

The Queen 791

Chapter 791: An Unexpected Interview

This was very rare in the world of fashion.

A celebrity with no reputation in the country was actually being interviewed by foreign media directly.

This was not staged.

Usually, 80% of the interviews arranged by the show were fake. They were all done by internal staff.

It was not easy to get interviews from overseas media.

Su Cha saw his reporter pass clearly. It was a reporter from Flora's Secret Weekly.

This newspaper was a new fashion magazine in the United States. Its main target was young people. The founder, Flora, was a rather famous fashion Empress. She was also very young. She quickly became popular in the fashion industry with her professional reports and comments. Now, she was gradually working with luxury goods. At least, her status was very high.

It was an honor to be interviewed by them.

Naturally, Su Cha did not know this. She glanced at the reporter and remained patient. She just nodded and said, "Yes, I'm from China."

She spoke English the way she spoke Chinese. She was languid and cold, exuding a sense of crispness. Moreover, it was unusual that she did not have an accent.

Her English was trained by Bo Muyi. Bo Muyi had been in international business since he was young, and he was overseas for a long time, so he was naturally familiar with English.

The reporter's eyes lit up. It was just a sentence, but the lack of an accent surprised him. "What do you think about this show? Do you think that there has been a big change in Chanel's breakthrough this year? Did you choose this outfit yourself?"

This was a difficult question. If she did not answer well, she would fall into a ditch.

Su Cha did not hesitate at all. She was straightforward and decisive, but she also had an elegant and decadent voice that made people fall deeply in love with her. "Of course not. Chanel lent it. This is just one of the sets. I don't have many opinions about the big show. It's my first time participating in a big show, and my past interest was not in this aspect. I don't know much about fashion shows. I respect the thoughts of every designer. Professional opinions should be given by professionals. I only have one opinion: the show is very exciting. The colors and styles of the clothes are the aspects that I favor. In my eyes, this show is a very successful show."

She spoke directly. She had not participated in any big shows before, so she did not have any criticisms. She was not a professional, so she did not have any opinions.

Of course, she also said nice things about Chanel. She was invited here, so how could she find fault with her?

She was different from ordinary celebrities who had no professional knowledge and had to be stubborn and professional. Su Cha's straightforwardness was very similar to her temperament.

Even if she did not understand, she would not feel inferior. She was calm and composed. It even made people feel that if she could say that this show was a success, it would be a good fashion show.

Fu Mo heaved a sigh of relief when she heard Su Cha's calm answer.

As expected, she did not have to worry about Su Cha. Even if there was an accident during the interview, she did not have to worry.

In the beginning, the reporters only admired her because of her appearance. Now that they'd heard her speak like this, they admired her even more and felt that she was elegant and extraordinary. The questions that followed were much friendlier. They asked about Su Cha herself. Her English was smooth and natural. With the advantage of her appearance, this interview was very successful.

When she was about to leave, the other reporters wanted to interview her too. She smiled lightly and said firmly, "I'm sorry. I'm a little tired after watching the show. I have to go back to the hotel first. If there's a chance later, I will accept your interview."

Chapter 792: Meeting for a Meal

The reporters smiled at her kindly. She spoke elegantly and directly, and no one could bear to reject her.

Fu Mo quickly came over and helped her into the car.

"It's good that the foreign media wants to interview you. Why didn't you accept it?"

Fu Mo was a little surprised. Other celebrities could not even ask for it, but Su Cha had the advantage to gain attention yet rejected it.

"No, it's too annoying."

It was a fact that Su Cha was not good at this aspect. She did not study about this too much. The more she dealt with questions, the easier it would be for her to make mistakes. She was not really perfect.

Fu Mo also understood her personality. She nodded and sighed. "I think many foreign media outlets have taken your photo. I wonder what kind of stir it will cause when the news comes out!"

Those who looked down on Su Cha thought that it would be embarrassing for her to go. They could not have guessed that she would directly suppress the masses during the Fashion Week, and even the foreigners could not escape.

