

The Rest Of My Life Is For You

Chapter 5: Fallen into his hands!

Nian Xiaomu diligently prepared for the interview and left the house very early the next day.

When she alighted the car at the address of the venue stated on the recruitment form, she was trapped in a trance.

The Yu villa stood right before her very eyes with the courtyard stretching very far into the distance.

The Yu Family was indeed the biggest clan in City H. Just the facade of the villa alone was intimidating enough to make one feel the utmost respect and awe.

At this moment, there was a large crowd jostling against one another at the main gate of the villa. The situation did not look like a recruitment drive for nurses; rather, it looked like the emperor selecting his consort in the ancient times.

Nian Xiaomu had done her research on the employer before coming to the interview.

Yu Yuehan was the most eligible bachelor in City H. He was single, but had a three-year-old daughter.

Domineering, compelling, unfeeling...

She even heard that this “Young Master Han” had unrivaled good looks!

As she went through all these comments on the Internet, she suddenly thought of the jerk who had stolen her first kiss at the hospital the day before!

She wondered, between that man and Yu Yuehan, who would be the better looking one?

“Those who have registered are to follow me in.” The butler packed up the resumes before him, then turned and entered the house.

He had just taken a few steps when he suddenly stopped in his tracks.

Very quickly, everyone stopped and shuffled to stand at attention, respectfully facing the main gate.

The next second, a flashy sports car entered the gate...

“Young Master—”

The spontaneous greeting that broke out in unison reflected just how much this person was held in high esteem.

Then, the car disappeared inside.

“Hey, why are you still standing there!” The bellowing that rang in her ear jolted Nian Xiaomu out of her daze.

Realizing that she was lagging behind the rest of the group and feeling the annoyance of the security guards behind her, all she could think of now was that familiar looking side profile in the car that had just went past...

Were her eyes playing tricks on her?

At the Yu villa, she had actually spotted that lump of ice who had bumped into her!

In front of the opulent villa’s hall.

The butler wore a stern expression as he stood at the table and interviewed the people who had made it to the final round.

Suddenly, a surprised voice exclaimed, “Nian Xiaomu, what are you doing here?”

“...” Nian Xiaomu looked up, tightening her gaze as she recognized the person in front of her.

“Don’t tell me you’re also here for the interview?” Fang Zhenyi folded her arms with a look of disdain. “You’re only a half-baked nurse. What qualifications do you have to look after the precious little miss?”

“...” When Nian Xiaomu heard her say that, the spot between her eyebrows stiffened.

She had joined the nursing program in the middle of the course, and Fang Zhenyi happened to be her classmate who was also the top student in class.

“Nian Xiaomu, what right do you have to compete with me?” Fang Zhenyi walked up to her haughtily, exuding an air of arrogance and conceit.

Ever since Nian Xiaomu joined the class, she had lost her status as the class belle.

How could this girl, besides her beauty, match up to her?

“Look butler, Fang Zhenyi seems to be pretty good. Her qualifications and experience are the most outstanding among these people...”

When she heard the interviewer mention her name, Fang Zhenyi immediately raised her head and straightened up.

Her virtuous and dignified image, along with her pretty face, did make her appear very professional indeed.

“Yes, not bad at all.” The butler had a look at her and nodded his head.

Little Miss was the apple of their young master’s eye.

The nurse who would be recruited had to be the most excellent one. If anything were to go wrong, all of them would be in hot soup!

At this point, Fang Zhenyi felt that victory was already in hand. Gloating in delight, she uttered, “Nian Xiaomu, it's best that you voluntarily give up now if you know where you stand. Otherwise, you will face a very humiliating defeat!”

Nian Xiaomu’s eyes narrowed. Just as she was about to say something, she noticed the butler abruptly getting up.

Even the people next to him rose to their feet hurriedly.

This scene felt a little familiar...

The next second, an imposing figure walked over slowly.
