Chapter 76: Report to the Police

Su Cha prosecuted Qiu Yu to scare her. To be frank, Su Cha had other intentions and had no patience to deal with Qiu Yu.

If she did not educate Qiu Yu, who scolded her without reason, would she not be letting society down?

When the police learned about the matter through the phone, it caused a bit of a headache. Nonetheless, they sent out two police officers immediately to investigate.

It was not that the police were willing to intervene in such situations. The police were worried that if they did not intervene promptly, the situation would escalate, and then there would be unimaginable consequences. After all, young people are often impulsive, and the police did not want to handle any tragic incidents.

Moreover, the messages found in the WeChat screenshot had definitely crossed the line.

The girl who made the police report spoke calmly and clearly. Her unique voice left a deep impression on the policemen.

When the police met Su Cha, they were dumbfounded by her beauty.

After they regained their senses, they got some information clarified from her before bringing Su Cha and Qiu Yu for a mediation.

When Qiu Yu received a call from the police, she was stunned.

An average person would panic when they receive a call from the police. After all, they had not broken the law, and the average person has a natural sense of defensiveness towards the police.

At that moment, Qiu Yu was at the hospital with Zhai Yao who was recovering from his leg injuries.

Sang Shishi and another male friend were also present at the hospital.

The way that Zhai Yao injured his leg was strange. Zhai Yao said that as he was too angry and distracted with Su Cha's incident, he had fallen down while walking.

He must have been too embarrassed to admit that he had been beaten up by Su Cha.

After Qiu Yu answered the call from the police, she started stuttering. When she hung up, Sang Shishi glanced over with a doubtful face, "Xiao Yu, what's wrong?"

Qiu Yu exclaimed in disbelief, "Su Cha, that crazy bitch, she actually reported to the police? She actually lodged a report with the police!"

Sang Shishi was stunned into silence. Zhai Yao could not believe what had happened, "A police report, what did she lodge a report for?"

The other man who was also in the ward looked over and frowned.

Qiu Yu did not dare to tell the truth, her eyes wandered around while she said, "Just...I went to ask her about the things you guys told me about. She said that I was defaming her and said that she would sue me. So, I told her she's mad..."

"Why did you ask her about that?"

Zhai Yao flew into a thundering rage, he was more worked up than Qiu Yu, "We had no proof, why did you ask her about it? Now, she has a hold upon us."

Qiu Yu started to panic, her slender eyes glared at Zhai Yao, "Wasn't it what you guys told me? How could I have known? She has done such a shameless thing, so what if I told her about it?"

Sang Shishi turned as pale as a ghost.

She exchanged glances with Zhai Yao. They knew in their hearts that they had no evidence to prove that, and it was all made up.

Zhai Yao was mad that Su Cha had beaten him up. He wanted to spread rumors about her so that her reputation in Yonggu Town would be tarnished.

That woman had actually participated in the “Dreams In Progress” competition and was even promoted. Sang Shishi had learned about this as she was also participating in this competition. However, she was at the back of the queue. After checking the results for the day, she was stunned to the ground when she saw Su Cha.

She gritted her teeth as she monitored Su Cha’s popularity and video. It was apparent that Su Cha’s performance had gained a lot of attention. On the other hand, Sang Shishi did not even know if she would pass the judging round...

Of course, Sang Shishi was unhappy about that, and she vented to Qiu Yu. Zhai Yao did not stop her, and he added some groundless claims which Qiu Yu accepted as the ‘truth’.

But, no one would have guessed that Qiu Yu would confront Su Cha!

Chapter 77: In The Hospital

Since Su Cha had mentioned that she would sue her, this madwoman would definitely do so.

After yesterday, Sang Shishi and Zhai Yao both believed that Su Cha would dare to do any crazy thing.

They looked nervous. A boy said impatiently, “Why should you fear Su Cha? If you don’t know how to deal with her, I can find people to take good care of it. Zhai Yao, she has cheated on you, dumped you, and forced you to give her money. Don’t you want her to pay?”

The boy was called Li Dongfeng. He was a faithful brother of Zhai Yao. They were both sophomores in the same college.

