Chapter 4

After leaving the Qin family's villa, Lin Feng went to the hospital.

What the Qin family had done had made him completely disappointed.

Originally, he didn't intend to save Qin Hongling. After all, Qin Hongling and her husband had always been making things hard for him.

However, at that moment, Lin Feng thought of Xiaohui and could not bear to hurt his feelings.

But in the end, he was treated as a beast who took advantage of his wife's cousin.

"Forget it. I'd better not meddle in this kind of thing in the future!"

After arriving at the hospital, Lin Feng took his mother back to the rented house, and then paid rent and bought some daily necessities with the money the hospital had refunded.

Although his mother had been discharged from the hospital, and the pressure Lin Feng felt because of her medical expenses had decreased, he was not at ease, because he still owed a lot of money outside.

Plus, he didn't know if he should tell his mother that her amulet was a curse.

When she was discharged from the hospital, Su Biyun asked Lin Feng where her amulet had gone, but Lin Feng just said casually that she might have accidentally lost it.

Judging from the fact that his mother cared so much about the amulet, the person who had given it must matter to her.

Lin Feng didn't dare to tell the truth just like that. He was scared of hurting his mother's feelings.

In the evening, Lin Feng took advantage of the time when Su Biyun was asleep to meditate and run the Xuantian Sutra. Not only could he consolidate the Innate True Qi, but he also had a deeper understanding of everything in the world.

In order to prevent the situation of having insufficient Qi from happening again, he put effort in learning the medical knowledge passed down in his mind.

What surprised him was that the efficiency of learning was getting higher and higher every time. It originally took him a long time to comprehend it, but now he understood it at a glance.

The effects of the Xuantian Sutra could immediately be felt.

Then, Lin Feng revised all the needle techniques he had been taught today.

The Nine Magical Needles had a total of nine levels.

The Tai Chi's Concentration, the Harmony of Yin and Yang, the Three Elements Breaking Formation, the Four Symbols Subduing Devils... all the way until the Nine Palaces Soul Snatcher.

Lin Feng finished practicing all in one go.

Among them, the Nine Palaces Soul Snatcher was the most overbearing. It could be combined with the use of the needles. Every time it was used, the one who casted it would be unlucky for three days.

"Ding!"

On the afternoon of the third day after Lin Feng's mother was discharged from the hospital, he was still immersed in the secret martial arts manual in his mind. However, at this time, a text message came from his mobile phone.

When he checked it, he saw a notification on his phone saying that his sim card credit had been reloaded.

It turned out that his card was already in debt, but someone had accidentally reloaded it.

Just as Lin Feng was waiting for the fool to call him, his phone rang.

It was a call from Qin Ruoxian!

Lin Feng hesitated for a moment before answering the call.

"Lin Feng, why didn't you tell me that your mother was discharged from the hospital?"

There was a hint of anger in her cold tone. "It's been three days since you last came home, and I even had to pay for your card. What are you doing?"

Lin Feng quickly explained, "Here's the thing. I planned to tell you when my mother's condition is stable. As for the sim card, I only found out that it was short of credit just now."

He asked in a low voice, "Um, why did you call me? What can I do for you?"

"Hurry up and go downstairs. I'll wait for you at the entrance!"

After Qin Ruoxian finished speaking, she hung up the phone immediately without giving Lin Feng a chance to refuse.

Lin Feng had no choice but to inform Su Biyun about it before he hurried downstairs.

This kind of old-fashioned residential area was remote, cheap, shabby, and had no elevator.

However, Lin Feng had lived here for more than ten years and felt attached to it.

At the entrance of the place, a red BMW was parked by the roadside.

As soon as Lin Feng appeared, a dazzling beauty immediately got down of the car.

Qin Ruoxian was dressed in a black summer outfit. Her facial features were exquisite and her figure was tall and slender. Her temperament was cold, but there was no lack of s*xiness.

In particular, her snow-white legs were slender and fair. When she walked, she was full of temptation.

Many passers-by widened their eyes, and even their breathing became rapid.

When Qin Ruoxian saw Lin Feng, she was also slightly stunned.

They hadn't seen each other for three days. Her husband, whom she had never really paid attention to before, seemed to have some inexplicable changes.

