Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 711[572 words]

Chapter 711

"See you tomorrow," Sean said faintly.

Then, Molly and her kids walked into their house while Sean went back to his.

The aroma of the dishes spread across the room and the triplets cheered before they even entered their home. "Yay! Mr. Philip must've cooked something amazing!"

However, the four of them were stunned when they entered the living room.

Molly immediately saw Lara and Walter sitting formally on the couch.

When they saw Molly with the kids, they quickly stood up to greet her.

"You're back, Molly."

Lara said with a warm expression.

Molly looked at them, stupefied for a second. Her brows subconsciously came together to a knot as she said with a cold expression, "Mr. and Mrs. May, what brings you here?"

She even sounded like she did not want them to be here!

Walter immediately got angry when he heard Molly addressing him as "Mr. May". "Is this the way you talk to your elders, Molly?! " he scolded.

"Walter!"

Lara quickly tugged on the edge of his shirt to remind him to watch his attitude.

The purpose of their visit was to apologize to their daughter.

Lara did not want things to go south.

In an instant, Walter realized that he had acted rudely.

So, he lowered his voice and patiently explained, "Molly, don't hold such a strong animosity against me and your mother, okay? We're here to see you and the kids today.

"We brought these for you and the kids today. These snacks and supplements are all important. Have some. When you run out of them, your mother and I will bring some over again."

The coffee table in the living room was filled with things that were personally chosen by Walter and Lara before they were sent over.

It was not every day that they visited Molly, so they obviously came prepared.

Grandpa Dave did not want them to meet Molly as he was worried that they would argue.

But, when he saw his son and daughter-in-law rushing over with bags of presents, he could feel their sincerity, which was why he agreed to let them stay.

After all, a happy family is an early heaven!

Unfortunately, Molly did not accept it.

She smirked coldly when she looked at the things on the table. "Is that so? Sorry for the trouble, but my kids and I don't need these. Please bring them home with you!

"The most you can do for me is stay out of my life."

Then, she was going to head upstairs with her children.

However, Lara's voice rang behind her. "Molly..."

Her voice was full of sorrow and despair.

She fought back her sadness and said, "I know I did many terrible things to you in the past. I'm not asking for your forgiveness, but I'm here to tell you something. Can you leave after you hear me out, please?"

Molly stood still.

She never expected Lara to talk to her in such a humble tone.

Suddenly, she froze on the spot.

Lara was very clear that the reason Molly did not want to care about them was that she was filled with a grudge!

After all, she had done too many heart-breaking things to her daughter!

Even Lara herself found it hard to forgive herself for what she had done, let alone Molly.

But still, she wanted to speak her mind out since she had already come over.

Chapter 712

Chapter 712

Lara calmed herself down when she thought about this and sat down on the couch. "Molly, please don't be angry at me for disturbing you. I'm here to ask about you and Sean, what's going on between you two?" she asked slowly.

Molly was immediately confused when she heard Lara.

'Why is she concerned about Sean and me all of a sudden?'

"Why do you ask?" Molly asked with a frown.

Lara did not want to hide the truth from Molly, so she told her the whole story of Alice's visit earlier that day.

Molly's expression changed as she listened to Lara.

She did not expect that Alice would go to the May family!

Alice was thinking of ways to split up her and Sean.

"But, rest assured, Molly. I didn't accept her request! You're my daughter, and I respect your decisions. No matter who you want to be with, I will never stop you as long as you're happy. I wouldn't want my daughter to suffer," Lara consoled her with a smile.

It was as if Lara was saying, "As long as mom is here, you don't have to be afraid of anything!"

Molly was slightly shocked as Lara's attitude toward her had changed too quickly.

It was so fast that she doubted the authenticity of it.

But, Molly still politely responded, "Thank you.

"But, I can take care of my matters myself, so you don't have to worry about it at all!" she added.

Needless to say, Molly still rejected Lara's kindness.

Lara was shocked, she thought Molly would be moved as she had already talked to her in such a humble manner.

