

Two Trillion 1441

Chapter 1441 - A Situation with No Chance of Winning?! _2

Bai Xiaosheng and others listened to Jiang Kuo's words and immediately stood still with smiles, respectfully waiting for Soruns' instructions.

"Actually, there's not much to say. This time, the decision was made by the leadership above, and we naturally have to fully cooperate."

"I've already passed the instructions down on my side; everything will follow Mr. Shen's arrangements. Even if there are some matters we want to resolve behind closed doors, we can report them to Mr. Shen and let him make the decisions."

"I believe this is what the leadership above wishes to see—"

"Making departments truly serve the public, daring to open up departments, daring to disclose issues, daring to have transparency in authority."

...

Soruns is an insightful person and can truly talk, with quite a good level of understanding.

If these words reached the ears of the board, they might praise him greatly.

In fact, the intention of such high-level decisions is clear, as all the Executive Officers can see.

"We will certainly obey the company's arrangement and fully cooperate with Mr. Soruns during the conference phase," Yu Xingyao, who is most appreciated by Jiang Kuo, took the lead in setting an example.

Chu Ruolan, Sophia, and Ryan spoke up one after another.

Fang Beijun steadied his mind, spoke last, also earnestly.

Among everyone, Fang Beijun might feel the worst inside.

However, he still harbors a sliver of hope, thinking that even though Jiang Kuo says this, he might still keep things in check until after the meeting to deal with them...

Of course, this is just Fang Beijun's "wishful" expectation.

This brief "meeting" quickly concluded, and the five Affairs Officers simultaneously took their leave.

Next, they still have many matters to attend to.

Just as everyone was about to leave, Jiang Kuo specifically called out to Fang Beijun. After others left, he smiled and asked, "Fang, is that young man settled?"

"Yes, everything is arranged." Fang Beijun nodded without hesitation.

Jiang Kuo smiled, "Mr. Shen Peishen has arrived too, right?"

"We just met him," Fang Beijun replied.

Jiang Kuo nodded, "Alright, I know. Get busy, then. Later, I will meet with Shen Peishen and have a chat with my colleague."

Fang Beijun slowly exited.

As he was closing the door, Fang Beijun heard Jiang Kuo say to Soruns, "I really have a major matter that needs to be discussed behind closed doors. Mr. Soruns, I think it should be entrusted to you."

...

Outside the door, Fang Beijun gently closed the door, and at that moment, his heart sank.

The last shred of hope was completely shattered.

Mr. Jiang Kuo is really leaving it alone this time!

Outside, Yu Xingyao and others were waiting for Fang Beijun.

Seeing Fang Beijun come out, Yu Xingyao was the first to inquire, "Any further arrangements from the leadership?"

Fang Beijun shook his head, forcing a smile, "Just asked about some work matters, said there's an important matter to discuss with Mr. Soruns, then I came out."

Yu Xingyao responded with an "oh."

"Old Yu, let me join you at the venue to check things out; let's seize the time and go over the details again," Fang Beijun proactively suggested.

"Sure," Yu Xingyao smiled at him.

...

A major conference that involved the entire headquarters began to unfold gradually with the passage of time.

During this time, many people were focused on it, but their states of mind varied.

In the small reception room, Bai Xiaosheng and three others were prepared ahead.

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at the time and murmured, "The meeting has probably started."

"According to the agenda schedule, it should have started!" Lin Weiwei confirmed, seeing Bai Xiaosheng's calm demeanor and couldn't help but ask softly, "Aren't you nervous, Xiaosheng?"

Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

"How could I not be nervous? It's not like I'm emotionless," Bai Xiaosheng smiled, his eyes sparkling with a fighting spirit. "But I'm more expectant!"

According to Bai Xiaosheng's principles, as long as the preparation is done to the utmost, one shouldn't worry too much or think about unnecessary things.

No matter the odds, regardless of the situation's advantages or disadvantages, even if the future is unknown and the outcome is uncertain, when it's time to go into battle, just move forward without hesitation!

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't blindly optimistic, but this "combative" mood can really be infectious!

Lin Weiwei and even Lei Ying exchanged smiles, their feelings of indecision dissipating greatly.

