Section 101

He felt that he had to prepare some backup plans for himself first.

With a wave of his right hand, the sword flashed quickly, and a clearing was soon cleared in the valley.

Zhang Yuhe took out various items and began to arrange and carve in the valley.

After a while, a small-scale array appeared in the valley.

"Done, let's go to the next one."

He flew into the air again.

Half a day later, Zhang Yuhe arranged the same array in another valley.

Time passed slowly.

For three consecutive days, he arranged sixteen arrays along the way, and then left with peace of mind.

These arrays were temporary teleportation arrays designed by himself, connected in pairs, and one teleportation could reach a distance of half a day.

Once an emergency occurs, these temporary teleportation arrays can be used to quickly get out.

"Now we can go find trouble with the demons."

After arranging the retreat, Zhang Yuhe adjusted the direction and flew quickly towards the demon army.

Half a day later, a team of demon army appeared in his sight.

Zhang Yuhe did not hesitate, he quickly pinched the magic formula.

The sky was instantly covered with dark clouds, and thunder poured down towards the demon army.

The heavenly grade supernatural power, thunder shone brightly.

As he used this magic power, thunder instantly enveloped the demon army.

A moment later, a team of 300,000 demons smashed the thunder into slag.

Picking up the items on the ground, Zhang Yuhe quickly rushed to the next target.

At this moment, in a huge demon camp.

A demon with a terrifying aura sat in the tent.

The eleventh demon guard, Yin Gaoyuan, was in the early stage of Mahayana cultivation.

Yin Gaoyuan's expression moved, he took out a black mirror and cast a magic formula.

However, there was no response in the mirror.

"No, something happened."

In order to ensure the safety of the army, the Demon Palace redesigned strict protection measures.

The leader of each team must keep in touch with the Mahayana demons in charge of guarding.

There must be no interruption for a moment. Once it is interrupted, it means that something unexpected has happened.

Just now, Yin Gaoyuan found that a certain team suddenly lost contact.

He quickly used the black mirror to ask about the situation, but did not get any response.

Now he knew that something must have happened to that team.

The unknown Daosheng Sect Mahayana, after being silent for more than ten days, took action again.

Thinking of this, Yin Gaoyuan quickly sent a message to other Mahayana demons closest to him.

Then he quickly flew to the team that lost contact.

At the same time, other Mahayana demons also quickly gathered at the scene of the incident.

Zhang Yuhe didn't know that the demon Mahayana was already quickly outflanking him.

At this time, he had just dealt with the second team of demon army and was picking up things on the ground and preparing to leave.

Suddenly, a loud shout came from a distance.

"Insolent."

A terrifying breath flew towards him quickly.

"Not good, it's a Mahayana cultivator of the demon clan."

Feeling the breath approaching quickly in the distance, Zhang Yuhe quickly made a judgment.

"Run away quickly."

He quickly turned around and turned into a stream of light and flew into the distance.

Yin Gaoyuan looked at the mess on the ground and couldn't help but get angry.

The Mahayana cultivator of Daosheng Sect actually destroyed two demon armies in succession under his nose.

This is totally unbearable.

Does he have no face?

Yin Gaoyuan used all his magic power and chased Zhang Yuhe closely.

Among the twelve demon guards, Yin Gaoyuan is almost the weakest one.

But he is not worried, the Mahayana demons around are coming quickly.

He thought, as long as he catches up with the opponent and entangles for a while, wait for other demon guards to arrive.

This Mahayana cultivator of Daosheng Sect will have only one way to die.

Although Mahayana cultivators are difficult to kill.

But they are numerous, and one person can beat the opponent into slag with a few hits.

Didn't they kill a Mahayana cultivator of Daosheng Sect in Tianxinghai?

And that was still in the middle stage of Mahayana.

Judging from the aura of the man in front of him, he is only in the early stage of Mahayana.

If he is dragged by him, he will surely die.

Thinking of this, Yin Gaoyuan gritted his teeth.

A mouthful of blood and blood spurted out, and soon bursts of red light appeared on his body.

His figure instantly turned into a blood light and chased Zhang Yuhe at a high speed.

Divine power, Blood Demon Aurora Escape.

This is Yin Gaoyuan's innate magical power, as a blood demon.

As long as he cultivates to the state of transformation, he will activate this magical power.

Once the Blood Demon Aurora Escape is performed, the flying speed will be greatly improved.

Of course, it also takes a great price to perform this magical power.

The Blood Demon Aurora Escape is activated by one's own blood and blood. After each use, the body will fall into a weak period.

The longer the activation time, the longer the weak period will be.

Even if it is only activated for a moment, it takes hundreds of years to recuperate before it can slowly return to normal.

If it is activated for too long in a row, it may even damage the foundation.

Unless they are in danger and need to escape, the Blood Demon Clan will not use this magical power.

The price is really too high.

But this time, in order to hold back the Mahayana monks of the Daosheng Sect, Yin Gaoyuan can no longer care about so much.

Facing the sudden appearance of the demon Mahayana, Zhang Yuhe has no desire to fight.

Although this demon Mahayana does not seem to be very strong.

From the aura, it was about the same as his.

He was probably also an early Mahayana.

To be honest, if he exerted his full strength, he would not even need to activate the Hunyuan Guiyi magical power.

He could deal with this demon Mahayana.

And it would not take too much time.

But Zhang Yuhe still had no intention of taking action.

Because he did not know how many demon Mahayana there were nearby.

Once he stayed, he would choose to fight with the demon Mahayana behind him.

If a few more demon Mahayana appeared, it would be bad.

Let's run first.

As long as he ran to a place, he could get away with the temporary teleportation array he had set up before.

Anyway, he was fighting a guerrilla war.

If he could steal, he would steal, and he would leave after stealing a few.

He would never fight to the death.

Chapter 97 The first kill of the demon Mahayana

Zhang Yuhe flew quickly all the way, feeling that the demons behind him were getting closer and closer.

He could not help but frown.

The demon Mahayana behind him, I don't know what kind of magical power he activated, and his speed suddenly increased by more than half.

Although he had used his full strength to activate the Heavenly Flying Immortal Technique, he still could not distance himself from them.

On the contrary, the distance between the two sides was getting closer and closer.

If this continued, he would be caught up in half a quarter of an hour at most.
