

Bank of the Universe

Chapter 461: A Good Man Is Like That!

Li Xiandao kept the drawing. The manor was still really silent and there was no movement at all.

He strolled around the manor and didn't notice anything.

In the end, he stood in front of the entrance for a long while.

There was no movement at all.

In the end, Li Xiandao left in disappointment.

Right after he left, there was a sigh that spread out from within the manor.

This sigh was so soft that it was hard to pick up.

...

In the stone city, Li Xiandao came to the square once more.

Everyone returned and they were all shaking their heads.

"Master, I didn't find anything." Heaven Heart said.

"This is just a stone city." The old priest said.

"Apart from the stone flame, there is nothing else." Moon Angel said regretfully.

"This city isn't as simple as we thought." Li Xiandao said.

"But there is no spiritual energy here, so we can't survive here." Tian Guangming reached out.

"Let's go, we have searched everywhere and can't find anything. Let's just leave." Li Xiandao led the way.

Everyone followed behind and headed towards that corner.

Tian Guangming was the one who opened the city gate.

Who knew what that old man clone did. The stone city recognized Tian Guangming as the fated person and no one else could open the city gate.

Only Tian Guangming could open and close it.

Tian Guangming felt really complicated. Luckily his grievances had dissipated. The person who cheated him had died and he had accepted his fate as the fated person.

He opened the city gate and everyone came out. The gate closed once more and unexpectedly, it started to move again.

The corner that fell down was slowly being retracted.

It retracted back into space. It created a huge commotion and returned very quickly.

The stone city just disappeared once more and what it left was a ravage ancient city.

Li Xiandao sensed the drawing that he kept. It was still there, not bad.

"This... It left by itself?" Tian Guangming was stunned. He just accepted that he was the fated person and was planning to enter when he was free so why did it leave?

"I am not sure but we came out just in time. If we were slower wouldn't we be dragged into space?" The old priest was afraid and felt like he had escaped death.

No no, when he went back he needed to rest for some time. He didn't want to think about anything and he didn't want to do anything dangerous.

Li Xiandao didn't say a word. He looked at the disappearing stone city and left after a long while. He said, "Since the stone city is gone, we should go back too."

A teleportation formation to the Bank of the Universe appeared. Li Xiandao entered and disappeared.

The others all stepped onto the formation and disappeared.

They all went to rest. As for Tian Guangming, he handed the Barbarian God Hall treasures and the stone flame to Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao passed the treasures to Seven and kept nothing. He didn't care about any of them except for the stone flame.

Li Xiandao didn't rush to merge the three flames.

Now that he had the water flame, wood flame, and stone flame and since they were all flame seeds, Li Xiandao could merge them to melt the demon god pillars.

But he didn't rush to do so. Instead, he returned to his room to wash up, and then he took out the drawing he got from the stone city manor.

Li Xiandao hung it in his room and looked at it carefully.

The drawing was really good and when one looked at it from different angles, one would see different things.

Seven walked in and asked, "What is that?"

Li Xiandao told Seven about its background.

Seven stood beside Li Xiandao and looked at it. She was in deep thought, "I studied stone race words and actually it is a small race. Compared to the human or monster race, they had very few people and they weren't able to reproduce. They were children of nature."

"So, they were said to be the son of the dao." Seven said.

Li Xiandao reached out and pointed, "Do you know anything about this Heaven Emperor?"

"I am not sure. When I studied their language he was already a legend. Each stone race person believed in it and respected him." Seven shook her head.

"Tell me what you know." Li Xiandao looked at the lone person, one person one cow facing the world, and for some reason, he felt respectful towards him.

This drawing told Li Xiandao how strong Heaven Emperor was.

There was no need to describe it with words. Just the drawing was enough.

Seven said, "The Heaven Emperor wasn't actually called the Heaven Emperor, it was because he did something which was why he had the nickname. One should say that people gave him that nickname and he didn't say that he himself was the Heaven Emperor."

Li Xiandao said curiously, "What shocking thing did he do to actually make people give him that nickname?"

"When he was young, he destroyed the Heaven Emperor at that time." Seven said.

"What?" Li Xiandao looked at Seven in shock.

He destroyed the Celestial Dynasty's Heaven Emperor?

So strong?

“You heard it right. The stone race Heaven Emperor entered the Celestial World and destroyed the supreme Heaven Emperor of the Celestial Dynasty. He even said something.” Seven smiled.

“What did he say?” Li Xiandao asked curiously. He became more and more interested in him.

“For 30,000 years, no one is allowed to take the position of Heaven Emperor.” Seven coughed and acted like she was arrogant. She mimicked his tone.

“A giant Celestial Dynasty was scared off by the stone race Heaven Emperor just like that?” Li Xiandao couldn’t help but feel his blood heat up.

One person suppressed the entire Celestial Dynasty. Just thinking about that made one feel really emotional.

“Right. During those 30,000 years, the throne was empty and those with the ability to fight for it didn’t dare to sit on that seat. Only after 30,000 years did someone inherit it.” Seven nodded.

“So during those 30,000 years, everyone passed the title to the stone race expert and everyone called him Stone Heaven Emperor.” Seven added.

“These were all recorded in the history books?” Li Xiandao asked.

“Right, it was recorded. I saw them when I was learning the stone race language. To maintain their status and protect their face, apart from stone race records, there are little to no other records of it. So many people don’t know about how terrifying Stone Heaven Emperor was.” Seven said regretfully.

Li Xiandao looked at the guy in the drawing and smiled, “As expected from a real man!”

He was furious and charged up into the sky to threaten the Celestial Dynasty, that he would be supreme for 30,000 years.

This was what a true expert was like.

Li Xiandao took a look. He took out the three flames and was prepared to merge them.

He too wanted to continue getting stronger.

Chapter 462: Melting Demon God Pillar!

Li Xiandao opened his hands. The stone flame, wood flame, and water flame all appeared.

Li Xiandao meshed the three flames together and they started to change colors.

At the start, there were just small flames but occasionally they would blaze and tangle with one another.

The water flame was dark blue and it burned strongly. When it was huge, it would turn deep blue.

The wood flame was green and when it was huge it would turn jade.

The stone flame was colorless and it would turn white when it burned strongly.

When the three flames merged with one another, a very beautiful color appeared. The reflection of Li Xiandao's face on the ground was changing with multiple colors.

The flame burned strongly and when the three spiritual flames were meshed together, a really terrifying power was exuded.

The strengths of the three stacked together and the legendary triple true flame was born.

Three flames tangling, merging and then being controlled by Li Xiandao was really perfect. In the end, it turned into a flawless flame.

Triple True Flame had three colors: yellow, orange, red!

These three represented three different types of strength and when the triple true flame was perfectly formed, Li Xiandao smiled in satisfaction.

He walked out of his room with it in hand and he walked to the square.

The four demon god pillars stood in the square. Li Xiandao retracted the Triple True Flame and then grew many formations, seals, restrictions around one pillar, forming a huge formation.

Spirit Gathering Formation!

To form a Spirit Gathering Formation in the Bank of the Universe where the spiritual energy was so thick was to ensure that the Triple True Flame could continue to burn endlessly.

Triple True Flame was strong but it needed the endless support of spiritual energy.

Li Xiandao couldn't stare and pay attention to it for every single moment, so this formation was much needed.

When the Spirit Gathering Formation was set, Li Xiandao activated it right away.

Hong!

The thick spiritual energy of Bank of the Universe surged over.

It entered the Spirit Gathering Formation.

The spiritual energy destiny here was terrifying. Li Xiandao took a close look and at the suitable moment, he placed the Triple True Flame in.

Hu hu! Hu hu!

Triple True Flame blazed and it burned 300 feet tall as it wrapped around the demon god pillar. Like a flame snake, it wrapped the pillar and burnt frenziedly.

The demon god pillar gave out a burning sound and it was obvious that the Triple True Flame was useful against it.

Maybe because the Triple True Flame was too strong and was also supported by large amounts of spiritual energy, the melting rate far exceeded what Li Xiandao expected.

Li Xiandao thought that it would be slow but now it was proceeding at a visible rate.

The outer shell of the demon god pillar slowly broke off and it revealed the essence within.

The essence came from the resources of the Demon World and there were many demon crystals and spiritual energy dragon veins which were condensed within.

Now that the outer shell was melted, naturally all of these were revealed.

In the next second, Li Xiandao swallowed all these resources, demon crystals, demon world spiritual energy dragon veins all into his stomach.

Hong long long!

Li Xiandao was improving quickly. He didn't need resources anymore and one demon god pillar alone could increase his cultivation by a lot.

After all, the entire Demon World crafted 108 of them. Although they only used a portion of their resources, for Li Xiandao, that was a huge amount.

On the square, an enormous amount of demonic crystals were swallowed by Li Xiandao into his body to increase his cultivation.

“I have formed the Ten Lands into my 10 grotto-heavens. If I form the Nine Skies and merge the Nine Skies and Ten Lands into my body, how strong will it be?” Li Xiandao had a firm target.

To form the Nine Skies!

He would pair the Nine Skies with the Ten Lands and allow himself to look down on the Celestial World.

“The Nine Skies and Ten Lands were similar worlds to the Celestial World but now they are just their slaves. If I bring the Nine Skies and Ten Lands back into the Celestial World and fight with them, how interesting would that be?” Li Xiandao had a big dream which was that he wanted to bring the past glory of Nine Skies and Ten Lands back to the Celestial World.

These four demon god pillars were pillars that supported that dream of his.

With the experience of forming the Ten Lands, to form the Nine Skies wasn't tough for Li Xiandao.

Hong long long!

Behind Li Xiandao, the ten grotto-heavens appeared. This was the Ten Lands of the past, brimming with life and the essence of the worlds were really vast.

Of course, this was largely different from the actual Ten Lands but Li Xiandao's improvement speed couldn't be underestimated.

Once Li Xiandao's cultivation reached the peak and replicating the prosperous Nine Skies and Ten Lands wouldn't be a problem.

Hong long long!

The demon god pillar that was being melted by the Triple True Flame sent all of its resources into Li Xiandao's Ten Lands.

Above the 10 grotto-heavens, the Nine Skies was condensed.

The outline of the worlds formed and using the enormous energy from the demon god pillars, they formed swiftly.

Time seemed so fast at that moment. Li Xiandao was in secluded meditation for seven days and managed to refine one demon god pillar.

At that moment, all the spiritual energy in the Bank of the Universe was supporting Li Xiandao such that the Triple True Flame maintained its strongest state.

Just like that, Li Xiandao continued to break through and he reached an unprecedented level.

He managed to temporarily form the Nine Skies by refining the first demon god pillar. Li Xiandao could have used the enormous energy to break through to stage seven or eight of Destiny Realm but he used it all to form the Nine Skies.

Li Xiandao brought the remaining three demon god pillars into the Time Hall.

Li Xiandao was planning to swallow all of them.

The Time Hall was the best place.

He could burn them for 1,000 years and for the spiritual energy to fully support the time hall. Li Xiandao formed another Spirit Gathering Formation.

Hong Long Long~~

Within the Time Hall, 1,000 years were burned. Li Xiandao swallowed energy without any fear to mimic the Nine Skies. When the Nine Skies reached the limit, he himself broke through.

He was at stage two. He didn't bother about the resources he was using and he reached a scary realm.

At stage three, Li Xiandao comprehended 3,000 daos and what he knew was immense.

At stage four, Li Xiandao comprehended the dao in folds, reaching 30,000. The entire Time Hall had the dao gathered within.

At stage five, Li Xiandao increased in folds once more, gathering 300,000 daos. One could say that he himself was the dao.

Sixth...

Seventh...

The three demon god pillars he brought in allowed his cultivation to reach stage seven.

He controlled an ocean amount of dao now. He opened his eyes and he could instantly see the dao flowing in the world. He could use it and with a lift of his hand, he controlled strength that could destroy the world.

A total of seven times, Li Xiandao's terrifying strength made one tremble.

He had a feeling that he even dared to kill a supreme Celestial with one sword!

1,000 years passed in the blink of an eye. For Li Xiandao, it was just like a moment had passed. He walked out of the Time Hall and now the deep power in his body was capable of destroying anything and everything with just a slight move.

Chapter 463: I Want To Kill Someone!

The extraordinary power in his body made Li Xiandao feel like he was cut off from the world. He stood at the entrance of the Time Hall for a long while before calming down.

"Right now, I'm invincible in Great Sky." Li Xiandao looked at the beautiful mountains with his arm behind his back and said with a firm voice.

He didn't say that he was invincible in the Nine Skies and Ten Lands because he hadn't been to the last stop.

Heaven Sky!

All the top experts in the Nine Skies and Ten Lands were all in Heaven Sky.

Especially those who were about to ascend, they were waiting for their chance there.

Although Li Xiandao was confident that he was invincible, he hadn't entered Heaven Sky, so it was better if he was more low profile.

He stood at the Time Hall entrance and only after he calmed himself down did he leave the place.

His strength didn't just swell suddenly but he went through 1,000 years of hard work. He managed to control it and now he was like fish to water.

He returned to his own room and laid on the chair. He closed his eyes to rest.

1,000 years of continuous cultivation was quite tough on Li Xiandao.

He closed his eyes and let himself go, getting some temporary rest.

...

But not long after he started to rest, Seven who sensed that he had come out from the Time Hall said, "There is a new guest. Do you want to receive him?"

Li Xiandao opened his eyes and asked curiously, "Who?"

"A person from one of the top factions of Great Sky." Seven said.

"A top faction then isn't it similar to Dragon Island? Why did he come to the Bank of the Universe?" Li Xiandao asked curiously.

Someone from a top faction, was it because of himself?

"Do you remember the battle between you and Sheng Di Tian? You broke the Eternal Jail world barrier and released some convicts?" Seven asked.

Li Xiandao's expression turned solemn and said, "It is because of them?"

"Right, after these people came out, they were really hungry and they started to massacre civilians.

Some of them charged to the top factions and wanted to swallow those with high cultivation to recover." Seven nodded.

"Massacre cities?" Li Xiandao was furious. He released them and they slaughtered the cities, so he was a little responsible for that.

"That is the news I got that some people are massacring cities and some are wiping out sects. This guest is here to ask for help." Seven added.

"Receive him, I will be there right away." Li Xiandao said solemnly and his expression turned dark and solemn.

If there were people who wiped out cities and killed the innocent at such a scale, Li Xiandao definitely wouldn't let it rest.

These people were released because of his battle with Sheng Di Tian. Li Xiandao thought that they would leave Great Sky, enter Human Celestial, and then enter Celestial World.

Who knew that they would start wiping out cities in Great Sky?

This was something that Li Xiandao couldn't accept.

“Okay.” Seven also knew that Li Xiandao was furious. She turned around and left to welcome the guest.

Li Xiandao washed up quickly and changed into new clothes. He didn’t even wear his mask and appeared in the Trading Hall with a serious expression.

In a short moment, Seven brought an old man in.

The old man was really sad, one arm was ripped off. Fresh blood surged out and he seemed really pitiful.

Cough cough!

The old man was still coughing and he was badly injured. He wasn’t weak either and was at stage four. In Great Sky, he was considered an expert.

But he was still injured to such an extent.

“Welcome guest.” Li Xiandao said.

“The Bank of the Universe really allows one to trade everything?” The old man sat on the chair and he had a sad expression on his face. He asked with his last bit of hope.