She was not just a simple beauty. Many media outlets were paying attention to Su Cha and showering her with praises.

Su Cha suddenly gave a string of numbers. "Send this number a message. It's from overseas. Just say that I'm Su. Use English."

Fu Mo did as instructed and asked, "Who is this?"

The staff members were only allowed to enter later. She did not see Eunice.

“Eunice Kane. Apparently, she’s a socialite. I don’t know who she is. She left her number and asked me to call her back.”

Su Cha did not put on airs on purpose. She could only say that she would give her a call. Of course, other than informing her of her identity, she could not say much.

Perhaps in the eyes of others, Su Cha would come off as eager. After all, she contacted Eunice as soon as she got off the stage.

However, a smart girl like Eunice should know what Su Cha meant.

Fu Mo sent a message and said, “Done.”

Su Cha touched her hair, which was done by the stylist. It would take a while for her to return to the hotel. She asked, “Is Anqi okay?”

She had always been concerned about this matter.

Fu Mo shook her head. “There’s nothing. I’m still watching. I’ll inform you if anything happens. Her schedule for the past two days has been full.”

At least when she’s in school, nothing would happen.

Fu Mo thought for a moment and said, “Her parents don’t seem to know much about her. They are doing business in Yonggu City.”

Le Anqi’s parents were not by her side. Su Cha remembered that they came to take care of Le Anqi for a while when school had just started. Probably because they were too busy with work, they had to go back.

Now that she thought about it, Le Anqi had no one to take care of her. Although she was old, it was inevitable that she would have a lot of things to do as she was alone. She would be targeted by some people, and making bad friends would be a dead end.

Su Cha felt her head ache.

She touched her forehead and was about to call Le Anqi when her phone rang.

It was an international call.

She picked up the phone and said, "Hello."

A lively voice came from the other side. "Su, where are you? Can you come for dinner tonight?"

If Su Cha had not known that the two of them had met for the first time at the show, she would have thought that she had known Eunice for a long time.

She looked at the time and said softly, "Yeah."

"Okay, I'll send you the address. You can go over when the time comes. I'll see you at 7 pm."

After Su Cha hung up, Fu Mo was a little surprised. "She asked you out for a meal the first time she met you?"

Chapter 793: Are Your Ancestors All Fairies?

Su Cha did not have time to guess at others. She called Le Anqi again. "Maybe she wants to get to know me. There are too many things one couldn't say during the show."

Fu Mo pouted. "But why would she suddenly want to know you?"

Su Cha: "Because I'm pretty."

Fu Mo: "..."

Le Anqi answered the call and sounded a little confused. “Hello...”

“Oh, I’m sorry, Anqi. I didn’t know it was nighttime in China.”

She asked in a sleepy voice, “What’s the matter?”

“Nothing much. I just wanted to ask what you’ve been doing recently. Is school okay?”

Le Anqi’s sudden silence could make one think that she fell asleep.

But all of a sudden, Su Cha heard Le Anqi say in a low and sleepy voice, “Don’t make a scene...”

She was obviously not talking to Su Cha.

Su Cha squinted her eyes. Her outfit today was retro and beautiful. Such an expression made Su Cha look a little dangerous, like a snake or a scorpion.

Le Anqi had someone else by her side.

Su Cha did not say anything. Le Anqi continued, “Ah, I’ve been doing well recently. But I’m so sleepy now. I’ll contact you when I’m free.”

Then she hung up, but Su Cha heard a faint male voice. “Who is it?”

It was nighttime, yet it was obvious that Le Anqi was with someone else.

Su Cha rubbed her eyebrows. She knew that it was up to Le Anqi if she wanted to date or be with anyone, but it was not so easy to let it pass after Fu Mo found out that Le Anqi’s boyfriend was taking drugs, especially since Le Anqi might also be doing the same now.

This matter was too serious. She was obviously being led to a dead end.