Next comes the waiting—waiting for Shen Peishen's report to finish, waiting for the real showdown in the afternoon!

At this moment.

In the largest conference room of the Asia Business Department, headquarters staff gathered, with every seat filled, all listening to Shen Peishen—this acting Executive President of the Greater China Region—give his report.

At the center of the podium, Soruns sat smiling, listening attentively, occasionally nodding, and glancing at the documents on the table from time to time.

Beneath the documents lay his phone, partially covering the screen, yet still displaying a string of silent messages.

Regarding Shen Peishen on stage, Soruns found this person quite interesting. Based on the information Soruns gathered, Shen Peishen is quite adept, a figure to be reckoned with!

And regarding the "allegations" against him, Soruns is already aware, with some parts shared by Jiang Kuo, and others... from Wen Yan.

Frankly, Soruns personally "understands" Shen Peishen, even privately thinking that if someone's brought benefits can compensate for the damages they caused in the past, then everything is "no issue."

In Soruns' view, as long as it doesn't interfere with his interests, there's no fault in the world that can't be forgiven through benefits.

There's no eternal enemy, only eternal "interests."

Chapter 1442 - A Completely Hopeless Situation?!_3

In the Western world of politics, many people may share the same mindset as businessmen like Soruns.

"Jiang Kuo left the whole matter to me. What exactly is his attitude? Does he want me to protect this powerful deputy to strengthen the Asia region, or does he hope to crush someone who might threaten his future promotion to high office?"

Soruns savored these two judgments, and looking at Shen Peishen on stage, his smile was overflowing.

"So, which one is most beneficial to me personally?"

"Is it to protect this Shen Peishen, make him part of my network, cause a rift between him and Jiang Kuo, and let the Asia region engage in infighting so their performance can't match mine in Europe?"

"Or should I seize the opportunity to take down this Shen Peishen, causing the Asia region to lose a formidable figure and delay their future development, thereby making Jiang Kuo understand my 'good intentions' and be grateful to me?"

Soruns softly tapped his index finger on the table, inwardly "wavering", "It's so hard to choose!"

On stage, Shen Peishen saw Soruns on the chairman's platform smiling at him, nodding, with a look of full approval, which made him immensely pleased.

In contrast, Fang Beijun sitting below was constantly observing Soruns' reactions, pondering what measures he should ultimately take based on these observations.

What troubled him was that Soruns seemed to greatly appreciate Shen Peishen.

"Mr. Jiang Kuo should have already told him about the accountability and accusations Shen Peishen would face... Does Mr. Soruns really care about those?!" Fang Beijun sighed deeply in his heart. During his time at headquarters, he had also heard about Soruns, the head of the European division.

His employment style—only looking at capability, regardless of character.

Those under Soruns could never sit in the position of Executive Officer in other divisions.

But under Soruns, they could!

Therefore, the development speed of the European region has always been terrifyingly impressive.

Even when faced with unfavorable factors like geographical and financial storms, within Zhenbei Group, their division was rapidly developing.

"If even Mr. Soruns supports Shen Peishen... White Xiaosheng's chances of losing are substantial."

Fang Beijun's hand clenched into a fist under the table.

At the very least, he should now send a message to Bai Xiaosheng to prepare him.

Unfortunately, Yu Xingyao was next to him, and on the other side was Chu Ruolan.

Fang Beijun simply couldn't contact Bai Xiaosheng.

"Bai Xiaosheng, it's not that I don't want to help you, it's that fate isn't on my side!"

Fang Beijun's clenched hand relaxed despondently under the table.

Shen Peishen's report was meticulously prepared, bound into a thick volume, detailing the achievements of the Greater China Region during this phase, the problems encountered, and considerations for future development...

He went through it step by step, until noon, taking two hours to get halfway through.

Fortunately, Shen Peishen was well-prepared, so ultimately it wouldn't drag on time-wise.

The performance of the Greater China Region reached new heights again, and everyone present listened with great passion and enthusiasm, because this was something to be compared with the other five divisions, and face was very important.

Among the six major divisions, those that made it into the top three would receive rewards from headquarters, benefitting everyone involved.

That's a real benefit.

The employees present, mostly Asians or Asian descent, with many foreigners, but regardless of nationality or skin color, their sense of honor was consistent, and their desire for "benefits" stemmed from a basic human instinct.