Li Xiandao saw how tragic he looked. His life flame was burning at the final moment and it was flickering in the wind like it could extinguish at any moment.

In truth, if the old man wasn’t in the Bank of the Universe, he would have died already.

He came to the Bank of the Universe and barely survived but he didn’t have much time left.

“You can trade everything in the Bank of the Universe. Tell me what you would like to trade.” Li Xiandao asked calmly.

“Help me kill the eight demons.” The old man gritted his teeth and his eyes were filled with hate.

“Eight demons?” Li Xiandao frowned.

“The demons that popped up out of nowhere. They worked together to slaughter civilians, destroy sects, rape girls, eat kids, eat hearts, and drink blood. All sorts of sins that can’t be described.” The old man shouted in rage and sadness.

Li Xiandao’s brow locked up. Those demons that managed to flee by luck were just too lawless.

“They wiped out a few dozen cities with tens of millions of people dying. Blood flowed into a river and vengeful souls have spread all around. Those bastards absorbed it to replenish themselves and totally destroyed our land. I really want all of them to die.” The old man gritted his teeth to say.

Li Xiandao clenched his fists. Those people escaped because of his error and actually caused such a huge calamity, that was preposterous.

“As long as you kill them, I am willing to pay any price. I don’t have much life left, I am surviving on my last breath. What is the price I have to pay?” The old man stared at Li Xiandao with white eyes.

Li Xiandao looked at him and raised one finger. Under his anticipatory gaze, he said, “One god source, I will do it.”

He opened his eyes wide and looked at Li Xiandao in disbelief.

One piece of god source?

So cheap?

He didn’t know Li Xiandao’s relationship with them, so he found it unbelievable.

“Really just one piece of god source?” The old man said in disbelief.

“You take out one piece and sign this.” Li Xiandao didn’t explain much and told Seven to prepare the contract.

Seven didn’t say anything either. Even if this deal was a loss, but she still supported Li Xiandao.

This deal was a loss, but no matter what, Li Xiandao had to do it.

This wasn’t a business but a responsibility.

Li Xiandao was a cunning merchant but he was not cold-blooded. Those pieces of trash regained freedom because of him and they didn’t cherish it. Instead, they behaved lawlessly, so Li Xiandao wouldn’t show mercy.

He passed the contract to the old man and he said, “Sign it, sign it and you can leave peacefully. I will deal with those demons one by one.”

The old man flickered in the wind. He didn’t ask Li Xiandao to save him and after signing and leaving the Bank of the Universe, he would die.

The old man himself knew that but he didn't care about himself. He only cared about Li Xiandao. After seeing the contract, he signed it weekly, using the blood on his body to stamp it.

"Thank you." The old man thanked Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao looked at him with a complicated gaze but he still said stubbornly, "Don't thank me, this is just a fair trade. Take the god source out."

The old man placed one piece of god source on the contract and looked at Li Xiandao in satisfaction. A smile appeared on that face that was filled with grievances.

His body slowly turned pale and disappeared.

He was dead.

Li Xiandao looked at the blood-stained contract and the god source with an ice-cold gaze.

It was terrifyingly cold!

"Seven, I am not in a good mood. I want to kill people." Li Xiandao said.

Chapter 464: Cold Sword!

The blood dyed contract and that piece of god source were placed right in front of Li Xiandao.

The god source didn't contain a lot of energy. Li Xiandao just needed to take in one breath and he would absorb more spiritual energy than he had contained within.

But...

This god source represented an agreement.

The old man paid this god source to sign the contract with Li Xiandao for him to attack and kill those demons.

This was the old man's hard work. He signed the contract with Li Xiandao and paid the price. Li Xiandao had to kill those demons.

The old man was satisfied when he died.

He knew the reason why Li Xiandao wanted the god source and he was willing to pay it too.

Li Xiandao felt uncomfortable looking at it.

When he was uncomfortable, then he really felt like killing someone.

Seven kept the contract and smiled gently, "Since you want to kill, then go."

She didn't say anything and just silently supported Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao looked at Seven and stepped forwards to leave the Bank of the Universe.

...

The land was white but it was not clean.

This was a once prosperous mountain peak, a sect known as Everlasting Sect, it was that old man's sect.

Everlasting Sect, like Dragon Island, was a top faction with many Destiny Realm experts.

But that was it.

They couldn't defend against the attacks of the eight demons and they were all killed. Everyone in Everlasting Sect was dead.

The once glorious mountain peak was dim and the gory stench spread everywhere.

The once noisy and boisterous sect was now completely silent. The corpses around announced their defeat.

The once shining and majestic main hall was now torn apart with many broken walls.

Everlasting Sect was destroyed.

The eight demons totally wiped out this place.

Li Xiandao looked around coldly. The air still had the demons' scent. Li Xiandao picked up a bit of it and realized that they had left for a period of time.

Li Xiandao didn't rush off. He saw the old man.

Or rather, it was the old man's corpse. It was in a mountain moat. It was hard to believe that he was once a Destiny Realm expert.

Li Xiandao didn't want to say anything as the situation around was just too tragic.

Hong!

Li Xiandao stepped, the mountain shook, and the entire Everlasting Sect sunk to the bottom of the ground. It was drowned. Corpses, blood, the sect... all of it disappeared.

"Come from dust, return to dust, and rest well. I will help all of you take revenge." Li Xiandao muttered. After burying all these people, he headed towards the scent that he had picked up.

The place where Everlasting Sect was was known as Heaven Death Land. It was a huge province.

But along his path, there was really no noise and white bones were scattered all across the wilderness.

Li Xiandao picked up speed. These eight demons were absorbing vengeful spirits, energy, flesh, and blood and had regained some strength. They became even more lawless.

If this continued, who knew how many people would be harmed?

How could Li Xiandao agree to that?

Hong!

He stepped forwards and his body disappeared, entering the Dao ocean. He followed that scent, locking down onto that person and dashing towards him.

The Dao that Li Xiandao comprehended was like a borderless ocean. He was able to enter and exit the Dao ocean freely and he was able to fully control it.

...

In the range of Heaven Death Land, there was a huge city. This was the biggest city here and there were around tens of millions of people here. It was huge and there were many experts. At the start, the demons didn't choose this place.

They were killing people in the small cities and slowly amassing strength.

Now, some of them targetted the giant cities.

Hong long long!

The rumbling demonic energy covered the sky above and hid the sun and moon. The bright sky instantly became dark.

“So much food. After swallowing it all, I can recover to stage nine, hahaha.” Demonic energy gathered to form a giant head, appearing in the sky above the city and giving out an excited voice.

In the city, numerous people looked on in terror. Their bodies shook as they screamed and they fled in panic.

The demon looked at them panicking and fleeing, and he laughed in delight, “Humans are just like that, so small and powerless. When they meet things they will just panic and scream. Such cowards. Spread fear, I like your fear. The fear of tens of millions is like treasure to me.”

“Demon, die!” A Destiny Realm expert attacked and charged out.

Hong!

But with just a gaze, numerous dao layers in the air slashed down. This stage one expert was instantly killed and turned to meat paste.

Those scenes made many people discouraged and they looked on in fear.

Even someone at Destiny Realm couldn't win, so what could they do?

Flee!

But the demonic energy came down. The entire city was wrapped up and there was nowhere they could go.

Death!

They could only wait for death.

The demon wasn't in such a rush to kill. He was an interesting one who loved to see how the humans reacted before death.

Demonic energy covered the land and turned the white sky dark such that nothing could be seen. Many people just fell to the ground in despair.

Everything was just so real and it was happening right in front of them. The demon was really interested. He absorbed their fear to replenish his weaknesses.

“A little more. Your fear is not enough, I want to kill all of you and dig your organs out to eat.” The demon’s voice sounded like it was spreading out from hell. It was really terrifying and after it landed, it made one shiver.

Numerous people screamed and roared in rage. Many of them begged for the heavens to save them.

The demon formed a giant palm, grabbing a baby and saying with a vicious look on his face, “I love eating children the most.”

“No, my kid...” A mother screamed in terror.

The demon was delighted and held the baby up. he then released it to let the baby fall and it was about to drop into his mouth.

“No! ! !” The mother’s legs went soft and she fainted to the ground.

The demon enjoyed it all. He felt like he was the ruler of the world.

No one could stop him.

The baby was about to fall and his mouth slowly closed. Just nice when the baby landed, his mouth would close.

Wa wa, wa wa!

The baby’s youthful cries reverberated in the land. Most of the people looked on in anger but they were powerless.

Keng!

But at that moment, through the rumbling demonic energy, the sword energy appeared.

A deep white sword energy!

One that could make everyone feel endless killing intent!

A cold voice spread out along with it.

“Today, you will all die!”

Hong!

The sword energy flew quickly but one couldn’t see that it had any strength. Everyone felt like it was an emperor or someone who was at Destiny Realm.

He ignored it!

He formed a streak of demonic energy, turning it into a palm to slap it while he continued to eat the baby.

But in the next second, the sword energy shattered the palm. It brought with it the power of an entire world and smashed down on the demon's face.

Hong long long!

The demon was crushed and his core area was struck by the streak of demonic energy.

Kacha!

The demon's core shattered.

The demonic energy scattered and his true form was revealed. An ashen white old man looked at the sword energy which was on his core.

Chapter 465: Survival Of The Fittest!

A white haired old man wearing a black shirt. But now, his core area which was his demon heart had a streak of sword energy stabbed into it.

The sword energy was deep white and it seemed really terrifying. It landed on the heart and the old man looked at it with his eyes wide open.

That sword shattered the demonic energy that he covered the whole city with and also revealed his main body.

Pain!

The old man only sensed one thing now.

Pain that he felt deep in his heart!

The pain really reached deep into his heart. That sword stabbed straight in such that his heart couldn't even beat anymore.

His heart was his core and all his skills were gathered there. Now, it was pierced by the sword energy.

The old man raised his head in rage and he saw Li Xiandao.

At that moment, his expression changed.

“You!” The old man recognized Li Xiandao.

The more than 20 people who escaped from Eternal Jail all knew Li Xiandao.

That person fought intensely with Sheng Di Tian and even caused Sheng Di Tian to spit out blood and flee with injuries.

Those scenes of him killing a bunch of demons with just one sword were etched deep in their hearts.

Even if he regained some strength now, when they looked at Li Xiandao, he was still a little afraid.

“You broke free because of me and got your freedom, so why didn’t you cherish it? Instead, you are doing such preposterous things?” Li Xiandao asked coldly.

Although the old man was afraid, he still smiled in disdain and said, “Because I am a demon, a demon from hell. Isn’t it like how you kill cows and sheep?”

Li Xiandao hugged the baby and his expression was ice cold.

“You are angry now?” The old man laughed out loud.

“What is the use?”

“The world is just like that, the battle of the fittest. When you humans kill those animals, do you have any mercy on them?”

“That is because humans are more superior than them, so you control the rights to kill those animals. I am now stronger than these humans, so I control the right to kill them. It is the same theory.” The old man smiled coldly as he looked at Li Xiandao.

“Or rather, you yourself are a human so you are so angry and feel like I am bullying them?”

“So now you stand in my point of view and you will realize that what I am doing is no different from what humans are doing. We are just killing.” The old man held his heart. He hollered and pulled out Li Xiandao’s sword energy.

The old man looked at Li Xiandao coldly. He firmly believed his words.

Li Xiandao stared at the old man coldly, “The strong will eat the weak. It sounds so gory in your mouth and seems so twisted.”

“Twisted?” The old man mocked.

“Do you remember how many people you have killed along the way?” Li Xiandao asked coldly.

“I don’t remember, a few hundred thousand? A few million? I killed numerous people and raped many beautiful girls, teens, women, wives, and mature girls. I don’t care about their lives and deaths at all.” The old man didn’t care at all.

“I suddenly don’t want to kill you.” Li Xiandao raised his head and looked at the endless space.

“Why? Were you convinced by me?” The old man was delighted.

“No, I just think that killing you will dirty my hands. You have killed numerous people that you said were weak and you think that you are strong. However, you are nothing.” Li Xiandao said coldly.

“What do you mean?” The white-haired, old man was stunned.

“Dao retrace!” Li Xiandao hollered, his voice was like a god shouting, resounding in the entire land.

Hong long long!

At that moment, for a few hundred miles around, the dao surged and swept forwards.

The dao ocean was hidden in the space and couldn’t be seen by the naked eye. Now, it turned into physical form, into an ocean that moved aggressively.

These were really terrifying scenes. Li Xiandao hollered. Spiritual energy was surging 100,000 miles around. The dao ocean appeared and it was enormous.

Hong long long!

The old man looked on. His body shook and he was terrified.

What kind of terrifying strength was that?

In the next second, the dao ocean twisted the laws in this region.

Dao retrace!

People who were killed before, girls that were raped, babies that were swallowed all climbed out from the space and stared at the old man like vengeful ghosts.

A million miles range, a few million souls all gathered and they wanted to rip this demon's skin alive.

Li Xiandao looked at the baby in his arms and covered its eyes.

He used a streak of true qi to send the baby back to his mother who had fainted.

In the city, many people looked on in terror.

In the space around, ghosts screamed in terror as they surrounded the old man.

Li Xiandao used the dao to help form all the ghosts. His only goal was to let them take revenge for themselves.

Li Xiandao said that killing the old man would dirty his own hands.

So, he let the ghosts do it.

One ghost was weak, hundreds were weak too, but 1,000, 10,000 millions of them, that was just so terrifying.

Moreover, there were tens of millions of ghosts here. After the dao ocean helped to revive them, they surged up. They ignored their own bodies and didn't even care if their souls were shattered. Anyway, in the dao ocean, they would revive instantly.

"Scram! Scram! Scram!" The old man attacked continuously. Using demonic energy to sweep the ghosts.

But the ghosts that he swept instantly revived in the dao ocean before they pounced forwards. They were more terrifying than before.

Such a situation turned all of the old man's previous hard work into dust.

"Save me, I don't want to die. It was so hard to escape."

"I want to head to the Celestial World, enter Demon World. I don't want to die here."

"Please, I was wrong. Please let me live."

The old man screamed and begged but Li Xiandao just looked at him coldly.

The old man was drowned in the ghost ocean and was swallowed up.

The entire process lasted a short time and the old man was eaten bit by bit with even his bones cleared out. Li Xiandao waved his hands and scattered the dao ocean.

“This is what you mean by survival of the fittest.” Li Xiandao laughed coldly.

The ghost had taken their revenge and they all bowed towards Li Xiandao to show their thanks.

Li Xiandao bowed back solemnly as an apology. He had responsibility for this.

Now, he was here to make up for it.

The ghosts turned pale and disappeared. The sky became clear as the sunlight shone down, chasing away the darkness. Everyone felt warm like nothing had actually happened just now.

It was as if everything wasn't real...

That it was all an illusion...

Li Xiandao disappeared too.

Chapter 466: This Sword Energy Stretching 30,000 Miles!

A demon was killed. In his own words, it was survival of the fittest. Li Xiandao didn't show any emotions at all.

One streak of his sword energy could stab into his core. Li Xiandao didn't care about such a demon at all.

Li Xiandao immediately continued to find more scents to lock onto the next demon.

30,000 miles away, a strong man was preparing to rape a girl.

