

The Savior 701

Chapter 701: Release of the leaderboard (1)

Then she ..

The old lady didn't dare to think about it.

Before he became an Emperor, he had already doted on him.

The old lady did not believe that he would give Lulu the cold shoulder just because he had claimed the throne. His Highness thought too highly of her.

The old Madam's heart trembled, and she quickly reached out to Lulu. "Quickly stop the greeting. This child, quickly come to maternal grandmother and let me take a look."

"A few days ago we heard that you entered the palace and our family was very anxious. Fortunately, His Highness sent people to deliver letters every day, so your mother was more at ease."

"That day when we heard that something had happened in the longevity Palace, your mother fainted on the spot. Fortunately, His Highness sent someone to send the news back immediately and knew that you had safely left the palace. Our family almost knelt in front of the palace gate and begged to enter the palace." Old Mrs. Han pulled her in front of her and hugged her a few times.

Xia Qingqing, who was sitting beside the old Madam, looked at her mother. She pursed her lips and lowered her head.

In the past, old Mrs. Han had always indulged her and let her sit in front of her.

Now, that person had become Jiang huailu.

it's good that you're alright. You little girl ... Seeing her daughter safe and sound, Mrs. Xia was about to cry again. Knowing that Lulu had entered the palace, she had not been able to eat or sleep well, praying for the blessings of the Buddha in front of the temple every day.

From time to time, he would go to the hall of world salvation to ask for the protection of the Savior.

Occasionally, he would go to the guoguo temple to ask for the blessings of the eminent monks.

"Mother, grandmother, Lulu is back. Look, Lulu didn't lose weight at all, and even gained weight." The little girl pinched the soft flesh on her cheek, coaxing everyone to burst out laughing.

oh my, " lady Wang laughed. don't you have any respect for us three aunts? " He teased her with a smile.

Lulu called out to them one by one with a red face.

“Yurong, don’t cry today. Today is a good day. It’s the day the results are released.” that’s right. Huai ‘an is the most studious child in our family. You’re so blessed.

My brother ze is the eldest son. This guy only got the second place and 30th place. He’s already the best scholar in our family. Compared to Huai ‘an, he’s far inferior.” First aunt laughed and teased her son.

His eldest daughter-in-law, Yu Shi, who was sitting on the side, had an embarrassed expression on her face.

Little aunt glanced at her. you’re just not satisfied. Brother ze was born as a second-rank Jinshi. Brother Yan was born as a second-rank Jinshi. They’re both on the gold roll. They are the only ones in the Xia family who can study. Now that he is sent back to the capital at such a young age, he will be promoted in the future.”

His first aunt had a smile on her face. She was naturally satisfied with her son.

But Jiang Huaian was indeed one of the best.

“How can I compare to that brat Huai ‘an?” However, first aunt knew that the Xia family was the main character today, so she was happy to keep a low profile.

On the other side, Madam Yu tightened her handkerchief, frowning, somewhat unconvinced.

How could old Mrs. Han not tell that her eldest grandson’s wife was just from a high family status and had high aspirations, so she didn’t like Huai ‘an?

“It is not certain if you can pass the examination. No matter what, father is still in the top thirty of the gold roll. Even if you pass the court examination, you will be praised by His Majesty. Those who don’t know better would think that you’ve already passed.”

Xia Qingqing couldn’t stand it. The main thing was that she couldn’t bear to see everyone flattering Jiang huailu.

As long as she returned, everyone in this residence would not like her.

The room instantly fell silent.

The old lady’s expression was unsightly, and she seemed to want to say something, but Lulu stopped her.

you really don’t know how to talk. If we were in the eastern Palace, brother

Jiang Jiang would have smashed your face. Lulu said without any hesitation..

Chapter 702: Hit two Yuans in a row (1)

In the palace, she even dared to shout at the Emperor, let alone Xia Qingqing.

“Little girl, if you don’t know how to speak, then shut your mouth. With such a foul mouth, your reputation will be ruined if word gets out.”

“No matter what, my family is also a civil official, a family that wants face, and so often so viciously speculate about others. Those who didn’t know would think that you were vicious at such a young age. After all, you can’t bear the consequences of cursing your elders to miss the results on the day of release.” Lulu looked at her expressionlessly.

The nanny that was brought in came forward and asked, “”Young lady, do you want to slap him?” As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked.

Then, the nanny smiled and bowed to the old Madam, “”Old Furen has seen a joke. It was his Majesty’s order. Anyone who offends Lulu will be slapped or beaten to death as long as you open your mouth.”

After he finished speaking, he glanced at Xia Qingqing, who suddenly cowered. “Our young lady would not be mistreated even if she entered the palace. Back then, the female officials sent by the Empress had offended miss Lulu and were all beaten to death.”

