

The Queen 166

Chapter 166: Yu Chuai's Moments

Su Cha nodded. Without keeping the news from them, she directly said, "I have received the admission notice from the Imperial Capital University, they will send it in written form later."

"What!?!"

Le Anqi shrieked, "Aren't the results yet to be released?"

She couldn't believe it and was excited. At this moment, she jumped up, causing people at surrounding tables to stare at her.

Cai Ziya pulled her back and bit her tongue to awaken herself. "You've already received it. Good heavens, Su Cha, how well exactly did you do for the exams?"

Just as those who had exemplary grades consistently were already guaranteed entry, Cai Ziya knew that there were also those who performed exceptionally well for the exams, such that even before the college entrance examination results were released, the colleges would already begin poaching them!

Since they had means to know the results faster than the students.

Among all the students, the very top performers were their ultimate goal.

The key was that though the whole country is huge, the Imperial Capital University directly notified Su Cha. How well must Su Cha have done for the exam?

Hearing Cai Ziya's words, Le Anqi also reacted. "Early admission?"

She was so excited that she was about to fly, but the girl before her eyes merely nodded and said calmly, "I'm not sure. They said I was the champion, so I might be the champion!"

Though the actual results were not released yet, she could already estimate her position.

It would be reasonable for one school to be mistaken, but it would be unrealistic for a dozen schools to all make a mistake.

“My goodness!!! My goodness!!!”

Le Anqi couldn't help but stand up and bend over to hug Su Cha, so aggressively she fell onto the seat.

The gaze of the whole hotel fixated on them, Su Cha felt a little helpless.

Cai Ziya bit her finger, not daring to believe it. Her eyes couldn't conceal her shock, and she murmured, “It's unimaginable... Su Cha, are you a god?”

From 600 points to becoming a champion, no matter what she would get no less than 700 points.

After all, Cai Ziya knew that there was Min Chen defending the top score, and Min Chen's score could not be lower than 700.

If Su Cha was the champion, was there a need to dispute her score?

“Oh my God.”

Cai Ziya, who had come to realisation, couldn't help but hug Su Cha, the two girls jumped around noisily in the restaurant, and it took a long time for them to calm down.

“No, I can't contain it, I want to post on the forum, I want to post on Moments.”

Holding her phone, Le Anqi's whole body couldn't stop tingling. Su Cha reached out straight to hold her. “You can post it tomorrow after the results are out, we're going to school the following day.”

Le Anqi immediately understood and nodded vigorously like a pecking chicken.

At this time, Cai Ziya received a WeChat message. At first glance, she couldn't help but laugh.

Le Anqi turned and asked, "What's wrong?"

Cai Ziya handed over her mobile phone. "This is a screenshot my friend sent me, of Yu Chuai's Moments."

On her phone was a screenshot showing someone's post on Moments.

Yu Chuai: A dozen famous schools are scrambling to snatch our Min Chen. The ending is obvious, I think someone will kneel before me tomorrow. Tsk tsk, I can't bear it, after all someone is participating in a programme, she even has a little fame~ I don't know if this will become part of someone's dark past forever!

"Pfft, how retarded!"

Le Anqi couldn't help laughing and mocking. If they didn't know Su Cha's score, they might panic. Now, they were certain that Su Cha was the champion. It was normal for Min Chen to score well, but who could compare with the champion?

Le Anqi and Cai Ziya looked at each other. They could almost imagine Yu Chuai's eyeballs falling out of their sockets when she saw the results the next day.

Chapter 167: She's Done For

Before the college entrance examination results came out, everyone was waiting nervously.

The school where Su Cha was at was no exception – scores obtained determined their future.

Everyone was restless at this moment.

Everyone's future was to be determined at this moment.

Yu Chuai looked closely at her computer.

Even though Min Chen had already received notifications, Yu Chuai was only a little relieved. She still had to see the actual result before she could fully relax.

Tomorrow, after going to school, she would see Su Cha kneeling before her.

With this thought, the corners of Yu Chuai's lips curved upwards.

At that moment, there was activity on the college entrance examination score site!

Refreshed!

Yu Chuai burst into a smile, quickly and skillfully clicked Jiang'an Province. Just as she was about to select Yonggu Town, Yu Chuai suddenly froze.