Through the dao ocean, Li Xiandao could sense things occurring 30,000 miles away just by standing there.

There was nothing surprising about the world.

The ugliness of humanity was on full display. Li Xiandao saw some girls biting their own tongues wishing they could die when they were being raped by the demons.

He also saw the helpless look on one of their faces. She cried when she was pulled into a room and this only made the demon even more arrogant.

Li Xiandao saw some of the girls who were forced into agreeing to serve the demon well so that they could survive.

Li Xiandao witnessed all sorts of terrible things.

He couldn't judge any of them because he himself felt apologetic towards all of them.

So, he retracted his gaze and stop peeking at their strength or weakness.

He lowered his eyes and stood tall in the air. The aura around him got more and more violent.

Li Xiandao was apologetic towards those girls and felt like he had failed them.

But facing the demon, Li Xiandao wouldn't show any mercy at all.

Keng, keng, keng!

Sword energy gathered beside Li Xiandao. They were really sharp and really terrifying.

The sword energy within all had Li Xiandao's sharp killing intent with it.

Beneath the sun, there was nothing new!

Under his sword energy, no one will live!

Li Xiandao held onto one streak. With a sharp gaze, through the mountains and rivers, a full 30,000 miles away.

He slashed.

This sword wasn't a special move at all.

There was no dao with regards to it.

This sword was just Li Xiandao's killing intent.

In the vast world, Li Xiandao only had one sword but this sword was 30,000 miles long.

Hong!

Li Xiandao slashed forwards. The sword energy that included his killing intent shot forth and it was really scary.

The sword energy that Li Xiandao gathered around him all shot out at that moment and entered this streak of sword energy.

It was 30,000 miles long!

At that moment, the sword crossed time and space.

It only had one target, the demon!

...

30,000 miles away, a strong bald man with six scars on his head. He was a monk in the past.

Now, he was a demon.

He changed from believing in the buddha into a demon. He walked the extreme fallen demon path while Heaven Heart chose to merge both of them. Different from Buddha and demon in one body, he was just purely venting himself.

"Three years in jail and even a female pig will become a beauty." The strong man rubbed his hands and looked at the women in the room. He picked them all out and captured them. He wanted to release himself and have fun.

"I have been locked up in the Eternal Jail for tens of thousands of years. Those people locked me up and my lifeforce became weaker. If I hadn't snuck out, I would be near death." The strong man was filled with grievances.

"Now that I am out, I want to release myself. I fear nothing and I want to become the most violent demon." The strong man set up a grand goal.

He would start by tasting the girls in front of him.

The moment he thought about it, he got emotional and shouted, "Come, serve me by taking off my clothes."

A dozen beauties in the room were shocked. Some of them had faces filled with disgust while some were helpless. Some teared up while some stumbled over to help him take off his clothing.

When the strong guy saw those scenes, he laughed out loud.

He loved such scenes, helplessness, crying, feeling wronged...

Their expressions were the nicest to look at.

The guy had a twisted heart...

"If you serve me well today, then I will let you go. If you don't do well, then the foolish girl that bit her own tongue to kill herself will be your role model." The guy threatened.

The girls looked on in terror. They were sad and furious but there was nothing they could do about it.

"Faster, don't force me to show my anger and kill all of you. Kneel down." The guy saw their hesitation and shouted.

But these girls still didn't kneel down. Instead, they all looked at the strong guy in terror.

More accurately speaking, they were looking behind him.

"What are you looking at?" The guy hollered unhappily. He wanted to kill someone to vent his anger.

"Your... Your... Your back..." A beautiful girl pointed at his back in terror.

"There is nothing on my back." The guy scoffed coldly. Although his cultivation had fallen significantly, in Great Sky, he was the top few experts. If there was something on his back, how would he not be able to sense it?

"No... There is something..." Another young girl said in terror.

He focused his eyes. When one person said there was something, it might have been fake, but if two people said it, then that meant that there was definitely something.

But he actually didn't sense it!

This time he was shocked and cold sweat seeped out of his back.

To not be noticed by him, how strong must this person have been?

He gulped. He didn't bother to rage and slowly twisted his head like his neck had stiffed up.

Crack!

He twisted it bit by bit before finally seeing his own back.

His pupils constricted. It was really shocking and his limbs went ice cold.

There was something on his back.

It was also something that might kill him.

He actually didn't sense anything from start to finish.

This made the guy's heart sink.

He twisted his head and faced the thing straight up. The guy probably couldn't expect that his heart would be filled with fear and terror.

A streak of sword energy stopped right in front of him.

It was silent like a cold-blooded snake. It was staring at him and could launch a fatal blow at any time.

"Senior, who are you?" The guy broke out in cold sweat. Everything was gone. What beauty, what suppressed passion. Under Li Xiandao's sword energy, they all totally disappeared.

30,000 miles away, Li Xiandao didn't say a word. He just closed his eyes and had a cold expression on his face.

Puchi!

This 30,000 mile sword energy pierced the guy's head.

Er... Urgh...

The guy looked on in disbelief. His body was stiff and trembled. He didn't say a single word.

His soul, thoughts, and mind were shattered by Li Xiandao's sword energy.

Putong!

A few seconds later, the sword energy disappeared and the corpse fell to the ground. It stumbled and then its lifeforce was totally gone.

The dozens of beautiful women saw that. Some were afraid, some felt good, some waited silently to see if anyone else came in.

15 minutes passed and no one came. The guy was also silent. At that moment, many girls cried. The terror that was suppressing over them disappeared and they knew that they were saved.

Chapter 467: As Long As I Run Fast Enough, You Can't Kill Me!

30,000 miles away, Li Xiandao's sword energy slayed the strong man, and he showed no emotions at all.

Two of the eight demons were wiped out and six remained.

Li Xiandao closed his eyes, following the previous scent to search for the six demons. He searched carefully and confirmed that they were at one place.

They were a little far from him.

A million miles out on a giant mountain, six guys and girls stood together.

Out of the six, there were four guys and two girls. There were old and young guys, one blind one, one young man at his peak, one beautiful guy, and a 10-year-old kid.

The two girls were top beauties and their clothes revealed a lot.

One of them had a thick crown of long hair but some small green snakes would slither out and spit their tongues to absorb some energy.

The green snakes were poisonous beings. Even someone at Destiny would die from the poison if they were bitten.

The other girl had a fiery body. Her thin shirt didn't fully cover herself and a lot of her snow-white skin was revealed on the outside. She lazily rested on the side and her face flushed red like she had just gone through something terrible.

"Snake Lady, you didn't head out to have fun with Lady Desire?" the blind old man asked.

Snake Lady said in disdain, "Those smelly guys can't even last for a minute, some only last for three seconds, so boring."

"Sister, then you are wrong about that. Although one person can't last for long, if there are many, it is still okay." Desire Lady said lazily.

"I am not as thirsty as you." Snake Lady said calmly.

Lady Desire's expression turned to rage.

"Okay, stop fighting. We are in trouble." The middle aged man who was at his peak said impatiently.

"Big Brother, what happened?" The youngest kid asked.

The others all looked on and didn't understand what had happened.

"Swallowing Demon and Lustful Monk have been killed." The big brother had a complicated tone.

"Why?" Lady Desire sat up and she was shocked. The two pieces of meat in front of her chest jumped up and down.

"Big Brother, who killed them?" The blind old man asked.

"Right, in this rubbish Great Sky, we should be invincible." The youngest kid said.

"They were killed by the same person." The big brother had an ugly expression.

"Who?" Snake Lady said coldly. In a moment, dozens of poisonous snakes hissed from within her hair.

"Before Swallowing Demon died, he told me who it was." Big Brother had a complicated expression.

"Who?" The pretty boy asked.

"That person who broke the world barrier and defeated Sheng Di Tian." The big brother said solemnly.

"Didn't he just enter Destiny Realm?" Lady Desire licked her lips and said in disdain.

"I don't know, but he is really scary now. He didn't attack and could use the dao to revive those civilians and directly swallow up Swallowing Demon." Big Brother said and he felt terrified from it.

"So terrifying?" The blind old man was shocked.

"Use the dao to revive people who were just killed to swallow Swallowing Demon. What kind of terrifying skill is that? I have never heard it before." The pretty boy was shocked.

"When the Lustful Monk was killed, this person didn't even appear. A streak of sword energy that was 30,000 miles long killed him and he couldn't fight back at all." The big brother was in a serious mood.

"Big Brother, what now?" Lady Desire asked.

"Big Brother, should we take revenge for them?" The youngest boy asked.

“Revenge?” Big Brother laughed coldly. He stood up with an annoyed expression, “Let’s not talk about revenge. If this person comes to find us, we have to think of a way to protect ourselves or we will end up with the two of them.”

“What?” Snake Lady was astonished.

“He actually dares to come here?” Lady Desire was filled with disbelief, there were six of them here.

“Big Brother, let’s work together to kill that person.” The blind old man scolded.

“Right, the six of us aren’t weak. Together we will sweep the Nine Skies and Ten Lands.” The young kid said arrogantly.

“Don’t talk about sweeping the Nine Skies and Ten Lands. There are many experts hiding in Heaven Sky. But it should be no problem for us to sweep Great Sky together.” The pretty boy said coldly.

The five of them looked towards their big brother and they felt like they were insulted.

But their big brother was still so calm, “I am planning to ascend.”

“What?” The Snake Lady looked at her own big brother in shock and rage.

“Big Brother, what nonsense are you saying?” Lady Desire pressed her chest with her hands and she was really unhappy.

“Big Brother, we have just recovered a little and it will be tough to ascend and face the tribulation like this.” The blind old man shook his head.

“Big Brother, what are you doing? Isn’t it just one person. Why are you so afraid that you want to face the tribulation?” The pretty boy was unhappy.

“Right, with the six of us together, who cares about him? We will wipe him out in a few strikes.” The youngest kid said such cruel words and used his hands to signal a slicing of the throat.

Those people clamoured but the big brother didn’t care and he said firmly, “You know that I can predict the future. I calculated and if we fight him, all of us will die.” I choose to ascend, even if I am injured, it is still okay.”

The moment he said this, the five of them became silent.

“Big Brother, is that person so strong?” Lady Desire didn’t believe him still.

“Big Brother, are we really going to be such cowards?” Snake Lady was not willing.

“Big Brother, we should try. If we can’t win, then we shall ascend.” The pretty boy didn’t want to ascend.

The key was that they had just recovered by a little and if they ascended, they would suffer lethal injuries and even death.

“How about this, I will start to ascend while all of you test him. If you can’t win then come back and we’ll ascend together?” The big brother suggested.

“Okay, where is he?” Snake Lady was the first to step out to ask.

“I also want to know. If I don’t use my chests to squash him, I am not the heroic woman who crushed millions of guys.” Lady Desire scoffed coldly.

“Me too, I want to kill him.” The pretty boy said coldly.

“I want to squash him into meat paste.” The small kid said coldly.

“The four of you go. Big brother and I will help lay out the formation.” The blind old man thought about it before saying.

“Okay, big brother where is this person now?” Snake Lady asked coldly.

Big Brother looked outside solemnly and said, “He is here. He is at the foot of the mountain.”

“Nice timing, look at how I am going to kill him.” The snake lady was excited.

“I said that I will use my chest to snap his neck, don’t fight with me.” Lady Desire ran out from behind.

The pretty boy and kid ran out too.

The big brother said decisively, “Lay out to prepare for the tribulation. They didn’t listen, so I can’t save them.”

The blind old man was curious, “Is he so strong?”

“Yes, he is really strong. I sensed his aura and it is like a bottomless abyss that wanted to swallow me. If I hadn’t retreated quickly, I would have been injured.” The big brother said seriously.

The blind man sucked in a cold breath, that description really terrified him.

“How is there such a terrifying person in Great Sky?” The blind old man was terrified.

“Who knows? We shouldn’t have been so arrogant.” The big brother started to regret.

Of course, he knew why Li Xiandao wanted to kill them.

Even if they begged, Li Xiandao wouldn’t let them off.

So, their only way out was to ascend, to leave the Nine Skies and Ten Lands and get far from Li Xiandao.

As long as they fled far enough, he wouldn’t be able to kill him.

Chapter 468: Killed Easily!

Arriving at an unnamed mountain peak, Li Xiandao was expressionless.

Knowing that the remaining six of them were here and not causing more harm to the world, Li Xiandao became much more relaxed.

Now that they were together, he could take them all down at once. Li Xiandao looked at the mountain. It wasn’t too tall but it was really majestic.

The moment Li Xiandao just entered the forest, a small coral green snake attacked him.

This small snake was the size of a strand of hair and was really unassuming. It hid in the bushes and merged with the surroundings. It had no spiritual energy fluctuations, and naturally, it would be neglected.

This was Snake Lady’s usual skill. When she could use the snake to kill, she wouldn’t waste energy to fight with others.

Watching as her little snake pounced towards Li Xiandao without him noticing, she couldn’t help but laugh coldly.

“Is this the person that made big brother so afraid that he wanted to ascend right away?” Snake Lady said in disdain.

“He looks clean and gives off scholarly vibes. He is my type, let’s rape him before killing him.” Lady Desire licked her red lips and passion appeared in her eyes. Her legs slowly rubbed against one another.

“Stop being thirsty. You are a woman with an insatiable appetite. This person can’t be underestimated.” The pretty boy scoffed coldly.

“He didn’t notice the snake?” The small kid didn’t understand.

It was about to fly to his feet and bite him and he still hadn't noticed it?

The Snake Lady was delighted, "This is why my snake is terrifying."

Pu!

The moment she said this, the green snake had flown over and was about to bite him. But in the next second, a small streak of sword energy exploded out from Li Xiandao's thigh muscles.

Puchi!

The green snake was directly sliced into half and it was totally dead.

Snake Lady's gleeful face collapsed and she stared at Li Xiandao in rage. Each snake was refined using her heart blood and losing one was a huge loss to her.

Li Xiandao didn't even look at the dead snake and turned towards the four of them.

"Where are the other two?" Li Xiandao asked. He didn't rush to attack.

"You should feel proud enough that the four of us are sent to kill you." Snake Lady said coldly. After losing one snake, she found Li Xiandao really annoying.

Li Xiandao shook his head, "The four of you aren't enough!"

Li Xiandao felt like what he said was the truth.

But to the four of them, he was just looking down on them.

"You are at stage seven and I am too. What makes you so arrogant?" Snake Lady said coldly.

"Handsome brother, why not have some fun with me? I am about to get wet." Lady Desire looked towards Li Xiandao with a look of desire.

Li Xiandao looked at her with a cold gaze, "About to get wet? Then, find a stick and block off that hole."

Lady Desire blinked. Was that how a guy should speak?

"If a stick doesn't work, then find some wood, that should fit. After all, it has been opened so many times and must be really loose." Li Xiandao said viciously.

"You..." Her desires was gone and she looked at Li Xiandao angrily. She felt like she was insulted.

“Right, has anyone died there before?” Li Xiandao asked curiously.

“What do you mean?” Lady Desire didn’t understand.

“If people die and if there were many people who died, then it will be a cemetery. Thinking about it, it must be quite scary. There is a cemetery in your own body. Aren’t you afraid?” Li Xiandao insulted her with a straight face.

She reacted and stared at Li Xiandao with a dark gaze. She gritted her teeth, “I am going to shove your head so you can see whether or not there is a cemetery.”