His grades were poor and so he just loafed around.

He did not like Su Cha in the first place because he thought that Zhai Yao belonged to Sang Shishi. Su Cha only met him later and was the third party. He also secretly admired Sang Shishi.

He was a little unhappy about Zhai Yao's breakup with Su Cha, but he then thought that Sang Shishi might be happy with Zhai Yao in this way.

In Li Dongfeng's own opinion, he was selfless and great. However, he was just a douchebag in other people's eyes.

Knowing Su Cha had cheated on Zhai Yao, he stood on his brother's side and hated her bitterly. He wanted to take it out for him right away.

Zhai Yao was shocked by his words and stopped him at once, "Don't..."

He pretended to be sad as if his feelings had been hurt, "I have to let her go after she told me everything. Merry meet, merry part. Let's not make a scene of it. After all, I loved her so much..." Zhai Yao was clear that if he dared to touch Su Cha, the intimidating man behind her and even Lian Chi would not let him off.

She dared to break his leg yesterday. What if she was enraged and stabbed him?

Zhai Yao cherished his life and did not want to pick a fight with a lunatic.

His pity and affectionate appearance even won the sympathy of Qiu Yu, who had been a little harsh to him just now.

But a grudging look flashed on Sang Shishi's face.

"Merry meet, merry part? Didn't you hear Qiu Yu say that she is going to call the police to arrest her?!"

Li Dongfeng said harshly. He wanted to take out a cigarette to smoke but stopped at the sight of Sang Shishi, "Alright, we'll wait for her. Let's see what she can do."

But Zhai Yao felt worried.

Police would probably come here. He did not know what Su Cha planned to do next...

Su Cha brought the police soon after.

It was just a little clinic nearby with no CCTV. They could not afford to go to the central hospital which would cost hundreds of bucks each day.

It was convenient for Su Cha.

Qiu Yu saw Su Cha come in with the police. She showed envy first and then got disturbed at the police's questioning.

Su Cha smiled at Qiu Yu after she saw her.

But the smile scared Qiu Yu.

Qiu Yu was not pretty, but she was good at dressing up and putting on makeup to barely make her a five. She had always been jealous of Su Cha. Every time she discussed Su Cha with Sang Shishi, she felt good to mock her, pretty as she was, she was an idiot and push-over.

But now seeing the police coming here with Su Cha, Qiu Yu thought to herself that maybe she had done wrong.

Chapter 78: A Countermeasure

“No, I did not send that WeChat...”

In the beginning, Qiu Yu wanted to protest. However, the experienced police officer quickly dealt with her, “If you do not want to tell the truth, please hand over your mobile phone to us. We will check your WeChat log, and compare it with the screenshots that Miss Su had sent us. You cannot argue that someone else had logged in to your WeChat, right? We can find out which device made the login.”

Qiu Yu's face stiffened. She glanced in the room – Li Dongfeng, Zhai Yao, and the rest were all inside. After all, the police were here, and it would be inconvenient for them to be present. Hence, Qiu Yu went out to speak with the police.

She gritted her teeth, "I just asked her out of curiosity. After all, you do not know her character, right?"

Su Cha smiled softly, "So, are you trying to spread rumors about me in front of the policemen? What's wrong with my character? Even if my character is flawed, I did not break the law. But what did you say I did?"

Qiu Yu: "..."

How could she share the trivial, insignificant matters? Other than those matters, the rest were mere speculations without evidence. If she talked about those, it would be giving Su Cha a hold upon her, again.

Su Cha became impatient after seeing Qiu Yu silent for a long time.

She had wanted to stay home to revise her homework.

From the time the police appeared at her house till now, the incident involving Qiu Yu had taken up an hour of her time.

Su Cha checked her mobile phone for some time before interrupting with a smile, "Police Uncle, you don't have to interrogate her anymore. I believe that Sister Qiu Yu did not do that intentionally, you can just ask her to apologize to me."

Upon hearing Su Cha's words, Qiu Yu froze momentarily.

After a while, Qiu Yu came to her senses. Although she was unhappy about having to apologize to Su Cha, she knew that the police would mediate until an apology is made. Moreover, it would hurt her reputation if anyone found out that she had a police case.

