

The Queen 531

Chapter 531: Back Then

Zong Bingyi's eyes turned red.

He was no longer as graceful as before. He grabbed the table tightly with the back of his hand, and blue veins popped out.

It was obvious that Bo Mui's words had enraged him.

Su Cha frowned. She did not like to force others. The old man in front of her obviously did not want Su Cha to see that person. In that case...

She was about to pull Bo Mui's arm and say "forget it" when Zong Bingyi gritted his teeth and said, "Just this once!"

His words surprised the butler.

"He's in the backyard."

Then he said to the butler, "Take them."

He then turned his head away as if he did not want to look at them.

Bo Mui did not care at all. He held Su Cha's hand and said, "Grandpa Zong, I will visit you next time."

His words made Zong Bingyi's temples throb.

The butler glanced at Zong Bingyi worriedly, then sighed and walked over to take them to meet someone.

Su Cha had probably seen Zong Bingyi before. On the way, Bo Mui started to tell her about the past. "In the past, there were many disputes between Zuo Shaoxin and Ruan Yin. At that time, Zuo Shaoxin's fiancée was not Ruan Yin. She was the third party, although Zuo Shaoxin had forced her. After Ruan Yin got pregnant with you, Zuo Shaoxin's fiancée did not want to let the matter rest. At that time, she'd wanted to kill you. Ruan Yin could not bear it, so she asked someone to take you away. Moreover, Zuo Shaoxin did not know about your existence."

Su Cha: "..."

Why did she feel that this story was beyond her expectations?

Moreover, she had the urge to vomit blood.

Bo Mui continued slowly, "The person who took you away was Grandpa Zong's son, Zong Yanxiu."

When Su Cha heard this name, she felt a resonance in her mind.

"Uncle Yanxiu took you away to live with him for a few years. Later, something happened. When Grandpa Zong found him, Uncle Yanxiu was dying. And you..."

After Bo Mui trailed off, he looked at Su Cha. "You were discovered to have fainted by the side of the mountain and had suffered some light injuries. Grandpa Zong hated you because of this matter, but he entrusted you to someone who'll take care of you by Uncle Yanxiu's request. The condition is that you will never return to the Imperial Capital."

Hearing this, the female butler who was leading the way in front could not help but turn her head. "Young Master Bo, our old master doesn't hate her. He just hates her mother. Isn't the reason why Young Master Yanxiu became like this because of her mother?"

The butler glared at Su Cha.

Su Cha instantly understood why this butler, as well as Old Master Zong, hated her so much.

Because their hatred for Ruan Yin had been transferred to her.

But strangely, Su Cha did not remember anything.

Perhaps it was because she was too young at that time, she was not old enough to remember things. Otherwise, she should have some memories.

However, she could sense that something was wrong. She was injured when she was found?

How did she get hurt?

Su Cha thought about it and said softly, “So he entrusted me to Su Mingzhe?”

Bo Muye nodded.

Su Cha did not know what to say. It was meaningless to blame Su Mingzhe at this time. It was obvious that the problem was bigger.

Why was Zong Yanxiu willing to take her away?

Given Old Master Zong’s status, Zong Yanxiu was also the heir of the Zong family. Why did he abandon the family business and leave with her?

Su Cha felt that it was an ill-fated relationship.

Chapter 532: They Were the One Who Pushed You Down!

When she entered the backyard, Su Cha saw the figure.

It was so familiar that she was at a loss.

Before she came in, she only found Zong Yanxiu’s name familiar.

She seemed to have heard someone else’s story. Only when she saw this person did she finally feel like she was in character.

The figure was sitting in a wheelchair. He was bending over and wrapping his fingers around a flower. His simple movements were elegant and not commonplace at all.

The butler hesitated for a moment before calling out, “Young Master.”

The man paused. “What’s the matter?”

He turned around and saw two figures standing behind him. The gentle smile on his face gradually disappeared.