However, things did not go as expected.

She was disappointed, but she could not do anything about it.

After all, she had hurt Molly too deeply in the past.

It would not be easy for her to get Molly's forgiveness.

Lara did not want to ask for more, so she stood up when she saw that it was getting late. "Molly, your dad and I are going to make a move now. Take care of yourself. It's getting cold now, so don't catch a cold."

Then, she turned to Grandpa Dave and nodded. "We're leaving now, dad."

"Sure, goodbye," Grandpa Dave said in a deep voice.

Lara and Walter then left the house, hand in hand.

After they left, Grandpa Dave looked at Molly and asked, "Molly, you've seen the way your parents treat you now. What do you think?"

"Nothing much," Molly answered without hesitation.

"Don't you think that your parents have changed a lot?" Grandpa Dave asked.

Even he could tell that Walter and Lara were sincere and wanted to patch things up with Molly.

Sadly, his granddaughter rejected it. "Yeah, they did. But, so what?

"If every 'sorry' in the world can be exchanged with an 'It's okay', there wouldn't be this many grudges in the world."

Molly obviously wanted a happy and harmonious family.

She could tell that Lara had changed too.

The Lara today was completely different from the old Lara.

But, Molly was not moved by this.

Rome was not built in a day.

In the past, Molly's heart had been broken multiple times by her family. She would not be moved this easily now!

She thought about Alice going to Lara and figured that it was necessary for Sean to know about it.

After all, they were in a relationship now!

Besides, they had already decided to spend the rest of their lives with each other.

Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 713[570 words]

Chapter 713

Sean's family's objection was the obstacle in their relationship.

Molly believed that a couple should always communicate with each other!

So, Molly called Sean to talk about this after she was done with her shower.

"Sean, if we're going to be together forever, your mother rejecting me is not going to affect anything.

"But, what should I do?”

Molly asked worriedly.

Sean was surprised when he heard the story.

He had already told his parents not to cause trouble for Molly. He did not expect his mother would look for the May family at all!

It seemed like his mother was set on stopping them from being together.

However, she did not know that he and Molly were already set on spending their lives with each other forever.

"Don't worry, leave this to me.”

Then, he comforted Molly affirmatively, "I'll convince my parents to agree to us being together."

"Really?" Molly still sounded wistful.

She could not help but feel that it was impossible for Alice to forgive her.

Sean heard the disappointment in her tone and chuckled, "Do you doubt me this much?"

"Of course not."

Molly sat on the couch and leaned against the soft cushion with a pillow in her arms. "But, your mother seems really firm. I think it's going to be hard to convince her, so...”

"That's not going to happen."

Sean knew what Molly was worried about, so he immediately interrupted her steadily and said, "I know how to make them accept us. Believe me, I will protect you."

I will protect you.

Molly’s heart was filled with warmth as soon as she said those words.

She smiled as she felt the worries in her heart vanished. She was feeling a lot more relieved.

After they ended the call, Sean called Tony and asked," Tony, are you done with the investigation?"

"Yeah, please give me a minute."

Tony turned hesitantly and went to his car outside. He opened his briefcase and pulled out a DNA report before turning back to the house and handing it to Sean.

Sean took it and scanned through it as he listened to Tony's explanation. "Boss, according to the DNA results, the triplets were not lying. You really are their father."

In other words, Alex, Ben, and Claudia were all Sean’s children.

Suddenly, Sean laughed. He thought back to the time when the triplets first met him.

'What a scheming bunch, but they sure are sharp and smart!'

Oddly enough, there were some obvious similarities that the triplets shared with Sean. However, Sean had never guessed that they were related to him by blood. He just thought that they were coincidentally like him.

Who would have guessed that his life would be just like a movie?

But, this was a good thing. The DNA report came at the right time!

His mother was against his relationship with Molly, so he was going to use the DNA report to let his mother know about Molly's identity.

So, he immediately went to his parents' place the next afternoon to tell them about this.

