

Chapter 1181

Albert looked at Tom with joy and appreciation. He was very satisfied with Mr. Howard.

In fact, he didn't help Tom much. He just answered some martial arts doubts for Tom. Tom became an excellent man nowadays was upon himself. Albert really appreciated Tom for that.

Usually, a genius was arrogant, self-centered, and cared little about the people around them. The more powerful he was, the more selfish and annoying he became. But Tom wasn't that kind of genius. He stayed true to his original kindness and aspiration.

People in the scene looked at Tom with respect and admiration.

Albert patted Tom on the shoulder and said happily, "With you in the H Country, I can retreat from the front line now!"

Indeed, with Tom's leadership over the H Country, Albert could take a back seat now, for that Tom is, qualified in both strength and morality, the best choice of the new God of War for the generation to come.

Tom did not refuse to be the new God of war. He knew that with great power comes great responsibility. He had already made such a plan before he went to the secret realm. When he broke through to the God Becoming Level, it was time for him to replace Albert and become the new God of War.

And now, it was the time.

"I won't disappoint you." Tom seriously and flatly answered.

When the people around them heard this, their expressions changed slightly. They knew that Tom was really in power in the H Country now.

It meant a meteoric rise. And people thought

Tom deserved that. In fact, they thought it was a blessing for the H Country with a man like Tom.

Then, Campbell asked Tom what happened in the Secret Realm. Tom also asked him about the mysterious live website and got the same answer as he got from the Military Intelligence 3.

That made Tom confused and uneasy. He always felt that there was a secret, unusual and powerful organization hid in the dark, and in one day the would cause great calamity for all human beings.

Especially when he reached his now level, he could felt something that ordinary people could not feel.

But, whatever it was, at this juncture, Tom could not reveal his uneasiness, which might bring chaos. All he had to do now was figure out who's Phoebe's so-called real father.

In addition, he had to coordinate the forces to deal with the coming world war!

After everyone else left, Tom and Albert walked together in the backyard. Albert said, "Tom, I saw you were uneasy just now. Did something happen?"

It had to be said that Albert was still very good at reading people. He could tell what was on Tom's mind at a glance. Tom said flatly, "There is indeed such a thing.

"Oh, what is it?"

Tom stopped and looked at Albert, "Senior Campbell, I wonder if you know who are the five most powerful men in the world?"

When Albert heard this, he was not surprised. Instead, he questioned, "Are you going to challenge them?"

Tom shook his head and said, "No. But my wife, Phoebe, was a family member of such a powerful man and taken by that man."

Then, Tom told Albert about the story.

Hearing the story, Albert was surprised with his eyes widen. Obviously, he did not expect Tom's wife to have such a past.

Actually, he had someone check Phoebe's background and found Phoebe was an ordinary person. But now, Tom told him that Phoebe was from an eminent family. He was really surprised.

After a moment of silence, he said, "As far as I know, the five most powerful people in this world should be Cassio of the Blood Thirst Sect, Raoul of the Raoul Sect, the blood god of the Sky Reaching Sect, Wang Chen of the Thunder Temple, and Xu Xuanzi of the Secular World. As for who took your wife away, I really don't know."

After Tom heard this, he was joyful and he said, "There are also super powerful people in our Secular World?"

Albert nodded and said, "Yes, Xu Xuanzi is the strongest in our Secular World."

"By that name, is he a man of our H Country?"

"I don't know. I've never heard any news that he was a man of us." Albert shook his head and said.

Tom fell into silence and began to speculate that, among these five people, who abducted Phoebe?

Albert saw Tom's expression and said, "You are going to look for them one by one?"

Tom made it no secret and said, "Well, if I really can't be sure who abducted Phoebe, I only have this way."

"Tom, there's something I hesitate to tell you."

Tom laughed. He knew Albert's hint. He said, "Senior Campbell, I know what you mean. They are the five most powerful men in the world. They are at the apex of all human beings. And I am just a God Becoming Level master. But I'm not a reckless person. I have made up detailed plans to challenge them."

"Okay. Since you've made up your mind, I won't stop you. Anyway, remember, you're not fighting alone. H Country is always the back of you." Albert said in a low voice.

Tom was moved when he heard this.

Then, Tom and Albert talked about some things else. Suddenly, a man rushed in. He was very frightened and panicked. He shouted loudly, "Lord God of War, Lord God of War, something bad happened!"

His tone was even trembling. Albert and Tom were surprised to see him that look.

Tom knew this man, an officer in a mighty position. He had experienced a lot of major things. Even something bad happened, he should not be this panicked.

It meant that thing was really serious.

Albert and Tom looked at each other. They were on the same page. Albert immediately went up and said in a low voice, "What happened?"

Chapter 1182

He gasped and said, "Lord God of War, the Clan World has begun to invade the Secular World!"

Hearing this, Albert's eyes immediately widened. "What?"

Tom was also startled, but he calmed down in no time. He was not surprised at the situation. The battle between the Clan World and the Secular World was already on the line and could happen at any time.

What happened now only meant that the Clan World quickened its pace and brought the war forward!

At this time, what they had to do was to stabilize their morale, and at the same time, fully prepare for the battle as soon as possible to minimize the potential casualties.

Immediately, Albert said, "Make it clear, where did they attack?"

The Clan World began to attack the Secular World directly. This was not a small matter, and it could not be a small war. If something went wrong, many people would die, and even the whole world would face a huge change!

The other party said, "They attacked several countries at once, respectively..."

The military officer counted eight countries in a row, mainly in the west. Two of them were neighbors of H Country, but The Clan World did not plan to attack H Country.

Upon hearing this, Tom was a little surprised, but he immediately recognized that H Country was the strongest compared to the eight countries. In addition, they got three God Becoming Level's the Strong, Tom, Albert, and Legend. Therefore, the country was the most powerful and the hardest one to tackle for the Clan World.

And relatively speaking, as these eight countries did not have the Strong of God Becoming Level, they are much easier to be defeated.

All of a sudden, Tom understood the plan of the Clan World. They wanted to tackle the weakest ones first.

After listening to the officer's report, Albert sighed and said, "The war has begun. It is unpredictable that how many people will die in this war."

