

The Queen 761

Chapter 761: Suspect

After what happened in the morning, they still had to take the afternoon classes.

News of Su Cha finding a needle in the changing room and of the HIV virus in it quickly spread.

The school forum was in an uproar. Everyone was speculating about who was so ruthless. Who did Su Cha offend?

Even if it was due to an offense, they had been in this school for so long. Other than what they hear from the news, they had never heard of Su Cha having any conflict with her classmates.

Even when someone gossiped behind her back, Su Cha never said anything.

For that person to be so vicious, it must not be an ordinary hatred.

Although the news about Cai Zhongyi being caught also spread, he went inside the changing room for another reason. This matter quickly spread, and the philosophy department lost face.

Cai Zhongyi might have received a warning, but those who took this seriously wanted him to drop out.

After all, there was a possibility for a crime to be committed. The boys in the school had different personalities. On the surface, there were not that many who seemed capable of what he'd done.

Hence, everyone despised him.

In the afternoon, Fu Mo came to check the news. "That Cai Zhongyi is squeaky clean. There's no information on the Internet about him, but he often collects and follows the Weibo accounts of big-breasted girls."

Fu Mo also hated this person. "That's disgusting enough. The school will probably expel him. I also found out that his mother has already received the news. His mother is quite pitiful..."

Su Cha suddenly paused. "I'm not interested in irrelevant things."

Fu Mo immediately stopped talking and dropped the subject of Cai Zhongyi.

It was understandable that she was unhappy after what she had just experienced, especially since the mastermind had not been caught. They could not rest assured with this going on.

There was also a big round of examination approaching. The students were being asked to undergo another physical examination.

The HIV virus was at least illegal in the market, so this source was very suspicious. It was not for Su Cha alone, but for the safety of the entire school.

Now that that person had attacked Su Cha, it was hard to guarantee that they would not attack others in the future.

After the news was announced, the student body was very understanding. It was just a comprehensive physical examination, and the results would not be announced. It was not a life-threatening matter.

However, this matter was strictly kept a secret within the school. It was also for the sake of the school's reputation.

After school in the afternoon, Su Cha took the car and was about to go home when she suddenly said to the driver, "Change the route."

At the same time, she received a message containing Cai Zhongyi's home address.

As the night deepened, the entire Imperial Capital fell into a thick and colorful darkness. The colorful lights tore through the dark curtain and illuminated the entire sky. Only the sky was oppressive.

But in such an environment, people would not fear the darkness at all.

Lights were everywhere in the city except for those dark corners.

Cai Zhongyi curled his body and lowered his head. He had been beaten and scolded by his tearful mother.

“I was counting on you to do well. It hadn’t been easy for you to get into the Imperial Capital University. You’ve brought honor to your ancestors, so how could something like this happen to you?”

“Why can’t you control your hands and your thoughts? Did you have to do it at the campus? You could have done it anywhere else, but you had to do it in school. The school has to discipline you, and I have to kneel down for them to give you a chance. Have you ever thought about me, about how I feel as a single mother? Did I spoil you so much that you could do such a beastly thing?”

Chapter 762: Sudden Appearance

Cai Zhongyi’s mother was an illegal immigrant in the Imperial Capital city. She was an outsider who was involved in illegal activities. Cai Zhongyi’s father had run away a long time ago. As a weak woman, she could do nothing but sell her body.

She had once hooked up with a local who could pull some strings. He had her registered under a household register in the Imperial Capital. Although the local had broken up with her, at least with the household register, her life in the Imperial Capital was much better.

She knew that what she had done could not be revealed. Even so, Cai Zhongyi was still her hope.

She had given her son a name that meant loyal, and this indicated that she did not expect him to be rich. At the very least, he had to be honest.

Unexpectedly, after the school’s call today, her heart turned cold.

She could not believe that her son would do such a thing.

