

The Queen 971

Chapter 971: Teacher, Solved

Su Cha and Fu Mo walked over together. The two of them walked very quickly and aggressively. The teacher exclaimed, “What are you doing out here?”

The three men’s eyes lit up, and they even hooted. “Hahahaha, what’s the occasion today? Do the three of you want to play with us? Come on, I promise I’ll make you guys feel good. Your Asian men aren’t as big as me...”

A certain word needed to be silenced. Before he could finish his sentence, Fu Mo picked up a glass of beer from a customer who was drinking outside and threw it over.

Pa!

A precise blow landed on the body of the young man who spoke. With a scream, he was forced to let go of the girl he was holding.

The teacher was stunned.

The other foreigners who were watching the show were also stunned.

“Ah! You Asian b*tches! B*tches!”

“Are you all courting death?”

“Trash!! Slut!”

The group of men roared and ran towards Su Cha and Fu Mo. The teacher was in front of them. Su Cha pushed the teacher aside, controlling her strength so that the teacher would end up sitting on an outdoor chair outside. Her leg then shot out like lightning and accurately kicked a person running towards her.

Fu Mo, who was behind her, quickly turned around and punched a young man’s face.

Bang!

Dong!

“Ah!!!!!!”

There were two loud bangs, and the sound of bones breaking could be heard. The two of them did not hold back and attacked with great force. The black man who was hit by Fu Mo spat out blood-stained teeth.

The man who was hit by the bottle was grabbed by Su Cha by his hair and was slammed onto the table.

They moved so fast that it was a blur. By the time everyone reacted, they could only see Su Cha smashing someone onto the table.

With a bang, the table broke and the young man fell on top of a pile of broken wood. Blood flowed down from his forehead, and his eyes rolled back as he fainted.

The three female students who had clearly drunk too much or had been drugged were all startled and subconsciously snuggled into the teacher's embrace.

A scream came from the back of the car. “Sis, that's awesome! Kill them!”

The black security guard was stunned by what he saw.

More angry roars sounded from nearby. Some of the people who were watching the battle were probably part of this group. When they saw their brothers fall, they quickly rushed over.

There were seven or eight of them.

The teacher screamed in fear and hugged the three students tightly, trembling in fear.

Su Cha and Fu Mo did not change their expressions. They rushed into the crowd like the wind.

The next scene completely broke the onlookers' worldview. It was as if they were filming a movie. The speed was so fast that the naked eye could not capture it. Two delicate and weak-looking Asian girls were slaughtering their way through a group of tall and burly foreign youths. They could only hear the sound of the men's bodies being beaten. It was the kind of beating that made one's heart jump.

In less than a minute, Su Cha and Fu Mo had finished off the people who'd rushed up.

Su Cha walked over and pulled a female classmate up with one hand. Her voice was very calm. "Let's go, Teacher. It's settled."

The teacher: "..."

Completely dumbfounded.

Chapter 972: I Saw the Scene Where You Defied Logic

Fu Mo came over to help a female classmate walk away. Zuo Zhici also got off the car to help.

The teacher trembled. "Stu... Student, please help me. My legs are weak..."

This was a normal person's reaction. If it was anyone else, they would have broken down long ago.

Who would dare to fight with a group of foreigners in such a foreign place?

It was a real fight...

It had completely surpassed the teacher's understanding of having to tear off hair and bite others to fight...

Su Cha supported the teacher. Behind her was a group of wailing foreigners. Suddenly, an extremely angry voice shouted, "Go to hell, you bitch!"

Su Cha turned around and saw a young black man holding a gun.

When the people nearby saw someone take out a gun, they subconsciously retreated.

When Su Cha turned around, the young man seemed to be shocked. Because of Su Cha's cold but bloody expression, he did not shoot immediately.

The black barrel was pointed at her.

Then the young African man saw a smile that he would never forget.

