

The World 241

Chapter 241: Elven Oyakodon (2)

Artemis looked up at me with eyes brimming with tears, while Solaris, positioned above her, gazed at me with a mix of curiosity and eagerness, silently asking, 'What's next?'

There was no need for words to articulate our intentions. We all understood what was about to unfold.

"Solaris, lift your hips a little," I directed.

Solaris smiled mischievously and arched her back, granting me easy access. With a deft motion, I unzipped my pants, pulling them down along with my underwear. My dick sprang into view, and Solaris gasped in awe.

"Wow, it's so big~" Solaris exclaimed breathlessly. "I've never seen a penis before, so I'm not sure about average sizes, but this is enormous. Is this what you use to conquer my daughter's butt, Leon?"

"Do you want to find out?" I teased, pressing the tip of my dick against Solaris's tight asshole. The pink ring of muscle twitched under the gentle pressure.

"Ahh... B-But maybe we could save that for another time," Solaris stammered, her voice a mix of excitement and hesitation. "Why not use the regular hole first? It's been ready and wet for a while now."

"N-No! U-Use mine first, Leon!" Artemis's voice trembled with urgency and desire. "I'm sure you'd prefer someone younger compared to that hag who probably has cobwebs in her because she remained a virgin for millennia."

Solaris shot her a heated glance. "I may be a virgin when it comes to penetration," she retorted, her voice dripping with confidence, "but I've had my fair share of sex with women. There might not be penetration involved, but I don't have cobwebs in my vagina like you, who's literally a virgin in every sense of the word."

Both of them were bickering again, arguing over who should go first.

"Don't worry, I'll devour you both at the same time," I said with a smirk, my voice dripping with anticipation.

This was an oyakodon, and it was only natural that I would indulge in it. After all, it was served up for me.

I positioned my dick against Artemis's wet folds, feeling the heat radiating from her pussy. With a deliberate thrust, I pushed myself inside her, feeling her tight walls grip me.

"Hnnn?!" she gasped, her body tensing as I filled her completely, her eyes wide with a mix of shock and pleasure.

I didn't feel the usual resistance that's supposed to be there, but then again, women's hymens differ. Some don't even exist; they can break from masturbation, excessive exercise, or just disappear over time. Artemis probably didn't have hers anymore because of her centuries-old age.

"Aaah... L-Leon's dick... It's finally inside me..." Artemis moaned softly, her fingers tracing the contours of her crotch, her body arching slightly in pleasure.

"Aw, how could you, Leon..." Solaris pouted, her gaze fixated on me as she turned back, her lips forming a small frown. "I wanted to go first."

I withdrew from Artemis and without a word, I thrust into Solaris.

"Hnngg?!"

Her pussy wasn't as tight as Artemis's, but as expected of a mother and daughter, they had the exact same feel.

"I told you, didn't I? I'll devour both of you at the same time."

As I spoke, both of them looked at me with sultry, eager smiles, their eyes gleaming with anticipation and desire.

I gripped Solaris's hips firmly and began to ravage them both, switching back and forth with rapid, precise movements.

"Ahhh, ahhnn, ahhh!"

"Fuuaahn, aahhh! W-What is this?!"

Their bodies, untouched by others but devoid of hymens, responded with pure pleasure instead of pain. Even though it was their first time, they were caught in the throes of ecstasy.

"Aaah, e-even though he's thrusting once and pulling out, he's doing it so fast, I barely notice him pulling out! Ahhhnnggg~!" Solaris moaned, her voice trembling with each thrust.

"I can barely tell when he's switching between us! Ahhhnn~!" Artemis gasped, her voice quivering with delight, eyes rolling back as waves of pleasure coursed through her body.

As I thrust into them alternately, the two beauties leaned in and kissed each other passionately. Their tongues danced together, lips locked in a sensual embrace. The sight of their lewd kiss, their mouths moving hungrily against each other, made my arousal skyrocket.

I kept pounding them, alternating between their eager pussies with relentless intensity. Their bodies trembled under my touch, their moans growing louder and more desperate.

"Nnnn, hmmmnn, nmmmnn~!" Artemis moaned, her voice vibrating with every thrust.

"Mmmnn, hmmm..." Solaris responded, her hips bucking back against me, craving more of my cock.

The muffled sounds of their pleasure, the sight of their intertwined, sweat-slicked bodies, and the feeling of their tight, wet pussies gripping my dick drove me wild. Each thrust became more powerful, more demanding, as I pushed them both closer to the edge. Their eyes fluttered, their breaths quickened, and I knew they were both close to cumming.

The wetness and slickness of their pussies as I thrust into them alternately was mind-blowing, making it hard to believe I was entering two different holes at all. Each time I switched, it felt like I was plunging into one continuous, velvety tunnel. Their pussies had different tightness, but the similarities in their heat and grip were uncanny.

Then, I felt it. The surge of pleasure building from the tips of my toes, rushing towards my groin. They were tightening around me too, their bodies responding to the impending climax, making my dick throb with need.

My grip on Solaris's hips tightened, my fingers digging into her soft, supple flesh. I increased the intensity of my thrusts, driving into them harder and faster. The sound of skin slapping against skin filled the room, mixing with their desperate, needy moans.

"Mnnnh! Hmnn! Hmmm!" Artemis moaned, her voice high and needy, her body trembling under the relentless assault.

"Hnnn~! Hmmm! Hmmm!" Solaris echoed, her hips bucking back against me with frantic desire, her juices dripping down her thighs.

Their moans were a symphony of lust, raw and primal, urging me on. I could feel the tension building in my core, the pressure mounting as I pounded into them with abandon. The sensation of their slick, tight pussies gripping my dick was driving me wild, pushing me closer to the edge.

With each thrust, I felt my climax approaching, the pleasure spiraling higher and higher. I could barely hold back, the need to cum overwhelming. My hands clenched around Solaris's hips, my body tensing as I prepared to unleash the torrent of cum building inside me.

And then, I finally busted my nut. The cum surged into Artemis's pussy.

"Fuhaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa~!!!"

When she felt the scorching hot cum burning her womb, she broke away from Solaris's lips, arched her back, and let out a moan-like scream. Her tongue lolled out of her mouth, eyes rolling back in ecstasy.

The sheer volume of cum flooding her pussy made Artemis shudder, her tight walls spasming around my throbbing dick, milking every last drop. The sensation of her contracting around me was pure bliss, driving me to pump even more into her, filling her up until it overflowed.

After a while of pumping my seed inside Artemis, I pulled out and immediately thrust into Solaris.

"Nnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnn!!!"

Solaris arched her back, her pussy eagerly sucking me in. She released a stifled moan through gritted teeth, her body trembling in anticipation. The contrast between Artemis's tightness and Solaris's welcoming warmth was intoxicating, driving me wild with lust.

Her pussy enveloped me completely, and I began to pound into her with relentless force. Her moans grew louder, more desperate, matching the rhythm of my thrusts.

After giving them both their shares of cum, I placed my dick between their wet, slick pussies and shot my thick, white load all over their stomachs.

Their bodies trembled, covered in my cum, their faces a mix of exhaustion and satisfaction. The sight of them, cum dripping from their pussies and smeared across their bellies, was enough to make my dick twitch again. The air was thick with the scent of sex and sweat.

My hands roamed over their bodies, feeling the slickness of their sweat and cum, savoring the softness of their skin. Artemis and Solaris looked at each other, then at me, their eyes filled with a mix of love, lust, and satisfaction.

"The night is still young," I grinned, my voice filled with anticipation. "Let's move on to the next round so we can enjoy ourselves even more."

"You're so full of energy, Leon. I think you might get me pregnant sooner than I expected," Solaris gasped, her breath heavy as she leaned against Artemis, their bodies flushed with desire.

"As expected of Leon..." Artemis panted, her voice laced with excitement. "D-Do you want to do it in the same position?" she asked, her eyes gleaming with lust.

"Yeah, but let's change it up a bit this time," I replied with a mischievous glint in my eyes, surveying their exposed buttocks.

An idea sparked in my mind.

I made a slight adjustment until I found the perfect position I desired.

"T-This is somewhat embarrassing..." Artemis hesitated, her cheeks flushed.

With everything arranged just right, I had complete access to all four inviting holes. Anticipation surged through me, causing me to lick my lips hungrily. I positioned my dick against Solaris's buttock, ready to proceed.

Chapter 242: Elven Oyakodon (3)

"W-Wait, that's the wrong hole, Leon! That's something that can't make me pregnant!" Solaris gasped, feeling her ring of muscle expand as my thick dick slowly pushed into her tight entrance.

The tip of my dick pushed through her resistance, but the tightness was intense, making it tough to go deeper. As expected, her ass was incredibly tight since she hadn't been prepped. But this was just the beginning, a way to loosen her up. I wasn't planning to go all the way just yet. I pulled out slowly, savoring the sensation, then thrust into Solaris's pussy instead.

"Ahnnn! I-If you put it in so suddenly like that...!" she moaned, her body shuddering with the abrupt penetration.

After entering Solaris, I bent down further and thrust into Artemis's dripping wet pussy. It was so slick that my dick slid all the way in without any resistance.

"T-There it is! The dick is inside me!" Artemis moaned, her voice trembling with excitement.

I only stayed inside Artemis for a moment before pulling out. She whined in disappointment, but I quickly repositioned and thrust into her tight asshole instead.

"Ngh?! L-Leon, that hole is...!" Artemis gasped, her eyes widening as I entered her tight backdoor.

Her experience from the previous night made the entry smoother than it was with Solaris, whose inexperience made her tighter. The combined wetness of their juices coated my dick, making it easy to slide in and out.

Just as before, I pulled out after a few moments and shifted my focus back to Artemis's dripping pussy. Her wetness welcomed me eagerly.

"Ahhhnnn! Y-You're switching between my holes!" she moaned, her voice trembling with pleasure.

"Aw, you're the only one getting attention," Solaris pouted, looking back at me with longing eyes

"Don't worry, you'll get your turn... soon!" I promised, my voice thick with desire, as I pulled out and then thrust my dick into her soaking wet pussy.

"Higuhnnnnnnnnnn~!!" Solaris moaned, her voice a symphony of pleasure and surprise.

Her pussy easily yielded, stretching to accommodate my girth. The slick wetness and her quivering walls hugged my dick tightly, the warmth enveloping me like hot butter. Each movement sent waves of heat coursing through my body.

I pulled out again, watching her tremble with anticipation. This time, I aimed my dick at her tight asshole, the tip pressing against the taut ring of muscle.