“I told you not to be thirsty, see you are getting insulted now.” The pretty boy mocked.

“Scram, I will kill him now.” Lady Desire scolded and charged. She charged with her fingers clenched like a claw. They were really sharp and poison exploded at her tip. Once it stabbed into the skin, it could make one sink into the bottom of the ocean.

When Li Xiandao saw this, he didn’t move. He just raised his hands, using them as a sword and pointing forwards.

Die!

Li Xiandao’s sword move was the one that he invented for Seven.

It was extremely beautiful!

The sword slashed out and it was really sharp but it also brought with it a mysterious world that covered her.

She opened her eyes and saw endless amounts of sword energy. Within the sword energy was a girl’s body.

Beautiful!

After she saw that girl, her first feeling was that she was beautiful. That kind of extreme beauty was undescrivable and there was only one word that came to her mind.

Beautiful!

She was the best use of the word. When one looked at her, one could understand what beautiful meant.

But after that first reaction, jealousy appeared in her eyes.

How are you be so beautiful?

Who allowed you to appear in front of me?

You deserve to die!

Lady Desire wanted those ladies more beautiful than her to die. When that happened, she would be the most beautiful one.

She was the best. Did you not see these breasts that are bigger than your head?

Lady Desire charged forwards in rage and wanted to kill that girl.

But she couldn't get close at all. The distance between them was like the difference between night and day.

Puchi!

Lady Desire who fell in Li Xiandao's sword illusion was directly beheaded. That was why she sensed that they were a world apart.

One was in the human world while the other was in the nether.

Even when she died, she didn't notice it. Her last thought was still to kill Seven.

No one in the Nine Skies and Ten Lands is allowed to be more beautiful than me!

Her wish was granted, but unfortunately, she couldn't fulfil it.

She didn't notice that she had died but the others did.

What they saw was that Lady Desire didn't dodge Li Xiandao's sword and just stood there to be killed.

Fear!

The remaining three looked on in terror and couldn't understand what was going on.

Why didn't she dodge and just stood there to get killed?

"That sword is weird." Snake Lady gulped and she instinctively wanted to retreat.

"I suddenly think that big brother is right. The pretty boy said solemnly.

"I miss him." The small boy turned around and ran towards where big brother was at.

"I miss him too, you can settle this." The pretty boy turned around to run.

“Are you even a man? You are ditching me?” Snake Lady grabbed him and gritted her teeth.

“You are fiercer than giys. I haven’t even done a man in this life while you’ve finished millions. So, it is right that you fend him off.” Pretty boy’s words made Snake Lady dizzy. She was a little distracted and the pretty boy managed to flee.

“You aren’t even messed up, so why would you try to do guys?” She came to her senses and cursed.

The two guys were gone and she was left to face Li Xiandao alone. She shivered and wanted to flee too.

But Li Xiandao suppressed her.

It was extremely beautiful!

Snake Lady and Lady Desire were the same; they were charmed by that move. They were jealous of Seven and wanted to rip her face .

In the midst of the jealousy, her head was sliced off and it fell to the ground.

Li Xiandao crossed her corpse and didn’t even look at it.

Chapter 469: One Sword Slicing Nine Layers Of Sky!

On the nameless mountain peak, the big brother and the blind old man were working hard to attract the lightning tribulation.

The big brother was really afraid of Li Xiandao.

It was with much difficulty that he escaped from Eternal Jail, so now he didn’t want to die here.

Although he still hadn’t met Li Xiandao, the mental energy battle was one which he lost really badly. Naturally, he didn’t dare to meet Li Xiandao again.

Even if ascending now would result in him being hit by the lightning tribulation, it was better than dying to Li Xiandao.

The big brother was really decisive.

The blind old man chose to trust him. After all, over these years, he did witness the big brother’s divination ability.

Now that the big brother was panicking so much, naturally, he didn't dare to be careless.

"What does that person want to do? He wants to be a righteous person?" The blind, old man was furious.

"Didn't we just kill some civilians?"

"Trash will die but they will grow out quickly and there is an endless supply of them." The blind old man was really unhappy.

"Enough, we were in the wrong. We shouldn't have killed so many civilians on such a large scale. If we didn't, then the others wouldn't have either. Even if the Nine Skies are quite trash now there are still experts. This person is an expert of the Nine Skies." The old man scolded and then felt really helpless.

"Boss, save me!"

"Boss, save me!"

At that moment, two guys hurried back and shouted in terror.

"The two of you are back but what about Lady Desire and Snake lady?" The big brother's face sunk and he questioned.

"They were killed. Lady Desire was first and she didn't even fight back. She just stood there and was killed. It was too scary." The small boy shivered.

"Boss, Snake Lady chose to hold up the line for us and hold him back so that we can ascend. I am so touched." The pretty boy cried out and forced out a few drops of tears.

The big brother's heart sunk and didn't expect the two people to die so quickly.

"Ascend, ascend right away. We can't waste any more time." The big brother said decisively.

"Activate the formation and bring down the lightning. The weather is not good, so we will create our own lightning tribulation." The big brother hollered.

The blind old man, pretty boy, and small kid all injected their true qi in to activate it and the lightning tribulation descended.

Hong long long!

On the bright day, the lightning tribulation flashed and black clouds gathered. A storm started to rain down.

It was a really shocking scene.

Li Xiandao walked over slowly and when he saw that, he smiled coldly, "You want to ascend?"

Li Xiandao smiled in disdain, "Do you think that by ascending you can avoid death?"

Li Xiandao tossed out a streak of sword energy.

Keng!

Sword energy exploded and shot out. There was a crisp sword ring that reverberated in the ears of the four demons.

"Big Brother, he is here." The small kid's body shook and he said in terror.

"Big Brother, what should we do?" The pretty boy was terrified too. He saw how Li Xiandao killed Lady Desire and he had no will to fight back at all.

Flee!

He had to take the time to escape!

Escape to the ends of the world!

The best would be if you were in this world and I was in another, never to meet each other again.

The big brother gritted his teeth, "Quickly, go through the tribulation and fly up."

"Big brother, if we go through the tribulation together, it will kill us." The blind old man was shocked.

"We will split up the damage and we will just suffer heavy injuries. We won't die. If you don't want to then stay and hold up the line." The big brother shouted furiously.

In the next second, everyone stood together and chose to go through the tribulation.

Keng!

Li Xiandao slashed with the sword energy. The big brother took the chance to draw the lightning tribulation down.

Hong long long!

The lightning struck Li Xiandao's sword energy and wanted to destroy it.

But the sword energy instantly swept the lightning tribulation and shattered it.

“Damn, one sword energy slicing a lightning tribulation.” Big brother sucked in a cold breath and he was stunned.

The small boy was so terrified that he wanted to cry, “Big Brother, you need to protect me. I am not of age yet.”

“Scram, big brother needs to protect me. You won’t ever grow old. You don’t even have hair and can’t get hard. Small kid scram to the side.” The pretty boy scolded and pushed the small kid aside.

“Do you want to fight?” The kid stared at the pretty boy in rage.

“Shut up, he is here!” The big brother hollered and stared forwards with a dark gaze.

Li Xiandao was here.

He was dressed in white and empty-handed. He walked over coldly.

Above the formation, clouds gathered. A lightning snake danced within and it was like a new world was about to be opened.

The big brother looked on nervously. As long as lightning continued to shoot down, they would be safe.

He didn’t believe that Li Xiandao would take the risk of being hit by lightning and to enter this place to kill them.

Hong long long!

Another bolt of lightning struck. The big brother didn’t say a word and told the young boy to face it head-on. This lightning struck his body causing him to shake. Luckily, his cultivation was decent and he managed to block it.

Li Xiandao said, “Do you think this lightning tribulation can block me?”

The big brother panted, “We know that you are strong and we are indeed in the wrong. But four of us have died already so why are you so merciless?”

Li Xiandao burst out laughing, “Merciless?”

“Say that to the millions of people and dozens of sects.” Li Xiandao said coldly.

“We are stronger than them, so killing them is reasonable. Anyway, who gave you the right to be nosy?” The blind old man felt that the lightning tribulation could protect him so he scolded.

Li Xiandao’s eyes flashed cold and he said, “You are the first one I will kill.”

“Bring it on, we have started so can you even kill us?” The blind old man scoffed.

Kacha!

Another bolt of lightning struck. This time the pretty boy blocked it.

Kacha!

Many lightning bolts shot down and this time the blind old man blocked it.

When Li Xiandao saw this, he formed a sword with his fingers and slashed.

One sword to slice the sky!

“You dare to interfere with the lightning tribulation means that you need to go through it too. The strength of the tribulation for five is many folds. If you want to kill me, then you can die along with me.” The blind old man scolded. He tried his best to avoid Li Xiandao’s sword energy.

But Li Xiandao’s sword energy didn’t give him a chance to dodge. The moment it shot out, it instantly sliced the old man’s head off.

It was just so strong.

They were both at stage seven but Li Xiandao killed the old man as easily as one could kill a chicken or dog.

Hong long long!

After Li Xiandao attacked, the lightning tribulation targetted him. In an instant, it sensed Li Xiandao and the strength of the tribulation increased in folds and shot towards him.

Hong long long!

The aura was huge and the lightning snakes became huge and thick. It slashed down viciously.

“You are finished. This lightning tribulation will definitely kill you.” The big brother relaxed instantly.

Once the lightning tribulation killed Li Xiandao, they would be willing to sacrifice half their cultivation to stop the tribulation and escape this.

Thinking about this, the big brother laughed in delight.

“I didn’t say that I was afraid of lightning?” Beneath the lightning, Li Xiandao was really casual.

“What?” The big brother, pretty boy, and small boy all looked at Li Xiandao in confusion.

In the next second, all of them looked at Li Xiandao in terror with their mouths open. Their eyes were filled with shock.

Chapter 470: Help To Do The Ritual!

Under the gaze of the three of them, a terrifying streak of lightning hacked down.

But Li Xiandao’s actions made them open their mouths wide.

The lightning tribulation was really strong. After all, this was the tribulation of five people together and that was really terrifying.

Over near Li Xiandao, there was a loud explosion as the lightning hacked down. It didn’t touch Li Xiandao and instead was swallowed by the nine large worlds in Li Xiandao’s head.

The strong lightning strong the nine worlds and caused a huge wave of energy. It didn’t shatter the nine worlds but was instead swallowed by it.

In the next second, the big brother, pretty boy, and small kid saw something terrifying.

Li Xiandao raised his head and looked at that enormous lightning tribulation. Excitement appeared in his eyes and he flew up to it.

Hong long long!

The lightning tribulation seemed to sense Li Xiandao’s provocation and was furious. The entire lightning cloud moved, and in an instant, a streak of lightning hacked down.

Kacha!

This streak of lightning was even stronger than before, it was more terrifying and was much fiercer.

Thunderbolts struck down. It was really terrifying and these scenes were just too scary.

But Li Xiandao was even more terrifying.

He opened his mouth and sucked it in. A terrifying suction force spread out from his stomach and pulled the lightning into his stomach.

Hong long long!

This lightning tribulation rained down and didn't hurt Li Xiandao. It was instead swallowed by Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao swallowed it and a purple-colored lightning cloud appeared on the surface of his body like it was about to explode. But as his dantian worked, true qi suppressed it. The lightning tribulation couldn't cause any waves and his skin color recovered too.

Under the gaze of the big brother, pretty boy, and small kid, Li Xiandao licked his lips, "Tastes good, however, there is too little. It's just not enough."

The moment he said this, the big brother closed his mouth and stammered, "He... what does he want to do?"

"Swallow... Swallow lightning cloud?" The pretty boy's legs shivered and he wet his pants.

"Mummy, save me." The small kid was reminded of his past trauma.

Li Xiandao didn't care about them. he was not worried that they would run far and just charged into the clouds.

Hong long long!

In the clouds, lightning gathered like that of a pool. Li Xiandao charged in and instantly tens of thousands of lightning struck towards him.

But the nine worlds appeared around him and all of them activated.

"Swallow!"

Li Xiandao went all out, swallowing all the lightning that surged towards him.

"Fortunately, my nine skies still needs a large amount of spiritual energy, and all of this can help." Li Xiandao's voice was really loud and it spread a large distance.

The three people outside opened their eyes wide as they saw the lightning clouds shrink. Their faces were filled with despair.

"No, I have to escape." The small kid made his mind up. Anyway, since the lightning clouds were being swallowed by Li Xiandao, he didn't need to worry about them hitting him. He had to run.

If they stayed, they would just be asking for death.

The kid left the big brother and pretty boy and ran really quickly.

Like an arrow, he was gone just like that.

The pretty boy and big brother wanted to follow but sharp sword energy shot out from the clouds.

Hong!

From thousands of miles away, the kid was pinned into the air. He screamed and his voice scared the pretty boy. He sat on the ground, his pants were totally wet and he had no more pee.

The big brother smiled in despair. He stood at the spot and didn't go anywhere.

"It is over, it is totally over. One small mistake." The old man gave a tragic smile.

Hong long long!

In the sky above, most of the lightning was being swallowed by Li Xiandao. The lightning tribulation scattered and the sunlight shot down and made one's heart feel warm.

But when they saw that Li Xiandao was perfectly fine, both the big brother and pretty boy's heart felt cold.

Peng!

Li Xiandao flew down from the sky and looked at the two of them. He was really calm and said, "What else do you have to say?"

"Give me a chance." The big brother knelt down and begged.

"What chance?" Li Xiandao asked.

"I didn't have a choice in the past but I want to be a good person now."

"Good, you can say that to the people." Li Xiandao nodded his head and said.

"Are you forcing me to die?" The big brother looked at Li Xiandao in despair.

“Sorry, I am not a good person.” Li Xiandao said coldly.

The big brother looked at Li Xiandao in despair. He wanted to fight back and give it one last try...

But just with Li Xiandao standing there, a terrifying aura surged towards him. He didn't dare to attack at all.

“One sword, I will slash once and if you don't die, you two can live.” Li Xiandao suddenly said.

Their eyes lit up and they saw some hope.

“I will work hard to block it.” The big brother said emotionally and felt like him not taking a chance previously was the right decision.

If not, he would have died and there would have been no hope at all.

Li Xiandao looked at them and casually tossed a streak of sword energy before turning around and leaving.

Hong!

This sword energy exploded like a kid tossing a rock into water. There wasn't much of an aura around it.

When the big brother and pretty boy saw this, they thought that Li Xiandao was giving them chance, so they went all out to block it.

But in the next second, that sword energy killed everything within 3,000 miles.

Trees were melted.

Mountains were turned to dust.

The big brother and pretty boy were instantly killed. Their defenses couldn't block Li Xiandao's sword energy at all.

...

Li Xiandao, who walked out from the mountain, twisted his head. The 3,000 miles behind him was totally white. The entire mountain range was gone.

“My sword is not something that you can block even if you reach stage nine.” Li Xiandao said coldly.

How would he let them go?

Death was a relatively good end. If Li Xiandao was more vicious, he could have tortured them for a few thousand years where life and death would be no different.

But Li Xiandao felt that it was too much effort and he was lazy to do that. Death was the mercy that Li Xiandao gave them.

Especially such death which was without much pain.

They were basically killed with one sword. Apart from the first demon that was swallowed by millions of souls.