The man had an extremely good-looking face, but he was more mature. Due to his eye shape, his eyes always showed some gloominess, but in his eyes, there was always a familiar affection.

“What did the teacher teach you today?”

“He taught us how to count ducks. I think it’s too childish. I’ve already learned it...”

“Yeah, our Xiao Cha is really awesome!”

“Daddy, you taught me well!”

The sudden voice echoed in Su Cha’s mind. The first time she saw him, it was as if the curtain that was originally obscuring everything was cut open by a sharp blade. The overwhelming information poured out, bringing about an unbelievable truth.

There were many conversations and scenes. The only thing that did not change was the childish voice in her memory and the man’s elegant and gentle voice.

Perhaps it was because she was agitated, Su Cha felt a sharp pain on her forehead. She endured it, but cold sweat flowed out in an instant, and even her lips started to tremble.

When the person opposite saw her, his smile disappeared and his face was gradually filled with shock. “Xiao Cha?”

He seemed to be in disbelief, and then he felt a little lost. The moment he saw Su Cha, his mind was in a mess, and his emotions were complicated. He did not know how to feel.

“Cha Cha?”

Bo Mui's expression changed. He noticed Su Cha's strange expression at once and pulled her nervously. “What's wrong?”

“I...”

As soon as the word left her mouth, Su Cha could not help but cover her forehead. It was throbbing as if something was about to break out from inside. It was so painful that she shivered.

Thunder, lightning, and storm.

All kinds of scenes gathered in her mind, interweaving into the deepest nightmare in her memory.

“Xiao Cha?”

He seemed to be surprised. He did not expect Su Cha to look like this. He pushed the wheelchair and rushed over subconsciously.

The butler was also surprised by Su Cha's appearance.

“I...”

She tried her best to suppress the hatred that rose in her heart. Her ears were filled with her desperate cries.

“Daddy, Daddy...”

“Boom...”

The thunder drowned all the cries and the rain drowned all the sins.

The person on the other side of the mountain had fallen off the cliff. It was unknown if he was dead or alive.

She slipped and hit her head on a stone, falling unconscious.

“I saw it.”

Her eyes were closed, her face was pale, and her lips were trembling. She suddenly spoke with hatred and despair, “I saw it, they pushed you down! It was them!”

The coldness in her voice rose along the spine of the audience, causing them to fall into a dead silence.

Chapter 533: Sadness and Helplessness

After she said this, Su Cha’s mind seemed to be in chaos.

Only these scenes kept running through her mind.

It was as if it wanted to break all her nerves, causing her to break out in a cold sweat.

In the past, Su Cha had seen people on TV suffering from memory-related experiences. She thought it was an act, but now she knew it was true.

Due to the sudden surging of memories, it was as if something in her mind that she could not accept had turned into an emotion called pain.

Memories flooded her mind. She frowned and closed her eyes tightly, but the scene replayed in front of her.

“Cha Cha...”

The man's usually clear voice sounded flustered at this moment. He held Su Cha's hand as if he wanted to wake her up.

The butler was surprised.

Everyone in the Bo family knew that she was cold-blooded, unreasonable, and even a little ruthless. When had they ever seen her like this?

However, Zong Yanxiu's expression was ugly. He looked at Su Cha with obvious worry.

The butler could not help but say, "Young Master, this is Ruan Yin's daughter!"

Su Cha's words had made the butler's heart flutter.

Push?

Who pushed their young master down?

Zong Yanxiu said with a rare pale face, "She's my daughter!"

There was no doubt about it.

Bo Muyi glanced at him.

Su Cha suddenly opened her eyes.

The two men's hearts tightened. "Cha Cha?"

"Xiao Cha? How do you feel?"

"I'm fine..."

Su Cha exhaled slowly. The pain was intense and fierce. It seemed like a few hours, but in fact, it was only a few seconds.

Despite the cold sweat on her forehead, it did not affect the clarity in her eyes.