"Dad, mom, you're both against me being with Molly, right? Please take a look at this."

Sean finished speaking in a cold tone, as he handed his parents the DNA report.

Ricky and Alice were still in a daze when they were listening to Sean. But, as soon as they read the report, they were both stunned!

Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 714[562 words]

Chapter 714

"What is the meaning of this, Sean? Are you saying that the triplets are yours?"

Alice was so shocked that she was almost speechless!

Ricky was baffled as well. "Sean, don't be foolish! Don't just fabricate a DNA report because of the triplets.

This is not something to joke about," Ricky said with a distressed look.

Sean smiled in response. "Dad, mom, I'm not joking, nor do I have a reason to lie to you about this," he said calmly.

"If you don’t believe me, I can run another DNA test with the kids together with you."

Alice's mind was buzzing when she heard Sean, and she was stupefied.

She always believed that Molly's children were a couple of fatherless kids.

But, she would never have guessed that they were her blood grandchildren!

That meant that they had three grandkids out of the blue, and they were all around 4-5 years old!

'No, this is impossible.'

Alice shook her head. She believed that her son was just trying to fool her because of Molly.

'He is desperate to be with that woman. That's why he is making up a lie as absurd as this!'

Then, she immediately passed the DNA report back to Sean and said, "Stop fooling around, Sean. I know you like Molly, but you don’t have to make up such a big lie for that woman.

"Besides, you know that your father and I have always wanted you to find yourself a suitable woman, so you can carry on our bloodline as soon as possible. Don't lie to us about having kids!"

No matter what, Alice would not believe that the triplets were her grandchildren!

Sean was not surprised at his mother's response.

It was too sudden, so it was normal for them to reject it.

So, Sean could only explain to them briefly about the misunderstanding that night.

Five years ago, he met Molly and slept with her for some reason.

But, Molly disappeared after that night.

All these years, he had no idea who that lady was.

Lo and behold, fate had brought Molly and his children back to him.

Sean could not find a reason that would make him not appreciate this relationship!

After listening to Sean’s explanation, Alice and Ricky fell silent.

Suddenly, they did not know how to react to it.

When Sean saw that they were quiet, he continued," Dad, mom, Molly doesn't know about the relationship between me and the triplets. That’s why I plan to take things slow with her. Don't let the cat out of the bag.

"If you want me to go for another DNA test, I can do it anytime. If you want to use other methods, I’ll do the best that I can!

"I just have one request - I hope you won't come in the way of my relationship with Molly.

"Molly gave birth to my children for me, so if we were to think about it, I owe her way too much. From now on, I just want to repay her as much as I can. What do you think?”

Sean said calmly as he looked at his parents, waiting for their response.

Alice and Ricky exchanged looks. They did not know what to say at that point.

If Sean was not lying, then the Anderson family owed Molly and the triplets too much!

Chapter 715

Ricky thought about it before he said, "Sean, don't make any serious decisions about this now.

"Your mother and I have to confirm your relationship with the triplets. If they really belong to the Anderson family, we would obviously never treat them poorly.

"As for Ms. May, we won’t see her for now. We'll talk about the rest after your mother and I verify your relationship with the kids!"

Alice nodded. Those were her exact thoughts as well.

Sean nodded after hearing their response. "Alright, it’s settled then.

"If you’re still unhappy about something, just talk to me. Don't go to Molly. She works very hard, so she really couldn’t handle this much pressure.

"Bye for now!"

Then, Sean turned and left.

Alice and Ricky were still sitting on the couch in a daze, unable to speak for some time.

"Did our son just say that Molly's kids are our grandkids? " Alice asked in disbelief.

Ricky nodded. "Yeah, but we still have to verify it ourselves.”

Alice suddenly thought of the time when she went to the triplet's school to see Molly. Maybe they could go there and meet the triplets this time.

Now that she thought about it, the triplets were indeed rather obedient, sensible, and adorable.

'If they're really my grandkids...'