The scores in the province were also refreshed quickly. The liberal arts and science streams were arranged in two columns, which could be seen on the same page.

She had wanted to select Yonggu Town, but at that moment, she was at the page showing Jiang'an Province's college entrance examination score, looking as if she had seen a ghost.

She stared till her eyes were about to fall out, her eyes fixed directly on the first position of liberal arts.

Name: Su Cha

Examination venue: No. 7 High School, Yonggu Town, Jiang'an Province

School attended: No. 9 High School, Yonggu Town, Jiang'an Province

Examination number: 119

Score: Chinese 141; Mathematics 149; English 148; Literary Comprehension: 292

Total score: 730

Ranking: No. 1 in the province

Remarks: Provincial Champion

“Impossible!!!”

Yu Chuai threw aside her mouse in an instant and screamed angrily.

“I must’ve seen wrongly, I must’ve seen wrongly, this is not her, this person only has the same name and surname, just the same name and surname!”

Yu Chuai’s eyes were red. She couldn’t believe her own eyes, this was the provincial champion, the provincial champion!!

Ranked first in liberal arts in the whole province, how could Su Cha have gotten it, how was it possible!?

Yu Chuai’s hands were trembling. She bit her bottom lip harshly, selecting the entrance examination ranking of Yonggu Town.

Name: Su Cha...

Ranking: 1

Remarks: No. 1 in the province

—

Name: Min Chen

Ranking: 2

Remarks: No. 2 in the city, No 7 in the province

“Impossible!”

Yu Chuai screamed and overturned everything on the table!

“What’s wrong?”

“What’s wrong, Chuai?”

Her parents knocked on the door panickedly. Since it was a big day for the results of the college entrance examination, they did not want to put too much pressure on her and hence let her view it alone.

When they heard their daughter scream, their first thought was that she had messed up the exam.

They became worried.

“Same name and surname, same name and same surname!”

Chanting it over and over, repeating it over and over again, Yu Chuai’s tears were coming out. She was very clear that there was only one Su Cha in No. 7 High School in Yonggu Town, and she had inquired of her student number herself. 119!

She was red-eyed and couldn’t believe the facts she saw. How did Su Cha have the ability to take the first place in the province?! She cheated, she must have cheated!

Otherwise, there was an error with the score ranking.

However, she knew very clearly that it wasn’t in school. There was absolutely no way of cheating in the college entrance examination venue. If found out, one’s future would be ruined and only jail awaited.

She shuddered, took out her mobile phone, and dialed Min Chen, wanting to receive confirmation.

However, the moment the call went through, before the first beep ended, the line was cut off.

“Sorry, the number you have dialed is busy...”

Yu Chuai knew – she was done for.

Chapter 168: Provincial Champion

As unbelieving as Yu Chuai was, so were a whole bunch of Su Cha’s school mates.

Including students from other schools.

Who was this Su Cha that popped up suddenly?

No one expected this year’s champion of the liberal arts to actually come from Yonggu Town!

There were so many key high schools in the neighbouring city, they had never lost the position as provincial champion in recent years, but this year it was taken by Yonggu Town?

Not mentioning them, even the teachers in school – after seeing Su Cha’s results, they stared so hard their eyes were about to pop out.

The moment He Qun saw Su Cha’s results, she almost choked to tears.

Teaching Director Cao Yanhua was also muddled.

It was not only him, even the city’s Education Bureau called the school and was so thrilled they couldn’t stop talking.

They wanted the school to get in touch with this student quickly, so that the Education Bureau could reward her greatly!

Unexpectedly, this year their city produced a provincial champion, the Education Bureau from top to bottom was insanely filled with rejoicing.

After all, they produced a provincial champion, they would surely receive many rewards.

“Su... Su Cha, this couldn’t just be the same name and surname, right?”

He Qun murmured and couldn’t believe it. Another teacher present smiled and said, “How can there be so many people with the same name and surname? You can see it clearly – from the school to the student number, it’s all your student Su Cha’s. Teacher He, I couldn’t tell, this time, you can just wait for a promotion and a salary raise!”

Producing a provincial champion, how amazing was this?