Lunch was a simple meal held in the conference hall, and Soruns was no exception.

Fang Beijun, who never got the chance to notify Bai Xiaosheng, simply gave up on the idea during lunch, deciding against it even if he had the chance to sneak a message during a bathroom break.

In the afternoon, after another two-hour report, the atmosphere in the conference hall was no longer as enthusiastic as in the morning.

After a long session, everyone would get weary and numb.

By the end, the employees were yawning repeatedly, enduring second by second, getting through the main meeting, next would be the small meetings, which were matters for the leaders and not their concern.

Finally, Shen Peishen finished his report.

As they heard the closing, thunderous applause erupted in the hall.

Rather than a compliment on the marvelous report, it was more like everyone finally breathed a sigh of relief, celebrating the end of the ordeal.

Next, Soruns summarized in a very concise manner, just a few minutes.

When Soruns finished speaking, applause erupted again, as they had to give the leadership some face.

The administration department organized the dismissal, leaving only some key figures behind.

Soruns invited Shen Peishen over and engaged in a cheerful chat with him.

Facing someone slightly higher in rank than himself, Shen Peishen responded with a broad smile, providing a networking demonstration to Lin Yu and others watching from afar.

Noticing that almost all the extraneous people had left, Soruns smiled and said to Shen Peishen.

"The next topic still concerns Mr. Shen, unfortunate that you can't rest yet."

Shen Peishen originally planned to rest after the chat since he was getting up in years, and four hours of meeting with continuous speaking was a bit much.

But hearing Soruns say this, Shen Peishen was momentarily stunned.

No known agenda mentioned anything further requiring his involvement?

"May I know what Mr. Soruns is referring to?" Shen Peishen asked with a smile.

"You'll know soon enough." Soruns feigned mystery with a slight smile, "Oh, by the way, there's another main character in this part, whom I've already sent someone to invite..."

Soruns lifted his gaze, noticing a group of figures appearing at the entrance, he immediately smiled and pointed, "Look, they're here!"

"And an old friend of Mr. Shen!"

Shen Peishen looked over with curiosity.

His originally smiling face froze instantly upon seeing someone, his eyes narrowed, and his eyes widened.

"Bai Xiaosheng!"

Chapter 1443 - Confrontation Between Both Sides, King Meets King

At the moment he saw Bai Xiaosheng, Shen Peishen was truly shocked.

Before this, he had always felt an inexplicable sensation.

Uneasy? Not quite.

Shen Peishen just had a persistent feeling of restlessness, anticipating something was going to happen!

Therefore, he arranged for Cheng Liu to notify Bai Xiaosheng to report to the Greater China Region Headquarters, intending to keep Bai Xiaosheng within his sight.

Yet, he never could have expected Bai Xiaosheng would cross the ocean and arrive at the headquarters, appearing right before his eyes.

Shen Peishen's gaze suddenly turned stern.

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't qualified to attend this meeting at headquarters alone.

His arrival was certainly not just to observe or for sightseeing.

Earlier, the European Region's Business President Mr. Soruns mentioned that Bai Xiaosheng was also a protagonist for the next agenda, just like himself!

Shen Peishen's heart suddenly sank, with a suspicion that was too frightening, making his spine shiver and chills reach his brain.

"I knew it, Bai Xiaosheng, you are a major disaster!"

Shen Peishen looked afar at Bai Xiaosheng, angrily cursing in his heart—

"I only blame myself for sparing your talent early on, being too compassionate, then later being tied up with mundane affairs, thinking you might retreat, and thus never pursued and finished you!"

"I really should have completely wiped you out!"

Shen Peishen felt thousands of regrets and myriad frustrations.

However, at this moment, regretting is clearly of no use.

Furthermore, the European Region's Business President Mr. Soruns was right beside him, Shen needed to mind his reactions.

No matter what he thought inside, Shen Peishen always maintained composure and calm on the surface.

He even lightly uttered "Oh" and communicated with Soruns with a smile, "Isn't this Bai Xiaosheng, Senior Affairs Officer of our Greater China Region? Why is he here? A while ago, he asked me for a long leave due to personal reasons. He isn't supposed to be qualified to attend, how do you say... he overstepped? It's embarrassing, I'll definitely address it seriously later!"

