

The Queen 431

Chapter 431: What Is the Price?

People nowadays are used to everything being fast-paced. It always seemed like something big would happen every few days or so.

As long as Su Cha did not bother herself about it, the topics about her would disappear in a few days.

However, this matter would become a black spot for Su Cha. In the future, if she were to be mentioned anytime, someone might take advantage by bringing this topic up.

People were used to forgetting, but the marks would always be there.

Hence, she had to deal with it accordingly.

Right now, Bo Muyi was helping Su Cha to reduce the influence of this matter to a minimum. Then, Su Cha stepped forward to clarify the situation, and then the people who were spreading rumors would be dragged out to the public. This operation would be perfect.

Of course, the production crew found it strange.

Su Cha's matter was neither small nor inconsequential. Initially, Su Cha's fans could not fight back at all, but later on, a large number of "passersby" started to brainwash everyone. They focused on Su Cha's current achievements and provided substantial evidence. At the very least, those who were spreading rumors could not produce any evidence at all.

There were many twists and turns in the news. With such brainwashing, many passersby started to take charge, demanding evidence for the rumors, and the scene started to change in an hour.

Needless to say, Imperial Mu's public relations team was very efficient. In the next two hours, they uncovered that the person who posted the rumor on the forum was Su Cha's former classmate.

Su Cha was very familiar with this person.

It was Yu Chuai, who had made a bet with her. In the end, when she found out the result, she ran away.

Back then, this person and Su Cha had agreed that if Su Cha could become number one in the school, she would kneel. If Su Cha failed, it would be she who'd kneel. The agreement was set, but Yu Chuai did not have the guts to fulfill it. She ran away very quickly and did not even attend the graduation ceremony.

Su Cha did not care where she had run off to. Anyway, if they met, things for Yu Chuai would not end well. But if she did not interact with Su Cha for the rest of her life, Su Cha would just treat her as a clown and let her off.

But she did not expect that after being calm for so long, this person still harbored hatred Su Cha.

Su Cha did not seek her out. Yu Chuai was the one who came looking for trouble.

She had made careful preparations before she exposed the news. She had used other people's information for her account, and she specifically went to an internet cafe that was not very strict. Even so, how could a group like Imperial Mu not have talent for hacking? With her hide-and-seek tricks, it was easy to find her out.

After Bai Kun found out, he handed the information directly to Su Cha. "Miss Su, the young master said that you can do whatever you want. If you don't want to deal with it, you can hand it over to us."

Su Cha was not surprised when she saw Yu Chuai.

If a person had hatred in their heart, it was not unusual for them to do anything.

An Qiao, who had never talked to her before, could drug her just because she was jealous. It was not strange for Yu Chuai to act now that Su Cha was so popular.

Su Cha took a simple look at Yu Chuai's personal information. Bai Kun and the rest did things thoroughly. They investigated nearly eighteen generations of Yu Chuai's ancestors.

After reading the information, she directly typed a message to Bai Kun, “Sue her, I will clarify things on my end.”

Bai Kun immediately understood what Su Cha meant. “Okay.”

Su Cha could solve her own problems, but she liked to solve them openly.

Yu Chuai was an adult. Whatever she did, she had to pay the price.

Chapter 432: Cannot Smile Anymore

Yu Chuai was still gloating at home.

Looking at the comments on the Internet criticizing Su Cha, she felt extremely happy.

She never thought that Su Cha could really surpass Min Chen in the last exam. Not only did she surpass her, but she also became number one in the province.

This was not a slap in the face. Yu Chuai was utterly embarrassed in front of her classmates and friends.

Not to mention how her bet with Su Cha was for the loser to kneel in front of everyone.

Yu Chuai could not afford to lose face.

After she found out the result, she immediately asked her family to buy a ticket and left dejectedly.

Although she had left, it was impossible for her to fall behind in her social circle. Back then, she was too confident and kept mocking Su Cha on her social media, making everyone know about their bet. They also knew about the matter of her escaping. Even if her friends did not say it out loud, sometimes they would mock her with their words.

Yu Chuai could not cut off ties with those people, so she hated Su Cha more and more.

She had lost all her face, and all her hatred was directed at Su Cha.

And since Dreams in Progress was in full swing recently, she happened to see Su Cha on it.

Su Cha, Su Cha. Yu Chuai gritted her teeth in hatred.

She did not expect that the ugly duckling she once despised could become such a white swan.

As soon as Su Cha became popular, the old things were brought up again. Her friends often came to her and talked about Su Cha unintentionally. Now that she was popular, everyone knew her. In the future, she would be a big star who could earn tens of millions. She was not in the same world as ordinary people like them.

The jokes from her friends made Yu Chuai even more furious, especially recently. She wanted to contact Min Chen, but Min Chen had completely defamed her, which enraged her.

She had made a bet with Su Cha for Min Chen, but now she turned her back on her?

It was a pity that she did not dare to go against Min Chen. The popularity and reputation of Min Chen's friends were not something that Su Cha could compare with. Of course, she would be picking on the weak. Yu Chuai then thought of the dirt about Su Cha.