He saw the girl, who exuded a mysterious aura, smiling arrogantly at him. Her slightly exposed teeth were so white that they seemed to reflect light. The curve of her lips was so arrogant that it seemed as if she was unparalleled.

She suddenly extended her hand as if she was doing something and pressed her palm towards the void.

In an instant, the young man felt a huge force attacking him. His body shot backward uncontrollably.

Bang! In an instant, a human-shaped pit appeared on the wall of a bar.

He lay in a pile of debris and passed out. His fate was unknown!

It was as if he had been smashed by a huge rock. This magical scene alone was enough to shock people.

“Ah!!!!!!”

“Heavens!!!!!!”

“Heavens, what was that?”

Many people had witnessed it. When the young man drew his gun, they did not run away. But when they saw Su Cha's sudden move, they scattered in fear.

The rest of the people who wanted to pull out their guns were scared out of their wits and did not dare to move.

They watched helplessly as Su Cha and the rest left. They were still deeply shocked.

It was even more impactful than when gang brothers fought each other to the death.

As the others with them were squeezing into the car, they did not notice this scene. Fu Mo knew about such things clearly, so she did not care if there was danger behind them.

After they got into the car, because there were three more people, everyone could only squeeze together. The black security guard rushed back to the hotel despite the risk of overloading. On the way, he kept repeating OMGOMG non-stop. There was an inexplicable excitement in his eyes, as if he had seen a superhero.

Amid the noise, Zuo Zhici's expression remained strange. The teacher was still in shock. Fu Mo was using her phone to destroy the surveillance video. Su Cha was also thinking about what she had just done.

She did it on purpose. She could use her inner force to attack without putting on an act. It was just that she wanted to scare others.

At this moment, Zuo Zhici suddenly leaned closer to her and whispered into her ear, "Sister, I saw it."

It was hard to tell if she was panicking or afraid.

Su Cha replied softly, "What did you see?"

Zuo Zhici said, "I saw the scene of you going against logic."

Su Cha: "..."

Chapter 973: So Cool

Fu Mo looked over.

The teacher was still in a daze and did not know what Zuo Zhici had said.

After a moment of silence, Su Cha replied calmly, "You are not awake yet."

Zuo Zhici: "..."

Who was she trying to fool?

However, it had been too shocking, and there was a teacher present, so she didn't continue asking about it.

Fu Mo looked at her and at Su Cha meaningfully. She did not say anything and quickly cleared the video.

This was to prevent the local police from finding trouble.

They would leave tomorrow. If there was no evidence, it would take some time to find them. Moreover, this was a gang fight, so the police probably wouldn't care.

When they were almost at the hotel, the teacher said nervously, "Student Su, don't worry. I won't tell anyone about what happened today."

Putting aside the fact that the three female students had violated the rules by coming to the bar, the teacher would definitely not tell anyone about this.

Su Cha and Fu Mo nodded. It would save them some trouble if they kept it a secret.

The three girls were drunk and probably didn't know what had happened.

When they returned to the hotel, the teacher and some other students brought the three students back to their rooms to take care of them. They didn't say much about where they found them and just said that they had brought them back. Of course, the hotel security also told them not to tell anyone.

When they returned to the room and there was no one around, Zuo Zhici could not hold it in anymore. "Sister, what was that? Is it a special ability?"

She immediately thought of such scenes in television shows.

She continued to ask, "Is it telekinesis? Oh my god, Sister, I've never seen such an awesome thing in my life!"

Su Cha: "..."

She changed out of her clothes and was about to change into her pajamas when she rolled her eyes at Zuo Zhici. "I'm going to bed. What time is it? I still have to take the plane tomorrow, so I'll rest early."

"How can I sleep!"

Zuo Zhici was self-righteous. She leaned towards Su Cha and kept asking her about what happened just now. "Sister, I was definitely not seeing things. I was very clear-headed. I saw your hand pressing down and that person flew out... Even if you say that it's some high-tech weapon, it doesn't make sense."

