Chapter 391 Buying a job

Yun Chang withdrew her protruding little head and let out a long sigh of relief.

No one thinks that it's fine for Erya to be hustled by villains.

For girls in this era, a bad reputation can ruin their whole life.

No matter how disgusting she hated Erya, she never thought of ruining Erya's reputation in this way.

Gu Shinian also looked away, dragged Yunshang back to the side of the road, and while waiting for the tram, carefully asked Yunshang about the "crime process".

Knowing that she pretended to be a ghost to scare Erya, and even threw Erya into the public toilet, Gu Shinian suddenly felt his back go cold.

My little sister launched a ruthless attack, and the methods were really direct and brutal.

In the future, you have to be careful not to annoy Yun Shang, otherwise she doesn't know what tricks she will use to deal with him.

"Second brother, Erya was frightened last night. I will definitely not dare to sleep tonight. Maybe I will find someone to accompany her. I have already thought about it. I will let her wait tonight and go tomorrow night." scare her!"

Erya can last one night without sleep, so she can't stay awake for two or three nights, right?

She just played around with Erya to see how long she could last.

Gu Shinian didn't know what to say anymore, he tightened the corners of his twitching mouth, his face stiffened, and he dragged Yunshang onto the tram without saying a word.

Linyang University is located in the main urban area of Linyang City, not very far from the military area, and it only takes ten minutes by tram.

As a veteran university established half a century ago, although the gate building of Linyang University looks dilapidated, it has a simple and calm beauty.

Especially the flying and flying characters on the gate tower of the school, which can be seen from the hands of famous masters.

It was time for breakfast, and the school seemed very lively with people coming and going.

Gu Shinian pulled Yunshang, Yunshang carried the ball, the two of them and a cat entered the campus in an extremely eye-catching way, asked all the way, and walked over to the Chinese Department.

When the two found Lin Dani, Lin Dani was sitting on the concrete platform beside the flower bed, with a bun in one hand and a book in the other hand.

Sitting next to him was a male classmate in his twenties, wearing a washed and yellowed white shirt and glasses, who looked a bit dull.

Yun Shang first secretly looked at the man, seeing that he was sitting a meter away from Lin Dani, holding a book in his hand and reading vigorously, not trying to talk to Lin Dani, Yun Shang relaxed a little tone.

It's not that she's overwhelmed and too nervous, but that Lin Dani's previous life experience is too complicated, and her current identity background is eye-catching enough, so she must be surrounded by some men who want to use her to cling to the Lin family or Bai Yancheng.

In addition, Lin Dani is used to being soft-tempered. Even if her mind is clear enough, with her temperament of not rejecting people, she really can't deal with those thick-faced and black-hearted men with impure goals.

Fortunately, Lin Dani is now in university, and there are few men of the same age among her classmates. In addition, most of the students in the school are foreigners. Basically, no one knows Lin Dani's identity and background, so everyone can feel relieved.

"Auntie!"

Lin Dani was choked by Wowotou, she held the book upside down, and was about to drink water, when Yun Chang suddenly called out, and the water in her mouth spewed out immediately.

"Cough cough...cough," Lin Dani coughed a few times, then turned her head in surprise, "Shangnan! Shi Nian? Why did you two come here? Is there something wrong at home?"

"No, Second Brother Gu and I missed you. Come to see you at school." Yunshang ran over, put her arms around Lin Dani's waist, and looked at the half-faced Wowotou in her hand, "Auntie, what do you do in the morning?" Do you just eat Wowotou?"

The Lin family gave you so many food stamps, and I will give you and Dacheng a round of fine food every month, so you eat this stuff at school?

Lin Dani drank the water in the tea mug in a few sips, put the Wowotou into the teapot very naturally, smiled and said to Yun Shang, "This Wowotou is the ration returned by Aunt Li in the East House, if you don't eat it, you will grow hair gone."

These days, no one is willing to waste food.

Even if Lin Dani and Dacheng don't lack fine grains every month, these rough grains that scratched their throats can't be wasted.

The man sitting by the flower bed raised his head, pushed his glasses off the bridge of his nose and asked, "Student Wen Jin, is this your niece?"

"Yes, my niece." Lin Dani's expression on her face was a little embarrassed, and she said quite uncomfortable, "I'm sorry, student He Zhonghua, did I disturb your reading? Let's talk in another place."

Then, the classmate He Zhonghua, who was wearing glasses, nodded very seriously in Yunshang's incredible eyes:

"It's okay, I'll just go over there and read a book."

Saying that, he slowly closed the book in his hand, smiled at Yun Shang and Gu Shinian, turned around and sat down on the other side of the flower bed.

Yun Shang: "..." This is definitely the legendary straight man of steel.

Straight and hard, straighter than steel!

If this person is still single, he is definitely single based on his strength.

Gu Shinian was also speechless for a while, seeing that Yunshang was so startled that he couldn't close his mouth, he smiled and closed Yunshang's small chin, lowered his voice, and talked to Lin Dani who had regained his composure about the work index of the shoe factory.

Lin Dani didn't even hesitate this time, and agreed without hesitation.

"I've been worrying about this job index recently. Since I was admitted to university, several groups of people have approached me about working in a shoe factory. Except for three who want to pay for the index, the rest are just wanting to He went to work in a shoe factory instead of me, saying that he would return his job after I graduated from university..."

Speaking of this, Lin Dani's face was very ugly, she paused for a while, and then continued, "We are all acquaintances, I promise that no one else in the family will be happy, and this matter has been delayed until now.

However, the shoe factory has been pressing hard recently, and I still think about going back this Sunday and selling the index to whomever I want. Fortunately, you came in time. "

Lin Dani's meaning is obvious. Whether she sells the job in the shoe factory or asks someone to replace her temporarily, there are people who have objections to her.

Since she would be dissatisfied with any decision she made, she would naturally give the job to Gu Pan, who was closer to her family.

Gu Shinian nodded, and was about to talk to Lin Dani about the price, when Lin Dani took the initiative to say, "Back then, we are our own family, you and Changnan have helped me so much before, so don't meet Aunt Lin and ask It's about the money."

If it weren't for Yunshang and Gu Shinian, she and Dacheng would have been tortured to death by the Cao family long ago. How could they have become the little daughters of the Lin family in the capital like now, and were admitted to the best university in the province.

Such a beautiful day was something she never dared to dream of before.

Lin Dani's attitude was very firm, and Gu Shinian no longer mentioned spending money to buy a job. He just told Yun Shang on the way back to send more grains to Lin Dani in the future.

Chapter 392 Give money

After Zhang Chunni came to ask for child support, Zhou Mingjuan's reputation in the compound was completely tainted.

Go out and wander around casually, no matter men, women, old or young, everyone is gossiping about the past things of Gu Huaiqing, Zhou Mingjuan and Zhang Chunni.

Compared with Zhang Chunni's miserable life these years, Zhou Mingjuan's leisurely and dazzling petty bourgeois life is even more eye-catching.

Especially after Zhou Mingjuan robbed Gu Guangzong, he never bought a new piece of clothes for Gu Guangzong, and never let Gu Guangzong eat enough, which angered most of the military wives in the compound.

It is said that that night, someone smashed the window of Gu's house with a small stone. Even Gu Mingzhu was implicated by Zhou Mingjuan and excluded by other children in the compound.

Faced with Gu Mingzhu's accusations and crying, Zhou Mingjuan, who was almost driven crazy by public opinion, did not comfort her "Pearl in the Palm" as usual, but became angry with Gu Mingzhu for the first time, locked her in the room to reflect, and forbade her to The nanny brings the meal up.