Her impression had been that Cai Zhongyi was actually more gloomy and autistic. He did not like to talk and appeared weak and cowardly, but he had never done anything illegal. How could he suddenly cause such a scene in the Imperial Capital?

At first, she thought that someone had framed her son, but from the surveillance video, she could clearly see that it was her son.

Even if he did not do anything in the female changing room, it was still not a place that he could enter. Her vision darkened.

The school said that they wanted to deal with Cai Zhongyi, and from the sound of it, they were going to expel him. She was extremely anxious. She cried and kicked up a fuss in the office before kneeling down. This had caused the school to change its stance. They would observe him for a while and see his subsequent performance, but they had to take this seriously.

He would also be expelled if this ever happened again.

Even so, she felt that this was the best outcome.

When she came back today, she was furious and kept scolding Cai Zhongyi.

The skinny boy before her had his head lowered and was cowering. He did not look like a second-year student from the Imperial Capital University.

After she cooked for him, he ate silently. He then entered his room, where he no longer heard his mother's nagging and scolding.

They lived in an old residential building, which was a stark contrast to the skyscraper opposite. Looking from here, although there was a wall, one could barely see the luxurious night scenery there. It was bright and colorful, as if they were in two different worlds.

There was no such thing as fairness in this world.

Cai Zhongyi entered the room. What was different from what one would have imagined was that there were many pictures on the table of his room. Upon closer look, they were all of the same woman.

It was a female celebrity. A while ago, her name had been well-known.

It was Qin Bei.

There was a photo of Qin Bei on the old wall. She was wearing a small gown, revealing her soft chest. She smiled sweetly, looking pure and seductive.

He looked at the photo on the wall. His wretched posture changed and revealed his infatuation. There was a hint of madness in the depths of his eyes. "I've done it. Unfortunately, that b*tch did not fall for it... How hateful. Why did the person who should be punished so easily dodge it? I failed this time, but it won't happen again. Don't worry... I will definitely avenge you..."

He mumbled these words, but it was creepy. His words were filled with extreme fanaticism and ferocity, as if he was on intimate terms with her.

The moment his face was pasted on the wall poster, he turned his face to the window and suddenly sensed something. When he opened his eyes, he saw a calm girl standing outside the window.

She looked exquisite and pure, but her sudden appearance scared Cai Zhongyi out of his wits.

He screamed in fear and fell to the floor.

Chapter 763: You Like Qin Bei So Much?

If ordinary people saw a person suddenly appear outside their window, they would be scared out of their wits.

Cai Zhongyi's house was on the second floor. The doors and windows could be opened, but there was nothing but thin air outside!

Cai Zhongyi, who almost got scared out of his wits, came to his senses. He took a closer look and realized that the girl standing by the window was the one he had seen in the office today, Su Cha.

His expression changed as he thought of something.

But this did not clear the shock from his eyes.

Su Cha's strange appearance was enough to scare him.

"Are you that afraid of me?"

Su Cha opened the window. Her eyes were calm, and her lips curled up slowly as she stepped in.

This move made Cai Zhongyi's eyelids flutter. There was no ledge outside. What had she been standing on?

When Su Cha entered the room, she looked around and saw Qin Bei's photo hanging on the wall.

In the dimly lit room, there were a female celebrity's photos placed everywhere. There were messy items on the ground, and there was even a slightly unpleasant smell. It was not difficult for people to deduce what this place was.

"You like Qin Bei so much?"

Every word the girl said sent chills down one's spine.

"How diligent. There's been no news about Qin Bei on the Internet, yet you've secretly gathered so much information and photos of her. You're actually a die-hard fan of Qin Bei. You saw her arguing with someone, and now that something has happened to her, you blamed everything on me. So you placed a needle with HIV-infected blood on my locker? After you were caught, you came up with a different excuse, saying you sneaked into the female changing room to steal women's clothes. At least that's better than planting poison and trying to harm people. That's not illegal, right?"

Su Cha narrowed her eyes.