Was technology so advanced nowadays?

Su Cha fell silent.

Although she was not afraid of Zuo Zhici witnessing such things, it was still very troublesome. She could only say helplessly, "It's not a special ability. Don't think too much about it. You must have seen wrongly. Also, you can't tell others about this."

How could Zuo Zhici hold it in? Even after hearing Su Cha's words, she could not help but want to ask more questions. Even though she was lying on the bed, she continued to ask.

Most people would have been scared out of their wits after they saw such a thing, but because it was Su Cha, Zuo Zhici was more surprised than afraid of the unknown.

She never thought that a scene she only ever saw in television shows would become reality with her sister.

She actually had special abilities.

With just one finger, that person flew out and smashed through the wall.

How cool!!!

Unfortunately, just as she was asking for the tenth time, Su Cha scolded her impatiently in a low voice, "Sleep. Even if you don't want sleep, I do."

Zuo Zhici pursed her lips. She realized that even though she had discovered this important secret, Su Cha was still indifferent and heartless. She could only suppress the curiosity in her heart and force herself to close her eyes.

Chapter 974: Superman

However, this was not an ordinary matter.

Zuo Zhici tossed and turned all night, unable to fall asleep.

When she woke up the next morning, there were two dark circles under her eyes.

The Missy, who usually loved beauty, could not even care about her image now. Seeing that Su Cha had woken up, she asked her sister in a pitiful tone, "Sister, take pity on me. Tell me, what exactly was that? How did you do it?"

Upon waking up early in the morning, she was asked such a question by Zuo Zhici. When she raised her head again, she saw Zuo Zhici's panda eyes. Su Cha hesitated for a moment, but her heart was still moved. Although she was a little impatient, she still explained, "It's not a special ability. It's ancient martial arts that makes use of inner force."

"Inner force!"

Zuo Zhici's eyes widened instantly. "Oh my god, is there such a thing nowadays?"

"Not anymore. I'm the exception, and I'm the only one."

It was not that Su Cha was arrogant. Ever since the discovery that Bo Muye's secret guards could not cultivate, she had confirmed some things.

Indeed, only she could cultivate this inner force.

"God, Sis, you're amazing."

Zuo Zhici's eyes turned into stars as she moved closer to Su Cha like a pug. "Sister, besides being able to... move people like last night, what else can your inner force do?"

As soon as she finished speaking, she suddenly felt her body lighten. Then, as if she was weightless, there was a huge restraining force and she suddenly flew towards the ceiling.

"Ah!!!!"

Zuo Zhici screamed. She did not know if she was excited or frightened, but she did not see Su Cha move at all. She only saw Su Cha fiddling with her toothbrush. After Zuo Zhici screamed, her body lightened and she was immediately placed on the ground.

Zuo Zhici was still in shock. Su Cha looked at her coldly. "If you continue to talk nonsense, I will throw you into the toilet bowl."

It seemed like she was frightened, but after a while, when Su Cha started to brush her teeth, Zuo Zhici came over excitedly. “Sister, do it again. It was fun!”

Su Cha coughed.

She almost swallowed the toothpaste foam.

After packing up in the morning, everyone set off for the airport and prepared to return home.

The teachers were secretive about what happened last night. To put it simply, they brought the students back. The three girls had indeed drunk too much last night and might have been drugged. However, they were fine now that they had recovered. They just had no memories.

However, the teacher specifically told them that Su Cha and Fu Mo went to pick them up as they’d probably known where they went. During breakfast, the three of them came over to thank Su Cha.

Although the other students were confused, since the people involved did not know what had happened, they could not probe further.

On the other hand, Zuo Zhici was especially excited today.

Once she boarded the plane, she couldn’t stop jinxing. “Sis, if this plane explodes, will I be fine with you around?”

Su Cha brought the water cup from the air stewardess to her mouth, “Drink your water! You jinx, I can’t save you if you explode!”

