

Two Trillion 1211

Chapter 1211 - Let Them Know How Powerful We Are!_2

While a meal may seem trivial, when used well, it can also yield "profits."

Moreover, in this matter, Yu Shuangyu also set a common "adversarial" target for everyone—Lin Sheng.

Why should he get to enjoy a lavish meal, while others starve and wait?

Lin Sheng's special treatment can easily resonate with everyone's emotions, inciting jealousy.

Any small matter, if well calculated, can ferment into significant consequences when thrown into people's hearts.

In ancient times, the "dilemma of the two peaches killing three warriors" was just about a single peach. Could it be that it was the Queen Mother's immortal peach, capable of granting eternal life? It was merely a struggle of human desires.

Such trifles, silent yet profound, can create divisions without leaving any trace of manipulation.

However, Yu Shuangyu's petty schemes, in the eyes of two perceptive individuals, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, were merely met with silent snickers.

During the meal, Yu Shuangyu played up to the crowd, clarifying the current vacancies at the company, and offered advice to the three of them.

Lin Weiwei could further her studies in the secretary's office, it would be best if Lei Ying could be Mr. Han's bodyguard, and Chu Wei could start as a department manager.

"Today, you can go to HR to get registered, take some documents home, and come to work at nine o'clock tomorrow. Our company has a one-week trial period, and official employment procedures will be handled only after a week," said Yu Shuangyu with a smile, "This allows both sides to get to know each other, and I hope you understand."

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying already knew this since Bai Xiaosheng had told them; otherwise, the three wouldn't dare to apply so openly, and they wouldn't have been able to produce the IDs of "Lin Sheng," "Bai Ying," and "Fang Cheng."

After the meal, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying took their leave.

Chu Wei stayed behind.

Once the two had left, Chu Wei's obsequiousness became even more evident.

"Assistant Yu, I'll rely on your guidance after joining Shenhe. With your help, I can make something of myself at Shenhe Group. So, my respect for you is second only to Mr. Han. Whatever tasks you command in the future, I, Chu Wei, will carry them out without any hesitation!" said Chu Wei, thumping his chest as an expression of loyalty.

Chu Wei, of course, had made his allegiance known.

Yu Shuangyu certainly knew what kind of person Chu Wei was.

If such a person could be loyal, that would indeed be strange.

But, that didn't mean he couldn't be made use of.

Yu Shuangyu chuckled.

Plain talk doesn't require dark hints; with Chu Wei willing to join forces and oneself willing to embrace, it was enough to hit it off.

"Chu Wei, you're an outspoken person, so I won't beat around the bush with you. As long as you follow me, together we'll serve Shenhe and exhaust our efforts for Mr. Han. I can guarantee you a bright future!"

With that, Yu Shuangyu leaned in closer, patted Chu Wei's shoulder, speaking earnestly, "In the future, you've got the opportunity to become Mr. Han's assistant! By then, I'll be the chief assistant, and you could be the third, even the second. If we work well together, wouldn't that be great?"

Yu Shuangyu tossed a huge piece of cake to the ambitious Chu Wei.

If the two key assistants at Shenhe Group worked in unity, becoming "our own people," that would be more than enough to control half of Shenhe.

Chu Wei grinned from ear to ear.

However, immediately after, Chu Wei sighed, "Unfortunately, I wasn't confident during Mr. Han's interview this time. The younger lad Lin Sheng got in before me. Though this young man is indeed not bad, it's just that behind the scenes... he's a bit too arrogant."

"Oh?" Yu Shuangyu's eyebrows raised as he turned to Chu Wei.

"Lin Sheng said that in this interview, he was aiming for the top assistant position, a spot that suits him best! Although those are arrogant words, in the end, you became the chief assistant and he only the third. But this youngster, he's quite ambitious. Look, he was the one accompanying the client for the meal, when it should have been you to sit in. Even if Mr. Han somehow overlooked it momentarily, he ought to have reminded you, after all, you are the chief assistant. But tell me, does he seem to have that intention, that kind of consideration?"

Chu Wei's words struck right where Yu Shuangyu felt vulnerable.

Yu Shuangyu couldn't help but frown slightly.

The reason he harbored hostility towards Lin Sheng included the fact that Lin Sheng had completely ignored his existence.

So many times, entering that banquet hall, Lin Sheng chatted and laughed with Mr. Rohas and Mr. Han Hefei, without even a glance at him!

Wasn't that just like, not putting him in his eyes at all!

Yu Shuangyu exhaled a heavy, muddled breath from his nostrils.

Even though he intended to create a rift between Bai Xiaosheng and Chu Wei, the resentment in his own heart was real!

Seeing this, Chu Wei's eyes flashed with a glint of delight.

He was no fool!

He noticed that Yu Shuangyu wanted to make them resent Bai Xiaosheng, to prevent this third assistant from winning over the newcomers!

Such petty scheming was evident to anyone.

In these times, whoever takes another for a fool is the real big fool!

Yu Shuangyu wanted to sow discord among them, and Chu Wei harbored the same intentions!

While Yu Shuangyu might be clever, he couldn't escape the obstacle of his emotions.

"Assistant Yu, I'm not trying to stir up trouble, I am truly speaking out against the injustice for you!" Chu Wei said, "You'll be leading his work in the future, and he is already disregarding you like this now, what will happen later! Sooner or later... I might say something you'd dislike, sooner or later he'll covet to push you out and become the first assistant!"

Yu Shuangyu remained silent.

This was what he feared the most!

"I am furious on your behalf! Your magnanimity prevails, and you don't quibble with him over these matters, but do you think, will he appreciate your tolerance? Will he give up the position of the first assistant?!" Chu Wei slapped his thigh, "Definitely not! Nowadays, the young ones are more ambitious than the next! Hence, you must give him a little pinch, to warn him with a minor punishment!"

Yu Shuangyu's eyes narrowed as he looked at Chu Wei, his voice devoid of any emotion, "Oh, according to you then."

Chu Wei unabashedly suggested, "This third assistant needs to get familiar with and start the work, and you'll be guiding him, right? You could assign him more work, add some burden on him, make him work overtime through the nights at the company. If he doesn't do well somewhere, you can reprimand him, and see if he gets in line. If he does not restrain himself and continues to upset you, after a whole week of continuous overnight work, will he still make it through this probation week? Even if he can bear it, if he makes many mistakes, would Mr. Han bear it?"

Chu Wei was blunt, suggesting that Yu Shuangyu should deal with Bai Xiaosheng, and let Bai Xiaosheng experience a tremendous workload, working throughout the night.

Ideally, Lin Sheng couldn't handle it and would clash with Yu Shuangyu, preferably taking it up to Mr. Han. That would escalate it to an assistant rivalry, and Yu Shuangyu would spare no effort to get rid of him!

Knowing full well that Chu Wei was proposing to use him to do the dirty work, Yu Shuangyu's eyes still lit up.

Mr. Han did not like subordinates complaining, nor did he like people who frequently made mistakes, that was certain!

Chu Wei's suggestion, good!

Let's give Bai Xiaosheng the opportunity to work overtime consecutively, let all departments cooperate with him, give him what he needs, let Bai Xiaosheng enjoy the "hellish training" at Shenhe!

"Not a bad idea!"

Yu Shuangyu smiled.

"Also, these two youngsters haven't shown that they are on your side yet. How about letting them also do a couple more days of overtime?" Chu Wei suggested, "Show them who's boss!"

By then, when Bai Ying could no longer endure the hardship, when Fang Cheng would moan from the suffering, Chu Wei could step in as the savior – killing two birds with one stone.

Yu Shuangyu gave Chu Wei a meaningful glance and smiled, "Old Chu, you sure have a lot of little tricks! It's a loss that you're not an assistant; otherwise, would you be digging a pit for me too?"

Chu Wei feigned terror, "How would I dare! No matter what, you're the first assistant, and I rely on your influence!"

Yu Shuangyu and Chu Wei laughed together.

Having left the scene, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were discussing matters on their way.

"Now that we've joined Shenhe, how can we quickly get in touch with the actual work? We still have a week of probation, right? Do we need to go through some kind of training on rules and regulations first?"

"Yeah, that's the most troublesome part. Even if we get to deal with actual work, I'm afraid the engagement will be very minimal, extremely limited!"

Both of them were worried, intending to consult with Bai Xiaosheng.

Little did they know, their problem had already been resolved by Chu Wei...

If Bai Xiaosheng found out, he'd be more than pleased, enough to burst into laughter.

Chapter 1212 - Let's See How You Die!

The Spanish merchant Mr. Rohas and his party, after having lunch and resting for a couple of hours at the Shenhe Group, finally left.

It is said that they still need to rush to the Americas to discuss another collaboration.

With the Shenhe Group, Mr. Rohas had been frequently sending people for discussions, and this time, he came in person for the signing, the process was smooth.

Presumably, the situation in the Americas would be the same; it seems this is their style.

When Mr. Rohas was leaving, Yu Shuangyu had already rushed back from the restaurant, and when he returned, he brought two employees carrying many items.

These were gifts Han Hefei had instructed to be picked up for Mr. Rohas.

Having presented the gifts, Han Hefei personally escorted Mr. Rohas and his party to the lobby.

During this time, Bai Xiaosheng was in attendance throughout, standing by Han Hefei's side.

Before leaving, Mr. Rohas made a point of chatting and laughing with Bai Xiaosheng, giving him several earnest instructions.

Bai Xiaosheng did not translate, and Han Hefei didn't ask at the time.

After the guests had left, Han Hefei asked with a touch of curiosity about what Mr. Rohas had said.

"Mr. Rohas said that he hopes to see me again next time, and also, if I have time, to visit him in Spain," replied Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, reporting truthfully.