To be honest, Su Cha did not have much dirt on her. What Yu Chuai knew was that Su Cha was very ordinary when she was in school. Her grades were ordinary, but the truth of the college entrance examination was clear. No matter how she spoke about the college entrance examination, it was impossible for her to have cheated. However, she accidentally found out that Su Cha had a boyfriend.

At that time, she thought that she had something on him.

She looked pure on the surface, but she was actually a promiscuous woman.

How could someone who had a boyfriend at the age of 18 be good?

Of course, Yu Chuai did not expect that she'd had a few boyfriends in high school.

She had a plan in mind, so she secretly prepared her account and posted Su Cha's dirt on a famous forum.

She thought it through clearly. There were so many scandals about celebrities nowadays. Su Cha could not know who exposed them. What could Su Cha do to her?

There were many who knew about her scandals. How could anyone know that she was the one who'd exposed it?

After doing all of this, Yu Chuai felt like she was in the center of a storm when she saw the news about her.

After all, she had exposed Su Cha's dirt.

However, when she accidentally saw her personal information being exposed on Weibo, she could no longer laugh.

Chapter 433: Very Angry

Yu Chuai was destined to pay a huge price.

Not only did Su Cha want to sue the perpetrator, but she wanted to sue Yu Chuai in particular.

Her information was revealed by an "innocent passerby" in a fit of anger. The person who exposed Su Cha's dirt was Yu Chuai. Her personal information was announced. Although the "passerby" quickly deleted the real information about Yu Chuai, it was too late. Su Cha's fans had intercepted her information everywhere.

At the same time, Su Cha clarified the rumors online. She also admitted that she had a first love when she was young. However, she thought that it was normal to have your first love at 18 years old. There was no further issue about her, and she gave no such thing as an unreasonably humble statement. Many people liked Su Cha.

At the very least, Su Cha did not deny what had happened in the past. Her words also showed that love back then had made her happy.

The situation was not as chaotic as others had guessed.

Most people had an innocent first love, so Su Cha's words had impressed many people. It was just an 18-year-old's relationship, who had not had it before?

Su Cha's fans reacted and were furious with the original informant.

As soon as Yu Chuai's personal information was released, Su Cha also showed that she had found out the identity of the informant and would directly pursue her to the end. The person was very serious and would not stop spreading rumors.

With this combination of statements, how could the fans not understand? In an instant, Yu Chuai's personal circle was taken down and she became the target of everyone.

At the same time, Su Cha's court pass arrived. It was either a lawyer's letter or a court pass.

Su Cha sued Yu Chuai based on all the solid evidence Bai Kun provided.

The commotion subsided within a short day. The production crew was dumbfounded by Su Cha's series of tricks.

No, why would Su Cha have a public relations team?

How did she know about those who spread the rumors?

It was fine if she did not respond, but once she responded, all the programs followed her as she directly sued the rumormongers. Her swift and vigorous actions made people dumbfounded.

Of course, the lawyer also represented the Imperial Mu Group, so Su Cha did not have to bother facing Yu Chuai in court.

After she was sentenced, Yu Chuai would have to pay a price. She would not go to jail, but she would have to pay a heavy price for the rest of her life.

However, after the matter was clarified, many people became curious about her “first love.”

Who would Su Cha’s first love be?

Naturally, it was Zhai Yao.

Su Cha did not deny his existence. In the midst of clarifying, she gave off a certain sense of mystique. She wanted the netizens to develop a sense of immersion and stand on her side.

If her words were too intense at the beginning, it would make people feel unhappy. Moreover, Su Cha had said that she broke up with him peacefully.

At least, she thought so.

However, some people were not happy.

When Bai Kun saw Su Cha’s clarification, he skipped the denial of the rumors and read the things about her first love. Bai Kun realized that he was going to suffer.

The young master had not given Bai Kun his phone yet and was still paying attention to Su Cha’s matter. How could he not see Su Cha’s clear statement?

As expected, not long after Bai Kun saw Su Cha’s statement, he entered Bo Muye’s office and saw him holding his phone. Although his expression was calm, the coldness around him made it clear that he was very angry.

Chapter 434: Persuade Him to Be a Stupid King

“First love?”

It was as if he came straight from hell. His devilish voice was accompanied by a creepy smile.

“A beautiful first love?”

Bai Kun felt goosebumps all over his body. He braced himself and explained on Su Cha's behalf, "Young Master, Miss Su said this to make the netizens think that it's a normal thing. After all, it was an early relationship in high school, and she had the wishful feelings of an innocent and beautiful girl. The truth is not what the netizens liked to guess..."

Before he could finish, he saw the man put his phone away. His deep and cold eyes landed on him, blocking all his words.

Bai Kun swallowed his saliva and heard the man say casually, "An innocent and beautiful girl? Hmm, continue?"

"..."

Can you not get angry?

Bai Kun felt like his scalp was about to explode. He did not dare to say anything more. Cold sweat dripped down his forehead. At this moment, he could not wait to call Miss Su and ask her to help him.

Luckily, someone else successfully attracted his attention.

"Speaking of which..."