Did she really think she was Superman?

Although it was possible, Su Cha would not let her speak nonsense.

Although Fu Mo was sitting in the back row, her ears were sharp and she couldn’t help but let out a low laugh.

Chapter 975: The Legend of the Crane Broadcasts

Ever since Zuo Zhici found out that Su Cha was extraordinary, she started to pester her even more frequently than before.

Fortunately, Zuo Shaoxin had also begun to recover gradually. Although his leg was broken, his brain was still working, and he was starting to regain control of his family's affairs. It was said that he was much more irritable than before, and he was becoming more and more cold-blooded in the company.

Even Zuo Zhici, who had been looking for Su Cha all day, was forced to intern abroad for the entire summer vacation and could not bother Su Cha anymore.

Su Cha was happy to be free, but she was still a celebrity. Tan Jinsui had accepted several advertisements and endorsements for her, and they were going to start filming "Mo Clan City" during the summer vacation.

At the same time, Su Cha's first drama, "The Legend of the Crane," officially started its broadcast.

Ever since Su Cha's identity as a master was announced, she became more low-key than before. Other than when doing necessary work, she rarely showed her face in public. Besides, it had only been a year since she had debuted, and she had very few activities. Except for the ones at the start, she had no variety show appearances. There were no avenues for fans to understand her better. Now that there was this new "Legend of the Crane" to consume, it made those eager fans anxious.

Ever since the trailer was released, Su Cha's character was praised more. From the trailer, one did not know what her character's stats were, but from her performance, she seemed to have some acting skills?

However, whether it would work or not would have to be determined after the show was officially broadcasted. Therefore, not only were there fans watching this drama, but there were also some anti-fans who wanted to stir up trouble.

Yes, even at this stage, Su Cha was still disliked by them.

On July 1st, the first day of the summer vacation, "The Legend of the Crane" was broadcast at the TV station's prime-time slot at 8 o'clock sharp.

Su Cha accompanied Bo Mui to watch the television series.

It was rare for him to be free, and it was Su Cha's first drama, so he took a few glances with her. He was not very interested in the beginning—because Su Cha had not yet appeared.

At the beginning of the story, the first part was the story of the protagonist, the Crane Emperor, Emperor He, in his early days of exile. It was a basic story rhythm and explained Emperor He's background clearly.

“The Legend of the Crane” was broadcasted every weekend. It only broadcasted two episodes a day. Logically speaking, during such a prime-time slot, only the exciting scenes between the protagonists or the suspense at the end would attract the audience.

At the end of the second episode, after the male and female leads appeared, Yu Wan, played by Su Cha, whom everyone was looking forward to, appeared on the screen.

This scene was when Yu Wan's family sent her into the palace. Because of special reasons and because of rumors that she was stunningly beautiful, she was summoned by the emperor to meet in a side hall the moment she entered the palace. This scene was her first appearance.

When she appeared, she was wearing a red dress with a thin veil. She had a head full of black hair, and there was an extremely beautiful hairpin jewelry in her hair.

This was her first scene that appeared on the screen.

From her outfit, she seemed exceptionally plain.

Faintly, this elegant and graceful figure walked closer and closer. The emperor on the opposite side of the bead curtain seemed to be attracted and stretched his neck.

The bead curtain was suddenly lifted. The first thing that appeared was elegant and pure white fingers. They also looked as if they were meticulously carved.

Then, there was a face so beautiful that it was impossible to look away.

Her makeup was not overly thick, but it perfectly displayed her charm. When she lifted the bead curtain, the corners of her lips curled up slightly, and a trace of evilness appeared in her eyes. However, it evoked a kind of bewitching desire.

Then, the scene paused.

Chapter 976: Countless Fans

When the audience saw this scene, they felt a shiver run down their spines and they were inspired.

It was as if the woman had easily captured their attention.