As for Zhou Mingjuan herself, she stayed in Gu Huaiqing's study all night. When the sky was slightly bright, Zhou Mingjuan put Gu Huaiqing and her deposit slip into a bag, and wrapped her head and face with a gauze, before most of the military wives got up. Out of the compound.

Gu Huaiqing's savings are about the same as Yunshang's private estimate. Except for daily expenses, Gu Huaiqing's savings for eleven years are about 15,000.

Zhou Mingjuan has only been a director for a few years, and besides the normal expenses of her monthly salary, she only has 3,000 yuan in savings.

The combined deposits of the two are only 18,000 yuan, and after paying Zhang Chunni's support, the two of them don't even have 1,000 yuan in their hands.

Sitting in the bank, Zhou Mingjuan watched with bloodshot eyes as Zhang Chunni took over a bundle of neatly bundled bills, almost out of breath with distress.

The money she and Gu Huaiqing had worked so hard to save for so many years was cheated by Zhang Chunni.

It's really hateful.

But what made Zhou Mingjuan even more embarrassing was that not only did she want to give all her wealth to Zhang Chunni, but she also had to bow her head in front of Zhang Chunni, begging Zhang Chunni to speak well of Gu Huaiqing during the organizational investigation.

Otherwise, she would really be out of money.

But it doesn't matter.

As long as Gu Huaiqing can keep his position as political commissar, the money will be earned back sooner or later.

Maybe when Gu Huaiqing comes back,

He can still find a way to get the money back from Zhang Chunni.

Therefore, she doesn't feel bad, and she can't feel bad!

She really doesn't feel bad at all...

Zhou Mingjuan couldn't help comforting herself, pinching the leather bag with both hands, her fingertips turned white due to the force, she pulled her eyeballs out of the big ticket with pain, turned and walked outside.

If she stayed any longer, Zhou Mingjuan was worried that she would go up to grab money uncontrollably.

With the help of the bank staff, Zhang Chunni counted the amount and deposited the money in the names of the three children. It was not until she held the three thin deposit slips that Zhang Chunni breathed a sigh of relief.

The money is in hand.

Next, it was time to stab Gu Huaiqing for the last time.

Zhou Mingjuan had been waiting outside the gate of the bank, and when she saw Zhang Chunni coming out, she rushed to meet her, her face flushed, and she said in a loud voice:

"Zhang, Sister Zhang, I gave you all the support for the three children. You have to remember what you said. If someone in the organization asks you to investigate what happened back then, you have to speak up for Huaiqing."

Seeing that Zhang Chunni's face remained unchanged, neither agreeing nor refusing, but just standing there looking at her with weird eyes, Zhou Mingjuan was a little confused.

Zhang Chunni What does this mean?

Could it be that she is still not satisfied after taking the money, and still wants her to kneel down and kowtow to beg for mercy?

Or did Zhang Chunni repent?

Don't want to save Gu Huaiqing after getting the money?

Thinking of this, Zhou Mingjuan's expression changed immediately, with a knife in his eyes, wishing to poke a few holes in Zhang Chunni's body:

"Zhang Chunni, don't forget that Gu Guangzong is still in the southwest. If Huaiqing is stained and cannot keep his position as political commissar, Gu Guangzong will have no future in the army."

Zhang Chunni smiled generously, "I know, when the organization talks to me, I will speak for Gu Huaiqing." No wonder!

Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan wanted to kill her now, how could they really treat Gu Guangzong well.

Zhou Mingjuan really took her for a fool!

If Gu Huaiqing is really allowed to secure the position of political commissar, whether Gu Guangzong can save his life will not be discussed. At the very least, Gu Huaiqing will not give Gu Guangzong any resources, nor will he try to help Gu Guangzong gain a foothold in the army.

If Gu Huaiqing was stained and had to change jobs, even if Gu Guangzong was implicated and his chances of meritorious service and promotion were slim, at least he could save his life.

To be exact, Gu Guangzong no longer has to worry about Zhou Mingjuan playing tricks behind his back to plot against him.

After fooling Zhou Mingjuan away, Zhang Chunni didn't stay in the provincial capital anymore, packed up her things, and caught the train back to Qinghe County that night.

After seeing off Zhang Chunni, the three brothers and sisters of the Bai family also returned to the small courtyard after school as before. After finishing their homework, the group went back to the Bai family for dinner.

At the dinner table, Yun Chang picked up the soft and rotten braised pork, put it in Gu Shinian's bowl, and gave each of them a piece of braised pork under the burning eyes of Bai Yancheng and Bai Qingzheng looking over from time to time.

Seeing that the corners of Bai Yancheng's mouth were slightly raised, Yun Chang quickly put down her chopsticks and discussed with Bai Yancheng:

"Dad, my younger brother and I want to live with Second Brother Gu at night. I have agreed with Second Brother Gu that we will give my brother extra lessons at night, and then my brother and I will be our second brother's companions."

Lin Wenlan has led the company. As long as Bai Yancheng is persuaded, she can live outside for a few days in a fair manner.

To avoid waiting for Lin Wenlan to come back, thinking wildly all day, worrying that she will be stolen again, and staying outside for one night would be like killing Lin Wenlan's life.

As soon as Yunshang opened his mouth, Bai Qingming quickly swallowed the braised pork in his mouth, and followed Yunshang's words, "Dad, I have already agreed with Brother Shi Nian, as long as I make up my lessons and listen to Xiao Qi, I will be able to often go to live in Brother Shi Nian's small courtyard."

How nice it is to live outside. No one will control him wherever he wants to play, and for as long as he wants to play.

It's just that the small courtyard is too close to the family courtyard, it would be better if it was further away.

Hearing this, Bai Qingyue put down her job very dissatisfied, "Xiaoqi, you only want to play by yourself, don't you want to play with me? And you..."

Before Yunshang could react, Bai Qingyue turned to Bai Qingming again, and said angrily, "You've got some skills! You used to play and run away from home by yourself, but now you have learned to run away with Xiao Qi! What do you say ! Do you want to do bad things again, so let Xiao Qi and Shi Nian take the blame for you?"

"I think so too." Bai Qingzheng also echoed, "little six, what are you using as an excuse, why do you have to use Xiao Qi and Shi Nian as an excuse for you to make up lessons for you? Who in the courtyard doesn't I know you don't like studying the least?"

Bai Qingming and Yun Shang were immediately stunned.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng's expression was loose, he might agree to it, but Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingzheng intervened in such a way that Bai Yancheng's face was pulled down successfully.

Let alone living outside, Bai Qingming would have to eat fried pork with bamboo shoots again.

Bai Yancheng glared at Bai Qingming angrily, "Say! What do you want to do? What do you want to coax Xiao Qi to do for you!?"

Bai Qingming: "..." What the hell am I doing! ! !

Me, I just want to take the opportunity of making up lessons and sleep outside for a few nights. What do you mean by doing bad things?

I have been away from home for so many years, and I have never lived outside. I just want to experience the feeling of sleeping outside after running away from home. Why did I want to do something bad?

What do you mean I asked Xiao Qi to do bad things for me?

How dare I!

As for Xiao Qi's ruthlessness in packing up people, even if I have the heart, I don't have the guts.

Seeing that Bai Qingming was so frightened that Yun Shang didn't dare to move, she was about to speak for Bai Qingming, but Gu Shinian quickly blocked her mouth with a steamed bun.

"A Chang, eat first." Gu Shinian said, winking at Yun Shang.

Little idiot, didn't you see Bai Qingzheng and Bai Qingyue winking at each other?

Especially the corners of Bai Qingyue's mouth twitched from smiling.

Yun Shang looked at the unscrupulous elder brother and sister who were watching the play, and couldn't help but shed tears of sympathy for Bai Qingming.

If you meet such a brother or sister, consider yourself unlucky.