Xia Qingqing’s heart turned cold, and she hid behind the young woman

Madam Yu, in fear.

“We’re all family, no need to be so polite. The mama’s slap was heavy. If Qing Qing was slapped, her face would be rotten. Later, sister-in-law will do it herself, just a few slaps will do. If you slap too many times, sister-in-law will also feel heartache.” Lulu waved his hand nonchalantly.

Madam Yu’s face suddenly turned black. She looked at the old Madam with a pale face, wanting to refute.

Old Mrs. Han glared at her, and Madam Yu immediately pulled Xia Qingqing to kneel down.

“Yes. Qing Qing said the wrong thing and should be punished.” As she spoke, she lowered her head and her tears were about to fall.

She came from a high family and was ambitious. Back then, the Xia family rose in status quickly and only agreed to marry after barely being on par with her family.

Even so, it could be considered marrying down.

All these years, the Xia family had deliberately given in to her and indulged Xia Qingqing, whom she had given birth to. However, things were different now.

Madam Yu pulled her daughter back to sit down. Xia Qingqing’s eyes were full of tears, and she secretly looked at Jiang huailu with resentment and hatred.

“Mother, don’t worry. Some people can’t say anything good from a dog’s mouth. Lulu’s a good talker, I’m sure you’ll be able to get your name on the Golden roll and get into high school!” Lulu’s tone was unquestionable, and he spoke as if he was speaking the truth.

“If Lulu knows how to talk, then say more.” Little aunt said with a smile.

Eldest aunt glanced at eldest daughter-in-law but did not say a word to help her.

She had already said enough. Since Madam Yu did not want to listen, she did not want to say anything more.

All these years, Madam Yu had only treated her as brother ze's mother. She really couldn't see anything filial and respectful.

After all, the Xia family had married her when they were weak. Her daughter-in-law's family was of high status and power, so she had nothing to say.

As long as her son was in harmony with her, they would be in-laws in the Imperial court. Why did she have to be so talkative and make her unhappy for no reason? it was as if she had harmed her.

Sigh.

"You little girl, if your brother knows that you're spreading rumors again, he'll definitely teach you a lesson. Not to mention high school, as long as I can pass the Imperial scholar's examination, mother will be content." Mrs. Xia rubbed her daughter's head.

There was a sly glint in Lulu's eyes.

How could she not know if her brother would be able to get into high school?

Just as they were talking, the crackling of firecrackers and the clamoring of gongs and drums sounded outside the door.

"What's that sound? Why did it ring at the door?" First aunt was shocked and quickly called for someone to ask.

Who knew that before the maidservant had even left the room, the manservant had already run over at lightning speed, shouting as he ran, "'Young master Huai 'an is in high school, young master Huai' an is in high school.. Young master, you have won the Huiyuan examination!"

Chapter 703: 703 -establishing the family (1)

old Madam, young master Huai 'an is the top winner. He's at the Huiyuan level. He won two consecutive Yuan!

"The bailiff who came to report the good news has already arrived at the door and will be coming in soon." The gatekeeper was smart and knew that there would be a reward for delivering the message at this time.

When he heard the news, he rushed in in a hurry. As expected, the old lady was overjoyed.

"Really? With the blessing of the gods and the blessing of the Bodhisattva, brother Huai 'an actually got the name of Huiyuan. Yurong, Yurong, you're really blessed." The old lady stood up, turned around, and pulled her daughter, whose marriage was not going well, and cried.

“Quickly reward them. Everyone in the Xia family will be rewarded with three months’ worth of money today.” Eldest aunt was overjoyed and asked the head maidservant to give the gatekeeper some money.

Seeing how thick it was, the gatekeeper was so happy that his mouth cracked open to the back of his head.

Xia Yurong was stunned for a long time, “”It, it’s actually true?”

“Mother, brother got into the Huiyuan Academy. Big brother won two Yuan in a row. I’m just waiting for him to reach the third Yuan in the future.” The little girl cupped her little face. Xia Yurong then came back to her senses and asked taozhi to take the silver and give a big red packet to the bailiff who came to the mansion to report the good news.

congratulations Madam Xia, congratulations Madam Xia. Young master Jiang Huai ‘an has won first place in this year’s examination. We only have to wait for the court examination three days later. I wish young master Huai’ an good luck in passing the three grades. The person who came to report the good news said all kinds of auspicious words, and naturally, the red packets were also given non-stop.

Firecrackers were set off in front of the Xia family’s Gate. Madam Yu pursed her lips and looked at Xia Yurong, her eyes filled with disdain.

It wasn’t that Lulu didn’t see her expression. It was obvious that the eldest son he married was not as good as her mother’s son, who was born from a poor family.