She looked at Zong Yanxiu and smiled innocently. "Father."

This was the most sincere voice she had ever used to call out that word.

When he heard her call, Zong Yanxiu's body could not help but tremble slightly. In the end, he lowered his hands and held the handle of the wheelchair. His eyes suddenly turned red. "Actually, I didn't want you to come. I know you are living well."

He had only taken care of her for a few years, and even under the mockery of many people, he still regarded Su Cha as his own child.

Ever since she was a little pudgy baby, he had hugged her. Every mouthful of water and every mouthful of rice was personally fed by him. As he watched this child grow up, she would lean against him and act cute. That kind of affection could not be erased even if they were not blood-related.

After so many years, this point had not changed.

When he woke up, he'd wanted to find Su Cha immediately. Although Su Mingzhe knew that she had suffered a lot in the past, he did not treat her well, and Zong Yanxiu's heart ached for her. But now that he knew that she was by Bo Muye's side and that she had become outstanding, he'd given up the thought of looking for Su Cha.

After all, he had an unspeakable secret inside him, and he knew that Su Cha had lost her memory.

He did not know if the memories she'd lost were related to him.

Hearing the girl's words and her hatred-filled words, he knew that she had seen what had happened back then.

Other than feeling sad and helpless, he could not do anything else.

Chapter 534: That Glance

“Why not?”

Su Cha squatted down. Her distant memory was gradually recovering. Even if she could not remember clearly, she knew how much this man loved her.

She looked at him with a smile, but her eyes were glistening with tears. “If I hadn’t come, wouldn’t these things have been kept a secret? If I hadn’t remembered, wouldn’t I be letting your enemy continue living happily?”

She did not know why she could instantly remember what had happened when she saw Zong Yanxiu. Perhaps Zong Yanxiu was the devil in her heart.

In her memory, she saw Zong Yanxiu being pushed down.

It was too much of a blow to the head that caused this series of events.

Zong Yanxiu held her shoulder worriedly. “I have no enemies, Xiao Cha.”

Bo Muyi frowned slightly as he watched his movements. His fingertips moved slightly, but he managed to control his impulse.

Su Cha pried his hand away and held it in her palm. She felt the familiar warmth and looked at him seriously. “You didn’t. I do. I won’t let them off.”

Zong Yanxiu’s expression changed. “Xiao Cha, they are your parents!”

“The only parent I have is you. You are my father.”

After she said this, Bo Muyi understood.

The butler was a little confused, but she also felt a little shocked.

Bo Muiyi tilted his head. After confirming that Su Cha was fine, he chuckled and said, “Uncle Zong, it seems that what happened back then was not an accident. Were Zuo Shaoxin and Ruan Yin the ones who pushed you down the cliff?”

As soon as he said this, the butler’s face turned pale. “How is that possible? Our young master had raised their daughter for years!”

Zong Yanxiu looked at Bo Muiyi steadily. His pale face reflected Bo Muiyi’s words. In the end, he could not say anything and could only sigh.

Su Cha looked at Zong Yanxiu and slowly told him about what happened back then. “That night, the rain was very heavy. She came to look for you. You said that you had something to do and had to go out, so you coaxed me to sleep early. The thunder woke me up. I saw that it was very late. You haven’t come back yet. I went down the town and saw them halfway.”

When she spoke about these things, other than her bright eyes, she did not seem to have any other emotions. “You guys stood there. Each was holding a black umbrella. Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin were there. What were you arguing with them about? The rain was too heavy, and I couldn’t hear you clearly. I was hiding there to eavesdrop, but in just a few seconds, I saw Zuo Shaoxin asking someone to push you down...”

At this point, the butler’s expression was as if she had seen a ghost. She could no longer hold it in and turned to run back the way she came.

It was obvious who she wanted to tell.

Bo Muiyi and Su Cha did not stop her.