Who made you the lowest in the family?

Bai Qingzheng coughed dryly, and after attracting everyone's attention, he put forward his own suggestion: "Dad, little six is too naughty, it's better to keep him at home. After dinner, ask Qingyue to make up lessons for little six, and I will take Xiaoqi goes to live in the small courtyard, and by the way will be Shi Nian's companion."

Yun Shang: "..." Unexpectedly, you are such a big brother! It's almost 6 times over.

Bai Qingyue: "..." Didn't the two just form an offensive and defensive alliance? Why did you backhand sell me?

Bai Qingming: "..." Shameless?

Robbed my qualification to live in a small courtyard,

He even urged me to stay at home to study, how can there be such a big brother in the world!

So bullying!

Bai Qingming was on the verge of crying, but thinking of his elder brother's methods of dealing with people, he could only shut his mouth cowardly and dare not make a sound.

Bai Yancheng saw the small rivalry among the children, seeing that Bai Qingzheng had suppressed Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming as soon as he made a move, so he did not dare to resist, so he simply followed his words and agreed.

"Okay, it's not safe to live alone outside in those years, you can go and have a look when you are free in the future, don't take Xiaoqi out to wander around at night."

Seeing that Bai Qingming's eye circles were red, Bai Yancheng's eyelids twitched a few times, and he put down his chopsticks angrily, "What are you doing crying! From now on, follow Xiaoqi to make up lessons. If you behave, I will let you go out for one night a week ."

You brat, play tricks in front of me, really think I don't know what's on your mind?

After eating, under the envious and jealous eyes of Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingming, Bai Qing was carrying the bag in which he and Yun Shang changed clothes, and followed Gu Shinian and Yun Shang out of the door to go to Gu Shinian. I spent the night in the small courtyard.

"Xiao Qi, do you dare to sleep alone at night?" Bai Qing teased Yun Shang while Gu Shinian was opening the gate of the small courtyard.

"Dare!" Yunshang responded bluntly, and raised Qiuqiu proudly, "I still have Qiuqiu, Qiuqiu is so smart, she knew how to help me fight since she was a child."

Before the full moon, Qiuqiu knew how to fight for me, and now that he has grown into a round meat bun, he will only fight more neatly than before.

Qiuqiu seemed to understand, suppressed his voice, let out a cry, and echoed Yunshang's words.

Bai Qingzheng's eyes fell on Qiuqiu, his expression remained unchanged, but he was muttering about this clever and over-the-top kitten in his heart.

With a round head and thick head, he is as delicate and cute as Xiaoqi, and the hair color from forehead to back is light smoke gray, which makes him look extraordinarily energetic and beautiful.

It's just that this little guy's skills are as beautiful as his coat color, with such a cat, Xiao Qi doesn't like to play with him anymore.

Yun Chang didn't know that her eldest brother even ate Qiuqiu's jealousy, walked in, read a little book for a while, then nestled next to the sofa, watched Gu Shinian and Bai Qingzheng play two games of chess, and then returned with a yawn room to sleep.

In the middle of the night, Yun Shang got up sneakily again, using the cover of space, quickly ran towards the small western building.

After going upstairs in the same way, Yunshang noticed that Erya had learned to be smart this time, and even slept in a tightly wrapped long coat and trousers.

Seeing this, Yun Chang couldn't help laughing out loud, put on the ghost mask nimbly, stepped out of the space, and once again manipulated the skeleton hand to pinch Er Ya's neck.

Er Ya saw a ghost the night before, and after being frightened awake, she begged the little girl next door to keep her company.

I thought that there would be no more accidents if I had someone as a companion, but what broke Erya was that her actions seemed to anger the ghost, not only beat her up violently, but also left her in the public toilet to sleep all night .

After something like this happened, Erya didn't dare to have the idea of finding someone as a companion anymore, for fear of angering that ghost and making her famous in an even more embarrassing way.

Worried that the ghost would appear again, Erya didn't dare to sleep last night, suppressed her sleepiness, and sat on the bed for a whole night.

I didn't know that I didn't even see half a ghost.

Tonight, Erya couldn't bear it any longer, so she put on long clothes and trousers, leaned against the head of the bed and fell asleep.

Yunshang's manipulator, the skeleton hand, grabbed Erya's neck, and used her mental power to throw Erya directly on the ground.

Before Erya opened her eyes, she dodged into the space again, stretched out her mental strength, grabbed all the small movable things in the room, and threw them at Erya one by one.

Erya almost peed in fright, her pupils constricted, her whole body was trembling, her hands rested on the ground, and she kept moving backwards.

At the moment when the ghost woke up, Er Ya subconsciously wanted to call for help, but thinking of the consequences of calling for help the night before, she quickly swallowed the scream that rushed to her throat.

Yunshang used her mental strength to grab the things in the house and smash them at Er Ya. The foreign porcelain bowls, tea mugs, and cooking pots were soon flattened, broken, and ruined. .

Erya was smashed all over her head, her head throbbed with pain, and she was extremely scared, and at the same time she felt sorry for the smashed things, she huddled in the corner of the wall, holding her head in her hands, not daring to move for a long time.

Soon someone outside was banging on the door vigorously, and at the same time there was a man's voice cursing, asking Erya to be quiet, and if he dared to wake everyone up in the middle of the night, Erya must be kicked out.

Er Ya was really frightened, the cold and gloomy space in the house was separated from the lively world outside by a thin door panel, and she didn't have the courage to open the door and escape.

Chapter 394 Can I live in your house?

Bai Qingming and Yun Shang were immediately stunned.

Seeing that Bai Yancheng's expression was loose, he might agree to it, but Bai Qingyue and Bai Qingzheng intervened in such a way that Bai Yancheng's face was pulled down successfully.

Let alone living outside, Bai Qingming would have to eat fried pork with bamboo shoots again.

Chapter 395: Visitor

When Yun Shang heard the movement outside, her little face suddenly turned black, she turned over and got out of bed with a grunt, and jumped out in her pajamas.

"Erya, you are really shameless! You are a big girl, why do you want to live in my second brother Gu's house so shamelessly! You don't want to be famous, my second brother Gu wants to be famous!"

She is so stupid.

Why did you want to take over the job of driving Erya away?

It's good now, I wanted to drive Erya away, but ended up sending Erya into Brother Gu's small courtyard.

Brother Gu must have been shocked, and he might scold her in his heart for being unreliable.

Erya didn't expect that Yunshang would come out of the room, and her eyes fell on her clean white cotton nightgown, then on her little face that was sleeping pink, and finally on Yunshang's pair of Big, round, shiny black eyes, his face was distorted with jealousy.

Why does Yun Shang always appear when she is most embarrassed?

Every time, he stood high above her, standing in front of her in splendid clothes, making her look like mud in the gutter.

They also lived in other people's homes since they were young. Why is Yunshang's life so good? Not only Lao Yun's family loves him, but even the Bai family has never given up looking for her.

However, she was treated harshly by the Zhou family since she was a child. Even after her only biological aunt came to find her, she also planned to plot her family property.

What's even more hateful is that Yunshang has already been hurt by so many people, so why should he occupy Gu Shinian and never let him leave her side for half a minute? He never even allowed his eyes to fall on other girls.

Er Ya looked at Yun Shang almost sparks, but she knew clearly that once she dared to face Yun Shang in front of Gu Shinian and Bai Qing, what awaited her would be a joint counterattack from the two.

"Sister Yunshang, how can you talk like that..."

"roll!"

As soon as Erya opened her mouth, Gu Shinian interrupted her with a cold face, as if she was afraid that Erya's voice would stain Yunshang's ears, with a little force, she pushed Yunshang back into the room.