After the show, she would go back to deal with Le Anqi.

As a friend, she could not sit by and do nothing. She would only do it this time. As for what Le Anqi would think, whether she would accept it or reject it, it would depend on her personal choice. No matter what the choice was, as long as she rejected it, Su Cha would not interfere in this matter.

Seeing that she was a little vexed and knowing that she had woken up early this morning, Fu Mo instructed, "Sleep for a while. Go back to the hotel first. There's still some time before seven. I'll wake you up."

Su Cha nodded and fell asleep in the car.

***

At this time, the country started to light up.

Naturally, there was no lack of attention on the exciting show, but a picture appeared on Weibo shockingly, causing a huge sensation.

Bull's Eye TV Official: "At New York's Chanel Show, @Su Cha dominates the entire venue, causing a sensation among the foreign media. There is no one else who can be the current goddess. These photos show she is the best representative of Chanel."

The pictures all gave off very classic vibes. In addition, Su Cha walked very quickly at that time. Almost no one took a picture of her losing her composure. At the end of the red carpet, she suddenly turned her head. The nonchalance in her eyes was fixed by the camera. That mood was simply amazing!

There were many celebrities who could only pray to get captured from a good angle. Meanwhile, just by looking at this photo, one would start to feel nostalgic.

Perhaps only in that bygone era would such a peerless beauty appear.

Yet now, a most exciting sight had reappeared.

Many netizens who woke up early in the morning watched Su Cha's show. How could they continue to mock her?

How could you say anything about this face?

Wow, your ancestors are all fairies!

Chapter 794: Conquer the World with Face

"Who is this? Is this Su Cha? Son of a b*tch, she's so beautiful! My god! Her beauty has conquered the world!!"

"I can tell, I can tell. Almost every reporter was taking pictures of her. It's really not just the angle. It's her first time participating in a big show. She's not famous overseas, right?"

"It's over. This time, the haters can't bring out the script they've prepared. From just this photo alone, those whose eyes are closed and who continue to mock would have to be descended from fairies."

"She's really beautiful. Let's not talk about anything else, just her appearance and aura are simply amazing. She's so suited to such an occasion, the reigning queen!"

"You guys should really look at the videos posted by Huayu. That walking posture is so beautiful that the whole audience is focused on it."

"Close your eyes and brag. What does it mean that all the reporters are paying attention to her? Hehe, do foreign reporters even know who she is? How dare she outshine others? How shameless. There are so many socialites present, but only she can stand out?"

It was early in the morning and there were not many people around. The Internet Water Army had not entered the field yet, so the comments were mostly from real users.

Seeing this photo, many people expressed that their eyes had been blessed so early in the morning. It was a perfect start to their day.

When most people saw the photo, they felt that it was unreal and dream-like.

The marketing account that followed the show quickly posted a full red carpet video.

Huayu Entertainment Official: “On the red carpet before Chanel’s big show, Shao Tianwen and Duan Jiashu entered together. The most noble lady, Eunice Kane, appeared on the show. Su Cha in a classic black-and-white Chanel dominated the whole venue. She attracted the attention of local and foreign reporters, and after that, she was interviewed by a reporter from the new fashion magazine, Flora’s Secret Weekly. There is also a small Easter egg at the end of the video. [Video]”

“Su Cha’s appearance was a real draw, the true C-rank queen lived up to her reputation. I could feel the strong aura coming from the screen. And her legs, they were very beautiful. Her style and aura were simply superb!!”

“Some people are really funny. Don’t they know what the significance of this show is? They’ve lost all professionalism. One can cause a sensation in a show, and it’s even the positive kind. If one is praised by local and foreign reporters, one can be invincible during the fashion week, okay? I dare to say that after Su Cha becomes a sensation, her fashion resources will definitely be heaven-defying. At the very least, Chanel will definitely work with Su Cha.”