Lulu snorted coldly. ‘My brother is destined to be the star of literature!’

“Quickly set up a banquet. I’m afraid master will drink two cups today.” The old lady instructed with a smile.

“Mother, I’m afraid we have to wait. The bailiff said that the court examination is in three days. Don’t mess up the matter.” His first aunt was all smiles.

The old lady paused. the new emperor has not been appointed. I’m afraid he won’t pass the court examination for the time being. The most important thing to do now was to register a new residence.

When everyone heard this, they agreed.

“Huai ‘an is indeed a genius. He’s only sixteen years old, but he’s already shocked the world with a single feat. The Jiang family can finally be established. You ah, mother won’t be worried about you.” The old Madam held her daughter’s hand. No matter how much she supported her daughter, the Xia family still had a family of daughters-in-law and granddaughters-in-law. Now that her two children had worked hard, she had enough face.

“Oh right, where’s brother Huai ‘an? Why haven’t you returned?”

As soon as the old lady finished her question, Lulu smiled. "Lulu ran into big brother on the way here. Just now, big brother and his classmates were waiting for the results in the restaurant. I'm afraid he's off to celebrate now."

The old Madam nodded. This was true.

He had won the title of champion today. There was still one more round in the court examination in the future, and his teacher would probably have to give him some pointers.

"I'll first prepare some small gifts and send them to benefactor. Let's celebrate at home first, and we'll talk about it after the court examinations." The old Madam thought about it in the long run. It was better to be ranked first in the three aeons, but if such a big lineup put pressure on her grandson, it would not be worth it.

Everyone had a sharp mind and immediately agreed with a smile.

"Speaking of which, brother Huai 'an is already 16. At this age, he should be getting married. Now that she has such comprehension ability at such a young age, one fear that she can be said to be a young lady of a high family."

Madam Yu said with a smile. Her maiden family had two younger cousins.

Although they were both sons of concubines, Jiang Huai 'an was in dire straits now, so these two cousins were worthy of him.

"What's the point of having such a high family status?" Lulu mumbled. "If my wife's family status is high, won't I be mistreated?" If sister-in-law is arrogant and willful, mother and Lulu will have to give her face." As soon as he said this, everyone in the Xia family fell silent..

Chapter 704: Who will be the new emperor (1)

Some gazes sized up Madam Yu. Weren't these words referring to Madam Yu?

Her paternal family was the highest, so her husband was a head shorter. Even her mother-in-law had to endure their anger often.

Madam Yu's face suddenly darkened.

He would never have thought that this fire would burn his head.

He felt that Jiang Huai 'an was famous for his talent, and by betrothing his concubine-born cousin to him, he would be able to manipulate Jiang Huai' an.

She was able to suppress Jiang Huaian and always gave her husband a helping hand.

"You even dare to make up stories about your future sister-in-law."

With that said, he led Lulu and walked past her, not even looking at Madam Yu.

She was staying at her mother's house because this place was her home.

Her parents had no objections, her three brothers had no objections, and her three sisters-in-law had no objections either. It was not up to her, a granddaughter-in-law, to have any objections.

She had only been afraid of making things difficult for her parents, and that Lulu and Huai 'an would be hurt by malicious words.

Now that Huai 'an was able to stand up again, she wasn't willing to listen to her explanation.

The Xia family was in a jubilant mood, but the courtiers did not come out from the morning court until evening.

The Xia family was originally very happy, but they became a little worried at night.

"Has eldest master returned to the residence?" When the lanterns were lit, master Xia still had not returned to the mansion.

The old Madam had sent people to ask several times, but she had never left the palace.

Jiang Huai 'an had just returned to the manor. He carried Lulu the moment he entered the house. The young man's eyebrows were raised, and he looked like an adult now.

"Maternal grandmother, don't be anxious. Just now when Huai 'an came back, he had already inquired. The civil and military officials had entered the palace since morning and had not left the throne room. Eldest uncle is fine, he is only held back by the Imperial court." The Emperor had an accident yesterday, and there were many things to do in the court today.

The civil and military officials went to kowtow to the Emperor before going to the throne room to discuss matters.

Fortunately, the Empress was there to manage the Emperor, so the civil and military officials could discuss matters with peace of mind.

I wonder if there's any result ... The old Madam muttered.

The candlelight crackled as the wind outside blew against the window.

"What is going on? something happened to His Majesty and there are rumors of an evil god in the capital. The new king was delayed. The capital is going to be in turmoil." First aunt sighed. All the women in the room were worried.

"Every Emperor has his own courtiers. No matter who goes up, our Xia family must act cautiously. Do not anger the new emperor." The old Madam was a little worried. Her heart was heavy and she felt a little uneasy.