"A Chang, brother Qingzheng bought fried dough sticks in the morning, so he hastened to wash his face and brush his teeth. If you don't eat breakfast, the fried dough sticks will be cold."

Yun Shang drove Er Ya to Gu Shinian's small courtyard, feeling guilty in her heart, and did not dare to confront Gu Shinian, so she lowered her head and entered the room obediently.

After sending Yunshang away, Gu Shinian walked to the gate a few more steps, opened the courtyard door, and looked back at Erya.

"Gu..." Erya was about to speak, but was frightened by Gu Shinian's sharp eyes, and immediately stopped what she wanted to say.

Seeing Gu Shinian's posture of throwing her out if she insisted on not leaving, Er Ya's body trembled in embarrassment and embarrassment.

Tears flashed in his eyes, he bit his lip stubbornly, seeing that Gu Shinian's attitude not only showed no sign of softening, but turned his head away in disgust, Arya soon couldn't stand the humiliation, and ran away clutching her livid face go out.

Bai Qing's face remained unchanged, and he said to Gu Shinian who came back, "This woman is not a fuel-efficient lamp, be careful in the future, and don't let this person get close to Xiao Qi." So as not to spoil my cute and cute family...Okay, It's a bad little sister.

Gu Shinian gave Bai Qingzheng a weird look, "Ah Chang hates Erya more than anyone else."

It would be good if you didn't hit Erya, how could you foolishly let Erya get close to and use her.

And looking at Erya's appearance, she was obviously frightened by Yunshang, and if she wanted to do bad things in the future, she had to think about the consequences of attracting evil spirits again.

Yun Chang came out of the house biting a deep-fried dough stick, urging the two to eat and get ready for school, while she went out of the yard and sat at the entrance of the alley, her eyes fell on the gate of the No. 2 family courtyard not far away.

Er Ya stood straight at the gate of the No. 2 family courtyard like a wire stake with her bruised and purple face.

The unique shape, as well as the crumpled clothes that look like they have been fished out of a slop bucket, frequently attract the attention of passers-by.

The guard at the gate was asking Erya what to say, when two soldiers came out of the family courtyard, they saw Erya standing at the gate of the family courtyard with her head full, her face was bruised and purple, and her eyebrows and eyes could not be seen clearly.

His body was trembling slightly, trembling, looking like he could fall down at any time, he couldn't help being startled.

I also saw people who were going to work on the main road stop, looking at this side from a distance, whispering to each other from time to time, as if they wanted to watch the excitement but dared not approach, and immediately felt a chill in their hearts.

No matter whose family the girl at the door is visiting, and no matter what business she has in the family courtyard, if she is allowed to stand at the gate of the military region in her current image, the impact will be too bad.

In the eyes of people who don't know the truth, how many stories will be made up that are not conducive to the image of the People's Liberation Army.

"Whose house is this child a visitor to? Has he registered?" the slightly rough-looking soldier standing in front asked the guard.

"Report to Section Chief Yu, I asked, this little comrade is the niece of Deputy Battalion Commander Ma's lover."

The guard paused, looked at Erya with a little sympathy, and continued, "But the wife of Deputy Battalion Commander Ma did not agree to receive this little comrade, so..."

Needless to say, the two who came out knew what was going on.

In the past two years, most of them were ordinary people who couldn't live in their hometown, and their families dragged their families to the army to find relatives to help them.

The little girl in front of her was presumably because her family was so poor that she couldn't get rid of it, so she was forced by her family to come to the military area to 'borrow' food.

Seeing that she couldn't even enter the gate of the family courtyard, the little girl was worried that she would be beaten when she went back, so she came up with a way to stand at the gate of the family courtyard and use public opinion to force her relatives to come out to see her, or to help her.

Children are a little clever, but they are not used in the right place, and they are not very pleasing to use.

Section Chief Yu glanced at Erya sharply, and said to the guard, "Take this little comrade to the reception room first, and ask him why he's here. If there's nothing serious, let someone from the political engineering department inform Deputy Battalion Commander Ma's wife. "

It's just a notice that whether Chen Cuiqiao wants to come out to meet people depends entirely on her own wishes.

Erya lived in the No. 2 family courtyard for several years in her previous life, so she naturally knew where the bottom line of the army was. After achieving her goal, she followed the guards to the reception room without saying a word.

The so-called reception room is next to the gatekeeper, a few houses with the doors facing outwards. It is a place where outsiders are temporarily not allowed to enter, or to deal with unwelcome people and things that do not want to cause adverse effects at the gate of the courtyard. The place.

Chen Cuiqiao had just finished serving the family for breakfast and was about to wash the dishes when she received a notice that Erya was in the reception room at the gate of the compound, asking her to go over quickly.

"Bang!"

The plate in Chen Cuiqiao's hand almost fell to the ground. After hearing the little soldier's announcement, her expression changed. She quickly untied her apron and strode towards the gate.

Chapter 396 Take in

Erya was sitting on the chair, her mental state was very bad, her head was half down, her body trembled from time to time, even the teacup she held in her hand trembled, and shallow water splashed out from time to time.

The moment Chen Cuiqiao saw Erya, her eyes widened. She stood at the door for a long time to recognize her, then walked over and sat down opposite Erya.

"Erya, what's wrong with you? Who beat you like this?"

Chen Cuiqiao was really surprised, she wasn't acting in front of other people in the reception room.

This niece of hers is not a soft persimmon, she lives alone, although there are no elders around to support and protect her, but no one is oppressing her by relying on her status as an elder.

In addition, she has no shortage of money in her hand, and she has food supplies every month. It stands to reason that she should live a good life, but why is she beaten into such a virtue.

Or did word spread that Erya had money, and someone came to make trouble?

Chen Cuiqiao was really angry that Erya was plotting against her in Fenyang, and she ignored Erya before, and wanted to let Erya know what it means to be orderly.

Originally, she thought that Erya would make a few somersaults outside and suffer a little bit, and when she couldn't bear to ask her, she would let Erya in like a charity, so that she could handle Erya in the future.

But Chen Cuiqiao never expected that in just a few days, Er Ya would be beaten so badly that she couldn't see her eyes clearly.

What made Chen Cuiqiao even more worried was that if Er Ya's money was taken away by someone, would she have to eat for nothing in the future?

There are many children in the family, and there is not enough food to eat. Lao Ma has to send more than half of his salary to his in-laws every month, and then support the second girl for nothing. How will he live in the future?

Seeing Erya's head hanging lower and her body trembling even more, Chen Cuiqiao couldn't help showing anxiety, grabbed Erya's arm and continued to ask, "Erya! Talk! Did someone snatch you?"

Er Ya nodded.

Chen Cuiqiao's face darkened immediately, and she patted the table angrily and said angrily, "What did you rob!? Have you reported it to the police, and the police didn't say when they will get it back?"

This girl has a lot of money in her hands. If she loses all of it, it will be a big loss.

If she had known this, even if she was trying to be pointed at by others, she had to find a way to get the money from Er Ya.

There was a sarcastic smile on the corner of Erya's mouth, but she just lowered her head so no one could see it.

"Guy, my place was robbed by burglars last night, and all the furniture was robbed...Guy, I was robbed twice in a row, and I dare not live alone anymore. How many times do you want me to stay at home?" God, I'll move out when I find a place."

Before Chen Cuiqiao could speak, Erya raised her head again, and at some point, the tears in her eyes fell down. She grabbed Chen Cuiqiao's hand and begged bitterly:

"Gu, I really can't do anything. I'm alone, and I don't even have a companion by my side. If there is another thief in the house, I, I, will die..."

When Erya said this, she was so choked up that she couldn't speak. Seeing Chen Cuiqiao's brows were tightly frowned, and her face showed a look of embarrassment, Erya knelt down at Chen Cuiqiao's feet in front of the little soldier in the reception room. .

