Section 154

Song Heguang is a member of the Daosheng Sect, and another Golden Immortal monk, guarding Ji'anfang City on behalf of the sect.

It was his first time coming to Fangshi, so logically he should come to pay homage to his ancestor first.

But Song Heguang happened to be away at this time.

Then we'll have to wait until next time.

Zhang Yuhe resigned and soon came to a house next to the main hall.

Looking at the house, the lakes and mountains are beautiful, and the pavilions and lofts are all available.

Zhang Yuhe said silently to himself.

"I'm afraid I will have to stay here permanently in the future. I hope I can practice safely for a while."

Meeting the true immortal monks of the Ouyang family before made him feel a huge sense of crisis in his heart.

This is not Yu Fantian, and he is no longer a player.

If someone beats him to death, he is really dead.

Therefore, Zhang Yuhe made up his mind to improve his strength as soon as possible.

As long as you practice to the late stage of True Immortal, plus understand the laws, you can reach a certain level.

Then even if he encounters enemies in the Golden Fairy Realm, he can still fight them.

After all, he still has a powerful trump card.

That is the innate magical power, the unification of Hunyuan.

Activating the magical power of Hunyuan Guiyi can increase your strength tenfold.

In the later stage, the true immortal's strength increases tenfold, and he should be able to outlast the weakest golden immortal.

Zhang Yuhe thought silently for a while, and then walked into the cave.

"First, promote your natal magic weapon to an immortal weapon."

Arriving at the refining room in the cave, Zhang Yuhe waved his hand, and a huge four-legged tripod slowly flew out and landed on the high platform.

This tripod is currently only a top-grade heaven-reaching spiritual treasure, but it should be enough to upgrade the natal magic weapon.

When there is a chance in the future, I will find a way to find an immortal-level cauldron.

Zhang Yuhe waved his right hand, and the nine flying swords quickly fell into the four-legged cauldron.

Then put the nine chaos beast crystal cores into the cauldron one by one.

Cover the tripod with a lid.

He quickly pressed the magic formula, and hot flames ignited under the four-legged cauldron.

Zhang Yuhe silently closed his eyes and practiced while observing the changes in the cauldron.

Three months later.

He suddenly opened his eyes, waved his right hand, and the cauldron lid flew up instantly.

The nine flying swords were surrounded by immortal energy and slowly appeared in the cauldron.

Zhang Yuhe reached out and took one of the flying swords in his hand to check.

"Well, it's finally done."

The natal magic weapon was promoted to a low-grade immortal weapon, so he had reached the minimum configuration of a true immortal.

At least there are immortal weapons available.

In the fairy world, the levels of fairy weapons are divided into:

Low-grade fairy weapons, medium-grade fairy weapons, high-grade fairy weapons and top-grade fairy weapons.

Among them, low-grade immortal weapons correspond to true immortal monks. Even if they are true immortals, they still use low-grade immortal weapons.

Because for true immortal monks, middle-grade immortal weapons are too precious and they simply cannot get them.

Moreover, middle-grade immortal weapons consume a lot of money.

Even if the true immortal is perfect, he may not be able to activate it.

In the same way, middle-grade immortal weapons correspond to golden immortal monks, and high-grade immortal weapons correspond to Taiyi immortals.

The best immortal weapon corresponds to the Great Luo Immortal.

As for the Taoist ancestors, they generally use the best immortal weapons.

Because most Taoist artifacts are generated by heaven and earth, they are extremely rare.

Even the Dao Ancestor boss couldn't do it with one person.

Now Zhang Yuhe has a complete set of low-grade immortal weapons and natal magic weapons, even if he doesn't use other trump cards.

In the early stage of True Immortal, he was not considered weak.

Zhang Yuhe walked out of the weapon refining room and was about to retreat and open the first orifice.

Suddenly his expression changed, and an Immortal Mirror appeared in his hand.

He cast a spell.

Xie Mingyuan's projection appeared in the mirror.

"Junior Brother Zhang, there will be a gathering of true immortals in Fang City in three days. Do you want to come with us?"

"Okay, I just want to get to know the other true immortal Taoist friends."

"Okay, I'll pick you up in three days."

...

After the call ended, Zhang Yuhe stood there, thoughtful.

It has been more than a year since I came to the fairy world.

He has not come into contact with other true immortal monks.

Although he has extraordinary talent, working behind closed doors is obviously not the right way.

Communicating more with other monks can not only increase your knowledge, but also find opportunities to exchange for some heavenly materials and earthly treasures.

Although he has nothing now.

But he has skills.

After ascension, he did not leave behind his skills in the Dan Formation Tool Talisman.

As long as he has the materials, he can refine elixirs and magical weapons.

It can also draw immortal talismans and seals, and depict immortal-level formations.

He wants to monetize his skills in exchange for the natural resources and treasures he needs.

You need to communicate with others.

Otherwise, the alley is too deep to spread incense.

If he didn't know, who would come to him?

Zhang Yuhe had already thought about it.

He plans to make a name for himself in Ji'anfang City as a weapon refiner.

That way, he wouldn't have to go out and take risks in search of opportunities.

When others come to him to refine weapons, they will naturally give them good things.

After all, no one works for free.

He is also included.

Chapter 142 Party

Three days later.

Xie Mingyuan took Zhang Yuhe outside a manor.

Seeing them coming, a tall monk walked out of the manor.

"Brother Xie is finally here, I'm waiting for you."

Then he turned to look at Zhang Yuhe and asked.

"I wonder what I call this fellow Taoist?"

Xie Mingyuan quickly introduced the two of them.

"This is my junior brother Zhang Yuhe, who will be stationed in Ji'an Market in the future."

After that, he introduced him to Zhang Yuhe.

"This is Brother Liu Haitao from Jiuxianmen. When I'm not in the market in the future, if you have any troubles, you can ask Brother Liu for help."

Liu Haitao said hurriedly.

"Okay, okay, Brother Xie's junior brother is my junior brother, just come to me if you have anything."

Seeing the other party so enthusiastic, Zhang Yuhe stepped forward and bowed.

"Little brother Zhang Yuhe, meet Brother Liu."

"Junior brother Zhang, don't be polite, outside is not a place to talk, come in and chat, everyone is waiting."

"Okay."

The three entered the manor one by one and came to a wide pavilion in the lake.

Zhang Yuhe looked into the pavilion.

I saw that there were more than ten True Immortal cultivators inside, discussing something loudly.

Seeing them coming.