Shen Peishen deliberately said this, both to test the waters and to pin a charge on Bai Xiaosheng first.

Overstepping is never listed as a major offense, but it is the least tolerable behavior in any organizational structure!

Shen Peishen assigned Bai Xiaosheng the charge of overstepping, deciding to deal with this trouble completely after today!

To eliminate future troubles!

Soruns smiled at that side, watching Bai Xiaosheng come over, but spoke to Shen Peishen, "Mr. Shen, I also obtained the upcoming agenda arrangement from Mr. Jiang Kuo. I am only responsible for watching, for listening, everything else remains unknown to me."

Soruns, an older foreigner, skillfully played Tai Chi, leaving Shen Peishen's words without any ground.

Shen Peishen could only smile and looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

With Bai Xiaosheng's arrival, another group of people noticed him, including Lin Yu and Cheng Liu.

After clearing the large conference room, only Soruns, Shen Peishen, five Executive Officers, two supposed top managers from headquarters Supervision Department, Administrative Department, Lin Yu, Cheng Liu, four or five assistants of Shen Peishen, and some necessary staff remained, totaling just over twenty people.

Bai Xiaosheng's group of three walked over, and virtually everyone noticed.

"Why him?!" Lin Yu suddenly widened his eyes, exclaiming softly, "Why is he here?!"

Cheng Liu also gaped, full of disbelief, murmuring, "Impossible! Even if he came, he shouldn't be able to get here! This is the Group Headquarters, moreover the core area of the regional office!"

Bai Xiaosheng being a Senior Affairs Officer is true, but without official duties, how could he possibly get in!

Lin Yu and Cheng Liu couldn't help but exchange glances.

Both of them weren't dull, their eyes instantly turned stern, deeply feeling the complexity within.

On the other side, Bai Xiaosheng and his group also saw everyone present, though not recognizing some, there really weren't many he knew!

Bai Xiaosheng first noticed Shen Peishen.

Their eyes met from afar, not reading any expression or emotion from one another.

Lin Yu and Cheng Liu noticed Bai Xiaosheng immediately.

Furthermore, Fang Beijun was there.

And then there was Sophia whom Bai Xiaosheng had been thinking of.

When entering a scene, one's first instinct is always to seek out those faces they have a strong impression of.

"Hey, who is that standing next to Shen Peishen!" Lin Weiwei suddenly spoke quickly in Bai Xiaosheng's ear.

Bai Xiaosheng looked over, his gaze immediately hardening, somewhat surprised.

Wasn't that the man who was drinking coffee with Wen Yan in the café yesterday, that middle-aged Caucasian, why was he standing with Shen Peishen?

What's his identity?

Bai Xiaosheng couldn't guess that in this important Asian meeting, the host was actually the European Region's Business President!

"Look over there, the man sitting in the same row as Mr. Fang Beijun, the rightmost man!" Lei Ying lowered his voice and chipped in.

Bai Xiaosheng and Lin Weiwei turned to look and froze.

That black man looked very familiar...

At the moment, he was even smiling at them.

Wasn't that Ryan, Sun Jierui's father!

Bai Xiaosheng and his group were all surprised.

Isn't this too coincidental!

Sun Jierui said his dad worked for a major financial group on Wall Street, turns out the headquarters is here!

Sun Jierui even brought them here before, yet they were unaware, this was where his father worked...

Seeing Ryan sitting alongside Fang Beijun, his position was almost obvious—

Chapter 1444 - Both Sides Confront, King Meets King_2

One of the five Executive Officers!

Amidst their gradual surprise, Bai Xiaosheng and his companions quickly composed themselves, showing no hint of emotion, and walked toward Soruns and Shen Peishen.

Bai Xiaosheng believed that the most prominent person in the room was Soruns.

After all, Soruns was like the center of attention here.

As they approached, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but think to himself, "Could this Soruns be the President of the Asian Region? But that shouldn't be the case; shouldn't it be an Asian or someone of Chinese descent? Seeing black or white faces among the Executive Officers is acceptable, but the head of the Asian Region should be an Asian face, right?"

Bai Xiaosheng wasn't entirely sure.

