? Do you want to come back?"

Xiao Changyuan didn't think much about it. He always felt that there was no need to think too much when dealing with people like Xiao Xun. He was too proud to use some insidious means, just like when he was sitting on the dragon chair, people like Zhang Shengyan wanted to use the new Just as Jun cherishes his reputation to blackmail him, he just wants people's lives directly.

"No, I'll stay with Lord Mu in Yunnan as a companion. Firstly, this is my mother's will. Secondly, the situation in Yunnan is also very complicated. I'll help you guard the southwestern border!"

After Xiao Changyuan finished speaking, he felt that his words were inappropriate, and he laughed at himself, "I mean, if the emperor can trust me."

"What can't I believe?" Xiao Xun said, walking out without stopping, "Then it's settled, by the way, help me send a message to Mu Guihong, just say, when I ascend the throne, he can No, but for the post-sealing ceremony, he has to come, and you also stay, and you can go back to Yunnan after the post-sealing ceremony."

Xiao Changyuan had no choice but to remind, "Your Majesty, your ascension to the throne in front of the Zi Palace is not considered a formal enthronement. You haven't held the enthronement ceremony yet!"

This is also the reason why Xiao Changyuan, as a county king in the feudal domain, has not proposed to return to the fiefdom as soon as possible.

"The Enthronement Ceremony?" Xiao Xun thought for a while, "wait for a while, you don't want to go back to Yunnan for now, since you're back, stay a little longer before leaving. I've got someone to keep both here and Yanjing City for you House."

This is absolute trust in Xiao Changyuan. Xiao Changyuan never dreamed that Xiao Xun's heart and spirit had reached this point. Strength, or is it because he is such a person with a sincere heart?

Xiao Changyao had no choice but to pull Xiao Changyuan, he knelt down hurriedly, "Your minister receives the decree!"

Xiao Xun has already left, and after leaving the palace gate, courtiers will naturally surround him. In the eyes of others, brother Xiao Changyuan's situation is very embarrassing, but they can't feel it when they get along with Xiao Xun.

The two brothers came out hand in hand, and both of them thought of something in their hearts. At that time, the father also saw the light in Emperor Zhaoyang's heart, and the sincerity in his heart, so he had a different kind of heart ?

"Brother, are you really planning to go to Yunnan and never come back?"

"Of course I will come back. When I came this time, your sister-in-law was pregnant again. If it is a son, I plan to ask the emperor to send him back to the capital to be raised."

Xiao Changyao was taken aback, "Brother, is this necessary?"

"The emperor still treats us as brothers. That's because he has a kind heart, but we are courtiers. We can't be taken advantage of. I'm far away in Yunnan. It's good or bad to be far away in Yunnan. You are in the capital, and the courtiers it may not be better than me to do things under the nose."

Xiao Changyao smiled, "I'm too lazy to think so much. Instead of living in fear every day, it's better to be open-minded. What will happen in the future, I think, God has his own arrangements."

When Xiao Xun returned to the palace, Dongnuan Pavilion had been tidied up, but he hated it and didn't live in it.

Thinking that fortunately, the elder brother and he coincidentally rebuilt the Miyagi in Yanjing City, otherwise, he was really unwilling to let him live in the Linde Palace where the emperor lived.

Xiao Xun simply had a banquet in Xinuan Pavilion, but before he could sit still, the cabinet came together.

Now there are five people in the cabinet, Xie Tiao is the first assistant, Zeng Shiyi is the second assistant, Zhang Minghe, minister of the Ministry of War, Chi Yude, Qing of Taichang Temple, and Zhang Quanjin, the left servant of the household department.

Xiao Xun was lying on the couch, young, as if he had no bones, with one leg raised, playing with a jadeite bracelet in his hand, the jadeite was green all over, engraved with patterns of dragon and phoenix showing auspiciousness, dark green and pleasing to the eye, pure and innocent, People can't take their eyes away after seeing it.

Zhang Quanjin lowered his head, frowned, thinking of Zhang Shengyan's end, he didn't speak, and followed the other four members of the cabinet to pay his respects, and when Xiao Xun yelled, he slowly got up again.

"Give me a seat!"

"I don't dare!" Xie Tiao hurriedly said, "It's right to play the prelude to the emperor, where is the courtesy of humble ministers?"

Xiao Xun was stunned for a moment, knowing that his grandfather was helping him set the rules, but in fact, he didn't really need it, but since it was his grandfather who spoke, he naturally followed suit, "That's okay, let's just stand up and talk, I don't know why you all came to see me?"

Zhang Quanjin endured and endured. The enthronement ceremony has always been held within one month after the death of Emperor Daxing. Chi Yude had already mentioned it, but what did the emperor say, what is the enthronement ceremony? what?