Chen Cuiqiao didn't expect Erya to make such a move, and immediately jumped up in fright.

This is the army!

If it was reported that the niece knelt down and kowtowed to her to beg to be taken in for a few days, the saliva of other people in the family courtyard could drown her.

Maybe the organization has to talk to her old horse and let her pay attention to the influence.

And what happened to Er Ya was nothing else, an orphan girl, someone entered the house at night, and if she made a fuss, it would ruin her life, maybe even her life would be lost.

No matter how much she left Erya in the air, she just wanted to use Erya to benefit the family, and she wasn't cruel enough to watch her niece die.

It's just that her niece is really unpleasant and has many evil intentions. She deliberately knelt down to beg her in front of outsiders. This is to use public opinion to force her to agree to take her in.

The way things are done is really annoying.

However, when the matter got to this point, she had no choice but to take Erya in.

"You child! When did I say I won't let you live at home, get up!"

Chen Cuiqiao pulled Erya up vigorously, smiled at the little soldier, and wanted to show her affection and patted Erya's head, but facing her bruised and swollen head, she couldn't find a place to start, and finally had no choice but to with a sigh:

"You are a stubborn child. I went to Fenyang to pick you up last year. You didn't believe me, and you insisted on living alone. How are you doing now, have you suffered a big loss? Oh, forget it, let's not talk about it, you Go back and pack some clothes for a change, and move in here today."

Judging by Er Ya's appearance, there should be a lot of things hidden in her hands, so she tried to find out at night.

Besides, Erya is not young anymore, she always does laundry, cooking and cleaning the house, and she also helps her with housework when she takes her home.

Yun Chang only saw Er Ya being brought into the reception room, and was called back by Gu Shinian.

While Bai Qing was leaving for school, the two of them disguised themselves a bit, and found two more baskets, one filled with strips of wild boar meat, the other filled with dismembered bear meat, and put the baskets in Space, pushed the bicycle out the door.

Thinking that it was too conspicuous to go to the black market during the day, Yunshang said very dissatisfied, "Second brother, I have to let the eldest brother go back to live tonight, and let the younger brother come out, otherwise we will not be able to go to the black market."

Bai Qingzheng is really a shrewd person comparable to Gu's second brother. If there is any trouble between the two of them, they can't hide it from Bai Qingzheng's eyes.

Unlike Bai Qingming, as long as he dumped two pages of math problems for him to do, he would be able to snore within 20 minutes of keeping it, and he couldn't wake up even when thunder struck.

It's a pity that Bai Qingzheng ruined everything she had planned with Second Brother Gu.

Gu Shinian responded, scanned the street with his eyes, and quickly turned into the main road, riding all the way to the outskirts of the city.

"A Chang, how much wild boar and bear meat are left?"

Yun Chang turned around in the space consciously, and lowered her voice, "There is still half a fan of wild boar meat left, and there is still a pig's head, and there are more than 100 catties of bear meat. If you are lucky today, you should be able to sell it."

Except for the bear's paw, bear gall and bear skin, Yunshang only kept 30 catties of bear meat, and the rest was going to be sold.

It was inconvenient for Yunshang to get in and out of the compound, so Gu Shinian could only rely on Gu Shinian to get up early every day and go to the black market to free up the wild game in the space bit by bit.

Now that the wind is getting tighter, Gu Shinian doesn't dare to bring more things every time, so he can only do it bit by bit with a dozen or twenty catties. Although it is slower, it is better to be safe.

This time, they finally ran into Lin Wenlan leading the company, and the two were preparing to go to the night market to have a big fight at night, but they didn't expect Bai Qingzheng to intervene.

Now I can only go to the scattered trading spots in the suburbs in broad daylight and try my luck.

Chapter 397 Pork for Popsicles

The two left the city and rode southward for more than ten minutes. They saw dozens of people scattered under the bridge in front of them. Some of them carried baskets in their hands, and some had snakeskin bags in front of them. Some people put bamboo baskets under their feet, or stood or squatted to pick goods. From a distance, it turned out to be a small lively market.

Yun Shang's eyes widened in surprise, and she asked Gu Shinian, "Second Brother Gu, aren't you allowed to do business in private now? Why is there a market here?"

This is still the boundary of the provincial capital, not a small remote village like Xinglin Village. Shouldn't the market be banned?

"It's not the most strict time yet. There are still markets in many places. But this is not a market, it's a small free market, and it closes at around nine o'clock every morning."

Seeing Yun Shang still had a look of incredulity, "So many people come out to set up stalls, no one cares?"

"These people are also bartering goods when they come out to set up stalls. As long as they don't trade with money in the market, it is not a violation of the policy."

As for going out of the bazaar, whether the buyer and the seller are trading with money or goods, no one will be held accountable if no one sees it.

Hearing what Gu Shinian said, Yun Chang was also a little worried. The market is all about bartering. Who can afford to exchange her two baskets full of meat?

Besides, in this season, vegetables are the most sold in the market. There are so many fresh and juicy vegetables in her space, is it necessary to exchange vegetables with others?

Even if you change eggs, it won't work. There are hundreds of catties of meat, including a hundred catties of bear meat. If you change all the eggs, you won't be able to return to a mountain of eggs. How can you take them home?

The bicycle stopped quickly on the bridge, and Gu Shinian pointed to the basket hanging on the handlebar and told Yunshang, "Ah Chang, put some pork in the basket, and I will exchange some eggs for you later, save it for later." Take your time to eat..."

"Oh," Yun Shang replied, using the basket as a cover, moved three pieces of pork outside, and followed Gu Shinian off the bridge.

Although the Qiaoxi Free Market is not big, there are quite a few farmers selling fresh vegetables and eggs at stalls. Not only are they cheaper than non-staple food stores, but they are also fresher than those sold in stores. People from several state-owned restaurants in the provincial capital will come to shop Replace with fresh vegetables.

Gu Shinian took Yunshang down the bridge, glanced around the crowd, paused for two seconds on a man in a cadre outfit, took Yunshang to stop the car not far from the man, and took out the bag from the basket. A piece of pork.

Before Gu Shinian could put the pork on the back seat of the bicycle, someone surrounded him, "Hey! Comrade, you are... pork? How do you change it?"

"It's wild pork. This piece weighs about two catties. We only exchange eggs and nothing else."

While Gu Shinian was talking, he put the wild pork in his hand on the back seat, took out two other pieces of pork from the basket, and put them on together.

As soon as the three pieces of fresh wild pork with red blood were displayed, they immediately attracted the attention of most people in the market.

This is pork.

The last time pork was served in the city was during the Chinese New Year. It has been more than half a year, how can we not be greedy for meat.

Hearing that Gu Shinian was going to exchange pork for eggs, several people held egg baskets, pushed through the crowd, and squeezed to the front.

And the cadre who was still in the next booth pretending to be a man also squeezed in.

"Little comrade, where did you get this wild boar? There are very few wild boars in Linyang."

Linyang belongs to the plain area, and at most you can catch pheasants and hares in the fields. Where can you catch species like wild boars that live in deep mountains and old forests?

Where did these two kids get so much meat?

Seeing that the people around were also looking over curiously, Gu Shinian smiled, and said generously, "This wild pork was given by relatives out of town. It's hot now, and fresh pork can't be kept, so I thought about replacing it with marinated meat." Order some eggs."

As soon as the words fell, the man's eyes lit up.

Listening to the voice, the two children still have wild boar at home, and they are not old or young.

After changing the eggs, Gu Shinian put Yunshang in front of the bicycle, pushed the bicycle onto the bridge, and the man quickly pushed through the crowd and followed.