It was not only Teacher He alone, the entire Nine Middle School was hyped up.

Min Chen, whom they viewed as the most promising from before, did not dare to think of the position of provincial champion. Who would’ve known, Su Cha shocked everyone and directly became the provincial champion.

He Qun fell into a daze, and thought of the girl’s firm and calm gaze.

For a moment, she felt it was too unreal.

Too scary, back then didn’t she say she would become first in the school, now she directly became the provincial champion?

In just one short month, how did she do it?

I ‘m thinking about how awkward Min Chen and Yu Chuai are now...

Yu Chuai’s finished anyway. She dragged Min Chen into her own rhythm. Wasn’t she betting with Su Cha at first? Don’t involve Min Chen.

If Su Cha didn't get this score, things would probably have developed as we imagined, now Su Cha directly became the provincial champion...

The discussion about Su Cha on the school forum exploded.

A provincial champion, Yonggu Town hadn't produced one in so many years.

This year, suddenly they did.

And it was such an awesome score that made almost everyone worship.

However, shortly before the exam, there were not many who dared to believe Su Cha could get first place in the school.

Now she directly became the provincial champion which was a whole other ball game compared to simply first in the school.

For a while, everyone felt awkward, their faces had just received a resounding slap.

Especially the teachers who had slandered Su Cha for cheating that time, now they did not know how they could face Su Cha.

Apart from the school, the program team was also notified that a contestant had directly become the provincial champion, and were shocked.

Woah, they had seen stellar students participating in the competition, but have never seen a provincial champion being so wilful in participating in such a talent show.

With this score, how good would it be for her to contribute to the country? But she actually came to participate in this girls' talent show?

The champion of Jiang'an Province is from Yonggu Town!

The champion of liberal arts is from Yonggu Town, and the record of the highest score of the liberal arts in Jiang'an Province has once again been broken!

The provincial champion is actually a talent show player? She has entered the top 50 in the competition!

Chapter 169: Is He Possessed?

The minute the results were released, Su Cha called Bo Muyi right away.

Su Cha didn't want to tell him about receiving the admission notice straight away, since she wanted to make sure everything was foolproof first.

Because she didn't know whether being a champion referred to being the city champion or the provincial champion at that time.

Now since the results have been released, seeing that she was the provincial champion, Su Cha was a little dazed, but when she recovered, she smiled gently.

It was great. Although it seemed unrealistic, she had put in the effort.

This feeling was really wonderful.

At first, she forgot her bet with Yu Chuai and just missed Bo Muyi, who was now far away in the Imperial Capital.

In the Bo family's mansion study, stood a row of people in black.

One of them was whispering something while the man sitting in front of him, behind the desk, had a handsome face that was ethereal. His eyes were closed, and the aura exuding from his body was cold. Just a face-to-face meeting could make people feel very powerful oppression.

He was like a king that descended into the world, full of supreme nobility.

Knock knock knock...

There was a sudden knocking on the door, and the bodyguard in black who was whispering at this time was so surprised he broke out in cold sweat.

The man whose eyes were originally closed opened them instantly. Not a trace of emotion could be seen in his eyes, unlike previous signs of agitation, one could not guess his current mood.

They were discussing matters. Who feared no death and disturbed the young master so ignorantly?

The unsuspecting party not only knocked, but also mindlessly pushed open the door.

They didn't dare to turn their heads to see who it was. The other party seemed to have walked over, saying respectfully, "Young Master, Miss Su's calling."

That was Bai Kun, the personal assistant next to the young master.

The sight of the young master flaring up as everyone was imagined did not occur. Bo Mui motioned slightly, and Bai Kun knowingly handed his phone to him.

When receiving the phone, the man who looked cold and fierce opened his mouth, and out came a gentleness that was so shocking everyone trembled. "Hello, Cha Cha?"

Everybody present couldn't believe it, but Bai Kun had an expression which showed he was accustomed to it.

"Mui, my college entrance examination score is out."

The girl's soft voice announced the joyous news, "I got 730 in the exam, the best in the province. I have received the admission notice from the Imperial Capital University! Am I awesome?"

Bo Mui: "Cha Cha's so awesome!"