"Mr. Rohas... actually invited you!" Han Hefei couldn't help being somewhat surprised and looked intently at Bai Xiaosheng.

In his view, someone he himself would have to treat with great courtesy was being so polite to a lesser figure.

Apart from the foreigner's naturally unrestrained disposition, perhaps this Lin Sheng really is quite extraordinary!

Han Hefei began to reevaluate this young man before him.

What he didn't know was that Bai Xiaosheng was no small figure; he was actually a Senior Affairs Officer. His profound insights and humorous speech when chatting with Mr. Rohas had greatly touched the Spanish merchant.

Yet, the translation he provided to Han Hefei was much more concise and considerably embellished.

"Lin Sheng, keep up the good work, I won't shortchange you!" Han Hefei said to Bai Xiaosheng with all seriousness.

At this point, he recognized Bai Xiaosheng's value.

"Yes, Mr. Han," Bai Xiaosheng replied with a faint smile.

Han Hefei turned and saw Yu Shuangyu, and promptly waved him over, pointing to Bai Xiaosheng, "You take Lin with you, let him familiarize himself quickly so he can start contributing to the work."

Yu Shuangyu placed his hands in front of him, leaned in with a smile, "I will, Mr. Han."

When Yu Shuangyu looked at Bai Xiaosheng, his eyes also carried a kind of big brotherly concern.

Another person would definitely be moved by Yu Shuangyu's affable attention.

But who was Bai Xiaosheng? His perception was exceedingly acute.

Bai Xiaosheng could see right through to the underlying emotions hidden behind Yu Shuangyu's eyes and beneath his smile—

Wariness, hostility, and even resentment!

It seems I have overshadowed him.

Bai Xiaosheng chuckled inwardly, but did not take it to heart.

Even Mr. Han was not worth worrying about in his eyes, let alone a mere Yu Shuangyu.

...

Han Hefei, accompanied by his two assistants, made his way back to the office.

Bai Xiaosheng walked alongside Yu Shuangyu, who outwardly appeared calm but was internally very displeased with this young man by his side.

Walking side by side with me?

Doesn't he know any manners, any respect for his seniors!

Yu Shuangyu, feeling agitated, remembered the advice given by Chu Wei and inwardly sneered, "This Lin needs to be dealt with more strictly!"

When Han Hefei reached the office, Yu Shuangyu took the initiative to inquire if there was anything else that needed handling.

Learning there were no further arrangements, Yu Shuangyu then smiled, "In that case, Mr. Han, I'll take Lin down first. As per your instructions! Give him some intense training to help him quickly get acquainted with the company's operations!"

Yu Shuangyu's seemingly ordinary inquiry was actually a way to preemptively absolve himself of blame.

Such matters, Han Hefei couldn't care less about; he was already buried in documents, didn't even lift his head, just nodded slightly.

Yu Shuangyu was reassured.

If Han Hefei ever asked why he was so stern with Lin Sheng, he would have an explanation.

Yu Shuangyu led Bai Xiaosheng out of Han Hefei's office, tiptoed, and gently closed the door behind them.

"Follow me."

Yu Shuangyu smiled at Bai Xiaosheng and then took him to a small office on the same floor with three desks arranged inside.

"This is where the three assistants rest and work," Yu Shuangyu showed Bai Xiaosheng around and introduced the specifics of an assistant's duties.

He explained in great detail, sparing no minor point.

Had Bai Xiaosheng not seen the wariness and jealousy in his eyes, he would have really thought him to be a warm-hearted colleague.

After turning around and speaking, Yu Shuangyu gave Bai Xiaosheng a warm smile, "Although you are new here, Lin, Mr. Han really has high expectations for you. You've also heard that Mr. Han hopes you can get into your job as soon as possible. So I might have to add a little pressure to you! But I believe, you young people can bear it and do well!"

Bai Xiaosheng listened and smiled, "It's fine, I'm actually the workaholic type myself, so I'll let Assistant Yu make the arrangements."

Why did he, Bai Xiaosheng, come here?

To investigate Shenhe Group, to investigate Han Hefei.

Would he be afraid of work pressure?

How laughable!

"That Chu Wei who came in with you also said that you are a person with great capability and resilience, that you can learn quickly and handle high-intensity work." Yu Shuangyu continued cheerfully, "He also said that talents like you need to undergo high-pressure training."

With deliberate intent, Yu Shuangyu had sold out Chu Wei with just that sentence.

In this way, Bai Xiaosheng would certainly bear a grudge against Chu Wei. Does Chu Wei even have a chance to change allegiances now?

As for the original third assistant, now the second assistant, he has been sent by Mr. Han to Europe for business negotiations.

And might not return for months!

On this side, it was Yu Shuangyu's show alone!

"Chu Wei?" Bai Xiaosheng heard this and gave an indifferent smile, "He really trusts me then!"

From the tone, it seemed Lin Sheng had taken note of Chu Wei.

Yu Shuangyu felt satisfied.

"Alright, I'll arrange some work for you now. Try doing this first." Yu Shuangyu stood up, gathered things from his own desk, eventually bringing over a stack of files half a foot high and piling them in front of Bai Xiaosheng.

"Don't think it's too much, I want to test your stamina. Start by familiarizing yourself with the information. All this, and this, is data. The latter parts involve affairs, and you can ask me if anything is unclear."

Yu Shuangyu continued cheerfully, "You're new today, so don't work too hard. Just look at the information today, and tomorrow morning should be enough. Then tomorrow afternoon, finish this piece of work and hand it in tomorrow night."

"You can stay at the company, or take it home. However, in the future, I still hope you complete as much as possible at the company."

"Later, whatever documents you need, list them out during the day, and I'll talk to the various departments to support you."

Saying this, Yu Shuangyu pulled out a thin sheet of paper and handed it to Bai Xiaosheng.

This was what he wanted Bai Xiaosheng to hand in tomorrow night.

Although it was only a page, the content it referred to was huge.

This pile of data, Lin Sheng would need to read nearly half of it with astonishing memory to be able to complete the task.

Yu Shuangyu optimistically estimated that an average person would need several days just to get a general understanding and produce something rough.

And that result could very well be discarded by Mr. Han like toilet paper!

Back in the day, the first job Yu Shuangyu had after officially joining had been scolded by Mr. Han in front of everyone at the company, likened to dog excrement.

That experience was vivid in his memory, and it was not a pleasant feeling!

However, in the future, I'll make you live through such days every day. After a week, let's see if you can still hold up!

Even if you do manage to hold up, Mr. Han's impression of you will become extremely poor!

Yu Shuangyu sneered secretly but outwardly appeared extremely amiable.

This one page alone would take several days, all the materials and work, if going smoothly, would take an average person half a month, a novice one month?

After estimating, Yu Shuangyu felt very pleased.

Bai Xiaosheng's expression remained calm as he took the sheet of paper from Yu Shuangyu's hands, gave it a quick glance, and nodded slightly.

Yu Shuangyu had thought he would look troubled and complain.

Then he could use Mr. Han to pressure this Lin Sheng!

And could even go to Mr. Han and say that this Lin Sheng has a fear of difficulties and is not up to the task.

Yu Shuangyu thought it was a good plan, but the scene he imagined did not happen.

Bai Xiaosheng seemed to have no feelings, just nodded and simply said, "Okay."

Yu Shuangyu was startled for a moment, then smiled.

Are you too foolish to be saved, or too daft to see?

Yu Shuangyu watched Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, "If you have no objections, I'll report to Mr. Han that you have accepted these tasks. But if you don't do well, Mr. Han is someone who will criticize."

"Okay."

Bai Xiaosheng nodded again, simply affirming with a word, already starting to look over the materials.

"You have a look, I've got things to do, will head out first."

"Okay."

Yu Shuangyu smiled and walked away, his mouth curling into a sneer of disdain.

Okay, okay, okay?

Lin Sheng, you naive boy, you actually dare to mess with me?

I'll see how you die!

Chapter 1213 - Watched everything that could be watched...

After Yu Shuangyu left, Bai Xiaosheng put down the piece of paper in his hand, glanced at the door, thought for a moment, and then smiled, shaking his head.

Giving me so much information and work, expecting results by tomorrow, likely they'll demand more the day after tomorrow, and the day after that... Clearly, this is setting me up to fail.

"Yu Shuangyu must feel threatened by me. According to him, Chu Wei is also secretly sabotaging me? It seems losing the assistant position to me has made him quite unhappy," Bai Xiaosheng murmured to himself, then showed a content smile, "But I really should thank you all! Thanks for digging these pits for me!"

"More work, of course, the better! More information, obviously, the better!"

It might be the first time someone thanked others for making things difficult for them, for setting them up to fail...

...

Bai Xiaosheng stretched his torso, then sat up straight, took a deep breath, exhaled slowly, calmed his mind, and started going through the stack of documents one by one.

"Red Lotus, activate the auxiliary memory, reorganize the information!"

Bai Xiaosheng silently commanded in his thoughts.

"Okay!" Red Lotus's voice responded immediately.

Then, Bai Xiaosheng picked up the documents given by Yu Shuangyu and quickly scanned through them.

During this, Bai Xiaosheng was like a wooden statue, motionless, with only his eyes sweeping rapidly over the files from top to bottom.

Ten lines at a glance wouldn't even compare to this speed.

The information, whether text, graphs, or charts, did not slow down Bai Xiaosheng's pace in the slightest.

After looking over one, Bai Xiaosheng casually placed it aside and began on the next.

With such rapid progress, to outsiders it might seem like a joke.

But little did they know, every single thing was imprinted in Bai Xiaosheng's mind with crystal clarity, like a series of vivid slideshows.

Errors?

Omissions?

Non-existent!