Alice suddenly realized that she could actually accept that fact.

She quickly shook her head to stop her thoughts. At the same time, she decided to meet the triplets and have a talk with them!

Afternoon, during class hours.

The triplets were sitting in the classroom, paying attention to the teacher in class. They would write some notes from time to time, and they looked extremely focused.

At that moment, two sneaky figures appeared outside their classroom window.

Alice and Ricky were hiding outside their class as they continuously looked into the triplet's classroom to see where they were sitting.

"Over there!”

Alice immediately got Ricky to look when she found them.

It could not be helped. The triplets were so outstanding that she could spot them in an instant.

Ricky glanced into the classroom and nodded in satisfaction. "They look very serious about their studies.

Not bad at all."

"Yeah. The more I look at them, the more they resemble Sean when he was younger."

Alice lamented. She did not notice that she was already seeing the triplets as her grandchildren.

Three of them looked very much like their father!

Especially the eldest, Alex. He was radiating this cool presence that Sean had when he was young.

At the same time, the triplets could sense that they were being stared at.

"Alex, someone is staring at me."

Ben could sense that someone was peeking at him outside the window, and he quickly told his brother.

Alex immediately glanced outside the window.

Coincidentally, his eyes met Alice's!

'Huh?'

Alex was stunned as he mumbled, "Why is grandma here?"

Ben and Claudia heard him and looked over as well. As expected, they saw Alice standing outside the window smiling friendly at them.

The triplets immediately raised their tiny hands and said, "Miss, our grandma is here, and we'd like to see her outside for a while!"

After getting their teacher's permission, the triplets left their class and went to see Ricky and Alice.

Chapter 716

"Grandma Anderson, are you here to see us?" Alex asked Alice with his dark eyes opened wide.

Alice looked at their rosy lips and chubby fair cheeks and found them extremely endearing. Her eyes then turned gentle.

She smiled and warmly asked, "You're Alex, right? And, you're Ben and Claudia?"

"Yes, Grandma Anderson."

Ben and Claudia nodded nicely, and they looked extremely obedient.

Alice did not know why but she just felt closer to them the more she looked at their faces. She felt that they were all mini versions of Sean.

She smiled with her eyes and said, "Kids, can I bring you out for some drinks and have a chat with you?"

"What do you want to talk to us about?" Suddenly, Alex's tone turned sharp.

"We're just three little kids. What is there to talk about with us?"

His words immediately made Alice speechless!

She then awkwardly answered, "Alex, I don’t have any hidden intentions. I just want to eat something with the three of you."

"Really?"

Alex did not believe her as he already had an explanation for what they were doing.

'Grandma wouldn’t see us for no reason unless daddy has already told her about us. That is why grandma is curious about us, right now.'

Alex immediately asked, "Grandma, daddy talked to you, right?"

"How did you know?"

Alice was rather shocked. Alex was just 5 years old, but he still figured it out.

Alex finally understood that they might reconcile with their grandparents today.

He thought about it and said with his back facing them, "Give me a minute. I’ll ask for a leave from the teacher."

The triplets then went back to their classroom and politely asked the teacher, "Miss, our grandparents visited us and want to eat with us. Can we be excused?"

Grandparents.

Alice and Ricky were standing at the entrance of the classroom when they heard how the triplets address them, and their hearts fluttered.

The teacher glanced over to the wealthy woman outside the class and nodded, "Very well."

"Thank you, miss."

The triplets then turned to Alice and said, "Let's go, Grandma Anderson."

Alice nodded and took the triplets to a restaurant.

As soon as they sat down, Alice looked at the menu as she ordered a number of dishes for the triplets. She was being really friendly as she laughed, "Just order whatever you want. I'm treating you today, okay?"

The triplets were expressionless as they stared at Alice. They felt like she had completely changed overnight.

That made Alex even more certain that Alice already knew that they were her grandchildren.

However, she was still doubtful, which was why she visited their preschool. She wanted to have a good look at them to verify their identities.

