

Triplets On SM 1201

Chapter 1201-“Huh? Are you serious?” Brycen, who had been full of righteous indignation just now, was stunned when he heard this.

He had said so much purely to make his sister happy.

Unexpectedly, she agreed.

“Yes!” Molly said seriously, “Of course I am real! Brycen, remember to buy more.”

Brycen was stunned.

The tree children fell silent. What the hell did Daddy do to make Mommy so angry?!

To prevent Daddy from being kicked out by Mommy, they had no choice but to continue comforting, “Mommy, Daddy did something wrong, and you should punish him severely! But, please... don’t get angry.”

“Yes, Mommy, you should smile more. I think you look very pretty when you smile. You look pretty as a fairy. I like it the most.” “That’s right. You might get wrinkles when you’re angry.

Mommy, you have to be pretty all the time...”

Hearing the children comfort her in a soft and cute voice, Molly felt better.

But she was still worried about Sean.

Therefore, after a short while, she ended the call in a hurry. Seeing that her mood had eased a lot, Mr. Ballard and Merak finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, her children called in time. Otherwise, it would be difficult to handle.

But at this moment, a subordinate outside the door suddenly rushed in to report, “Ms. Merak, something happened.”

Hearing his words, the several people in the room froze.

“What happened? Are Sean and the others back?” Molly asked first.

Merak also stood up and asked, “What’s wrong?”

The subordinate responded, “No, the master and others haven’t come back yet.

There are suspicious people out of the villa area! I sent people to detect it, but they didn’t come back! We suspect that they may be sent by the enemy.”

Merak’s face instantly darkened when she heard it and ordered, “Make arrangements immediately. No one is allowed to step into the villa.”

“Yes.” The subordinate nodded and went out quickly.

After he left, Merak turned around and said to Mr. Ballard and Molly, “Madam, I think you and Mr. Ballard should go to the underground research lab now. It’s safer there! I’ll go out and have a look first. If there is no problem, you can come out later.”

Molly did not refuse.

She knew that if she stayed here, she would not be of much help, but would only hinder Merak and the others.

It was just that this feeling of having to be protected every time was terrible!

Whether it was Sean or other people... her existence always seemed a burden!

After they returned to the underground research lab, Mr.

Ballard saw that she was upset and quickly comforted her," Girl, everyone has something they're good at and something they're bad at... Your intelligence is reflected in your medical skills, which are different from theirs!

"Besides, although they are fighting hard at the front, you are serving as their backing at the rear. So why belittle yourself?"

Molly hadn't expected that Mr. Ballard was quite good at comforting people.

She understood what he said, but she hoped that other people would not take risks because of her.

But her idea was naive after all!

Sean was now in that high position, and he was destined to be involved in many things. Besides, he had been besieged and hunted in the past and he was going to avenge himself.

Thinking of this, Molly suddenly lost the mood to continue to be depressed!

She took a deep breath, pulled herself together, and said to Mr. Ballard, "I know.

I didn't belittle myself. I was just thinking if only I could be more useful... Mr. Ballard, could you continue to teach me ancient medical techniques?"

Chapter 1202-"Okay, of course, as long as you want to learn." Seeing that she had figured it out, Mr. Ballard naturally readily agreed.

As long as she didn't lose control, he would agree to anything!

Molly nodded, "When things come to an end, we will start..."

Mr. Ballard nodded too.

Then they silently waited for news in the research lab.

At the same time, outside the villa, Merak and her men had already made various arrangements.

As her subordinates had guessed, hundreds of enemies had already lurked outside the villa area.

They were led by Jose and two big men! Of these two big men, one had a bald head and the other had a scar on his face.

With a height of two meters, they were frighteningly strong. With their well-developed muscles and awe-inspiring aura, it was simply frightening!

Standing beside them, Jose felt a little intimidated in his heart.

The two big men were indeed SSS-level mercenary captains. When they were just standing here, it made others feel intimidated!