At this moment, Bai Xiaosheng was a true and bona fide human computer!

Meanwhile, Yu Shuangyu went to wait on Han Hefei, ready to listen to his instructions.

At the same time, he was also avoiding Bai Xiaosheng.

"Let him look at all that stuff; staring at it overnight without sleep, he'll be doing well to get through even half! And just because he's seen it, does that mean he can remember it? To create something by tomorrow? Absolute fantasy!" Yu Shuangyu was in a good mood, "The key is that Mr. Han instructed me to test him, and Lin Sheng took on the task. He has no excuse now! I won't go back, what if he has questions for me? I'll make sure he can't even catch a glimpse of my shadow!"

Yu Shuangyu had made up his mind to let go and not meddle anymore.

He had no idea how happily Bai Xiaosheng was going through those documents in the office.

That thick stack of documents was being transferred from one side to another at high speed, with content memorized at a rate beyond comprehension.

Even superheroes could do no better.

Actually, since Yu Shuangyu was at ease giving these documents containing internal data and reports—yet not truly confidential—to someone who hasn't officially started the job...

And since the tasks didn't involve sensitive information!

Otherwise, Yu Shuangyu wouldn't have easily given them to Bai Xiaosheng or allowed him to take them home.

But no matter is isolated.

These non-core documents, when connected, all hint at the true confidential matters.

It all depends on how you dig.

For such tasks, Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei, and Lei Ying are now experts, especially after Bai Xiaosheng grasped the entirety of the content, relying on Red Lotus's analysis, he could delve deeply into issues that are invisible to the average person!

After roughly one hour, Bai Xiaosheng had memorized all the information.

Actually, just memorizing the documents didn't need that much time.

Bai Xiaosheng also took the opportunity to clear his thoughts on all the tasks that needed doing.

"Pretty sly! To fully complete everything, at least half a month would be needed for one person. For a newcomer like me, at least a month. And many things would require getting data from HR, administration, and business departments!"

After sighing, Bai Xiaosheng smiled slightly.

"Yu Shuangyu said he could support me and help communicate with the departments, that's great! Then I'll take him on a run through it all!"

Having said that, Bai Xiaosheng thought for a while, then stood up to look for Yu Shuangyu.

As a result, it was only after Bai Xiaosheng went over that he found out.

Yu Shuangyu wasn't there, neither was Han Hefei.

They said they went out in the afternoon, first to inspect the production line of a subsidiary food company, then to another property development project to hear reports.

The cross-industry group had a multitude of sectors and tasks, terribly bustling.

The person explaining the situation to Bai Xiaosheng was a manager named Wang who was in charge of recruitment. His attitude towards Bai Xiaosheng could already be described as respectful.

After all, the entire company had seen Bai Xiaosheng chatting and laughing with ease with Han Hefei and Rohas.

Not to mention that Bai Xiaosheng was already the nominal third assistant.

The manager Wang, actually just a director in the HR department, was worlds apart in status and didn't dare to show disrespect.

At that moment, Bai Xiaosheng was particularly polite to him, even saying thanks in public before he returned.

"This Assistant Lin Sheng is really polite!"

In contrast to Chu Wei's initial attitude, Manager Wang couldn't help but be impressed.

Back in the assistant's office, Bai Xiaosheng, looking at the room that was empty except for him, silently laughed.

Neither Han Hefei nor Yu Shuangyu were around...

That couldn't be better!

Bai Xiaosheng strolled over to a bookshelf on one side, looking at files placed in each section, and smiled, "Well then, I'll just have to read them all!"

The truly confidential information obviously wouldn't be stored in the assistant's office. Even slightly important documents would only be kept in the half-person-tall safe in the corner. But that didn't matter; as long as one grasped enough information and analyzed thoroughly, one could find the hidden threads of clues.

Shenhe Group, being a large conglomerate, must have dealings with other local corporate groups, and couldn't avoid contact with Shen Peishen's own folks!

Bai Xiaosheng began to flip through the files.

At this moment, Yu Shuangyu, who was outside, was thinking about Bai Xiaosheng poring over half a foot of documents with a harried look. He felt thoroughly refreshed.

He would never imagine that Bai Xiaosheng was now looking at the documents on the entire shelf!

Upon finding the key hidden content, Bai Xiaosheng conveniently took photos with his mobile phone and sent them to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

Although those two were in a hotel, after communicating with Bai Xiaosheng via messaging software, they started working simultaneously.

...

It was already nine at night when Yu Shuangyu returned to the headquarters.

Han Hefei went straight home, and Yu Shuangyu came to pick up some things.

When he learned that Bai Xiaosheng had slogged away until just half an hour before leaving and had taken a stack of documents when he left, he couldn't help but sneer.

"Young people are so competitive! Always grinding away at documents alone, didn't even call me once. Very good, then I'll play. You. To. Death!"

Yu Shuangyu was in a good mood, as if his day's fatigue had been swept away.

Meanwhile, Bai Xiaosheng was giving Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying each a set of printed files.

"This is the super abridged version of the documents I organized and printed out at Shenhe. It covers Shenhe's current situation, future development, potential strategies, and connections with external companies. Remember the first five pages well, and use the rest as a reference book; you can consult it whenever necessary."

So spoke Bai Xiaosheng.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, holding the material given by Bai Xiaosheng, were both stunned after a quick scan.

Such a refined version, all dense with content, wasn't common; was this an internal confidential document from Shenhe?

No, that couldn't be right; they wouldn't create such a refined version for nothing.

"Could it be, Xiaosheng, that this is what you produced today!"

"To make such a thing usually requires having grasp of a lot of documents!"

"Yes, this is what I sorted out on a computer there after reading the documents. There was a printer handy, so I printed two copies," Bai Xiaosheng casually said. "I've also erased the traces of computer and printer usage, don't worry."

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were dumbfounded, looking at each other.

Although Bai Xiaosheng was impressive, being superhuman was something else!

They both asked in unison, "How many documents have you actually gone through today, spending the whole day there?!"

Bai Xiaosheng smiled lightly, with utmost humility—

"I read everything that could be read."

Chapter 1214 - Mr. Han is Very Angry...

The next day, Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei, and Lei Ying deliberately walked separately when they went to Shenhe Group.

Upon arriving at Shenhe Group, the three of them received completely different treatments.

Bai Xiaosheng could go directly to the assistant office without needing to report to the HR or administration departments; any necessary matters would be handled by staff from those departments contacting him.

This was communicated to him by Wang Qiaobei yesterday, who led their interviews and is the HR director concurrently serving as deputy director of the administration department.

Meanwhile, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying had to personally report to the HR department to process their paperwork and wait for position assignments.

When Bai Xiaosheng arrived at the assistant office, he found the desk at the far end cleared for him, with a new set of office supplies and some pleasant green plants on it.

"Assistant Lin, if you need anything, let me know, and I'll take care of it for you."

A logistical staff accompanied by a cleaner specifically came to greet Bai Xiaosheng with a respectful demeanor.

After all, in Shenhe, the status of Han Hefei's assistant was highly revered and not to be offended.

"It's already quite good, I'll call you if I need anything." Bai Xiaosheng looked at his desk, quite satisfied.

Assistant Lin was amiable and smiling, making one feel very comfortable.

The logistic staff and cleaner smiled back, nodded, and then left.

Bai Xiaosheng sat down and tidied up a bit.

Soon, there was a knock on the office door.

Following that, someone pushed the door open with a beaming smile.

It was Wang Qiaobei.

Behind him followed two other people, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying!

Their smiles seemed somewhat "peculiar" under their eyes.

"Assistant Lin, I have something to tell you." Wang Qiaobei was exceedingly polite with a smile, careful not to be disrespectful because of Bai Xiaosheng's easygoing demeanor, "This morning, Mr. Han and Assistant Yu are not in the company. However, last night, Assistant Yu informed me that your workload is substantial and requires assistance, and the work you do will quickly bring you up to speed with company details. Thus, Assistant Yu suggested having these two assist you and also familiarize themselves with the company."

Bai Xiaosheng, quite surprised, glanced at Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, who nodded politely towards him, feeling a sense of irony in his heart.

All three attended the interview, thinking that having one person penetrate the "enemy's" ranks would suffice, yet unexpectedly, all three got in...

Planning to act individually, yet they were grouped together by Yu Shuangyu...

Truly, life is unpredictable.

"What about Chu Wei?" Bai Xiaosheng inquired indifferently.

"Assistant Yu said that you do not fully understand the situation here, and having too many new people would be a burden, so Chu Wei was taken elsewhere," Wang Qiaobei explained.

During his speech, his expression also contained a hint of peculiarity.

Being an HR director for so many years, he had never encountered such a situation where Mr. Han's assistant personally trained newcomers, and even more bewildering, the new assistant brought two new people with him...

"Oh, I see." Bai Xiaosheng nodded, speaking seriously to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, "Then you two follow me, and let's familiarize ourselves with the materials, and then work as required. We don't know much about each other yet, so we need to adjust."

"Yes."

"Okay."

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying nodded respectfully, feigning professionalism.

"Is there anything else, Director Wang?" Bai Xiaosheng, seeing that Wang Qiaobei was still present, asked with a smile.

"Uh, there's a message from Assistant Yu that I was asked to deliver to you," Wang Qiaobei said, "He mentioned that the document you prepared yesterday needs to be ready by this afternoon because Mr. Han wants to see it!"

"Understood," Bai Xiaosheng nodded.

That tricky task arranged by Yu Shuangyu?

In fact, yesterday Bai Xiaosheng had already outlined the framework; it would take utmost thirty minutes to fill in the contents!

If they spent an hour, with Bai Xiaosheng drafting and Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying revising, they could undoubtedly reach a nearly perfect level.