“If the others didn’t do such things, I can ignore them but if they massacre people then don’t blame me.” Li Xiandao thought about it.

He stepped back into the Bank of the Universe and was prepared to investigate those who ran out of the jail.

Over 20 of them, there were only eight here, so Li Xiandao had to understand the situation with the others.

After all, he released them. Although he didn’t mean to, he had to take up responsibility.

But Li Xiandao still called Heaven Heart over.

In just a moment, Heaven Heart was here.

“Heaven Heart, go pray for those tens of millions of people.” Li Xiandao instructed Heaven Heart.

Those tens of millions were killed, so this region was definitely filled with vengeful energy. Li Xiandao told Heaven Heart to pray for them so that those souls could reincarnate and stop worrying about taking revenge. Li Xiandao had helped them kill the people they hated.

Chapter 471: Take Care Of Yourself!

It would also be good for Heaven Heart to pray for those souls.

Tens of millions of vengeful souls were refined after Li Xiandao helped them to swallow the demon. This evolution meant that they had huge amounts of vengeful energy.

Even if Li Xiandao had solved their regrets and allowed them to reincarnate, there were still many who didn't want to.

So, Heaven Heart would settle them.

Anyway, he was really strong and helping them wasn't that difficult. Moreover, after he finished, he would get some added luck.

After all, he was doing a good thing and helped him with his Buddhist technique cultivations.

Heaven Heart followed the instructions and left the Bank of the Universe to help those souls.

Li Xiandao laid in his own room and closed his eyes to rest.

He spent a lot of energy to swallow the lightning clouds and he was really tired now.

Li Xiandao sent all the lightning upward to perfect the nine skies. Although Li Xiandao didn't get stronger, his potential increased significantly.

When the nine skies became the same as the ten lands and merged into his body to become a part of him, he would be able to become much stronger.

Li Xiandao sighed, "The nine skies are much stronger than the ten lands, so far more resources are needed. My only hope is the remaining 8 demon god pillars."

When he thought about it, Li Xiandao didn't feel like resting anymore.

He immediately contacted Zhong Zi Qi and the demon.

The two of them were using one body and had been searching for the demon god pillars. The four that they got previously were all digested by Li Xiandao and now he needed more.

In Great Sky, in the depths of the endless ocean, Zhong Zi Qi and the demon were searching.

Li Xiandao's news spread and it shocked the two of them.

"Master!" Zhong Zi Qi was shocked.

"Master!" The demon sighed. He felt much pain and he didn't want to pick it up.

"Go and take it." Zhong Zi Qi said helplessly.

The demon nodded his head.

They quickly left the deep ocean and came to the surface to pick up Li Xiandao's call.

"Master." The demon shouted warmly.

"Did you find any demon god pillars recently?" Li Xiandao asked openly.

"This..." The demon hesitated.

Zhong Zi Qi's soul came out and said, "We found it, tell Master we found clues."

The demon opened his eyes and signaled without making a sound that they didn't find any clues.

Zhong Zi Qi told the demon to just say it.

"What?" Li Xiandao asked curiously, "You didn't find anything?"

"We did but they are just some clues and there is no certain news, so I hesitated." The demon stared at Zhong Zi Qi and explained.

"Oh then continue searching. After you find news and are sure of it, inform me." Li Xiandao instructed.

"Okay, no problem. I will now go confirm if the news is real or fake. Goodbye Master." The demon said warmly. He ended the conversation with Li Xiandao and stared at Zhong Zi Qi.

"Why did you tell Master that we have clues when we don't at all." The demon questioned.

"You searched for so long and there are no clues. Aren't you afraid that Master will scold you?" Zhong Zi Qi asked.

"Then, you shouldn't lie to Master. How are you going to explain this? Tell Master that this clue was fake and there is nothing we can do?" The demon asked.

"We aren't lying we are just delaying time." Zhong Zi Qi explained.

"But after a period of time, what will we take out to explain that clue?" The demon questioned.

"Since I told you to go, then definitely I have a way." Zhong Zi Qi was delighted.

The demon's eyes lit up and smiled, "Big brother, what plan do you have?"

"I want to bring you to find someone. Maybe he has an answer." Zhong Zi Qi said.

"If there was such a person why didn't you bring me over earlier?" The demon didn't understand.

"I didn't want to disturb others. This isn't a small person, he is the most mysterious person in Great Sky." Zhong Zi Qi felt helpless.

"You even know such a person?" The demon didn't fully believe him.

"You are looking down on me?" Zhong Zi Qi was unhappy.

"No no. But your cultivation was so weak before, so how did you know such a person?" The demon didn't understand.

"It was by luck and I manage to get close to him." Zhong Zi Qi recalled.

"Where is he? Let's go visit him now." The demon couldn't wait anymore.

"Eh, but before visiting, we have to bring some treasure. This senior said that he liked to eat and there's plenty of delicious seafood in the ocean. Let's catch some for him." Zhong Zi Qi said.

"This hobby is quite ordinary." The demon smiled. Eating was a simple thing. If he loved other treasures then it would have been much harder for them.

"Experts always want to live alone." Zhong Zi Qi said.

The two of them dove down and started to search for seafood. They kept it in their storage treasure to ensure that it remained fresh.

They then flew towards the shore.

"Where is this senior?" The demon asked.

"Go, let's go to the mountains to the south. There are many temples there and one of them is his. I hope that the senior is still there and hasn't left Great Sky." Zhong Zi Qi was nervous.

"Will he leave Great Sky?" The demon asked.

"Right after he finished his own matter he'll leave Great Sky. Let's hope that we are lucky." Zhong Zi Qi said.

"Why didn't you say this earlier? We could have come much earlier." The demon grumbled.

“How would I know that it was so hard to find one demon god pillar?” Zhong Zi Qi grumbled too.

“Haiz!” The two of them sighed at the same time. They lowered their heads and rushed. They stopped blaming one another.

From the ocean to the south, the demon was really quick. He had been using Zhong Zi Qi’s body to cultivate Demon Summoning Technique and had broken through to Destiny Realm. He was at stage two and was improving really quickly.

After all, the demon was a big boss in hell and his knowledge and experience was not something that people from the Nine Skies and Ten Lands could compare to.

It was expected that he improved quickly.

In just a day, both of them rushed to the south mountain.

The south mountain was endless; the mountains rose up and sloped down. Some of the mountain ranges had cities, some had tribes, and some had monster races there.

As long as one was satisfied, one could stabilize and not worry about life.

The south mountain range belonged to Heaven Asking Temple.

This sect was different from others. Although it followed a Taoist Sect legacy, they were really unassuming. The entire mountains were covered with a few thousand of their temples.

Each one of them had a priest who had passed an exam. This priest recruited new disciples to teach them their skills and techniques.

Heaven Asking Temple slowly died out, scattering itself in the mountains.

This was also the way it tried to survive.

The demon entered the mountains and saw many temples. In just 10 miles, one would appear and it would have the same name.

“Where is the senior that you were looking for?” The demon asked curiously.

Chapter 472: Senior Xuantian!

There were many mountains in the south with different names, but without an exception, there was a temple.

The demon's question made Zhong Zi Qi think, "That senior lives on the Dragon Tiger Mountain. Go and ask where it is?"

The demon found someone from a tribe and asked sincerely.

"Old man, where is the Dragon Tiger Mountain?"

The old man rested on the walking stick and suntanned at the entrance of the tribe. After being greeted, he thought about it and pointed, "It is deep in the mountain. After you enter, you can see a mountain that circles like a dragon and it's lying down like a tiger. Between those two is a mountain, Dragon Tiger Mountain."

The demon thanked the old man and then flew away.

Deep in the wilderness, the demon was really quick and he found the symbolic Dragon Tiger Mountain.

One dragon and one tiger were both protecting one tall mountain.

A temple was positioned atop the high mountain. It wasn't big but it was really outstanding and it was on the side of the cliff.

Zhong Zi Qi saw it right away and was delighted, "It is here. As expected, it hasn't changed."

The demon flew up and came to the entrance of the temple.

"What is his name?" The demon asked.

"Xuantian." Zhong Zi Qi said.

"Senior Xuantian, junior is here to meet you." The demon shouted.

Creak!

The entrance to the temple was open and a young priest walked out. His strength was immeasurable.

The demon took a look and he realized that he could see through his cultivation. He was shocked and bowed.

"We have met once and are friends, so why did you bring someone over?" Priest Xuantian stood and the entrance and asked.

He didn't care about the demon and instead looked at Zhong Zi Qi's soul.

The demon and Zhong Zi Qi both knew that Priest Xuantian had seen through the fact that the two of them were sharing a body.

Zhong Zi Qi didn't hide anything.

The soul came out and greeted Xuantian, "Senior, I really have nowhere to go, so I came with some hope."

"What happened?" Xuantian asked curiously.

"The demon and I have come to an agreement to share the same body." Zhong Zi Qi explained.

"Okay, come in and we can talk." Xuantian didn't ask about the agreement and just let them enter the temple.

The temple was really simple. One huge tree took up half of the courtyard.

Apart from the statue of the old ancestor in the middle, there was only a kitchen and back courtyard.

It was a really simple temple.

There was only Xuantian and it seemed really lonely and quiet.

"Sit down and let's talk about it slowly." Xuantian took out a pot of tea and invited Zhong Zi Qi to sit down.

The demon passed the control of his body over to Zhong Zi Qi while he listened on from the side.

His intuition told him that this Taoist couldn't be offended which was why he was low profile. The silence was golden.

After Zhong Zi Qi took control, he took the initiative to talk to Xuantian.

"Senior, I had no choice but to come this time. We are searching for this thing and we have no clue at all. Please senior give us some clues." Zhong Zi Qi took out a drawing and on it was the demon god pillar. He showed it to Xuantian.

Xuantian took a look and nodded, "I have seen this thing before."

Zhong Zi Qi and the demon were delighted.

In the next second, Xuantian extinguished their joy.

“There are four on Dragon Island.” Xuantian added.

Zhong Zi Qi said helplessly, “How can we get those on Dragon Island?”

“Then, you won’t be able to get the others,” Xuantian said honestly.

“Senior, you know where the others are?” Zhong Zi Qi asked, surprised.

“I know but these factions are not weaker than Dragon Island. Since you can’t get those from Dragon Island, then you can’t get it from those factions.” Xuantian said honestly.

“Senior, we can’t get it yet, but we know that if we work hard, we will get it one day.” Zhong Zi Qi gave an excuse.

But deep down, he didn’t care.

Even though they couldn’t get it, their Master could.

Didn’t Master get those four on Dragon Island?

If the other factions were similar to Dragon Island, then it would also be easy.

Xuantian thought about it and sighed, “The cause we planted before is not bad, so there is an effect. I can tell you where these things are, but are you sure you are going to use that to ask this question?”

To Xuantian, this problem was too simple such that he didn’t even need to use any strength to settle this cause and effect.

“Senior, the size of the cause and effect depends on the matter. We knew one another because of a small matter which I helped senior. Now that senior is helping me with a small issue, it makes sense.” Zhong Zi Qi smiled.

“That’s true.” Xuantian nodded, “Since that is the case, then I will tell you what I know.”

“I am listening.” Zhong Zi Qi was delighted and said solemnly.

The demon also listened on without making a sound.

“Apart from the four on Dragon Island, there’s also a place with four.” Xuantian pointed.

He pointed towards the east.

Zhong Zi Qi and the demon looked, confused.

“Where is that?” Zhong Zi Qi didn’t understand.

“Who is the top sect in Great Sky?” Xuantian asked seriously.

“Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect.” Zhong Zi Qi replied right away without any hesitation.

“Why was it Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect?” Xuantian continued to ask.

“Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect is a branch of Heaven Sky’s Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect controls who can enter Heaven Sky. They have to check everyone who enters.” Zhong Zi Qi said.

Anyone in Xuantian with slight cultivation would know about it.

Heaven Sky’s Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was a top faction. His branch controlled the entries from Great Sky into Heaven Sky. It was called Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect because they were a branch of Heaven and Earth Sect.

“Right, do you know why they can control that?” Xuantian added.

Zhong Zi Qi shook his head, he didn’t know.

“That is because the four pillars opened this sect up which was why they were able to establish a division for their disciples to train,” Xuantian explained.

“So that is the case, these four pillars are their support. Without the support, the gate will close and if one has to enter Heaven Sky, one will need to use a teleportation formation?” Zhong Zi Qi guessed.

“Right, which is why I said that if you can’t get the pillars from Dragon Island, then these four aren’t ones that you can get,” Xuantian said calmly.

Zhong Zi Qi smiled, “That is another problem. Knowing is good enough. Thank you senior for your help.”

Zhong Zi Qi took out the seafood and placed it at the side, “All this seafood is really fresh. We went diving to catch it.”

Xuantian was satisfied, “Thank you.”

“Senior, do you have other news?” Zhong Zi Qi asked.

“No, that is all I know.” Xuantian shook his head.

Chapter 473: No Master, So You Can Learn Yourself!

Zhong Zi Qi stayed to have lunch with Xuantian.

A seafood meal!

Xuantian was good at cooking and while he made the meal, he had a chat with Zhong Zi Qi.

“Do you know, a while ago I met a senior?” Xuantian said.

“Senior’s senior?” Zhong Zi Qi said curiously.

“Right, senior’s senior. I discussed the dao with him for seven days and in those seven days, he was the one cooking.” Xuantian said with a weird expression.

“Was it not nice?” Zhong Zi Qi laughed.

“I can’t say that but this senior probably just started to cook, so his skills are quite average. His food can be eaten but it is all because of the ingredients but he felt like it was because of him.” Zhong Zi Qi dissed.

“Haha, beginners are just like that. When I was just learning how to cook, I was only focusing on making sure my food wasn’t raw.” Zhong Zi Qi smiled.

“So, I cook for myself now and won’t let you do it. When I was with the senior, I couldn’t reject him and had to eat his food. In those seven days, I learned a lot. However, it made me really speechless.” Xuantian dissed someone.

In the Bank of the Universe, Li Xiandao was cultivating and he sneezed. He was confused, “Is Seven talking about me behind my back? Does she miss me?”

...

After eating his fill, Zhong Zi Qi said goodbye to Xuantian.

“Goodbye, senior.” Zhong Zi Qi bowed.

“Let’s go. I will also need to leave Great Sky. You came at such a good time. If you came a few days later, I would have left.” Xuantian smiled.

“Senior is going to Heaven Sky?” Zhong Zi Qi was shocked.

“Right. After splitting with you I will be leaving to Heaven Sky, the last station in the nine skies.” Xuantian nodded his head.

“Good luck senior.” Zhong Zi Qi said.

“You too.” Xuantian waved his hands and then turned around to enter the temple.

Zhong Zi Qi returned his body to the demon and left quickly.

“Damn, really damn.” After leaving Dragon Tiger Mountain’s range, the demon cursed many times.

“What?” Zhong Zi Qi asked curiously.

“Xuantian is really...” Demon said.

“What? He is friendly and told us where the demon god pillars were. He also treated us to a meal.” Zhong Zi Qi argued.

“He invited you and I didn’t eat anything. You ate it all.” The demon said.

“Then, why didn’t you say anything to me?” Zhong Zi Qi was curious, “Why were you so quiet in the temple?”

“You just noticed?” The demon was annoyed and silent for such a long time.

“I thought that you didn’t want to disturb the hard-earned time that you could control the body.” Zhong Zi Qi was embarrassed.