Tom said, "That's unavoidable. The Clan World and the Secular World uphold different beliefs. Sooner or later, they will collide."

"That's true."

Albert nodded and began to order, "Inform the whole country and start to enter a state of alert! Perhaps, it's time to tell the people the truth about the world."

When the officer heard this, he said, "Lord God of War, once we spread the news, will it cause a disturbance in the society? To those ordinary people, the truth of this world might not be so easy to accept."

This was indeed a problem.

Most people thought that there was no superhuman existence in this world. The human limit was the athletes in the Olympics.

Especially for the people of H Country, as it had protective measures that ensured most people a safe and happy living.

Now, once they were told the news, it would inevitably cause uneasiness, even agitation. If that was the case, it would be troublesome.

Albert said, "Rather than let them die in a hotbed, I would rather tell them the truth and let them grow stronger first."

His words sounded easy, but the connotation was extremely heavy and cruel.

Then members of the Y City authority immediately held a meeting, in which Tom also participated.

In the conference room, all of them were senior executives, and their expressions were solemn. They kept putting forward their own suggestions and solutions. The meeting lasted for several hours.

Then orders began to be issued, quickly putting the whole country on alert. H Country was fully prepared for the arrival of this war.

At the same time, the eight countries attacked began to call for support from H Country.

Tom came out of the conference room with a heavy mood.

Just then, his phone rang. He took it out and saw that it was a strange call.

"Hello, who is it?"

A beautiful female voice came from the microphone. "Senior Mr. Howard, it is Camila. Do you remember me?"

Hearing this voice, Tom immediately recognized it. He asked curiously, "How did you get my phone number?"

"As I admire you, I tried my best to find out your contact information. You left in such a hurry that day that I didn't even get a chance to ask for your phone number. It took me a lot of energy to find it out." Camila said coquettishly.

Tom said, "Oh, what do you want from me?"

Feeling Tom's indifference, Camila felt that he was a dull dog. But she has known that he was a cold and aloof person so then he continued, "Senior Mr. Howard, are you free tomorrow night? I want to invite you to join a bouquet."

Tom refused without thinking. He was not in the mood. "No spare time."

Camila sighed and said, "Senior Mr. Howard, don't reject me in such a hurry. I really want to invite you over."

Then Camila said a lot, with all kinds of requests and coquetries, making Tom a little uncomfortable and his ears buzzed. He agreed, "Okay, okay, stop babbling. I promise you, okay?"

Upon hearing Tom's promise, Camila immediately shouted out happily, "Great, then I'll pick you up tomorrow night!"

"Ok." After informing her of his address, Tom hung up the phone.

Tom didn't want to have anything to do with Camila, but as she said on the phone that her father, Judah, would attend, too. And she added that her father admire him, so he thought about it and accepted her invitation.

After all, the war was about to begin. Judah, as the boss of the Great Kungfu Group, had much power. It was not bad to meet him.

Soon, Tom returned to his residence and began to recuperate.

He was concerned about Phoebe, but he also knew that it was useless to be rushed at the moment. What he had to do now was to stabilize his pace and improve strength to the highest point.

Although he had swallowed a hundred fruits, cut hair, washed marrow, and changed wholly in the Secret Realm, after all he was still weak as he had just stepped into the God Becoming Level, compared with those old monsters who had stepped into the God Becoming Level for decades.

He was almost certain that the person who kidnapped Phoebe was one of the five people, so he had to be completely prepared not to take a meaningless sacrifice.

Moreover, now that the war had begun, as the new leader of H Country, he naturally couldn't make a mistake.

Chapter 1183

Camila came to pick up Tom the next night.

After getting in the car, Tom smelled a tempting fragrance from Camila. She was dressed up tonight in a beautiful evening dress, which outlined her perfect figure.

Camila was a beauty and had a hot figure. She was in her early twenties and was youthful and intellectual.

Tom found that there were another two women. They were about the same age as Camila. They were young and beautiful. He could tell that they were ladies from decent families.

After they met Tom, they stared at him boldly without blinking as if he was as rare as pandas.

"Senior Mr. Howard, good evening!"

Camila greeted Tom with a smile. She was joyful. When she came, she was nervous and was afraid that Tom would stand her up. Fortunately, Tom was graceful and did not stand her up.

After she went home, she inquired about Tom and found that he was the most powerful one in H Country. Even Albert, God of War had given up his position to him. She could tell how important Tom was!

She respected and admired him in her mind with unspeakable love.

Tom was young and was not much older than her!

The two girls were surprised when they found that Tom was so young. A girl asked Camila in a low voice, "Jane, is he the super master? He is not like a super master."

Another girl said in a low voice, "Yes, he looks too young. Jane, did you make a mistake?"

They didn't know much about Tom. They just heard from Camila about him. Camila boasted that he was the best man in H Country.

In their imagination, he should be a burly and fierce middle-aged man.

But he looked ordinary, just like an ordinary worker. He didn't look like a master and didn't have solid muscles. They thought that Camila mistook.

Tom heard their whispers, but he wasn't angry with them. He nodded at Camila and got in the car. He said, "Miss Chen, please."

Camila glared at the girls and said to Tom, "I'm fine. I'm happy that you come."

"Okay." Tom nodded and closed his eyes to have a rest.

Tom didn't look at the two girls. They were especially uncomfortable and thought that he was pretentious.

He looked so ordinary but he was so pretentious. They were ladies from decent families. All men would please them when they saw them.

"Jane, have you been deceived by him? There are a lot of liars in society. A while ago, a fake martial arts master was exposed on the Internet."

"Yes, Jane, you are not ordinary. What if you were deceived? I don't think he is a super master. He looks like a delivery worker."

Camila was angry when she heard them. She kindly brought them over to introduce them to Tom. But in the end, they spoke ill of Tom. They were so hateful!

She didn't doubt Tom at all. She was in the Great Kungfu Group and had long heard of Tom. She had seen Tom fight and admired him extremely.

She knew that Tom must hear their conversation even though they whispered. She was embarrassed and angry. She glared at them and said, "Senior Mr. Howard is my idol. If you speak ill of him again, I will be angry!"

"Jane, you..."