Alex then immediately sharply asked, "Grandma Anderson, you probably know that we're your grandchildren now, right?"

Alice did not expect him to speak in such a straightforward manner as she nodded. "Yes. Sean told me that you're his kids. But, I wasn't clear about the incident that year, so..."

"So, you don't believe that we're your grandchildren?"

With one line, Alex exposed her thoughts.

At the very next second, Alex quickly placed his hand on his head and tugged on his hair.

Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 717[539 words]

Chapter 717

Alex pulled out a short strand of his hair and placed it on his palm before giving it to Alice. "Grandma Anderson, if you don't believe US, you can run a DNA test using my hair," Alex said with a serious expression on his warm face.

Alice was stunned as she did not expect him to be so self-aware.

However, they needed to verify it themselves!

Alice pulled out a tissue paper and placed his hair in it before putting it back into her bag after folding it.

Then, the food was served.

Alice ushered them warmly, "Darlings, eat more of these if you like them, okay?"

The triplets nodded and unanimously said, "Thank you, Grandma Anderson. IV

Then, they quickly buried their heads in their plates and ate their food.

Alice was sitting across them as she examined them seriously.

Upon a closer look, the triplets had Sean's eyes and eyebrows from when he was young!

It was almost nonsensical if someone said that the triplets were not related to Sean.

Alice even felt that she could believe the triplets without getting their DNA tested.

Sitting next to her was Ricky, who remained silent. However, he was already starting to suspect that they might be his grandchildren.

He could not help but ask them, "Why don't you go to a normal preschool to study?"

The triplets were attending a preschool that was actually a childcare institution.

The institution had many classes, ranging from chess to art. Their goal was to let their students grow in various aspects.

Ben took a big bite of pasta and cutely said, "Because everything in a normal preschool is too simple, Grandpa Anderson. We have already finished the grade 3 syllabus a long time ago, but mommy insisted to educate US, so she sent US there to study."

"Oh? You're just 5 years old, but you've already learned Grade 3 syllabus?"

Ricky was shocked, and his tone was slightly excited.

As expected from an Anderson. The triplets were just like Sean, who had a horrifyingly high IQ at a young age.

"Yeah, we've all gotten a certificate in Information and Technology. Alex is even a pro with computers!"

Claudia took a sip of juice and chimed in.

She then took a sausage with her chubby hands and shoved it into her small mouth. It was so tasty that her beautiful eyes lit up.

Compared to his siblings, Alex was the calmest one.

He did not eat much, and he suddenly looked up and explained, "Grandma and Grandpa Anderson, can I ask you a question?"

"Of course, go ahead."

Ricky grew fond of the triplets the more he looked at them, so he agreed naturally.

"Hmm..." Alex thought and asked them directly, "Grandpa and Grandma Anderson, after you've confirmed our identities, will you accept mommy?"

His siblings immediately paid attention after he asked that question.

Although it was important to eat, their mother was more important!

If their grandparents did not accept their mother, then they would not take another bite.

"Well..."

Ricky hesitated. He was at a loss for words.

Alice looked hesitant as well. She asked herself, 'If the triplets are really my grandchildren, would I accept Molly as my daughter-in-law?'

Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 718[540 words]

Chapter 718

'Grandpa and Grandma Anderson, if you don't accept mommy, then we won't be your grandchildren either."

Alex said in a serious tone as his siblings nodded.

They would go wherever their mother went, and if Grandma Anderson did not accept their mother, then they would not accept being the grandchildren of the Anderson family as well!

Alice was defeated as she thought, 'These triplets have a deep bond with their mother.

'If I don't agree to accept Molly today, these kids won't acknowledge me as their grandmother too, aren't they?'

When she thought about losing her grandchildren, she suddenly missed them.

She thought about it and said in a gentle tone, "Well kids, give me some time, okay?

"Once I've confirmed your identities and that you're my grandkids, I'll have a good talk with your mother. You have to consider whether your mother accepts us or not as well. After all, she might not accept US even if we accept her."