In reality, they had also prepared the frameworks for several other tasks, just waiting to fill in the content.

If Yu Shuangyu knew this, he would probably be shocked.

Those tasks were originally for Yu Shuangyu and the three assistants to lead, but with the first and third assistants unavailable, it all landed on him.

Even if Yu Shuangyu himself worked on it with in-depth knowledge of Shenhe Group and smooth internal cooperation from all departments, it would take at least a week!

If someone said it could be essentially completed in just two or three days... he would never believe it!

Not only him, even Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, who had been with Bai Xiaosheng for years and witnessed many "miracles," were initially shocked at the news.

When Bai Xiaosheng was fully engaged, his efficiency and speed were truly peerless.

However, they had discussed yesterday that even if they could rush to complete the tasks, they should not do so recklessly.

Firstly, they genuinely still needed data and information from various departments at Shenhe Group headquarters, which they did not have.

Secondly...

If they finished so early, how would they proceed with collecting and investigating data and information from the departments?

Thus, they also planned to hold off.

...

After Wang Qiaobei left, Bai Xiaosheng looked at Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, and they looked back at him.

The three burst into silent laughter.

Unexpectedly, this time they all ended up working in the "enemy's" headquarters.

If this were to be shared, probably no one would believe it.

They were eager to see what kind of expression Han Hefei would have upon discovering their true identities; that cold and expressionless face, would it take on a look of disgust?

"So now, what do we do?" Lin Weiwei asked cheerfully, "Please instruct us, Assistant Lin."

Chapter 1215 - Mr. Han Is Very Angry..._2

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and pointed to the document on the table, "Let's finish this first. Haven't you heard what Wang Qiaobei said? Yu Shuangyu specifically instructed that Han wants to review it when he returns this afternoon."

"By the way, you guys should look through more materials." Bai Xiaosheng pointed at the bookshelf, "Don't be shy, feel free to read anything."

Is this the material that Bai Xiaosheng mentioned should be read entirely within half a day?

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were shocked to see the items on the bookshelf and were equally astonished.

"Sometimes I really want to send you for a dissection to see what makes you different from the rest of us humans," Lei Ying lamented with heavy emotion.

They worked until noon before Bai Xiaosheng and the other two went to the restaurant together for lunch.

Now, the three of them could walk together in the open, without any need for avoidance...

At this very moment, Han Hefei and his group were also having lunch.

Nanyu's group corporations have an interesting composition, as Shenhe Group is a conglomerate, so many of its subsidiaries in this city are under its management. Currently, Han Hefei and his team are inspecting a cultural media subsidiary and are enjoying a lunch banquet after the inspection.

Han Hefei likes tranquility, so in the spacious private room, there are only Han Hefei, Yu Shuangyu, a manager of the subsidiary, a deputy manager, and Chu Wei, a total of five people.

When Han Hefei eats, he just eats, doesn't drink alcohol, and doesn't listen to others talk about work.

Consequently, the atmosphere is very quiet and, by extension, the meal is incredibly dull.

The manager and deputy manager accompanying them also feel extremely uncomfortable.

While eating, Han Hefei suddenly looked up at Yu Shuangyu and asked directly, "Xiao Yu, how's the thing I asked you to do last time? The strategic proposal for the group's promotion for the second half of the year, how is it?"

This sudden question caught everyone off guard.

Anyone else would have been startled.

But Yu Shuangyu, after all these years by Han Hefei's side, hasn't been there for nothing.

Even when caught off guard, he could remain composed.

"Mr. Han, that task was handed over to Assistant Lin Sheng yesterday. I showed him the accumulated work at the assistant's office, and he chose this task. However, I have already completed a version on my end. If you want to see it, it can be done anytime," Yu Shuangyu responded smoothly.

"He took the initiative to do such difficult work?"

Han Hefei's expression remained impassive, his eyes narrowing slightly.

"I think Assistant Lin Sheng wants to challenge himself. You said pressure him, so I didn't refuse. Moreover, I already finished a draft on my end, it doesn't delay the work," Yu Shuangyu replied calmly.

Han Hefei thought for a moment and then his lips bent into an inscrutable smile, he nodded slightly and murmured, "Quite brave. Well, let's see how capable Lin Sheng really is! He should not blame me for being harsh if he disappoints me!"

"When can he deliver it to me?" Han Hefei suddenly asked.

Yu Shuangyu was prepared and smiled, "I asked him to produce a rough draft by this afternoon. It's fine if it's not perfect; it can always be revised. He agreed. This job requires understanding many aspects of the group, it's quite challenging, so I've also arranged for Bai Ying and Fang Cheng to work with him. These three are exceptional, so for this task, they should be sufficient."

Han Hefei made no clear indication of approval or disapproval but glanced at Chu Wei, seemingly inadvertently.

Chu Wei immediately felt anxious.

This time, only he, Chu Wei, accompanied the general manager on his rounds, which might seem a bit conspicuous.

However, Yu Shuangyu had reported that in the next phase, Chu Wei would be responsible for liaising with the subsidiaries below, so he needed to visit more frequently.

To this end, Han Hefei had silently consented and said nothing.

"But what exactly does Mr. Han's look mean? It can't be... that he's noticed I side with Assistant Yu and wants to deal with those three," Chu Wei felt guilty.

Han Hefei's presence was again gloomy and intimidating, indecipherable.

Chu Wei instantly felt a bit panicky, but he managed to keep his composure on the surface.

"You told him to have it this afternoon, and he agreed, so I'll look forward to it this afternoon," Han Hefei said, then continued with his meal.

"Yes," Yu Shuangyu acknowledged.

Yu Shuangyu exchanged a knowing glance with Chu Wei, sharing a secretive, sinister smile.

As long as Han didn't blame him for delegating the task to the newcomer, it meant approval, and if Bai Xiaosheng failed to do a good job, knowing Han's temper, he would be angry and could be scolded.

This little trap had been set quite smoothly!

As for whether Bai Xiaosheng would really produce something usable, Yu Shuangyu didn't believe it for a second!

Unless he's a god! Yu Shuangyu sneered inwardly.

Watching Yu Shuangyu's fleeting schadenfreude, Chu Wei lost his earlier alarm and even felt a thrill of excitement.

The one surnamed Lin is going to be unlucky this time!

...

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Han Hefei and his team hurried back to the company. As soon as they entered the office, someone rushed in.

It was the promotion director of Shenhe Group!

When it came to work matters, Han Hefei allowed subordinates to act with urgency and disregard for formalities.

Thus, bypassing Yu Shuangyu, the promotion director directly presented a document to Han Hefei.

"Mr. Han! We have an emergency situation!" the promotion director spoke anxiously, "Our competitors have launched a promotional offense ahead of schedule, pushing in several markets at once, which has put a lot of pressure on us. We must bring out our promotional plan for the second half of the year now! You said to leave it to Assistant Yu to handle. Now, is it..."

The promotion director looked straight at Yu Shuangyu, causing Yu to tense up.

In fact, Yu Shuangyu used to be the head of Shenhe's promotion department and had pointed out flaws in the department's plans to Han Hefei to show off his capabilities, and with Han's approval, took over that task. He thought there was still plenty of time, but now the situation had changed unexpectedly.

Chapter 1216 - Mr. Han Is Very Angry..._3

Is this akin to shooting oneself in the foot?

Yu Shuangyu swallowed hard.

Han Hefei briefly glanced over the documents brought by the promotions manager, then lightly tossed them onto the table, his expression dark and solemn.

"Go call the relevant personnel to the large meeting room!"

"Yu Shuangyu, bring that thing you worked on."

"By the way, have Lin Sheng and the other two join the meeting too, and bring their work!"

"Five minutes later, I want to see everyone in the meeting room!"

With the final word, Han Hefei tapped his finger on the desk, his tone leaving no room for doubt.

Yu Shuangyu also felt a surge of nervousness.

Judging by the tone, Mr. Han was serious this time.

"Yes, I'll go right now!" Yu Shuangyu immediately turned and left the office, with Chu Wei hurriedly following behind.

Once they were out in the hallway, Yu Shuangyu let out a breath of relief and quickly rushed to the assistant's office.

"Assistant Yu, it looks like the situation is pretty serious this time," Chu Wei whispered beside him.

"It's also an opportunity!" Yu Shuangyu lowered his voice and suddenly grinned with a sinister smile.

How else could he get Mr. Han to fly into a rage and publicly berate a newcomer in front of everyone?

"Opportunity? Yes! That Lin, he has taken on the task and it's been two days. If he has nothing to show, under Mr. Han's furious wrath, won't he get what's coming to him?"

Chu Wei's eyes also lit up.

Being a leader, they don't care if you have ample time or if you're a newcomer, when crunch time comes and you're responsible and have nothing to show, then it's your fault!

As for feeling aggrieved or wronged, you still have to take it.

This is the workplace!

"I presume your work must be extremely well done, this time you will certainly outshine that Lin in front of Mr. Han!" Chu Wei didn't forget to flatter.

"I just whipped something up casually," Yu Shuangyu modestly said, his eyes, however, brimming with confidence.

The two chatted all the way to the assistant's office, then instinctively silenced themselves.

Yu Shuangyu pushed the door and entered.

Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei, and Lei Ying were there, casually drinking tea in the sofa area and browsing through materials.

Such ease and composure!

"Assistant Lin, didn't you prepare the thing I asked you guys to do!"

Seeing them, Yu Shuangyu seemed instantly outraged.

Then, Yu Shuangyu hurriedly went straight to his own desk, rummaging through his things while saying, "I already told you, Mr. Han wants to see it this afternoon, didn't you take it seriously?"

"I'm reminding you, there's an emergency now, we need that material!"