"Why are you angry? We say it for your own good..."

They wanted to say more. Camila looked serious and they knew that she was angry. They didn't dare to say more. But they didn't take it seriously and believed that Tom was a liar rather than a super master.

Tom was calm. He was not thick-skinned, but he was doubted so many times so that he didn't care about it.

Besides, it was not all their fault. He looked so ordinary now. Even the masters of Half-step God Becoming Level couldn't determine his strength.

Only the masters of God Becoming Level could tell how powerful he was by feeling his spirit.

Otherwise, even the ordinary masters of God Becoming Level experts could not detect his real strength.

Tom recovered his original simplicity. He was no different from ordinary people now.

The car was started and driven steadily. Soon they reached their destination, which was a villa area in the suburbs. The car was parked in front of a luxurious manor.

At this time, all kinds of luxury cars were parked in the manor.

Tom roughly sensed that most of them were young and ordinary. Only a few masters of Innate Realm were there. There was no master of God Becoming Level.

To be honest, Tom was not interested in the party.

Besides, he didn't find Judah's breath. Didn't Judah come?

He asked Camila directly, "Miss Chen, isn't your father here?"

Camila said, "He said that he would come later."

Tom nodded and got out of the car.

The two girls felt uncomfortable when they saw that Tom, who looked ordinary, was so arrogant.

After looking at each other, they discussed in a low voice, "He must be a liar and tricked Jane. We are Jane's good friends, and we can't let him do it. Let's catch a chance and send out our bodyguard to reveal his lie."

"Well, I think so too!"

Chapter 1184

After the two girls made up their minds, they began to plan.

On Tom's side, he followed Camila in.

It had to be said that Camila was still very respected here. When she showed up, she immediately attracted the attention of many people inside.

"Look, it's Jane..."

"Wow, Jane is really beautiful tonight."

"Of course. She has always been the prettiest in our circle."

"Hey, who's that guy next to Jane? He is new. I haven't seen him before. Do any of you know him?"

"I haven't seen him before. Besides, this guy doesn't look like someone in the circle. He looks so ordinary and wears such cheap clothes. Who is he?"

"Damn, look at how Jane is all respectful to him. What's going on?"

Tom walked in and immediately heard a lot of gossips.

He asked Camila, "It seems that your friends are not very welcoming to me."

Camila immediately said, "Senior Mr. Howard, it's not like that. In fact, they all admire you very much. It's just that I came in a hurry this time and didn't tell them who you are in advance. I'll introduce you to them!"

Tom waved his hand and said, "No need. Go play with your friends. I'll wait for your father here."

He didn't care what these young people thought at all. He came here tonight with only one purpose, Judah.

However, Camila showed some awkwardness and said, "Well, my father may not be here so soon. Why don't I introduce you to them first? They are all your fans!"

Seeing the pleading and expectation in Camila's eyes, Tom hesitated, nodded, and said, "Okay."

When Camila heard Tom saying okay, she immediately became happy. She quickly held Tom's arm and walked over briskly.

Tom was held by her arm and immediately sensed that many men present were looking at him with hostility.

This kind of scene was really familiar.

Tom could only shake his head. He didn't expect that he had already reached the God Becoming Level, and this was still inevitable.

Camila led Tom to the crowd and said, "Let me introduce you. This is who I told you about, senior Mr. Howard, Tom!"

However, after Camila said this, the crowd did not show much excitement. They looked cold and obviously had not heard of Tom.

Someone even whispered, "Tom? Who? I haven't heard of him..."

"Yes, is this a new star? But he doesn't look handsome either."

"Is he Jane's boyfriend?"

"That's impossible. Isn't Jane's fiancé Sawyer?"

"I don't know..."

Seeing that they didn't respond, Camila immediately frowned and said unhappily, "Why aren't you excited? This is Tom, senior Mr. Howard! Our H Country's legend!"

Only then did they clap and say perfunctory greetings.

Tom finally understood that these guys were not from the martial arts circle and naturally did not know him.

At this moment, the interest in his heart disappeared by more than half.

When he saw that Camila wanted to introduce him again, he waved his hand and stopped Camila from saying anything more. He said, "Forget it. They're not from the martial arts circle. There's no need to say more."

Camila immediately said with embarrassment, "Senior Mr. Howard, I'm sorry. I didn't expect this to happen."

Tom said with a smile. Naturally, he would not stump a little girl. He shook his head and said, "It's okay. I came here tonight to see your father."

When Camila heard this, her eyes flashed with gloom and she whispered, "Just to see my father?"

"Hmm? What did you just say?"

Camila quickly shook her hand and said, "Nothing, nothing..."

Tom saw that Camila was acting a little strange, but he did not continue to ask. Girls of this age were a bit moody.

At this moment, Tom felt a strong aura coming from the direction of the door. He immediately looked up and saw Sawyer, who was unusually handsome in a suit and leather shoes, striding over surrounded by the crowd.

In addition to Sawyer, there were two middle-aged people on each side of him who looked very energetic. The aura of these two middle-aged people was even stronger than Sawyer, and they were already two top masters on the edge of the God Becoming Level!

It was quite surprising for Tom to see three masters of this level here.

As soon as Sawyer appeared, the atmosphere at the scene changed. Many young girls' eyes lit up and followed Sawyer closely, including some boys. They also showed admiration and reverence for Sawyer.

They had no animosity or desire to compete with such a strong man as Sawyer.

Because Sawyer was so much stronger than them.

After Sawyer came in, he walked straight in Tom's direction. He had a smile on his face. When he walked to Tom, he said with a smile "Senior Mr. Howard, you actually come. It's my honor to see you again! I have offended you two days ago. Please forgive me. Senior Mr. Howard. Don't bear grudges with me!"

After saying that, he actually lowered his head to Tom to show his attitude.

When everyone saw this, they were immediately stunned. Obviously, they did not expect that Sawyer would do this, because, in their eyes, Sawyer was not an ordinary rich kid, but a super genius!

Not only was he from a very high background, but he was also very talented and smart. Whether it was business, education, or skill, he was so good at everything that it was hard for them to even think about competing with him.

How could such an awesome man be so respectful in front of such an ordinary man?