She did not believe it when she first met Cai Zhongyi.

She always felt that there was a huge difference between who this person was and what he appeared to be. When she saw him crying in the office with snot and tears, she'd felt an inexplicable sense of contradiction.

It was normal for the dean and the rest to believe it. After all, such a person did not seem to have the guts to poison someone.

Fu Mo had said that she could not find anything wrong with Cai Zhongyi on the Internet. There was also nothing to indicate that there was some grudge between Cai Zhongyi and Su Cha.

But Su Cha still felt that something was wrong. Why did Cai Zhongyi enter the female changing room?

“You are in the philosophy department, and next to you is the law department. The law department also has a female changing room. Moreover, the lock of the female changing room in the law department has been broken recently, making it more convenient for you. So why did you come all the way to the acting department?”

She smiled playfully, but the coldness in her eyes deepened. “If I hadn’t followed you, I might have believed you too.”

Then Cai Zhongyi would have been left out of suspicion. But she had heard what he’d said just now.

Cai Zhongyi’s plan failed this time, but there would be a second time.

Such a person could do anything.

After hearing what she said, Cai Zhongyi looked gloomy in the dim light. Although he was afraid, he looked at Su Cha and argued. He even showed the same posture as he did in the office today. “Classmate Su, what are you talking about? I really didn’t do it! I swear I just had dirty thoughts. I did something bad, but I don’t have the guts to target you. I don’t know anything about the HIV needle!”

Chapter 764: Crazy Fan

He cried every word.

After watching him for a long time, she even found it a little annoying.

As he cried, his body crawled towards Su Cha. In an instant, his crying face suddenly became ferocious. His right hand suddenly waved, catching a glint of light. “Bitch, go to hell!”

With a swish, the blade flashed with a cold light in mid-air. He stabbed at Su Cha’s lower abdomen. He was kneeling, so this was the closest thing he could reach, and it was a fatal spot.

Su Cha did not even move. Cai Zhongyi’s ferocious smile froze for a moment. Just as the knife in his hand was about to stab into Su Cha’s lower abdomen, he realized that it got blocked by an invisible wall. The knife could not stab her no matter what.

He exerted all his strength and was drenched in sweat, but the knife did not move an inch.

This situation was a little strange.

He raised his head and looked at Su Cha. Under the light, Su Cha’s expression was a little gloomy, but he could clearly see the girl tilting her head slightly. Then, she smiled playfully. “You are really bold.”

At that moment, Cai Zhongyi felt his scalp tingle as if something had exploded. He screamed, hugged his head, got up, and rushed out of his room.

Before Su Cha could move, she heard Cai Zhongyi’s mother’s angry voice from outside the door. “What are you doing? Why are you going crazy in the middle of the night... Ah!!!!!!!!!!”

The scolding suddenly turned into a scream. At the same time, Su Cha heard a few chaotic footsteps. Then, there was a “dong” sound as something heavy landed.

Cai Zhongyi’s mother’s scream turned into a cry. “Zhongyi, what’s wrong?! Zhongyi?!”

Su Cha looked out through the crack in the door. Cai Zhongyi had missed a step and fell down the stairs. His head was facing down as he fell to the ground. His body was lying on the ground strangely, and a pool of blood flowed out from his side.

Su Cha could still see his chest moving.

Cai Zhongyi's mother called 120 in a panic. Su Cha retreated to Cai Zhongyi's room and went to the desk. As she flipped through it, she saw Cai Zhongyi's diary.

The handwriting was messy, and every word on it screamed crazy.

[That bitch must die! She caused you to become like this!]

[You are lying there, so pitiful. Why can this bitch get away with it!]

[I believe you didn't do it on purpose. That man forced you!!!]

[I must kill her. I want her to lose her reputation and live in pain for the rest of her life!!]

It was obvious whom he was referring to.

Su Cha curled her lips into a silent sneer. Then, she walked towards the window and left.