Even Bo Mui, who saw this scene on the screen, raised his eyebrows slightly.

His eyes sparkled as he looked at Su Cha. His eyes were filled with love. "My Cha Cha is so beautiful."

Su Cha raised her eyebrows. "It's all thanks to the makeup artist."

She had put on makeup, and there were all sorts of lighting during the shoot. Of course she would look beautiful.

Bo Mui smiled, lowered his head, and kissed the corner of Su Cha's lips. His voice was low and gentle. "It's almost time. Should we rest?"

Su Cha looked at him innocently. He enjoyed her innocent look. Unexpectedly, he recalled the last scene on the television. The smile in her eyes was clearly evil, like that of a demoness that could make people fall.

She played the role of someone who could bring disaster to a country and its people.

Unable to resist, Bo Mui lowered his head and kissed her.

While they were preparing to rest, the nightlife of the netizens had just begun.

The first episode of the television broadcast had sent many people posting on various forums, commenting on Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao's acting skills.

Of course, both of them had good acting skills. The main focus was on Su Cha.

[To be fair, the story of Emperor He is quite interesting. And Su Cha's character... I can immediately tell that she's an evil concubine.]

[F*ck, this is too f*cking cool. Su Cha is actually playing the role of an evil concubine?]

[Ah ah ah ah ah, oh my god, Yu Wan's appearance electrocuted me to death. Her smile is so damn evil that I want to pounce on her!!]

[I want to roll on Yu Wan.]

[My mother said that when Su Cha appeared, I smiled like the wretched middle-aged man next door... But I'm a f*cking woman!]

[Oh my god, I've only thought about how exciting it would be if she were to play a role like an evil concubine, but it actually really happened! The director is simply too good at picking people! At least with Su Cha's current appearance, I think it was concocted to perfection!!]

[The third episode can only be broadcast tomorrow night, I hate it.]

[The third episode's preview is out. The emperor directly conferred Yu Wan as his concubine. I have the same wretched expression as the old emperor on the television screen.]

[Haha, I just watched 'The Legend of the Crane.' Su Cha really didn't display any acting skills. It's not unexpected at all. I advise you not to watch it.]

After the first two episodes, Yu Wan's appearance at the end left a deep impression on the audience. Many people thought that it would be a waste for such a beauty to be with the old emperor... But when they thought that such a person was to become an evil concubine, it was simply too touching.

There were not many comments about Su Cha's acting skills. After all, she had only made an appearance for the time being, so it was hard to tell what she looked like during a few simple scenes.

However, most people commented that she would be an evil concubine. This proved that Su Cha's role was successful.

This was because Yu Wan had always been an evil concubine.

Bewitching and ambitious.

That glance revealed some of her hidden ambitions.

The public's expectations were bursting. Its reputation would only stabilize after three or four episodes were completely broadcasted. However, in one night, Su Cha's fans on Weibo increased by hundreds of thousands. Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao had a large base, and their fan increase was not obvious. It was obvious that Su Cha had attracted countless fans with just her appearance.

This made those actresses with no acting skills feel threatened.

Chapter 977: Update

In this era, people seemed to harbor the illusion that they could become something even if they're nothing special.

As long as one had good looks or stepped on dog shit at some point in time, one might become famous.

Right now, the younger generation in the industry would definitely not be able to catch up to the older generation in terms of acting skills, and there were not many rising stars.

In terms of acting skills, people had differing opinions. No matter how well one might act, they might not be able to win everyone's hearts.

Although there had only been two episodes, there were already people jumping around saying that Su Cha did not have any acting skills. But most people, at least, were instantly captivated by Su Cha's appearance.

They could feel that she was a real evil concubine.

Her looks were not bad to begin with, and she could not be considered a top beauty without makeup. However, with the help of the makeup artist, her charm was especially enhanced. Add to that, her aura was especially strong, which made her suitability for this drama extremely high. Even if she really acted as a witch that could bring disaster to a country, the audience would not find anything inappropriate.