For a moment, they wondered if they were mistaken.

But what no one saw was that when Sawyer lowered his head, the corners of his mouth turned up slightly, and his eyes flashed with coldness.

He had not forgotten the insult Tom had given him!

Today, he came here for revenge!

Tom didn't seem to feel his coldness and malice, and he looked very happy. He smiled and said, "You're too kind. I've long forgotten what happened last time."

"Haha, senior Mr. Howard is really magnanimous!" Sawyer laughed too, then snapped his fingers. His men next to him brought a glass of wine. He took it, and personally brought it to Tom, saying, "Senior Mr. Howard, you are a legend of martial arts. Please accept my respect!"

Chapter 1185

He looked as respectful as he could be right now, and his attitude was sincere. It seemed that he was really apologizing to Tom and confessing his mistakes. He was acting like a junior.

His behavior immediately shocked everyone present who knew him, especially those in the circle. Everyone who knew him was now dumbfounded, thinking that they were mistaken.

You know, Sawyer was not just small beer. Not to mention his strength, he was very arrogant. They had never heard of Sawyer being so respectful to anyone.

It would be fine if the person was a well-known senior. The man in front of him looked very young, even younger than Sawyer. How could he get such a grand apology from Sawyer?

It had to be said that Sawyer looked very sincere now, making people unable to nitpick. Even Camila, who was beside him, was also deceived by him and felt very happy.

At first, she was a little worried because Sawyer was so arrogant. Would he refuse to admit defeat and embarrass Tom at this banquet to take revenge on him? Now, it seemed that her worry was unnecessary because she underestimated Sawyer, who was very broad-minded.

Tom was the only one who knew Sawyer's nature. He moved up the corners of his mouth with a meaningful smile. How could he not tell if no one else could?

Now, he had reached a level that ordinary people could not understand and any thoughts of Sawyer couldn't escape his eyes.

He concluded surely that this glass of wine must be poison, and it was also a very toxic super poison, enough to poison the God Becoming Level masters!

However, he still took the glass and did not expose it. It was not that he was carelessness, but that he had such confidence.

His current physique was not something that an ordinary God Becoming Level master could compare.

He had swallowed a hundred fruits and experienced a lot. Now he had reached a level that surpassed everyone and faintly surpassed humanity.

No matter how poisonous the poison was, it couldn't kill him.

Besides, there was another reason why he did this. By the way, he could test his body. How strong was he? What side effects would he have after drinking this poisoned wine?

Sawyer was a little nervous at first. He wasn't afraid that he would expose himself. It was impossible. For this moment, he had been prepared for a long time. He thought he could do it perfectly. No matter how strong Tom's eyes were, they couldn't be seen.

What he was worried about was that Tom would be petty and not forgive him.

Fortunately, after Tom took the glass, he breathed a sigh of relief. He was right. As a God Becoming Level master, Tom was in his heyday and would not be petty in public.

And as long as Tom swallowed the poisoned wine, then Tom would be dead, because in this glass of wine, he put enough poison, which could completely poison a God Becoming Level master to death alive!

He was extremely excited at the thought of that scene.

Tom was now a hot and powerful figure. Ever since he killed The Great King in the Secret Realm, he was recognized as the chosen son of this era. In the future, he would definitely have unlimited achievements. It was not impossible that he would be the number one person in the world!

Such a person, in front of him, made him feel desperate. He knew his abilities. If he was a normal cultivator, he would not be able to catch up with Tom for the rest of his life, or even be thrown further and further away.

But now, he caught a chance to take Tom's luck!

As long as he poisoned Tom, then Tom's vigorous luck would naturally condense on him.

Once he had this kind of luck, he would definitely not be any worse than Tom.

When thought of this, he was extremely excited.

Unfortunately, what he did not expect was that his trick was completely known by Tom, and his poison would definitely not kill Tom.

On the contrary, he was the one who was going to be unlucky today.

Tom took the glass and smiled, "It seems that you really repented. OK. I forgive you."

"Thank you, Senior Mr. Howard!" Sawyer looked relieved and excited. He cupped his fists at Tom and looked straight at him, wanting to see him drink the glass of wine with his own eyes!

However, to his disappointment, Tom only took the glass of wine, but did not drink it immediately. Instead, he held it in his hand and began to talk with others.

This made him frown slightly, feeling a little nervous and anxious. If Tom didn't drink this glass of wine, then he wouldn't have a chance at all! With Tom's skills, even if there were a hundred of him, he is probably not an opponent.

Finally, he couldn't help saying, "Senior Mr.

Howard, you haven't drunk your wine yet."

Tom said lightly, "Oh, I drove over and it's not appropriate to drink."

Sawyer kept cursing in his heart, "Who are you kidding? With your status, even if you were drunk, who would dare to look into you? You obviously don't believe me!"

Sawyer had already scolded Tom all over in his heart, but on the surface, he did not dare to show a trace of dissatisfaction and anxiety, so he said eagerly, "Senior Mr. Howard, this glass of wine represents my sincerity and apology. If you don't drink it, I would felt really nervous. Before I came here, my father specially told me to treat you well and get your forgiveness, so..."

After he said this, he paused, looking sincere and earnest.

He spoke decently, and his acting skills were extremely superb. This was a person who was used to hypocrisy, so he acted so naturally.

Tom narrowed his eyes slightly and said, "Do you mean that it was your father's idea that you toasted me?"

Sawyer was in a hurry and did not analyze Tom's meaning carefully. He nodded subconsciously and said, "Yes, my father admires Senior Mr. Howard very much. He also said that when he is done, he will personally visit Senior Mr. Howard."

"Oh, is that so? It seems that I have to drink this glass of wine." He smiled and said with a meaningful expression, but no one could tell what was going on in his heart.

Then, he raised his glass and drank it under Sawyer's nervous and eager gaze.

Chapter 1186

After seeing him drink the poison, Sawyer finally breathed a sigh of relief!

The stone in his heart fell down!

Immediately, he couldn't help smiling smugly. Tom had drunk this poisoned wine, so he was doomed to die!

“Hmph, even if you are a master of God Becoming Level, even if you are the chosen son of this era, even if you are so powerful, so what? You will certainly be killed by me. After you die, your strength will naturally be condensed on me!”