Gu Shinian saw this,

Deliberately slowing down, allowing the man to catch up and grab the back seat of the bicycle.

"Little comrade! Little comrade, wait a minute, I'll discuss something with you."

"Comrade, what are you discussing with me?"

The man looked around, motioned for Gu Shinian to push the cart and walk slowly forward with him, and said in a low voice, "Little comrade, I just heard what you mean, you still have fresh wild pork at home, how many catties is it? You can ask my family members if they are willing to share some of this fresh wild boar meat for me?"

Seeing that Gu Shinian's brows were slightly frowned, and his eyes showed a look of defense, the man slapped his forehead suddenly, with a look of surprise on his face:

"Little comrade, I am the buyer of the state-run restaurant on Guanxiang Road. My surname is Su, and I am not a bad guy who speculates. If your pork can be distributed to our restaurant, the price will definitely not let you suffer. Food stamps, cloth stamps, I can exchange industrial tickets with you!"

No wonder he was in a hurry. In fact, the non-staple food store had no pork supply for several months, and the restaurant had been out of meat for several days, but the restaurant in the next street had collected a lot of pheasants and wild rabbits from unknown places. Many higher-level leaders have hooked up.

This time, the manager who has been trying his best to be different from the restaurant on the next street will be pissed off.

If it is because the master chef assigned to the restaurant is not skilled enough to keep customers, then that's fine, but because there is no fresh game in the restaurant, it is impossible to keep customers, how embarrassing and embarrassing it is?

Both the manager and the chef in charge were dissatisfied. As a buyer, Comrade Su was under a lot of pressure.

In addition to going to the non-staple food store to watch the meat every day, I also saw Tian'er running to various small free markets in the surrounding area, just to find some wild game.

Today, I finally saw wild boar meat in Qiaoxi Free Market, and it was the freshest wild boar meat. Naturally, I would not miss this good opportunity.

It's just that seeing that Gu Shinian's brows were still furrowed, and even the expression on his face didn't change, the man's heart skipped a beat, and his eyes unconsciously showed anxiety.

Seeing this, Yunshang sang a red face at the right time, "Second brother, we still have a big pig's head, half a piece of pork, why don't you give it to this comrade? If you exchange the money, you can buy me popsicles." gone."

The man was speechless for a long time, the little girl wants to exchange pork for popsicles?

What a little loser.

A popsicle costs one cent, and a cream popsicle is only two cents, but a catty of fresh pork on the market costs at least two yuan, not to mention that this is a rare wild pork in Linyang.

If it is really used to exchange popsicles, half a leaf of wild boar meat can be exchanged for a popsicle in the cold storage for the little girl.

Chapter 398 Sales

Gu Shinian knocked on Yunshang's forehead, "What are you talking about, pork can only be exchanged for things, it can't be sold for money, and I can't buy you popsicles."

Yun Chang's small face collapsed immediately, she covered her forehead, and continued to ask, "Second brother, wild pork can't be sold for money, so can bear meat be sold for money? Let's sell bear meat to this uncle and buy me popsicles eat."

When the man heard this, his eyes widened instantly.

There is even bear meat! ?

What do these two children do at home?

It's wild boar meat and bear meat, even if it's a relative, there's no reason to send so much meat all at once.

Gu Shinian continued to shake his head, and then said, "Bear meat can't be sold for money..."

"Yes! You can exchange money!" The man interrupted Gu Shinian, and said excitedly, "The state-run hotel is a state unit, and you sell things to the state unit, which is not considered speculation."

"How much can I exchange for it?" Yunshang paused for a moment, and then continued, "It's not good if there is less exchange. My mother said that this is fresh game sent from the northeast by express, and it is worth the old nose."

Gu Shinian also nodded and lowered his voice, "Comrade, my family asked someone to get these wild game from the Northeast to supplement my sister's body. It's just that the smell of wild boar and bear meat is too strong. The girl was not used to eating, so she exchanged some pork for eggs.

How about this, you give me a price, if the price is right, I will help you deliver the meat back. If the price is not right, I won't open my mouth to my family when I go back.

There is a shortage of supplies now, and we don't even have things from deep mountains and old forests here. These wild game are pickled and taken out as gifts during the Chinese New Year. They are rare and rare things, and the family was reluctant to sell them. "

When the man heard this, he immediately stopped thinking about lowering the price.

The current situation is that the child's family has never thought of selling game, and he is licking his face and begging others to sell things to him.

The other party has talked about this point, if he dares to lower the price, if he really doesn't sell it, then he really doesn't even have the place to cry.

Besides, when he went out to buy supplies, he used all the money from the public, and he couldn't save it in his own pocket. Why did he do such an unappealing thing?

The most important thing is that the two children in front of me are really not like those raised by ordinary families. Let alone the bicycle they are pushing, just the way they dress and talk, they both have Indescribable luxury.

These days, being able to get fresh game from the Northeast across a few provinces is enough to show that the family's status and connections are not simple.

He had to seize the opportunity to build a good relationship with the two children. If the family got other rare things from other places in the future, wouldn't he be able to follow suit?

Thinking about it this way, not only did the man not lower the price, he even offered a price that exceeded the market price.

Of course, this price is naturally not as good as the black market price.

Gu Shinian also stopped taking Joe, and after discussing the quantity and price with the other party, as well as the time and place of delivery, the three of them separated at the bridge.

Before turning into Guanxiang Street, Gu Shinian told Yunshang, "Ah Chang, put some more vegetables in the basket, and give it to Comrade Su later."

Yun Chang replied crisply, and reached into the basket with her little hand, and covered it with the cloth curtain, and put fresh beans, spinach, cabbage, as well as fresh and delicious cucumbers and tomatoes inside.

Looking at the two heavy bamboo baskets, one left and one right falling on both sides of the back seat of the bicycle, Yun Shang was very happy.

According to the price given by Comrade Su, one hundred catties of bear meat, eighty catties of pork, and one big pig's head can be exchanged for three hundred and thirty yuan.

In addition, Gu Shinian sold wild boar and bear meat piecemeal on the black market, and these two behemoths earned nearly a thousand yuan.

The two also agreed that the remaining 30 catties of wild boar meat, 60 catties of bear meat, plus bear's paws and gallbladder were left to eat slowly.

When I have a chance in the future, I will go to the Northeast again and collect more game with good taste for storage, so that she won't have to eat it when she gets hungry.

As soon as the two arrived near the state-run hotel, Su Purchasing ran out from the back door, enthusiastically took the bicycle from Gu Shinian's hand, and brought the two of them into the restaurant.

Before weighing it, Gu Shinian pointed to the juicy vegetables on the basket and said to Comrade Su, "Comrade Su, these vegetables my sister gave you, you can take them home and try them out. These vegetables are comparable to the vegetables in the grocery store." It tastes better."

Comrade Su laughed and thanked Yun Shang, and was about to take the dishes aside, when he lowered his head, he stopped in surprise.

"These vegetables... are really juicy."

One by one, the leaves were fresh and green, with water mist on them, as if they had just been pulled out of the morning mist.

Not to mention non-staple food stores, even in the free market, it is rare to see such juicy and tender vegetables.

Comrade Su subconsciously broke open a section of cucumber, and before he put it in his mouth, he could already smell a strong cucumber smell at the tip of his nose, and after taking another bite, the aftertaste of cucumber was still slightly sweet.

The expression on Comrade Su's face gradually became serious. He put down the cucumber and broke another tomato.

At the moment of breaking apart, the tomato-red juice flowed down like fruit juice, and the pulp inside was already sandy. After taking a bite, the sweet and sour taste instantly filled the whole mouth.

Comrade Su glanced at Gu Shinian, stuffed the remaining half of a tomato into his mouth in one gulp, and asked vaguely, "Comrade, where did you get this dish? Why does it taste so good?"