Jose summoned up his courage, and asked the bald man, "Captain Black Scorpion, why don't we attack directly?"

Haven't the men of the Stars Group been transferred away? The master of the Grandset is no longer here. Do we have any worries?"

When the bald man heard this, his face was expressionless, and he said, "If we aren't sure, we will only seek death if we go in rashly. Do you think that they have no preparations? The old man from the Ballard family is in there! They did not hesitate to dispatch people from the Stars Group to rescue him. How could they not have any precautions?"

"Besides, according to the information we got, Merak, the second in command of Stars Group, may still be here! Her marksmanship is even better than mine.

Being targeted by her is not a good thing!"

"I know this, but this time, aren't you and Captain Bark Scorpion here? The mercenary team led by you two is always a formidable force. They should be afraid of us!" Jose said in a flattering tone.

He was a little anxious.

Jordan Ballard was related to the revitalization of ancient medical techniques!

The Shepard family had spent so much effort to send Jordan Ballard to the people from Stars Group on the way!

his head down to capture Jordan Ballard and take him back again.

Right now, the target was not far away, so he naturally couldn't wait to rush in.

The man with a scarred face next to him, Bark Scorpion, was flattered by his words.

At the same time, there was a hint of arrogance on his face," Isn't it just the Stars Group? I've wanted to fight them for a long time. I'd like to see if they're as difficult to deal with as they say..."

Then he glanced at the bald head beside him, and said with disdain, "Black Scorpion, when did you become so timid?"

Black Scorpion frowned, and said unhappily, "I just don't want anything to go wrong! You should know how important the operation tonight is."

"Well, are you planning to wait like this? I'm not so patient! I'll send some men to sneak in first as the vanguard. But, if I catch the woman of the Grandset master later, don't share credit with me."

Bark Scorpion didn't bother to talk nonsense, and said to the subordinates behind him, "Let's act. Our target is that woman named Molly and the old man from the Ballard family! Remember, take them alive! I'll hand them to the president later."

"Yes, Captain." A dozen or so cold and heartless mercenaries nodded respectfully in unison.

Then they rushed out quickly.

Chapter 1203-Seeing this, Bark Scorpion laughed sinisterly.

He took out a short knife and licked the blade with bloodthirsty eyes. His movement and the hideous scar on his face made him look a little scary!

He didn't stay in place for long, and soon followed his men and sneaked into the villa area.

Black Scorpion watched them leave with a deep frown. Bark Scorpion was still as impatient as ever!

But it was good. They could explore the way and take the opportunity to see if there were other ambushes!

Seeing him motionless, Jose couldn't help asking, "Captain Black Scorpion, aren't you going to send some men over?"

"There is no rush!" Black Scorpion leaned against a tree leisurely and said with a cold face, "Let's just wait and see what happens."

Jose nodded after hearing this, and didn't say anything else!

Anyway, with this group of men around, the operation tonight would be a success!

Just when he was full of expectations, Bark Scorpion and others had successfully sneaked into the villa area.

It was unimpeded all the way. When they were about to approach the gate of the villa where Molly and others lived, they suddenly heard a childish voice in the darkness, "What a group of stinky rats in the gutter! It seems you like to sneak around. It's so annoying!"

Hearing this, Bark Scorpion and his men couldn't help but stop and look forward...

They saw a girl sitting on a thick tree trunk not far away.

She looked very young, only in her teen. But in her eyes, there was a look of bloodthirst that she shouldn't have at her age.

Bark Scorpion was only stunned for a moment before he recognized the teenage girl, "Are you the second in command of Stars Group Merak?"

He looked satisfied, "It seems that the information is correct, and you are indeed here! It's been a long wait! But you shouldn't have rushed to show up! After all...

if you came later, you could live longer. Why rush to die?!"

"Die?" Merak couldn't help tilting her head when she heard this and blinked.

She looked innocent, but her words were sarcastic, "Are you sure you are not saying this to yourself?"

“I’m sure I’m talking to you!” Bark Scorpion pursed his lips and looked at Merak’s face unscrupulously, “It would be a pity if a beautiful girl like you dies at such a young age.”

