

Chapter 27

Warning- Mature/Sexual Content!

Nicola's POV

Alex has no reason to be on ECHO pack territory and him randomly showing up when we've just had a security breach has me concerned. He notices the alarm on my face and puts both hands up in the air.

"I have nothing to do with the attack. Alpha Knight recently visited my pack and we discovered there was a hidden message left from the notes . We ended up putting a few words together, but not enough to know what was actually planned. All we knew was that something would happen on a full moon and it involved someone he loved. At first it confused me, but the more I thought about it, it started to click. I saw the way you both look at each other. It's you." He cocks his head and takes a step forward.

"If you knew what was going to happen, why didn't you tell him? Where is he?" I ask shakily.

"Because, I needed to see for myself if it was true." His eyes are calculating as he circles me.

I go to speak, but as I do, another wave of pain hits, causing me to grab my stomach and I try to walk over to my fallen tree. He grabs my arm to steady me, looking concerned and slightly confused at the same time. My breathing becomes labored as I stare at his hand pressed against my warm skin. My body desperately craves a man's touch and his eyes widen in realization.

"You're in heat." His voice drops low and his eyes start to become darker. "I want you Nicola, I want you as mine."

"Wa- wait. Alex." I stammer trying to take a step back.

He pulls me to him and presses his nose into my neck as he breaths in deeply. "You smell so damn good." He purrs low.

His body against mine feels amazing but my mind and wolf keep screaming no. I try to push him off of me but he doesn't budge, his hold too strong.

"Please don't Alex." I whimper.

"I can help you, Nicola, let me. I can make the pain go away." He begins to press a kisses to my neck.

"No!" I cry out as I shove harder against his him.

As I continue to fight him, a loud snarl rips through the forest and we both freeze. Alex whips around to see a large charcoal grey wolf 20 yards away, murder in his eyes.

Zander.

He shifts back into his human form and Freya purrs as we stare at our naked mate in front of us. He looks heavenly but the rage in his eyes says he's anything but.

"Leave right now before I kill you." Zander spits out.

Alex's body quivers and his breath comes out in spurts as he looks to me and back at Zander. His animal's instincts are clashing together as his wolf desires to mate but also back down and obey the alpha king.

"No." Alex grinds out through clenched teeth as he stares at me. It's obvious his want is overpowering the call to submit. There's no doubt he's a strong alpha, but he's not as strong as Zander.

He's suddenly thrown against a tree as Zander's hand wraps around his neck.

"No one touches my fucking mate!" He snaps and bares his teeth.

Alex kicks Zander off and proceeds to launch himself at him. Both bodies collide as two of the strongest alphas go for each other's throats. The gut wrenching sound of claws and teeth ripping through flesh is heard as blood flies through the air.

"Stop!!" I shout, hoping to cease the fighting but it just grows more intense.

A painful yelp echoes through the air as Zander hovers over Alex's body. A deep gash is sliced across his ribs as Zander reaches down to crush his throat and end his life.

"No!" I sob as another agonizing wave rips through my body. I know what Alex did was wrong, but I don't want to see him killed. He still has a pack to lead.

Zander immediately stops and rushes over as I slide to the ground.

"Shhh baby. It's okay, I'm here." He whispers as his arms snake around me.

His touch is soothing and I sigh as I instantly feel some relief from the intensity. Looking past Zander's body, I immediately notice that Alex is no longer on the ground and has disappeared. He finally accepted he was going to lose and it was smart of him to run while he still could.

He carries me as he walks and I bury my face into his chest, savoring his touch. We come to a small clearing covered in clover and he sets me down in the grass. I look his body over and see his deep cuts are already half way healed.

"Zander." My voice is breathy as I reach out to touch a wound that has now turned to fresh pink skin.

He grabs my fingers and I sit up so I can crawl into his lap. I crave his touch and my lower abdomen clenches together tightly, desperate for relief. I throw my legs over his waist to straddle him as I press my lips against his and run my fingers into his hair.

"I need you." I moan and his grip on me tightens.

"Not here." He groans but makes no move to stop me.

"Please, I cant wait."

He tears my shirt off and I can feel him rock hard beneath me. His mouth closes around my breast and I throw my head back as I groan his name. He continues to do the same to the other and my pants become more desperate as warmth pools between my legs.

Laying me back, he continues to remove the remainder of my clothing with quick, efficient movements. His tongue trails up my stomach to my neck and he stops to bite lightly.

"I want you so bad." He whispers in my ear, sending shiver down my spine.

He continues to suck on my neck as my body begs him to take me. I grab the back of his head and pull his mouth to mine as I let out another moan.

"Please." I'm desperate for him.

"Are you sure you want this? This wasn't exactly how I imagined our first time." He asks as he pulls back to look deep into my eyes.

I reach out and grip him between his legs and begin to slowly stroke him up and down. He growls as he closes his eyes and bites his lip, turning me on even more.

"Yes." I say and he opens his eyes to meet mine.

He nods to me and starts to lower his body down. Our chests pressed against each other as he continues to stare deep into my eyes and I get lost in his green ones. He slowly slides into me and I gasp as I feel how large he is. They always say the first time hurts but I feel no pain what so ever. Actually, all the pain has completely gone away and I'm left in pure ecstasy.

My fingers dig into his shoulders and I toss my head back as he trails kisses down my neck.

"My sweet love." He whispers and kisses my lips tenderly.

Soon he starts to pick up his pace and I can feel myself starting to build with the movements.

"Zander. More." I pant and he growls with lust.

His eyes grow dark and I can see his wolf trying to push through as his teeth elongate.

"I want to mark you." He says and I nod my head frantically, wanting the same thing.

He pulls out and I whimper from the loss of his body, but he quickly grabs my waist and flips me over. He's pressed against my back as he reaches out over my head and entwines our fingers together before entering me again. The change of position has me crying out with pleasure as I squeeze his hands tighter.

His tongue slowly trails up my shoulder to the spot on my neck where his mark will be. He swirls around a few times and grazes the spot with his teeth as I feel myself clench down around him.

"Oh god, Zander, I'm- I-" I pant.

He sinks his teeth into my neck and I lose all control. I scream his name as he pushes deeper into me and for a while the world around me fades as every nerve in my body is hyper of only one thing. Him.

He licks my neck clean before pulling out and turns over to pull me on top of him. My hands go to his chest and my mouth attacks his as I mount him, slowly moving against his hips. In no time, his groans become more animalistic and I can tell he's getting close as his body starts to tense. My teeth ache to mark him as I lean down to suck on his skin.

"Fuckkk, baby yes." He growls out and I'm find myself close to another orgasm.

My wolf pushes forward as I bite down on his neck, marking him just as he did me. I can feel him swell inside me and his body rigid as we both go over the edge together. The pleasure he feels also surges through my body and I hear his wolf howling in my head.

I slowly crawl off of him and we both flop on our backs, trying to catch our breaths as we turn and stare at each other in utter amazement. I can feel the new bond that's been created and there's only one word to describe it.