The information he had did not match the current situation.

Bai Xiaosheng and Soruns had met once before, but that hardly meant anything and was not something to pin hopes on.

Even with Ryan, Bai Xiaosheng and the others living at his house and having a close relationship with his son Sun Jierui, they didn't feel that they should expect any help from him.

Business is business, personal is personal.

Besides, they didn't owe them anything.

In the workplace, relationships are important, but one shouldn't overestimate them and assume that they guarantee support.

Even if Sophia didn't help them today, or even sided against them, Bai Xiaosheng wouldn't find it inappropriate.

Their positions were simply different.

Bai Xiaosheng was someone who didn't place his hopes on external forces.

Lei Ying also maintained a calm demeanor.

He too, like Bai Xiaosheng, "understood the situation."

Seeing these people, Lin Weiwei initially had a glint of delight in her eyes, but seeing the expressions of Lei Ying and Bai Xiaosheng, her little excitement was suppressed in her heart.

"Relying on external forces may allow you to ride the waves temporarily, but you can never expect to be invincible with them."

Bai Xiaosheng had advised them with this saying more than once.

Lin Weiwei had suffered because of this before, so she dared not entertain such thoughts anymore.

...

As Bai Xiaosheng and his group approached, Soruns looked at the three with a distant expression, appearing indifferent, as if he didn't recognize them at all.

It was understandable.

This was a formal occasion, involving official matters, so how could they start making connections as soon as they met?

Soon, the two parties came together.

Bai Xiaosheng and his group were brought over by someone, and naturally, the person who brought them introduced, "This is Mr. Soruns, the President of the European Region! This time, the meetings of the major business divisions were chaired by the presidents of each division on a rotating basis, and for our Asian Region, it's chaired by Mr. Soruns! He is fully responsible for all major matters during this period."

Upon hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng and the others were startled.

They hadn't received this news before!

Even if there were last-minute changes, they should have been notified before the meeting started, yet no one informed them?!

Not just Lin Weiwei or Lei Ying, but even Bai Xiaosheng restrained their surprise, and avoided looking at Fang Beijun.

Fang Beijun should have told them this news!

Even if it wasn't safe to send someone due to too many onlookers around, sending a message via phone should have been manageable!

Yet, Fang Beijun did not!

In the hearts of Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, there was a vague sense of anger and a foreboding feeling.

Fang Beijun had a poor reputation in the Greater China Region; rumors about how he ascended to the position of Senior Affairs Officer were numerous and ugly.

It was heard that in his youth, he even betrayed his own people.

However, when coming here, Bai Xiaosheng had mentioned that trusting someone is crucial, and doubting them without basis is unwise. Once analyzing that Fang Beijun could be a trustworthy ally, there should be no internal conflict among their own ranks as it would be foolish.

But now it seemed their trust might have been misplaced...

Otherwise, such important news would not have been withheld by Fang Beijun.

With the loss of the crucial support of the President of the Asian Region, Fang Beijun's actions were somewhat worrying.

With a sudden unease, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying became nervous.

"Mr. Soruns, hello." Bai Xiaosheng politely shook hands with Soruns.

Soruns was courteous yet distant.

As Bai Xiaosheng turned to Shen Peishen, Shen Peishen's face had turned somewhat displeased as he spoke in a low voice, scolding, "Bai Xiaosheng, what the heck are you doing here at headquarters? Don't you know this act is overreaching! I asked you to report back at the Greater China Region Headquarters, yet you dare defy orders. Do you even regard me, the President of the Greater China Region?!"

Shen Peishen's reprimand was both partially intentional and genuinely infuriated.

"Does Mr. Shen not know?" Bai Xiaosheng laughed.

It seemed he wasn't the only one in the dark.

"Know what?!" Shen Peishen asked with a frown.

"The next part is the accountability session regarding the issues you've committed!" Bai Xiaosheng's eyes gleamed coldly, his voice unhurried and steady.

Shen Peishen was stunned, his eyes slightly narrowed.

The next session was to investigate him?!

Actually, when Bai Xiaosheng appeared, Shen Peishen had some suspicions, but hearing the confirmed news, his mind was still shaken.

"You, to report me? Overstepping authority?!" Shen Peishen angrily exclaimed.