Merak sneered, “You ugly bastard, if you die, it wouldn’t be a pity at all.”

When Bark Scorpion heard this, hostility suddenly appeared in his eyes, and his smile became even more terrifying.

“Well, you’re still bluffing! When you fall into my hands later, I hope you can still talk like this!” After he said that, his face suddenly darkened.

Then the knife hidden on the back of his hand was taken out and it flew towards Merak. Merak saw a cold light flying toward her and reacted very quickly. She immediately took out her gun and fought back. A bullet popped out of the chamber, accurately knocking the knife into the air.

At the same time, she jumped down from the tree flexibly.

As soon as her feet touched the ground, she heard a sharp wind.

It was Bark Scorpion! He raised his leg extremely quickly and launched an attack on Merak.

He was no match for Merak with guns. But in terms of fighting, he was confident that he could beat her.

Therefore, from the very beginning, he had planned to make Merak lose her weapon first. He had succeeded!

When he attacked, Merak reacted, but her strength was much weaker. The gun in her hand was directly shaken off and fell to the ground.

A fight between them started...

At the same time, the confrontation between Sean and the enemy was also in full swing.

Twenty minutes ago, the two sides had fought directly in almost the most intense way.

Chapter 1204-Soren had thought that their operation would certainly be foolproof.

After all, there were many of them, but there were few on Sean's side.

Furthermore, the people from the Stars Group were arranged in the abandoned winery, and they couldn't come over soon, so they definitely wouldn't last long.

However, as time passed, Soren no longer dared to think like this because the manpower on his side had suffered a heavy loss after a fierce fight!

"How could this happen?" Soren looked at the corpses all over the place in disbelief.

wrong.

Although there were few opponents, their fighting skills were terrifyingly good!

One fighting against ten was no problem for them at all.

They were even more proficient in marksmanship and fighting, just like fighting machines.

The more they watched, the more frightened they became!

"It's not right. This is not the fighting skills that men from Stars Group would have!" Soren watched it for a long time, and finally realized it. It was true that the seven leaders of the Stars Group were all top fighters, but their elite subordinates could not possibly reach such a level.

The fighting skills of this group of men were comparable to those of the seven leaders!

With their existence, none of Soren's men had even touched the clothes of the master of the Grandset!

Just when Soren was full of surprise, an old and hoarse voice suddenly came behind him, "Those should be the reinforcements from the Grandset! Judging from their fighting skills, I think they're mercenaries of at least S-rank and above.

Of course, your men can't handle it." Hearing the words, Soren couldn't help turning his head to look at the speaker, "Shouldn't the men of the Grandset be at the abandoned winery?"

The old man sneered, "That's what the intelligence said, but it's not necessarily true. They're playing a trick!"

Soren's face became extremely serious and he said to the old man respectfully, "If so, then Captain Viper, I'm afraid you will need to take action on this matter!

Tonight, to intercept and kill the man on the opposite side, our firepower has been almost exhausted! I've also lost a lot of men... If this continues, I'm afraid we will all die here!"

The old man called Viper didn't say a word when he heard this. He only stared straight at the tall man on the opposite side with cunning eyes.

Sean was standing in the night in black as if he was about to merge with the darkness.

He looked strong, like a king in the night. He was noble, majestic, and condescending!

When Viper saw this, a cold light flashed across his eyes and he looked like a real poisonous snake.

"The master of the Grandset is still so difficult to deal with... But, that's it! A few years ago, the interception failed to kill him. Tonight, let's kill him here!"

His voice was hoarse and cold, "Do it! There is no need to hold back! They may want to hold off until people of the Stars Group arrive. Don't waste time...Give them a surprise!"

Hearing his order, someone behind him responded in a low voice, "Yes."

Then after a short while, heavy footsteps came from the darkness.

These footsteps were specially trained, neat, uniform, and steady...

Sean, who was on the opposite side, had been paying attention to the movement over there, and he discovered this scene immediately.

