

Chapter 28: Don't F*@& with me

Ashton's POV:

I need answers, I need to know what's going on with my mate whether she likes it or not. She is special and we must protect her. From what idiot?! You know something but you not telling me shit. I'm going to get my answers and I'm going to get them now. I reached the Hampton residence and knocked on the door. Suddenly I grew very nervous. Well I'd be nervous if I were you. You put their kid in a coma for three years... shut up you always make everything worse!The door finally opened and Mrs Hampton said "Hello alpha, how can I help you today". "I...Um, Hello" I said nervously. She gave me a questioning look. "Right. I was wondering if I may speak with you and your husband. It's about something important" I asked. She nodded her head and opened the door wider for me to come in. "I'm just going to give you a warning. Serenity's dad would like to beat you black and blue. The only reason he hasn't is because your father is a good friend of ours and We respect that" she said with much sass. Now I know where serenity gets it from!I understand completely and I can't blame both of you if you hate me... I honestly hate myself for all the things that I've done" I told her sincerely.

"And you should". Mr Hampton replied, as he was walking into to living room. I was ashamed and intimidated. I'd hurt their only daughter really bad. "Why are you here scum?" He questioned. "Derrick!" Mrs. Hampton said shocked. "He is our alpha, we must respect him." She continued. "No he is right, I am scum and everything else for that matter" I told them. "I am here concerning Serenity, I've been informed that she's in danger. Something is going on and I'm completely confused about it." I said. They gave each other a look. A look I'm all too familiar with. Fear. W.t.f? I'm thinking the same thing."I'm coming to you out of concern for your daughter, my mate, and my pack". I told them. " what exactly is going on?" Mr Hampton asked. "Well other than multiple rouges being spotted near your home and serenity having superpowers, not much." I replied sarcastically. " did you say superpowers?" Mrs Hampton asked.

"Oh dear moon goddess... it's happening" she cried out. What the hellAt this point I'm on edge and so is my wolf. " what is happening?" I questioned. " history" was her fathers reply. " I don't understand, and honestly it's pissing me o . Please don't fuck with me right now. She is my mate and I care about her well being." I said " why the fuck do you care anyway? You didn't even want anything to do with my daughter! So now she's good enough for you?" Her father snarled. Good job you've royally pissed o a mystic wolf. What the fuck is a mystic wolf asshole!!! You're about to find out...get out of my house! We don't owe you any explanations." He said. He's eyes began to glow the same way serenity's did when she got angry. Now I'm intrigued."What is a mystical wolf" I asked. And just like that he came to his senses, his anger disintegrated and he looked to his wife. She looked at me and said " this wasn't supposed to happen, none of this was supposed to happen." Okay?I nodded for her to continue. "As you already know, my daughter is not the average wolf. She's special and with that comes a lot of trouble. We thought we were doing the right thing, suppressing her powers and containing her wolf but you started a chain reaction that is irreversible" she said. What the fuck did I do?Her father began speaking " serenity comes from a strong bloodline of wolves known as mystic wolves. We were the very first wolves to walk the earth and the strongest, rarest thing to find. Because of our genetic make up we could do things that others couldn't. And because of that regular werewolves teamed up with other supernatural beings to destroy us." This is crazy. I feel like I've walked into the twilight zone! we were hunted or used as weapons of destruction. My mother was the very last mystic wolf and she gave her life to protect our legacy. My powers are dormant and because of that we assumed that serenity would take a er her mother. But we couldn't take any chances, I sold my soul to hades in order to keep her wolf in confinement. But as you know everything comes with a price. My daughter was roped into a prophecy. As anger grows in a young wolfs heart and hatred grows from the roots of her soul, a great darkness will come from its shadows and the dark one will be released from the burrows. Prepare for battle for the god of war will win. History will repeat itself and then he will have his revengehe finished.

" so what you're telling me is my mate has magical powers and is a part of some type of prophecy that will put her in danger should someone find out?" I asked. " yes and no" he replied. " well what did I do to start this?" I asked " you rejected your mate, if we had kept her wolf locked up she would've died. Her mother told me. Fuck. Yeah... If I didn't feel like a complete Asshole before I surly feel like it now. "What are we going to do? We have to think of something to fix this." I said. "We have to tell her the truth and pray to the moon goddess that she understands." Her father said. It never ends.... she's gonna kill you... you too idiot! Oh yeah, I don't wanna die. Fix it fool! "Where is she exactly?" I asked.

"I'm right here" serenity replied. I'm absolutely shook as she stepped into the living room. Oh god damn!...

Dun Dun DUUUN....

Kealan's POV:

I haven't seen or talked to my baby girl in forever and it hurts. She's consumed my every thought and I feel like I'm going insane. That bitch ran o somewhere and I'm back to square one. She probably hates meI looked at my phone re-reading her last message to me.

PRINCESS 🐾: you're just like every other man I let into my life.

Damn... I fucked up big time. I need to see her. She's going to kick my ass but she's definitely worth it. I mind linked one of the warriors in my pack. Where is she?I asked him. She's at the park with her friend. Good. She's gonna kick our ass.... yup.I quickly got dressed and sprayed on something to cover my scent. I don't need anyone from alpha boy's pack picking up on my smell. I just wanted to see her that's all. Yeah right who you fooling? Shut up.I made my way too the park and there she was. Looking as beautiful as ever. I watched her like some sick stalker while her friend snapped pictures of her. Damn her smile was amazing.

She laughed and joked with her friend. They were close. When I make her mine I'll be sure to get to know her friend. Anyone she loved, I would love too. I'll even find a nice guy in my pack for her, if that will make serenity happy. Gosh I'm whipped. I watched them until they parted ways to go home. Of course I followed her home, had to make sure my baby girl got home safe. Once I saw her enter her home, I le to go back to my hideout. Seeing her did something to me. I need her in my life🥰🥰🥰 . I'll think of something but I'm coming for what's mine.