To put it bluntly, this is the best tasting cucumber and tomato he has eaten in these years.

none of them.

"My family grows it by themselves. They think it tastes good. My sister said to bring it here for you to try. Thank you for letting her eat popsicles."

Gu Shinian made a joke with a smile, but Comrade Su couldn't laugh anymore.

He figured it out, the little comrade was sending him vegetables, he was clearly selling vegetables at home, and wanted him to buy vegetables from him.

If he pretended not to understand and fooled the past, he would not even think about getting game from this boy in the future.

At this moment, the people in the restaurant had finished weighing the meat. Gu Shinian took the ticket handed over by Comrade Su, counted it three times, then turned around and handed it to Yun Shang.

Yun Shang took it unceremoniously, counted it, divided Gu Shinian's ten yuan, and put the remaining three hundred and two into her pocket.

Seeing the two sharing the money without hesitation in front of him, Comrade Su twitched the corners of his mouth and asked, "Little comrade, how many vegetables do you grow in your family? Are they all so juicy?"

"These are the vegetables grown in my own yard, not many. However, my hometown has a lot of private land, and this year I planted all cabbages... It's this kind of cabbage."

Chapter 399: Troops Come Up

"This thing has a high yield, and when it's done, it can produce several thousand catties per acre. But the cabbage in our land is not worth much. Last year, the restaurant charged three thousand catties for 1/2, which was only thirty-six yuan, and it had to be sent to the restaurant. Come.

This is still catching up with the bad year. If the year is good, the price will have to be pushed down. I will work hard to pull a few thousand catties of cabbage here, which is only ten or twenty yuan. Why don't you get ten or so? A catty of wild game is here.

Just like today, two baskets of meat cost about 300 yuan, isn't it easier than dumping cabbage upside down? "

Sao years! Your family has a way to get wild game, so why did you come up with the idea of the cheapest and least profitable cabbage?

Do you really think the 'cabbage price' in the old saying is casual?

Gu Shinian and Yunshang frowned when they heard the price of cabbage. According to Comrade Su, there was really no need to bring over the cabbage.

But the cabbage ordered by the non-staple food is indeed sold cheaply, Comrade Su should not have fooled them.

Thinking of the piles of fresh vegetables in the warehouse, Yunshang's face drooped with worry.

With so many vegetables, when will she and Gu Shinian have to eat them?

Especially cabbage, she has planted several stubbles, and there are almost 20,000 catties piled up in the warehouse. She is like a bunny, and she can eat it with her belly open and can't finish it in a lifetime.

Seeing Yun Shang staring straight at the other vegetables on the table, Gu Shinian squeezed her hand calmly, got up and said goodbye to Comrade Gu, and pulled Yun Shang out of the restaurant.

"Second brother Gu, why don't you let me ask the price of other dishes?"

As soon as he left Guanxiang Street, Yunshang asked Gu Shinian curiously.

Even if the cabbage can't be sold at a price, then other dishes can always be sold at a similar price, right?

The tomatoes and cucumbers in the grocery store are sold for 15 cents a catty, and the spinach and leeks are also sold for 10 cents, which is more cost-effective than selling cabbage.

"You don't need to ask. Calculate the purchase price of cabbage in the restaurant and the sale price of cabbage in the non-staple food store. You can roughly calculate the purchase price of other vegetables. The purchase price of tomatoes and cucumbers is at most 1.12 cents, and the purchase price of other vegetables , It's only five or six cents, and it can't be sold at a price, so there is no need to go to the restaurant in the future."

At that time, it is better to change clothes and go to the black market to sell food and vegetables. At least summer vegetables can be sold in autumn. The price is good and it is not eye-catching.

Yun Shang is also wilting now. In this era, when you shop around, you really feel that the prices are beyond imagination, just like picking things up for nothing.

But when it was her turn to sell things by herself, she felt that her liver wanted to bleed because of the low price.

Such a low price is not worthy of the energy she expended in growing vegetables.

Yun Shang completely dismissed the idea of selling vegetables to make money, sighed a long time, lay on the handlebar of the bicycle, kicked her calf, and wobbled about to go home.

.....

A few days after Zhang Chunni returned to Qinghe County, comrades from the county's Armed Forces Department came to the door with people from the army.

Looking at the soldier who seemed to be an acquaintance standing in the yard, Zhang Chunni's eyelids twitched a few times, calmed down, and let him into the house.

Deputy Commander Liang and Section Chief Yu entered the door, took a rough look around the very simple but very clean main room, took the little Maza brought by Zhang Chunni, and sat down in the ventilated place at the entrance of the main room.

Zhang Chunni poured cold water for the two of them for two nights, and handed them to each other, "Section Chief Yu, I haven't seen you for many years, how have you been all these years?"

When she left the compound back then, Section Chief Yu was still the deputy section chief of the Department of Political Science and Engineering. Unexpectedly, after ten years of absence, Section Chief Yu was promoted a little.

It's a pity that when Gu Huaiqing was just promoted to the political commissar of the military region, it was at the height of the sun. In addition, there were a lot of divorced people in the army at that time. statement.

Also because of this incident, she had a bad fight with the comrades in the political engineering department, and even poured a mug full of hot tea on the head of the political engineering department in front of all the comrades in the political engineering department.

Who would have thought that ten years later,

She met Section Chief Yu who was investigating this time.

The difference is that Yu, the deputy section chief, has now become the section chief, and Gu Huaiqing, who was in full swing in the military region, was suppressed by Bai Yancheng, who was later transferred, and lost most of his right to speak.

Section Chief Yu probably also thought of what happened back then, nodded awkwardly, coughed dryly, and turned to introduce Zhang Chunni and Deputy Commander Liang:

"Comrade Zhang Chunni, this is Deputy Commander Liang of the Military Area Command. He was transferred from the same batch as Commander Bai. This time, he also received an order from the organization to assist me in investigating your report on Political Commissar Gu's problematic life style."

Zhang Chunni looked much better, and greeted Deputy Commander Liang with a very kind attitude.

She stayed in the provincial capital for several days, and also asked Gu Shinian about the military region, so she naturally knew that Deputy Commander Liang and Bai Yancheng were comrades in arms who crawled out of the trenches, and they often targeted Gu Huaiqing.

Organizationally, at this juncture, sending Deputy Commander Liang over to investigate Gu Huaiqing's broken shoes, is it sending some kind of signal?

Deputy Commander Liang is quick-tempered and rude, so after the section chief introduced the two of them, he couldn't help but ask:

"Comrade Zhang Chunni, you reported that Political Commissar Gu has a problem with his life style. Do you have any evidence?"

The corner of Section Chief Yu's mouth twitched, and he turned his head speechlessly, not looking at Deputy Commander Liang's face that couldn't hide his gossiping excitement and gloating.

Zhang Chunni put down the tea mug in her hand and said very clearly, "There is evidence. Gu Huaiqing's daughter Gu Mingzhu is the evidence. When Gu Huaiqing divorced me, Zhou Mingjuan was six months pregnant. I didn't get divorced until I bought the leather shoes for six months."

Deputy Commander Liang grinned uncontrollably, poked Section Chief Yu's arm, and lowered his voice to remind him, "What are you doing in a daze? Get out your notebook and write it down!"

Section Chief Yu: "..." Lao Liang, you are the deputy commander of the military region after all, so please pay attention to facial expressions, okay?

Although everyone in the military region knows that you want to kill Gu Huaiqing, this is an internal matter of the military region. Outside, can we stop being so anxious and gloating?