Although she was reluctant, Qiu Yu said, "Yes...I am in the wrong. Sorry."

Her apology lacked sincerity, and the police noticed it. The policemen glanced at Su Cha awkwardly as Su Cha replied, “I got it, I believe you did not do it intentionally.”

She smiled sweetly and purely.

The two police officers were taken aback. As they could not do anything about this, they spoke a few words to Su Cha and chastised Qiu Yu for a while before leaving.

Soon, only Su Cha and Qiu Yu were left outside the ward.

Seeing that the policemen had left, Qiu Yu immediately turned hostile, “Are you crazy? You called the police over such a matter?”

As soon as she finished speaking, Su Cha’s smile slowly vanished.

Su Cha threw her a soft glance. That look sent chills down Qiu Yu’s spine, it felt as if she had fallen into an ice cave.

Then, Su Cha suddenly pushed the door open and entered the ward.

Her entrance gave Sang Shishi and Zhai Yao a huge shock.

Upon seeing Su Cha, the duo’s face changed. Li Dongfeng, who was seated at the side, frowned and said, “What are you doing in here?”

Qiu Yu belatedly followed Su Cha inside, “What are you doing in here? Are you trying to ask Zhai Yao for forgiveness? I’m telling you, Zhai Yao is dating Sang Shishi now. Don’t you dare think about it! If you still want some face, don’t make a scene here!”

As soon as she finished, Su Cha could be seen glancing around the room. The ends of her lips curved upwards into a small smile.

Then, she turned back around before pushing Qiu Yu aside. Su Cha closed the doors of the ward from inside before locking it with a click!

Chapter 79: Not Learning The Lesson Unless They Were Hurt

“Someone get her out!”

Zhai Yao was shocked by Su Cha’s action. Were it not for his wounded leg, he would jump up.

Sang Shishi recalled the scene of Su Cha beating Zhai Yao yesterday and her pretty face lost color.

Qiu Yu shrieked as Su Cha suddenly jerked her, “How dare you drag me so violently? Do you wanna die?”

She was then slapped on the face by Su Cha. Pat!

The girl was quick and explosive in moves, which left Qiu Yu no time to react. Since Su Cha was also very powerful, the slap had knocked her off balance.

Qiu Yu stumbled and almost fell on the floor before she grasped the rail of the sickbed and recovered her balance.

She felt a burning pain on her face and was at a loss while she managed to stand up.

The slap also terrified Zhai Yao and Sang Shishi. They could not help feeling desperate.

They recalled Su Cha’s words yesterday and regretted it immediately.

“I will kill you!”

Li Dongfeng who was standing by the sides immediately growled. He glared at Su Cha and ran to catch her. But Su Cha was very flexible and dodged away before Li Dongfeng could reach her. At the same time, Sang Shishi screamed, “Dongfeng, run!”

But it was too late. Li Dongfeng raised his head and saw Su Cha carrying something to smash his head.

Pang!

After hearing a loud noise, Li Dongfeng fell onto the floor.

There was a thermos in Su Cha's hands, the one that Sang Shishi had asked Qiu Yu to bring to the ward. It was made of stainless steel and was a little heavy with the porridge left by Zhai Yao. Its lid cracked and opened. Porridge flowed out and washed Li Dongfeng's head.

He felt dizzy and saw flashes of golden light. Vaguely he saw a person was standing in front of him with a poker face. He wiped his face and found it covered with porridge. Li Dongeng was dumb.

Zhai Yao's hands were shaking. Sang Shishi was choked with fear.

Different from yesterday, Su Cha just looked at them without any expressions. Her indifferent face suggested that what she had done was nothing special, although she did not look like a person who would beat people.

Qiu Yu came to her senses and looked at Su Cha with red eyes, "I will kill you, Su Cha!!"

She ran to her while screaming. Her hands tried to catch Su Cha, but unsurprisingly, she failed. Su Cha grasped her hair and easily bent her over between the sickbeds. Then she pressed Qiu Yu's jaws so fast that her face was twisted.