"L-Leon! T-That hole is...!" Solaris gasped, her voice quivering as I began to pry it open, pushing deeper inch by inch, feeling her resistance give way.

"Relax," I murmured, my voice a deep, calming rumble. "Just let it happen. Tonight, I'm going to claim both of your holes and make them mine. I'll make sure they mold to my shape. You're going to be mine in every way."

"B-But...!" Solaris's voice trembled, a mixture of fear and anticipation threading through her words.

"Relax, Mother, and it will go smoothly. It's good in the ass too, you know," Artemis whispered, hugging Solaris tightly, her arms restraining any attempt to squirm away.

I pushed further, inch by inch, feeling the tight ring of muscle yield to my girth. Slowly, gradually, her resistance melted away until...

"Ah! H-His dick... His dick is inside my ass!" Solaris exclaimed, her voice a blend of shock and pleasure as I filled her completely. The heat and tightness of her ass enveloped me, sending shivers of ecstasy down my spine.

"Leon," Artemis said, her voice dripping with mischief as she held Solaris tightly. "Make her cum using her ass." A wicked grin spread across her face. I matched it with one of my own, feeling the heat of the moment intensify.

I gripped Solaris's hips firmly, feeling her body tense beneath my touch. Slowly, I began to thrust in and out of her tight asshole, my movements deliberate and steady.

"Hnnn?! Nnnhh! Hnggg! I-It hurts, Leon! It hurtssss!" she cried out, her voice a mix of pain and raw desire.

"It'll feel good soon enough, Mother," Artemis reassured her, her voice a sultry purr. And then, without warning...

"Hnngg?! W-What? A-Artemis, don't suck my nipple right now!" Solaris's protest was breathless and shaky as Artemis's mouth found her nipple, her tongue swirling and teasing the sensitive flesh.

"What? This is a threesome, Mother. It's expected that we all pleasure each other," Artemis said, her voice dripping with seduction as she continued to tease Solaris's sensitive breasts. "Besides, your breasts are so lovely. Even as your daughter, I can't help but be jealous. And you're stunningly beautiful.

Sometimes I think I'm not even worthy to be your daughter."

"H-Huh? B-But you are! I mean, you came out of my womb! W-Wait, Leon, please don't thrust while...! Hnnnng~!"

"But seeing you like this, Mother, getting fucked in the ass and loving it, I know for sure. You are my mother."

"A-Artemis... Hnngg, hyaaan~!"

Artemis resumed sucking Solaris's nipples, her tongue and lips working in perfect harmony to drive her wild. Solaris's body trembled with every thrust I made, her tight asshole gripping my dick with an intensity that made me groan in pleasure.

I watched Artemis's mouth move expertly over Solaris's breasts, each flick of her tongue making Solaris's moans louder, more desperate. The combination of sensations overwhelmed Solaris, pushing her closer to the edge.

"Ahhhn, ahhhhn, hyaaaaa~!"

I quickened my pace, thrusting deeper, harder, feeling Solaris's body arch and writhe beneath me. The pleasure was overwhelming, the intensity of the moment driving us all to the brink of ecstasy.

"That's it, Solaris," I murmured, my voice rough with desire. "Let yourself go. Feel the pleasure. Embrace it."

"Hnnng! Ahhhn, ahh, ah, ahhh, ahhh, ahhhn, ahhhhh!"

Solaris's cries filled the room, a symphony of raw, unbridled pleasure.

"AhhnnnnnnNnnnNnnnNNNnNnnNngggggGggn~!!!"

Her body quivered, her muscles tightening around me as she reached her peak. Artemis's mouth continued its relentless assault on her nipples, adding to the intensity of her orgasm.

As Solaris's climax washed over her, I felt my own release building. The heat, the tightness, the sheer eroticism of the moment was too much to bear.

"HnnnnnngGGnnnnnn!!!"

With a final, powerful thrust, I came, my cum filling Solaris's ass as her body shuddered beneath me.

Artemis pulled back, a satisfied smile on her lips as she watched Solaris's body collapse in a blissful, spent heap. "You did well, Mother. You pleased us both," she whispered, her voice tender. "Now, Leon, you're not finished yet, are you?"

"Of course not," I replied, my desire unabated. "I'm far from satisfied."

With that, I continued my alternating rhythm, thrusting between their tight, warm holes. The contrast in sensations was intoxicating. Artemis's ass clenched around me, while her pussy felt like velvet, hot and slick. Their bodies writhed beneath me, their moans and gasps growing louder with every thrust. Artemis's tight, quivering walls hugged my dick, her juices coating me as I plunged deeper.

"Aaaannn~! Ahh! Ah, ahhh, ah, ah, ah, ah, ahhh~!!!"

"Ahhhhnnn~! Ahn, ah, ah, ah, ahhh~!!!"

Each thrust into Solaris made her gasp, her inexperience adding a tantalizing tightness. I watched as her back arched and her mouth opened in a silent scream of pleasure. I relished the feeling of power and control, knowing that I was the one bringing them both to the brink of ecstasy.

The room was filled with the sounds of skin slapping against skin, their moans, and the wet, lewd noises of our bodies joining. I felt my own climax building, the intensity of the moment pushing me closer to the edge.

"You're both so fucking tight," I groaned, the pleasure nearly overwhelming. "I can't hold back much longer."

"Hnnngg! Hnnn! Hnnnnn! C-Cum, Leon!"

"Ahhn, hyaaan, ah, ah, ahhh! C-Cum! Make this mother and daughter pair pregnant!"

Artemis and Solaris looked at me with lust-filled eyes, their bodies trembling with anticipation. I gave a final, deep thrust into Artemis, feeling her walls clench around me as she cried out in ecstasy. The sensation was too much, and with a primal groan, I came, filling her with my cum.

"C-Cumminggg!!!"

As I pulled out, my dick still throbbing, I turned to Solaris. Her eyes were wide with desire, and I knew she was ready for her turn. I plunged into her tight pussy, the sensation of her slick, hot walls pushing me over the edge once again.

"AhhhhhhhhhhNNnnNnnnnNNNnnNNn~!!!"

Her moans echoed in my ears as I filled her with my seed.

Solaris leaned heavily against Artemis, their bodies pressing intimately together.

"Haaa... Haaa... That was amazing," Artemis gasped, her breath coming in ragged bursts.

"Sex is so pleasurable," Solaris added, equally breathless. "I never knew..."

"The night is still young for you two to be taking a break," I remarked.

"You're incredibly energetic," Solaris noted with a grin. "I guess what you said about one woman not being enough for you is true, huh?"

"I'm sure Leon has more stamina than a horse," Artemis chimed in, her voice filled with admiration.

They both smiled at me, their eyes burning with desire.

"Hey, is there a bath around here?" I asked.

"Hmm, there's a hot spring nearby. Why?" Solaris replied.

"That works perfectly. I want to continue in the hot spring."

Chapter 243: Elven Oyakodon (4)

The three of us wore bathrobes, with nothing on underneath, as we left the room where we'd been having our threesome.

"A-Are we really going to do it out there?" Artemis asked nervously. "I mean, it's late, so there probably won't be anyone around, but it's still a public place. Can't we just... do it in my room again?"

"Now, now, Artemis," Solaris replied. "This is what Leon wants. Besides, even if someone catches us, they can't do anything. I also want to experience having sex outdoors."

"That's because you're used to being naked outdoors, Mother. You're practically wearing nothing most of the time anyway!"

The Yggdrasil was cloaked in darkness, with only the flickering candlelight casting eerie shadows around the place.

"The hot spring is half a kilometer away," Solaris explained, her voice low and sultry. "The guards will definitely see us leaving Yggdrasil, so no matter what, we'll be seen, Artemis."

Artemis sighed heavily, a sense of resignation settling over her.

We finally stepped out of the Yggdrasil. The guards who were stationed there earlier were still on duty, despite it being late at night. Didn't they ever need sleep? They didn't look tired at all.

"They rotate out with a fresh set of guards after a full day," Solaris explained quietly. "Come morning, a new group takes over. There are ten sets in total, ensuring everyone gets enough rest. I'm not cruel enough to burden my people like that."

"I used to be one of them," Artemis added. "It was all part of gaining experience before I ascend to the throne."

"You'll be the next Queen, so it's only natural for you to gain experience."

Artemis being the next Queen of the Elven Kingdom was already set in stone.

"You've got to give it your all, Leon," Solaris said with a determined look. "To get Artemis pregnant, that is. It's all on you to make it happen."

Among the elves, there was a strict tradition: for the crowned princess to ascend to the throne as Queen, she must conceive a child. By the time Solaris was ready to rule, there were no elven males left, making natural conception impossible. That's when Solaris made a risky choice, harnessing magic to create a child.

With this magical lineage secured, Solaris ascended to the throne, ensuring Artemis would be her rightful successor.

Artemis was of age and ready to ascend to the throne. The only thing left for her to do was to get pregnant. With me here now, that was an easy task. The only challenge was our racial difference—elves were notoriously difficult to impregnate. But that was a minor hurdle. I had plenty in reserve to make it happen.

It was a perfect opportunity for me. After deflowering Artemis right in front of Solaris, the next challenge was to impregnate her. Solaris's next requirement for domination, on the other hand, was to aid Artemis in ascending to the throne. If I succeeded in getting Artemis pregnant, I would fulfill both of their requirements in one powerful stroke.

"Well, we can deal with that later. For now, let's head to the hot spring," Solaris suggested with a playful smile. "Oh, and you girls, keep a close watch on the Yggdrasil. We're off to enjoy the hot spring for a while and have some fun."

"Yes, Your Highness!" the guards chorused in acknowledgment.

Solaris nodded briskly, leading the way with a confident stride.

With that settled, we made our way to the hot spring.

***

The hot spring wasn't as lavish as the one in Leonamon, but it had a serene beauty of its own. The area was open, with no walls to hide it from prying eyes—just a few bushes providing a scant barrier. The elves probably didn't bother with more coverage since they were all women, comfortable in their nakedness.

They were used to pleasuring each other; in a race without males, their only option to satiate their lust was to embrace another woman. Solaris was no exception.

"It's been a while since I've been here," Artemis remarked, casting a glance around the tranquil surroundings. "And thank goodness there's no one else here."

"It would be even better if someone were here," Solaris countered mischievously. "We could really let loose. Right, Leon?"

Was she hinting at wanting others to join us? An elven orgy? Well, I wasn't opposed to the idea. I was certainly up for it.