Section Chief Yu took out his notebook, sighed and shook his head, glanced at Zhang Chunni, and said pointedly:

"Comrade Zhang Chunni, you lived in the compound for more than half a year, and you used to be a member of the military region. The conflict with Political Commissar Gu can also be regarded as an internal conflict. There is no need to make it known to everyone. Everyone is talking about it." , What a bad influence that would be."

Thinking of the military wife in the No. 2 courtyard in recent days, seeing Tian'er inquiring about Gu Huaiqing's broken shoes with the military wife in the No. 1 courtyard, and the matter of being forced to come to ask for maintenance, Section Chief Yu's head hurts intermittently.

Chapter 400 She Steals the Fruits of My Revolution

The family compound of the military region is the place where the troops go, the most serious and disciplined place, not the fields in the countryside.

It was precisely because Zhang Chunni reported Gu Huaiqing and brought people from the Women's Federation to Gu Huaiqing's house to ask for child support, the military wives in the two courtyards were all blown up.

Even if the leader of the army gave an order not to let the military wives discuss this matter, but if everyone didn't say it publicly, who wouldn't secretly gossip behind their backs?

Those military wives who love to gossip can't help but wink and wink when they meet outside, and communicate with the five senses on their faces.

Not to mention that there were people from the Provincial Women's Federation who went to the military compound that day.

Before he came down to investigate the matter, the leaders of the province also heard from the Women's Federation that Gu Huaiqing abandoned his wife and son, refused to pay child support for so many years, and snatched back his eldest son after many years, and allowed Zhou Mingjuan to abuse his eldest son. matter.

It can be said that after Zhang Chunni's uproar, Gu Huaiqing's reputation has gone out of the military area and into the circle of the provincial government.

Even if Zhang Chunni didn't pursue Gu Huaiqing's broken shoes in the end, with Gu Huaiqing's current reputation and bad influence in the military region, it is unlikely that he would stay in the Linyang military region in terms of organization.

If Zhang Chunni decides to sue to the end, whether Gu Huaiqing can keep the military uniform on his body or not is another matter.

Section Chief Yu said these words, on the one hand, because if this matter becomes serious, the military region will look bad, and on the other hand, he is also worried about Zhang Chunni's safety.

Gu Huaiqing has served as the political commissar of the military region for many years, so he will more or less leave some behind-the-scenes players. If Zhang Chunni insists on fighting Gu Huaiqing, she will inevitably suffer a big loss.

Even Bai Yancheng, who is at the same level as Gu Huaiqing, took several years to seize Gu Huaiqing's right to speak. Now that Zhang Chunni is an ordinary worker, how can she fight Gu Huaiqing to the end?

"Section Chief Yu is wrong. I think the only conflict between Gu Huaiqing and Zhou Mingjuan is an internal conflict."

Facing Section Chief Yu's slightly surprised eyes, Zhang Chunni showed a mocking smile: "Comrade Gu Huaiqing and I divorced more than ten years ago. He is the political commissar of the provincial military region and a soldier, and I am an ordinary workshop in Qinghe County. Workers are ordinary people, and we are two completely unrelated families.

Even if there is a conflict between me and Comrade Gu Huaiqing, it is not an internal conflict, but Gu Huaiqing is bullying me, a commoner, because of his status as a soldier."

Since it's an internal conflict, when Gu Huaiqing abandoned his wife and son, why didn't your comrades from the political and engineering department come out to adjust the internal conflict?

Now that the matter has been exposed, I feel that the public opinion in the army is not good, so I came to tell me that this is an internal conflict, and I should pay attention to the impact?

Why?

When Gu Huaiqing did something worse than pigs and dogs, you didn't feel that the influence was bad. Now I'm trying to do justice to myself, but you all think that the influence is not good. What did you do earlier?

Also too bullying.

Seeing that Zhang Chunni's face darkened, Section Chief Yu also realized that he had said something wrong and Zhang Chunni had misunderstood him. He turned his head uncomfortably and cast a look at Deputy Commander Liang for help.

Deputy Commander Liang admired Section Chief Yu's Guan Gong's face for a long time, took a sip of water, and spoke for Section Chief Yu:

"Comrade Zhang, Lao Yu has a straight temper and doesn't know how to talk. Don't take offense at him. Come on, let's go on and say that Comrade Gu Huaiqing broke...uh, cough, he had a bad style back then."

Zhang Chunni was silent for a while, and then said, "My third child was born prematurely, only nine months old. Gu Mingzhu is two months older than my third child. This is the evidence that Gu Huaiqing has broken shoes. I don't know if you still need it." Investigate what."

"That's it." Deputy Commander Liang smacked his lips seemingly bored, then looked back at Section Chief Yu.

Section Chief Yu twitched at the corner of his mouth, and then asked, "Comrade Zhang Chunni, before I came to Qinghe County, I talked to Comrade Zhou Mingjuan. Comrade Zhou Mingjuan said that she gave you more than 17,000 yuan, and you promised her not to pursue it again." The matter of Political Commissar Gu..."

"Nothing." Zhang Chunni interrupted Section Chief Yu very simply,

He denied what she had promised Zhou Mingjuan.

"Mr. Yu, let me correct one more point. Comrade Zhou Mingjuan did not give me the 17,000 yuan. It was Comrade Zhou Mingjuan who, in front of the leaders of the Provincial Women's Federation, gave Gu Huaiqing the support for my three children for so many years. .

To be precise, this money is Gu Huaiqing's support for my three children. Even if Zhou Mingjuan doesn't pay the money, the leaders of the army will ask Gu Huaiqing to give the money to my three children if there are people from the Women's Federation. .

What does this have to do with her, Zhou Mingjuan? Why should I agree to such an unreliable thing? "

Deputy Commander Liang: "..." As expected of the Iron Lady!

When he first got up, he was able to knock Gu Huaiqing's head to the ground and knock him down from the political commissar's position.

Section Chief Yu: "..." He was talking nonsense with his eyes open.

If you didn't coax Zhou Mingjuan so much, how could you get a large sum of money so quickly?

If you don't get the money, can you turn your face and deny anyone, and turn around and stare at Gu Huaiqing after getting the money?

Zhou Mingjuan really made a bad move this time. If the money hadn't been given out so quickly, Gu Huaiqing's matter might not have been so serious.

Now it seems that Gu Huaiqing is really in danger this time.

Alas, when we go back, those old women in the family courtyard of the military region don't know how many gossips they will have to make up.

Seeing that the two of them stopped talking, Zhang Chunni thought for a while, and then said, "I've made up my mind, I'm not only going to report Gu Huaiqing this time, I also plan to report Zhou Mingjuan to the hospital in a few days..."

"Cough, cough, cough!" Deputy Commander Liang coughed incessantly at Zhang Chunni's words, "Comrade Zhang, you... actually reported Comrade Gu Huaiqing, and the organization will investigate Comrade Zhou Mingjuan, there is no need for you to report again Once."

"I want to report it. Zhou Mingjuan is a thief who stole the fruits of my revolution."

A flash of hatred flashed across Zhang Chunni's face, she paused, and continued, "The Party Central Committee won the war of resistance for eight years. I married Gu Huaiqing for ten years, and I ran around with him, fearful, and fought for a full ten years. The 'revolution' is about to win, but Zhou Mingjuan shamelessly stole the fruits of my revolution, shouldn't I report her?"

Even if only Gu Huaiqing was reported, Zhou Mingjuan would not be able to escape the fate of being investigated, but Zhang Chunni still wanted to report Zhou Mingjuan to let the hospital colleagues know who Zhou Mingjuan was.

Deputy Commander Liang was taken aback by Zhang Chunni's divine theory. After realizing it, he couldn't help but slap his hands and echoed, "That's right! You should report it! You should report it! This is simply picking peaches off the shelf. It's too bad!"
