Chapter 49: Finding Shelter

"So, do you know where we are?" Kurt asked Diana as they sat together by the fire and ate cooked fish.

"No. But I know that we're still in Eldoria. I can't teleport to other continents just yet."

"Just yet? You'll be able to do that?"

"With enough time and practice I know I will."

"That's O.P."

"Hehe~ By the way, you still didn't tell me where you're from. I'm still waiting to hear." She squeezed his hand tighter and asked him again.

"It's kind of a confusing story..."

"That's okay. We've still got about a day and a half before my mana replenishes. I say that's more than enough time to process whatever you're about to say."

"Fair enough. Alright, I'll try to keep this really simple. It all started when I got out of bed..."

Kurt then proceeded to tell her about how he got here. About how everything was just a normal day until he fainted and woke up at the docks of Eldoria. He told her about his involvement with the cult and his partnership with the prefects but more notably with Dominik. The biggest bombshell he revealed was that he is actually from another timeline.

"You're from... the past? Before magic was even a thing? I can't imagine a world without magic."

"I know it sounds crazy but that's just the way it is. I've already accepted that my old life is gone but I'm still trying to adapt to this world. It gets a little overwhelming at times. The worst things I've come to learn was about the shape of the continents and that there were seven World Wars. Oh, and that there's magic too."

"You're not distraught over the fact that everything you knew is gone?"

"The only thing I really miss is the internet. And that I won't get to see the endings of my favourite shows or novels. Other than that, I'm totally okay."

"What about your parents? The way you spoke about your father in the past tense..."

"They're both dead. Neither my mother nor my father was good people by any means so there's not really any attachment when it comes to that. My father always was a scumbag and my mother... well, she changed overtime, and not for the better."

"Kurt..."

"Sorry, I'm not trying to trauma dump or anything. I'm just trying to reassure you that I'm okay."

"I understand." She leaned into his chest and fiddled with his chain.

"Say, if you're from the past then what does your personal tag say about you? The way it should work is it connects with your magic essence to trace your roots and accurately depicts your individual data."

"That's another thing I haven't figured out." Kurt held his personal tag and imbued it with magic. "At first it was just a bunch of "Unknown" text but then it changed into this..."

When he showed her the popup display, she began to carefully read it.

"Hmm... Riverton?"

"Yeah, I’m not even from there but it somehow shows that I am."

"Year 756... You’re 24?"

"Yep. What about you?"

"I’m 27."

"Wow. You actually told me? I’m surprised I didn’t get the typical ’You shouldn’t ask a lady her age’ lecture."

"I’d tell you anything about me~ No need to be shy." She encouraged him and continued to read.

"You’re an adventurer?"

"I honestly don’t even know what that means. I mean I know what an adventurer is, don’t get me wrong, but it’s something I’d rather not explore right now. Excuse the pun."

"Hehe, you’re excused. Let’s see... Kurt Rossana... Rossana? I’ve never heard of that family name."

"It’s so strange that you’d say that because in my time, everyone had a surname." Kurt told her but she wasn’t listening. Instead, she just kept repeating his surname over and over.

"Rossana... Ross..ana... Rose? No, Rosie~"

"Diana?" He looked at her with concern.

"Yes, Rosie~?" She returned his look with a loving smile of her own.

"Rosie?"

"Mmhm~" She nodded. "From now on I'll call you Rosie. Sounds nice, doesn't it?"

"Sounds great. How about I call you Ana?"

"A-A-Ana?!" She puffed up and held his mouth shut. "N-No! That's not allowed! Just call me Diana.... please~"

'Weakness acquired heh hee.'

"Ok Diana." He took her hands off him. "I won't call you that..."

"T-Thank you, Rosie — for now — Huh?"

"What did you just say?" Diana looked at him suspiciously.

"I said I won't call you that..."

"Oh, I must've been hearing — for now — things HUH?! You did it again!"

"Must've been the wind~" Kurt shrugged. "Speaking of wind, c'mon we gotta find us a proper place to stay the night." He stood up and held his hand out to her.

"... Yes, we should." She took his hand and stood up. "Come, follow me."