He narrowed his long eyes slightly and said lightly, "Are they finally not hidden?"

"Sir, they're finally going to attack." Tony sensed the enemy's intention and immediately retreated from the crowd to report.

Sean's tone was playful, "It's time to make a move. If we don't make a move, I will lose my patience!"

While the two were talking, the enemy appeared.

Not surprisingly, they were all SSS-level mercenary squads!

However, their number was seriously inconsistent with the information obtained.

There... were at least ten squads!

Chapter 1205-"Wasn't it said that they only sent five squads? Why are there so many of them?" Tony was really surprised when he saw this scene.

Sean was also surprised.

However, it only took a moment for Sean to suppress all his expressions. He said lightly, "Obviously, the information is wrong! But it is expected."

Tony immediately realized it and sighed, "Yeah, that's more like it! I was wondering why they just sent five squads. It didn't take you seriously enough!"

Hearing this, Sean couldn't help but cast a cold glance at him, "Forty or fifty squads? Can you deal with them alone?"

Tony froze and laughed awkwardly, "Oh, no, no, no. I'm kidding! I can't do it alone."

Sean stopped to joke with him.

It took a huge amount of time and money to train an SSS- level mercenary squad. Those who could be selected should meet very strict requirements in all aspects.

Being able to take out ten squads at once was enough to show the ability of the Martial Arts Union.

But forty or fifty squads? It was impossible!

Sean immediately snorted coldly, "The Martial Arts Union took advantage of my absence these years, and they didn't waste anytime!"

"That's right. But according to their way of doing things, there should be more squads like this! It's a pity that they will all be destroyed as soon as they come."

When Tony said this, there was gloating in his eyes, "When that old guy Jeffery knows it, he would be pissed off."

During their conversation, over there, the squad leaders headed by Viper had already led their squads to encircle Sean and the others.

This group of people was all ruthless men who had always risked their lives in fights. Standing together, their momentum was terrifying enough.

If Sean were an ordinary guy, he would have been freaked out.

But now he just looked at them casually, without a trace of freight.

When Viper saw it, he couldn't help but turn a little cold," Look at you, the master of the Grandset. Face this situation without blinking! But don't worry, this farce tonight will come to an end. The squads will send you on your way to hell.

Consider it as a gesture of respect from our Martial Art Union."

Sean's face was cold, and his eyes were somewhat disdainful.

Sean didn't speak. Tony, next to him, spoke on his behalf, "A mere ten squads are worthy of saying this? Even your president Jeffery Waston would not be qualified to say that! Besides... we don't know who will win yet."

Viper seemed to smile when he heard this, "Mr. Hill, I've heard that you're quite eloquent. It seems true!"

His tone was playful, and he was mocking Tony because he thought Tony was just bluffing.

Tony didn't care. He nodded very calmly instead, "You don't need to admire me so much. I am born with eloquence! But I was telling the truth when I said we don't know who will win yet!"

"For this moment, we have spent a lot of effort... Mr.

Anderson even risked his life and came out as bait. It was really hard work all the way.”

Hearing his words, Viper froze for a moment, as if he didn't understand what he meant.

They were the ones who had the upper hand.

Right now, there were many times more men on his side than them, and their fighting power was also stronger than theirs.

But why did Tony look like he was sure of winning?

Also, what did Tony mean when he said that the master of the Grandset risked his life and deliberately came out as bait tonight?

Viper was a little confused and surprised at the moment,” Mr. Hill, people are used to bluffing before they are about to die. I understand that. But victory or defeat is already in front of us. Why do you have to struggle?”

But as soon as he said that, he heard a cold and casual voice, “Victory or defeat? Who told you... that you would win?”

Chapter 1206-The one who spoke was naturally Sean!

He looked at Viper with a hint of contempt and ridicule, as if he was a cat playing with a mouse.

Viper was taken aback for a moment. Then he frowned subconsciously and scanned the current situation again.

were also watching aggressively from the rear.