"I have a copy here, but it's mine, if you've done nothing, then you'd better explain it to Mr. Han yourself!"

"That being said, Lin Sheng, you're now Mr. Han's assistant, not an ordinary newcomer, you can't hold yourself to the standard of a newcomer! If we said we needed something, it must be done, no excuses..."

Yu Shuangyu rambled on, only to suddenly realize it seemed as if he was the only one speaking.

No one was chiming in!

Yu Shuangyu, holding the found documents, turned back in surprise, only to see Chu Wei staring dumbfounded at Bai Xiaosheng.

Yu Shuangyu looked over.

Bai Xiaosheng was standing there, smiling, with a folder in his hand.

"Is everything done and ready to be shown to Mr. Han now?" Bai Xiaosheng asked with a smile.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng like this, Yu Shuangyu suddenly felt very annoyed.

"Done? Good, great," Yu Shuangyu said with a laugh, "Mr. Han has high expectations for you, don't disappoint him!"

Saying that, Yu Shuangyu headed straight to the door and left.

Once outside, his expression darkened immediately, his eyes revealing a trace of mockery.

"You finished it in less than two days? And you're still so confident?! I think you won't cry until you see your coffin! You must think because you're new, Mr. Han won't scold you, huh. Heh, we'll see who gets a scolding that makes their head spin!"

Yu Shuangyu glanced at the plan in his hands, laughing with a cold sneer.

Only my work is the best!

The group headed straight for the meeting room.

Upon arrival, Han Hefei didn't say a word, immediately asking for Yu Shuangyu's plan, and quickly skimmed through it.

Everyone found their seats.

Full of anticipation, Yu Shuangyu only saw Han Hefei look at him with an expressionless face and ask, "Did you make this yourself?"

"Yes," Yu Shuangyu hastily replied.

"What kind of garbage is this!" Han Hefei slammed the document onto his face, leaving Yu Shuangyu completely astonished.

The others instantly dared not breathe too loudly.

Mr. Han had cursed someone out.

And he had been very vulgar about it.

This proved he was very angry.

Yu Shuangyu was completely stunned.

Just two minutes, and his proposal had been rejected by Mr. Han and he'd been publicly humiliated?

He struggled to accept this.

Chu Wei also couldn't help but swallow hard, now understanding how formidable Mr. Han could be.

Han Hefei turned his gaze towards Bai Xiaosheng, his eyes dark and piercing, immediately spotting the material in Bai Xiaosheng's hand, gesturing with a pointed finger—

"Give it to me!"

Chapter 1217 - Excellent Plan

Bai Xiaosheng handed the proposal in his hand to Han Hefei with a calm expression, showing no signs of panic or fear despite Yu Shuangyu being verbally abused.

It seemed that he was very confident in his work.

Han Hefei gave him a deep look, then, with an expressionless face and frosty eyes and brows, picked up the proposal and placed it on the table in front of him to start flipping through it.

The entire conference room was filled with a grave atmosphere.

The air was notably tense!

At the large round office table, Han Hefei sat in the middle, with Yu Shuangyu, Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei, Lei Ying, and Chu Wei on one side, and the heads and middle-level staff from the publicity department on the other.

While Han Hefei was looking through Bai Xiaosheng's proposal, the head of the publicity department started distributing the pre-printed briefing reports one by one.

Yu Shuangyu took the briefing with a gloomy face, seemingly resentful, and glanced at the publicity head.

The situation must be terrible!

Otherwise, why would his publicity plan be treated like a pile of crap, thrown directly in his face?

Damn publicity department!

Why didn't they give him a heads-up in advance? Was it that hard?

This must be revenge!

Yu Shuangyu clenched his teeth with anger.

Clearly, it was revenge for him repeatedly rejecting the publicity department's proposals in the meeting a month ago, leading Mr. Han to reprimand them!

Good heavens!

Yu Shuangyu actually had no grudges with the people in the publicity department; he wasn't intentionally targeting them. It was all about addressing the issues, not the people.

At most, it was to make himself stand out a bit more.

You see, at that time, the third assistant was gaining much favor, frequently praised by Mr. Han, who even decided to give him the lucrative opportunity to go to Europe.

Out of a "crisis," Yu Shuangyu was eager to perform, not wanting his assistant ranking to drop instead of rise.

After all, he was once part of the publicity mouth, their former leader. Couldn't these people understand him a bit?

They actually tricked him this time!

Yu Shuangyu seemed magnanimous, but in reality, he was incredibly narrow-minded.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have decided to suppress Bai Xiaosheng, a newly appointed "assistant."

Facing Yu Shuangyu's gaze, the publicity head remained polite and did not show any reaction to that resentful look, but he felt slightly thrilled inside.

Just because of Mr. Han earlier throwing Yu Shuangyu's proposal in his face and calling it "What a piece of crap," probably all those middle-level colleagues sitting around were laughing inside.

Yu Shuangyu, you had it coming!

When the publicity head handed the briefing to Bai Xiaosheng, Bai Xiaosheng smiled politely, his smile warm.

"Look at his attitude!" the publicity head thought to himself.

Without comparison, there's no harm done. Yu Shuangyu's resentful glare only made Bai Xiaosheng's smile leave a great impression in the publicity head's eyes, and the middle-level staff of the publicity department saw it the same way.

Bai Xiaosheng started to read the briefing seriously.

The severe situations listed didn't seem to affect him.

While Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were looking through the briefing, they couldn't help but exchange a deep look.

That morning, they had worked with Bai Xiaosheng on that publicity plan involving the strategies for Shenhe Group's headquarters and several key branch companies.

At that time, the big framework penned by Bai Xiaosheng was totally not the normal strategy, it was more like a defensive counterattack amidst a tense market situation.

Back then, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying had disagreed, thinking that Mr. Han might not approve of such an approach.

But now it appeared that Bai Xiaosheng's strategic foresight was almost prophetic!

Both were convinced.

Actually, Bai Xiaosheng based his decision on the market dynamics tracked by Red Lotus, sensing that the competitors might make a major move, hence, he strategized decisively following the market rules, and it really couldn't be called a "prophet."

Yu Shuangyu frowned as he looked at the market briefing supplied by the publicity department, feeling depressed.

This was far different from the dynamics a month ago!

What he had done back then now looked like a pile of dog shit!

Thrown in his face, it seemed he only had himself to blame...

However, who knew the adversary would be so treacherous, silent until suddenly striking so ruthlessly!

Yu Shuangyu secretly looked at Han Hefei, seeing him scrutinize Lin Sheng's proposal, sometimes frowning, sometimes ponderous, his face showing no warmth.

"Lin Sheng's proposal would probably also be criticized harshly, thrown in his face!"

Thinking this, Yu Shuangyu felt somewhat better.

"I'm still at the company, and I can't even grasp market trends fully. Lin Sheng just joined us, and he's looking at the same old information I've already seen. It would be strange if he managed to come up with a usable plan!"

"Come to think of it, I, Yu Shuangyu, have been publicly scolded more than once, weathered 'many storms,' and I can endure it! But for Lin Sheng, this is his first time being publicly humiliated, plus he's young. How could his mentality not crumble? Afterward, I will overload him with work day by day, making him unable to last even a week!"

Yu Shuangyu thought this way, and actually felt somewhat relieved.

"Marketing department, take a look." Han Hefei suddenly looked up and pushed lightly with his hand.

The proposal Bai Xiaosheng made slid across the smooth table surface, arriving in front of the marketing team.

Then, Han Hefei remained expressionless, said nothing, picked up his teacup, and sipped slowly.

How could he let the marketing people look... shouldn't it...

Smash it in Lin Sheng's face?

Yu Shuangyu was taken aback.

When it was thrown, there was no hesitation, no ambiguity.

Mr. Han, we shouldn't be biased.

Yu Shuangyu muttered to himself...

Could it be that Bai Xiaosheng's proposal actually had some merits worth considering?

Sitting at the very end, Chu Wei also stretched his neck to peek at the proposal on the marketing side; although he couldn't read a word, he couldn't hide his full curiosity.

The marketing manager picked up the proposal, quickly scanned the key parts, occasionally going back to focus on crucial points, his eyes gradually widening.

What's with that expression? How many subtle merits does this proposal have, and what are its major flaws? Just say it!

Yu Shuangyu felt anxious watching this.

The marketing manager examined back and forth as if addicted, finally could not help exclaiming, "Great proposal, really a great proposal!"

What an exaggeration! Yu Shuangyu frowned deeply.

The several middle-tier employees in marketing also stood and crowded around, guided by the marketing manager, they focused on several key points.

Then, in front of Mr. Han, these people all erupted into a buzz—

"This has been well thought through!"

"Perfectly counters the competitor's strategy!"

"Good, this is exactly what we urgently need to do, I was about to mention it!"

"This plan is so well-thought-out, was it that new Assistant Lin who did this?!"

The people in marketing exclaimed in admiration.

Yu Shuangyu sat there, incredulous as he watched them, his eyes wide.

Is it really as good as you all say!

You bunch of fools, isn't this personal vendetta collectively?

Lin Sheng, looking at old data, could make a breakthrough plan!

Clearly, you are talking nonsense in front of Mr. Han!

Yu Shuangyu became instantly agitated and couldn't say anything, hearing some movement from Han Hefei, he hastily looked over.

"I've already reviewed it." Han Hefei put down his cup, smiled at Bai Xiaosheng and nodded, "Lin Sheng, I didn't expect you to have such a keen market sense and to produce such a well-rounded plan, very good!"

During the speech, Han Hefei actually raised his hand and began clapping lightly.

He led by example, and the marketing team burst into applause immediately.

No need to mention Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

Chu Wei's smile was pained, and he had no choice but to join in the applause reluctantly.