His eyes were no longer as timid as before, and he stood with his back very straight.

For the first time, she saw the so-called manly demeanor of Lin Feng.

However, she soon shook her head and regained her coldness.

How could a man like him have this kind of demeanor!

"These remedies are for your mother. She needs to take good care of her health."

Qin Ruoxian pushed the gift box to Lin Feng's hand and took out a card.

"There is 100,000 in the card. You can buy whatever you need. Your mother had just gotten discharged from the hospital, don't let her go back to work too soon, got it?"

Lin Feng quickly waved his hand and said, "No, it's okay, we don't need anything..."

"You don't understand human language, do you?"

08:46

Qin Ruoxian was very impatient. "Hurry up and bring the things to your mother. I have something to talk to you about."

Lin Feng didn't say anything. After taking the things into the house, he briefly talked to Su Biyun and left.

After Lin Feng got in the car, Qin Ruoxian immediately ordered the driver to start driving.

As the car drove along a quiet path, Qin Ruoxian said coldly, "Lin Feng, tell me honestly, how did your mother get better all of a sudden?"

Lin Feng smiled faintly and said, "Didn't you hear what the doctor said? It's a miracle!"

Qin Ruoxian frowned and showed a little impatience. "I want the truth from you!"

She understood that it could really be just a miracle that Su Biyun suddenly recovered and woke up. It was indeed possible.

But she always felt that she seemed to have missed something.

"To be honest, my mother's amulet has been cursed, which triggered the disease. As long as the curse in the amulet is removed, she will naturally recover!"

Lin Feng told the truth in one breath.

An amulet?

Cursed?

"You're lying!" Qin Ruoxian thought, she didn't believe him.

The corners of her mouth twitched. She suppressed the anger in her heart and sneered, "Haha, I really didn't expect you to have such skills."

"It's such a waste of talent for you to stay in the Qin family!"

Then she suddenly glanced at Lin Feng and asked casually, "Does this mean that my cousin has also been cursed?"

When it came to Qin Hongling, Lin Feng's tone turned cold unconsciously.

"She brought this upon herself. She's obviously in poor health, but she's always angry, causing her liver to flare up."

"In order to preserve her status in the Qin family, she often attended parties. Her private life was ruined, and she was tired and hurting her health, which led to her mental health consumption."

"Aside from that, what she shouldn't do most is to work hard to plot against others."

Lin Feng said lightly, "So, if she doesn't have a stroke, who will have a stroke?"

"A stroke!" Qin Ruoxian thought, she was shocked.

Her expression froze. How did Lin Feng know?

But on second thought, judging from her symptoms, what else could it be if it wasn't a stroke?

At this moment, when she heard that Lin Feng had deliberately taken the opportunity to insult her cousin, Qin Ruoxian's pretty face turned cold. "Don't think that you're an expert with just a few professional vocabularies."

"I know what you're capable of."

"In addition to doing laundry and cooking, you've learned massaging from TV after your mother got sick. That's all."

Lin Feng smiled faintly. He had already guessed that Qin Ruoxian would not believe him, so he didn't bother to explain.

Seeing that Lin Feng didn't take it seriously, Qin Ruoxian became angrier.

"I just didn't want to expose you that day. Did you think it'd be useful if you rubbed her belly a few times?"

"If it works, your mother wouldn't had been lying in the hospital for two years."

Qin Ruoxian knew Lin Feng very well. She didn't expect that Lin Feng would pretend to be an expert in front of her, which made her expression become colder.

"So, how can I help you?"

Lin Feng frowned slightly and said coldly, "If you have nothing to say, just let me get out of the car!"

"Oh so now you're pissed?" Qin Ruoxian said angrily.

Right after that, she suddenly realized that she should not bring up Su Biyun in this.

Her tone softened a little. "Go to the hospital with me. The doctors don't know what to do with my cousin's illness."

"Even Dr. Sun Xingyang, the last disciple of Mr. Kong, the Divine Doctor in Jingdu, can only temporarily relieve her condition."

"My cousin said that only when you touched her that day, she could feel you relieving her pain."

Lin Feng said lightly, "I'll pass!"

"You must go!"

Qin Ruoxian scolded angrily, "Since you know that you don't have the ability, don't interfere in the future."