Sean's men had been fighting like fighting machines, but they began to show fatigue after the confrontation just now.

In such a strong contrast, Viper really couldn't see why they were going to lose!

"Well, as the master of the Grandset, you've disappeared for many years. Have you also learned to bluff?" Viper immediately mocked unceremoniously.

When Sean heard this, before he could react, Tony, who was next to him, replied, "That old bastard Jeffery has done nothing serious but teach a group of lackeys who don't know basic manners these years. It seems that the Martial Art Union will be over sooner or later!"

"How dare you!" Viper heard this, and immediately shouted angrily, "Who allows you to say that about our president?"

"Oh? You're quite protective!" Tony raised his eyebrows and continued sarcastically, "But a lackey is a lackey anyway. You should be taught a lesson!"

As for your disrespectful attitude towards our master just now, I will personally bring you to make amends to him! But now... I'll show you how you're going to lose."

With that, he took out his pistol, pointed it at the sky, and fired several bullets.

The rhythmic sound was like some kind of code!

Viper was startled and suddenly had a bad feeling.

Could it be that they have a backup plan?

Just when he was surprised and confused, there suddenly came the sound of cars' engines from the distance. It sounded a little different from ordinary cars.

Viper was taken aback!

What was going on?

When they came over just now, they didn't find anything wrong nearby. But now the sound of the cars seemed to be coming from behind the Grandset people.

This direction was exactly the opposite of where they came from.

Could it be...they had sent some men in ambush here in advance?

"Alert!" Viper immediately shouted in a deep voice just in case. Hearing the the mercenary squads next to them became vigilant subconsciously and looked directly ahead.

After about a minute, the cars arrived one after another.

To the shock of Viper and the others, what came was not ordinary cars, but military trucks and armored tanks!

After the cars arrived, they stopped behind Sean one after another.

family were.

However, this was not the end!

Just when everyone was stunned, a group of people rushed down from the military trucks.

They were wearing military uniforms and carrying machine guns in their hands, and their movements and steps were uniform.

They were official troops of Domster!

After they got down, they immediately lined up in front of Sean, took a knee, and pointed the black muzzles of their guns in the direction of Viper and others.

Moreover, after this group of people arrived, there was another violent roar in the sky.

There was a plane roaring from a distance. After a short while, it hovered over them.

Viper subconsciously took a look and saw a lot of people inside, raising their guns and aiming at them.

His heart sank completely...

It had never occurred to him that the people from the Grandset would cooperate with the official government of Domster!

Seeing such a huge force and such fierce weapons, he did not doubt that if he dared to act recklessly at this time, his whole team would be wiped out!

Chapter 1207-Just as everyone froze, Tony, who was the opposite, was overwhelmed with joy when he saw this scene.

He had been waiting for this moment for a long time!

He still remembered how disrespectful Viper had been to Sean. He smiled and said, "You old bastard, now you should believe what my master said. You...

didn't win!"

"Despicable!" Viper cursed angrily.

Tony sneered and said, "Despicable? You have the nerve to say that about me?"

Look at what your Martial Art Union has done! For your shady purpose, you have disturbed the peace of the whole country and made so many people lose their lives and homes...

"We Grandset are only helping them to resist and fight back!"

"But now you must be wondering when they deployed here and thinking how you're going to retreat, right?"

Viper froze. He was indeed thinking about that.

The current situation was not good for them!

If they stayed, they would be wiped out! Therefore, he had already thought of many countermeasures quickly.

Unexpectedly, Tony read his mind!

Seeing his expression, Tony immediately laughed, "You'd better not waste your time. Do you know where this is? This is the war area of Domster. You ran to their territory, and you're still expecting to run away? You're daydreaming."

"What?" Viper's face changed dramatically when he heard it.

He recalled the various routes he had taken tonight.

At that time, their attention was all on the Grandset master. Seeing him change his route several times, they thought he was trying to escape.

But unexpectedly, he had already planned to lure the enemy into a trap all the way.