"So you do know where we are?" He took the goblins club and followed her into the jungle.

"No I don't. But we do give our students survival tests that's similar to our situation."

"You drop a bunch of kids into the wild and tell them to survive? Sounds... erhm... fun."

"It’s not supposed to be. It’s to test whether they have the intellect to stay together as a group and come out unscathed or whether they’d all split up and do their own thing. Sadly, most of them choose the latter."

"But doesn’t staying in a group cause its own sorts of problems?"

"Yes, however..." She slowed down her pace and whispered to Kurt. "I believe we are being followed. Three goblins if I’m not mistaken."

"I noticed. On three?"

"Yes. One..." She started.

"Twooo..." He tightened his grip on the wooden club.

""Three!"" They shouted together.

Kurt threw the club as hard as he could into the bushes behind them.

"Gege?! Graarg–"

BONK!

"Bullseye!"

One of the goblins got knocked out instantly causing the other two to panic. Diana then used this opportunity to take out the rest of them but as she reached for her red gem to summon her crimson nodachi she realised it wasn’t there.

’That’s right. I fell unconscious when my mana depleted and my sword reverted back as a result. Dammit! It’s not like I could summon it anyway.’

The goblins saw that moment of hesitation from her and used it to jump at her. Diana easily dodged their attack and picked up the unconscious goblin’s club to whack one of them on the back of their head.

"Graargh??" The lone goblin looked at both of his friends and realised there was no winning.

So it did the only thing it knew to do in this hopeless situation.

Kamikaze.

"Gege Graaargh geeege!" It bared its sharp teeth and nails then lunged up at Diana with all its might.

"Don’t forget about me, stupid!" Kurt caught it by the foot and slammed it into the dirt.

While it was stunned, he grabbed it by the head and snapped its neck. Once it died, he did the same for the rest.

’Always confirm the kill heh heh.’

"That’s quite the happy look you have on your face." She stood next to him and poked his cheek.

"O-Oh. It’s something I always had since I was young. By the way, why’d you blank out momentarily?"

"What a... unique quirk you have hehe. The reason I paused was because I subconsciously went for my gem to summon my sword. Then I realised it wasn’t there and that I had no mana to summon it anyway. I know it’s a bit dumb, but could you come back with me to the beach and look for my gem? It’s very important to me."

"There’s no need." He reached into his pocket and gave her the gem. "It slipped my mind since we’ve been so caught up in our drama, but I picked it up when it fell from your hand while you were unconscious."

"Rosie! chu Thank you~"

Kurt blushed at her sudden turn from sad and worried to beaming with happiness as she acted so cute.

"Haha. It’s getting dark out so we should hurry and find shelter."

"Mm~" She smiled and held his hand as they continued to walk deeper in the jungle.

After about 30 minutes of searching and taking out a couple more goblins, they finally reached a place where they could potentially stay the night.

"It’s a cave but... should we trust it? We did just run into a few goblins. What if there are more inside? Or what if this is something else’s home?" Kurt asked her.

"Then we take them out~" She lifted up her club.

"A bit dangerous if you ask me. Here’s the plan: I’ll go in and quickly scout the place to see if it’s safe while you stay out here and warn me if anything’s coming. Sound good?"

"The only thing I hate about that plan is that I have to let go of you." She pouted. "Just be quick, okay?"

"Don’t worry I won’t be long. I am a ninja from Riverton after all. We specialise in these kinds of missions."

Kurt then sneaked into the cave but quickly came back.

"What is it?" Diana asked.

"Turns out there’s nothing to worry about. It must be because it’s a bit dark and we couldn’t see but this cave really isn’t that deep. No signs of monsters nor animals either. We’re good to stay here."

"That’s a relief. I was getting tired of walking around and fighting like this." She sighed as she walked into the cave.

"Just give me a minute. I want to find some leaves and bushes to cover the entrance. I know we killed most of those goblins on the way here but one can never be too safe."

"I’ll help you." She turned back and helped him gather a few things.

After concealing the entrance to make it blend in with the environment, Kurt started a small fire and laid his and Diana’s blazer on the ground for them to rest on.