“Let me tell you, there is something weird about this Xuantian.” The demon was sure.

“Just because people didn’t invite you to a meal. You said that he was weird?” Zhong Zi Qi mocked.

“I am serious, I am not joking with you.” The demon said solemnly.

Zhong Zi Qi became solemn too and asked, “What is weird?”

“Firstly, I am the demon, right?” The demon asked.

“Right you are, you are a demon from hell.” Zhong Zi Qi nodded.

“The moment I saw this Xuantian, naturally, I felt a suppression.” The demon said solemnly.

“Why didn’t I feel it? Senior Xuantian was so warm and friendly?” Zhong Zi Qi was curious.

“Your cultivation is low, so it is normal that you can’t sense it. Do you know who else I experienced this suppression from?” The demon asked Zhong Zi Qi.

“Who? Master?” Zhong Zi Qi guessed.

“Master is high above. Naturally, he is mysterious and noble. He is different from Xuantian.” The demon explained.

“Then, who?” Zhong Zi Qi didn’t understand.

“The demon ancestor!” The demon said solemnly.

Zhong Zi Qi blinked and was confused, “Who is he?”

The demon was speechless and sighed, “In the Demon World, there are demon emperors that lead tens of thousands of worlds. Under them, there are demon ancestors that can change heaven and earth.”

“So, you are saying that senior Xuantian’s aura is similar to the aura of demon ancestors?” Zhong Zi Qi was shocked.

“That is what shocked me. I want to say no, but that is the truth. This sort of natural aura is probably something that he himself doesn’t know. I was so frightened that I didn’t dare to say a word in case I revealed something and ended up being targetted by him.” The demon was afraid.

“He is so terrifying?” Zhong Zi Qi was shocked.

“Which is why I said he was weird.” The demon was annoyed.

“It is okay, you saw that he was friendly. Moreover, he is heading to Heaven Sky and we won’t meet him. You don’t need to be afraid.” Zhong Zi Qi consoled.

“Who said that I was afraid?” The demon said stubbornly, “I am just careful. Do you know what is just in case?”

“Okay, you are not afraid. You are just careful. Let’s not talk about senior Xuantian. Anyway, we won’t come into contact with him. Should we report the news about the demon god pillars to Master?” Zhong Zi Qi asked.

The demon said decisively, “Of course, we searched for so long and finally have some good news. We need to let Master know about our pain.”

“Then, you report it.” Zhong Zi Qi said.

The demon started to contact Li Xiandao.

In the Bank of the Universe, Li Xiandao just closed his eyes to rest and adjust his own state.

The demon's news spread to him.

Li Xiandao's brow rose. The demon rarely sent news to him and each time it would have something to do with the demon god pillars.

"Did you find news of the remaining demon god pillars?" Li Xiandao was pumped up and immediately connected the call.

"Master, we have news." The demon said right away.

Li Xiandao was delighted, "You won't be able to tell me clearly in the call, come back to the Bank of the Universe immediately."

Li Xiandao wanted to ask them face to face.

These demon god pillars were Li Xiandao's hope of merging the nine skies into his body and he had to be careful about it.

"Yes, Master." The demon agreed.

Li Xiandao immediately told the Bank of the Universe to teleport to pick up the demon and Zhong Zi Qi.

Li Xiandao himself came to the square to wait.

Seven walked over curiously, "The Bank of the Universe has teleported. What happened?"

Li Xiandao said, "There is news from the demon that he found the demon god pillars. The Bank of the Universe will go pick him."

"Only the demon god pillars can make you so excited." Seven joked.

"Right, I have to become stronger to be able to protect my beautiful miss Seven." Li Xiandao looked at Seven and blinked.

"You only know how to tease me." Her face flushed red and she pinched Li Xiandao's arm.

"Who did you learn this from?" Li Xiandao was shocked.

"Girls can learn everything themselves." Seven said proudly.

"Damn!" Li Xiandao raised a thumb.

Chapter 474: Heaven And Earth Celestial Sect's Contract

The demon was brought back to the Bank of the Universe.

After he entered, he saw Li Xiandao and Seven standing on the square.

"Master!" The demon walked over and said respectfully.

He looked at Li Xiandao and realized that Li Xiandao's aura was much more terrifying than before.

It was like he was dozens of times more terrifying.

Maybe even more than that.

"Master, did you get the Triple True Flame?" The demon guessed the reason and was shocked.

Only by melting the four demon god pillars and absorbing those resources could Li Xiandao become so terrifying.

Li Xiandao nodded, "I have gotten the Triple True Flame."

"Master is really amazing. One must know that even in the Celestial World, it is hard to get the Triple True Flame. Furthermore, the stone emperor disappeared and the stone race faded too. The Triple True Flame needed someone from the stone race. I thought that Master would have to head to Celestial World to be able to get the stone flame." The demon said.

"It was just by luck." Li Xiandao said it really simply and didn't say anything about the Heaven Emperor's regrets.

What he cared about now was the Demon God Pillars.

"Have you got news of how many demon god pillars?" Li Xiandao asked.

The demon raised four fingers and said, "We are sure of four but it is because they are too strong which was why we immediately reported to Master."

"Same as Dragon Island?" Li Xiandao asked calmly.

Now that he heard that they were too strong, Li Xiandao wasn't affected at all.

He was really strong now.

“They are even stronger than Dragon Island.” Zhong Zi Qi’s soul broke away from the body and stood at the side.

“Oh, even stronger than Dragon Island. What kind of power is that?” Li Xiandao asked curiously.

“Master, have you heard of Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect?” Zhong Zi Qi asked.

Li Xiandao shook his head. He didn’t know anything about Great Sky’s factions.

It was Seven who stood at the side who said, “Great Sky’s top sect Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect?”

“Right, does Miss Seven know about them?” Zhong Zi Qi was shocked.

Li Xiandao looked at Seven curiously.

“I know about Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect because their sect leader came to the Bank of the Universe and even signed a contract.” Seven explained.

“So, you are saying that this Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect sect leader still owes us things?” Li Xiandao’s eyes lit up.

“Right, I will go get the contract.” Seven went to take the contract.

Li Xiandao and the other two waited for a while before Seven passed a contract to Li Xiandao, “This is it.”

Li Xiandao took a look. It was quite interesting.

Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect disciple Dugu Menge used his kidney function to exchange for an invincible sword technique that he could read for 3,000 years. He would return the original copy in 3,000 years and use a celestial artifact to redeem his kidney function.

The punishment for breaking it would be his life and a celestial artifact!

On it was also Dugu Menge’s signature.

Li Xiandao blinked, “So vicious, he even took his kidney out to trade.”

Without his kidney, his little brother could forget about holding his head high for the rest of his life. The key was that Dugu Menge broke it and couldn’t redeem his kidney function back.

He would become an eunuch.

“This contract was signed 10,000 years ago. The former Master was such a vicious person. His kidney function was definitely not worth that sword technique but he still signed it. He even said that he wanted to see whether or not the person liked the sword technique more or he liked his own.” Seven was helpless.

“So, he broke the contract for 7,000 years.” Li Xiandao suddenly respected him; it wasn’t easy being a eunuch for 10,000 years.

“Right, you can solve this contract together with it.” Seven nodded.

Li Xiandao looked at the words and had a weird expression on his face, “Heaven and Earth Sect is written on it, but you said Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect. Has it changed names?”

Zhong Zi Qi explained, “Master, this Heaven and Earth Sect isn’t from Great Sky or Heaven Sky. Heaven Sky’s Heaven and Earth Sect opened a branch in Great Sky called Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect which controlled the entrance into Heaven Sky.”

“Are they so amazing just because they control the entrance?” Li Xiandao was shocked.

“Right, no one in Great Sky can beat Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect. Of course, even if they can they have to worry about their support, so many people just close one eye. When they head to Heaven Sky they will pay some fees and get checked out.” Zhong Zi Qi nodded.

“That is so arrogant, then where are the demon god pillars?” Li Xiandao took the contract and put his hands together.

“Demon God Pillars are the pillars that support the Heaven Sky entrance and the pillars can’t be destroyed. They can’t be wiped out without the Triple True Flame, so Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect used them to block the entrance so that it won’t close. No one can open another entrance elsewhere, so they have to enter from here.” Zhong Zi Qi said.

“So, that was the case.” Li Xiandao understood. So the things he wanted were being used as pillars by them.

“I have to get the four demon god pillars. It seems like I have to face this Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect head on.” Li Xiandao smiled. His smile was really cold.

“Master, at the moment, the leader of Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect is Dugu Menge. You can take this contract to question him.” Zhong Zi Qi suggested.

"I know, you don't have to worry about this. Now that you've found four, there are still four out of the 12 left, continue searching." Li Xiandao instructed.

"Master, if we continue to search, then we will have to leave Great Sky as there are no more demon god pillars here." The demon couldn't help but say.

"Head to Heaven Sky?" Li Xiandao thought about it and guessed.

The demon nodded, "We have to go to Heaven Sky, the last four are definitely there."

"Then, go. I'll go get the demon god pillars from Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect. Don't worry and search for the rest." Li Xiandao agreed.

"Goodbye, Master." The demon and Zhong Zi Qi merged into one and then said goodbye to Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao looked on as they left and they disappeared from the Bank of the Universe. He looked towards Seven, "I will take the last contract to take a look at Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect."

"You will go personally?" Seven was shocked.

"Right, they are not strong enough. The strongest should be Blood Dragon who is only at stage three." Li Xiandao was filled with disdain.

Although Blood Dragon worked hard, his improvement was not enough for Li Xiandao.

Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect would definitely be dangerous and there would definitely be people stage five and above. Blood Dragon wasn't enough.

"I am afraid you can't go." Seven smiled.

"Why?" Li Xiandao didn't understand.

"There is a guest." Seven smiled and said.

"Guest?" Li Xiandao asked curiously, "Is it a new one or an old one?"

"A new guest but he is someone you know?" Seven gave a teasing smile and added.

Chapter 475: Chaos Dragon Crocodile!

The new guest came for the first time but Li Xiandao knew him which made him curious.

“Who is it?” Li Xiandao asked.

“Do you remember in Cold Moon Sky, Flood Dragon jumped over the dragon gate, going through the nine stages and turning into the Blood Dragon?” Seven asked.

Li Xiandao nodded, “That was Blood Dragon’s good luck.”

“There were many people who jumped along with Blood Dragon, but only two people crossed stage nine.” Seven reminded.

Li Xiandao instantly understood and knew who he was.

“That Chaos Dragon Crocodile is called Ye Feng I remember that he is also in Great Sky. I didn’t expect this guest to actually be him.” Li Xiandao said.

“Should we receive him?” Seven smiled and asked.

“Of course, Chaos Dragon Crocodile, jumping over stage nine of the dragon gate like Blood Dragon. He is someone with huge potential and it is worth ripping him off.” Li Xiandao coughed and said firmly.

...

Somewhere in Great Sky was a prison. Numerous cold eyes landed here, focused on a three-meter tall Chaos Dragon Crocodile that was struggling and roaring.

“It is useless, our Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect’s prison formation is a death jail for you.” A cold thunder-like voice rang out and exploded in Chaos Dragon Crocodile’s ear. It made him raise his head. He looked at the endless clouds and roared.

“Even if I die I won’t be your mount.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile roared. The chaotic energy around him surged to block the prison formation.

“There is no use in fighting back; your sister has killed herself. She was just a mixed-blood. You fought us for her and that is just so unwise.” The voice was filled with disdain.

“No matter how my sister acts, she is still my sister. After my mother died, she brought me up. I didn’t repay her with anything.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile teared up with tears of blood. He hated the person that was speaking.

“My sister told me that I had to head to leap the dragon gate, to change my fate. She believed that her brother wasn’t trash, that I had the ability. Now, I have transformed into a Chaos Dragon Crocodile but she couldn’t see it.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile roared towards the sky. His entire body was shaking with rage.

“Your revenge is pointless. My Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect is something you will spend your whole life looking up to. Even if you leaped past the nine stages, aren't you still a piece of trash?” The voice was filled with disdain.

High above, from the building hidden in the cloud layer...

“Even if I am trash I won't bow down to you. Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect, I will wipe you out.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile said in rage.

“It seems like you still don't know what is good for you. This prison will lock you up for 1,000 years. Let's speak after 1,000 years. If you are still so stubborn, then I will send you to see the ancestral dragon king.”

Hong long long!

The prison that was suppressing the Chaos Dragon Crocodile started to shrink. It directly sunk into the giant river. No matter how much the Chaos Dragon Crocodile roared and struggled, it wasn't able to do anything.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile was trapped by the prison and was really anxious. He really wanted to save his sister, so he charged into Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect and ended up exposing himself.

“I thought that with me at Destiny Realm, they would release my sister. But they actually forced her to kill herself. Damn, damn, damn!” Chaos Dragon Crocodile's eyes were filled with blood. He wouldn't forgive Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect.

“Now what should I do? Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect has a few stage seven experts that I can't win.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile was really anxious.

The prison formation was formed by four stage seven experts that fully suppressed the Chaos Dragon Crocodile who was already at stage three.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile was in despair. Was he really going to be suppressed for 1,000 years?

After 1,000 years, his sister's corpse would be cold, right?

“Sister shouldn't blame me. I am so useless that I need her to take care of me my whole life and even when she died I couldn't take revenge for her.”

Chaos Dragon Crocodile blamed himself.

His sister's bloodline wasn't strong but she could still transform into human form. To allow him to grow up, she became the concubine of the Heaven and Earth Celestial

Sect Sect Leader, giving all sorts of resources to Chaos Dragon Crocodile so that he could grow.

Now, he had achievements but his sister also died. Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's Sect Leader gave her sister away to others to play. The sister couldn't take it and chose to kill herself.

When he found out, Chaos Dragon Crocodile exploded. He turned into his real body and charged into Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect to kill everyone. In the end, Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was forced to reveal their hidden strength. Four stage seven experts worked together to suppress him.

"Who can help me?" Chaos Dragon Crocodile could only hope for someone to help him.

He definitely wouldn't be able to flee from the prison just by himself. That was because he couldn't win against four stage seven people.

There was no spiritual energy in the jail at all and it was just a three-meter prison that he was trapped in.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile was filled with despair.

Weng weng weng!

Just as he was in despair, a red watch appeared in the small bit of space of the formation.

In the Bank of the Universe, one could trade everything. As long as one paid the price, one could get anything.

The red watch revealed the message which made Chaos Dragon Crocodile's eyes lit up.

"I am willing to pay enough." Chaos Dragon Crocodile crushed it like he was venting all his hatred in that one squeeze.

Kacha!

The red watch shattered and turned into a light that enveloped him and brought him out of the jail.

Within the Trading Hall of the Bank of the Universe, Chaos Dragon Crocodile appeared. He was three meters tall and he didn't transform and just did something similar to a human transformation. He stood on the ground and dragged his legs behind him. He was wearing armor with a layer of chaotic energy and looked around.

He noticed that there was a man and a woman at the depths of the hall. He hesitated a little before walking over.

“Can you all help me?” Chaos Dragon Crocodile asked eagerly.

“Welcome guest, as long as you pay enough, we can help you do anything.” Li Xiandao nodded.

“I want to wipe out Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect, what price do I have to pay?” Chaos Dragon Crocodile’s eyes shone fiercely and asked.