Unknowingly, they had stepped into the trap that the Grandset had woven long ago and followed to the military camp of Domster.

It wasn't until this moment that Viper remembered that there was indeed an official military area of Domster near Hurmante city!

His men were now sitting ducks!

Want to escape? This was already impossible!

"How could it be?" When Viper's face kept changing, the captains of the mercenary squads next to him also found it unbelievable.

Among the information they had gotten, there was no news of the Grandset's cooperation with the government!

Could it be...their mole had lied? Or, the mole didn't know about Sean's plan in the first place?

Viper seemed to know what they were thinking. He said with a gloomy expression, "It seems that the Stars Group doesn't know about it either! The ambush in the abandoned winery is itself a cover!"

Speaking of this, he seemed to laugh, "I'm so impressed by the master of the Grandset. He was using all the members of the Stars Group as a cover and it's equivalent to giving up the best combat power!

"Ever since Hurmante city, he has known about the mole we planted and deliberately leaked his whereabouts. He also speculated that we would carry out ambushes on various road sections. To make it more real, he sent people to deal with us.

"Tonight's operation may seem dangerous, but in fact, it has been under his control. He changed the route several times, seemingly retreating, but the fact is, he expected every step!

earlier. His purpose is to drag us all into his trap and destroy us!”

His words sent a chill down everyone’s spine!

The master of the Grandset had come up with such a big scheme. He was terrifying!

Chapter 1208-While the captains were talking, the person in charge on the side of Domster walked to Sean. He was a general in Domster supported by many people.

But at this moment, he was very friendly and polite to Sean,” Mr. Anderson, thank you for helping us catch all these people! My boss asked me to tell you that the Grandset will be our friend forever.”

“General Bart, you’re welcome. We’re just helping out a little bit! You need to do the follow-up cleaning up as well as the rectification of various areas.” Sean replied lightly, but his expression was not so serious anymore. He was polite to the general.

Seeing Sean so polite, General Bart liked him even more. The Unbounded Land was an independent free continent besides the five continents. As the master of the Grand set, Sean was naturally very important.

Even if Sean put on airs, he wouldn’t say anything. But Sean didn’t. He had such good manners and even provided a lot of supplies for the slums.

These behaviors were enough to make all of them respect Sean from the bottom of their hearts!

General Bart immediately promised, “Don’t worry. We will clean up these people who caused turmoil, and we will never let them hinder your itinerary again!”

Speaking of this, General Bart smiled, “I know, you are in a hurry to go back to see your wife. I will arrange a helicopter to take you back! When things are over, my boss and I will hold a feast in person to thank you.”

When Sean heard this, he waved his hand and said, "Thanks, but there's no need to hold a feast. After I rectify this in Hurmante city, I'll be heading back home! The wedding is coming soon, and I'm going to take my wife home."

When General Bart heard this, he felt a little unlucky, and quickly said, "I see."

Then congratulations! Since you have other arrangements, then I won't force you to stay. When we have the chance to meet again in the future, we should have a good drink."

Sean nodded, "Of course!"

After the two agreed, General Bart immediately went to arrange the helicopter.

After Sean glanced at Viper and others, he didn't stay for long. He quickly took Tony and his men to the plane and left.

He would rather go back earlier to see Molly than stay to deal with the men of the Martial Art Union.

He wondered how Molly was doing now.

At the same time, Molly waited in the research lab for more than half an hour, but Merak still didn't come back. She couldn't help becoming anxious again. Mr.

Ballard was also a little worried.

He and Molly were powerless. If the men outside couldn't stop the enemy, then they probably wouldn't be able to escape.

He wasn't afraid. He was an old man anyway. But Molly was still so young, and she had decades ahead.

Thinking of this, he looked anxious. He wondered if Sean would succeed. Sean had been gone for hours. Why hadn't he come back?

Weren't that brat worried? If something happened to Molly, he would have to be alone for the rest of his life!