"I-It's embarrassing enough doing this with Mother," Artemis stammered, cheeks flushing slightly. "So, doing something like that would be really, really embarrassing. Please, I beg you both, let's not."

Artemis didn't seem entirely on board with the idea, but that was okay. I was eager to savor every moment with both of them.

"Now, let's get in," Solaris commanded, her voice laced with anticipation. She shrugged off her bathrobe, letting it cascade to the ground. Her body was stunning—voluptuous with wide hips, a generous ass, and large breasts. It was a true motherly figure, radiating a mature allure.

Artemis followed suit, letting her own bathrobe slide off her shoulders. In contrast to Solaris, Artemis had a lean, petite frame with no excess fat and small, perky breasts. Despite the differences, her beauty was ethereal, on par with her mother in its own unique way.

I followed suit, letting my bathrobe fall to the ground, exposing myself fully to the cool air. Their gasps filled the night as they took in my body, so different from theirs. What truly captivated them was the thing between my legs, standing tall and demanding their attention.

Solaris dropped to her knees, her eyes widening as she stared at my dick.

"So, this is the thing that's been inside both me and my daughter, huh?" she murmured, her voice a mix of awe and curiosity. "I can't believe something this big managed to fit. I wonder if it'll fit in my mouth too." She licked her lips, her gaze never leaving my erect cock.

She boldly reached out, her hand enveloping my throbbing dick.

"Hey, Mother, that's not fair, jumping in before me! I want to give him oral too," Artemis protested with a playful pout.

"Oh, so putting his dick in your mouth is called oral, huh? Fufufu, I'm learning a lot from this," Solaris giggled. "Well, if you want to join in, why don't we do it together?"

"I was just about to suggest that," Artemis said eagerly as she knelt beside Solaris. "I'll take his balls, Mother. You can handle the shaft."

"What should I do to make him feel good?" Solaris asked, her eyes sparkling with anticipation.

"Just use your mouth and tongue. Be careful with your teeth. And remember, look him in the eyes while you do it. He loves that," Solaris instructed eagerly, her eyes gleaming with curiosity and desire.

The two elves were visibly intrigued, their elven nature amplifying their inherent curiosity.

"Right. Look into my eyes as both of you suck me off," I urged, anticipation coursing through me.

The atmosphere crackled with tension and desire as Solaris and Artemis positioned themselves. Their eyes locked onto mine, filled with intense heat and anticipation. Solaris boldly leaned in first, her tongue darting out to tantalize the tip of my dick, never once breaking eye contact.

Artemis followed eagerly, her hands skillfully caressing my balls, planting delicate kisses along the sensitive skin.

They took turns lavishing attention on my shaft, their tongues tracing up and down its length.

Solaris focused on the tip, tracing circles with her tongue, while Artemis worked the base with gentle suction. They alternated their motions seamlessly, creating a rhythm that sent waves of pleasure through me, each touch and kiss driving me wild with desire.

And then, abruptly, they altered their approach. Instead of using their tongues, they enveloped my cock with their lips, placing it snugly between them. Moving in sync, their mouths worked together in a coordinated rhythm, treating my dick like a harmonica.

I thrust my hips back and forth, meeting their movements head-on. It felt like I was fucking their mouths simultaneously.

Then, they shifted tactics again. Artemis moved down to suck my balls, her soft lips and gentle suction sending shivers of pleasure through me. Solaris focused on my dick, her mouth warm and inviting as she took me in eagerly.

Gripping both of their heads firmly, I looked down at them. Their feverish eyes locked with mine, sparking an intense desire that threatened to overwhelm me.

There was the sound of their sucking echoing in the hot spring, mingling with the steamy, humid atmosphere. It was intensely pleasurable.

Suddenly, my toes curled against the cool cobblestone floor. Seeing my reaction, they intensified their efforts, switching between my balls and my cock with eager determination. Artemis took turns sucking on my balls while Solaris wrapped her mouth around my dick, and then they swapped positions. Their synchronized rhythm heightened the pleasure until I couldn't hold back any longer.

With a deep moan, I arched my back and released streams of white liquid onto their eager faces.

"Fuaah... haa... The semen came out," Artemis gasped.

"S-So hot... It's all over my face," Solaris exclaimed, her voice filled with excitement and satisfaction.

I gave them a powerful facial, watching as my cum painted their faces. Seeing their expressions smeared with my load, my dick hardened again, throbbing with renewed desire.

Chapter 244: Elven Oyakodon (5)

We immersed ourselves in the soothing heat of the hot spring, letting its warmth seep into our bodies. Artemis straddled me, her pussy wrapped snugly around my dick as we faced each other.

"A-Ahhh... So hot...!" Artemis moaned, her back arching gracefully as she moved her hips in a slow, tantalizing rhythm.

"Artemis is stunning, especially when she's getting fucked," Solaris observed, her eyes fixed on Artemis. She, too, luxuriated in the hot spring beside us.

Opting for a slow, sensual pace this time, we relished each moment, the hot water enhancing every sensation.

The hot water splashed rhythmically with every movement of Artemis's hips, droplets shimmering in the dim light.

"Aaah, I-I'm cumming! I'm cumminggg~!" Artemis cried out, her voice echoing through the night as her back arched and her hair flailed wildly. Her pussy clenched tightly around my dick, sending waves of pleasure through us both.

"You look so beautiful when you're cumming," Solaris purred, her eyes locked onto Artemis's ecstasy. "Now, let me take over."

Artemis lifted herself off me, her body trembling from the intense climax. Solaris then straddled me, a shy yet eager smile on her face, before slowly sinking down into the hot water, enveloping my dick in her warmth.

The sensation of her warm, tight crotch enveloping my dick was intoxicating. Her pussy moistened at the tip, a welcoming embrace that felt incredibly pleasant.

"Nnn... My insides are being pried open..." Solaris moaned softly.

Her cunt swallowed my cock in a steady, deliberate motion. As I reached the base, her body jolted as if struck by electricity, sending ripples through the hot spring's water.

"Ahhnn~! It's so deep, right below my navel... You're hitting the deepest part..." she gasped.

Solaris clenched her teeth and frowned, but despite her tense expression, her pussy was rhythmically contracting and twitching, almost as if it had a mind of its own, heightening the pleasure for both of us.

"Ahhh... It's incredible...!"

Solaris swayed her hips back and forth, initiating deliberate, rhythmic thrusts.

"Nnnn, nnn, ah, ah... My head is spinning. I feel like I'm on the brink...!"

Gradually, her movements became more pronounced. Soon, she was shaking her shapely ass with abandon, performing a seductive water dance.

"Ah, ah, ah, it feels so good, your cock feels amazing..."

With each provocative sway, the water audibly rippled and spilled over the edges of the hot spring.

Like flint striking steel, Solaris's innermost depths rubbed against my glans, sending sparks of pleasure flying through both of us. The sensation was so intense that I could feel myself on the brink of cumming.

Unable to stand the frustration any longer, I lifted her hips and began to thrust hard from below.

"Ahh, hiii, hyaaan!! L-Leon, you're so intense, ah, ah, aaah!" Solaris cried out, her voice a mix of ecstasy and desperation.

Each thrust sent waves of hot water spilling out from the spring, splashing everywhere. With every powerful movement, Solaris panted wildly, her wet hair flying as she rode me like a cowgirl on a rodeo machine. Her body responded to every thrust, her pussy clenching tightly around my dick.

I eagerly sucked on her nipple, feeling it wet from the hot water, and ran my tongue over its sensitive flesh.

"Ahhh, ahhh! Hyyiii! Ahhh, ahhh, ahhh!"

Witnessing our intense connection, Artemis's expression turned jealous and pouty. She forcefully pulled me away from Solaris's nipple and pressed her lips against mine. Her breath was sweet and inviting, and I responded by kissing her deeply, our lips exploring each other fervently.

"Nnn, chu, chu, ah... Hamu..."

Our tongues intertwined, battling for dominance as we fought for each other's saliva like parched souls searching for morning dew. I dipped my tongue deep into her mouth, tasting her more fully as I licked her gums and the underside of her palate.

"Ahhhn, ahh, fuaaah! Ahhhh! Ah, ah, ah, ah, ahhhn~!!!"

In the heat of our embrace, Solaris too was reaching her peak. As I kissed Artemis, my hips moved rhythmically, driving Solaris into a state of ecstasy that mirrored my own mounting pleasure. With each thrust, I brought us closer to the edge, until finally, with a powerful release, I climaxed inside her.

"HnnNNnnnnnnNngGgGggnnn~!!!"

Solaris gritted her teeth and arched her back, taking my cum deep inside her, filling her womb to the brim. The sight of her flushed face and trembling body sent a surge of primal satisfaction through me.

"You're not satisfied yet, are you, Leon?" Artemis teased, pulling away from our kiss with a sly smile.

There was no way I'd let these women go unsatisfied. The desire coursing through me demanded more. So, I continued fucking them both in the hot spring. The three of us, soaked in the mist and heat of the water, were caught in a frenzy of passion.

I positioned them both in doggy style, their hands gripping the edge of the spring as I took turns thrusting into them. Each time I plunged into their hot, slick pussies, I felt a surge of pleasure. The sounds of flesh slapping against flesh echoed through the steamy air, our moans and gasps mingling with the splashing water.

Their bodies writhed beneath me, back arching and breasts swaying with each powerful thrust.

Artemis's tightness clung to my dick, her gasps turning to cries of pleasure as I pounded into her. Solaris, equally desperate, pushed back against me, her ass shaking with each deep stroke. The intensity built, their moans growing louder, mixing with the rhythmic slap of our bodies and the water's splashing.

"Leon's got so much energy...! I don't think I can handle much more...! If you keep going like this, I might get addicted...!" Solaris gasped, my dick deep inside her, her voice trembling with a mix of pleasure and desperation.

"Then get addicted," I growled, plunging deeper into her with each thrust. "I'll make you crave it so much that you won't even think about sleeping with another woman! You'll belong to me and only me!"

"Fufufu... I've only been with women out of necessity, you know?" Solaris moaned, her body trembling with desire. "I'm a woman who craves lust, so, hnn~! B-But if you insist, then I'll be yours exclusively!!! Make me yours! Hnnn~!!!"

I gripped her hips tighter, feeling her pussy clench around my dick with every thrust. Her back arched, her hair cascading down her shoulders, wet and glistening in the steamy air. I could see the mixture of ecstasy and surrender in her eyes as she met my gaze, her body trembling with each powerful stroke.