“The thunder was too loud. I screamed, but no one heard me. I rushed over to call out to you, but I slipped and hit a rock. Then, I didn’t know anything.”

It was a long time ago, but Su Cha seemed to remember everything clearly as if it had happened yesterday.

Including the expressions of Zuo Shaoxin and Ruan Yin.

Ruan Yin was crying miserably. She seemed to want to jump down to save someone, but Zuo Shaoxin dragged her away forcefully. Before he left, he clearly saw Su Cha hiding behind a stone.

Su Cha would never forget that expression.

He was high and mighty, with obvious hatred and relief.

Chapter 535: Whoever It Is

“Stop it...”

Zong Yanxiu’s lips trembled. He did not know how to stop Su Cha from continuing. After Bo Muye heard the truth, he suppressed the murderous intent in his heart and looked at Zong Yanxiu. “So, Uncle, do you still think it’s better to hide everything for Su Cha’s sake?”

Zong Yanxiu shook his head. He could not bear to see Su Cha’s expression. “No one will believe it now. Besides, Su Cha is their biological daughter.”

“With the Zong family’s current power, it is indeed a little troublesome for you to deal with the Zuo family now. The Martial Alliance behind them is also not easy to deal with.”

Bo Muye said playfully, “So, Uncle Yanxiu, do you want to work together?”

Zong Yanxiu looked at Bo Muye in surprise. “You want to attack the Zuo family?”

He glanced at Su Cha, who was expressionless, and said worriedly, “The Bo family has always been neutral. It’ll take a lot of effort to pull it off. Besides, this matter has been going on for many years. Everyone is fine now. There’s no need to...”

“Can Uncle Yanxiu really bear it?”

Bo Muye looked at Zong Yanxiu with an unfathomable expression. “When you took Cha Cha away, how many people in the Imperial Capital mocked and ridiculed you behind your back? Is it worth it for you to give up everything for Ruan Yin?”

Zong Yanxiu's face swelled, and he looked at Su Cha with embarrassment.

Back then, he was the high and mighty young master of the Zong family, but he became a laughingstock for the sake of Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin. When Ruan Yin asked him to help her, he'd agreed without hesitation.

Zuo Shaoxin's fiancée's family could not be underestimated. Zong Yanxiu gave up everything he had and brought Su Cha to a small town to live in seclusion.

Because of this matter, the old man from the Zong family was so angry that he had a heart attack. Zong Yanxiu's father was so angry that he had no choice but to take over the Zong family's mess. Until now, everyone knew that the Zuo and the Zong family did not get along well. And because the two families were backed by the Martial Alliance, this kind of family matter could not be settled by the Alliance. However, because it was a matter of great importance, the old Alliance Master had personally come forward to mediate, so the Zong family did not completely fall out with the Zuo family.

Zong Yanxiu's father had not fallen out with them in person, but he had cursed Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin many times in private.

Nowadays, people in the Imperial Capital still dared to shamelessly say that Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin were a match made in heaven. Everyone praised Zuo Shaoxin for loving his wife so much. It had been so many years since he'd been in any scandals, and they even gave birth to a pair of beautiful children.

The Zong family gritted their teeth in anger.

They knew that Su Cha was brought up by Zong Yanxiu. However, because of Zong Yanxiu's accident, his life was in danger when they found him. After he fell off the cliff, he was slowed down by the tree branches and fell into a mud pit, saving his life.

The Zong family had also noticed Su Cha. At that time, Su Cha was just a little girl. No matter how well-mannered the Zong family was, they could not show any good expressions.

And because Zong Yanxiu had taken care of her for so many years, the Zongs had given Su Cha to someone called Su Mingzhe to fulfill Zong Yanxiu's last act of kindness, but only on the condition that she was never to return to the Imperial Capital.

If Zuo Shaoxin did not care about his daughter, why should the Zong family care?

"Of course not."

