Chapter 24 Complaint

Seeing that even Gu Huaiqing, whom he disliked, moved out, Yun Chang immediately understood what he meant.

Wiping away her tears, holding her head up, she said proudly:

"Xu Dalan, my mother said that my father was killed by your old Wang family, and she doesn't even recognize you. If you dare to come to my house again, I will let Uncle Gu arrest all of your family members and shoot them! My Uncle Gu is an elder. Officer, go out in a car, bring a guard, and have a gun on your body!"

The corners of Gu Shinian's mouth were slightly curved, and he touched Yunshang's little head happily, praising her for doing a good job with practical actions.

Xu Dalan had been beaten up a long time ago, lying on the ground, screaming and screaming with her mouth open, she didn't hear a word of what Gu Shinian and Yun Chang said.

However, the surrounding villagers exploded at once.

"I'm a motherfucker! In a car, with guards, what kind of official is that?"

"I've seen big trucks, I've seen people riding bicycles in town, but I haven't seen a car. What does a car look like?"

"How did Widow Wang know such a high-ranking official? Could it be a relative of Lao Yun's family?"

"I've never heard that Lao Yun's family has a relative who is a high-ranking official. It doesn't look like a relative of Lao Wang's family. I remember that Dachuan went to the provincial capital for two years a few years ago. It is estimated that Dachuan knows someone."

"Widow Wang has been living well these past few years. Did this family help?"

"Ouch! I just said how good-looking this boy is. Look at the clothes they wear. It's more slippery than the clothes worn by cadres in the city. We can't buy such fabrics in Qinghe County. At first glance, they are high-end goods in big cities. !"

Gu Shinian was wearing a brand-new army green smock, and the shape of the clothes fit neatly, which made Gu Shinian very energetic.

The fabric of this dress was found by the two of them from the private custom store in the shopping mall. It was originally a fine cotton material used as an inner lining. Yunshang instructed the widow Wang to sew it overnight in the space, and rushed this piece for Gu Shinian. clothes out.

In this arduous and simple era when even new clothes have to be patched, Gu Shinian's new clothes made of high-grade fabrics and fit well, one can imagine how eye-catching.

To put it bluntly, with the clothes on Gu Shinian's body, no one doubts the authenticity of the words of the two.

The villagers gathered together, whispered and talked a lot. They looked at Gu Shinian from time to time, and then looked at Yun Chang, but no one helped Xu Dalan, who was terrible on the ground.

Everyone in the village knew that no matter what the relationship between the boy and Widow Wang's family was, Xu Dalan was kicked on the iron plate this time, and this beating would probably be a waste.

"What are you doing? You're not going to work anymore? What are you doing here to grind foreign workers?" The old village chief shouted to this side while nibbling on the wowow head in one hand and the hoe in the other.

"Village chief, something happened! The girl from the Dachuan family was bullied by people from other villages early in the morning. What do you think about this?"

A woman shouted back, and Yunshang turned around and recognized that it was Aunt Li who lived next door, and the woman who greeted her at the entrance of the village last time not to leave the village.

When the old village chief heard this, he became anxious, dragged his hoe behind him, and trotted all the way over.

"What's the matter? What's going on? Which village is bullying our village's baby? You all eat dry rice? A group of old men just watched the village's baby being bullied by people from other villages... Oh, this is, who is this? , how is it like the blood gourd!?"

The old village chief ran over and was taken aback by Xu Dalan, whose face was covered in blood.

"This is the outsider who bullied Girl Chang! Uncle Village Chief, I asked Er Lai Zi to go to Lao Yun's house to call someone, let's wait until Uncle Yun arrives." A young man in the crowd said with a smile.

"Okay, then wait for the Lao Yun family to come."

The old village chief also recognized Xu Dalan at this moment, said something in a hurry, retreated to the side of the road, and put his hoe under his buttocks,

Lighted up the dry tobacco pouch, sat there and started smoking.

The people from the old Yun family came very quickly. As soon as Gu Shinian hugged Yun Chang to the old village head, Yun Erchuan ran over from the village like a gust of wind. One of the shoes on his feet ran away, and one of his shoes was on his head. He was sweating, his mouth was open, and he couldn't even speak.

Xinglin Village is actually not that big. There are only less than 200 households in the whole village. However, due to the limitation of terrain, the people living in the village are relatively scattered.

Qiancun is the area at the entrance of the village, close to the pond, where 80 or 90 families live.

The back village is an old village where the villagers lived before liberation. There are ravines on three sides, and a bluestone gate with a height of 10 meters and a length of 60 to 70 meters was built on the other side. imprint.

The old village is a little smaller, but its geographical location is very advantageous. During the war, the heavy city gates were lowered to form a very solid security fortress.

In the past, the villagers didn't feel crowded when they lived there. In recent years, the population of the village has soared, and even the approved homestead cannot find a place. The old village chief and the town got some air, and marked a large piece of rocky land near the pond as a homestead, so that the villagers could go anywhere easily.

With a spacious homestead and no more wars, the villagers moved out one after another from the back village, forming a new living area by the pond.

Widow Wang's family lived in the third row of the front village, while Lao Yun's family was still in the back village, and the two were almost two miles apart.

Yun Erchuan ran from the house in one breath, panting like this, it's not unusual at all.

"...Shangnan, no, what's the matter? Beaten, no?"

Yun Erchuan didn't have time to say hello to the village chief, and didn't look at Xu Dalan who was constantly humming on the ground. He wiped off his sweat, dragged Yunshang first, and looked up and down.

"Second uncle, I didn't get beaten. Second brother beat the bad guy away."

Yun Chang said, and pointed his finger at Gu Shinian who was beside him. Only then did Yun Erchuan realize that the second brother in Yun Chang's mouth was Yun Chang's brother Shi Nian, whom he had seen in the county before.

Yun Erchuan was about to say something when Gu Shinian glanced over, and when he reached his lips, he was frightened back.

"Second uncle, my mother is sick and can't get off the kang. My aunt scolded my mother for being unfilial, said that I hid men at home, and asked me if the taste of men was good. Second uncle, can human flesh be eaten?"

Yun Chang complained to Yun Erchuan innocently, Yun Erchuan's face turned blue when he heard it, he turned around, walked to Xu Dalan's side in a few steps, raised his hand and was about to fight.

But Xu Dalan's face was covered in blood at the moment, and Yun Erchuan couldn't find a position even if he wanted to start. In the end, he was so angry that he gave Xu Dalan a hard kick before giving up.

"Our Lao Yun family hasn't asked you to settle the account of what happened back then. The people of your Lao Wang family dare to come and bully my niece. You really don't think our Lao Yun family is a bunch of scumbags!"