Under the night sky, the old district was quiet. There were no lights or surveillance cameras in the alley, and there were no signs of her coming.

When she returned to the car, Su Cha received a call from Fu Mo. She said hesitantly, "Su Cha, I still think that there's something wrong with Cai Zhongyi. I've checked the information of the people around him and found that there's an aunt in his family who has HIV. He and his mother visit her every week. Do you think that's how the HIV came about? Then this Cai Zhongyi...?"

In the night, the girl's voice was very faint. "It's okay. It's over."

She had not even made a move, but Cai Zhongyi had courted death by himself.

Of course, it did not matter if he was dead or not. What mattered was that as long as this person was crippled, it would be fine.

Chapter 765: Suspect

She could never understand the reasoning behind it. Cai Zhongyi had gone crazy for Qin Bei and pushed all the blame on Su Cha.

Since he wanted to harm her, then of course she would have to endure everything.

If Cai Zhongyi survived this time, Su Cha did not mind making it up to him.

Unless he remained a waste of space.

In what world was it okay for him to harm her and escape unscathed?

Su Cha returned home and saw that Bo Mui had returned first. She walked towards him. The elegant and noble man hugged her and made her sit on him. There was a hint of gloominess between his eyebrows. "Did something happen at school today?"

Su Cha nodded. Bo Mui would definitely hear about such a big matter. She told him about Cai Zhongyi being caught by her.

Hearing that the matter had been resolved, Bo Mui heaved a sigh of relief. "Bai Kun told me that the culprit has not been found."

Because of this, when he heard that the school planned to take their time to investigate, he'd wanted to find trouble with them.

Of course they had to investigate this matter immediately.

After hearing Su Cha's explanation about the culprit, he rubbed his fingertips against Su Cha's cheek. "How can you be sure that it's him?"

This student was only briefly mentioned in Bai Kun's report. Obviously, even Bai Kun did not suspect him.

“Intuition.”

Su Cha wrapped her arms around his neck and felt more at ease when she smelled his scent. “I checked a little later. There’s a piece of news on the forum about the school’s changing room door being broken. The law department is next to the philosophy department. I don’t understand why he would pass up what is near him and go farther away.”

It was also because of this that Su Cha asked someone to check his home address in the afternoon. Nothing was apparent on the surface, so she’d planned to visit his home.

In the end, she saw that scene.

It had also allowed her to know Cai Zhongyi’s goal. He did not leave any traces online, so they did not expect him to be such a person.

If she had not seen it with her own eyes, she would never have imagined that such a cowardly person would have such a dark heart.

After Qin Bei’s accident, as Qin Bei’s fan, he blamed everything on Su Cha. He was still a college student and did not have the ability to distinguish right from wrong.

For the sake of his idol, he could victimize others. This was no longer within the scope of what an ordinary fan would do.

Hearing Cai Zhongyi’s ending, the man smiled sarcastically. “Even if he lives, I will make him suffer in the future.”

Bo Mui could not tolerate the fact that he used such a method to try to harm her.

Su Cha nodded and asked him about Tree Hall. “How’s the Hall Master of Tree Hall?”

She seemed to have heard from Bo Mui that he would arrive in the next two days.

“We’ve talked.”

At the mention of him, Bo Muyi's pupils reflected a gloomy light. "He refused to say who the mastermind was. He's quite stubborn."

Su Cha frowned. "Tree Hall's mouth is so firm. They are really strict about this information."

"Not quite."

Bo Muyi tilted his head. "His actions have confirmed one thing. The order to kill me might not have come from their client."

It was an open secret that Tree Hall received money to kill.

Su Cha frowned. "It's not from their clients. That's..."

Bo Muyi nodded and followed her words. "It's someone from the Killing Alliance. Their power can only be higher than that of the Hall Master of Tree Hall. How many people like that can there be? It's either Greya or the Vice Alliance Master who hasn't made an appearance in the Killing Alliance for a long time."