“Everyone who is still mocking her with their eyes closed in front of the screen, let me tell you a tragic truth. Those foreign countries have really noticed Su Cha. The name ‘Flora’s Secret Weekly’ is as straightforward as this Chanel show. They focused on this Chinese female star. If you don’t know what Flora’s Secret Weekly is, please go search it up!”

“She’s so beautiful. She’s really suited to wearing such a retro style. Oh my god! People usually call themselves a little fairy, but this is the real deal!”

“No matter how much sensation she’s caused, it could not change the fact that she doesn’t have any status or representative work.”

“What the hell? The Easter egg is actually a photo of Eunice Kane talking to Su Cha. Eunice even whispered in her ear. What were they talking about?”

“The last Easter egg actually makes me see... Li... Lily[1]. Is it a reverse Brokenback Mountain?”

“Some commenters are thinking about something dangerous!!!”

“Eunice is the little fairy in my heart! Ahhh, she actually bends towards another fairy!! Indeed, fairies should play with fairies!!!”

With the hot comments from several marketing accounts, the post about Su Cha at the Fashion Week quickly became trending. At this time, it was time for her to have dinner with Eunice.

Chapter 795: Impolite

While everyone was showing interest, Su Cha received a call from Bo Muyi.

“I saw your photo. You look really beautiful today.”

The man’s voice was low and magnetic, but he sounded a little disappointed.

Su Cha could tell that he was disappointed and smiled. “Are you unhappy?”

“I just... don’t want so many people to see you.”

Sometimes, the more famous Su Cha became, the more he regretted it.

His Cha Cha was always the center of attention.

There were also many people who had bad thoughts about her. He felt uncomfortable thinking about it. He wanted to imprison Su Cha and have her keep staying by his side, but that was unrealistic.

His Cha Cha was destined to shine.

“What’s wrong with that? Think about it. There are so many people who like me, but only you can have me. How fulfilling is that? I feel the same way about you.”

Bo Mui narrowed his eyes, thinking that Su Cha might be talking nonsense.

However, this twisted logic pleased him. Indeed, so many people liked his Cha Cha, yet only he could have her.

“When are you coming back?” he asked, once again complaining.

He had asked Su Cha this question several times before. “I’ll come back after this show is finished. There are still two days. It will be soon.”

“Hmm...”

Through the phone, Su Cha could imagine him frowning. She thought for a while and said, “I’m going to eat with someone later. The woman’s name is Eunice Kane.”

“Eunice?”

He was a little unhappy when he heard that Su Cha was eating with someone else, but he felt that the name was familiar. Su Cha asked, “Her father’s name is Harry Kane. Have you heard of them?”

Bo Mui immediately knew who it was. “Yes. You’re having dinner with his daughter?”

“Yes. She suddenly talked to me at the show today. I don’t think she knows that I’m your girlfriend, though.”

“But she took the initiative to talk to you?”

The man was cautious and speculated maliciously, “She must be up to no good.”

Su Cha snorted. “Do you think everyone who wants to know me has ill intentions?”

Bo Mui admitted directly, “Yes.”

He was not embarrassed.

Su Cha chuckled helplessly. Hearing her laughter, Bo Muye felt his heart tingle. He said coquettishly, "I really miss you."

His words were as direct as ever, not hiding anything. His voice was filled with his longing for her.

As Su Cha listened, her heart softened. "I miss you too, but it's only been a day that we haven't seen each other. Control yourself. Let's video call tonight. I'll be back soon. I'll call you back after dinner."

Despite his reluctance, Bo Muye could only say, "Okay."

However, he was still worried. After hanging up, he immediately asked Bai Kun to check on the information about Eunice Kane.

Meanwhile, Su Cha had arrived at the place where she had agreed to meet Eunice Kane. It was a high-end restaurant in New York. The environment was elegant, and even many local celebrities still had to make reservations.

However, Eunice did it on the spur of the moment. With her status, no matter when she called, she would get a seat.