"There. We should be all set for the night."

"Finally~" Diana crawled onto his lap and straddled his waist.

"Diana? What are you doing?" Kurt asked but knew exactly what she was up to.

"Oh Rosie, I’m simply continuing where we left off~ And this time there will be no interruptions~"

Chapter 50: Going To Heaven [R-18]

"Rosie~ Haaa mmch moore~" Diana grinded her hips on Kurt’s pelvis as she held her hands in his messy hair and kissed him.

Kurt was holding her by the waist to keep her steady but soon his hands reached down and found a much more comfortable place to rest. Much softer too.

"Mmm~ You can smooch squeeze me harder."

Kurt sunk his hands deeper in Diana's plump ass. It felt so good and soft that he felt almost compelled to give it one good–

Smack!

"Ahn~! Rosie, hehe~ Do you like it?"

"Yeah... You're so... irresistible." He then began to kiss and suck on her neck to which she found much pleasure in.

"Haaa~ And it's all yours. Mmmm~ Yes, that feels so good~"

Kurt noticed once again her two perky nipples desperately sticking through her open shirt.

'They look... so inviting.' He smiled and slowly took off her shirt.

Once it was off, he held her soft breast and played with one nipple as he sucked on the other.

"Haahn~!" She jolted and pulled him closer into her breast. "Rosie~ Suck me harder~"

Hearing that she was enjoying herself, he gave her one last suck then gently bit her nipple.

"Kya! Mmmnnyeesss~ Haaahn~ Rosieeee~"

plop

He plopped his mouth off her breast and smiled deviously at her.

"Let’s not forget about the other one now~"

"Hm? Aaahhn~" She moaned again as Kurt began working on her other nipple.

All while this was happening, she was still grinding on him. So much so that it got to a point he started feeling a little damp in that area.

’I see. She must be feeling really good if I’m the one who caused this... I’m glad.’

Diana suddenly lifted his head to meet with hers. When he looked at her face he saw that her eyes were glazed over with lust and that there were tears coming out.

"Diana? Why’re you crying?" He asked as wiped away her tears.

"I’m not sniff crying. I’m just overwhelmed with happiness. I’m so happy that you’re here with me Rosie."

She fully took off his own shirt and pushed him down to play with his nipples. At the same time, she was also sucking on his neck and rubbing herself on him.

"Hehehe~ Such mmch cute nipples."

’This feels so weird, but... I like it!’

"Looks like your little friend wants to come out and play~ Should I let him out Rosie~?"

"Is that even a question?"

"Beg me for it~ Just like you did at the diner..." She breathed heavily as she waited for him in anticipation.

"B-Beg you?"

"Please Rosie~ Please beg me to let your little friend out. Please," she whispered in his ears. "Beg for me please~ I like it when you do that."

’Says the one who’s actually begging me! Does she even realise this?’

"Diana..."

"Yes Rosie~?" She grew excited as she looked at his face.

"Please... can you let my... little friend out? I-I need to feel you hold me. P-Please hold me..."

Diana paused as she watched Kurt beg. The way he stumbles over his words because of his absolute embarrassment and the way he tries to cover his red face as a result of it. She felt an electric current flow through her spine and into her crotch, causing her to become even more wet and horny.

Never did she know how much she needed something until it was given to her.

"Heh...hehehehe~ Yes! Of course I’ll let him out. Oh Rosie, you’re so cuuute~"

She started kissing from his chest and onto his nipple. From his nipple she gave pecking kisses all the way down to his belly button. Lastly from his belly button, she reached down to unloosen his pants until finally she slowly pulled off the last remains of his clothes and freed his shaft.

"Wow~" She stared at it in wonder, "so this is a... gulp a penis. It’s so... fascinating~"

"Diana... please... don’t just stare at it..."

"Hehehe~" She giggled as she brought her nose closer to it. "It smells so sniff sniff so manly~"

The closer Kurt looked into her eyes the more he'd swear he could see the shape of hearts in them.

When Diana gently held his penis, it gave a little twitch and leaked a bit of precum. The whole spectacle sent shivers down to her core. She was so hypnotised by the way it looked and especially the smell that she automatically stuck out her tongue and brought it to the head.