On the other hand, Lulu squinted his eyes and grabbed the desserts on the table.

"You heartless fellow, you're so happy." His aunt tapped the tip of Lulu's nose. food is the most important thing to the people," the little girl mumbled. even the Emperor has to eat.

Madam Yu glanced at her. that's true. No one in the Jiang family is an official now. Huai 'an hasn't passed the court examination yet. In the future, once he passes the court examination, he can be loyal to the new emperor. Indeed, there's no need to worry about it. " He looked at Lulu with an unkind gaze. Because of Jiang huailu's words, Xia Qingqing was slapped 20 times.

She had beaten him up personally.

There was blood at the corner of Qingqing's mouth. It hit her daughter's body, but it hurt her mother's heart. The more her heart hurt, the more she blamed Jiang huailu and Xia Yurong's family.

Just as he said that, footsteps were heard from the courtyard.

"Old Madam, first master and old master have returned." The old master had retired back to his residence, but this morning, he went fishing with a few other old masters who had retired at the same time.

It was said to be fishing, but it was actually for court Affairs.

"Master, why do you look so pale?" His first aunt hurriedly ordered the servants to prepare some ginger soup. It was only March, and the weather was a little cold..

Chapter 705: Stand up for the little ancestor (1)

As soon as Lord Xia entered the door, he took a big gulp of tea.

Her face was pale and she could not hide the worry in her eyes.

Sitting on the chair, her legs were trembling. She had been standing for a long time and was numb.

"What happened? Why is the court session taking so long today?" The old Madam's brows were furrowed with worry, and everyone looked on worriedly.

"Has the new emperor been decided?" master Xia entered the room. The old man's tone was very certain.

Everyone trembled.

Lord Xia straightened his back and nodded heavily.

"His Majesty's funeral is imminent and can not be delayed. A new emperor must be established to stabilize the court and preside over the entry of the late Emperor into the Imperial mausoleum." Lord Xia nodded.

since today's court session, old master Zheng has been praising the virtuous King and praising him for his kindness ...

Master Xia nodded.

"Then, then who will be the new emperor?" Madam Yu bit her lower lip and stood up.

The Xia family originally didn't occupy either side, but after Jiang huailu entered the eastern Palace, the Xia family seemed to be biased towards the Crown Prince.

However, Madam Yu had taken advantage of the Crown Prince's unconscious state these two years to secretly send gifts to the Xian Prince several times.

Although he had not clearly sided with the virtuous Prince, he had followed the virtuous Prince dangyu in court a few times and added to the Crown Prince's bet twice.

Especially in recent times, when the Emperor was obviously dissatisfied with the Crown Prince, the Yu family took the opportunity to raise the Crown Prince's objection twice.

Even in her dreams, Madam Yu hoped that the sage King could ascend the throne.

Of course, part of it was because Jiang huailu was favored by the Xia family because of the Crown Prince.

Lord Xia glanced at his eldest daughter-in-law and asked, "do you still remember the daughter of the Zheng family?" She had married city Lord yang, who had returned from the barren capital. Once she marries into the Yang family, she will be the Yang family's daughter-in-law. The Zheng family will submit to the Xian King, and the Zheng family's daughter will draw a clear line between the Zheng family and the Zheng family."

Madam Yu understood what he said and her face turned pale.

Lord Xia ignored him. Lord Zheng criticized His Highness for being unkind, but tutor Xie spoke bluntly. The Crown Prince is the rightful heir apparent, and his Majesty did not leave any words to change the title of a virtuous King. Even if it's a praise, it's only a father's praise for his son, not a praise for the heir apparent.

"Moreover, the Crown Prince ridiculed the Xian King on the spot for being able to suppress all the countries. However, the sage King would only hand over the territory he had conquered."

Everyone's heart clenched when they heard this. This was the fight for the throne.

Lord Xia sighed faintly, "'The Lord Yu of the Imperial court is your father, right?"

"Yes." Madam Yu was startled. He replied in a low voice.

"I've never taken care of the harem city before, but I've told you all before that if the family has any major actions, as in-laws, as the Xia family's daughter-in-law, you should at least inform the manor. Do you know that the Yu family has sided with the sage King? Do you know that your father accused the Crown Prince of being brutal and unkind in court? if he ascended the throne, the people would be in great misery and suffering?"

At such a crucial moment, as the sharp knife, Lord Yu knew that the wise King must have made a promise to him.

Madam Yu's body swayed and her face instantly turned pale.

Lord Xia waved his hand and seemed to sigh helplessly.

“It’s a good thing that the Xia family still has a big backer.”

