

102 CHAPTER 102

Julianna's POV 1

I waited for Chester to relax before taking my own seat on a one seater couch, turning over to face him with an expression that seemed to be more stern than how I had wanted it to be.

"So, what did you want to talk to me about, Julianna? I need to get some things in order before the big day of the coronation." He said to me.

I didn't reply him immediately, instead I made him more tensed, by tapping my fingers on my leg after crossing it.

"Let's not beat around the bush, Chester, you and Scarlet..."

"There is nothing between me and Scarlet," He cut into my words.

Before he was even done speaking, I was leaning over on his seat.

"The thing was that, I just went down there because I had been told that she was not having her meals and I wanted to make sure that-"

I leaned over to him, placing my fingers on his shoulder and squeezing it reassuringly.

"Chester, this is not an interrogation..." I said with a knowing smile, I know that you will not do anything more than your duties as a Beta, you don't have to panic too much."

He let out a heavy sigh, placing his hand on mine.

"Thank you for understanding, but if that wasn't why you called me here, then, what's the reason?"

"Do I need a special reason to see you.. cousin?" I asked him in a flirty tone, with a smile, as he obviously shivered with excitement, then he suddenly pulled me to his lap.

"Distant cousin.. far distant cousin." He whispered in one breath.

His hand came over to my breast and squeezed it, and I moaned softly as my nipples poked out as hard as pebbles, as he tweaked one then he leaned over to kiss me until his tongue was almost reaching my throat. I reciprocated it passionately and soon we began to peel off our clothes until they were on the floor, just littering it.

I put one of my hands across his neck, carrying my butt up and then bringing my the other down to grip his sturdy hard member, stroking it till I felt pre-cuk at the tip of his pole and then I put it in between the entrance of my folds, then slipped it in with a gasp.

"Ugh, Julianna." He groaned. I smiled and began to ride him as he filled me up with the bumps and veins stroking my insides and I squeezed him up.

His lips came back to my breast and he began to suck again and we continued to rock each other until we both came.

I came first, so he held me and kept thrusting into me through my orgasm, not stopping for a single second.

After we both came and were wet with each other's juices, he held me close, kissing my neck tenderly as he whispered in my ear.

"I'm still hard..." He was barely able to breathe properly, as he spoke.

Before I knew it, I was on fours, then he grabbed my left leg and threw it over his shoulder and then began to pound me again till drool began to drip from my mouth.

Finally we were entangled on the couch with him still inside me but now finally softer as he went back to sucking my breast.

"You're so beautiful, Julianna, your body is perfect!" He said when he finally came up for air.

I smiled at him.

We went to have a shower together and took each other again, as he sneakily slipped his hard meat right back into me, when I finally came out, it was like my legs had dislocated from my body.

"Chester, I thought you were going to be busy.. huh?" I asked him when he started coming towards me again, gently taking his clothes away.

"Come on one more time..."

"Don't you want me to walk again? Besides I have something to attend to in a few minutes..." I said, as I straightened up my clothes, then with a pout he slumped on the couch and asked.

"Can I know what those 'things' are?"

I smiled, looking back at him, then going over to sit on the arm of the couch.

"Maybe you can when you tell me what you discussed with Scarlet..."

All the color on his face immediately washed up when I said that and he adjusted himself.

"But I thought you understood that there was nothing going on between the two of us, especially after what she had done..."

"Yes I agreed, but now I don't know exactly what you were doing either."

He threw his face away from mine.

"It was nothing important, she just promised to eat her meals if I did a little favor."

"What favor...?"

"It's really nothing important.. and now I think I have some things to attend to. I'll see you later Julianna."

That was strange, he was not even looking at me, but I knew I could trust him, though I would still be a little worried, knowing just how manipulative that Scarlet could be.

I just wanted to make sure he would be fine, but it looked like I was just butting in where I was not needed.

Without wasting more of my saliva, I left the room, as I was going down the hall I saw Laci, the Alpha king's sister.

I greeted her with a little bow, but as I was passing her, she called me back with an odd look on her face.

"Is something wrong, Julianna, you look a little down..."

Was it showing that much?

I stretched the fake smile in my face a little wider when I assured her that I was fine, but as I tried to leave again she held me back once again.

"Don't tell me that you are going off for more work again? You need to learn to take a break every once in a while..."

Before I could blink my eyes twice, she had crossed arms with me, then she started pulling me along the hall.

"Your majesty, can I ask where I'm being dragged off to?"

I said, I was not in the mood of being around other people right now. But I guess it wasn't showing as much as I wanted it to.

"A little dinner at the garden, my mother actually asked for me to have you join us."

"Me?" I asked her, balancing myself so that I would not end up tripping because of how quickly as she was walking.

Soon we arrived at the royal garden where a fancy table with delicious meals was set near the artificial lake.

The Queen mother and Koko were already settled there and from the robotic way that they were acting, you could tell that they were having an awkward interaction from a million mile away.

Why was I being dragged into something like this?

"Actually, your majesty I—"

Before I could cook up a good excuse to flee it all, Laci had already started dragging me over to the dinner.

The Queen mother and Koko were already there and it surprisingly wasn't as robotic and awkward as I had expected it to be.

Then I decided to ask Koko something that had been bothering me, after settling down.

"So, what is your plan for Scarlet and Henry?"