The noble and arrogant man placed his phone on the table elegantly. He looked out of the transparent glass building and gazed at the night sky. He murmured, "I was worried that Cha Cha would get angry, so I did not deal with that person. Now it seems that this relationship left a good impression in her heart. Has she not considered my feelings?"

Bai Kun braced himself and advised sincerely, "Young Master, Miss Su will say that you are being unreasonable."

It had been a long time since Miss Su had broken up with Zhai Yao. It was obvious that she was unhappy with him. It was just timely for her to say otherwise.

If she wasn't unhappy, how could the young master have taken advantage of her?

He did not dare to say these words. Bo Mui was obviously unhappy whenever he heard his reasonable words.

However, his unhappiness was different from his usual anger. He snorted. Bai Kun understood that the young master was just throwing a tantrum.

He was unhappy to see her call it her “innocent and beautiful first love.”

Bai Kun: “Young Master, if you are really unhappy, let’s get rid of that person, shall we?”

“No!”

Bo Mui frowned. This was what he thought, but he was worried. “Cha Cha will be unhappy.”

Bai Kun: “...” Why does he think Miss Su will be unhappy?

The main thing was that the young master was too arrogant! He was worried that Miss Su would be angry. He really wanted to do it, but he did not dare to explain it clearly to Miss Su. He could only vent his anger in front of his subordinates.

He could not say it out loud.

Faced with such a situation, Bai Kun thought for a while and quickly came up with a way to distract the young master. “Young Master, Miss Su is currently lacking a management agency. I think several big companies want to sign with Miss Su, but their conditions are really bad. Do you want to sign a management agency under Imperial Mu? That way, Miss Su will be able to cut off many troubles under your watch.”

This troublesome matter meant something.

After all, Bai Kun knew how dirty the entertainment industry was.

Bo Mui thought about it.

As soon as he heard anything involving Su Cha, he could not help but think about it, so Bai Kun successfully changed the topic. “Um... I’ll talk to her when I get back.”

Although Imperial Mu did not have a management agency, it was not difficult to create one for his girlfriend.

Without the approval of the board of directors, Bai Kun suddenly launched a new business development. He felt that he was simply trying to persuade the king to become a stupid king.

Chapter 435: I’ll Sign You. What Do You Think?

When Bo Mui returned, Su Cha took the initiative to talk about the matter on Weibo. “Mui, don’t believe what I said about my first love on Weibo. It’s all fake.”

Bo Mui took off his coat. When he heard Su Cha’s words, he deliberately did not look at her. His voice was strangely calm. “Yes, what’s the matter?”

Su Cha smiled. “When I clarified, I told people about my... ex-boyfriend.”

Speaking of this, she was not too happy. “I have nothing to do with him. I don’t want you to overthink.”

She spoke fast, but the man was already letting his imagination run wild.

Hearing this, he could not help but turn around. Looking at the girl’s exquisite and beautiful face, he pinched her chin, his eyes deep and charming. “Is what you said true? Was it innocent and beautiful?”

Su Cha could not help but smile. “I knew you saw it. I was just talking nonsense.”

Perhaps she had thought that way before, but for the current Su Cha, it was enough that she did not feel disgusted by it.

She took the initiative to hug Bo Mui’s waist. “I like only you.”

People might like many people in their lives, but Su Cha only had Bo Mui.

Now that she had made herself clear, Su Cha said her thoughts, “When I saw you in the past... I thought you were too good. It was because you were too perfect, I felt that I was not worthy of you. I was terrified and did not dare to get close to you.”

Different people had different worlds. At that time, Su Cha knew herself too well. How could a person like her match up to someone as perfect as Bo Mui?

She felt that it was unreal.

“I think it’s so fake. It’s like a dream. If I really got together with you, I might wake up from my dream.”

As she spoke, she recalled the past. At that time, she avoided Bo Mui because of this fear.

Sometimes, she also thought about why Bo Mui approached her.

How could she match Bo Mui’s liking?

“No.”

Bo Mui could not help but kiss the girl’s lips and said intimately, “How can Cha Cha not match up to me? Cha Cha is the most suitable person in the world for me. Only Cha Cha is suited.”

When he’d heard the girl’s words, he felt a little heartache, but at the same time, he felt a strange sense of joy.

So at that time, it wasn’t that Su Cha did not have feelings for him?

It was because she felt too insecure that she dared not approach?

Bo Mui’s eyes lit up.

If it's like that, he could forgive Cha Cha's blindness. After all, such a person was not worthy of being compared to him.

"Yes, so I thought it through."

The girl could not help but smile. Actually, when she hugged him now, she felt very happy. She felt much more at ease.

"Good girl."

With just a few words, the knot was successfully removed from Bo Mui's heart. It turned out that Su Cha liked him.

He automatically explained to himself that Zhai Yao was just a substitute.

This substitute was not high-quality.

Bo Mui's eyes darkened as he decided on a time to settle that business.

Since Su Cha said that she liked only him, why would others matter?

Touching the top of Su Cha's head, Bo Mui kissed her forehead and carried her in his arms. He asked, "Cha Cha, I've registered a management agency for you. I'll sign you. What do you think?"