Chapter 766: I Won't Let You Die

"Alliance Master, the Hall Master of Tree Hall has been captured. Should we ignore this matter? The members of Tree Hall are asking us if we should take action..."

Lady Seventeen sat on the sofa in the secret room. Opposite her was Greya, who was playing with a bubble machine.

Qi He sat at the side, talking about knives.

Lady Seventeen had received the news that the Hall Master of Tree Hall had been captured, and the person who had done it was Bo Muyi. Some time ago, everyone in the industry came to know that the Killing Alliance's Tree Hall had attacked Bo Muyi, and its member was even personally dragged out by the Alliance Master of the Star Alliance. If the Hall Master of Tree Hall had been captured, it was for retribution. However, this was equivalent to slapping the Alliance's face. No matter what, even if the people from Tree Hall were not on good terms with Lady Seventeen and her people, they had to persuade Greya to send men over to save the Hall Master.

Otherwise, how could she face the Martial Alliance and the Star Alliance in the future?

Greya swayed her legs and looked innocent. She did not seem to have heard what Lady Seventeen was saying. The bubble machine blew out bubbles one by one. She was happy to see that and laughed innocently. If one did not know her identity, anyone would praise her. Whoever had such a daughter was really blessed.

With her delicate face, she could beat many good-looking celebrities.

Seeing that she did not speak, Lady Seventeen could only brace herself and continue, “Tree Hall is still waiting for your instructions. The Vice Alliance Master has not responded for the time being. If we don’t go now, I’m afraid they...”

Before she could finish, the girl who was originally happy suddenly glanced at Lady Seventeen. This glance made her swallow her words.

Her body trembled.

“What of them?”

The girl’s clear and tender voice sounded childish, but she did not have the expression of a little girl.

“What does it have to do with me if my hall master is useless?”

Her words left Lady Seventeen dumbfounded.

She was the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance. How could she not care if a Hall Master was captured?

If this spread, wouldn’t half of the members of the Killing Alliance want to disband? If the Alliance Master was like this, how would the people below have the courage to go against the Martial Alliance?

They had been doing this for so many years. The Martial Alliance was not strong enough now, and the people of the Star Alliance were scattered. Although the new Alliance Master had taken over decisively, it was only a matter of time before they weakened. Why was it that the Alliance Master of their Killing Alliance was starting to act up now?

In the past, which Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance was not decisive when it came to killing? Whenever such things happened in the past, they immediately went out to look for trouble.

In fact, when Su Cha entered Dawn's territory last time, Lady Seventeen had felt that she should not let her go.

The people outside were already mocking Dawn for allowing Su Cha to come and go as she pleased.

Lady Seventeen was a little anxious. "Alliance Master, you can't say that. The Hall Master of Tree Hall has worked hard for the Killing Alliance for so many years. Now that something has happened, we can't ignore it. If we do this, I don't know what the people under us will think."

"What can they think?"

Greya swayed her legs and said leisurely, "They can think whatever they want. Anyway, I won't have anyone save him."

Then, she looked at Qi He and smiled obediently. "Uncle, am I right?"

Qi He stabbed his knife into the carved table made of high-quality wood. He glanced at Lady Seventeen and smiled coldly. "She doesn't want to send someone to rescue him because she doesn't want them to die."

Chapter 767: Since You Are Going to Die, You Might as Well Die Here

Lady Seventeen could not help but say, "We know that it will not be easy to attack the Lookout Pavilion, but we have the entire Tree Hall. If we make arrangements, we can delay Bo Muyi and Su Cha. It's not impossible to save the Hall Master."

"So what? How are you going to deal with the rest?"

Qi He smiled sarcastically. “What the Three Alliances do is our business, but this is now a legal society we’re living in. The Bo family is one of the most highly regarded families in the country. The last time something happened, an official who’s a member of the Killing Alliance said that the higher-ups were very unhappy. If we do it again, it will no longer be our private matter. If the country takes action, do you think our Killing Alliance can stop them?”