“Your Highness wanted to behead him on the spot for offending your superior. It was Grand tutor Xie who stopped him and locked your father in prison.” “Your Highness is still as domineering as ever.” Lord Xia sighed.

In fact, many people in the Imperial court were inclined to support the wise King. Although the wise King was not as strong as the Crown Prince, he had a weakness.

However, the Crown Prince had indeed taken the throne, and he was also the Crown Prince. Yet, he had no weakness..

Chapter 706: The new emperor is furious (1)

Hearing this, Madam Yu’s body went weak and she almost fell to the ground.

Fortunately, the maidservant behind her moved quickly and supported her.

After being married for a few years, Madam Yu had always been very high-profile in the Xia family, relying on her low status and her high status. Her maternal family was all she could rely on.

Now that she suddenly heard that her father was in jail, how could Madam Yu bear it?

“Don’t worry, the officials have already decided to abide by the rules. The Crown Prince will still succeed the throne. The new emperor won’t go on a killing spree when he ascends the throne, but I’m afraid that he’ll inevitably suffer.”

“You should also always remember not to bring trouble to the residence. You also have a son and daughter, so think more about the two children,” Master Xia glanced at his granddaughter-in-law. If she did not come from a prestigious family, he would not be interested in her character.

However, no one was perfect, and he would not let one person have all the good things.

He could understand.

“Then will the Xia family be punished? The new emperor ... After all, his character is different from others.” The old Madam recalled the look in the young Prince’s eyes and was a little frightened.

That was a master who wouldn’t listen to force or persuasion. In his hands, there wasn’t even a chance to beg for mercy.

Lord Xia waved his hand. of course not. His treasure is still in my hands. Ha, everyone was trying their best to find the new emperor’s preferences, but he was happy.

Lord Xia’s previous fatigue was swept away. He slowly got up from the chair and slowly took out a few snacks wrapped in a handkerchief from his arms.

“Lulu, the entire country has been mourning for you these days. As the new emperor, the Crown Prince has to set an example. He’ll pick you up when he’s done. Look, this is the Crown Prince's gift to uncle, and this is the one the retired Emperor placed in front of the table." Only the Crown Prince was bold enough to steal two from him.

"The Emperor is always busy, and the new emperor is even busier."

There were a few small and exquisite desserts wrapped in a new square handkerchief.

"Did Jiang Jiang become the Emperor? Was it fun to be an Emperor? He wakes up earlier than chickens and sleeps later than dogs. What's so good about being an Emperor?"

"Should I go and persuade him to quit?" Lulu's face was innocent, but Lord Xia's head was swaying.

"I can't persuade him. It's good to be an Emperor, you're above thousands of people." Lord Xia hurriedly coaxed her.

"If he becomes the Emperor, no one will do Lulu's homework." The little boy toot, and Lord Xia was shocked when he heard that. He was indeed uncle's good nephew!

why don't you finish your words? you said that the new emperor's treasure is in your hands. What treasure? " The old lady was stunned.

When he saw his eldest son's appearance, his eyes widened.

The treasure you're talking about, are you referring to that little fool?

The old lady was stunned for a moment and suddenly had goosebumps all over her body.

The new king had no weakness.

However, his only weakness was the girl who lived in the eastern Palace and could pluck the hair from the new King's Head and tear down the roof of the palace!

And that weakness was her granddaughter, who was only seven years old!

The old lady raised her eyebrows and gasped.

He sneaked a glance at Lulu, and then at his pale-faced, wavering granddaughter-in-law, Madam Yu.

She had a terrifying intuition.

Could it be that Madam Yu had always used her maternal family as her backing and caused Lulu and Yurong to suffer, and the new emperor was the first to clear the little Darling's obstacles?

The old lady shook her head.

She really dared to think about it. That was the Emperor, The Fiend that could make the capital fear him at the age of a few.

But every time she saw Madam Yu and Lulu, she couldn't help but let her imagination run wild.

I'm old, sigh, I'm old.

He was indeed old..

Chapter 707: He l s venting his anger in position (1)

Tonight, the entire capital was destined to be in turmoil.

With the appointment of a new emperor, the originally uneasy people felt a kind of peace in their hearts.

Not to mention other things, the Crown Prince had not been so brutal in the past two years, it seemed ..

It's not bad.

Not only could it shock the outside world, but it could also make everyone come to congratulate.

The wise King's original plan was to wait for the people to sing bad songs, so that he would have one last chance.

Yet, the people actually accepted it so calmly.