When Su Cha arrived, Eunice was already there. She was led to a secluded place by a waiter. There were some famous people around. No one paid much attention to the meeting between Eunice and Su Cha. They only glanced at them in surprise before looking away.

After all, they knew what was appropriate and how rude staring was.

Chapter 796: Internet Celebrity Model

"Hello, Su."

Seeing that Su Cha had arrived, Eunice placed her hands on the table. There were a few dazzling jewelry chains on her left hand. They were as dazzling as her.

“Hello, Eunice.”

Su Cha sat down, neither humble nor arrogant.

Eunice looked at her with bright eyes. Su Cha found it strange, so she chuckled. “Where did you see me before?”

Her question was natural. Eunice shook her head and smiled sweetly. “Nowhere. I saw you for the first time at the show.”

Su Cha glanced at her and asked her to continue.

Eunice said, “I think you are very beautiful. You have overwritten my understanding of Easterners. I’ve never been able to differentiate your faces, but you are the first person I’ve seen who is so beautiful that I can directly distinguish you. I asked someone else, and I heard that you are a celebrity?”

Su Cha nodded. Although having the status of a celebrity sounded glamorous, it’s usually not much of a status in the hearts of these wealthy people.

As for those with bad reputations, if they could not become world-class, they would not be looked up to.

However, Eunice spoke normally. She didn’t seem to feel that her questions would embarrass anyone.

Su Cha did not mind.

Eunice exclaimed, “Are you interested in coming to Hollywood?”

She’d heard that Asian celebrities liked to go to Hollywood, especially in recent years. China had been working closely with the world’s cultural industry, so the Chinese were getting more and more attention.

However, Chinese celebrities in Hollywood were still discriminated against.

Su Cha shook her head. “No. I’m not yet considered successful in my own country. I don’t have any other thoughts for now.”

It was just a casual suggestion from Eunice, but Su Cha did not take it to heart. Even if she came to Hollywood, she would not have any advantage. She might not be able to shock the people of Hollywood and America just because of her appearance. She was not that amazing.

“I think you are a very interesting person. I also saw you being interviewed. You are very good. I’ve seen many people, not just Asians, but Westerners too. There’s nothing much to them...”

She spoke directly, as if she felt that it was not a problem for her to say this to Su Cha.

As she spoke, she looked at the menu. When she was almost done, a surprised female voice suddenly sounded. “Wow, Eunice, why are you here?”

Eunice and Su Cha paused. They looked up and saw a tall, black-haired foreign woman walking over.

Was she pretty?

Su Cha was not sure. Westerners had a natural advantage with their deep facial features, so most of the time, they looked prettier than Asians. The woman in front of her was the same, but Su Cha felt that she was not that good-looking.

She looked like an ordinary American beauty. At least compared to Eunice, she was far from exquisite.

However, she was dressed appropriately.

When Eunice saw her, she frowned slightly.

Su Cha curled her lips and suddenly found it interesting.

Eunice did not like the person in front of her.

Hence, in the face of this person's shout, Eunice replied indifferently, "Hello, Beth."

The woman named Beth walked over. She first saw Eunice and then looked at Su Cha. She asked tentatively, "Hello? My name is Beth."

Su Cha was stunned and smiled. "My name is Su."

Chapter 797: Divine Muse

Eunice seemed to be a little impatient, and many people around her looked over. She said, "Beth, what's the matter?"

Beth shrugged, as if she could not tell that Eunice did not welcome her. She just said, "I saw you here, so I came to say hello. Eunice, see you another day. I'm still very busy. I have to attend Chanel's opening tomorrow. Oh my god, I'm so busy."

She seemed to be distressed that she was too busy. Su Cha found it amusing. A model?

She could not detect the aura of a model around this Beth. Moreover, she was very open. Could it be that she looked good on the catwalk?

After all, Su Cha did not know much about the modeling industry. She did not know who the person in front of her was, but she knew what her profession meant.

After Eunice said a few perfunctory words, Beth left with a satisfied expression.