“We will not sacrifice the Killing Alliance for the sake of a hall master.”

His explanation made Lady Seventeen understand.

She sighed silently. No matter what the Three Alliances did, it was private.

Such an organization was not allowed to exist in the new society. The higher-ups only tolerated it to preserve their culture.

In the end, things had become like this. If things really became chaotic, the originally declining martial arts world might really disappear.

No matter how strong her martial arts were, she was still afraid of the army!

To be able to survive until now, they had made a pact with the other two Alliances. The forces between them were complicated. The Bo family was clearly related to the Imperial Court. Otherwise, they would not have become a neutral family.

Helpless, Lady Seventeen could only push open the door and leave. An elite member of Tree Hall stood outside the door and asked in a deep voice, “What did the Alliance Master say?”

Lady Seventeen shook her head. The person’s pupils constricted. “The Alliance Master doesn’t care?”

Lady Seventeen sighed. “The Alliance Master said that we can’t clash with the Bo family for the sake of your Hall Master.”

“That’s our Hall Master! It’s just the Bo family!”

That person was filled with hatred and could not control his impulse. He pushed the door and entered, but Lady Seventeen did not stop him.

The innocent little girl in the room was still swaying her legs and blowing bubbles. When she saw the assassin from Tree Hall coming in, she did not even blink.

Qi He looked at the person gloomily.

The assassin looked at Greya. "Alliance Master, you have to take care of the Hall Master's matter. Otherwise, how can our Tree Hall maintain its foothold in the martial world?"

Greya paused and slowed down. She looked at the assassin and smiled brightly. "Are you ready?"

The assassin was stunned. Although this smile made him feel a little scared, he quickly nodded. "Our brothers are ready. If we act together, with the help of the people from the other halls, we might be able to save them."

"Okay."

Greya sighed helplessly and opened her palm. "Disobedient people are so troublesome."

As soon as she finished speaking, the assassin in front of her suddenly narrowed his eyes. He stared with his eyes wide open, but his body fell straight down.

After a while, a black worm slowly crawled out of his mouth. It was very fast. It climbed down the assassin's body and quickly disappeared into the sofa.

When Lady Seventeen saw this scene from the door, she almost got scared out of her wits.

Compared to Su Cha's unfathomable depth, this method of using worms to kill people made Lady Seventeen's scalp tingle.

One might not even know how one died in the end.

Greya looked at the assassin's corpse innocently and smiled. "Since you're going to die anyway, you might as well die here so that you won't cause trouble for me."

Chapter 768: Meeting Lian Chi

Lady Seventeen's calf was cramping.

She did not expect the Alliance Master to be so heartless as to kill her own family.

When she closed the door, she felt that her entire body was stiff and drenched in sweat. The moment the door closed, she suddenly gasped for air as if she had come back to life.

She did not see how the bug had entered the assassin's body.

So then, what if she already had worms on her?

At the thought of this, Lady Seventeen could not help but feel nauseous. She ran to the toilet.

Soon, someone came in and carried the assassin's corpse out. In the silence, Qi He said, "You're not worried about the Bo family. You just don't want to bother about the Killing Alliance."

Greya looked at him and smiled. "Uncle, how can you say that? I'm the Alliance Master of the Killing Alliance, but there are some things that could only be done if it's within my means. They are just going to die. Isn't it just a Tree Hall Master? Is there a need to save him?"

Qi He looked at her with deep meaning in his eyes. "I know you hate him. All of this has nothing to do with you."

Greya's expression changed slightly. Qi He continued, "But it doesn't matter. I will support you no matter what you do. The Killing Alliance has nothing to do with me. I will just stay by your side."

Qi He stood up and touched the little girl's head.

Greya calmed down and smiled again. Her smile was innocent, but there was a trace of resentment.