The triplets fell silent.

'Grandma was right!

'Mommy has always held a grudge against being pregnant before marriage.

'If mommy knew that daddy was the person who made her pregnant but did not care about her, she'll probably be furious.

'Maybe then, mommy won't want to marry daddy anymore!1

"Alright, Grandma Anderson. Let's take things slow, then." The triplets continued eating after responding sensibly.

Alice smiled as she nodded. Her eyes turned gentle as she watched the triplets gobble up their food.

When it was getting late, Ricky and Alice took the triplets back to school for Molly to pick them up.

They even started to miss the triplets when they were leaving. "Darlings, take good care of yourselves. Grandpa and grandma will visit you again, okay?"

"Of course! You can visit US anytime, grandpa and grandma."

Then, they waved their chubby arms. "Have a safe trip back home, grandpa and grandma."

"Sure, sure!"

Ricky and Alice were even more delighted as they watched the triplets return to their class before turning and leaving.

"Ricky, they're so obedient and thoughtful... They're just like Sean when they were younger. How adorable!"

Alice said happily on their way back home.

She was genuinely fond of the triplets, and she liked them a lot!

Although Ricky liked them too, he was more grounded than his wife. "Don't rush it. Let's check their DNA and see if they're Sean's kids first. If they are, we'll think of a way to bring them back to our family."

Alice nodded in agreement. "You're right. How could our kin roam outside?

’Why don't we go to the hospital right now? If we get it checked sooner, we'll get the results sooner too!"

She could not wait to confirm the triplet's identity.

But, Molly was completely unaware of this.

When she got home in the evening, the triplets mentioned nothing about Alice looking for them. They just sat together at the dining table eating dinner as a family, as usual.

After their dinner, the triplets looked at Molly with hesitant expressions.

"Mommy..." Alex called out softly.

"Yes?" Molly looked up at her children.

"N-Nothing." Alex shook his head. He did not know where to start.

In actuality, the triplets wanted to probe Molly about their father.

Triplets on Secret Mission
Chapter 719[556 words]

Chapter 719

Chapter 719

Sean and his parents also knew about their real identity, yet Molly was kept in the dark.

So, the triplets were planning to test Molly. They wanted to find out what Molly thought about the man who got her pregnant back then!

But, they had no idea where to start. After all, it was a topic that was beyond their age.

’Should I ask for help from Uncle Brycen? Would that be better?'

Alex strode with his tiny feet and went to Brycen's room as he thought about that. Then, he knocked on the door, "Uncle Brycen, are you there?"

"Yes, my lovelies."

Brycen's voice could be heard from inside. He opened the door with a smile on his face as he leaned on the door with his elbow, looking lazy.' What's up, kiddos?" he asked.

The triplets did not answer him right away. Instead, they went into Brycen's room, one after another. They only became serious after shutting the room's door. "Uncle Brycen, we need you to help US with something. Is that okay?"

"Hm?" Brycen lifted his brows, looking intrigued.

He glanced at the triplets, who looked very serious. 'What is this about?' He thought to himself.

However, what the triplets said next caught him by surprise!

"Uncle, would you ask mommy something for US? We want to know what she thinks about that man who got her pregnant back then."

"What-"

Brycen looked that the kids with a confused expression and asked in confusion, "Alex, Ben, Claudia, why do you want to know about that?

"Did Sean tell you guys to do this? Damn, he's already dating Molly, yet he doesn't trust her?" Brycen directed his anger at Sean.

When Sean was falsely accused by Brycen, the triplets quickly stepped forward and explained, "It's not like that, Uncle Brycen. You got it all wrong! This has nothing to do with Uncle Sean!

"We just thought that mommy has always been in a bad mood recently, so we want to find out why.

"Uncle Brycen, help US out, please!" Claudia pulled Brycen's shirt and whipped out her trump card- acting cute.

Her voice sounded so adorable that it could melt one’s heart.