Su Cha spoke up for Zong Yanxiu. There was a smile on her face, but it gave off a creepy feeling. "It's all thanks to you that I didn't die back then, Father. But Zuo Shaoxin's matter is naturally not worth it. In my eyes, those who want to harm my father should not have a good ending."

No matter who it was.

Chapter 536: She Is More Reasonable Than You

Zong Yanxiu wanted to say something, but he could not.

The current Su Cha made him feel a little gratified and... sad?

She was innocent and cute when she was young. She should not have come into contact with such things.

She had grown up. Her appearance was no different from when she was young, but she seemed to have changed.

Zong Yanxiu sighed. "I just want you to be happy. I don't want you to fall into any pits of hatred. They are your biological parents. Now that they have acknowledged you, let bygones be bygones."

Su Cha looked at him silently and did not blame him.

Zong Yanxiu had always been like this.

He was very gentle, especially when facing Ruan Yin and Su Cha.

He had never wanted Su Cha to be sad, so he had to consider matters for her sake.

Zuo Shaoxin was Su Cha's father. He was afraid that Su Cha would regret it in the future.

She blinked. "I'll listen to you, Father."

These words had the flavor of childhood. Zong Yanxiu vaguely saw the little girl who used to act coquettishly in front of him. Unfortunately, his legs were crippled now, and she had already grown up.

Zong Yanxiu sighed.

But Bo Muyi...

Zong Yanxiu frowned. Although he did not know how Bo Muyi had lived these many years, he had heard some rumors after he woke up. Ever since his parents died, his personality had changed greatly.

That was true. After experiencing such a thing, no one would be able to accept it.

Especially someone like him.

The only thing that did not change was that he liked to stick to Su Cha just like when he was young.

Perhaps because from the moment he was rescued, the first person he saw was Su Cha.

Bo Muyi felt Zong Yanxiu's gaze and smiled slightly.

His smile was cold and gloomy, making Zong Yanxiu shudder.

He knew that the little boy from before had become very shrewd. Even he could not see through him. But as long as he treated Su Cha well, Zong Yanxiu could not be bothered with anything else.

At this moment, Zong Yanxiu's father and the butler rushed over.

His face was pale and filled with disbelief. He came over and said to Su Cha, "You said that you saw Zuo Shaoxin and Ruan Yin pushing my son down? My son didn't fall down by himself?"

Perhaps it was because he was too anxious, he'd lost his composure and had started to sweat.

He even wanted to grab Su Cha's arm but was blocked by Bo Mui.

He had aged too much because of his son.

Su Cha was the only person who did not hate this old man. If it were someone else, he would have hated Su Cha to the core after his son became like this.

Although he hated her, he had fulfilled that last act of kindness. At least he had given Su Cha a way out. She could still live by Su Mingzhe's side, and he had given Su Mingzhe enough money to support Su Cha throughout her life.

Zuo Shaoxin was really unforgivable. He knew everything from beginning to end. That glance had made Su Cha understand that Zuo Shaoxin was taking revenge.

Zong Yanxiu grabbed Su Cha's wrist and looked at his father. He smiled calmly. "No, Dad. Xiao Cha was wrong."

"Yes. Zuo Shaoxin asked someone to push him down."

Her completely different answer made Zong Yanxiu's smile freeze.

Zong Bingyi glanced at Zong Yanxiu and then at Su Cha. He instantly understood. He pointed at Su Cha's nose and said to Zong Yanxiu, "She is more reasonable than you!"

Chapter 537: Why?

Then, he panted heavily and looked at Su Cha with his face red due to anger. "I don't care if they are your biological parents. I will never let the Zuo family off. He caused my son to become like this. I will make the Zuo family pay!"

Bo Muiyi smiled. "Grandpa Zong, it's useless for you to talk to Cha Cha. Why don't we talk about it?"

He rarely took the initiative to take on matters. Even his words were elegant and calm, as if he was inviting Zong Bingyi to have afternoon tea.