"Can you not accept it? The Crown Prince had been brutal and had killed many people in the past few years. The people feared and revered him. I don't know what's wrong with his temper these two years, but he's actually controlling it. '

"On the contrary, it shocked the surrounding countries and made them not dare to get close. He was originally the Crown Prince, so naturally, the people have a sense of belonging to him. No matter if they are afraid or revere him, the people will not dare to disobey him." Lord Xia stood in the attic and saw that the city was brightly lit, so he knew that it was a sleepless night.

Because of the late Emperor's death, they had to observe filial piety first.

The new emperor's succession was set to be after the funeral.

This night, many people would probably not be able to sleep.

Because the new emperor had ascended the throne, the Emperor had to stay in the palace to observe mourning tonight, so Lulu had temporarily returned to the Xia family.

"As for the Yu family, as in-laws, should we put on an act and plead for mercy?" At this moment, Xia Yurong had already led her son and daughter back to the perfume Pavilion, leaving only the old Madam and the eldest branch.

didn't know when she had carried Xia Qingqing, whose face had been beaten to a pulp, out.

The nanny was still holding the little master, who was only a little over a year old.

Four generations living in the same house, what a happy family.

"Father, mother, old lady, your unfilial daughter-in-law is begging you. Let your daughter-in-law go and visit her. Father and mother raised me when I was young. As a daughter, I'm already feeling guilty that I can't serve my parents. Now that the Yu family is in prison, I beg old Madam to have mercy and let granddaughter-in-law go back to take a look.”

Madam Yu asked someone to carry the child, but she did not ask the Xia family to help intercede.

“What’s wrong with grandfather? Maternal grandfather loves Qing Qing and younger brother the most. What happened to maternal grandfather?” Xia Qingqing wiped her tears and cried together with the one-year-old young master.

Old Mrs. Xia rubbed the space between her eyebrows. This granddaughter-in-law was quite clever. But this little trick made her uncomfortable.

He was obviously trying to get her to plead for the Yu family on the account that she had given birth to a son and daughter for the Xia family.

Lord Xia frowned, holding a cup of hot tea in his hand.

Xia ningze glanced at his wife, bit his head, and knelt down with her.

Lord Xia looked at his eldest son with more and more dissatisfaction.

“Father, Xiu Xiu has made a lot of mistakes over the years. However, she has also suffered a lot while accompanying your son on his travels. On the account that she has been serving our son all these years, I will help the Yu family.” Xia ningze knew that his wife was a little arrogant and domineering, but she was just nice. Sometimes, it was just a little temper of a girl.

He only said two sentences.

Sigh.

Lord Xia chuckled, “do you think the new emperor will listen to the Xia family?” Even if your father were to block the entire Xia family, the new emperor would not give him any face.”

Madam Yu’s face paled.

“But it’s not like there’s no turning point in this matter.”

“Only the one who tied the bell can untie the bell. At that time, there were many people in the court who denounced the new emperor, so why was the Yu family the only one to be punished? There are some things that you need to think about. If you understand, you will understand the new emperor’s intentions. If you don’t, he has indirectly achieved his goal.” Lord Xia looked meaningfully at the sobbing Madam Yu.

Without saying anything more, he flicked his sleeves and left the courtyard.

She turned around and asked someone to send a lot of desserts and tonics to the perfume Pavilion..

Chapter 708: Destroy whatever Lulu says (1)

Lord Xia felt that he was right.

He felt that he had someone to rely on.

In the past, the Xia family didn't get involved with anyone, but they were afraid of offending people and standing on the wrong side.

Secondly, he was afraid that he would not be able to rely on anyone.

But now, things were different.

He felt that he had found the truth.

Outsiders had guessed that the Yu family had sided with the virtuous King because they wanted to take advantage of this opportunity to get rid of the virtuous King's left and right hands. They had to get rid of the Yu family as soon as possible.

The outsiders were guessing, but Lord Xia ...

He had a strange thought in his mind. He always felt that ...

His daughter-in-law was from the Yu family, and she was always on top of the Xia family with her noble status as the legitimate daughter of the Yu family.

Even Xia Qingqing had bragged in front of Lulu that she had a good maternal grandfather.

And the new emperor, who loved Lulu dearly, would have a chance.

No matter how the outside world guessed, all kinds of conspiracies and plots, he felt that they were all unreliable.

The only reliable thing is that they offended our little nephew.

Lord Xia asked someone to bring the dessert to the perfume Pavilion. Remembering that his little niece was now his strong, powerful, and never-falling golden thigh, he followed her personally.

In the perfume Pavilion, Mrs. Xia happily accompanied the two children.

When she first came to the Xia family, the perfume Pavilion was clean and tidy, but the furniture inside was not very eye-catching. Now, the entire courtyard had been replaced with a new one.

Xia Yurong was shocked when she heard the servant girl report that Lord Xia was here.

Xia Yurong frowned when she saw the things on the tray of the servant girl behind him.