'Wait, is she gonna...'

Slurp~

Right then, Kurt shot his waist up at the unexpected yet sensational feeling.

"Rosie! Are you okay?" Diana looked at him in concern.

"m-more...." He whispered while he covered his face.

"What was that? I can't hear you..."

Kurt took his arm off his face revealing a tear-filled eye and a face that was flushed in red.

"I said more, Diana... Please, do it again~"

That broke her. The thin line that was barely holding onto reason snapped inside her brain.

"Get ready Rosie~ I'm about to take you to heaven... And I won't stop even if you beg me to, hehe~"

She began licking from the root of his penis, and slowly made her way up, taking in any spilled precum from his earlier shot. Next, she licked around his shaft to stimulate him even more.

Kurt’s body began twitching as he couldn’t take being teased like this. He needed something to alleviate this torture. He needed a release.

When Diana was done licking around his shaft, she made her way further up and was face to face with the main dish.

’His glans are so... red. Like it’s in pain... Don’t worry, Rosie. I know just the right medicine that will fix you right up~’

Her tongue touched his glans.

"Diana~ There, right there... please~"

She sucked and kissed all around his cock this time, leaving no corner untouched.

"Rosie~ slurp do you mmch like this~?"

Kurt, who was in his own world, couldn’t answer.

After one long licked from her, Diana kissed the tip of his glans and decided to go for the kill. She covered the whole head of his cock in her lips and bobbed her head up and down all the while making sure to lick around the edges of his glans and suck in any precum that it leaves behind.

Slurp Schlurp* Pop Mmch* Mmch Mmch Schuurrp Pop

Kurt was audibly moaning at this point due to Diana’s intense sucking.

He looked down at her with a blurred-out vision and could feel something wanting to escape him. Without even realising it, his hand reached for her head and he pulled her in deeper, sliding his whole shaft through her throat.

"I’m... I’m getting closer...Diana~ Gods please... This feels so good~" Kurt sat up and held her head down as the tears in his eye began to fall and his mouth started drooling.

Diana’s own crotch was a mess as she began pleasuring herself. She pulled off her shorts and panties and vigorously flicked her bean and massaged her slit.

She then slid the tip of her tongue into his urethral meatus as she kept sucking and sucking. She could feel his cock wanting to explode and she enjoyed every minute of it.

"D-Diana! I’m... I’m cumming!" He lifted his waist further in her mouth and released all that pent up desire.

His cum flowed all the way down her throat and she accepted it all.

Not wanting to let anything go to waste, she held and locked her arms around his waist and continuously sucked all the cum out.

Mmch Slurp Schuuurrp

She just kept sucking. And just when it looked like she’d stop and pull back, she took his cock even deeper and began sucking the life out of him.

"D-Diana wait... I’m... I’m all out~" Kurt tried getting her off him but she refused to let go.

Schluurp Mmch Schluurp

"W-Wait! I feel weird! Something’s.... Something’s coming out– Aah~"

This time instead of his thick cum, he squirted out a thinner version of it.

Kurt was so confused as to what was happening that he was actually afraid he accidentally pissed in her mouth. Little did he know that what actually happened was that he reached the pinnacle of male ecstasy.

"Diana stop!" He managed to muster up some strength and grabbed her by the shoulders to take her off of him.

Pop~

Her mouth released a satisfying sound as she let go of him.

"Haaaa haaaa hehehe~ What's the matter Rosie~? Finished already~?" She heavily breathed in and out as looked at him with a wet mouth and glazed out eyes.

Kurt was relieved to see that there were no piss stains anywhere on her mouth nor his cock.

"W-What was that? I could've sworn I–"

"Shhh Rosie~" She put a finger on his lips. "It's only natural that you're confused. But just know that what happened made me extremely happy because that just mean were compatible hehe~"

"... Why you little... Come here!"

"Kyah~" She was surprised when Kurt suddenly got on top of her this time.

"Rosie~"

"This time it's my turn to send you to heaven. And I won't stop even if you beg me to~"