It was better than some female celebrities who had ordinary makeup on yet still insisted on playing the role of a beauty.

On the first night of the broadcast, due to the huge commotion and the fact that Shao Tianwen and Mu Jiao were the main actors, the reviews were generally quite good.

Someone even brought up Jin Jiayu, saying that it was fortunate that Su Cha was the one acting in this drama. If Jin Jiayu had been the one acting, it would have been ruined.

Speaking of Jin Jiayu, some people remembered that they hadn't heard any news about her in the industry for a long time.

Unfortunately, You and My Mom Are Clashing: "Am I seeing things? Last night, when I was watching TV, I realized that the second female lead for this drama was actually supposed to be Jin Jiayu. Then, I suddenly remembered that Jin Jiayu has disappeared. I just searched around and found that there hasn't been any news about her for months. What's going on? Has she gone abroad?"

"I think she went overseas. I heard that from her manager."

"It was said that she had offended the one who was on the rise and caused a huge disaster, so she went overseas..."

“—Oh my god, then wouldn’t this make the newly rising person a true member of the entertainment circle? Jin Jiayu’s already considered an A-list celebrity, yet she just disappeared without a sound. That’s too scary!”

The news about Jin Jiayu was unintentionally brought up by a verified account. In fact, many people had noticed Jin Jiayu’s disappearance. However, it was an old matter, after all. Even if someone had brought it up, they wouldn’t be able to continue asking about it because someone had said that she had gone abroad.

After all, if they didn’t really like her, no one would go out of their way to find her whereabouts.

Furthermore, the entertainment industry evolved so rapidly. Even if a popular celebrity had disappeared and their whereabouts could not be found, the audience could only give up.

No one knew that she had long turned into a pile of bones, having paid the price for what she had done.

Of course, their bodies had already been discovered by the police. However, because there were no clues and they had been suppressed before, this matter wasn’t announced to the public. Even Jin Jiayu’s manager couldn’t contact her, and all the money she had earned over the years had been transferred to her parents.

However, Bai Kun had actually helped settle this matter, and the manager thought that Jin Jiayu had really offended someone and migrated overseas.

This matter was short-lived. Even if it was mentioned, it would gradually disappear in the long river of history.

The entertainment circle was bustling with activity. There were also a lot of hot news in society every day. In the information age, there would be big news every two to three days. Who would have the time to pay attention to everything?

Chapter 978: Joshua

When Su Cha woke up the next day, she received the viewership ratings from last night.

Because the TV station was the first to broadcast, the viewership ratings were only calculated by the TV station.

The nationwide viewership ratings were around 3.7.

No matter what, it wasn't a shocking number, but it was still quite beautiful.

At least the current viewership ratings were a good start. This was because the publicity was on point, and with Shao Tianwen as the main lead, many people had been waiting.

After all, many people didn't watch television these days. They watched things on the Internet. "The Legend of the Crane" was first broadcasted on TV before being streamed online. By this point, "The Legend of the Crane" had been online for only a few hours and it had already been streamed more than 100 million times.

This was only for the two episodes.

A lot of people had not watched it yet. They had to see the reviews online first before deciding whether to watch it or not.

Many people took screenshots of Su Cha's last scene as publicity. Many people soon became interested in Yu Wan, who was played by Su Cha, and expressed that they would watch her tonight.

A viewership rating of 3.7 was still something worth celebrating. At least nowadays, many television dramas might not even be able to break 3 even if they were broadcasted to their deaths.

At this time, Su Cha officially headed to the set of "Mo Clan City" for filming.

The initial filming of "Mo Clan City" had come to an end. The second scene was in Cambodia. This was a magic work collaboration between East and West. From the topic, one could also understand the meaning behind "Mo Clan City." It described the various legends of the Mo Clan's city of traps.