Everyone: "..."

The gentleness between Bo Mui's eyebrows almost overflowed. "What kind of reward does the incredible Cha Cha want?"

"I haven't thought about it yet, I don't need a reward, but you promised me before the exam. You said that you would grant a condition if I got a score of 700. I haven't thought about it yet, so I will first put it on the account."

Su Cha still remembered this matter and mentioned it directly, how could Bo Mui not agree.

"Sure."

He smiled even more gently, even though the bet was originally out of fun intent.

However, even if there wasn't a bet, Bo Mui was willing to agree to any conditions Su Cha named.

"Is everything over there in the Imperial Capital good?"

Su Cha asked as usual. Bo Mui's expression darkened. "Not good."

How could it get better without her by his side. "You must come to the Imperial Capital quickly."

"Soon. Latest by the end of the month."

Su Cha had become accustomed to his occasional coquetry and complaints, but those over in the Imperial Capital were not used to it.

Seeing Bo Mui in this manner, even their cheek muscles started shaking, horrified wondering if their young master had been possessed by someone.

Chapter 170: There's Bo Mui, Don't Worry

After hanging up, Bo Mui's expression immediately returned to one of indifference.

His eyes were indescribably cold and vicious, as if the gentle man who had laughed on the phone a while ago was just an illusion.

Bai Kun really admired the young master's face-changing skills.

Even actors could not match the natural ability of the young master.

Only now did the few people under his grasp heave a sigh of relief. Compared to the rare gentleness that Bo Muyi just displayed, they felt it was the current him that was normal.

After talking with Bo Muyi, Su Cha proceeded to announce the joyous news to others.

Of course, those whom she was familiar with were few, it was only Sister Wu He.

She was too lazy to notify even her father.

Le Anqi and Cai Ziya didn't need her to specially make a call. At this moment they were already crazily elated, and didn't think to call the hero herself.

Upon knowing that Su Cha had gotten such a heavenly score, Sister Wu He was stunned. She couldn't help but cry and sigh heavily, "If I had known earlier you could score this well, what entertainment circle would I let you enter!"

Entering the Imperial Capital University and subsequently a high-in-demand course – if Su Cha could maintain this standard, she would definitely become a top talent in the future. Why did she need to tread the muddy waters of the entertainment circle?

"Sister Wu He, this is where you are wrong, I am entering the entertainment industry out of my own accord."

Su Cha explained, "You can just treat it as a wish of mine."

Why she wanted to enter the entertainment circle in this life, was probably this ideal of hers which was not satisfied in her first life.

In fact, at that time, she was also unclear about her desire to enter the entertainment circle. She didn't know why she herself wanted to enter the entertainment circle wholeheartedly. Now in her third life she still wanted to, and this time it was purely just to fulfil her dream in her first life.

With this kind of capital, one could go anywhere.

The entertainment circle was no exception.

Wu He sighed heavily. She belonged to an advertising company, hence she naturally knew some things about the industry. "In that case, don't let yourself down in the future. I also want to remind you of some things while you're participating in this program."

Speaking of this, she lowered her voice, "I know some people like to hunt for fledgling newcomers. Su Cha, if you encounter this kind of thing, don't agree, even if you're pressured to, you can't agree."

This is Wu He's only insistence.

She regarded Su Cha as her younger sister, the clean gaze in her memory must not be stained.

She had long been worried about what to do if Su Cha really became famous when she participated in the show. At that time, she couldn't say much, seeing Su Cha so fixated on entering the entertainment circle.

Now that Su Cha suddenly had another path as an option, Wu He did not shy away from saying these things.

Even if Su Cha was targeted by someone, she had one more option.

When Su Cha heard this, she too knew Wu He was saying it for her own good, but she still didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "I know, Sister Wu He, don't worry, I won't do anything wrong."

Not to mention that in this life she had the ability to deal with this. If Bo Muyi knew that she was entangled with such matters, it would be questionable whether the party would be able to preserve their life.

She also felt that when it came to other people, Bo Muyi was one who could do anything.

Otherwise he sometimes wouldn't give off such a fearful feeling to others.

Regarding this matter, from the beginning to the end, Su Cha had never worried about it at all.