

《The Mysterious CEO》

221 Freedom ? Part-7

Soon after, the sky turned grey and then dark black. While on the land of Earth, the people were done with their work and were ready to go back home to spend some time with their friends and family and finally end on their bed to rest at the end of their busy day.

However, for some people, it was the starting of their day and the exciting night to win.

Liu Juan!

Bo Xiao!

And...

Liu Ruolan!

Let's see who would win?

Liu Juan had spent her day practising a lot to improve her skills. Bo Xiao had discussed the detailed plan with his trustworthy people and Liu Ruolan was successful in making both Liu Juan and Bo Xiao fool and was now waiting for the right time where she would teach a lesson to both of them.

However, there was someone above the three of them. The man, their boss had set forth his pawns and now it was time to see what was going to happen.

3.55 AM in the morning. In the study room.

The lights of the room were dim. The darkness was overwhelming inside the room with only a little light. That much light was enough for Bo Xiao and Liu Juan to see each other. Both of them were standing opposite to each other, face to face.

Liu Juan was already wearing black clothes, completely ready to go on the last mission of her life which she had been thinking about it since a long time but her fate had decided something else.

Whereas, Bo Xiao was still wearing a casual sleeping robe which made Liu Juan frown.

"Why are we standing here? Shouldn't you get ready for the mission? You are not planning to go back on your words, are you? Don't forget, I still have that recording which can finish yo----"

"There is a change in plan." Bo Xiao cut off her threat.

Again, Liu Juan's brow frowned and this time it was deeper. "What do you mean by 'change in plan'? How could you change our plan as per your wish?" Liu Juan took a step closer to him and pointed a finger at him and continued in a low deep voice that contained her anger. "Bo Xiao, If you betray me, you will be finished!"

"So what? Now you want me to sleep with you just because you saved me?" Liu Juan wasn't affected by his words as she knew that he wasn't the right person for her to like and love. So his liking towards her, whether it was just for the moment or for the life time, it didn't matter to her.

"Nah!" Bo Xiao waved his hand. "Because I got your big sister into my bed and fulfilled my desire." Bo Xiao said with a broad smile. As broad as his smile was, a similar amount of hatred started brewing in her heart when she heard that her big sister had slept with Bo Xiao.

She wanted to make sure that her big sister wouldn't be tainted like her but this man...

She wanted to kill him!

Whereas, Bo Xiao wasn't much bothered seeing her angry expression and continued, "Since she helped me fulfilling my desire, I thought to make it easier for her to run away from here, unlike you, who took the hard path where she could get killed."

"You..." Liu Juan wanted to rip his head off. He dared to sleep with her big sister and now he was saying that he cared for her!

What a hypocrite!

But then suddenly, a knock was heard on the door, making her clutch her fist to control her anger while Bo Xiao continued to smile.

"Come in."

The butler entered with a worried expression on his face, "Master Bo, we are under attack by the enemies."

'Attack?' Liu Juan frowned hearing the butler's words.

Who could attack here?

As far as Liu Juan knew, Bo Xiao's estate had such tight security that if an enemy tried to get inside, he and his force would have killed at the entrance of the estate before they could get the chance to enter inside this villa. Thus, the butler wouldn't have seemed to worry about it unless the enemy had surpassed the entrance's security and was coming towards their villa.

If the enemy would attack this villa, then how would she and her big sister leave the villa?

It seemed that her plan to get their freedom tonight would fail badly.

Did that mean that she wouldn't get her freedom tonight?

No! This couldn't be possible!

She had waited for this day since a long....long time, where she and her big sister would be free from this life.

She needed to do something but what could she do, especially when the enemy was standing at the door of this villa?

The butler and Liu Juan were worried about the sudden intrusion of an unknown enemy while Bo Xiao seemed to be much calm as if the attackers were not his enemy but in fact, his friends.

Well! That's right, the attackers were Bo Xiao's men and not some unknown enemy. They were here to aid Bo Xiao to make his plan successful and eliminate some unwanted pests who dared to go against him and take the side of their boss.

However, this thing was only known to Bo Xiao.

"Get everyone ready and tell team B to guard the villa outside while the rest of the teams will be staying inside the villa as the backup." Bo Xiao ordered the butler which made the butler frown.

Shouldn't Bo Xiao send team A rather than team B outside to guard the villa as they were the stronger who could take out the enemy within a matter of a few minutes?

The butler found the fault in Bo Xiao's order, but he didn't dare to counter it and immediately left the room to fulfill Bo Xiao's orders.

But Liu Juan was different from the butler. She found fault in Bo Xiao's order and didn't hesitate to raise her voice against it.

"Shouldn't you send Team A outside rather than Team B? Team A is stronger, they would counter the enemy easily---"

"I think you should run away with your big sister from here rather than instructing me to go against my plan."

Bo Xiao's words made her look at him confusingly.

'Go against his plan.'

What did he mean by that?

And the same question, Liu Juan wanted to ask but Bo Xiao readily answered it before she could open her mouth "They are my men and not some enemy. Take your sister and run away from here. I will announce your and your sister's death during this attack. I just hope you haven't forgotten about the secret path through which you ran away from here last time, have you?"

His words left her eyes wide open. She couldn't believe this was Bo Xiao's plan which he had been talking about.

He was ready to put his villa in danger just to let her and her big sister run away without any difficulty.

It was hard to believe for Liu Juan. She was standing there and thinking about what could be the reason behind his sudden change of plan.

However, before Liu Juan could put much thought into it, the door of the room opened without any warning.

'Click!'

"Bo Xiao, Juan. We are under attack!" Liu Ruolan rushed inside the room while her face was full of worry.

Seeing Liu Ruolan, all doubts and questions from Liu Juan's mind vanished away and only one thing came into her mind, 'Take your big sister and run away.'

This was a golden opportunity and Liu Juan didn't want to waste it. She held Liu Ruolan's hands. "Big Sis, we need to run away from here."

"What? But you said..." Though Liu Ruolan knew everything about Bo Xiao's plan, she continued to feign ignorant, shock, and even confused at the same time.

"Big Sis, I will tell you everything later. For now, we need to leave from here, right this instant!" Liu Juan felt that it would be better to leave this place as soon as possible. Thus, she grabbed Liu Ruolan's hands and dragged her but then...

"Wait..." Bo Xiao cropped up in front of both the sisters.