Only Yu Shuangyu was stunned for two seconds; seeing Han Hefei looking over, he also hurriedly clapped.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled modestly.

After Han Hefei clapped a few times, he gestured with both hands to stop the applause and turned to the marketing manager, "The plan above, I've reviewed it, and I've approved it. We'll proceed with this one!"

Having said that, Han Hefei looked relaxed, stood up, and announced, "Alright, the meeting is adjourned!"

Han Hefei walked a few steps out, then stopped as if recalling something unusual, turned back, and added two sentences.

One was—

"Yu Shuangyu, give more of your tasks to Lin Sheng."

And another—

"Yu Shuangyu, when you have time, learn more from Lin Sheng!"

Yu Shuangyu was dumbfounded, feeling bitter, watching Han Hefei's departing figure, and had to say—

"Yes... Mr. Han."

Chapter 1218 - Why are you looking at me!

After the meeting, the director of publicity at Shenhe Group and a number of middle management staff all came over to thank Bai Xiaosheng.

This time, the situation was dire, and there was no time to lose!

The people from the publicity department thought they would have to meet overnight and work through the night, desperately rushing the job.

Even so, they wouldn't have been able to avoid Mr. Han rejecting the plans multiple times and scolding them mercilessly four or five times.

Everyone had already prepared for the worst.

Who would have thought that things would take such a turn!

A new assistant's plan, and it actually passed on the first try!

You have to understand, at Shenhe, with Mr. Han, the chances of a plan passing on the first draft are almost as good as winning the lottery!

The people from the publicity department were both extremely impressed by, and very grateful to Assistant Lin Sheng.

Truly grateful!

Completing a task so smoothly was a first for all of them.

While thanking Bai Xiaosheng, they all politely greeted Yu Shuangyu as well.

This time, there was a hint of deliberate meaning in everyone's eyes.

Yu Shuangyu, you used to be so good at nitpicking, so why didn't we see you wield your power this time and come up with a usable plan? Instead, you got your plans thrown back in your face by Mr. Han who also cursed you out!

What an embarrassment!

Watching the irksome looks in the eyes of the publicity department staff, Yu Shuangyu suddenly felt a surge of resentment but had nowhere to vent, forced to swallow it like a toad enduring its suffering.

After thanking Bai Xiaosheng, the people from the publicity department swarmed out, ready to work on the plan he provided.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, wanting to avoid being branded with Bai Xiaosheng's mark, also left with the others.

In the spacious conference room, only Bai Xiaosheng, Yu Shuangyu, and Chu Wei remained.

Chu Wei also wanted to leave, but seeing Yu Shuangyu looking like a lonely figure, he knew walking out would certainly cause resentment, making it difficult to get closer to Assistant Yu in the future.

Besides, this could also be seen as an opportunity; if he took a firm stand, perhaps Assistant Yu would be touched and really start to regard him as one of his own...

After weighing his options, Chu Wei held back and did not leave.

However, Bai Xiaosheng didn't even give him a glance.

Once everyone else had left and the room was empty, Yu Shuangyu had already managed to compose his emotions, at least so that his face did not show the slightest hint of displeasure.

"Assistant Lin Sheng, I didn't expect you to save the day this time, while I..." Yu Shuangyu said with a touch of shame, "It's quite embarrassing to say."

"Assistant Yu, this plan of mine also relies on the information you provided, along with your multiple reminders and urging. Frankly speaking, I should be thanking you." Bai Xiaosheng replied with a faint smile.

"Let's not mention it, let's not." Yu Shuangyu waved his hand and then smilingly said to Bai Xiaosheng, "You see, Mr. Han has a very high opinion of you this time, and he's asking me to allocate more work to you and to learn from you."

When Yu Shuangyu said this, his expression was "normal".

However, Bai Xiaosheng could still read two words in his eyes—"frustration."

Bai Xiaosheng just chuckled and said nothing.

"Assistant Yu, you are just too modest. I think Mr. Han was just being polite. If anyone should be learning, it should be us learning from you!" Chu Wei interjected, smiling at Yu Shuangyu.

He was also asserting his presence and playing his "role."

Bai Xiaosheng half-smiled and turned his head towards Chu Wei.

And kept looking.

"Why are you looking at me like that... What's up?" Chu Wei felt quite uncomfortable under Bai Xiaosheng's gaze.

"Do I need you to be humble for me?" Bai Xiaosheng bluntly retorted.

Chu Wei did not expect Bai Xiaosheng to be so impolite and was taken aback, then sheepishly forced a smile, "Isn't what I said correct?"

"Do we need your input when two assistants are discussing work, or should I leave so you can talk to Assistant Yu?" Bai Xiaosheng said sharply.

Chu Wei had been persistent with Lin Weiwei in the past, which had already irked Bai Xiaosheng, and now he had the audacity to seek attention?

He's really asking for it!

Chu Wei swallowed hard and shifted his uneasy gaze towards Yu Shuangyu.

"Chu Wei, you are dismissed, it's none of your concern now," said Yu Shuangyu, not expecting Bai Xiaosheng to be so tough, but naturally, he wouldn't argue with Bai Xiaosheng over Chu Wei.

After all, he had already prepared to sabotage this Lin Sheng at work and needed no further complications.

Hearing Yu Shuangyu say that, Chu Wei left the conference room defeated.

Yu Shuangyu then turned to Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, "This Chu Wei really doesn't understand the rules. Don't take it to heart."

Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

"This time, it's all thanks to you. As you heard earlier, Mr. Han said that in addition to the tasks previously assigned to you, you might have to take on some more. There's a lot of backlog in the assistant office, so you should be prepared for some hard work."

Hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng smiled politely, "Working hard is only right. However, I'll need more support from Assistant Yu on my end; otherwise, I won't be able to finish everything by myself."

Bai Xiaosheng was laying out his terms.

"You say," Yu Shuangyu said with a smile.

"That Bai Ying and Fang Cheng, I find them quite handy to use, so let's not reassign them for now. Let them stay with me."

"Fine."

"And that Chu Wei, let him come under me as well."

Bai Xiaosheng's request was beyond Yu Shuangyu's expectations. Given the just-passed events, Bai Xiaosheng should find this person quite bothersome, wanting him over... could it be to make life difficult for him?

"Fine," Yu Shuangyu said.

He didn't care whether Chu Wei would be aggrieved or not. He thought that with Chu Wei under Bai Xiaosheng's command, it would be good to use him as a planted informant. Moreover, the tougher Lin Sheng was on Chu Wei, the more determined Chu Wei would become toward him.

This was a good thing.

"And I will need Assistant Yu to accompany me to the Administration Department and Business Department for some documents."

"Fine."

Bai Xiaosheng's request wasn't excessive either.

"Then now, let's make a move. Mr. Han is not busy at the moment," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

Yu Shuangyu nodded in agreement as well.

Thus, the two left the meeting room, first visiting the Administration Department, then the Business Department.

The two departments were several floors apart, and though there were elevators, there was still much walking involved.

Fortunately, Yu Shuangyu led the way, and the visits to both sides were conducted smoothly. The managers of the two departments were very courteous to Bai Xiaosheng and even introduced their department staff to him.

After visiting the two departments and obtaining the documents, the two returned to the assistants' office.

Bai Xiaosheng handed the documents to Lin Weiwei and instructed Lei Ying to summon Chu Wei.

Yu Shuangyu, on the other hand, replaced the tea bag in his Cup and refilled it with water.

"Assistant Lin, we will need these documents from the HR department and these reports from the Finance department for this report," Lin Weiwei told Bai Xiaosheng matter-of-factly.

So, Bai Xiaosheng walked over with a smile, looking at Yu Shuangyu who was just about to sit down and rest.

Yu Shuangyu had already heard. He gave a bitter smile and said, "Let's go then."

Once again, the two ran up and down the floors.

After they returned, Chu Wei was already there, with a resentful look, helping to sort the documents.

Just as Yu Shuangyu was about to return to his seat, he heard Lei Ying approach Bai Xiaosheng and say, "Assistant Lin, I need some more documents over here, could you take a look..."

Yu Shuangyu had a bad feeling about this.

Sure enough, Bai Xiaosheng came over to him again.

"Assistant Yu, you'll have to run around with me again."

...

And so, back and forth, a total of four trips up and down the floors, nearly every department was visited.

At the end, Yu Shuangyu's face turned pale as he plopped down into his chair, refusing to get up.

Unlike Bai Xiaosheng, Yu Shuangyu had spent the morning out with Mr. Han and already had blisters on the soles of his feet. He hadn't stopped all afternoon; who could endure this!

"Assistant Lin, I'm going to call the managers of those departments now. You can go over yourself for documents. I'll have them fully cooperate," Yu Shuangyu said with a bitter expression, "I'm really not going!"

"You've worked hard too, Assistant Yu," Bai Xiaosheng laughed.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also secretly snickered.

Tricking Yu Shuangyu was part of their plan; Bai Xiaosheng needed to secure the right to requisition documents from each department!

With Yu Shuangyu's "authorization," things would be much easier in the future!

Yu Shuangyu listlessly touched the tea he had made upon arriving at the office, now cold...

Reflecting on the humiliation he'd suffered during the meeting and being led around by the nose by someone surnamed Lin in the afternoon, he felt stifled. However, seeing the documents on the desk, he struggled to his feet and called over Bai Xiaosheng.

"These two tasks, I'm handing them over to you," Yu Shuangyu said with a smile to Bai Xiaosheng, "Among those documents I gave you yesterday, there is a report and a draft contract. They need to be presented to Mr. Han tomorrow... any problems?"

He wanted to mess with Lin Sheng!

So, you're so quick and good at your work, huh!

Well then, I want you to deliver two results tomorrow!