She said coldly like a devil from hell, "When you typed, you used every nasty word. Do you know that there is a consequence to it?"

She did not withhold her strength. Qiu Yu could still breathe, but she felt acute pain in her face. How could she not feel it when someone was tugging her skin?

Qiu Yu's hands kept thumping the air, but she could not get rid of Su Cha. She heard Su Cha's words, but she did not understand what she had done wrong.

She kept struggling.

Su Cha was happy to say it. She had learned it from her last life that some people just would not listen to reasoning.

Only when they were physically hurt, they would finally learn the lesson.

Chapter 80: A Time Bomb

As Su Cha tightly grabbed onto Qiu Yu, she noticed Li Dongfeng was standing up. Su Cha released one hand and picked up the thermos flask that was placed on the table. With a “bang”, she smashed the flask against Li Dongfeng.

Li Dongfeng fell to the ground instantly, and the room was utterly silent.

Qiu Yu stopped struggling.

Zhai Yao who was on the other hospital bed, together with Sang Shishi who was beside him, shivered in fear. The two of them stared at Su Cha with fearful eyes, as if they had seen a demon.

Su Cha turned around and questioned the two, “Qiu Yu said it was you guys who started the rumor? Zhai Yao, have I asked you for compensation for my wasted youth?”

After she called them, Zhai Yao immediately replied, “No...of course not!”

At the moment, he could not move his leg. If Su Cha threw a punch his way, he would lose half his life.

Su Cha noticed Sang Shishi, who was hiding in a corner with her mobile phone, she was trying to call the police secretly. Su Cha smiled softly, “You think I came here unprepared? I’m here just to teach you a lesson today, so I was light-handed with all of you. If I am arrested, I would only be locked up for a few days. After my release, do you think I would do something as simple as just beat you up?”

She smiled softly after she finished saying those absolutely terrifying words. Her smile sent shivers down their spines.

Sang Shishi's wrist flicked, and her phone fell to the ground.

Qiu Yu shivered after hearing Su Cha's words. She wanted to retaliate, but she was held down by Su Cha. After seeing Su Cha mercilessly hit Li Dongfeng unconscious, Qiu Yu wanted to scream.

Suddenly, Su Cha lowered her head. As she got closer, Qiu Yu felt a scream stuck in her throat. Just as she was about to call out, she was slapped in her face with a loud smack.

She was slapped on her other cheek. Her face was red after being slapped on both cheeks, and it did not look good.

Qiu Yu burst out in tears.

"What are you crying for? You were so bold when you said those words on WeChat."

Su Cha spoke in a laidback voice, "If you do it again, I will pull your tongue out. You idled around all day and even delayed my revision time. If I score poorly in the exams, will you compensate me for that?"

Although it seemed like she was complaining, every word she said made the group shiver in fear.

Zhai Yao thought hard about what could have triggered Su Cha to act this way, and what made her turn into someone so scary.

Is she schizophrenic?

Su Cha suddenly turned back and threw Zhai Yao a glance, her fierce eyes made his soul tremble. It was as if he was facing a ferocious beast, and he could not breathe.

Then, Su Cha left without turning back.

Her back view gave off a strong, oppressive aura that made it hard for one to breathe.

After Su Cha left, the ward was dead silent.

Li Dongfeng laid on the ground, Qiu Yu was sobbing in a corner, Zhai Yao and Sang Shishi's faces were as white as a sheet. The two of them exchanged glances, and Sang Shishi shuddered, "She's crazy. Zhai Yao, we cannot mess with a lunatic..."

Zhai Yao was worried, he recalled how merciless Su Cha was when she beat him. He lowered his head and gritted, "Shishi, we have to endure this silently. It's not just her, someone is backing her up..."

Sang Shishi was puzzled, "She has someone backing her up? Who? Do you know him?"

Zhai Yao shook his head, he could not talk about Lian Chi. Otherwise, he would be in serious trouble.

He sighed, "This is not an easy matter to discuss..."

Initially, Zhai Yao regarded Lian Chi as the timebomb.

Now, Zhai Yao believed that Su Cha had become the real timebomb...