Zong Bingyi glanced at Bo Muiyi in anger. Then, he understood what was going on and nodded. He glared at Zong Yanxiu and left with Bo Muiyi and the butler.

The backyard quietened down, leaving only Su Cha and Zong Yanxiu.

Bo Muiyi had also made time for them to catch up.

Su Cha walked to where Zong Yanxiu was just now. She touched the flower Zong Yanxiu had just touched and smiled brightly. "Father, you are still the same. You are very patient with everything and are full of kindness."

Her memory returned quickly, and every scene flashed through her mind.

She could not remember many things when she was young, but some things always existed.

She remembered how gentle Zong Yanxiu was when he brought her along. He also spoiled her unconditionally.

At that time, Su Cha thought that Zong Yanxiu was the best father in the world.

In fact, her surname was Su. Zong Yanxiu's identity had made it difficult for him to register Su Cha. He did not want to expose Su Cha's existence back then, so Zong Yanxiu had found Su Mingzhe's account and registered her under him.

Su Cha also wondered why her father did not have the same surname as her, although he always called her Xiao Cha.

She did not have a mother and had been mocked by many local children. How could there be so many tricks in the world of children? She felt wronged and told Zong Yanxiu about these things.

This man always looked at her gently and silently. He only said that her mother had something on and could not come to see Xiao Cha. She would be fine in the future.

As she gradually grew up, she no longer cared about this matter. Whether or not the mother that her father spoke of existed seemed to be just that.

Zong Yanxiu had given her extra care. At that time, Su Cha thought happily that her father would grow up with her.

Because of this, she especially cherished Zong Yanxiu because she was also afraid that one day, she would lose Zong Yanxiu, her family.

How could she know Zuo Shaoxin and Ruan Yin?

Blood relationship?

Su Cha sneered.

She would never forget the scene in the rain. Perhaps she had inherited some of Zuo Shaoxin's genes, so when she saw that scene, she wanted to kill them.

They had hurt her father and her only family.

No wonder she had such violent feelings when she first met Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin.

"You've grown up and learned how to preach to your father."

Zong Yanxiu could tell what she was implying. He pushed the wheelchair over. Su Cha was squatting down, so he could touch her hair and look at her with complicated emotions. "Some things are over. Time will heal everything."

“But time can’t heal the marks left behind.” Su Cha looked at his legs on the wheelchair, her eyes cold. “Even if time reverses, it can’t erase the damage that has already happened.”

Why should she have died so miserably in her first life?

Chapter 538: Accident

“You...”

Seeing Su Cha like this, Zong Yanxiu was stunned for a moment.

He found her unfamiliar, but she was still as obedient as ever.

And because of this unfamiliarity, he felt very sad. It was as if he did not know what had happened to Su Cha, which was why he was sad.

He did not want Su Cha to live with hatred, because that would only bring her pain.

He pulled Su Cha’s hand and smiled gently. “Push me and walk around here. Let me show you around. You haven’t been here before.”

“Okay.”

Their tone was intimate and natural. Even though they had not seen each other for more than ten years, it seemed like it had only been a few days.

There was no barrier between father and daughter, but there were some differences.

This feeling was something Su Mingzhe could not give, and Zuo Shaoxin could not.

The moment she saw Zong Yanxiu, it was as if she had become blood-related. For a moment, she wanted to throw herself into his arms and cry happily. She wanted to tell him how much she had suffered all these years. She wanted to tell him how sad her life was and how badly she had been hurt.

Although she was stupid, she had never hurt anyone. Why did she end up like that?

Now that everything was happening again, Su Cha felt that Zong Yanxiu was right. Time would eventually heal everything.

She could not heal the wounds and marks, but she could at least heal some things. It was as if nothing had happened.

They had not seen each other for many years. Su Cha and Zong Yanxiu seemed to have endless things to talk about. They chatted along the way. Most of the time, Su Cha chose to talk about how she had been working hard to get into the Imperial Capital. Zong Yanxiu's expression was filled with pride. When Bo Muye was mentioned, Zong Yanxiu sighed. "That child has had a hard life. His parents..."

