

《The Mysterious CEO》

156 Lost track of GPS.

"Don't you think that you have been very rude to him? He is your brother after all and he wants to help you. I think you should give him a chance and let him help you." Si Li advised while sitting on the chair beside Mo Jiang.

"Ohh really! Then why don't you allow Si Yian to help you?" Mo Jiang sneeringly asked.

Mo Jiang knew that his and Si Li's situation was the same. They have to handle their underworld business alone without taking any help of their younger brothers. The only difference was Si Li didn't require to take any efforts to keep Si Yan away from it because Madam Si was doing this job.

Whereas, in Mo Jiang's case, he had to personally make sure to keep Mo Jinnan away from Underworld business.

Sometimes, Mo Jiang really missed his mother. If she had been alive, then he wouldn't have to worry about Mo Jinnan.

Sadly, she was not here.

"Cut the crap! Tell me what are you doing here?" Mo Jiang nonchalantly asked.

"Why? Can't I come and look for my friend?" Si Li asked.

Then, Si Li continued with a mischievous smile "Okay, I have killed the rest of the four men which your team has been looking for."

Mo Jiang was neither shocked nor surprised by it. Si Li's team was very efficient, no doubt.

However, the question raised in his mind was, why did Si Li help him kill those men?

"What do you want?" Mo Jiang straightforwardly asked.

"Nothing much, I want to borrow some of your men from your hacking department."

No doubt, Si Li and Mo Jiang were the best friends, however, when it came to business, they turned into businessmen who wouldn't do anything for someone else for free.

As the saying goes that nothing comes free in this world.

Where Si Li's team was proficient in fighting and killing, Mo Jiang's team was proficient in hacking and online illegal activities.

Though Si Li himself was very good at hacking, his hacking's team was less efficient than Mo Jiang's hacking team.

Si Li didn't know, from where Mo Jiang was able to find these men, who were so good at hacking. If they would join Si Li's team, then no one would be able to beat them.

Sadly for Si Li, Mo Jiang's men were very loyal to him and they wouldn't leave Mo Jiang's side despite Si Li was ready to give them many benefits which they hadn't seen in their life.

In the end, Si Li could only borrow them in exchange for doing something for Mo Jiang.

"Okay, you can take only four men." Mo Jiang replied.

Si Li narrowed his eyes when he heard Mo Jiang's reply.

Only four men!

Mo Jiang's team had thirty men who were very efficient, however, he was allocating only four men to him.

Well, Si Li couldn't do anything because his team had killed only four men and in exchange for them, he would get four men.

He wanted to do something big this time and for that, he required at least twenty men, however, he got only four men.

Of course, time is money.

So, there was a difference in the work efficiency between four men and twenty men.

Now, Si Li was required to think of another way to get the rest of the sixteen men from Mo Jiang's team because money couldn't buy them.

Si Li came back into his senses when he heard a knock on the door.

Choi Sun came inside the room and his facial expression changed when he saw Si Li because this morning he reached the place where the rest of the four men were hidden. However, before he could get a chance to do anything to them, Si Li's team had already killed those four men.

Choi Sun wanted to give this news to Mo Jiang personally with the perfect excuse so that Mo Jiang wouldn't give any strict punishment. However, now seeing the presence of Si Li here, he knew that his excuse was of no use. Therefore, now, he could wait for Mo Jiang to punish him, the punishment for being less efficient to do his task.

Si Li showed the evil smile on his face. Si Li and Choi Sun were not in good terms with each other because Si Li always used to interfere in their work which made Choi Sun unhappy.

"President." Choi Sun said and lowered his head.

"I want you to pass all the tests again for being the leader. Seeing your performance, make me feel that we have made a mistake for choosing you as a leader. Go and prove yourself again." Mo Jiang said indifferently.

While Si Li was still smiling evilly, Mo Jiang knew that Si Li was mocking him for having inefficient men.

"Yes, President. I will prove it to you. Aside from this, we have tracked your watch, but it seems that the other party has taken out the GPS from it. So, we have lost track of it." Choi Sun reported.

When Mo Jiang's heard it, he became extremely unhappily because of this news.

Lost the track!

Damn it!

That girl was very efficient and if she would agree to join his team, then no one would be able to beat them. Even he might be able to defeat Si Li's team.

However, that girl was smart enough and took off GPS from his watch.

Now, how would he be able to find her?...