Yu Shuangyu waited for Bai Xiaosheng to show reluctance, then would mercilessly reject him.

"A report and a drafted contract?" Bai Xiaosheng smiled, exchanging a glance with Chu Wei who had just looked over, "No problem, right."

Chu Wei, seeing Bai Xiaosheng smiling at him, suddenly felt a chill.

What do you mean no problem? Why are you asking me?

What do you want to do!

Chu Wei suddenly felt a fear and helplessness, as if a sheep had walked into the tiger's mouth...

Chapter 1219 - Chu Wei in Dire Straits

After Yu Shuangyu made the request to Bai Xiaosheng, demanding two work results by the next day, he immediately called the managers of each department, instructing them to fully cooperate with Bai Xiaosheng's requirements.

On this matter, he really had no intention, nor did he dare to play any tricks.

Otherwise, in the end, Bai Xiaosheng would still drag him up and down the floors, or alternatively, go to Mr. Han to snitch, which he couldn't stand.

After making the calls, Yu Shuangyu found an excuse to hurriedly leave the assistant's office.

Just in case, if Bai Xiaosheng asked him about the report or the draft contract due tomorrow, he couldn't lie or speak carelessly.

This would have been both laborious and fruitless.

So, Yu Shuangyu made himself scarce.

With his departure, Chu Wei became even more nervous and uneasy, as if he had been left on the brink of danger.

Fortunately, until the end of the workday, Bai Xiaosheng had not made things difficult for him.

He only asked him, along with Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, to look at the materials on the bookshelf.

Watching Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying search everywhere, they seemed to be very earnest.

Chu Wei had no choice but to patiently flip through here and there; he looked busy, but couldn't absorb a single word.

Chu Wei always felt that Bai Xiaosheng was about to settle scores with him, but as the harassment never came, his heart remained unsettled, and he couldn't pay attention to any materials.

However, Chu Wei didn't forget to keep an eye on Bai Xiaosheng's moves.

After all, Yu Shuangyu had hinted for him to watch Bai Xiaosheng.

Now, wasn't this the perfect opportunity?

Chu Wei also wanted to see Bai Xiaosheng's work style and methods, to understand how he came up with proposals that suited Mr. Han's taste, and then report back to Yu Shuangyu, targeting this "Lin Sheng" at some point!

Who would have known, Chu Wei secretly observed until the end of the workday, Bai Xiaosheng was calmly holding a cup of tea, tranquil as a meditative monk, reading a corporate culture manual from Shenhe Group, and it took him ages just to flip a page, staring at it until it was nearly time to leave.

For two or three hours!

Chu Wei was utterly baffled.

"Is this surname Lin just staring at the corporate culture manual for hours? Is he sick?"

...

As the end of work approached, Bai Xiaosheng leisurely closed the corporate culture manual.

Yu Shuangyu thought he had set a difficult task with an important report and a draft contract due tomorrow; little did he know that Bai Xiaosheng, along with Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, had already organized the framework for each task and filled in the basic content. All that was needed was to collect the data from each department, fill it in for the second time, and then they could deliver the finished products.

A challenge?

Nonexistent.

Bai Xiaosheng appeared to be reading Shenhe's corporate culture manual, but in his mind, he had Red Lotus cooperate, dissecting and analyzing the current data thoroughly.

With Shenhe Group in Nanyu, in the surrounding provinces and cities, which companies did it have business dealings with?

Of those companies, which ones were part of the group and which were not?

When were these non-group companies established, who were their leaders, and what was their previous track record?

Did these companies have any connections with other companies within the group?

...

All this information was vast and intricate.

It wasn't only necessary to find data from Shenhe Group, but also to search the entire web.

Most people probably wouldn't know where to start, but Bai Xiaosheng had Red Lotus to assist, all he needed was some time...

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng packing up as if ready to finish work, Chu Wei secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

It seemed that today, this Lin Sheng, wasn't planning to make a move against him...

"Everyone, come over here."

Bai Xiaosheng, having finished packing up, addressed Chu Wei and the other two amicably.

Chu Wei's heart couldn't help but skip a beat for no apparent reason.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying walked over with normal expressions, while Chu Wei hesitated a little but still followed.

"After looking through the materials for so long, I believe you've gained a lot," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile, looking at the three of them without any apparent intention of singling anyone out.

"Who knows the revenue growth of the real estate sector and the home decoration sector from last quarter, as well as the market trends?" Bai Xiaosheng asked with a smile.

Chu Wei's heart skipped another beat.

This couldn't be...

An attempt to challenge me!

"I know this question."

To Chu Wei's surprise, the usually reclusive big man "Fang Cheng" actually stood out and took the bullet for him!

Listening to the strong man talk eloquently about various data, Chu Wei genuinely felt admiration.

Bai Xiaosheng listened and nodded slightly, then asked, "Next quarter, what are the budget requests from each department, and which ones have been approved or rejected by the finance department?"

"I know!"

This time, Bai Ying was the first to answer.

Chu Wei listened to her fluently reporting all the information, filled with astonishment.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded in approval and then asked, "What are the new business expansions undertaken by the subsidiary this time, and what are they?"

"Bai Ying", "Fang Cheng", this time they were not as eager and instead looked back at Chu Wei.

It seemed as if they felt their enthusiasm had given Chu Wei no chance to perform.

Bai Xiaosheng also looked over.

Seeing that all three of them were looking at him, Chu Wei instantly felt a chill in his heart.

"It's a very simple question with no figures involved. Chu Wei, you've been looking at the data for so long, tell us what you know."

"This... this, I..."

Chu Wei's expression was bitter.

How would he know!

"Then last month, the headquarters' business department proposed a '5+3' strategy that Mr. Han praised immensely, and the whole company was instructed to study it as essential knowledge. Can you talk about that?"

"I..."

"Name any five of the ten items from the new office rules released by the administrative department, as well as any five from the new eight procedures for data retrieval."

"This..."

...

Chu Wei was sweating bullets.

Bai Xiaosheng casually asked five or six questions, and he couldn't answer a single one!

"Assistant Lin, you're really challenging people here, everyone has just joined the company, who can remember all these..." Chu Wei tried to smile through gritted teeth, seeking an excuse for himself.

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

"The '5+3' strategy of the business department are..."

"The ten office rules from the administrative department are..."

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying each answered one question, exhaustively explaining all those points.

Chu Wei was astonished and dumbfounded.

These two had really read and really remembered!

What Chu Wei didn't know was that Bai Xiaosheng's questions were precisely the condensed version of the content he had given Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying the day before, with each question only containing the most refined information.

But these answers, if spoken in a brief version and refined, would rather make it seem as though they were well memorized.

Bai Xiaosheng half-smiled, looking at Chu Wei.

Chu Wei had no retort.

"They have been looking at the materials since yesterday, spending more time than you, Chu Wei, so it's understandable that they could remember and you couldn't," Bai Xiaosheng said.

Is he actually making excuses for me?

Is he trying to win me over so that he can coerce me later?

Chu Wei thought silently.

"But as you're part of my team, you can't expect everyone to accommodate you. It should be you who makes an effort to keep up with everyone."

"Everyone has mastered the material quite proficiently, and the only one who is lacking is you; naturally, you should catch up."

"Even if you go to Mr. Han about this, he would definitely support my view."

Bai Xiaosheng smilingly told Chu Wei, "What you lack compared to everyone else is merely time."

"What is time? It's like the water in a sponge, the... of a beautiful woman..."

"Squeeze it and there will still be some!"

"So starting today, you'll work overtime."

Bai Xiaosheng's smile was affable as he pointed at the bookshelf, "Those, read as much as you can! I'll be testing you every day! Similarly, you can ask me any questions, and if you stump me, I'll let you pass!"

"If you still can't answer, then you'll just have to work a bit harder, make the company your home!"

Bai Xiaosheng's smile, at this moment, looked like a devil's.

Chu Wei gazed at the materials on the bookshelf.

His eyes staring blankly.

Forcing this Lin Sheng to work overtime, wasn't it the vicious plan he had discussed with Yu Shuangyu?

Why was it being used on him!

With so much material, how long would it take to go through it all!

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying exchanged a covert smile.

They were like students before an exam to whom the teacher had pointed out what to focus on.

Chu Wei was like a student before the exam to whom the teacher suddenly passed all the textbooks of the past three years, still smiling and telling him that everything to be tested was in there, go ahead and read...

At once, Chu Wei grimaced, inwardly groaning in distress.

Chapter 1220 - There's a Genius Named Lin Sheng

The next morning at ten o'clock, Shenhe Group's middle and high-level executives convened for their routine meeting.

Bai Xiaosheng and his group were participating for the first time.

Chu Wei, seated in order beside Lei Ying, had heavy dark circles under his eyes and looked worn out.

Despite his extreme reluctance to follow Bai Xiaosheng's "orders," at the moment, Bai Xiaosheng was Mr. Han's assistant, and he himself had been assigned under Bai's supervision. If he openly opposed and defied him, Bai Xiaosheng could legitimately drag him before Han Hefei to report.

Chu Wei didn't think that the business secrets he knew would make Han Hefei tolerate someone who dared to contradict his own assistant.

Therefore, Chu Wei obediently worked until eleven at night and really did pick up a lot of material to read through.

After reading so much, he suffered from insomnia. Every time he closed his eyes, all he saw was pages upon pages of text.

The most pitiable part was that upon waking up, he had forgotten almost everything he had learned!

...

The routine meeting of Shenhe was just to report on one's work according to the usual practice.

When it was Yu Shuangyu's turn, he first spoke about his own work, then changed the subject with a smile towards Han Hefei, "Mr. Han, that report you assigned two weeks ago, and the draft contract, Assistant Lin Sheng is working on them. He said they could be delivered to you this afternoon!"