He could not bear to say this.

Su Cha had just recovered some of her memories, but most of them were about Zong Yanxiu. In her hazy memories of Bo Muye, Su Cha felt that there was a little boy who had followed her all around when she was young. She frowned and slowly recalled, "Was Bo Muye's parents in an airplane accident?"

"Yes."

Zong Yanxiu turned to look at her confused face. "Don't you remember? We were in the town that day. The plane crashed on the mountain. You were playing there. I was worried about you, so I rushed to you. I found you next to the plane's remains, dragging someone. That person was Bo Muye."

"His parents have lost consciousness at that time. You said that his parents asked you to save him. You told me that. Can't you remember?"

Su Cha shook her head then nodded. "I think so..."

But it had been too long. With this blurred memory, it did not seem like she had forgotten but that she was too young back then. She could not remember things clearly, so she naturally forgot some things.

It was impossible for a person to remember everything clearly from a young age.

Unless it was an important scene, which she would keep in her heart.

Perhaps because of what had happened involving Zuo Shaoxin, Su Cha asked, “Was it an accident?”

Zong Yanxiu also paused. “At that time, it was in the newspaper. The examination revealed that a private plane had an accident, and the investigation was not accurate...”

But everyone knew that that was impossible.

Given the Bo family’s status, a private plane would definitely be carefully maintained by someone. The word “checkup” itself was strange.

Chapter 539: Other People Can Abandon Anyone

But Su Cha could not remember it clearly.

She was not a god. Other than having a deep memory of everything that had happened in the past, she was not clear about what had happened when she was young.

Only Zong Yanxiu knew better.

She remembered Bo Muiyi. After she saved him, Bo Muiyi stayed with them for a while before the Bo family found him.

Now that she thought about it, it seemed that the Bo family had not taken long to find Bo Muiyi. The Zong family also knew about Zong Yanxiu.

Otherwise, Zong Yanxiu would not have been rescued in time after Zuo Shaoxin did that.

He almost died.

Su Cha's eyes darkened.

Sometimes, blood relations looked more like a joke.

She could not find any reason why Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin would attack Zong Yanxiu.

And Bo Mui...

It was no wonder he was so attached to her. During that period right after losing his parents, Bo Mui had been deeply affected. It was Zong Yanxiu and Su Cha who had been guarding him, so it was as if he had found a life-saving buoy.

If not for the accident that happened later, she and Bo Mui might not have experienced so much.

However, this was also a coincidence. No one knew that the plane that the Bo family's parents had flown would appear at the place where Su Cha and her father lived, and where she coincidentally saved Bo Mui.

Some things were fated.

"A while ago, after I just woke up, I wanted to look for you."

Zong Yanxiu covered his mouth and coughed softly. He had just begun to recover and his body was not used to it. "It's just that I haven't found a suitable opportunity..."

On top of Zong Bingyi's hatred for Su Cha, he did not want Zong Yanxiu to know about her.

If not for how Su Cha unexpectedly reappeared in the Imperial Capital, Zong Yanxiu would not have known about her.

He could recognize Su Cha.

In fact, if Zong Yanxiu had not woken up, not long after Su Cha appeared on the television, Zong Bingyi would have gone to trouble Su Mingzhe.

Because Zong Yanxiu had woken up, Zong Bingyi had been too happy and could not be bothered about this matter.

“I saw you on TV. You sing well and are living well. I’m relieved.”

As he spoke, he seemed to be feeling gratified. There was gentleness and affection in the corner of his eyes. Su Cha looked at the smile at the corner of his eyes and suddenly felt wronged.

“No, I haven’t been well all these years.”

She could not help but feel an impulse in her heart. She told Zong Yanxiu about everything that had happened to her.