Initially, this idea came from the Spring and Autumn Period. The Hundred Schools of Philosophers evolved from an animated film. The screenwriter used this idea to formulate the “Mo Clan City.” However, the core was completely different. It was about a magnificent Chinese city in this era, as well as the mysterious mechanical city’s culture. These were all legendary things.

In fact, a city of traps did exist in the past. It was uncertain whether it was from the same era, but such things existed in Su Cha’s era. Of course, it was not actually a city but a sect.

The character played by Su Cha was an ordinary girl who grew up in Mo Clan City. She had high attainments in the art of mechanisms and was extraordinarily quick-witted. She was quite famous in the city. She was eccentric by nature and had lived in Mo Clan City since she was young. Later on, an unexpected visitor entered Mo Clan City. This visitor was a guest from the West.

She felt curious about this visitor from the West and fell in love with him. However, the two of them had completely different fates in the end, so they had to part ways. At the end of the story, everything that the visitor had experienced in Mo Clan City was like a dream. After he returned to the country, he spent his entire life trying to find Mo Clan City, but he could not find it anymore.

This was a bit like a paradise, but not quite.

The people of Mo Clan City did not take the initiative to avoid the world. They would appear during disputes and disasters, but if they did not want to be found, they would never be discovered.

Although Su Cha was the second female lead, many stories revolved around this western guest. It was unusual that the female lead did not have feelings for this foreign person, but after all, there were other male leads in this movie.

The actor playing this foreign guest was rumored to be a superstar, but even Su Cha, the main actor, was not told who this superstar was. It was not until she joined the production team that Su Cha learned who this superstar was.

Hollywood’s notorious playboy, Joshua Gordon.

The reason why he was notorious was that even Su Cha, who did not care much about the news, happened to have read about this Casanova’s scandalous exploits.

Joshua Gordon was a typical handsome American man, but his appearance was much better than average, and he had a pair of blue eyes that were rare in Americans.

The color was as deep and elegant as the sea.

It was also because of his handsome appearance and pair of eyes that he shot to fame after acting in a Hollywood blockbuster.

For the past few years, he had been on the list of the sexiest men in America. Even though he changed girlfriends almost every month and had dated countless girls since he debuted, there were still countless female fans screaming crazily for him.

Because of this, in the eyes of some people, he was a household celebrity, but in the eyes of many, he was also a typical scumbag.

Su Cha did not expect that “Mo Clan City” would invite such a Hollywood superstar to film.

When she first met him in Cambodia, he was treated like the biggest big shot that she had ever seen.

One couldn’t even see Joshua Gordon’s face. His bodyguards and foreign crew numbered in the dozens, surrounding him. From the introductions, it seemed that they were all serving Joshua alone.

There must be dozens of them...

Su Cha: “...”

She couldn’t help but lower her head and smile at Fu Mo. “Every time I bring only you along, I feel that I’m too shabby.”

Fu Mo was also overjoyed. “Every time I ask you to bring a stylist, you always say that it’s too troublesome since the production team has them. If you want to be a big shot, though, you can do it too.”

Bai Kun had prepared a team of dozens for Su Cha. Usually, she would only bring some of them with her when she was shooting for magazines in the country. Basically, she would not bring them with her when she went overseas. She would only bring Fu Mo. Fu Mo was both good at fighting and hacking. She was an all-rounder.

Since the crew members could style her, Su Cha felt that she only needed Fu Mo.

She patted Fu Mo's shoulder. "I'll give you a raise when the time comes."

It would be unkind not to increase her pay.

Fu Mo giggled.

When other people saw Su Cha, the staff greeted her. Although Su Cha looked a little difficult to approach, she did not put on airs when greeting others. This made the crew have a better impression of her. After all, they had seen many big-name celebrities who did not care about others. Since Su Cha debuted, there had been many scandals about her. But in the industry, there were no rumors where others said she was not easy to serve and even acted like a big shot. This was already admirable.