Yu Shuangyu actually took this opportunity to direct attention to Bai Xiaosheng.

"Oh?!" Han Hefei showed a slight surprise and looked towards Bai Xiaosheng.

Lin Sheng had produced that promotional plan yesterday, which impressed him.

But now, just a day later, Lin Sheng was expected to submit two pieces of work?

Was this young man full of drive, or was he overestimating his capabilities, or perhaps...

Yu Shuangyu was intentionally making things difficult for Lin Sheng.

Han Hefei's gaze inquired, looking at Bai Xiaosheng.

If it was the latter case, he would have to speak up for this young man.

Everyone in the conference room, Shenhe Group's middle and high-level executives, turned their gazes towards Bai Xiaosheng, with strange looks in their eyes.

They had heard yesterday that the new "Assistant Lin Sheng," had helped the promotion department come up with a promotional plan, which greatly satisfied Mr. Han.

Yesterday, Yu Shuangyu also introduced the new assistant, making everyone somewhat familiar with him.

The impression was that he was a very young person, and Mr. Han had made an exception by taking him on as an assistant.

Now, this young new assistant was, within just a day, going to submit two pieces of work?!

Those who knew about the report and draft contract murmured among themselves.

"That report is quite complicated to handle, isn't it!"

"That contract involves many details and is not simple either!"

...

The rustling voices represented everyone's astonishment.

Completing those two tasks within a day might even be something Yu Shuangyu himself couldn't achieve!

Was this young Assistant Lin really so astonishing?

Out of curiosity, Bai Xiaosheng had become the center of attention.

Chu Wei sneakily glanced at Bai Xiaosheng, feeling a secret thrill.

Retribution, certainly retribution!

That's for messing with me!

Now it's your turn to be in trouble, instant karma!

"Assistant Yu might not be entirely accurate," Bai Xiaosheng said softly with a cough.

"Assistant Lin, are you telling me now that you can't complete what you promised me?" Yu Shuangyu immediately asked with a frown.

He was secretly pleased.

Now he had put Bai Xiaosheng on the hot seat!

"Exactly, what is the situation!" Han Hefei asked with a frown.

"What I mean is, those two items have already been completed!" Bai Xiaosheng replied with a calm smile, "If Mr. Han wants to see, they are available right now!"

Completed?

Available to see now?

Yu Shuangyu's smile froze, and he was stunned.

The people in the office were also looking at each other in bewilderment.

Han Hefei, who was about to take a sip of tea, paused in motion and put down his teacup.

"Well, bring them to me," Han Hefei said looking at Bai Xiaosheng, "Don't hand me unfinished work or else, I won't be pleased!"

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and got up to leave.

Three minutes later.

Bai Xiaosheng returned with the two documents in hand and passed them to Han Hefei.

Han Hefei carefully reviewed one of the documents, during which, he couldn't help but repeatedly look up at Bai Xiaosheng.

Having read one document, he passed it around for others to see as he checked the other.

Those passing around the first document widened their eyes in amazement and admiration.

Yu Shuangyu's eyes widened as well, spending an extra two minutes looking at it. By the time he looked back at Bai Xiaosheng, his gaze was almost incredulous.

Completed again?!

And so... meticulously!

Flawless!

At least he couldn't find any faults!

After circulating around, the middle and high-level executives in the office couldn't help but express their admiration, looking at Bai Xiaosheng with respect.

Han Hefei had finished reviewing the second piece and passed it around as well, smiling at Bai Xiaosheng, "Pretty good!"

Pretty, good!

Han Hefei's public comment seemed casually unremarkable at first, but it startled everyone present.

This meant that Mr. Han recognized both pieces of work and didn't see any need for revisions!

Suddenly, everyone's gaze towards Bai Xiaosheng changed.

Yu Shuangyu's smile was forced.

Chu Wei, seeing Han Hefei's attitude and Yu Shuangyu's expression, felt even more flustered.

Can this even be possible!

When the circulation ended, Han Hefei didn't dwell on the matter and proceeded with the meeting as usual, but he instructed the relevant departments to claim their documents afterwards.

This signified that in Mr. Han's view, these two pieces of work were actionable!

This was a great affirmation!

Instantly, the high-level executives from various departments felt an immense closeness to the new Assistant Lin Sheng!

Assistant Lin might be the only one who has repeatedly reviewed drafts with Mr. Han!

Mr. Han will surely trust him even more!

It never hurts to be on good terms!

Facing the enthusiasm of the crowd flocking around him, Bai Xiaosheng smiled and responded with ease.

Yu Shuangyu left quietly and gloomily.

Chu Wei also found an opportunity and followed out.

Chu Wei had intended to look for Yu Shuangyu to vent and ask to be transferred away from Bai Xiaosheng.

But during a moment alone in the corner, Chu Wei ended up being pinned against the wall by Yu Shuangyu.

"What's going on! Lin finished the work, and you didn't tell me! Huh!"

Yu Shuangyu was furious, almost wishing he could rub Chu Wei into the wall.

"I didn't know when he finished it either, Assistant Yu!" Chu Wei replied, feeling very wronged.

"Then what have you been doing following him around?" Yu Shuangyu glared and asked.

"I... I was busy reviewing the documents, working overtime on them..." Chu Wei responded hesitantly.

Yu Shuangyu was dumbfounded and looked at his useless teammate as if looking at an idiot.

"You! Has your brain been kicked by a donkey!"

That very afternoon.

Bai Xiaosheng, accompanied by Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, visited various departments of Shenhe Group, introducing the two to the department heads.

With the scene from the morning meeting in mind, all the department heads were very cordial to Bai Xiaosheng, promising to provide as much information as possible.

Bai Xiaosheng also took the opportunity to take away a batch of documents, harvesting a wealth of information.

When the trio returned to the assistants' office, Yu Shuangyu and Chu Wei were already waiting there.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng, Yu Shuangyu wore a beaming smile, first heaping praise on Bai Xiaosheng, and then specifically requesting the results for four tasks, this time granting a relaxed deadline of this Friday.

However, those four tasks were much more complex and time-consuming than the three Bai Xiaosheng had previously done!

They included the two new tasks that Yu Shuangyu had just assigned to Bai Xiaosheng.

"The time is indeed a bit tight, no problem, right? For you, it must be a piece of cake," Yu Shuangyu said with a smile.

He was well aware of the complexity of the four tasks, which would need at least ten days to half a month to complete, at the very least!

And that's assuming Bai Xiaosheng had the help of three tacit teammates, but among them, Chu Wei definitely didn't count as help, and Bai Ying and Fang Cheng were just newcomers and not in sync!

Regarding this, Yu Shuangyu was "full of confidence."

"Shall I give it a try?" Bai Xiaosheng smiled back at him.

The collection was going smoothly!

Those tasks would be much simpler!

Moreover, according to the current situation, their secret investigation was about to officially enter a high-speed phase!

"Let's give it a try then!" Yu Shuangyu said cheerfully.

Chu Wei was silently watching from the side, his eyes revealing a hint of complexity.

He was still under Bai Xiaosheng's management!

Although he had begged Yu Shuangyu to transfer him out, Yu Shuangyu said he needed him as an informant, and couldn't give Bai Xiaosheng a pretext to shirk work.

At the moment, Chu Wei's heart was cursing Lin Sheng, and curse Yu Shuangyu at the same time.

Two living beasts!

Motherfucker, completely indifferent to my well-being!

In the next three days.

As Chu Wei had "expected," Bai Xiaosheng would start posing questions every day after work.

The information was tricky; Chu Wei could barely remember bits and pieces, unable to answer any of them.

When he questioned Bai Xiaosheng, he found that Bai Xiaosheng seemed to know everything!

This left Chu Wei speechless.

Even without comparing with Bai Xiaosheng, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying could also come up with answers easily.

Chu Wei had run out of excuses.

Since he couldn't give any answers, Chu Wei had to work overtime every day.

He also suffered from consecutive sleepless nights, and finally, unable to hold out, he went to Han Hefei to complain but received a scolding and was bluntly told that if he didn't want to stay with Shenhe, he could leave.

This time, Chu Wei was truly out of options.

During these days, apart from following Bai Xiaosheng around, he had to surrender those business secrets to Yu Shuangyu.

He was completely drained.

Leave Shenhe?

Where else could he find a better place to go.

Chu Wei, overwhelmed with sadness and desolation, had no choice but to submit to Bai Xiaosheng's "dominance."

Now, Chu Wei was working late into the night every day, looking haggard with thick eye bags and a stubbly beard.

With each day's defeat, he grew increasingly anxious and insecure about his own intelligence, questioning "Am I stupid?" and "Why are they so excellent?"

Chu Wei didn't know.

Bai Xiaosheng was informing Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying about the questions for the next day every night.

The three of them were in cahoots!

It wasn't that Chu Wei was dumb; it was that everyone else was "cheating"...

Three days later.

Yu Shuangyu once again created an opportunity for Han Hefei to witness Bai Xiaosheng's accomplishments in public.

And then—

To Yu Shuangyu's astonishment, Bai Xiaosheng once again set a record—the results for all four tasks passed in full.

For a moment.

The name "Lin Sheng" became well-known throughout Shenhe!

Even the subsidiaries learned about an incredible person at headquarters named—Lin Sheng!

At that moment, having collected information from Shenhe Group's various departments and meticulously analyzed it with the vast online data, Bai Xiaosheng finally sorted out the entire scheme of Shen Peishen's camp on Nanyu's side!

"Now, it's time for our real 'action'!"

After Friday, Bai Xiaosheng privately said this to Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying.

The three looked at each other with sharp eyes, all brimming with a fighting spirit!