She could not say that she had been reborn. It was already hard enough for her to end up like that in her past life.

Everything had changed before it could happen. She only talked about the past.

Zong Yanxiu did not expect her to have lived like this for so many years. When he sensed that her hands were trembling as she held the wheelchair, his face turned pale with anger. “He promised me, he promised me!”

At that time, Su Mingzhe had met him in the town. Zong Yanxiu had seen how loyal and honest Su Mingzhe was, and since he probably expected some things to happen soon, he’d entrusted Su Cha to him.

He had left behind all means of retreat to ensure that Su Cha would have no worries in her life.

But he did not expect that Su Cha, who he thought was doing well, would have been so aggrieved.

He used to dote on her like a treasure, but in the eyes of others, she could be abandoned at any time.

Chapter 540: 30% Fear, 70% Admiration

“If I hadn’t realized in time and left with Mui to go to the Imperial Capital, I don’t know what my life would have been like. I’m utterly disappointed in Ruan Yin and Zuo Shaoxin, and I’m also disappointed in Su Mingzhe.”

Su Cha described her change as the change after Bo Mui found her. After all, Zong Yanxiu did not know about her specifics after so many years. Even if her personality had changed greatly, he would not find it abrupt.

“How could he do this to you!”

Zong Yanxiu gritted his teeth and coughed several times in anger.

His face turned pale. Su Cha quickly stroked his back. “Father, let’s just forget it. The 500,000 yuan will be his reward for raising me for so many years. Whether he lives or dies in the future has nothing to do with us.”

Su Mingzhe was just a stranger.

In the past, Su Cha had placed a ridiculous amount of affection on him. In this world, filial piety was the most important thing. Su Cha did not have any filial piety for him. It was just that Su Mingzhe had raised her for so many years.

Zong Yanxiu fell silent. There was a flash of sadness in his eyes. In the end, he lowered his head and choked, “I’m sorry. It’s Father’s fault. I didn’t know this would happen. I didn’t know he was such a person.”

People change. One can’t be sure what will happen.

When he first met Su Mingzhe, Zong Yanxiu definitely did not expect Su Mingzhe to become like this.

He had entrusted Su Cha to Su Mingzhe.

“Father, I’m just saying these things to you. Just take it that I’m complaining. Just shake it off. Don’t keep it in your heart. I’m living quite well now. I have a good person like Mui by my side. I have a career that I like and I’m still studying. It’s quite good.”

She'd felt wronged and wanted to talk to someone.

She could say it to no one in the past. Bo Mui knew everything about her, but it was only Zong Yanxiu who had to know everything.

Su Cha had treated him as her father when she was young.

Zong Yanxiu was still the same as when she was young. He smiled warmly at her, but now he felt a little guilty. There was still so much time left, and he could make up for it.

He looked at Su Cha and asked another question, "Are you and Mui serious?"

When she saved Bo Mui, Zong Yanxiu had taken care of him for a period of time and knew Bo Mui's personality.

However, he was slow when he was young and did not like to talk to people, especially during that period of time when his emotions were in too much turmoil. He did not listen to anyone's words. At most, he could listen to two sentences when he was behind Su Cha.

At that time, Su Cha was only five or six years old. Bo Mui was already 12 years old. Now that he thought about it, it was actually quite hilarious.

Now that he was older, he was definitely different from when he was young. Zong Yanxiu kept feeling that this child had become a little scary. Moreover, despite waking up after so long, he had more or less heard some rumors.

He was ruthless.

However, he could understand that in such a ruthless environment like the Bo family, if he did not act ruthlessly, he would die.

Su Cha nodded. "We are dating."

She spoke seriously and did not seem to be joking.

Zong Yanxiu could see the determination in her bright eyes. He nodded slowly and said softly, "He's good."

At least in the eyes of the elders, he was one among the few who'd say that Bo Mui was good.

When others mentioned Bo Mui, they would always feel 30% fear and 70% admiration.