Su Cha met someone she had not seen in a long time.

She thought that this person must have understood some things after the last time. It was best if they'd never met again.

After all, she already had the intention to kill.

This person was Lian Chi.

Lian Chi had returned from overseas.

After school, Su Cha came out of the campus. When she found the driver, there was a gray car by the side of the road. It looked very low-key. A man stuck his head out. Being low-key could not hide his elegance and nobility. He spoke with a voice that was familiar and rich. "Su Cha, can we have a cup of coffee together?"

The driver looked at her awkwardly.

The moment Su Cha saw Lian Chi, she hid all her emotions and looked at him calmly. "I don't think there's a need for us to have coffee together. Besides, I have a boyfriend now. It's not okay for me to meet other men privately."

When he heard her rejection, Lian Chi's eyes flickered. His expression was still gentle as he said, "I just want to tell you something. Just this side, okay?"

He also understood that when he left without saying goodbye, some things might have changed.

Su Cha was silent for a moment. She did not want to meet Lian Chi alone, especially since Bo Muyi might find out.

However, she did have something to clarify with Lian Chi.

She'd been keeping it in her heart. She had already done so in her past life, so she had to have a chance to clarify now.

She did not get into Lian Chi's car and just asked, "Tell me the address."

Seeing this, Lian Chi understood. His eyes showed he was a little disappointed, but it quickly dispersed. He gave an address and drove away.

Su Cha got into the car and asked the driver to drive to the address.

The driver looked a little troubled. "Miss Su, this... Young Master...?"

Although he was a driver, he knew how closely the young master looked at Miss Su. Basically, he had to know where she was when he got off work. If she went to meet this man, the Lookout Pavilion would be overturned tonight.

Chapter 769: Meeting

"I will tell him the truth."

The driver was relieved.

On the way, Su Cha sent Bo Mui a message saying that she wanted to meet Lian Chi.

Bo Mui's phone flashed. "You want to meet him?"

He could not help but feel angry. Perhaps this person had disappeared for so long that he had almost forgotten that this person and Su Cha were childhood sweethearts.

When he suddenly saw this message, he could not help but become anxious.

"He suddenly asked me to meet him. I have some questions to ask him. I won't see him again after this."

Bo Muyi fell silent. Su Cha added, “Besides, I have nothing to do with him. He’s worse than Zhai Yao. What are you worried about?”

Bo Muyi was angry.

He was not worried about anything. He was just unhappy that Su Cha was meeting another man privately.

It was not appropriate to say such a petty reason. He could only endure it and grit his teeth. “Come back early.”

Then, he hung up.

Su Cha was stunned and sighed.

It would not be peaceful when she goes back tonight.

Although Bo Muyi had hung up, his expression was visibly gloomy.

Even those who had the guts would not comment on his eyebrows at this time, but... they were in a meeting!!

It was just a video meeting with executives from all over Europe. Under everyone’s gazes, the handsome Boss had received a message. After a glance, his attitude changed.

After making a call, his expression changed visibly.

In the end, he hung up. It was as if he had climbed out of hell. They felt that the way he looked at others was as if he wanted to eat them alive.

Even the European executives were a little nervous. Everyone looked at each other. Bai Kun, who was standing next to them, said in English, “Regarding what we just said about...”

It was too tragic, too tragic. Miss Su was meeting another man, and the young master was angry, but all he could say was that she should come back early.

He did not know whether to sympathize with the young master or feel angry for him...

However, Miss Su had openly said that she had some connections with that person in the past. It was not hard to understand, but it was obvious that the young master could not understand.

Bo Muyi pressed his fingers between his eyebrows and closed his eyes. No one knew what he was thinking. With this mysterious nervousness, the meeting could only continue.

The place Lian Chi had mentioned was a very well-hidden cafe. He had thoughtfully booked a private room. The security services here were especially good. No one would see them, and no one would say anything.

