Chapter 59 New clothes

Sun Datou's voice didn't know when it stopped, but Gu Shinian was still staring at his face tightly, his eyes were churning with murderous intent.

Seemingly aware of the danger, Sun Datou struggled violently again, and kept begging Gu Shinian for mercy.

"...Comrade, I was wrong, I pleaded guilty! I shouldn't be able to stand the hooking of Widow Wang, I shouldn't break my shoes, send me to the police, I'll go to labor camp..."

At this time, Datou Sun still didn't know where Gu Shinian's anger came from, and was still desperately throwing the blame on Widow Wang, not mentioning the sins he committed against 'Yunshang'.

Gu Shinian's anger grew even stronger, he picked up a towel and stuffed Sun Datou's mouth, took off the towel from his eyes, and said gloomily:

"Don't worry, you won't die, and you won't go to reform through labor."

Knowing that he would not die, Sun Datou heaved a sigh of relief, but stopped struggling.

Hearing the sound of Xixi Susuo coming from his ears again, Datou Sun was curious and couldn't help but look sideways, but the moment he turned his head, a white bottle exploded in front of him with a bang.

Sun Datou only felt that his eyes were following the fire, and the pain was burning. Before he could react, he was hit hard on his arm...

In the space, Yun Chang chose a few pieces of pure cotton fabric on the seventh floor, and then found a single sofa and slept for a while. In a daze, she seemed to hear Gu Shinian calling her name softly outside.

Yun Chang reacted immediately, dodged out of the space, and rushed towards Gu Shinian, "Second brother Gu, say hello?"

"Hello." Gu Shinian picked up Yun Chang and said as he walked, "A Chang, Datou Sun looks a little ugly now, don't look at him after you put it in the space, do you understand?"

Yun Chang was stunned for a moment, no matter how stupid she was, she knew that Datou Sun was abolished by Gu Shinian, so she nodded quickly, and pulled out a burlap bag from the space, "Second brother Gu, I use this to cover him, so that I can't see arrive."

Gu Shinian took the burlap bag, put down Yunshang, and went over to cover Sun Datou, who was dumb and blind, and had broken limbs, and then called Yunshang to put the person in the space.

"Let's go, it's getting late, go home quickly."

When I came out, I didn't feel that the road was long, but the road home was very long.

Yun Chang was lying in Gu Shinian's arms, her head was so sleepy that she didn't even know when she returned home.

When I opened my eyes again, it was already bright outside.

Yun Chang sat up in the quilt, looked at the dirt on her pink blouse, and remembered what Gu Shinian said to coax her last night, the aggrieved two pigtails drooped down, "Second brother Gu, you said you would give it to me. Making new smocks..."

How can she not talk, she has to go to the county to catch the train to the provincial capital after lunch, how can she go out wearing a dress splashed with mud ideas?

At first glance, others think she is a sloppy girl, which is too ruined!

Gu Shinian endured and endured, and finally couldn't hold back the corners of his mouth. He walked to the edge of the kang and coaxed her to endure for a while. After washing, he went into the space to make a new smock for her, and promised to make her a new smock before departure. Let her put on new clothes before.

Yun Chang just complained, but she opened her arms very obediently and let Gu Shinian carry her off the kang.

While Yunshang was washing, Gu Shinian washed her clothes full of muddy ideas, and let her put them in the space to dry.

After breakfast, Gu Shinian asked Yun Chang to take him into the space, ready to make new clothes for her.

"Ah Chang, there is a sewing machine on the seventh floor, you can take one down and get some power strips from the supermarket."

Yun Chang didn't know why Gu Shinian was reluctant to enter the store, she wanted to open her mouth to ask the reason, but she couldn't ask anything when she met Gu Shinian's eyes.

Taking advantage of the gap between Yunshang carrying the sewing machine, Gu Shinian spread out the fabric that Yunshang had selected, and compared it to the pink smock he washed before.

Cut out the fabric piece by piece.

In just a few minutes, six or seven large holes were dug in the middle of the entire piece of fabric.

Yun Chang saw that both eyes were rounded.

This is too simple and rude!

Also, what a waste of fabric!

"Second brother Gu, this, this can also be done???"

"Is there anything wrong?"

Gu Shinian felt a little embarrassed, but he still asked a question without changing his face. After that, with Yunshang's strange eyes, he studied beside the sewing machine for a long time, and then picked up a piece of fabric to practice his hand feeling, sewn up.

Yun Chang watched as Gu Shinian drove out a new blouse in less than an hour, her eyes lit up with excitement.

Brother Gu, has this unlocked new skills? Great, she will have countless flowery clothes to wear in the future!

While Gu Shinian was making clothes, Yun Chang glanced at the situation in the ground and found that the things that had been planted before had not sprouted, so he watered it again, and planned to come back tomorrow to see the germination.

After staying in the space for a few hours, Gu Shinian made two new blouses and a new pair of trousers for Yunshang in one go, and made a set of clothes for himself, ironed them flat, except for one collar that was a little crooked. In addition, the other pieces are as exciting as the new clothes sold in the mall.

Yunshang was going crazy with joy. While Gu Shinian was packing his luggage, he put on a down jacket with a new smock on, and ran out in a hurry, strolling back and forth at the gate for several laps.

Even if it was a cold day and there was no one outside, Yun Chang, who was wearing new clothes, was still very happy.

At noon, Mr. Yun drove a few people to the town with an ox cart, and spent another 15 cents to let them take the town's mule cart to the county seat.

Seeing that Mr. Yun was about to leave, Yun Chang worriedly chased after him and told him, "Master, you and my milk have to help me take care of the house, but don't forget to feed the chickens!"

"Don't worry, I remember it!"

Mr. Yun felt that Yun Chang was too human, so he touched her braid in a funny way, and avoiding people, took out a dollar from his arms and stuffed it into Yun Chang's hand.

"Shangnan, go to the provincial capital and buy yourself some snacks."

"Master, I don't want it. I have money and snacks."

The Yun family's wealth is notoriously thin in Xinglin Village, how could Yunshang receive the money from Mr. Yun, so he quickly took a few steps back and ran into the mule cart.

It was lunch time, and the mule cart was full of people after only ten minutes of waiting. The driver slapped the whip, and the mule set off automatically. The speed is also faster than that of an ox cart, and it takes only one and a half hours to reach the county seat.

The other passengers got off the bus at Cross Street, and Yun Erchuan spent five cents more to get the driver to send them to the train station.

The train to the provincial capital leaves at 7:30 in the evening, and it was only 1:00 in the afternoon. After a few people bought the tickets, Yun Erchuan picked up his bags and prepared to take a few people to Han Shan's house to rest for a while.

Unexpectedly, as soon as they left the station, the group was stopped by three red sleeves.