Her innocent face and glowing eyes were simply irresistible too.

Brycen looked at the triplets and gave in to their badgering in the end.

Then, he shook his head dotingly. "How could I say no? Fine, wait for me here. I'll ask her about it."

After that, Brycen opened his door wide and went over to Molly's room.

Molly did not lock the door of her room, so Brycen went right inside. Then, he shut the door and pointed at the couch. "Molly, you're not busy now, right? Here, let's sit down and have a talk."

Molly was reading a medical book. She furrowed her brows slightly after hearing what Brycen said. "Talk about what?"

"Our life and dreams, of course!"

Brycen said happily as he sat on the couch, folding his slender legs and looking sluggish.

Molly was baffled as she rolled her eyes at him. "Just say whatever you want and get out. I'm reading."

"Tsk, is reading more important than me?" Brycen got upset.

Molly threw a smile at him. "Of course."

Fortunately, Molly was his biological sister. Otherwise, he would have stormed out.

Triplets on Secret Mission - Chapter 720[601 words]

Chapter 720

Brycen did not go to her for chit-chat. He casually said two sentences before he directly said, "Molly, I want to ask you a question."

"Sure." Molly nodded her head.

Brycen then said, "All this while, I've never heard you talk about the man who got you pregnant... So, I want to ask whether you still remember him?"

Molly looked angry as she heard that.

She did not expect Brycen to ask her that suddenly.

The man who made her an unwed pregnant lady was a traumatic memory for her. No one could talk about it!

Molly suddenly stared at Brycen coldly. She scolded in a low voice, "Get out!"

"Huh?"

Brycen was shocked. He just came in not long ago.

’I said, get out!" Molly showed a grim face as she repeated that.

A lesser man would probably leave immediately. But, Brycen was not a lesser man. He could tell that Molly was still sore over the incident where she got pregnant before marriage.

So, he continued and nicely said, "Molly, don't be angry. It was just a question.

"I just wanted to ask you what if the man who got you pregnant comes back to you one day? Would you still want him?"

Anger poured through Molly as she heard that!

She did not even call him brother. She stared at Brycen immediately as she asked coldly, "Brycen, what's wrong with you? Are you pouring salt on my wounds on purpose? Do you want to make me upset?"

"1-1 didn't mean to..."

"I'm going to chase you out with a broom if you don't get out now.” Molly's voice was a lot colder.

"All right. I'll leave."

Brycen was frustrated. Why was her reaction so dramatic when I mentioned the man who got her pregnant?

'Seems like she hasn't moved on from the past!'

Brycen could only leave Molly's room ashamedly. He then told the three little ones about it. He purposely wept as he tried to impress them, "Your uncle risked his relationship with your mother to help you guys to ask her that. You guys should comfort me, right?"

Upon seeing this, they winked at Claudia.

Claudia then walked forward sensibly to open her little hands as she said in a childish tone, "Uncle is the best. Don't cry. Give me a hug, uncle."

She made Brycen laugh right away. He opened his hands to hold Claudia in his arms. He touched her chubby face with his face that was full of stubble beards. "Hug. Let's hug."

He rubbed his beard all over Claudia's face. She immediately looked disgusted as she pushed him away. "Uncle, no. Your beard is so tingly!"

Brycen laughed even more happily all of a sudden.

In the end, the three little ones went back to their room. They sat cross- legged on their bed as they discussed that matter very seriously.

"Today, mommy kicked uncle out of her room. Looks like she won't forgive daddy so easily!" Ben said analytically in a serious tone.

"So, what should we do? Mommy can't just not acknowledge our daddy forever. If grandpa and grandma find out who we are, they'll definitely find a way to bring US back to the Anderson family."

"If mommy knows that daddy was the person who got her pregnant, will she break up with daddy?"

The triplets were extremely scared as they thought about that!

They did not want their parents to break up.

'Daddy and mommy somehow missed the chance to be together 5 years ago.

'Now that they finally got together, will they lose each other again?'