Bai Xiaosheng laughed.

"Sir Shen, you flatter me; I'm not so oblivious to the hierarchy. Headquarters wouldn't allow such a scenario, so there's no need to specifically remind Mr. Soruns," Bai Xiaosheng made direct eye contact with Fang Beijun and responded word by word, "I am here on behalf of Elder Xia. He is the initiator of the accountability against you, and I am merely the presenter of facts!"

Shen Peishen's eyes trembled.

It was Xiahou Qi!

Ever since he woke up, Shen Peishen had made great efforts to keep an eye on him, observing whom he met, what he said, and even whether he had made any calls, he was nearly completely aware!

Chapter 1445 - Confrontation Between Both Sides, King Meets King_3

Bai Xiaosheng was having his own rebellion and had requested a leave, but Xiahou Qi hadn't woken up yet!

"Could it be!" Shen Peishen wasn't foolish; his mind roared.

Xiahou Qi had woken up long ago!

This was all arranged in advance?!

This "truth" truly made Shen Peishen feel a chill in his heart.

All his life, he had been contending with Xiahou Qi, but was always half a step behind him.

As time went on, Shen Peishen naturally developed a fear of Xiahou Qi.

Therefore, he tried every possible method to wait for the opportunity to force Xiahou Qi to fall sick when physically exhausted and mentally stressed, so he could act.

But unexpectedly, in the end, he was still outmaneuvered?!

Not far away, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu heard Bai Xiaosheng's words and also exchanged shocked glances.

Like Shen Peishen, they were startled immediately.

"Alright, this is not the time for you two to catch up." Nearby, Soruns spoke lazily.

Bai Xiaosheng and Shen Peishen looked at him.

Soruns smiled faintly and continued, "In any case, Mr. Jiang Kuo from your Asia-Pacific region arranged for this hearing; it has to proceed. If Mr. Bai Xiaosheng's evidence is solid and the issues are real, and if the jury present feels that Mr. Shen indeed faces serious issues, I will have to take unfavourable actions and submit it to headquarters for a final decision."

Shen Peishen wanted to speak.

Soruns smiled and stopped him, saying with a laugh, "Of course, if the evidence is insufficient, or if I and the members of the jury present, including the headquarters' monitoring and administration departments, feel that it doesn't constitute a serious issue, then it will be handled lightly. After all, it's not easy to be a leader."

The last sentence was said with a smile to Shen Peishen, very amicably, as if comforting him!

Shen Peishen said nothing more, instead, showing gratitude towards Soruns, exhibiting no fear of the investigation.

This scene was observed by the five Executive Officers.

Yu Xingyao whispered to Sophia beside him, "This small issue escalated to headquarters, I wonder what the former Executive Director Xiahou Qi was thinking, why not retire peacefully instead of fighting over power."

His words clearly favored Shen Peishen and suggested that Xiahou Qi was a power-hungry figure.

"Yes, those working below tend to break some rules; strictly adhering to protocols and systems, can you lead well? I think some issues aren't big problems at all." Chu Ruolan whispered with a laugh to Ryan.

Ryan only smiled and said nothing more.

Fang Beijun no longer looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

Doesn't it show Mr. Soruns's attitude clearly? This has already been supportive of Shen Peishen, right?

After all, even if the headquarters issued a rotation order, saying it entrusts them with all major affairs during the rotation, would Mr. Soruns really dare to deal with the second-in-command of the Asia-Pacific region?

How would he explain it to Jiang Kuo, and how would he get along with the Asia-Pacific business department?

Soruns's words just now already subtly hinted at this!

Plus, among the five Executive Officers present, two were staunch supporters of Shen Peishen, and were fighting for the support of the other two.

"If I'm the only one left, even if I help Bai Xiaosheng, can we turn the tides? Can we resist so many colleagues, go against the will of the leaders?"

Fang Beijun endlessly murmured in his heart, "It's pointless, doing so is pointless, pointless..."

Lin Yu and Cheng Liu saw that the five Executive Officers, Yu Xingyao, Chu Ruolan were agitating in secret, and Fang Beijun was "one of them", plus hearing Soruns' words from the European division, their spirits were lifted.