She then took a deep breath to ease the anger in her heart. "The purpose of this trip to the hospital is to let you personally tell my cousin that you don't know medical skills at all."

"If you don't make her give up, she won't accept being transferred to the hospital in Jingdu."

Being transferred to Jingdu?

Lin Feng shook his head and sneered. Based on Qin Hongling's current condition, she would definitely not be able to make it to Jingdu.

However, what did Qin Hongling's life have to do with him?

The last time he helped her, he got criticized instead. Why should he help her this time?

However, Qin Ruoxian did not care whether Lin Feng was willing to go or not. She just ordered her driver to set off for the hospital.

Seeing how determined Qin Ruoxian was, Lin Feng shook his head helplessly.

On the 16th floor of the First Hospital of Tianhai.

As soon as Lin Feng and Qin Ruoxian pushed open the door of the ward, they saw Shen Hanwei, who was snoring beside the bed.

At this moment, Shen Hanwei seemed to be much more haggard.

In the past three days, Qin Hongling's condition hadn't been stable, this made his emotions unstable too. He had suffered a lot these days.

Because Qin Hongling's looks became really scary, he did not dare to let Xiaohui come to the hospital to visit her.

As for Qin Hongling herself, her entire body looked like it was paralyzed as she laid on the bed, twitching from time to time.

Her beautiful face was also distorted at this time, and her saliva flowed straight down her mouth, completely out of her control.

In addition to the smell of medical chemicals, there was also an unpleasant smell of urine in the room.

It was worse than death for a woman who loved to look pretty.

08:47

When Qin Hongling saw Lin Feng, her tongue, which was difficult for her to control, started to move. She said, "Lin Feng, come quickly. I beg you."

"You can do whatever you please. I'll pay you as much as you want me to."

Qin Hongling's voice woke Shen Hanwei up. He looked up and his eyes widened in anger.

"Lin Feng!"

Shen Hanwei suddenly stood up, grabbed Lin Feng's collar, and gnashed his teeth. "You beast, how dare you come here?"

"If it weren't for you, Hongling wouldn't be angry."

"If it weren't for the fact that you scared Xiaohui, Hongling wouldn't have to stay up late and coax the child!"

"You beast! How dare you take advantage of her when she's ill! I'll beat you to death right here and now!"

After that, he raised his right fist and was going to hit Lin Feng's face.

"Whoosh!"

At this time, Lin Feng did not hold back. He leaned to one side, stretched out his right hand, and directly pushed Shen Hanwei out of the door.

Shen Hanwei fell to the ground in shock and anger.

"How dare this good-for-nothing fight back?"

He got up angrily, but happened to see Lin Feng's cold and piercing eyes.

At this moment, he suddenly felt a strong sense of fear in his heart.

"Brother-in-law, don't mess around at this critical moment!"

Qin Ruoxian tried to stop him. She looked at Lin Feng and said, "Go ahead. Tell my cousin that you don't know anything at all."

Lin Feng couldn't bear to see Qin Hongling in such a situation, but what happened three days ago had already given him a warning.

And the warning was that he might not be thanked, but rather framed or accused by others!

Lin Feng looked at Qin Hongling and smiled. "No, I think I can give it a try."

"What?"

Qin Ruoxian stomped her feet angrily and said, "Lin Feng, do you know what you are talking about? There will be consequences if you do this!"

Hearing Lin Feng's words, Qin Hongling couldn't help but get excited. "Really?"

"Then try it quickly. Do as you like, I'll give you whatever you want, no matter 50,000 or 100,000."

Lin Feng said lightly, "I can save you, but you and your husband must apologize to me regarding the jade pendant matter."

He then turned to look at Shen Hanwei, who was outside the door, and said word by word, "Kneel down and apologize!"

"Kneel down?"

Shen Hanwei was shocked and his eyes were fierce. "Lin Feng, who do you think you are? Why should I kneel down to you?"

As soon as Shen Hanwei finished speaking, Qin Hongling shouted angrily, "B*stard, kneel down and apologize!"

But Shen Hanwei stood still and glared at Lin Feng with resentment.

At this time, Lin Feng looked at Qin Hongling and said coldly, "If he doesn't kneel, I won't save you!"