At that time, me, Sawyer, will replace you and become the chosen son. Hahaha...

Sawyer was extremely happy, with his body morbidly red.

Camila clapped her hands beside him and said,

"Since the misunderstanding has been resolved, that's great. Mr. Mr. Howard, the dance party is about to begin. May I invite you to dance with me?"

She looked at Tom expectantly.

Tom put down his glass and shook his head.
"Sorry, I don't know how to dance."

Camila didn't give up, "I can teach you. You will definitely learn soon with your great coordination!"

As she spoke, she reached out to Tom to invite him to dance with her.

Everyone present was very envious. Especially those men who were more or less fond of Camila. Now they could tell that the girl they liked was obviously interested in Tom. So they were unhappy and jealous as well.

Sawyer was even more irritated!

He had known the girl for so long but he had never had a chance to invite her to dance. But now Camila invited Tom in front of so many people. Wasn't he slapping his face by himself?

However, he quickly calmed down and suppressed his anger. Anyway, Tom survived by no means. Why should he compare himself with a dead person?

Seeing Camila's enthusiasm, Tom could not refuse, so he accepted the invitation helplessly.

In fact, he knew how to dance and he had danced with Phoebe and other women...

Then again, over the past several years, many beautiful girls had chased her, but very few people who could accompany him to the end.

When Camila saw that Tom had agreed, she smiled and showed some shyness. It was her honor to be able to dance with a hero like Tom!

In particular, when her waist was held by Tom, the feeling of skin blind date made her blush even more and her heart beat faster. Both of them were so close that they could feel each other's body temperature.

Strangely enough, it was not the first time she had danced with a man. She had never lost her composure before. Why did she lose her composure dancing with Tom now? Even her legs felt numb, as if there was an electric current.

Tom didn't look good on the surface, but when he got closer, he found that Tom's body smelled very good, especially fresh, and full of vitality, especially the smell of male hormones on Tom's body. It was very strong, so Camila could feel his heart beating faster after smelling it. Her body reacted shyly, as if she was drunk!

Tom sensed her abnormality and asked, "Miss chen, are you feeling unwell?"

Camila quickly shook her head and felt the breath coming out of Tom's mouth. It hit her ear, making her blush even more. "No, no, I'm just a little nervous."

"Oh, really?" Tom smiled and began to move with a faint rhythm.

Camila had a good figure and was a beautiful woman, but to Tom, there was not much ripple, because he had seen too many beautiful women, and his resistance to women had already been trained.

Of course, dancing with a woman like Camila was a pleasant thing in itself.

As he danced, he let out his consciousness and felt Sawyer's emotions. It was jealousy, anger, excitement, a sneer, and at the same time, there was some doubt.

Yes, now Sawyer felt very strange. It had been less than ten minutes. Why was Tom still fine without any discomfort?

Logically speaking, it was only right for Tom to start suffering when the drug had taken effect and had taken effect, but Tom had nothing to do with it?

For some reason, he suddenly felt a little uneasy. He waved his hand, called a follower over, and said with a frown, "Didn't you say that it was the most deadly poison in the world? Even if he drank it in a trance, he had to drink hatred. How come these ten minutes have passed, and Tom still had nothing to do?"

The attendant was also a great master, and he had some doubts on his face. This poison was personally concocted by him. It could be said that it was his secret skill. Even a God Becoming Level master would die after drinking it. Moreover, generally speaking, it would attack in three minutes and die in five minutes.

But now that ten minutes had passed, Tom was still alive and kicking. It was really unreasonable!

Could it be that Tom's physique was better than ordinary God Becoming Level experts?

As soon as this idea appeared, he immediately abandoned it because he knew it was impossible!

This poison could kill an elephant in just a milligram, and he added five grams of it to the wine. Even if Tom was a god, he should be dead by now!

But now Tom was still alive and well, which made him puzzled.

"Maybe he found out and didn't drink it?" He asked tentatively.

Sawyer immediately denied it. "That's impossible! I watched him drink it with my own eyes. There was no possibility of vomiting it out. Would you..."

At this moment, all of a sudden, Tom, who was on the court, showed a painful expression on his face and fell down.

This sudden change shocked everyone present.

Especially for Camila, she was even more stunned, shocked and unable to react for a moment.

That's right. She had just danced well with Tom and enjoyed the process very much. Suddenly, Tom fell down, and her face was pale, without any blood color. Her expression was painful, and her body was still twitching, which made her look very scary.

"Ah!" Camila immediately squatted down and said hurriedly, "Mr. Howard, what's wrong with you? Why did this happen all of a sudden? Don't scare me..."

The others also gathered to watch.

Sawyer laughed arrogantly behind her. "Hahaha, you finally fell down. I really thought you were so powerful that you could even withstand the most deadly poison in the world."

Chapter 1187

Hearing his words, they suddenly realized that it was Sawyer who drugged Tom!

The poison was enough to kill a super master.

Camila's eyes widened. Watching Sawyer's madness, she could not understand why he did this!

The person he had drugged was Tom, the most outstanding and promising man in H Country.

Although she hadn't known Tom before, ever since she heard about his experience, she realized that he was the hope of the whole of H Country, who was definitely going to reach the peak of power in H Country in the future.

How dared Sawyer poison such a hero? How was he willing to do that?

Camila then gave Sawyer a hard slap in the face as soon as she had come to her senses. She scolded, "Sawyer, you bastard! This is senior Mr. Howard, the third expert of God Becoming Level in H Country. He is the hope of our country! How dared you poisoned him!"

Camila was furious. Although she had no feelings for Sawyer, she regarded him generally as a nice person. After all, Sawyer was not a bad guy.

She never expected that Sawyer would do such a crazy thing.

Sawyer was not angry after being slapped by her. Instead, he laughed in an extremely loud and crazy way. "Hahaha! The hope of H Country? Who said that? Even if he was the hope of H Country, so what? It's his fault for offending me. How dared he to steal my woman! If the world does have a genius, it could only be me, Sawyer!"

His face turned red and his eyes widened in extreme excitement when saying this. He looked completely crazy.