The sound of our flesh slapping together echoed through the mist, blending with our moans and the splashing of the hot spring. Artemis watched, her eyes filled with a mix of jealousy and arousal, her breath coming in short, hot gasps.

Solaris's moans grew louder, her voice breaking with each thrust. "Ahh, ahhh! Leon, you're going to make me cum again! I can't... I can't hold on...!"

"Cum for me, Solaris," I commanded, driving into her harder, feeling the tension building in her body. "Let go and cum for me."

"AaaaaahnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnNnnNnNnn~!!!"

Her body tensed, and with a final, shuddering cry, she came, her pussy clamping down on my dick as waves of pleasure washed over her. I continued to thrust, riding out her orgasm, feeling my own climax building.

As Solaris's orgasm subsided, she collapsed against the edge of the hot spring, her body spent and trembling. I pulled out of her, my dick still hard and aching, ready for more.

"Artemis," I murmured, locking eyes with her. "Your turn."

"Yes," she purred with a provocative grin. "Make me yours, Leon."

Her words fueled my desire, and I slid inside her, thrusting forcefully. Artemis's moans crescendoed, echoing through the misty air, blending with the rhythmic slapping of skin on skin. The water around us surged with each powerful thrust, creating cascading waves that reached the edges of the hot spring.

She was soaked and slick, her pussy welcoming me eagerly with every deep plunge.

Her pussy hugged my dick tightly, her body responding eagerly to every thrust. I could feel her walls contracting, drawing me deeper inside her with each powerful stroke.

"Ahhh, Leon... Yes, just like that... Fuck me harder!" Artemis cried out, her voice trembling with pleasure.

I gripped her hips, pulling her closer as I drove into her with relentless force. Her moans became more desperate, her body quivering with each thrust. The heat of the hot spring mingled with our sweat, creating an intoxicating atmosphere of raw, unbridled lust.

After holding out as long as I could, I finally let go, releasing my cum inside her with a primal grunt.

"NnnNnnnnnnngggg!!!"

Simultaneously, Artemis reached her peak, her essence mingling with the warm water of the hot spring, creating an intoxicating blend of passion and steam.

I kept up the rhythm, thrusting vigorously through another intense round of fucking until the first light of sunrise peeked over the horizon, signaling it was time to draw things to a close.

As we savored the lingering waves of pleasure, I guided them into a final act: lying back on the cobblestone floor, with each of them straddling one of my thighs, their pussies pressing together around my shaft in a sensuous scissoring motion.

"Mmmm... Ahhh..." they moaned in unison, their bodies writhing in pleasure as they ground against each other and me.

The sounds of our combined moans filled the morning air, blending with the soothing sounds of splashing water and the awakening forest around us.

After a while, I came, and thus, the oyakodon finally came to an end.

Chapter 245: The Situation Of The Elven Race (1)

I woke up feeling refreshed. It was already afternoon, and beside me were two golden-haired, long-eared beauties, each using one of my arms as a pillow. They were a mother-daughter pair, the Queen and Princess of the Elven Kingdom. Last night, we had a threesome. It was intense, with the explicit goal of getting them pregnant.

I'm not sure if I succeeded, as none of the domination requirements were fulfilled. But I have plenty more chances. Maybe tonight?

Solaris's face suddenly frowned, and then she opened her eyes, still groggy with sleep. She gazed at me for a moment, her expression softening as her eyes focused. When she finally recognized me, a smile spread across her face.

"Good morning, Leon," she murmured, her voice husky, before leaning in to kiss me on the lips.

Behind me, I heard a low groan. Turning slightly, I saw Artemis waking up. She blinked her eyes open, and when she saw me, a smile lit up her face as well.

"Good morning, Leon," she echoed, her voice warm, as she leaned in to kiss me too.

It was actually the afternoon, but who was I to correct them in such a perfect moment.

***

We put our clothes back on and left the room where we'd slept. As we stepped out, we were met by a woman standing in the hallway. She was the knight elf who had been with us yesterday. Her name was Aegis, if I remembered correctly.

"Good morning, Your Majesties," she said, bowing deeply with a hand on her chest. Her eyes then shifted to me, standing behind Artemis and Solaris, and her expression twisted into a frown of disgust. "Good morning to you too, Lord Leon."

"Good morning, Aegis," I replied, noting the disdain in her voice and the way her gaze flickered with contempt. Clearly, I wasn't her favorite person.

We moved away from the room, continuing down the corridor with Aegis following behind us.

"Don't take Aegis's dislike too personally, Leon," Solaris whispered softly, her words intended for my ears alone. "She harbors a strong resentment towards humans, especially men, due to a past incident. Her animosity towards you might also stem from your closeness to Artemis. Like Artemis, Aegis was born of magic and they share the same age. That's why they became such close friends.

But I suspect Aegis's feelings for Artemis might go beyond mere friendship—perhaps even love. I can't help but feel a bit sorry for her."

I nodded, absorbing the revelation. It explained Aegis's demeanor towards me. I also remembered the Vice President of the Student Council's obvious crush on Artemis. Even though Titania was now my girlfriend, she too held Artemis in high regard. It seemed Artemis was quite the heartthrob among women.

Solaris might feel sorry for Aegis because Artemis wasn't keen on being with a woman.

"This is the reality among our elven people, Leon," Solaris explained to me. "Living for centuries without males, it's natural for them to form strong bonds with those of the same gender. Many elves have entered into marriages with other females, and I have officiated many same-sex unions. In elven culture, this is perfectly "normal"."

I had suspected as much. The elven race, devoid of males, was still capable of falling in love just like many other races. And with all elves being females now, it was natural that they would form romantic attachments with each other.

"Aegis has two mothers, both females, so that probably influenced her attraction towards the same sex rather than the opposite," Solaris explained.

"Have you ever fallen in love with another woman?" I asked.

"Jealous, are we?" She smirked playfully. "Fufufu, don't worry. No one has managed to capture my heart, at least not until now."

She winked at me mischievously.

I wasn't jealous, just intensely curious. But if that's what she inferred, I wasn't about to argue.

"We elves are as mortal as anyone else, driven by lust just like you. Masturbation is one way we satisfy ourselves, but it's never quite enough. As you know, I've been with many women before. At night, it's not uncommon to hear moans of pleasure from women engaging in sex with each other. Perhaps someone is even at it right now. That's our reality.

As much as I yearn for the old ways of our race, where men were present, it's a wish that can never be fulfilled."

By "old ways," she meant when they were procreating like any other race. Procreation was crucial for them, as their numbers had dwindled to around 300. In other words, they were on the brink of extinction.

"That is why I am glad to have finally found our savior. And that savior is you, Leon. Make my people feel what a real woman is really like, just as you did with us. Although it's a stretch, and this might sound cruel coming from their Queen, I hope the elven race will return to normal." She smiled.

What she said was indeed harsh, especially for a Queen. But I understood her sentiment. To save her race, she had to be ruthless.

"I understand," I said.

"Do you want to start with Aegis?" Solaris suggested. "She's an incredibly beautiful elf. Why don't I command her to tie herself up on her bed and wait for you to ravish her?"

"Please don't do that."

"Is that so? Well, okay then," she said, a hint of disappointment in her voice.

Aegis already disliked me enough, and I was sure she would hate me even more if Solaris did something like that. Besides, there were far better ways to begin this journey.

--

You've captured the interest of Aegis Quariel. You can now proceed to dominate her.

Name: Aegis Quariel

Race: Elven

Requirements to dominate Aegis:

1. Have sex with Aegis while Artemis is nearby, with Artemis having no idea.

2. Unlock

3. Unlock

4. Unlock

5. Unlock

....

--

This honestly feels like something straight out of an NTR doujin manga. The idea of seducing Aegis while Artemis is nearby, completely unaware, is incredibly erotic but equally challenging. I can't dive into this headfirst; I'll need to soften her up first to stand a chance.

"Now then, Leon, shall we eat?" Solaris asked as we entered what looked like the kitchen.

The sight before me was overwhelming. The table was laden with an extravagant amount of food, more than enough for a feast. It looked like something prepared for a grand banquet, not just a meal for three people.

Solaris noticed my surprise and chuckled. "Everyone in the Yggdrasil eats here, Leon. So it's only natural that this table is covered with food."

"I see..."

So that explained the overwhelming spread of dishes before us. It wasn't just for us, but for everyone in the Yggdrasil.

Suddenly, I heard something—a sound that piqued my curiosity.

"I'm going to check something out for a bit," I informed Solaris. "If you don't mind."

"I don't mind. Just please come back soon. We'll wait for you to join us for food."

"Okay."

Leaving the kitchen, I followed the alluring sounds to their source.

"Hnnn..."

"Mmm... ah..."

The sounds weren't coming from inside the Yggdrasil. They were coming from outside, from the tree next to Yggdrasil. I activated Levitation magic, allowing me to float silently into the air. Simultaneously, I cast an Illusion spell to render myself invisible, masking my presence entirely. I also used the Illusion magic to cloak my mana, ensuring the elves wouldn't sense me.

Hovering closer, I saw a treehouse nestled among the branches. While not as grand as the Yggdrasil, it was still far more impressive than any ordinary treehouse. Its walls were woven from branches, much like Solaris's room, creating natural gaps that provided a clear view inside.

Through those gaps, I saw it.

Two elven women were intertwined, engaging in passionate scissoring. One had short hair, while the other sported twin tails, and they were grinding their crotches together fervently. The twin-tailed woman held the other by her leg, pressing herself against her with increasing intensity, eliciting moans of pleasure from the short-haired woman who clutched the sheets in ecstasy.

"NnnnnnNn~!"

"Mmnnn~!"

Watching them cum together satisfied me enough, so I quietly left and returned to the Yggdrasil.

So this was what Solaris meant by the stark reality facing the Elves. Solaris aimed to eradicate this behavior because if left unchecked, it spelled doom for the Elven race. She sought to overturn this "normalcy" ingrained in elven culture. It was a formidable challenge, given that Elves generally harbored a visceral disgust toward human males, or males in general.

This aversion led them to cling to a society of solely females for comfort.

This is where I come in. I would be the one to initiate change, to shift their mindset. I held the power to make a difference. Solaris would play a crucial role in helping them accept my influence.

Solaris wanted me to show the Elves the pleasures of being with a man, so they wouldn't resort to activities like scissoring again. She hoped they'd realize the advantages of having a man. That was her goal for me.

"I suppose to achieve that, I'll need to start with those two," I muttered to myself as I walked back toward the kitchen.