Moreover, she had always only brought along one assistant and had never beaten or scolded her assistant before. She was like a friend to her assistant. She had an aura, but she did not put on airs. Such a person was too easy to like.

Especially when compared to the other superstars.

The main character was here and she was still in the nanny van. It was said that she was talking to her manager and did not even come out to meet the other male and female leads of the drama.

After all, they were two big shots.

Su Cha went over to greet the two main leads of the show. Mu Jiandong and Ji Shu had heard of Su Cha's reputation. The two of them did not put on airs and greeted Su Cha amiably. However, they were too busy to talk much. After Su Cha greeted them, she sat aside and busied herself.

Now that her identity as a master had been announced, the production team also respected her a lot. After a while, the nanny van that was parked in the production set finally opened, and a foreign male celebrity who was as tall as a male model walked out.

Chapter 980: Wanderer

Joshua was naturally charming to be able to attract so many women.

Although many people disliked him because he was a big shot, now that he came out, even the staff members couldn't help but blush when they saw him.

Joshua smiled, his deep blue eyes seemingly filled with tenderness. He raised his hand and waved. He was passionate and generous, his voice even more elegant and charming. "Hello, everyone."

Now that he was greeting everyone, some people could finally let go of their grudges.

Some female employees naturally responded enthusiastically.

Fu Mo had finished investigating Joshua's background. She handed the phone to Su Cha and muttered, "He's really too fickle. He loves every woman he sees."

The information was probably about Joshua's achievements. He had dated hundreds of girls, which was a shocking number even in Hollywood.

The scum of the century did not bully others.

It was nothing new for Joshua to be good-looking and seductive. It was just that he had no self-control. When others came to seduce him, he seemed to accept them. Hence, many girlfriends could not stand his unfaithfulness and broke up with him. Very few of them were asked out by Joshua himself.

Naturally, Su Cha was not interested in this playboy, especially when she saw him. "There's also a kissing scene..."

Fortunately, it was to be with Bo Muyi.

She could not bring herself to kiss him.

Of course, he did not know that Su Cha was going to use a substitute kisser. The director did not mention it during the filming period, and Joshua also knew that he'd have a Chinese actress working with him. Moreover, she was a mysterious Asian beauty who had made a name for herself in Hollywood. It was rare for him to be interested, so he got out of the nanny van.

Although she did not introduce herself, Su Cha still attracted people's attention.

Almost immediately, Joshua saw the girl who had suddenly appeared on this crew. She looked familiar.

Indeed, she looked familiar. He had also taken a few glances at the photo of her stunning the crowd at the fashion show.

If he were looking for an oriental girlfriend, Su Cha would be his type.

At the thought of this, Joshua's lips curled up as he walked over in an extremely charming manner. "You are Su? You are truly as noble and charming as I imagined you to be. I have fallen for you. You are truly a charming person..."

If anyone else said this, people would think that he was a frivolous and licentious person. When Joshua said this, it sounded so natural, and it even made one's heart race.

It was a pity that Su Cha did not feel anything. If it were Bo Muyi, she would have been tempted.

After all, it was a huge contrast if such a cold-faced Yama said such sweet nothings. The wastrel in front of her spoke as if he had the lines memorized.

Joshua wanted to hold Su Cha's hand and kiss it, but Su Cha did not give him the chance. She put her hand in her pocket and said with a fake smile, "Greetings, Joshua Gordon. It's my first time meeting you. I'm honored. My name is Su. I hope our cooperation will be pleasant."

Su Cha did not even extend her hand to Joshua.

Joshua's brows furrowed. He had a vague feeling that this oriental beauty was very disgusted with his antics and didn't really like him.

Instantly, his smile faded a little and he became much more gentlemanly. “Of course. I’ve been thinking about it since before you came. Now that I’ve seen you in person, it’s no exaggeration to say that you’re even more charming than I imagined.”