There were bodyguards waiting for her outside the door. They seemed to have watched her coming over to greet Eunice.

After she left, Su Cha asked simply, "Is she a model?"

Eunice looked at Su Cha in surprise. "You don't know?"

Then she reacted. "Oh... That's normal. After all, you don't even know me."

Eunice was not being conceited, but it showed that she was more famous than Su Cha had imagined.

Su Cha nodded. Eunice explained to her about Beth simply, “Oh my god, she’s especially annoying! She’s not a professional model at all. She only got to where she is by relying on her family’s connections. She’s selling some lousy cosmetics online to cheat fans of their money. Due to her popularity, a bunch of people are supporting her, and those luxury brands are also supporting her. Because her products are lousy, she has to go through all kinds of big closures. These luxury brands are really getting worse each year...”

At this point, it seemed that she could not take it anymore. Eunice even exhaled cutely and rolled her eyes.

At this moment, Su Cha felt that she was different from the socialites in her imagination.

Su Cha pushed the snacks on the table. “Eat some snacks, they are sweet.”

Eunice changed her expression instantly and smiled sweetly at Su Cha. “Thank you.”

The two of them chatted a lot. There was no other reason for Eunice to meet with Su Cha. She just wanted to get to know her.

Because Su Cha’s outfit during the show had amazed her, she felt the urge to meet such a beautiful person.

Although it was exaggerated, she was very convincing.

Su Cha did not lose her mind under her flattery. After dinner, Eunice had her driver send Su Cha back to her hotel.

As soon as Su Cha arrived in her room, she started to remove her makeup. As she sat in front of the mirror, Fu Mo handed her her phone. “There’s big news.”

Su Cha took it and glanced at it. She saw a piece of surprising news.

[The chief designer of Heberia called Su Cha a Divine Muse]

This news came out of nowhere, and it was shocking.

Hiberia was also one of the classic luxury goods. Moreover, during the time when various influencers and models competed to get into the show, Hiberia had been one of the few classic luxury brands that insisted on only using real models. However, compared to their clothing brand, Hiberia's skincare line was even bigger. Su Cha remembered that she had a limited edition set that Bo Muyi had bought.

Hence, she had heard about this brand. Yesterday, due to the groundbreaking new designs showcased by Hiberia, it became very popular and received unanimous praise from the media.

Chapter 798: Someone Is Acting

She looked at the source of the news. It was an official report from overseas.

The report had just been released, but her countrymen had already caught wind of it.

Who was the chief designer of Hiberia?

That person was the trump card of the current Hiberia. It was an existence that had made waves across the fashion world. Every year, most of the clothing from Hiberia that was praised by everyone came from this chief designer. It could be said that this person was the soul of Hiberia.

Before this report was released, there were discussions online about Su Cha's performance in the show.

Many people were still unwilling to accept that Su Cha had received attention on the Internet. Even if Su Cha was indeed stunning, she still did not have anything under her belt.

The news had just been released. Before it exploded, Fu Mo had already seen it.

She could not hide her excitement. “Your red carpet look was too good. Even the designers of Hiberia praised you when they saw it. And it was on their official report. Su Cha, you are really going to become world-famous this time.”

Su Cha appeared calm. “My work has not been released yet, but I’ve already become famous. That’s not exactly a good thing.”

“Why do you care about this? Isn’t this just what the online haters use to attack you?”

Fu Mo did not care. “As long as you dress well and gain a foothold in the fashion industry, it’s enough. Those people in the country don’t care what the haters have to say!”

Su Cha smiled lightly. “You’re right.”

Fu Mo helped her remove her makeup. Knowing that Su Cha liked to read online news, she took a tablet and stuffed it into her hand.

As she had expected, the chief designer’s words were the real cause of the explosion.

In the past, many famous celebrities in the world, including all kinds of socialites, even those superstars who relied on their beauty to become popular, had never received such praise from the chief designer.

Actually, there was once a superstar who did, but that superstar had died during the previous century.