Chapter 246: The Situation Of The Elven Race (2)

When I returned, a lively gathering was seated around the table. As soon as the elves noticed me, they went on high alert, eyes narrowing with suspicion. Solaris quickly intervened, assuring them that I was a guest.

Despite their hushed murmurs—questions like "Why is a human male here?" or "Why is Her Majesty allowing a human here?"—I remained unfazed, focusing on my meal.

Amidst their scrutiny, I couldn't help but marvel at their beauty. Each person seated there was a bombshell, radiating a captivating allure that seemed perfectly placed in the moment. The tableau before me begged to be immortalized—a scene ripe with potential for a stunning masterpiece.

Solaris leaned in to explain that they constituted the council of the Elven Kingdom, akin to ministers overseeing various aspects of governance in the kingdom.

"Let me introduce you," Solaris began, her voice carrying a hint of pride. "Starting from the first on the right, meet Azusa. She oversees the Hunting Group and ensures our food supply remains stocked."

Azusa, her mouth full of meat, glared at me with an intense gaze. She was a striking dark elf, exceptionally tall, and exuding a powerful presence. Her attire was a scanty green cloth adorned with golden embroidery, barely covering her essentials. The open cleavage revealed her massive breasts, and her muscular thighs were wrapped in bandages.

She wore knee-high metal boots that matched the color of her outfit. Long strands of silver hair cascaded over one eye, the other vividly green. She looked every bit the formidable elven warrior.

"And next, we have Hilda," Solaris continued. "She manages the Guard Group and is responsible for guarding the kingdom."

Hilda was every bit the warrior that Azusa appeared to be. Her skin was tanned, likely from rigorous training rather than being a dark elf. Clad in a sleek, black leather suit that accentuated her figure, she sported an open cleavage, akin to attire favored by motorcycle riders—a helmet being the only missing piece for her to resemble one.

Perhaps it was an undershirt for protection under knight armor. Her long, faded gold hair framed piercing green eyes, and she, too, fixed me with a stern glare.

"Next is Clarett," Solaris continued, her voice carrying across the dining area. "She manages trades and communications with other races in the Great Forest."

Clarett didn't wear anything that indicated she was a warrior. Instead, she sported glasses perched delicately on her nose, giving her an intellectual charm. She was cute rather than stunningly beautiful, a subtle allure that stood out among the other elves. Unlike the others, her attire was modest, not excessively revealing. Her short, white hair framed her face.

"And next is Frey," Solaris continued. "She's in charge of education and training."

Frey greeted me with a wave as she was introduced, her gesture outwardly friendly yet her eyes betraying a hint of suspicion. Her movements were subtly seductive, each gesture seeming to draw me in with a magnetic allure. Her presence exuded a potent sexual energy, as if she were enticing me with every glance and sway.

Among them, she stood out as the most voluptuous, her curves accentuated by a white attire layered over a pinkish turtleneck. Black leggings hugged her legs, complemented by metallic golden boots that added to her commanding presence.

"There are two more, but they seem occupied at the moment. Ah, here they come," Solaris announced. I turned to see two figures entering through the doorway. My eyes widened as soon as they came into view.

"You're starting without us? That's sad," one of the them quipped, her short hair framing a mischievous smile.

The other sported twin tails, her gaze sweeping the room before locking onto me with narrowed eyes. "So, that explains the strange mana presence I sensed. There's an intruder. Or perhaps not, if he's dining with all of you. Who is he?"

"I was just about to introduce him to everyone. Firstly, let me introduce you, Leon. They are twin sisters responsible for shielding the Elven Kingdom from outsiders. The mist that blankets the entire kingdom is their creation. Meet Verra and Serra."

The two looked at me with expressions of disgust. I guess they really were that repulsed by men. I couldn't help but meet their gaze. After all, these were the same two who had been pleasuring each other passionately in the treehouse next to Yggdrasil. And to think, they were twins on top of that?

"Your Majesty..." a voice suddenly cut through, unexpected as it came not from a council member but from Aegis, who loomed behind Artemis. Her tone was sharp, her gaze piercing as she addressed Solaris directly. "It may be rude to ask, but isn't it time you told us why exactly a human is here?" She shot a pointed glare in my direction.

"I know you and the Princess have labeled him a guest, but it's clear he's more than that, seated alongside you for lunch. And, well, with him being a man, I fear he might pose a threat to you, Your Majesty."

"I think Aegis raises a valid point, Your Majesty," Hilda interjected firmly, her gaze drilling into me without faltering. "Human males have long been our adversaries, responsible for much suffering among our people. Many are still enduring their actions today. So why are we permitting a human, especially a male, to sit here where the council convenes?"

The members of the council all turned their eyes towards me. It was clear how much they harbored resentment towards humans, especially males. That wasn't surprising at all. In my opinion, their resentment was entirely justified. Their race had suffered greatly because of males. In addition to kidnappings, there were cases of elves being sold as sex slaves.

I was honestly surprised they hadn't declared war on humans yet. But with their numbers dwindling and no males left in their race to reproduce, such an action would be incredibly reckless. It would risk their very existence.

I stood resolute under their piercing gazes.

Hilda's voice snapped sharply, "And to think a human male could possess such disgustingly potent mana," she accused. "You're no ordinary male. Who or what are you, really?"

"Now, now, calm yourself, Hilda. Let me address this first," Solaris interjected calmly but firmly. "I understand your concerns, and they are valid. But trust me, Leon poses no threat to me, Artemis, or our people."

"Well, you're correct to assume he poses no immediate threat, especially with all of us surrounding him. But I fear keeping him contained won't be easy, given he's far from ordinary."

"I'm not referring to containment, Hilda," Solaris interjected, her tone steady. "Leon... isn't entirely human."

"What?" Hilda's gaze briefly shifted to Solaris, then returned to me with renewed scrutiny. "No. That changes nothing. He's still a male."

"He's not just an ordinary male. You all must have noticed the immense amount of mana pulsating through his body," Solaris declared, her voice carrying a weight of significance. "Allow me to introduce him properly. His name is Leon. Leon Eclair."

At that revelation, their eyes widened in astonishment.

"W-Wait, Eclair?" Clarett exclaimed, her voice tinged with disbelief.

"Like the Great Red?" Frey pondered aloud, her finger hovering near her lips in contemplation.

"No, like Lilith," Asuza interjected, her tone suggesting a realization.

"So, that means he's one of the five parts of Lilith?" Clarett questioned, seeking confirmation with a mix of curiosity and apprehension.

"That's right," Solaris asserted with unwavering certainty. "Leon is one of the children of Lilith. And beyond that, he is the one foretold in my dreams."

Hilda's eyes widened even further. "Foretold? Then that means he's...?"

"Yes, precisely," Solaris affirmed, her voice carrying a weight of revelation. "Leon is the savior we've long awaited. The one destined to rescue us from the brink of extinction."

Their gazes fixed on me now weren't merely surprised. The initial looks had been laden with suspicion and anger, followed by astonishment. Now, their expressions shifted to a mix of perplexity and profound shock, as if grappling with the enormity of what had just been revealed.

"This man... is?" Verra's gaze bore into me, searching for answers amidst the revelation.

"...the one who will save us from extinction... the one who will..." Serra trailed off, her voice filled with uncertainty.

"...save us by impregnating us all?" Verra continued, her disbelief palpable in the air.

"That's right. Nicely pieced together, you two," Solaris applauded, her hands coming together in a brief, approving clap. "This is why I've brought you all together today. It might seem a bit crude to discuss over lunch, but since we're already on the subject, I'll explain. I intend to initiate the rebirth of our race. In essence, I'm planning to restore things to how they were before."

They all looked puzzled, as if struggling to grasp Solaris's meaning. I, however, understood perfectly well what she meant.

"I want you all to have sex with Leon," Solaris said.

Chapter 247: The Situation Of The Elven Race (3)

Azusa pushed herself up from the table and glared at me, her eyes blazing with indignation.

"What do you mean, Your Majesty?! Are you seriously suggesting that we copulate with this man?!"

"That's right," Solaris said with a calm, unwavering gaze. "That's exactly what I mean by having sex with him."

"No way! There's no way I would do that! Nor anyone else, for that matter!" Azusa's voice trembled with a mix of shock and defiance.

"That's why I'm telling you all this now," Solaris explained, her tone steady and authoritative. "I know our people won't willingly have sex with Leon right away. I want him to start with you all, so our people might be more inclined to follow suit."

"Your Majesty, it may be rude to say this, but you're joking, are you? I mean, you know that our people have suffered because of the males. So why are you suggesting us to copulate with one?" said Hilda.

"I'm not joking. As I've said and confirmed, this man is the one I saw in the prophecy—the one who will save us from extinction and restore our population," Solaris declared resolutely. "Isn't the fact that I told you he's one of Lilith's children proof enough?"

"Your Majesty," Azusa began, her voice tinged with respect but unwavering in disbelief. "I can't simply believe that this puny man will be the savior of our dying race. I won't just open my legs and let him have his way because you command it. Besides, I'm already married to Hilda! We have a child together!" She pointed at Aegis standing nearby.

So Azusa and Hilda are married, and one of them used magic to conceive a child in her womb. And that child is Aegis, huh?

"We elves may not share the same religious beliefs as humans, but I still value monogamy! Many elves are married, too! What you're asking us to do is cheating on our partners!"

"I understand your concerns. I really do. But if we remain stagnant, our people will slowly wither away. In just a few thousand years, we'll face extinction. We may live long lives, but we are not immortal. Do you truly want our race to vanish from the face of the earth?"

"We could create a child using magic, just as we've done before!"

"The risk is too great, and the odds of success are slim. Failure means death. I can't risk the lives of our people on such a gamble just for survival."

"B-But we can't do what you're asking! How am I supposed to spread my legs for someone I don't even know, who isn't my lover? I'm sorry, Your Majesty, but what you're proposing is impossible for us," Azusa protested vehemently.

"I assure you, Leon is clean. He won't do anything with you. The reason I proposed this is so our people will be more inclined to follow suit because you led by example. As members of the council, it's your responsibility to act for the greater good of our people."

The members of the council fell silent.

"My mother, the former queen, ingrained in me the importance of doing what's necessary for our prosperity. I traded our precious metals with the beast people, paving the way for our kingdom's modernization," Solaris stated firmly, leaning forward with her elbows on the table, hands folded. She closed her eyes momentarily, reflecting.

"She taught me to do whatever it takes for our survival and to restore our former greatness. That's why I took the risk to create a child using magic and gave birth to Artemis. It's my duty as your Queen."

Solaris turned to me.