Li Xiandao looked at Chaos Dragon Crocodile who had limitless potential and smiled. He told Seven to take the contract over.

Seven and Li Xiandao understood one another well. Li Xiandao didn’t say what the contents were and Seven knew what to write.

He took the contract and took a look before pushing it to Chaos Dragon Crocodile, “The price of wiping out Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect is within. Once you sign it we will do it.”

Chaos Dragon Crocodile looked at it and his pupils constricted. Even his breathing became rushed.

But a minute later, he chose to sign it.

“I want Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect to be totally wiped out!” Chaos Dragon Crocodile shouted from deep within his heart.

Chapter 476: Understanding The Dao!

Chaos Dragon Crocodile saw that written in the contract, he had to give up his entire life in exchange for them wiping out Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect.

He thought about it for a while before signing it.

Because of his claws, it was not convenient for him to sign, so he used true qi to control the brush. He wrote down his own name.

Ye Feng!

“Your name is quite handsome.” Li Xiandao smiled and kept the contract.

“My sister liked the name, so I kept it.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile said.

“Now that you have signed the contract, then tell me about Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect.” Li Xiandao asked.

Li Xiandao knew nothing about Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect, so even if he was arrogant and felt like he was invincible, it was best to learn more about the enemy.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile said, “Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect has 30,000 disciples and most are outer sect disciples. There are just 3,000 inner sect disciples with very few higher-ups. After all, they have laid foot in Great Sky for over 10,000 years.”

Li Xiandao was deep in thought.

“The reason why Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was about to be so strong in Great Sky and even be the top faction is they have four stage seven experts. They are in front of Heaven Sky and will have people reinforcing them.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile was annoyed.

Without those four experts and without the support of Heaven Sky’s Heaven and Earth Sect, Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect would have been wiped out.

Li Xiandao said solemnly, “So, if I want to wipe out Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect, I have to wipe out the tunnel between Great Sky and Heaven Sky?”

“Right, you have to, otherwise, Heaven and Earth Sect will send reinforcements that we can’t beat.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile said with certainty.

Can’t beat?

Li Xiandao didn’t argue. He wasn’t worried that he couldn’t win but he just felt like there was no point in fighting the top faction in Heaven Sky yet.

Spending the least effort to do the most was Li Xiandao’s goal.

“So, I will head to Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect and drag down those four stage seven people. You enter the tunnel and destroy it and keep the four pillars.” Li Xiandao instructed.

“No problem. Without these four stage seven ones, I will sweep Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect. I can destroy the tunnel at any moment.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile said excitedly.

The entire Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was supported by the four stage seven experts and one of them could be considered to be his brother in law.

“Master, can you let me kill the Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect’s Sect Leader?” Chaos Dragon Crocodile asked.

Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's Sect Leader?

Dugu Menge!

Li Xiandao asked curiously, "Why?"

"That is because Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's Sect Leader took my sister as his concubine but he actually gave her away to others to have fun. That is just preposterous." Chaos Dragon Crocodile suppressed his rage and said.

"Wait..." Li Xiandao raised his hands and blinked.

"You said that Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's Sect Leader took your sister as his concubine?" Li Xiandao asked with a weird expression.

"Right, this pervert married such a beautiful wife and still took a few dozen concubines. He just rolls among a pile of women." Chaos Dragon Crocodile was furious.

Li Xiandao's expression turned even weirder and he used his hands to push against his head. He said curiously, "Are we talking about the same person?"

Based on what he knew, the Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect Sect Leader definitely couldn't do such a thing.

"Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's Sect Leader Dugu Menge." Chaos Dragon Crocodile said.

Li Xiandao blinked. It was correct; it was the same person.

"Does this Dugu Menge have kids?" Li Xiandao asked curiously.

He suddenly became really curious.

Seven heard Li Xiandao's question and she couldn't help but laugh.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile didn't know anything and answered honestly, "Yes, he has six sons and fifteen daughters."

Li Xiandao sucked in a deep cold breath, "These 21 hats seem really eye-catching?"

"21 hats?" Chaos Dragon Crocodile didn't understand.

"Look at this." Li Xiandao thought about it and passed the contract that Dugu Menge signed to Chaos Dragon Crocodile.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile focused his eyes on the contract.

“Dugu Menge has no kidney function?” Chaos Dragon Crocodile was shocked and looked at Li Xiandao in disbelief.

Li Xiandao nodded and asked with an innocent expression, “Without kidney function, he won’t be able to do all that, so how did he have all those children?”

Chaos Dragon Crocodile blinked and raged, “He himself doesn’t have kidney functions and took my sister as a concubine. That’s preposterous. Worse still, he actually gave her away to others. Damn, damn, damn!”

Li Xiandao smiled, “It seems like Dugu Menge is a special person. He knows that he can’t do all that but still have 21 kids, not bad.”

Chaos Dragon Crocodile scoffed, “No matter what, he is still trash. I want to kill him myself.”

Li Xiandao nodded and said, “I agree, Dugu Menge will definitely die to your hands.”

“Thank you, Master.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile willingly called him Master. As long as he could take revenge for his sister, he didn’t care about who his Master was.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile only had one thought in his mind. Kill Dugu Menge and take revenge for his sister.

Since Li Xiandao could let him kill Dugu Menge, then he would recognize him as his Master.

It was just so simple!

Li Xiandao stood up and said, “Go back now. I will head to Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect and we shall attack together.”

“Okay, I will wait for Master.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile said respectfully.

Li Xiandao waved his hand and Chaos Dragon Crocodile disappeared. He returned to the ice-cold lake bottom and was trapped in the prison formation.

Within the Bank of the Universe, Li Xiandao passed the signed contract to Seven while he took Dugu Menge’s one, “I will go. You can keep the contract.”

“Stay safe.” Seven said gently.

Li Xiandao nodded his head. When he saw that no one was around, he held her hand and kissed it before leaving.

Seven's face turned red and she blinked. She grumbled, "You sneak attacked me again."

Li Xiandao's laughter spread forth and was filled with some delight.

...

Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was located at the east where the sun and moon gathered. One could often see the intersection point where the sun rose and moon set.

So, the spiritual energy here was the thickest.

A giant ocean and along the way he saw no one. Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was high above and it had a floating palace. It stacked layer by layer and was huge.

There were many white clouds and the palace seemed really beautiful and exquisite. To the left of the floating hall, the first place where the sun and moon intersected, four giant pillars shot into the sky. A tunnel appeared like it connected to a deep and special place.

Rumbling spiritual energy exploded from this tunnel.

This was the tunnel towards Heaven Sky that Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect secured here. With the four demon god pillars supporting it, it prevented the tunnel from closing.

Chapter 477: Is My Pet Cute?

Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect was split into two sects, outer sect and inner sect.

The outer sect disciples were cultivating at the mountain entrance. They guarded it and repaired the palace etc...

The inner sect disciples were located in the high floating palace. They walked on clouds and walked with the wind, envied by everyone.

The goal of many outer sect disciples was to enter and live high above.

So, they worked hard to cultivate, to improve themselves, and to secure the mountain gate.

10,000 miles all around was Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's land. The core area was these few hundred miles, so it was guarded strictly.

Li Xiandao wore white and stepped calmly to the entrance.

From here, he saw that the entrance had a giant ocean. It was endless, the water shone brightly, there were willows drooping down at the shore, and it looked really beautiful.

“Scholar, what are you doing?” A young man wearing Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect disciple dress walked over and questioned.

Li Xiandao blinked. He realized that he was calling him. His dressing did seem really scholar-like.

“I am looking at the beautiful scenery.” Li Xiandao said.

“This is Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect’s territory and this river is ours. You can’t randomly look at it, leave.” The young disciple pushed Li Xiandao unhappily.

Li Xiandao blinked, “I didn’t even enter Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect and am just looking at it from the outside.”

“Are you not listening?” The young disciple stared and was about to raise his hand to hit Li Xiandao.

“Okay, scram further away from me.” Li Xiandao retreated.

“I’m glad you know your place. What are you looking at? You have no cultivation, so what is the point in studying so much?” The young disciple laughed when he saw Li Xiandao retreat and said in disdain.

After backing off 10 steps, Li Xiandao asked calmly, “Now, can I look at the scenery?”

“Scram further. How can a person like you view Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect’s beautiful scenery?” The young disciple scolded.

Li Xiandao shook his head and sighed, “You are just asking to die.”

“What did you say?” The young disciple looked at Li Xiandao with a confused expression.

“I am saying that I have a pet that is locked in the ocean, I am here to see him.” Li Xiandao said.

“Nonsense, there is nothing in the ocean. The fish there are wild.” The young disciple said in disdain.

“Are you sure?” Li Xiandao asked.

“Of course.” The young disciple looked at Li Xiandao confidently.

"I think you are just here to cause trouble. Scram, otherwise, don't blame me for not showing respect." The young disciple scoffed coldly.

"What did I hear? A dumb-looking animal was locked in the ocean yesterday?" Li Xiandao was confused.

The young disciple mocked, "The Sect Leader and the three ancestors worked together to suppress a beast, what dumb animal?"

"But to me, he is just a dumb pet?" Li Xiandao smiled.

The young disciple was stunned and his expression changed as he stared at Li Xiandao, "What nonsense are you saying?"

Li Xiandao shook his hand, "I am not talking nonsense. I said that my pet is locked in this river and you said no. Then, how do you explain what happened yesterday?"

The young disciple's expression changed and he said in disbelief, "The beast and you are from the same side?"

"The best you are talking about is my pet." Li Xiandao said honestly.

"Now, I am here to take him out. You didn't get my approval and locked my pet here. That is immoral. You can't chase me away now, right?" Li Xiandao squinted his eyes and asked.

The young disciple's legs went soft from fear and he looked at Li Xiandao in terror. His lips trembled and he couldn't even say a single word.

Li Xiandao looked at him and his eyes turned cold. He passed him and walked towards the river.

"What do you want to do?" The young disciple looked at Li Xiandao in terror.

"My pet has been suppressed by all of you. What kind of logic is that?" Li Xiandao asked coldly.

"You want to release that beast? You are thinking too much. The formation was made by the sect leader and three old ancestors, you won't be able to open it." The young disciple relaxed a little and said.

"Is that so?" Li Xiandao's lips curled up.

"I can't open it?" A willow fell in front of Li Xiandao. When he reached out to pluck a leaf, he lightly tapped it with two fingers.

Keng!

The leaf instantly changed. It was filled with killing intent which shot forth.

Li Xiandao casually tossed it out.

“One leaf is enough.” Li Xiandao looked on calmly.

The willow leaf slashed out without a sign.

There was no shocking aura!

It didn't split the mountains or part the ocean!

There was no sword energy that shocked one's heart!

There was only a streak of sharp sword intent!

After Li Xiandao tossed it out and it landed in the ocean, with a loud explosion, it went deeper in like a sharp sword as it shot into the water.

Very quickly, the giant cage in the ocean appeared in front of the leaf.

The formation was being wrapped up in many layers. Chaos Dragon Crocodile's three-meter body and trapped in the core layer. Layer after layer was really thick and it pinned him in such that he couldn't move at all.

The leaf just sliced forth.

Keng!

He stopped being low profile.

This strike was like flames meeting lightning and immense power exploded from within.

The calm ocean started to stir up. From the bottom, it started to sweep up towards the sky.

At that moment, a wave that was a few hundred meters huge slapped down.

Hong long long!

This sound was just shocking. The clouds surged and it was really terrifying.

The prison instantly exploded.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile who was at the center roared and activated his own bloodline. It turned into a 3,000-foot Chaos Dragon Crocodile and 100 miles of chaotic energy wrapped around it.

“I will destroy Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect!” Chaos Dragon Crocodile shouted. He stepped on the waves and instantly caused a 3,000-meter giant wave that covered the entire area.

Numerous people saw such a terrifying scene and were stunned. They then fled in panic.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile carried with him a 3,000-meter wave and struck into the floating palace.

It was a really terrifying scene but Li Xiandao was enjoying it.

Behind Li Xiandao was the young disciple who was totally stunned.

This scholar... He actually released the beast.

Hadn't the sect leader and the three old ancestors suppressed the beast together?

How did the scholar do it?

A leaf!

The young priest felt like his view of the world had exploded and he didn't believe his own eyes.

Li Xiandao turned around and asked, “How is it? My pet dumb?”

The young disciple was about to go mad. The 3,000-foot Chaos Dragon Crocodile held a giant axe and was covered my miles of chaotic energy.

How was he dumb?

Was this even a pet?

Did your own pet look like that?

Chapter 478: Do You Recognize This?

Dong dong dong!

Li Xiandao's pet broke out of the cage and smiled towards the sky. He held a giant axe, bringing with himself a 3,000-meter wave and slapping it forward.

His target was that palace floating in mid-air.

It was high above, looking down on everyone. The Chaos Dragon Crocodile wanted to bring it down completely.

Hong long long!

The 3,000-meter wave swept forth with a shocking aura. It was huge and it shocked everyone in Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect.

Deep within Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect in a pink pond, a mustached man suddenly opened his eyes. Light flashed and he was furious, "You actually dare to find trouble with my Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect. You are asking for death!"

This anger caused the two women laying on him to be shocked. They looked at him in terror.

"Husband, you are the Sect Leader. You should just let others deal with this matter." A beautiful woman stood a few meters away and showed concern. However, she was really cold and didn't even bother to look at the guy.

"I know, just take care of your own son." The guy didn't look at her and just left without turning his head.

The lady took in a deep breath, suppressing her rage before leaving.

The two of them had long separated but the reason they didn't divorce was because of their reputation and also because of their child's future.

Dugu Menge charged out and instantly arrived at the frontline. He looked at the 3,000-meter wave heading towards him and also the giant Chaos Dragon Crocodile. His face turned black, "You were suppressed in the cage, so how did you break free?"

"Receive my strike and then I will give you an answer." Chaos Dragon Crocodile shouted in rage and the giant wave slapped down.

Hong long long!

This time, it seemed like the palace in the air was about to suffer.

“Monster, you dare!” A sharp voice spread out. A cloth flew out from the depths of the palace. It was really unassuming but when it arrived, with a loud explosion, it shook and covered the area. It instantly covered the 3,000-meter wave, preventing it from destroying the palace.

“Shatter.” Chaos Dragon Crocodile shouted in rage. His body got close and his axe slashed down viciously with unparalleled aura, tearing the cloth.

“Animal, you are asking to die.” Dugu Menge shouted angrily and slashed with his sword. With a metallic ring, thousands of sword afterimages appeared. They shot forwards sharply and one couldn’t tell which was real.

Dugu Menge, who was at stage seven, made Chaos Dragon Crocodile’s skin tighten up. Even if his body was strong, if he took it head-on, he would die or be heavily injured.

Just as he was being worried, a leaf flew out and danced across the sword images. It easily found the real sword and wrapped around it.

Dong!

The long sword’s sharpness was all contained on his leaf and nothing was revealed on the outside. This filled Dugu Menge with disbelief. The strength of this sword was wrapped up by this leaf.

From very far away on the side of the shore, Li Xiandao smiled and walked towards the battle.

Behind him, the young disciple looked at him in terror. He couldn’t help but tremble.

He looked down on Li Xiandao, chased him away, mocked him...