It could be said that this praise represented the highest honor in the fashion world.

Su Cha had only participated in a show, but she had already caught the eye of the Chief Designer.

Weibo:

Huayu Entertainment Official: “Hiberia’s chief designer, Augusta Fraser, praised Su Cha as her muse. May I know what Chanel is thinking? Su Cha is wearing Chanel’s Haute Couture.”

“What a magical event...”

“When Su Cha’s photo was released, I felt that it was within my expectations. Her group of photos would definitely be noticed by the designers of various fashion brands. The key is whether they are willing to work with her. Seriously, just by watching a show, she conquered the fashion industry, and not just any fashion industry but the international one. I really admire it!”

“She’s so beautiful. Even the Western media praised her as a rare beauty. They even praised her to this extent. Those female celebrities who used to create trouble should really sit this one out.”

“This is the first time I’ve seen a female celebrity conquer the limelight of a big show. I don’t know what to think.”

“Su Cha is going to soar to the skies. F*ck, such a good compliment. If it were another female celebrity, they could brag about it for the rest of their lives.”

“Hahahahahaha, look at other places. The forum is simply a treasure. Someone actually said that the Chief Designer of Hiberia is old and has gone blind. Hahahahahaha.”

After the Weibo post was uploaded, people quickly moved to the forums and other major public networks to discuss this matter. For a while, it was in an uproar.

In the hospital, a woman almost gritted her teeth when she saw the news online.

Chapter 799: What Can I Do to Kill Her?!

“Did you see it?”

Jin Jiayu was so angry that she threw her phone at the person on the bed. “She’s so arrogant and proud now!”

She was so envious that she was about to spit fire.

She well knew that the glory she wanted was not something ordinary people could get.

If it were her, it would be impossible to get it in this lifetime.

However, she could not stop feeling envious and wanted to tear Su Cha into pieces.

Since she was beaten up by Su Cha in public last time and even had her role of the second female lead snatched by her, her status in the industry had fallen. Even if there were people who were angry, many people were more afraid of offending the Imperial Mu Group behind Su Cha. Gradually, Jin Jiayu's reputation had declined. She even gradually lost good resources.

She had been determined to win a spot on such a big show, but now, she could not even go.

Producer Yang did not get rid of her, but he had other female celebrities to be with recently and he could not care less about her.

On the hospital bed, the woman also saw the news report on the phone and became furious.

The top of her head was still covered with gauze, along with her face. At present, only her eyes were intact. At this moment, her eyes were spewing out raging flames.

This person was Qin Bei.

After she was beaten up by Che Hong, even though Che Hong had been detained and he was sentenced despite his status, she was already ruined!!

She had been disfigured by Che Hong, and there was a permanent scar on her right cheek. Even if it was removed by a laser, there would be traces, unless she underwent plastic surgery.

But with plastic surgery, she would not look good when she was old.

All of this made Qin Bei live in pain every day.

While in the hospital, she could only lie on the hospital bed and could not go anywhere. Once she went out, she would face the endless stream of media reporters. Although her reputation had been ruined, the gossip surrounding her could still increase the popularity of the paparazzi media. People were happy to see her current state, and no one would put the blame on that woman for her.

Looking at the beautiful face on the screen, Qin Bei went crazy with envy. She held her face and screamed, throwing Jin Jiayu's phone away!

“Ahhhh!!! Why isn't she dead? Why is a bitch like her still alive?!!”

It started with Li Miyi. After she encountered that little bastard, her life started to go downhill. Everything about her started to change.

And all of this was because of Su Cha!!

The phone fell to the ground and broke into pieces. The nurse outside heard the commotion in the ward but did not enter. This was normal.

They felt that this patient should not be resting here and should be sent directly to a mental hospital.

She kept going crazy from time to time.

Despite seeing that Qin Bei had thrown her phone away, Jin Jiayu did not mind. Anyway, she could easily exchange it for something worth tens of thousands. On the contrary, she was very satisfied with Qin Bei's condition. She smiled sinisterly. “You saw it too. So can you still bear it?”