"Artemis and I had sex with him last night," Solaris said unabashedly.

"M-Mother?! W-Why did you have to bring me into this too?" Artemis stammered, her cheeks flushing red. Behind her, Aegis looked on with a shocked and brokenhearted expression. I suppose she did have a bit of a crush on Artemis, so hearing about her having sex with me was surely devastating for her.

"The Queen..."

"And the Princess did...?"

Verra and Serra chimed in, clearly taken aback.

"I'm not lying when I say it was out of responsibility, but spending the night with him showed me what it truly feels like to be loved," Solaris admitted. "Being held by a man, waking up beside him with his hand as my pillow—those moments made me understand."

The council members fell silent, their expressions a mix of shock and contemplation, absorbing Solaris's words like a tranquil river.

"I couldn't help but think when I woke up next to him, 'So this is what we've been missing out on,'" Solaris continued, her eyes scanning the room. "Didn't I tell you before, Frey, when we were together, that sleeping with another woman felt somewhat empty?"

Sure, it's pleasurable, feeling another body pressing against yours, but after having sex with Leon, I realized what we were doing was just a form of masturbation. It lacked the depth, the connection, the sheer intensity of being with a man."

Again, the members were all quiet as they listened to Solaris.

"Mother once told me that sex is something intertwined with love," Solaris continued, her voice filled with contemplation. "What I felt from having sex with Leon was different from what I felt with all of you. It might hurt your feelings to hear this, but that's honestly how I feel."

A tense silence hung in the air until Frey broke it with a chuckle. "Hehehe, I feel the same way," she admitted. "Why does it feel like this isn't really sex at all? Like it's not hitting the mark for me either. When I think about it now, I guess our feelings are similar. We've been trying to have sex, but it feels more like we're just seeking pleasure, almost like masturbating."

The air seemed to crackle with tension as Solaris's words lingered in the room, each syllable heavy with meaning. Her raw, unfiltered admission painted a stark picture of her inner turmoil. Frey's revelation added another layer, suggesting a collective sense of emptiness they all shared.

"Sex with Leon," Solaris continued, her voice carrying a mix of reflection and yearning, "wasn't just about the physical pleasure. It was about connection, about feeling loved. His dick inside me, the way he made me cum—it wasn't mere sex. It was something deeper, something real."

She looked at me and smiled.

"This isn't just about survival," she declared firmly, her gaze piercing each of theirs with intensity. "It's about reclaiming a part of ourselves that we've lost. And Leon is the key to that. He can give us what we've been missing—the love, the connection, the future we deserve. That's why I need all of you to accept Leon. To accept his seed inside you.

Together, we can save our people. All of us."

"But we can't just...! We can't just accept this! How could we?! We've lived without a man in our lives for hundreds of years now!" protested Azusa, her voice trembling with uncertainty.

"I might be speaking out of turn, Your Majesty, but I share Azusa's sentiment," Clarett spoke up, her voice tinged with concern. "It's possible that man has hypnotized you just to get what he wants. Human men have a history of capturing our people because of our extraordinary beauty, right? I'm pretty sure he's operating under the same plan."

"I may be old, but I don't believe anyone can manipulate my mind, Clarett. Are you underestimating my strength?" Solaris countered, her tone firm and unwavering.

"That's not my intention, Your Majesty. I'm just... well, as Azusa said, it won't be easy to simply follow your orders, especially after what happened in the past," Clarett explained, her voice tinged with concern. "Remember when Aegis and the others accidentally left the Kingdom? They encountered human males, and almost all of them were raped on the spot and kidnapped.

We haven't received any news about them since. Even if this man isn't human, as you said, we can't suddenly believe he's our savior."

"Hmm. I guess convincing you all isn't going to happen, huh? Well, I can't blame you. After all, I did spring this plan on you all of a sudden," Solaris said pensively, her eyes closing as she sighed deeply.

"I'm sure there are plenty of ways for our race to survive, Your Majesty," Hilda spoke up earnestly. "But this... doing something with that male... that's the one thing I can't bear."

They really hate men, huh? Well, I suppose that's par for the course. But it's hard to believe they're lumping me into the same category as those scum. That somewhat irritated me.

"Your Majesty," I suggested, "why don't we show them?"

Solaris opened her eyes slowly, a sly smile forming. "I was just about to suggest that, Leon," she said, glancing at me with a gleam in her eye. Then, she turned to face the group, including Aegis. "Me and Leon are going to show you..."

"Show what, Your Majesty?" Hilda asked, her tone curious yet hesitant.

"We're going to have sex right in front of all of you."

Chapter 248: The Situation Of The Elven Race (4)

The members stared in disbelief at Solaris, their expressions a mix of shock and confusion, trying to grasp the meaning behind her words.

"W-What, Your Majesty? Did I hear you correctly?" Hilda blurted out, pushing herself upright from her chair, hands gripping the table as if she needed support to comprehend what she had just heard.

"It might get messy if we do it here," Solaris remarked casually, her tone nonchalant despite the bombshell she had dropped. "So let's finish eating first."

Hilda sank back into her chair, visibly stunned by the unexpected statement.

With that awkward moment lingering, we resumed our meal in silence.

***

After we finished our meal, the servants diligently cleared the table, gathering the plates and utensils and loading them onto a cart. As they began to wheel it away, Solaris stopped them with a commanding tone.

"After you clean those, come back," she said with a wicked smile. "The more of you who witness this, the better."

The servants bowed their heads respectfully before leaving the dining room with the cart. A short while later, they returned, their expressions tinged with curiosity about what Solaris had in store for them.

"Now then," Solaris announced, her gaze sweeping over the assembled members and then settling on me. "Shall we begin?"

She reached for the cloth tied around her waist, and with a deft tug, her scant clothing loosened. The fabric slipped away, revealing her bare breasts, the small amount of fabric that had barely covered her now pooling around her stomach.

"Watch me as I make love with Leon," Solaris commanded, standing up from her seat. Her clothes fully fell to the floor, revealing her completely naked body. She must not have been wearing any underwear since there was none to be seen. She stood there, fully exposed.

In the soft light, I could truly appreciate every inch of her form. Her body was like the exquisite sculptures displayed inside the Yggdrasil—no, it was even more than that. This was the original. Every curve, every detail was breathtaking. If I had to compare, she was nothing short of a goddess.

"Leon, sit here in this chair," Solaris instructed, her voice firm yet tantalizing.

I complied, settling into the chair she had indicated.

"Show us," she demanded, her eyes glinting with anticipation.

Taking a deep breath, I obeyed, releasing my cock from my pants. Gasps of surprise and excitement filled the room, the air thick with tension and curiosity. Amidst the chorus of reactions, one voice stood out.

"My, this looks like it's going to be fun~" Frey purred.

"Now, look at us," Solaris commanded, her voice dripping with authority and desire. She moved in front of me, her hands gripping my shoulders for support as she straddled my lap. "I'm going to make this thing enter this hole of mine," she declared, her words sending shivers down my spine.

With one hand, she grasped my dick, steadying it with a firm yet gentle touch. She guided it toward her hot, wet entrance, which glistened with her arousal. The anticipation was electric, her wetness making it clear just how excited she was by the situation.

"Hnnn... I can feel my flesh being split apart. The feeling is good," she moaned, her voice filled with a mixture of pleasure and anticipation as she slowly lowered herself onto my dick. The heat enveloped me, each inch feeling like hot butter melting around me. Her tight walls embraced me, creating a delicious friction that sent waves of pleasure through my body.

After what felt like an eternity, she finally reached the base.

"Haa... Haa... Look, his thing is embedded deep inside me," Solaris gasped, her voice husky with desire.

The members of the council's eyes fixated on our connected genitals.

"...Doesn't that..."

"...hurt, Your Majesty?"

Verra and Serra voiced their concern.

"It doesn't hurt at all," Solaris replied with a sultry smile. "In fact, it feels incredible."

"That does look like it feels good," Frey murmured, her gaze heated as she licked her lips, clearly imagining the pleasure.

"But that's not the end of the pleasure," she purred, slowly lifting her hips before plunging back down. "Hnnn~! Ahhn...!"

She started moving her hips in a lewd, wild dance, her pussy greedily swallowing my dick with each thrust.

"Aahhh, yesss~! Ahh, ahh, ahhhhn, ahhhh!"

Her waist moved with the skill and sensuality of an experienced prostitute. Every thrust, every grind, was perfect. I wasn't even moving—it felt like I was being devoured. She was greedily taking me in, her body demanding more.

She hugged my head tightly and pressed her breasts to my face. The intoxicating mix of sweat and the sweet, earthy scent of milk filled my nostrils—a comforting, motherly aroma. I never considered myself a MILF fan back in my old world, but now I understood their appeal.

"Ahahh... Lick it! Suck it! Slurp my breasts!" she demanded, her voice dripping with lust.

I teased her nipples with my tongue, swirling around them, gently sucking and nipping at their sensitive tips.

"Aaaaaaahn!... Oh, yes! Just like that! Ahhhh, it feels so good~! Keep licking my nipples like that...!"

She arched her back, seeking more contact. I held her close, preventing any escape, and began to move my hips in sync with our shared pleasure.

"Aaaaahh, ahhh, aaah, ahhh, aaaah! So intense! Yes! Fuck me, Leon! Fuck me hard! Impregnate me right in front of them!

Make me completely yours! Dominate my body with your dick! Aaaaaaaaah!"

Our bodies met with a wet, provocative slap, filling the air with a sound that echoed our passion.

"Aaah, aaahn!"

Solaris moved her hips with unrestrained fervor.

"Hey, Leon! Be mine forever! Stay with me! I want you to fuck me like this always!"

"That looks so hot..." Frey whispered, mesmerized as she watched us fucking each other. From the moment Solaris and I had started, Frey had been squirming, her thighs clenched together in anticipation.

"I can't hold back anymore!" she exclaimed, lifting her legs and tearing her stockings right between them, revealing she wasn't wearing any panties.

"H-Hey, Frey, what are you doing?" Hilda gasped, catching sight of Frey on the brink of masturbating.

"Come on, Hilda. I'm burning up here. It feels like I'm witnessing something so intense, something I'll never forget, you know? I want to imprint this in my mind forever. And look at them, they're really enjoying themselves. Honestly, I'm dying to join in too.

It's the first time I've heard Her Majesty moaning like that! Mmmnn~!" She slid her fingers between her thighs, showing how wet she was. "Just look at how soaked I am. It's torture to watch all this action without jumping in! I want to feel that pleasure too!"