"Brother, look at these girls from the capital, which one of them isn't a Willow in the wind, the weak kind. Only our Lulu's little fists are meaty, yet you still give her snacks in the middle of the night." Xia Yurong smiled. When she saw her daughter's eyes light up, she felt helpless and tender.

Lord Xia stepped forward and picked the little girl up.

"Who said Lulu is fat? Lulu isn't fat at all. There's always a problem with the aesthetics of women from noble families. Lulu is in a healthy state." Most of the girls from aristocratic families had pale faces and rarely saw light. Their waists could be broken.

His Lulu was still so young, and this was the healthiest look he could have.

Besides!

“You can’t let her lose any weight, or else she won’t be able to complete her mission.” Lord Xia was a little frightened.

“If Lulu were to stay in the harem for a short while and get startled, the new emperor would be angry. Even if she wants to slim down, she can’t slim down in our house.” Madam Yu had allowed her daughter to make Lulu suffer, and now the Yu family was in prison.

If he lost weight in the Xia family, wouldn’t the Xia family drop three levels in a row tomorrow? Don’t tell me that the new emperor would do such a thing!

“It’s not that powerful ...” Mrs. Xia was stunned for a moment and felt that her brother was too serious.

Seeing that his sister didn’t believe him, and that Huai ‘an had also gone back to study, there was no one else in the courtyard.

He sneaked in front of Lulu, who was eating his desserts, and asked in a low voice, “Lulu, have you ever complained about anyone? For example, did you tell the new emperor about how Qingqing bullied you?”

“Who is the new emperor?” Oh! Lulu replied before he could react.

“You’re talking about Jiang Jiang. Lulu didn’t say anything. It’s just that Qing Qing always talks about how powerful her maternal grandfather is and how powerful her uncles are. Lulu is just a little envious in front of Jiang Jiang.” The little girl’s mouth was full of crumbs, and she didn’t notice Lord Xia’s trembling hands at all.

“Then, did the new emperor say anything?” Lord Xia’s voice trembled.

“He didn’t say anything, right? Oh, he said that it’s fine as long as Qingqing doesn’t have an uncle or a maternal grandfather. Really, how could she not have an uncle? her uncle is living well.” Lulu mumbled.

Uncle Xia almost melt down.

The smile on his face was uglier than crying..

Chapter 709: Hugging onto a golden thigh (1)

he also asked me if I wanted Qingqing to have an uncle.

Jiang Jiang, you’re so funny. Qingqing doesn’t have an uncle. I have the final say. The little girl was innocent and kept her head up and down.

Lord Xia supported himself with the table and barely stood up. The smile on his face was uglier than crying.

No, be bold, you really have the final say!

Ah, PEI, then you're the one who has the final say.

The new emperor was obviously taking revenge for Little Lulu. Lord Xia's heart thumped wildly. He suddenly felt that Lulu was probably more important to the new emperor than he had imagined.

"What else did you say? Did you say you don't like any of your friends?" Lord Xia asked carefully.

Xia Shi was also shocked by Lulu. She felt that her imagination was running wild.

However, seeing her brother's expression, it seemed like she had guessed correctly.

But, how could that be possible?

For major matters of the Imperial court, any official who was punished or promoted was bound by the interests of various parties in the Imperial court. How could the new emperor want to destroy the other party's confidence just because her daughter had been angered by the daughter of the Yu family who had married out?

It was so bizarre ...

"You didn't say anything, right? It's just that, in the Academy, there's a little master in the Zheng family who's quite annoying. He talks to Lulu every day and tries to find something to talk about. Lulu doesn't like him."

"Did you tell the new emperor?"

Lulu nodded.

Lord Xia had a plan in his heart. He just had to wait for a few days to observe and see if the new emperor would find a reason to punish the Zheng family. Lord Xia stroked Lulu's head lovingly, looking at him as if he was a golden baby.

Sigh, he was not as clear-headed as his father in this life. It was all thanks to his father's advice that he could barely stand firm.

However, in terms of great achievements, there was probably no hope of being promoted to a higher rank.

He would only move up occasionally, which was a waste of time.

But now, it was different.

He seemed to be holding the new emperor's lifeline.

uncle, your smile is so scary ... Lulu looked at him in disdain, and Lord Xia quickly smiled kindly.

"If you need anything, you must tell uncle. If Qingqing has it, you must have it. If Qingqing doesn't have it, Lulu must have it too." Lord Xia immediately made a decision. In the future, she would not be his niece, but the ancestor of the Xia family!

If the East Palace dared to call her their little ancestor, what couldn't the Xia family do?

Lord Xia went back happily, the corners of his mouth curling up uncontrollably. Those who didn't know would think that he had encountered some great thing.