He felt excited to poison Tom, which made him tremble all over.

The others stepped back quickly, staring at him in fear.

At this time, Tom stood up slowly. His face was pale and there was blood flowing from the corner of his mouth. Breathless and dying, but he was still alive.

He struggled to stand up, stared at Sawyer, and said, "Just because I beat you up, you poisoned me?"

His expression didn't change much when asking the question. He did not panic because he had been poisoned, looking as calm as usual, which showed a sharp contrast to Sawyer's madness.

Sawyer's brows twitched. He hated Tom's calmness, which made him a clown in contrast!

Tom was younger than him. Why was he so much stronger? Sawyer thought to himself.

Besides, the real genius was him, Sawyer. It was him that should be the hope of H Country! Tom was simply lucky to achieve what he had achieved now!

He had already found out that Tom was as weak as an ant in the past.

If Tom hadn't eaten Heaven and Earth's Spiritual Fruit in snow mountains, he wouldn't have been in the bandit's dream. If he hadn't got help from the gathered energy of H Country on the Kungfu Cup, he wouldn't have reached Half-step God Becoming Level in such a short time, nor would he have been qualified to go to the Secret Realm and reached God Becoming Level!

In his opinion, Tom was just a nidering, who was beneath him.

That Tom had become someone he had to look up to really made him very unpleasant!

In particular, Tom had humiliated him so much on that day. How dared he to do that? How!

Since Tom had done things like that, he should die!

He had made up his mind. As long as Tom died of poison, he could definitely get Tom's power. By then, he would be able to replace Tom.

As for the crime of poisoning an expert of God Becoming Level, it would be nothing for a man who was about to become an expert of God Becoming Level.

He did make H Country lose an expert of God Becoming Level, but he could become one soon. Fair enough, right?

So, this was a foolproof plan. He was even grateful to Camila. If this woman hadn't hooked up with Tom, he probably wouldn't have had this chance in his life!

He had had everything well planned except one, which was he underestimated Tom!

Of course, his poison was strong. That glass of wine just now was enough to poison tens of thousands of people.

How could Tom survive?

Indeed, if it had been for an ordinary expert of God Becoming Level such as Albert, he would have been killed.

Unfortunately, this person was Tom, who had swallowed a hundred fruits and changed himself from head to toe and from inside out. He had been newly born from all he had gone through. This poison could not kill him.

However, the poison was surely very strong. Tom was not dead but suffered from pain so hard. He felt that his stomach was about to burn.

"Your plan is good, but it didn't deceive me. I knew you were going to poison me from the moment you appeared." Tom closed his eyes, trying to digest the poison in his stomach to prevent it from spreading out.

He was out of danger now, and he had a clearer understanding of his own body.

Sawyer was stunned after hearing this. His face was filled with fear. "No, you couldn't possibly know that I..."

But immediately, he came back to his senses. So what if Tom had known? Anyway, he had already swallowed the poison. He would be dead.

Thinking of this, he regained his composure and said with a sneer, "Hah, you're dying. Don't try to fool me. If you knew I was going to poison you, how dare you to drink my wine?"

Tom still kept his eyes closed. He said coldly, "I'm just testing my body. Poisonous wine like this is nothing to me."

For some reason, Sawyer felt frightened after hearing this. What frightened him the most was the calmness on Tom's face. He didn't seem to be desperate at all.

On the contrary, it seemed that he was very confident about winning.

Chapter 1188

"Impossible! Absolutely impossible!" He immediately shook his head and said, "Hmph, Tom, don't think you can fool me. You're just struggling for a way out. Do you think you can scare me like this? The glass of wine I gave you was poisonous enough to poison tens of thousands of people to death. Even if you are a God Becoming Level master, once it gets into your stomach, there is no way to save you!"

After a pause, he added, "But I was a little surprised that you could hold on for so long. You are quite good among the God Becoming Level."

Hearing this, Camila couldn't help but accuse him again. She pointed at Sawyer and her fingers trembled with anger. "Sawyer, you! You are so brute! How could you do this! Senior Mr. Howard is the backbone of H Country! You killed him, and you are destroying the foundation of H Country!"

After that, she wanted to hit Sawyer again, but this time, Sawyer would not give her a chance and scolded her directly. "Enough!"

Then he grabbed Camila's hand and said coldly, "Camila, you bitch, don't think I don't know. You are in love with Tom! You acted like you were pure and innocent, but you're just a slut in your bones. You've only met Tom a few times and you've already secretly fallen in love with him. Do you really think I don't know?"

When Camila heard this, her face turned red. "Sawyer, you are talking nonsense! You, let go of me, you're hurting me..."

Camila looked pained. She did not practice martial arts. She was just a weak woman with very little strength. In front of a Half-step God Becoming Level master like Sawyer, she naturally had no power to resist.

Sawyer did not argue with her anymore. He just snorted coldly and pushed her away. The latter staggered to the ground with red eyes.

"Senior Mr. Howard, I'm sorry, I'm sorry. I didn't know this would happen. I'm really sorry..."

Camila's face was full of tears, and her eyes were filled with regret, guilt, and pain. This time, she invited Tom over. She really just wanted to get to know Tom and get closer to him. She really didn't expect this to happen!

Tom was going to die here, and it was all her fault.

Tom finally opened his eyes and looked at Camila. He shook his head slowly and said, "Miss Chen, you are a good person. In the future, you should stay away from people like Sawyer."

Camila shook her head desperately, but she was speechless, because she was really guilty and in pain, thinking that she indirectly killed Tom.

Sawyer was very complacent. He was very happy to see Tom, a hero, now dying in his hand. He was the most genius in H Country, a God Becoming Level master, and was about to die in his hands. How exciting!

"Tom, I can tell that you want to live. I happen to have the antidote in my hand. If you kneel in front of me and beg for my forgiveness, I can give you the antidote." Sawyer said complacently. In his opinion, Tom's life was already at his mercy, and he could tease Tom at will.

However, at this moment, Tom sneered. His originally bent body slowly stood up straight, and his originally pale face gradually returned to its color.

He didn't look as weak as before.

It was as if he had just recovered from a serious illness!