Jin Jiayu was still unwilling to step in, so she came to find Qin Bei.

She knew that Qin Bei hated Su Cha as much as she did.

The two of them could have still been at the peak of their careers. They could have been happily getting paid tens of millions for a drama, but Su Cha had destroyed all of that.

Even their companies could abandon them at any time.

Jin Jiayu was not as miserable as Qin Bei, but she was not much better.

“What should I do?”

Qin Bei had gone completely crazy. She grabbed Jin Jiayu’s shoulder and asked sharply, “What can I do to kill her?!”

Chapter 800: She’d Have No Regret After She Dies

Jin Jiayu looked at the pair of vicious and ferocious eyes, as well as at the twisted and crazy expression on her face, and her heart skipped a beat.

However, she slowly curled her lips. “It’s so easy to kill her. It’s even easier to make her suffer.”

Jin Jiayu pushed Qin Bei away. Qin Bei sat back on the bed. “What should I do?”

She was like a headless fly now. She only wanted to get back at Su Cha, but with her current appearance, she knew that this was simply a fool’s dream.

“How much savings do you have?”

When Jin Jiayu suddenly asked about this matter, Qin Bei’s forehead twitched and she became a little alert. “Why are you asking?”

Jin Jiayu sneered. “No matter what, you won’t have more money than me. At least I can still force myself into the industry and not worry about my future. What about you?”

As she spoke, she moved closer to Qin Bei and said in a hoarse voice, “I have news. There’s a killer organization that has a success rate of almost 100%, but the commission is very expensive.”

Her words surprised Qin Bei. Then, hatred flashed in her eyes. She gritted her teeth and said, “I still have tens of millions. I still have hundreds of millions of real estate.”

After working for so many years, with her status and her sugar daddy, this amount was not unrealistic.

It could have been more.

Due to her scandal, she'd been sued and had had to pay hundreds of millions. However, because of Che Hong, Zhang Sen Media had also paid her a sum of money.

Jin Jiayu snapped her fingers. "It won't take much. Ten million is enough."

This price was a sky-high price for ordinary people, but for celebrities like them, it was completely affordable.

Qin Bei heaved a sigh of relief. She was afraid that she would ask for more. Because she had no face to show in China anymore, she planned to emigrate. She had a property overseas, and the remaining money was enough for her to spend for the rest of her life.

Jin Jiayu smiled as she looked at her. "I know your situation is complicated. You don't have to pay all ten million yuan. To be fair, we'll split it evenly. Let's do this together. Aren't you worried?"

Qin Bei looked at Jin Jiayu. The vigilance in her eyes slowly faded, and she nodded.

Although she wanted Su Cha to die, she would not jump into someone else's trap. Jin Jiayu's words were enough to make her vigilance disappear.

She said in a gloomy voice, "You better be careful. You have to get rid of any trace of us."

"A professional killer organization demands such a high commission. Of course, this is the most basic service they'd provide."

Then, she carefully discussed with Qin Bei in the ward.

As Su Cha was overseas now, it was too late for them to ask someone to take action overseas. They planned to wait for Su Cha to return before taking action.

"I've checked. That woman has never had a bodyguard by her side. Usually, she only has a few assistants. She has some martial arts skills so she doesn't worry about this. However, she still won't be able to do anything when facing a professional. Wait for my good news."

After discussing this matter with Qin Bei, Jin Jiayu started enacting a series of plans.

After Jin Jiayu left, Qin Bei sat on the bed as if she was already imagining Su Cha's final ending. In the end, she could not help but laugh crazily.

In her right hand was a phone that was recording. It was her phone.

She was not afraid that Jin Jiayu would cheat her. Now that she had nothing, she could give up everything. What was there to be afraid of?

As long as Su Cha died, she would be happy.

As long as this woman died, she would have no regrets.