Although the two of them weren't doing anything shady, Su Cha was now a celebrity. It was not good for the tabloid reporters to take pictures and gossip about her.

Moreover, the Lian family was similar to the Zuo family. They were a wealthy family that often appeared on the news. Lian Chi was not a stranger to the media.

Once they were photographed, it would be easy for them to blow up.

"I ordered you some juice."

When the waiter led them into the private room, Lian Chi was already sitting opposite.

Su Cha sat down and pushed the fruit juice in front of her. Su Cha glanced at it and did not intend to drink it. She just stirred it with a straw. "What do you want to tell me?"

Her calm and almost indifferent tone did not sound as sweet as when she called him "Brother Xiao Chi."

Although he was prepared for all of this, Lian Chi was still a little dazed when it really happened.

Chapter 770: Difficulties

In fact, they used to have a good relationship. It was precisely because of this that he could understand Su Cha's current behavior.

When disappointment reached a certain level, this would happen.

Lian Chi felt that Su Cha was just disappointed in him.

"The last two times I saw you, I couldn't say much to you because of the special occasion."

Lian Chi curled his lips into a self-deprecating smile. "My father saw through it last time. He bid me go overseas because of it."

Su Cha paused. His words were equivalent to telling her that he went overseas because his father noticed something was wrong, so he chased Lian Chi away.

But what did it have to do with her?

She chuckled. Lian Chi could tell that she was mocking him.

There was an inexplicable bitterness in his heart. His fingers holding the coffee cup exerted some force.

Actually, he did care.

He could no longer see the obedient girl in his memory.

This was the price he had chosen.

But soon, he forced himself to let go of the feeling in his heart and not care about it. Although his face was gentle, his heart became cold.

“I know you are very disappointed in me. When I chose to leave... I was actually very surprised.”

Lian Chi's smile showed a hint of disappointment, and his handsome face was a little gloomy. If other girls saw this expression, they would feel extreme pity.

Su Cha suddenly wanted to drink a cup of fruit juice. She called the waiter and ordered another cup, watching Lian Chi's performance seriously.

Lian Chi saw Su Cha suddenly ordering another cup. He could not explain his emotions clearly, but he felt that she did not even trust him. He felt a little uncomfortable.

His lips were pale as he recounted what had happened back then.

He had left without saying goodbye back then because his father was a very powerful person. He had been taken back to the Lian family and was not allowed to have any connection with everything that had happened in the past, so he could not contact Su Cha.

At that time, Su Cha was studying well. The way he saw it, nothing could have happened to her.

Later on, in order to gain a foothold in the Lian family, he'd tried his best to learn many things. Although he was a local celebrity when he was with Su Cha, he realized that he was not good enough when he returned to the Lian family.

His two brothers were eyeing him covetously. As an illegitimate son, he could not outshine them and could only try his best to prove himself.

Although the high society had acknowledged Lian Chi's identity and his excellence, he was still treading on thin ice. It was not until he saw Su Cha that he realized that there were always some things that could not be undone after one had made that mistake.

When he was almost done, the girl who was drinking fruit juice said slowly, “What does this have to do with me?”

Even Lian Chi almost had a heart attack when he heard her words.

No matter how bad it had become, he'd had a good relationship with Su Cha back then. She shouldn't say this had nothing to do with her. He just had his difficulties.

There was a flash of anger in his eyes. Lian Chi quickly disguised it so that Su Cha could not see. What could he do? Whatever happened to Su Cha was his own fault.

"I'm not saying that it has anything to do with you. I just want to tell you everything and let you understand that though I didn't even say goodbye to you back then, I didn't do it on purpose."

"Oh?"

Su Cha smiled. "Technology has become so advanced. Even if I didn't have a phone, you could have found a chance to call the neighbors and entrust them with a message for me. It's such a simple thing, but you couldn't do it. Did your father lock you up in an enclosed place? Even when you went to the toilet, he had to monitor you?"