Li Xiandao didn’t react. He didn’t beat him up or scold him or hurt him. From the start, Li Xiandao didn’t even touch him.

But he himself was suffering trauma from this and his heart was shattered. He would never improve in his entire life and would often dream about Li Xiandao’s actions.

He was just so scared.

Li Xiandao wasn’t interested in wasting time with such a small unimportant person. He just left silently.

Right when Li Xiandao tossed out the leaf, Chaos Dragon Crocodile waved his giant axe and shattered the treasure. He hollered, smashing down with the 3,000-meter wave.

Hong long long!

The palace was struck and it started to crack. All of it shattered and it started to fall.

Hong long long!

The scenes were really shocking and numerous people screamed. Even if one could fly, but the giant waves made them unable to protect themselves.

Peng peng peng!

Many people started to bleed and they fell onto the mountain range. The palace below was also shattered.

“Dad, mother is dead.” A girl cried and shouted.

The father she shouted about was Dugu Menge.

She hoped that her father could hug her and save her mother.

But Dugu Menge ignored her, acting like he didn’t hear her call him father. He swept her coldly like she didn’t exist in her life.

As for her mother, a woman that betrayed him... how was she worth saving?

“Which expert is hiding this monster?” Dugu Menge shouted with a cold expression. A fierce light flashed in his eyes. The celestial sword in his hand was being wrapped up until now and he lost his own advantage.

Peng!

All of Dugu Menge’s attack’s strength struck the leaf. It dissipated with nothing left, disappearing into the air.

Pa pa pa!

Someone started to clap and walk over. He praised, “Top sword technique used to destroy a leaf, not bad, not bad.”

Dugu Menge stared at Li Xiandao and questioned, “Who are you?”

“You are from the same side as that bastard?” At that time, three old experts flew over. They were all really old and one of them didn’t wear a jacket.

The cloth that covered the giant wave was his jacket.

“The bastard you are calling is my pet.” Li Xiandao said coldly.

“Your pet?” Dugu Menge was shocked.

“When did he ever have a master?”

“Right, he was just a mixed-blood dragon race descendant?”

“You say that you are his master, so you are his master?”

The three old men scolded Li Xiandao.

Hong long long!

After they scolded him, Chaos Dragon Crocodile shrunk to around three meters and arrived behind Li Xiandao. He said respectfully, “Master!”

The faces of the three old men changed; black, green, and then red as they stared at Li Xiandao in anger.

“Now, do you believe that I am his Master?” Li Xiandao looked at the four of them and didn’t care about anyone else.

“You locked up my pet without my permission and even wanted to enslave him. You really don’t respect me?” Li Xiandao squinted his eyes, killing intent exploded out from within and it was really terrifying.

“Who are you? Stage seven Destiny Realm and you dare to act arrogantly here. You are really asking for death.” Dugu Menge said coldly.

Li Xiandao looked at Dugu Menge and suddenly smiled, “You really are rude, do you recognize this?”

Li Xiandao took out Dugu Menge’s contract.

His expression changed and he looked at it in terror.

This was his biggest secret.

No one else knew.

How did Li Xiandao get it?

“You... You are from that place?” Dugu Menge trembled and wasn’t as cold as before.

Chapter 479: Sword Techniques Are For Killing!

A contract!

It caused Dugu Menge's heart to lose control as he looked at Li Xiandao in shock. His expression changed.

Fear, shock, killing intent, viciousness...

All of these emotions stacked together made Dugu Menge seem terrifying.

Li Xiandao looked on calmly. No matter how much his expression changed, he was unfazed.

Li Xiandao even sent Chaos Dragon Crocodile away.

"Go do what you have to do." Li Xiandao said calmly.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile turned around and left. He knew what he had to do. To totally destroy Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect, he had to close down the world tunnel towards Heaven Sky.

Only then would Heaven Sky's Heaven and Earth Sect not be able to support and then Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect would be destroyed.

Chaos Dragon Crocodile's departure made the three old men furious.

"Bastard, you destroyed Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's floating palace and you want to flee?"

"Bastard, die!"

"Kill the master and servant. Someone at stage seven is not worthy of behaving arrogantly here."

The three elders were furious as they stared at Li Xiandao and the Chaos Dragon Crocodile. They then decided to split into two, one person to kill Chaos Dragon Crocodile and the other two to deal with Li Xiandao.

Their idea was good. One person was enough to kill Chaos Dragon Crocodile since he was only at stage three. It was definitely okay for a stage seven expert to go and kill him.

As for Li Xiandao, they would leave two stage seven experts. Even if they were at the same stage as Li Xiandao, they could still suppress him.

There was also a Dugu Menge who was at stage seven too.

Dugu Menge's weird sword techniques allowed him to fight one against two too.

They planned it all out, but didn't they see that one of Li Xiandao's leaf sealed up Dugu Menge's attack?

Hong!

An old man flew forwards. He didn't care about Li Xiandao and went to kill the Chaos Dragon Crocodile.

He dared to smash the floating palace that Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect spent 10,000 years to complete.

You deserve to die!

The old man flew over right in front of Li Xiandao. This made him frown and he said coldly, "It seems like you don't respect me at all."

You want to fly past me to kill my pet!

Do you think I am blind?

When Li Xiandao thought about that, he scoffed coldly and didn't want to play with them anymore.

"To us, you are blind. If you don't want to be blind, then we will dig out your eyes and let you find out how dangerous the world is." Dugu Menge finally came out from his shocked state. He gritted his teeth as he said that. His eyes were filled with killing intent.

This contract couldn't be revealed, so the only solution was to kill Li Xiandao and tear the contract.

The secret that he had hidden for 10,000 years and made him willingly get cheated on. To outsiders, he was a perverted man but only the people by his side knew that he was cold. He didn't touch them and just cultivated.

So, in front of people, he acted like a pervert, and in front of women, he acted like a cold person that only cared about cultivation.

His wife and his concubines all cheated on him.

When Dugu Menge found out, at first, he was furious and killed all the guys. He chopped them all up and then warned those pregnant girls to stop cheating with other guys.

Just like that, after 10,000 years, he had 21 kids. Their mothers had secretly gotten pregnant and the guys were all killed by Dugu Menge.

Dugu Menge paid such a high price, allowing so many misunderstandings so that others won't think about his bodily problems.

Now that Li Xiandao took this contract out, if he announced it to the people, how could he even live?

So, Li Xiandao had to die!

Li Xiandao saw him gritting his teeth and said, "You have been a coward for so many years. It must be tough for you."

"Shut up!" Dugu Menge hollered in anger. He charged with his celestial sword and stabbed.

Great Metal Sword Energy!

This was the sword technique that he had used his kidney function to exchange for. It was really strong and was a slicing technique that focused on killing.

When the Great Metal Celestial Artifact was used, it would simply kill the enemy and never back down.

This sword was brave and invincible.

Keng!

A sword carrying with it a terrifying metal sword energy pounced towards Li Xiandao's face.

Dugu Menge wanted to hold back Li Xiandao and even kill him so that his men could kill the Chaos Dragon Crocodile.

But when Li Xiandao looked at it, he laughed and said with a weird expression, "Have you tried killing your own men before?"

"What?" Dugu Menge was shocked

He felt his body shake and then he was teleported.

Hong!

Li Xiandao grabbed Dugu Menge's palm and before he even reacted, his body moved and chased the old man that went to kill Chaos Dragon Crocodile.

The sword shook, the Great Metal Sword Energy exploded, slashing across the sky.

Kacha!

That old man didn't expect Li Xiandao to appear behind him along with Dugu Menge. He didn't think that Dugu Menge's Great Metal Sword Energy would actually slice towards him.

The sword energy was ice cold and once it got close, he instinctively tried to dodge.

However, an arm was still sliced off. It was so painful that the old man hollered, "What are you doing? Why did you slice off my arm? I didn't cultivate any limb regeneration techniques."

In that short moment, Dugu Menge came to his senses. He looked at Li Xiandao who was right in front of him and his heart was filled with terror, "It wasn't me, he grabbed my hand."

Dugu Menge was terrified by Li Xiandao. What kind of speed was that?

What skill?

What cultivation did he have?

"Die!" Dugu Menge used all his strength. He twisted his wrist and sliced viciously. A bright sword light glowed and it was a really beautiful sight.

He aimed at Li Xiandao's heart and stabbed down.

But Li Xiandao was even quicker. He kicked right at Dugu Menge's heart.

Peng!

It was as if his body suffered a heavy blow. He flew backward uncontrollably and spat out mouthfuls of blood before smashing into the palace ruins.

After kicking Dugu Menge away, he turned around and used his fingers as a sword to shoot out sword energy.

One sword, 10,000 techniques!

Li Xiandao sliced coldly. His fingers were straight and long and 10,000 types of sword techniques shot out.

They all gathered together with just one goal!

Kill!

No matter how beautiful and flawless all the sword techniques and various forms looked, if they didn't kill the opponent, then they were useless.

A sword was a weapon to kill people. Sword techniques were for the sole purpose of killing people.

Now, Li Xiandao's sword was pointed right at the forehead of the old man.

Kacha!

The old man was stunned. He wasn't able to use a single bit of his cultivation before he fell to the ground. His body started to twitch.

On his forehead was a streak of blood. It was what the sword energy left behind.

Li Xiandao turned around and left like it was all really simple. It was as if he had just killed a farm chicken.

Chapter 480: Living For Reputation!

Li Xiandao was invincible!

Li Xiandao mentioned before that he was invincible in Great Sky.

His words were shown so clearly now.

He kicked Dugu Menge away with one foot and killed a stage seven old man with one sword.

It was just so simple!

Li Xiandao walked in front of the ruins and sighed. He said with melancholy, "I wanted to talk nicely with all of you as someone of the same realm, to discuss with you as an ordinary person. But what I got in return was disdain and killing intent. Stop acting. I am going to be honest. In Great Sky, I am invincible."

Dugu Menge held his stomach and trembled as he looked at Li Xiandao.

He didn't know how to describe his current feelings. If he summarised them, there was only one word: unbearable!

He felt really bad. He had trained in the sword for 10,000 years and felt like even though his sword technique wasn't top in the world, he definitely had a place in this world.

He had trained well in the Great Metal Sword Energy and it was extremely strong. In the past when he met all sorts of enemies, he would kill them with one sword.

Those past glorious results made Dugu Menge feel like he was really strong.

He was invincible in Great Sky!

Since he was invincible, then others couldn't find out that he had been cheated on which was why he wanted to kill Li Xiandao.

But now, this goal was shattered.

Li Xiandao had personally shattered it. He went all out to slice down but Li Xiandao grabbed his wrist immediately. When the sword landed it actually sliced his friend's arm.

At that moment, Dugu Menge was about to go crazy. He questioned himself several times.

Was there such a terrifying person in the world?

He didn't notice Li Xiandao attacking but when his long sword slashed down, he accidentally sliced his partner's arm.

This dream-like scene made Dugu Menge mad. It forced him to gather all his strength to buff his sword.

He wanted to kill Li Xiandao.

He wanted to stab his celestial blade into Li Xiandao's heart to wash away this humiliation.

But Li Xiandao's simple kick caused all of his emotions, all his sword intent, and all his faith to disappear.

Crack!

At that moment, Dugu Menge's faith broke. Li Xiandao simply broke his illusion that he was the best. His face swelled up and his body hurt. He turned his head and realized that Li Xiandao was standing where he once was. He used sword energy!

One sword and 10,000 techniques!

Li Xiandao's sword killed a stage seven expert.

This expert was totally defenceless in front of Li Xiandao. He was like a cumbersome, wooden target.

He took Li Xiandao's sword head-on.

He then entered the netherworld.

Dugu Menge stumbled to his feet and struggled to even say a word.

The other two old men were shocked. They had gone through a lot in their lives but they had rarely ever seen such terrifying scenes.

"You... Who are you?" An old man asked bitterly. He didn't dare to attack now and even begged Li Xiandao not to kill them.

"I am just a person here to collect a debt." Li Xiandao smiled.

"Collect a debt?" The old man was stunned and then he looked towards Dugu Menge.

At that moment, Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's elders and disciples all looked towards Dugu Menge.

Among them included some of Dugu Menge's children.

Dugu Menge's expression changed from green to white. He looked at Li Xiandao and shook his head with a begging expression in his eyes.

This matter couldn't be spoken aloud. If it was announced, he would lose the reputation that he had built over many years.

Not only that, but he would be mocked for the rest of his life. Even if he died, people would still talk about him.

This was something that Dugu Menge definitely couldn't allow.

Li Xiandao looked at Dugu Menge, deep in thought.

His heart didn't go soft. It wasn't as if he didn't want to kill Dugu Menge...

Li Xiandao was thinking about how Dugu Menge was really just living for the sake of his reputation.

For his reputation, he entered the Bank of the Universe and exchanged his kidney function for the Great Metal Sword Energy.

After getting it, he worked hard and became the sect leader. He was high above and numerous people envied and chased him.

He exchanged his kidney function for the sword technique so that he could become the sect leader.

The goal of becoming the sect leader was so that he could get famous.

After that, he acted as a promiscuous sect leader, marrying many beautiful wives and concubines, so that others didn't know that he had such biological deficiencies.

In truth, he did so because of his reputation.

He rarely slept with the wives he married and threatened them not to speak of such things to the outside world. Then his wife cheated and got a child.

For his reputation and his ego, Dugu Menge told his wife to give birth to the kid. She arranged a feast and announced that it was his.

Of course, in the dark, the real biological father suffered torture worse than death.

Such a thing happened 21 times over 10,000 years.

For his ego and reputation, Dugu Menge ended up with 21 kids.

They were all his. He lived his entire life for his ego and reputation. Now, he was shaking his head at Li Xiandao and begging him.

He begged Li Xiandao not to speak of this matter.

Dugu Menge really didn't want to lose 10,000 years of reputation and honor to his name.

Li Xiandao could understand him but he definitely wouldn't become such a person.

"Dugu Menge, I am here to collect a debt, a blood debt. You killed Chaos Dragon Crocodile's sister, I came for her." Li Xiandao said calmly.

When Dugu Menge heard blood debt and also for Chaos Dragon Crocodile's sister, he was delighted instead of shocked. It was as if he had seen a treasure as he looked at Li Xiandao.

Li Xiandao didn't speak of what was written in the contract.

"Blood will be paid with blood. As long as you don't hurt the Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect disciples, I am willing to pay the price." Dugu Menge thanked Li Xiandao. He knew that he couldn't block his attacks and that Li Xiandao had given him face. So, he passed over his celestial sword and a secret technique.

Great Metal Sword Energy.

For all the disciples to see, Dugu Menge knelt in front of Li Xiandao and said, "I am Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect's sect leader. Kill me and Heaven and Earth Celestial Sect will no longer exist. All these disciples are innocent."

Li Xiandao looked at Dugu Menge. Even at such a step, he didn't forget his duty.

At that moment, he became a great sect leader. He sacrificed himself and saved all the disciples and elders.

Li Xiandao looked around and realized that many emotional disciples were shedding tears.

Even some of the men started to tear up and look at Li Xiandao with hatred.

Li Xiandao became more and more intrigued. One's reputation was fake. Some people didn't care and did whatever they wanted for the sake of reputation.

Some treated it as something more important than their own life. They would rather give it up than give up on their reputation.

Dugu Menge belonged to the latter group.