Seeing this, Sawyer's brows twitched violently. Suddenly, he had a bad feeling, but he suppressed it because he still believed rationally that no one in the world could live after taking that cup of poison, not even a God Becoming Level master!

Tom took a deep breath, twisted his neck, and said, "I underestimated you, underestimated your courage, underestimated your madness, and underestimated your boldness."

Everyone at the party looked at Tom.

What happened tonight was unexpected for all of them.

Then, Tom continued, "Your cup of poison is indeed very powerful, but unfortunately, it won't kill me. Just now, when I was the weakest, if you didn't tease me and just killed me directly, I might really die in your hands."

At this point, he shook his head, looking very pitiful. "It's a pity that you wasted this opportunity."

Hearing this, Sawyer's foreboding became even stronger, and at the same time, his eyebrows were constantly twitching!

He had an urge to run away.

However, he managed to control himself.

"Tom, you're just struggling, and you want to continue lying to me? I've given you a chance. Since you don't cherish it, then go to hell!" Sawyer's expression was a little ferocious, and then he started to attack Tom.

What Tom said just now really scared him. If Tom could really resist the poison, then this consequence was not something he could bear. So at this time, he could no longer be complacent and attacked Tom. He wanted to end it before it got out of his hands.

It had to be said that his strength was still very strong. At this age, being able to reach Half-step God Becoming Level, he was indeed outstanding.

His speed was so fast that no one in the room could react. The dagger in his hand, the tip of the knife, was already in front of Tom!

He just went for Tom's neck. He wanted to kill him with one attack!

At this time, Tom did not react much. He just lowered his head slightly, looking like he was nodding. He actually disarmed Sawyer with his chin and chest!

Moreover, it was as if the dagger was in concrete, making it impossible for Sawyer to go any further.

At the same time, there was also a clang of metal crashing into each other. You could tell how strong the collision was just by the sound of it!

But, in fact, Sawyer didn't kill Tom, but was stuck!

This was extremely shocking to everyone.

As for Sawyer himself, he was scared that he couldn't feel his head, and his goosebumps stood up!

He found out now that Tom was not hurt at all!

But how could it be? Was that cup of poison fake?

That was impossible!

Or was Tom really that strong to be like superman?

These thoughts flashed through his mind. No matter what, he now realized that his plan had failed.

Fortunately, he had also experienced countless battles, and his reaction was extremely fast. Once he failed to hit, he immediately retreated and turned to run.

Unfortunately, could he run away in front of Tom?

Chapter 1189

Of course he couldn't.

Sawyer was only a Half-step God Becoming Level expert. There were no more than five people in the world who could escape from Tom's hands.

It had to be said that Sawyer's reaction was very fast, and he was quite decisive. As soon as he had made up his mind to escape, he made a swift escape. If it was just an ordinary expert at God Becoming Level, it was really possible for Sawyer to run away.

However, in front of a master like Tom, Sawyer wouldn't be possible to run away.

In an instant, Sawyer could only feel a huge pressure coming from behind him. It was as if he was escaping from the tsunami. The despair and fear would drown him at any moment.

However, before he could react, he felt his body

However, before he could react, he felt his body lighten and his legs off the ground. Then, he felt the pain in his neck. It turned out that he was lifted by Tom.

Then, he heard Tom's disdainful voice. "You are just a nobody. You won't be able to run away."

Then, He suddenly felt his body fly sideways, violently.

The speed was too fast. This speed was faster than he had just escaped!

Before he could react, he felt his body slamming against the wall with a loud bang.

He knocked down the solid wall with a bang, but his speed was only reduced a little. Then, there were a few more bangs. His body was like a shell, constantly knocking the wall in front of him down!

It was not until he had knocked down five walls that he stopped.

At that time, he felt his body falling apart, his internal organs destroyed. He opened his mouth and kept spitting out blood.

The scene was silent.

Everyone was dumbfounded and did not expect Tom to be so strong.

He threw Sawyer out like garbage and destroyed so many walls, which shocked them all.

A lot of people were so scared that they even dropped things. When they looked at Tom again, they only felt cold all over. They were extremely fearful.

Even Camila's mouth was wide open now. She knew Tom was strong, but she had no idea how strong he was.

But now, she finally saw it.

After all this, Tom just seemed to have done something insignificant.

At this moment, a voice came. "Please forgive me, Tom..."

This was a middle-aged man's voice, which was full of vitality and very sonorous.

But he stopped before he finished his words because he saw that Tom had already made an attack, and he saw Sawyer, who was vomiting blood on the ground and dying.

At this time, the middle-aged man finally appeared, and everyone noticed that the middle-aged man looked somewhat like Sawyer.

And the aura on this middle-aged man was very strong. It was obvious that he was not an ordinary person, but a big shot.

In fact, many people present recognized him when they saw him. The middle-aged man in front of them was Sawyer's father, Kannon.

Kannon was also a God Becoming Level expert.

But he was not from H Country, but a God Becoming Level strongman in the neighboring country.

However, he was quiet influential in H Country. He looked like a person from H Country and spoke fluent language of H Country.

He had lived in H Country since he was a child and had a unique feeling for H Country, so he married a woman from H Country and they had a son, Sawyer.

In fact, he had more than 20 children, but his favorite was Sawyer. It was only because Sawyer was talented enough. So he had high hopes for Sawyer.

Ever since Sawyer was a child, he trained Sawyer and hoped for his son to succeed.

In fact, Sawyer did not disappoint him. He showed his incomparable talent early on and his cultivation progressed by leaps and bounds.

But now, Kannon saw his precious son lying on the ground and looking at him with absolute pain, helplessness, despair, and even a little resentment.

At this moment, Kannon's body shook violently!

It seemed that Sawyer was saying, "Why didn't you appear earlier? If you had appeared earlier, I wouldn't have been beaten like this!"

Suddenly, he felt a surge of unprecedented fury!

He shouted hysterically, "Tom!!! You dare to hurt my son! Go to hell!!

He shouted, and his words were full of power. At this moment, all his imposing manner as a God Becoming Level expert was released. In an instant, it swept across the entire venue, causing countless people to collapse and fall down. Some people with heart disease were even scared to death on the spot.

