

The Queen of Everything

The Queen of Everything #Chapter 21 - Read The Queen of Everything Chapter 21

Chapter 21: It's Awful, Take It Out!

“What a miracle!”

Bai Kun was Bo Mui's personal assistant and shadow guard. After answering the call, he shook a bodyguard in a black suit, who was standing beside him, in excitement. “Young master actually wants to have his meal during working hours! Didn't we just send in the proposal for the third engineering project? He has settled it so fast? I was just going to ask him to eat first before settling the proposal, but I dared not ask the question to his face. However, he's actually asking for a meal now!”

The bodyguard in black suit remained an indifferent expression. He was very anxious to slap Bai Kun away. He scowled, “Hurry up and go then! Aren't you afraid that young master will eat you up if you starve him?”

There was no doubt that he might actually do that.

Bai Kun's expression changed as he realized the situation. He quickly asked the others to order food.

They knew very well what Bo Mui usually ate. After they bought the food, some service crew members entered the office and put the delicious dishes on top of the dining table.

Bo Mui stood up behind his office desk and walked toward his personal dining table. He was tall and slender. After he sat down, he frowned when he saw the table full of delicious dishes.

Bai Kun was standing at the side, waiting for Bo Mui's order. His heart trembled at Bo Mui's frown. “Is there anything wrong, young master? These are the dishes that you usually eat. They don't suit your taste today, is it?”

Before Bo Mui said anything, his mobile phone suddenly vibrated.

Bai Kun could not help but look toward Bo Mui's vibrating phone, then he quickly withdrew his gaze.

He could not clearly see the content, all he knew was that it was a short message.

Nonetheless, their young master's face immediately lit up after reading the message. "Change it, I want to eat mushroom chicken rice."

Bai Kun was left in confusion.

Is he deaf?

What the hell is going on?

However, the young master would not allow any questions to be asked. Even though Bai Kun had doubts in mind, he still needed to deliver the order.

The short message was sent by Su Cha to Bo Mui. Su Cha told him that she was eating mushroom chicken rice.

Of course, Bo Mui wanted to eat the same dish once he saw what Su Cha was eating.

Before Bo Mui finished typing, Su Cha's sent him another message.

Su Cha: It's really awful!

Bo Mui was speechless.

His face turned gloomy but he immediately smiled helplessly. Looking at Su Cha's remark name on his phone, he pursed his lips and moved his fingers, changing the name to Baby Cha.

At the same time, he replied to her message.

Bo Mui: Don't eat it since it's not delicious. Change to other food.

Looking at the new remark name, Bo Mui's heart was full of sweetness. He felt an indescribable satisfaction and joy.

He leaned back on the chair and relaxed, like a noble emperor giving out elegant and powerful aura no matter what his posture was.

In fact, one could actually feel a hint of friendliness from this arrogant emperor because of that smile.

Bai Kun did not know how much time had passed before he came in again. The smile disappeared immediately as soon as he entered the room, it was so fast that Bai Kun thought he had a blurred vision.

Is the young master possessed by an evil spirit?

Bai Kun did not dare to say it out loud. Someone was trailing behind him, holding a tray with a porcelain white bowl on it.

Bai Kun entered with a smile on his face. "Young master, here's the mushroom chicken rice you said..."

"It's awful! Take it out!"

The man who was exceptionally vigorous in work waved his arm with a cold expression on his face. He never had the least thought that he was suspected to be messing around with others by acting in this way.

If it were not for Bai Kun who had already gotten used to Bo Muye's style, the latter would probably be scolded by someone right now.

Though honestly, Bai Kun was secretly scolding him in his heart as well.

Chapter 22: You Don't Deserve To Call Me The Name!

Perhaps Su Cha had become picky with food after all the exquisite dishes in ancient times, so the food from the restaurant beside the street was really scarcely edible for her, just like the mushroom chicken rice she ate at noon.

Nonetheless, the food gave her some familiar and nostalgic feelings.

She still remembered that she often came here to eat back then.

She sent a message to Bo Muye and smiled when she saw his reply. She could imagine the face of Bo Muye furrowing his brow while thinking of what she was going to eat.

Su Cha went home after she barely finished her lunch.

Just because she spent one morning to prepare everything did not mean that everything was fine already.

Su Cha recalled that she was still a student in the senior year.

She had attained legal adulthood not long ago, otherwise, Bo Muye would have had laid his hands on an underage teen.

Not only was it her senior year, but she would also be having her national college entrance exam next month, which would be on the eighth of next month!

In her past life, she was locked up by Di Yao. Thus, she did not manage to enter the entertainment industry, nor did she take the national college entrance exam.

Su Cha was well aware of the importance of learning. It was not only for the purpose of entering the entertainment industry, but she also needed the knowledge to improve herself. Furthermore, reading was good for every individual in many ways.

Her school was an ordinary local high school and the enrollment rate to university was just average. There were classes with good grades and also classes with poor grades, Su Cha was in the class with average grades.

Truth be told, her previous results were good, but she did not have enough time to study after she met Di Yao as she needed to work and entertain him. It was inevitable that her grades went down after that.

Now that she thought about it, she finally realized that she had wasted so much on this fellow...

“Su Cha!”