Whether Mr. Jiang Kuo of the Asia-Pacific division was transferred or the rich network of their teacher, they held three major advantages.

Did Bai Xiaosheng really think that with a half-dead Xiahou Qi's support, he could turn things around at headquarters?!

Laughable!

Even if you have some evidence in hand, even if you've brought it to headquarters, even if you've reached the stage of a hearing, unfortunately—

It's useless!

This world is not as simple as you think, not strictly black and white, wrongdoers don't necessarily get dealt with by the company—

"You're futile in this!"

Lin Yu and Cheng Liu couldn't help but exchange a glance, a cold smile in both their eyes, mocking the smiles at Bai Xiaosheng and his group.

"Alright, it's getting late." Soruns smiled and indicated the stage to Bai Xiaosheng, "Let's begin."

Then, Soruns pointed towards the podium, smiling at Shen Peishen, "As long as no punishment is handed down, you're still the Executive Officer. Go, take your seat over there!"

Chapter 1446 - The Unstoppable Bai Xiaosheng!

Bai Xiaosheng stood on stage, facing the rostrum.

On the rostrum sat Soruns, Shen Peishen, Yu Xingyao, Sophia, Fang Beijun, Chu Ruolan, Ryan, five Executive Officers, and two unknown senior department executives. In total, nine people.

Among these people, Shen Peishen was actually the least qualified and had no reason to be sitting there.

After all, he was the one being questioned this time. What justification is there for him to sit on the rostrum, mingling with the "chief judge" and the "jury"?

However, Soruns insisted on inviting him to sit!

Soruns was clearly conveying an unusual implication to the others present, a tacit shelter for Shen Peishen!

In ancient times, officials would protect one another. Today, is Soruns so blatantly playing this game to shield his colleague?

It doesn't take deep thought to realize that Soruns is acting based on interest considerations.

Is it simply to avoid overstepping and angering Jiang Kuo, the Greater China Region President, or is it to forge friendship with Shen Peishen?

It's still unknown.

However, each possibility seems worthy of Soruns' actions.

After all, the right to judge is in his hands.

The cost of his actions is minimal, but the benefits are remarkable!

Below, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying appeared solemn, watching this scene with concern.

With the Greater China Region President absent and the European Region President providing cover, Fang Beijun's position is unclear, among the five Executive Officers, two are supporters of Shen Peishen, and earlier, they spoke openly to mislead those around...

Right now, what they face is simply a "disaster"!

Both were somewhat worried, looking at Bai Xiaosheng on stage.

In such adversity, he is the only one who can step up!

The two could not share the burden and could only quietly cheer from below.

On the other side, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu exchanged a glance, looking at Bai Xiaosheng's back with cold laughter.

Bai really thinks he can surprise them, play a game with Elder Xia, and catch them off guard, leaving them utterly defeated?

Ridiculous!

"The teacher was right, Elder Xia lacks connections, and now has lost actual power... There's no way Mr. Soruns wouldn't help us! Even if Bai brings some evidence, can dead evidence truly overwhelm so many living connections?" Lin Yu lowered his voice, speaking to Cheng Liu.

Cheng Liu, usually composed, also smirked at Lin Yu, "This is likely Xiahou Qi and Bai Xiaosheng's last resort, as long as we get through this, they'll truly be out of tricks, genuinely at a loss!"

Lin Yu nodded.

Seeing Soruns' "favoritism" on stage and the assembly of Executive Officers supporting his teacher, both corners of their mouths curled into smiles.

Does this "crisis" truly exist for their side?

"Even if it's a crisis, it's Bai Xiaosheng's crisis! He doesn't even realize what a formidable array he's facing!" Lin Yu sneered, looking at Bai Xiaosheng's back.

On stage, Bai Xiaosheng stood alone, facing the gaze of the crowd on the rostrum.

Yu Xingyao and Chu Ruolan's expressions appeared amused yet detached. Sophia was calm, with scrutinizing eyes. Fang Beijun continued to fiddle with his pen, not looking up. Ryan's gaze was steady, his expression consistently serene.

The other two senior executives had varied expressions.

All the gazes contained mockery, scrutiny, indifference, amusement...

It seemed to be lacking support.

Shen Peishen looked at Bai Xiaosheng with a lazy smirk.