Frey started teasing herself between her legs.

"Hnnn... Nnnhhaaa~!"

Hilda looked at her in utter shock.

"Hhhnnaaa! Aaahn! K-Kiss... Kiss me...!" Solaris urged me as we continued grinding against each other.

I leaned in eagerly, meeting her lips with a hungry kiss. Our tongues danced together passionately, exploring each other's mouths. I savored the sensation of her teeth and lips, teasing them gently with my tongue, sending shivers of desire through both of us.

After our passionate kiss, I trailed down her neck with gentle licks, then moved lower to her breasts. My tongue teased her nipples while my hand massaged her other side.

"Nnnhhh, ahhh! That feels so good... It's incredible... my love...! I love you!"

The chair squeaked under our weight as Solaris held onto me tightly.

"Aaaahn, aaaah, aaaaah...! W-What should I do? I'm! I'm about to cum!"

Solaris's hot breath tickled my ear.

I could feel myself nearing the edge of cumming too.

"L-Let's cum together! L-Let's cum... together...!"

I could feel her hot pussy gripping my dick tightly.

"N-Now, watch closely! I'm going to be filled up right here!" she announced to the spectators.

"Hnnn...! Ahhh, I'm cumming tooo~!"

Frey was on the edge of climax as well. Her entire body glistened with sweat, her breaths coming in rapid, heated gasps.

"Aaaaah, aaahn! N-No more...! I-I'm cumming... I'm cumming! Can I? Am I okay to cum?"

Solaris pleaded, her face flushed with tears.

"Yes! Cum for me, Solaris!" I encouraged.

I intensified my thrusts, driving deeper.

"...Look, take a look... everyone! I'm cumming! Your Queen is cumming! Good, sex feels good! It feels good!

Aaahn! Aaah.... C-Cummiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiing!!!"

Solaris's pussy clenched tightly around my throbbing dick as I released hot, pulsing cum inside her, filling her deeply.

"...Aaaaaaah, it's filling me up! The hot cum is flooding my womb! It's so deep!! It feels amazing... I feel so good!!!"

Solaris held me close, her entire body quivering with pleasure.

"Aaaah... I'm still cumming... I love you. I love you, I love you, I love you. Stay with me forever... I love you...!"

I love you...!!!"

Her convulsing pussy continued to squeeze my dick, milking it until the very last drop.

"Cummmmmmming!!!"

Frey also squirted her juices, spraying into the air and landing on the table.

Chapter 249: The Situation Of The Elven Race (5)

The dining room was filled with the sound of panting, the only noise being Solaris's and Frey's heavy breathing mingling with mine.

"Fuu... Fuu... That felt incredible..." Solaris sighed. "It was really, really good... Did you enjoy it too?" she asked, her eyes glistening with satisfaction.

"Yes," I affirmed.

My hard dick remained lodged inside Solaris.

"Is that so? Fufufufu... Thank you. Let's do it again next time," she purred, capturing my lips in another hungry kiss. Her tongue explored my mouth. After the kiss, she slowly raised her hips, pulling my erect dick out of her pussy.

A torrent of white cum instantly dripped from her, pooling between her legs.

The onlookers stared intently at my erect dick.

"I'll clean it up..." Solaris said, dropping to her knees with a seductive smile.

She wrapped her lips around my dick, her tongue swirling expertly to lick off her love nectar and my cum. She teased the sensitive head, sucking out the cum collected in the urethra. With a determined look, she took my entire length into her mouth, her lips stroking up and down my shaft, ensuring every inch was clean.

"Okay... It's clean," she said with a smile.

Solaris looked up at me, her eyes gleaming as the head of my dick glistened with her saliva. It still stood proudly erect, pointing towards the heavens.

"Oh my, it seems like it's still not satisfied yet. After all the fucking we did last night until morning, seeing it this hard is quite surprising," Solaris remarked, her gaze fixed on my dick. "Who wants to go next?" she asked, turning to the spectators with a mischievous grin.

No one immediately volunteered, but Artemis, who had previous experience with me, boldly rose from her seat.

"Y-Your Majesty?" Aegis stammered, her eyes wide as she watched Artemis rise.

Artemis locked eyes with Aegis. "Mother is right, Aegis... Everyone," she addressed the group with determination. "If we don't take action, our race could face extinction. That's why I'm stepping up. I'm doing this for the greater good of our people."

"My, Artemis has really grown up. She's truly fit to be the Queen now. I'm trusting you to make it happen, Leon," Solaris said with a wink.

She meant for me to impregnate Artemis so she could ascend to the throne. Easier said than done, considering how difficult it is to impregnate an elf, but I was determined to give it my best shot.

Solaris stepped aside for Artemis. She began by slowly removing each piece of clothing, revealing her body to the sunlight that streamed into the dining room. I had seen Artemis's body before, but never like this—fully illuminated and vulnerable. Her petite frame was toned with just the right amount of curves and muscles, creating a perfect balance that was anything but modest.

When she finally pulled down her panties, she stood completely naked. Aegis watched her with a blush, a mix of admiration and sadness in her eyes, knowing she wasn't the reason Artemis was baring herself.

Artemis stood naked before me, casting a weighty silence. I sat in the chair, my erection still pointing skyward. She gazed at me with eyes full of desire.

"Leon, I want us to... you know... Let's show them," she whispered huskily.

Her tongue ran across her lips, flushed with raw passion. It was an intensely seductive look.

"Can we kiss first?"

"Sure."

Artemis moved closer, her lips meeting mine in a soft, lingering kiss.

"Kiss me like you kissed Mother," she breathed after a moment.

Her tongue slipped into my mouth, a dance of passion and desire. I responded eagerly, exploring the depths of her mouth, tracing the curves of her lips and teeth with mine.

"Mmm... that feels good... Now, lick my breasts."

She pressed her petite breasts against my face, offering herself to me. I eagerly took one in my hand and licked her left nipple.

"...Ahn, suck it more. Suck my nipple...!"

I used my tongue, massaging her other breast with my hand.

"More... Do whatever you want. Make a mess of me. I want bigger breasts. Play with them a lot... Make my breasts your toy..."

"Play with them...!"

I was surprised by how her demeanor seemed to change. Was it the thrill of being watched that heightened her arousal? Perhaps Artemis was an exhibitionist. She was intoxicated by the unique situation of being observed by her people. The Elven Princess was getting off on the exhibitionist thrill.

"...Aaaah... I can't hold back anymore! L-Leon, can I put it in? Can I have you inside me?" Artemis pleaded with heated eyes.

"Yes. Put it inside you, Artemis," I replied.

She smiled at my words, a flicker of anticipation in her eyes. Without a word, she grasped the base of my dick with one hand, guiding it to the entrance of her pussy. Slowly, sensuously, she lowered herself onto me.

"...Aaaah... It's sliding in!"

My glans pushed forcefully into Artemis's pussy. Having only experienced vaginal sex for the first time last night, she slowly took in my dick.

"...Aaaahn! It feels amazing... You're filling me up... I'm completely filled!"

Her pussy was slick with arousal, dripping with love nectar, as my dick invaded her depths, each inch sinking deeper into her warm, wet hole.

Out of the corner of my eye, I caught Aegis closing her eyes and turning away from the scene.

"Aegis," Solaris's voice cut through the air with authority. "Watch. It's an order."

Bound by Solaris's command as Queen, Aegis reluctantly obeyed, forcing herself to witness her crush entwined with a man.

"...Ah, aaaaahn!"

Artemis's moan filled the air weakly.

"...Aaah... deep...! It's reaching the deepest places...!"

My shaft plunged deeply into Artemis until I was buried to the hilt. With a seductive arch of her back, she locked eyes with me, her expression burning with passion.

"I'm going to move now, okay?" she whispered.

She raised her hips and then sank down onto my lap, impaling her pussy on my dick.

"Aaahn, nnnn, nnn, nnhhh...!"

Her lust ignited like a wildfire, consuming her in waves of pleasure.

"...Ahhnnn! Aaah! Aaah! Aaahhhnnn!"

She was immersed in the throes of sexual pleasure, her face shifting from intense arousal to an even more heated expression.

"Her Highness looks like she's really enjoying herself..." muttered Frey, using us as her material once again for masturbation.

"Aaaaahn, aaaah! Aaaaah!"

"Artemis is so adorable. Don't you agree, Aegis?" Solaris remarked to Aegis.

"Y-Yes..." Aegis reluctantly replied, her gaze reluctantly fixated on us fucking each other.

"Aaaaah, that looks so pleasurable! I want it too! I crave it!"

Frey's fervent masturbation intensified even more.

"Aaaah! It feels incredible! Deeper! Ahhn, ahhh! Give me more!"

Artemis gyrated her hips vigorously, the chair beneath us protesting with each movement. Beads of sweat formed on her forehead, trickling down onto my chest, a single droplet sliding between her alluring breasts. I firmly gripped her hips, matching her rhythm with assertive thrusts upward.

"Aaaah, it feels so good! I can't live without you, Leon! Hold me tight always! Ravage me every day! Fill me up! Impregnate me!

Aaaah! I'll give you everything!"

Aegis's face twisted with deeper sorrow as she heard Artemis's words. Each declaration of Artemis's affection for me felt like a dagger to Aegis's heart. In her eyes, I must have looked like the scoundrel who cuckolded her. Dominating her would now seem exceedingly difficult. But for now, my focus remained on Artemis.

"Aaaaah! I'm flying...!" Artemis exclaimed softly, her back arching as she reached orgasm.

My cock felt like it was melting inside her, enveloped by the swirling, wet heat of her pussy as it squeezed me relentlessly. I held her tightly, our bodies slick with sweat, our flushed skin pressed together. My chest reveled in the soft, yielding weight of her breasts.

"Aaaaah... It feels incredible! I'm flying again! Hyaaaaaaaaaaaaan~!"

Artemis rode the crest of pleasure, her back arching uncontrollably, her pussy clenching around me with each wave of ecstasy. She was on the brink of another light climax.

"Aaaah! Impregnate me! Make me a mother! Aaaaah! Hmmnn!"

Artemis kissed me passionately, sucking on my tongue with fervor. She was consumed by desire, her actions becoming increasingly frantic, driving my own arousal to new heights.

"Hnnnn! It's getting bigger inside me! Aaaah, aaahhh! Are you cumming? You're cumming, right?!"

"Yes, I'm about to cum!" I managed to respond amidst the mounting pleasure.

"...Please cum inside me! Fill my womb deep with your hot load! Give me your hot stuff! Make my body hoooooooooooooot!!!"