Bang! All of a sudden, an angry voice could be heard outside the door. Di Yao wore a grey plaid shirt. He walked into the room and fixed his eyes on Su Cha.

He was swollen with rage and had an almost ferocious look, gnashing his teeth in anger and said, “You want to break up with me?”

He was pointing at Su Cha with his fingers and Su Cha frowned slightly at the sight of this.

If I’m not rational enough, I would have almost shouted ‘presumptuous!’ at him.

The effects of being an Empress Dowager for far too long.

Who would dare to point at me in ancient times? Only those who long for death.

Su Cha took on a cold expression. Before she opened her mouth, she saw a pretty girl making her way into the room, it was Sang Shishi.

She had a long and straight black hair with perfect fringe. She was wearing a light blue dress with delicate makeup on her face. Her face was quite attractive, at least she was the kind of beauty that people would want to take another glimpse at her when she was walking on the street.

She walked into the room, tagging along behind Di Yao. There was a hint of cautiousness and fear in her eyes when she looked at Su Cha.

Su Cha became impatient when she saw her expression. I have never even hit her before, why is she acting like she's frightened?

Sang Shishi said softly when she saw Su Cha gazing at her, "Cha Cha, I... I'm just coming along to see what's going on."

Su Cha squinted and glared at her. "What did you call me?"

Sang Shishi was shocked that Su Cha suddenly turned on her. "Cha...cha?"

"You don't deserve to call me the name! Shut your mouth!"

Su Cha's voice was so gloomy and cold, sending shudders down Sang Shishi's spine.

Sang Shishi was clueless about why Su Cha was yelling at her. She felt wronged and hid behind Di Yao. "Su Cha, what are you talking about? Am I not your best friend? Why can't I call you..."

Di Yao stared at Su Cha with an unbelievable look on his face. "Su Cha, have you gone mad?"

Chapter 23: The Difference Could Readily Be Seen At One Glance

Su Cha was satisfied that the girl knew exactly how to behave and changed the way she called Su Cha.

She relaxed and looked lazily at the shameless couple in front of her. "You've nothing to do with it even if I've gone mad. Did I not make myself clear enough in the message? Or perhaps you're illiterate? Why do you need to purposely come and ask me face to face?"

Di Yao was enraged when he heard what she said. "I didn't do anything to hurt you, why do you want to break up?"

A thought came into his mind upon saying that. "I haven't even asked you yet, who's the person that came back with you last night?"

Su Cha mocked him immediately, "Didn't you admit that it was you?"

Di Yao could feel the fury stuck inside him, yet all he could do was to hold his anger.

Owing to the fact that he knew it was another person and he could not deny it.

Sang Shishi's mind was struck by something after listening to their argument. She looked at Su Cha as though she was in shock. "Su Cha, didn't someone else come and bring you home last night? Wasn't that Di Yao?"

Di Yao was initially holding back his rage, but he was inflamed by what Sang Shishi said.

Of course, he would not take his anger out on Sang Shishi. All he would do was to blame it on Su Cha who made him a cuckold.

Although it was indeed the truth.

"Why wouldn't it be Di Yao?" Su Cha swept her eyes over the room and landed on this noisy girl. "Di Yao has admitted that it was him, yet you're still saying that it wasn't Di Yao. What are you up to?"

Sang Shishi was panicked at Su Cha's words and quickly shook her hands. She turned to Di Yao with an innocent look on her face. "I... I just simply said, I've no idea as well. Di Yao was the one who sent you home last night, right?"

Then, she lowered her head and clenched her fists tightly. She knew very well that it was not Di Yao, but she did not understand why Di Yao admitted it.

Su Cha did not miss Sang Shishi's petty action. She curved her lips into a smile as she could tell what the girl was thinking by simply observing her action.

Even Di Yao felt unhappy because of Sang Shishi's repeated reminder. "Shishi, let me talk to Su Cha."

Sang Shishi quickly nodded her head in a careful manner, but her eyes showed hatred and scorn.

When she accidentally met Su Cha's eyes, she saw the immense coldness in her eyes, so immense that it looked like a cube of unbreakable ice. One would think he had fallen into ice cellar by taking a look at her. All of a sudden, Sang Shishi could feel a cold that sent shivers running down her spine. She was startled and hurriedly withdrew her gaze.

Di Yao was still arguing with Su Cha. "Su Cha, tell me exactly what is going on? I won't agree to break up with you, we are still good together."

Looking at her expressionless face, Di Yao somehow realized that he was being quite provocative. He quickly calmed his attitude and lowered his voice. "I'm sorry, Su Cha. I think there may be some misunderstanding between us? Are you mad at me? It's my fault for rushing out this morning."

He was quite good looking after all. He looked rather intriguing when he talked softly as he had a deep voice and good looking face.

No wonder Sang Shishi would fall for him.

However, Bo Mui's face suddenly popped up in Su Cha's mind when she stared at Di Yao. Bo Mui's face was so perfect like a gracious gift from God, handsome and devilish. Di Yao had nothing that could be comparable to Bo Mui.

The difference could readily be seen at one glance. Su Cha looked at Di Yao with her eyes full of despise.

Even without Bo Mui, she would never fall for someone like Di Yao after experiencing the prosperous world in ancient times.