At this moment, outside the villa area, the situation was not good! Merak didn't have a weapon anymore. Her fighting skills were good, but she was at a disadvantage in terms of strength after all.

Therefore, when Bark Scorpion attacked, she could only defend herself.

Seeing that Merak kept retreating, Bark Scorpion became very excited, "Well, the legendary Stars Group sucks. I thought it was powerful."

His eyes were scarlet like those of a wolf seeing its prey, and his smile was wicked, "Look, if I catch you later, what should I do to you? Should I break your limbs and turn you into a marionette, or chop off your limbs and make you a mutilated doll?"

Chapter 1209-ace cold.

As she spoke, she raised her leg, aiming at Bark Scorpion's belly.

Bark Scorpion parried with his arm, unshaken as if he were an unmovable mountain.

But Merak, thin and small, was shocked by his defense, taking a few steps back.

Bark Scorpion grinned hideously, "You don't know who you are! I was thinking of playing your game, but now it seems I don't have to reserve my strength anymore. I'll get you and throw you into the sea, just as you wish."

As he spoke, he rushed at Merak like a fierce beast.

Merak's heart sank.

Having consumed a lot of energy in the fight, she almost had no strength now.

But the ugly bastard didn't seem to feel tired at all.

Presumably, the force coming with his rush was great.

Knowing she might not be able to resist it, Merak raised her hand to parry by instinct.

The moment Bark Scorpion's fist was about to land on her, a figure suddenly jumped off a tree, stopping his punch as easily as he picked up a leaf.

"My little girl is not someone you can bully," the comer said gently with a thin smile.

Shocked, Bark Scorpion looked at him!

The man who stopped him was very young with long flowing hair.

His hair was gray, and his features were not feminine but quite soft and beautiful. Coupled with a standard graceful smile, he seemed like a perfect gentleman.

But Bark Scorpion was not fooled by his amiable appearance.

Instead, he just felt a chill going up his spine.

The man could stop his attack effortlessly in such a short time. No doubt, he had great strength!

But it was his identity that frightened Bark Scorpion!

Silver hair, a gentleman's manner, a mole under his eye...

These characteristics proved that he was none other than Chester Merrick, the deputy leader of the Grandset!

Why did this guy show up here?

The moment he came back to earth, Bark Scorpion was to withdraw his hand, wishing to get free from his grip.

But the man, who looked thin and weak, held his wrist firmly, not moving at all.

"You've bullied my family's child, but you want to run. This is not fair, is it?"

Chester still kept a graceful smile.

Bark Scorpion turned ashen, wishing to attack Chester.

Suddenly, he heard Merak complain angrily, "Mr. Merrick, don't let him off! This guy was so arrogant just now. He also hit me, giving me great pain! I want revenge!"

Bark Scorpion's face turned dark when he heard the girl's complaining tone.

Without thinking, he aimed a punch at Chester.

Chester simply raised his palm to parry, his face calm.

Then he said to Merak behind him dotingly, "Okay, then... I'll take him, making him your toy!"

After that, his eyes turned grave. He turned his wrist, aiming a punch at Bark Scorpion's abdomen.

This punch looked casual, but Bark Scorpion seemed to suffer a heavy blow. He felt like all his internal organs had been displaced.

An excruciating pain spread to every part of his body with destruction.

A few of his ribs were broken. Immediately, he spat out a mouthful of blood!

The men brought by Bark Scorpion instantly froze, looking at this with disbelief!

Outside the villa, Black Scorpion and his lot were watching what was going on inside. Then they were shocked, eyes wide open for a long time.

Jose swallowed in fright, not daring to believe his eyes.

In his view, these SSS-ranked mercenaries were peerless fighters.

But they were as fragile as leaves when fighting the silver-haired man.

Why was he so powerful?

Having held it back for so long, Jose finally asked, "Who... is this man, Captain Black Scorpion?"

"...the deputy head of the Grandset and the head of the Merrick family, one of the top four martial art families in the Grandset! The best martial art master... in the Unbounded Land!" Black Scorpion said gravely.