The sensation of impending release surged through me.

"I'm about to cum too! Let's cum together!" Her face, contorted with pleasure, turned towards mine.
"Aaaaaah... I-I'm cumming! I'm cumming! I'm going to flyyyy!"

Aaaah, ah, ah.... aaaaaahhhh!"

"Catch it all, Artemis!"

I ejaculated forcefully inside her.

"Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah! So hot...!!!"

Her body convulsed in ecstasy as my hot cum poured deep into her womb. We clung to each other tightly, our passion unabated as I emptied every last drop of semen inside her.

"Aaaa... I'm... I'm yours now, Leon... Completely," she gasped, gripping my hair and kissing my lips fervently.

It was then that I heard footsteps retreating from the scene. Artemis had left.

Chapter 250: Elven Reverse Gangbang (1)

Hours later, Artemis and I found ourselves back in her room. She straddled me, taking control in the cowgirl position.

"Aaaaahnnnn! Aaaaah! It feels amazing!" Artemis moaned loudly, her hands gripping my chest.

"Artemis looks absolutely stunning when she's riding you, Leon," Solaris observed, reclining beside us.

The three of us had been at it for four intense hours since our dining room encounter. They took turns riding my throbbing cock.

"It's a shame none of them want to have sex with you afterward, but having you all to ourselves like this is a victory in and of itself," Solaris remarked with a satisfied smirk.

"Are you disappointed they defied you like that?" I asked.

"Well, it's not exactly disappointment. I kind of saw it coming. It's not easy for them to just jump into bed with you, considering our history of disdain for males of any race. Their reaction is natural. Although, I think Frey might come around. That woman is a pervert," she said.

"Well, I'd like a chance with her. And those twins too, if you could arrange it," I said.

"Verra and Serra? Why them?"

Honestly, I didn't have any other reason to want to fuck those two apart from the fact that I haven't fucked twin sisters before.

"I just happened to see them having sex earlier, so maybe that's why I want to start with them," I explained.

"You saw them? Fufufu, so that's why they were late for dinner earlier. They were having sex. Fufufu," Solaris chuckled mischievously. "Well, I can arrange that. Verra and Serra might be curious about having sex with a man too.

They've been pleasuring each other for as long as I can remember, so maybe after seeing us earlier, they'll want to try having sex with you too. After all, you've shown them how a woman's face looks when she takes that dick of yours."

"H-Hey, aaahn! Focus on me first before them!" Artemis complained, her hips undulating eagerly.

"Fufufu, I apologize, Artemis. It seems I got under your skin for a moment," Solaris chuckled. "But goodness, my dear daughter, you look absolutely adorable! I've raised you as my heir and known your cuteness for centuries, but seeing you like this opens my eyes anew to just how irresistible you are! Aaaaah! You're arousing me so much, I want to devour you!"

I smirked at Solaris's words, feeling a surge of excitement. I pulled Artemis closer, her body pressing tightly against mine. Gripping each of her ass cheeks firmly, I began thrusting upward with increased intensity.

"Aaaaah?! Hnnn! Aaaaah, aaaaah! Aaaaah, ah, ahhh! It's so intense! You're fucking me so hard, it feels like you're going to break me...!!!"

Artemis moaned, her voice filled with a mix of pleasure and desperation. Her hips bucked against me, meeting each thrust with eager anticipation, her moans growing louder with every movement.

"Now you can have your way with her in this position," I suggested to Solaris.

Solaris smiled at me devilishly and sat upright. Positioning herself behind Artemis, she sensually licked her finger before gently sliding it into Artemis's tight asshole.

"W-Wha... Aaah, ahhh...! What are you doing?! Hnnn! Aaaah...?!"

"Wow, Artemis. Your asshole takes my finger so easily. Leon's dick must have stretched you out real good for that," Solaris teased with a hint of mischief.

"W-What are you doing, Mother? Pull that out! Aaaahn!"

"You look so delicious like this, Artemis. I can't believe I birthed you," Solaris murmured sensually. "I just want to devour you right now. Oh, I have a really naughty idea."

Solaris slipped out of bed and left the room, presumably to fetch something, leaving Artemis puzzled and a little anxious.

"W-What is Mother up to?" Artemis asked nervously, uncertainty clouding her eyes as she wondered what Solaris might have in store.

After a while, Solaris returned. This time, she wasn't fully naked. Her top half was bare, but she wore something around her hips. It looked like underwear, but no. It was a strap-on dildo, standing out prominently.

"E-Eh? M-Mother?" Artemis exclaimed, her eyes wide with shock at the sight of the imposing toy her mother was wearing.

"To be honest, I never intended to use this on anyone," Solaris began, her voice low and sultry. "I believed it was important to preserve the virginities of those I slept with so that when you, our savior, came, they could savor losing their virginities to you. That's why I forbade elves from putting anything inside their pussies.

I've never used it myself; I've kept my pussy untouched, saving that privilege just for you. But now, I can use it on Artemis since she's already had her first times in both ways, right?"

"What are you planning to do to me?" Artemis asked nervously as I gripped both of her hips tightly, ensuring she couldn't escape.

"What do you think, Artemis?" I grinned mischievously. My hands slid to firmly grip both of her ass cheeks, spreading them apart.

Realization dawned on Artemis. "Y-You can't mean...!"

"Leon and I are going to fuck you in both holes. At the same time," Solaris declared, brandishing the black strap-on dildo in her hand.

"N-No...! I can't!"

"You can. This is nothing compared to what's been inside your tight little ass. It's not like what Leon's packing."

"But having it in both holes at the same time... I'm scared...!"

"Don't be," said Solaris reassuringly. "I'm your Queen. And I'm your mother too. You're not afraid of your own Queen, right?"

"But...!"

Solaris approached Artemis from behind, smoothly climbing onto the bed and grasping Artemis's hips firmly.

"Hnnn...!"

Even from just that touch, Artemis shivered. What would happen when two dicks were inside her?

"Leon, pull your dick out for a second," Solaris instructed.

"Alright," I complied.

I withdrew my dick from Artemis's pussy.

"Eh...? Nnn... Eh?" Artemis's eyes flickered nervously between us.

Solaris eased her dildo into Artemis.

"Nnnhhhhh~!" Artemis moaned, her body tensing with the sensation.

"Aaah, even though it's just a dildo, I can feel how hot and tight you are inside, Artemis," Solaris murmured, pushing the dildo deep into Artemis's pussy until it was hilted.

"Aaa, aaah... ah... ahhh..." Artemis panted, her breath hitching with each thrust. "T-This feels so strange," she admitted, her voice trembling with a mix of nerves and arousal.

"Now then, I'll pull it out. You can slide your dick in then, Leon," said Solaris with a sultry tone.

"Alright."

She withdrew the dildo, and I swiftly replaced it, thrusting my dick inside her like sealing a bottle with a cap to keep its contents from spilling.

"Aaaahhh! T-This feels... I love the feeling of your dick going inside me, Leon...!" moaned Artemis, her voice filled with a mixture of pleasure and longing.

"Now that this dildo is nice and wet, I think it's time to ravish both of your holes," Solaris declared, her eyes gleaming with desire.

"Ah...! W-Wait...! HnnnngggGGNnnnnNnnnnnnnnNnnnnnnnn~!!!"

Artemis clenched her teeth, a guttural moan escaping her lips as Solaris thrust into her asshole. Her eyes rolled back, overwhelmed by the sensation of both holes being filled simultaneously. Saliva dripped lewdly from the corner of her mouth, her body arching involuntarily in response to the intense pleasure.

"Hnnn...! Aaah, just as I thought, I can feel the pleasure through this dildo, experiencing what it's like to have a dick. I don't know why, but I just can," Solaris murmured, her voice filled with a mix of fascination and arousal, watching Artemis's intense reaction.

Solaris might have just been imagining it, but who was I to spoil her fun?

"Now then, shall we begin?" I asked, my voice low and eager.

Solaris nodded with a mischievous smile, her eyes gleaming with anticipation.

Artemis, on the other hand, still hadn't fully recovered from the intense sensation of being double penetrated. She trembled as I gripped her hips firmly, and she braced herself for what was to come. With synchronized movements, Solaris and I thrust into her, filling both of her holes simultaneously.

"Hnnn! Hnnnnaaa~! Aaaaah, aaah, aaaah, aaah!"

Artemis gasped, her breath hitching with each deep penetration. Her body writhed between us, overwhelmed by the dual pleasure coursing through her.

"Aaaaah...! Oh no, it's so much... I-I can't...!" she moaned, her voice filled with a mix of pleasure and overwhelming arousal. "Ah...! Aaahhnn...! I-I can't believe..."

Ahh!"

Her moans intensified as we picked up the pace, our movements becoming more synchronized and relentless. The room filled with the sounds of skin slapping against skin, punctuated by Artemis's impassioned cries and Solaris's breathy encouragements.

"Ahh...! Yes, that's it...! Ohh... I-I'm... I'm cumming...!" Artemis gasped, her body shuddering between us as she reached the peak of ecstasy. "Cummmiiiiingg~!!!"

Artemis's moans filled the room, her body quivering with each thrust. Her fingers dug into the sheets, gripping tightly as waves of pleasure surged through her.

"Hyaaaaan~...! It feels so... so good...!" Artemis cried out, her voice strained with ecstasy. "Harder...! Please...!"

Solaris and I obliged, increasing our pace, our movements becoming more urgent and primal. Artemis's pussy and ass clenched around our dicks, her walls tightening with each deep thrust.

"Ahh...! Nooo! Aah...! I'm gonna... gonna cum again...!" Artemis moaned, her whole body tensing as her climax approached.

Solaris leaned in close, whispering words of encouragement in Artemis's ear, urging her on. "That's it, Artemis. Cum for us. Let go...!"

[illegible]

With a final, intense thrust, Artemis screamed in pleasure, her body convulsing as she reached her peak.

Her juices flowed, drenching our cocks as she rode out her orgasm.

We continued to fuck her relentlessly, driving her through wave after wave of pleasure until finally, Solaris and I reached our own peaks.

My dick exploded its seed deep inside her warm, tight womb. Solaris must have been incredibly aroused, watching her daughter cum repeatedly, and she climaxed in response to the intense scene.

"Aaah, I'm cumming from fucking my daughter...! Aaaah...!"

After their orgasms peaked and subsided, both of them collapsed on top of me.

I guess going at it for almost a day straight was exhausting for all of us. Even I felt drained. I suppose it's time to call it a day for sex, huh?