Aiya, the Jiang family really didn't have this fortune.

The thing that he had won while lying down in this life had caused him to be exiled and executed.

The entire residence was either killed or exiled.

Jiang yubai was also a capable person.

However, if Jiang yubai didn't commit any sins, the Xia family would have encountered such a good opportunity. How could they have met this little niece? Lord Xia was in a good mood as he thought about it.

With that thought in mind, he immediately had someone prepare some wine and went to Lulu's father's grave overnight to drink.

It was probably true that he was mocking her when he said that he was drinking.

He also got someone to clean up the best courtyard in the Xia family and directly called it the deercry Pavilion.

Even if she was only staying for a few days, he had to leave the courtyard for her.

At night, when Xia Qingqing found out about this, she smashed the porcelain in the room.

"My maternal family is in trouble, and even the Xia family is looking down on me. Her daughter had begged for the small courtyard several times, but she gave it to Jiang huailu even though she was still a little older. He gave it to that outsider!" Xia Qingqing was nine years old this year. Her face was red and swollen, and she cried pitifully..

Chapter 710: Controlling the new emperor's mingmen (1)

Madam Yu's eyes were swollen from crying today.

She was already in a bad mood, and seeing Xia Qingqing make such a fuss, Madam Yu immediately gave her a slap.

It was a crisp slap, and the other side of Xia Qingqing's face was swollen.

"You should stop!" Madam Yu gritted her teeth.

"If something really happened to your maternal grandfather, anyone in this mansion would be able to step on you! Now is the time to beg your grandfather and now you are throwing a tantrum and smashing things. If this were to reach old taitai's ears, what would she think?"

"Qing Qing, mother is very tired. Can you be quiet?"

"If Jiang huailu wants a yard, just give it to her. You're the daughter of the Xia family, what are you fighting for? You're the eldest branch, so everything that's yours will be yours in the future." Madam Yu was a little irritated.

If it was before, she would probably cry and complain to Xia ningze that the family was biased.

But she didn't dare to do so now.

The new emperor had a bad temper, his emotions were fickle, and he didn't understand human emotions.

If the Xia family pleaded for mercy, they would really put their lives on the line.

If they were not careful, the Xia family's future could be ruined.

How could she still say that she was biased now? What if the old lady got angry and decided not to ask for it anymore? what should she do?

Xia Qingqing burst into tears. old Madam doesn't love me. Even mother doesn't love me anymore. You're all biased, you all like Jiang huailu. I hate you guys!" "It's all because of her that Qing Qing always gets scolded and punished."

After he finished speaking, he hurriedly ran out of the door.

Madam Yu was so angry that she felt dizzy.

"Don't worry, eldest young lady will understand your painstaking efforts. How can such a large family do as they please?" The nanny supported her.

Yu-Shi's tears fell.

"She's already nine years old, and she's already fifteen years old. She was already a big girl, so why didn't she understand? As her mother, how could I not love her? Everything is for her. "

"Why can't she be more sensible? if she is more obedient, she can go to old taitai to apologize and go to mother's side to say sweet words. The Xia family had to think more about it. She's smashing things at this time." After Madam Yu had cried enough, she forced herself to stand up.

"Momo will bring more money to take care of the prison guards. Tomorrow I will go to the prison to see father and brother. If you really can't, go back to your mother's house to see mother, don't get sick from anger." Madam Yu wiped her tears and gave the maidservant a lot of money.

Her father-in-law's words today had reminded her.

There were so many people who criticized the new emperor in the Imperial court, but only the Yu family was punished.

Could it be that he had angered the new emperor?

"Yes, it's good that you think so. The old master and the first master of the Yu family were in prison, and there were only a few old masters who were born of concubines. They were all people who were used to eating, drinking, and playing, so they couldn't do anything. Furthermore, it's not even from old Madam's stomach, so how would it be sincere in persuading old Madam? the Yu family is probably in a mess now, so you still have to take good care of your body and win this tough battle."

"I'm afraid you'll have to run back and forth."

With great difficulty, the nanny's words coaxed Madam Yu to stop crying.

The next morning.

The eldest son of the Zheng family was reprimanded by His Highness for entering the palace with his left foot first and was released a thousand miles away for three years.

Since he was out, he must bring his wife and children with him.

The young master of the Zheng family happened to be from the main line of descent, and his father was the one who was let out.

When Lord Xia heard this, his pupils shrank and his whole body straightened.

A sentence kept flashing in his mind.

Lulu couldn't decide if Qingqing had an uncle.

So, Qingqing's uncle and maternal grandfather were imprisoned.

I don't like the young master of the Zheng family.

Oh, even his father had been away for three years..