This showed how terrifying Kannon was.

After all, Kannon was also a God Becoming Level expert!

And he was the God of War of his country. In H Country, no one dared not respect him!

He was even God of War, Albert's equal.

And now, his son was beaten like this by this young man!

He immediately felt angry, resentful and irrational.

In his opinion, no matter how powerful Tom was, he was only a junior. How could Tom be arrogant in front of him, a top expert at God Becoming Level?

So he had a strong impulse to kill Tom.

As soon as he had this impulse, he couldn't control himself anymore. He directly attacked Tom with lightning speed. It seemed that there was a scorching sun that was about to burn Tom directly.

In the entire H Country, no one dared to underestimate him.

He made a fierce attack, and he was determined to kill Tom.

When Tom saw this, he only narrowed his eyes slightly and said coolly, "You're risking your neck."

Kannon was even angrier when he heard this. He was determined to kill Tom, and he was already in front of Tom. His punch was a hundred times heavier than the shell fired by the tank, which hit Tom's chest hard.

Bang!

Tom was hit.

Kannon was overjoyed.

But the next moment, he felt something was wrong because he did not hear Tom's screams.

Chapter 1190

What was going on?!

He was stunned all of a sudden, completely unable to believe it. How could Tom bear his punch? Was there something wrong with it?

Even Albert didn't dare to fight his punch.

But now, the young man in front of him actually bore his punch!

What was wrong?

Even though he had lived so long and experienced countless battles, he had never encountered such a thing.

At the same time, all the tiles and the entire land under Tom's feet could not bear this huge blow and directly broke with a bang!

It was not a crack, but a collapse. With Tom as the center, all the tiles and floors in the nearby tens of meters were broken.

It was as if the ground had been plowed by an excavator.

Everyone present was shocked.

The scene immediately became chaotic.

It turned out that Tom had shifted 90% of the strength of Kannon's punch to his legs just now, so that Tom could remain steadfast.

Of course, Kannon's punch was very hard, and Tom felt a pain in his chest.

However, that was all. Except for that, Tom was not injured at all.

It gave Tom a clearer understanding of the strength of his own body.

After he swallowed a hundred fruits, his current body was really invulnerable.

"Your strength is not bad. It hurts me. But this is the only chance you have. Next, it's my turn."

Tom said calmly.

Hearing this, Sawyer looked at Tom's calm face, his eyebrows twitching, and he blurted out, "That's impossible!!!"

Sawyer was so shocked that his voice broke.

This was the first time he had lost his composure like this since he broke through to the God Becoming Level.

He looked at Tom as if he was no longer looking at a person, but at a monster.

Yes, only monsters had such strong bodies!

He was not an ordinary person, nor a master at Half-step God Becoming Level, but a veritable master at God Becoming Level. He was one of a few people who could stand at the peak of this world.

At his level, he alone could stand an army that had always been fully equipped.

However, with one punch, he didn't hurt Tom at all.

He immediately realized that the young man in front of him had entered a realm he could not understand at all.

Tom's reaction was even faster than Sawyer's. With the recoil force, Kannon turned around and ran away.

Kannon's speed was many times faster than Sawyer's.

They were really father and son. Even their postures of running away were so similar.

However, it was absolutely impossible for Kannon and Sawyer to escape in front of Tom.

In the blink of an eye, Tom had already caught up with Kannon. He grabbed Kannon's neck behind his back and lifted him up like lifting a chick.

"You, you, you..."

Kannon felt himself being lifted up and felt Tom's terrifying strength. He was speechless.

At the same time, he also felt that Tom was almost killing him!

"Tom, spare me!"

At this time, he couldn't care about his status and dignity, and he had to beg for mercy.

Because he really didn't want to die.

But could Tom give him this chance?

Just as Tom was about to strike, he felt a familiar aura, followed by a familiar voice, "Tom, don't!"

Hearing this voice, Tom sighed and put down Kannon.

Soon, two people appeared at the scene. They were Albert and Legend.

It was Albert who stopped him just now.

It was only Albert who could stop Tom. If anyone else came, they would not be able to stop him.

When Legend saw the scene and Kannon who was extremely embarrassed, his eyebrows twitched twice. Even Legend was shocked!

Kannon, the senior Strong, couldn't even bear a single move from Tom. How terrifying was Tom's strength?

But soon Legend was relieved. After all, Tom had swallowed a hundred fruits.

In the Secret Realm, Legend had only swallowed two fruits, and now he had such great power, let alone Tom who had swallowed a hundred fruits.

At this time, Legend was very disappointed. Originally, he was also one of the top geniuses, with a fearless heart, thinking that there was no one in the world that he could not surpass.

However, ever since Tom appeared, Legend had no such thoughts anymore, because Tom was so strong and he improved so fast that Legend couldn't catch up with Tom at all.

Originally, he thought that after entering the Secret Realm, he could have an opportunity to surpass Tom. But the result was that the gap between him and Tom was even bigger, to a point that Legend could never surpass in his whole life!

However, Legend soon accepted the fact and was relieved.

Albert was also a little surprised, but he quickly calmed down and said to Tom, "Tom, we're confronted with a formidable enemy now, but there are few strong masters at God Becoming Level in our Secular World. Please be magnanimous and spare Kannon's life!"

When Tom heard this, he sighed slightly and said, "Senior Campbell, I know that we're confronted with a formidable enemy and we should put the interests of the whole above everything else, but you didn't see what happened just now. Whether it's Sawyer or Kannon, they all want to kill me."

When Sawyer and Kannon on the ground heard this, they couldn't help but lower their heads.

Albert also sighed and said, "Tom, I know you feel wronged, but... Alas, it's up to you. Sawyer and Kannon are indeed looking for death."

After saying this, Albert walked aside.

When Kannon saw his action, Kannon's brows twitched and he said quickly, "Brother Campbell, you can't stand by and see me die. I..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Albert mercilessly interrupted him, pointed at him and scolded, "Kannon, you old thing! You still have the face to beg for mercy! Don't you know what your son is? He knows that Tom is the support of our H Country, but he still wanted to poison Tom! How sinister he is! You didn't stop your son and even helped him. You deserve to die!"