Bai Xiaosheng's expression remained as calm as ever, seemingly unbothered by the unfairness nor showing any anger, just calmly organizing his possessions, calmly preparing.

Soruns glanced at Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, then looked towards Shen Peishen.

Upon realizing Soruns was looking his way, Shen Peishen shifted to a grateful expression, nodding and smiling at Soruns.

Shen Peishen believed Soruns could discern the deeper meaning behind his deliberate "humility"—

"You help me this time, next time, I'll repay you!"

If a European Region President could win the "friendship" of an soon-to-be official Greater China Region Executive Officer, what a gain it would be!

Shen Peishen believed Soruns, as a European businessman, could calculate this profit.

"May I begin, Mr. Soruns."

Bai Xiaosheng spoke, his voice clear, every word distinct, without any emotion.

Soruns, with a gentleman's demeanor, gestured an invitation.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded politely and looked at Shen Peishen, his eyes becoming as sharp as an eagle's.

"Mr. Shen Peishen, you have served in the Greater China Region for decades, being a Senior Affairs Officer for over ten years, your accomplishments during this time are obvious, the company has rewarded and promoted you without fail, but how have you treated the trust of the corporation?!"

Bai Xiaosheng's gaze was sharp as a knife, staring directly into Shen Peishen's eyes.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't care how many people supported Shen Peishen, nor how isolated he seemed.

Once face to face, he would unsheathe his sword!

Today, Bai Xiaosheng held undeniable evidence and was determined to thoroughly condemn Shen Peishen here!

If anyone dared to shelter him, regardless of who it was, Bai Xiaosheng would fight to the end.

If someone tried to downplay the matter, he'd escalate it!

"This group is mine, whoever dares mess it up, I will destroy them!" Bai Xiaosheng's domineering spirit came from within.

He wielded the identity of an heir as his ultimate trump card, with complete confidence, ready to devise countless strategies.

Upright, then upright it will be.

Chapter 1447 - The Unstoppable Bai Xiaosheng! _2

Playing dirty, he's even dirtier!

Bai Xiaosheng spoke with a commanding presence, continuing to voice his accusations—

"Shen Peishen, you've been forming cliques in the Greater China Region, engaging in favoritism, creating positions to match people, and hiring based on personal connections..."

"You've supported several provincial industry leaders, allowed them to develop their own forces, gathered some executives who should have been expelled, and placed them in crucial positions..."

"You've secretly instructed your subordinates to short all of the group's assets, established enterprises outside the group, and continuously stolen group resources relying on some insiders' support..."

"You've used your position to exclude dissenters, expelling anyone who posed a threat to you from the group..."

"You..."

Bai Xiaosheng listed twelve major crimes committed by Shen Peishen in one breath.

Shen Peishen's face turned grim and his gaze ferocious, as he unconsciously straightened his posture as he listened.

Soruns glanced at Shen Peishen, which the latter failed to notice.

It seemed all of Shen Peishen's attention was fixed on Bai Xiaosheng.

Soon, Bai Xiaosheng finished listing the charges.

Soruns laughed and said, "Bai Xiaosheng, what you mentioned are just vague accusations, do you have concrete evidence... the kind that implicates actual people."

"I do," Bai Xiaosheng affirmed.

Having said that, he looked to the side, signaling Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to start the projection.

Since entering, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying had been coordinating equipment with the staff, and everything was ready.

This large conference room featured a full-wall projection screen that could display even the tiniest details of the images with clarity.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng issue the command, Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying immediately instructed the technicians to play the prepared material.

One after another, scanned documents appeared on the massive screen.

There were testimonies with handprints and signatures, original contracts, various public and private documents, personal correspondence...

Piece by piece, evidence was presented, and Bai Xiaosheng described each methodically.

Every piece of evidence corresponded perfectly to the twelve charges.

Every piece of evidence was tied to individuals!

Every sentence by Bai Xiaosheng was thoughtfully crafted; he used the most concise and direct words to ensure clarity and understanding.

The presentation and narration lasted a full forty minutes, with the conference room utterly silent, only Bai Xiaosheng's voice echoed.

Shen Peishen's eyes widened and his pupils shrank to the extreme, unable to hide the shock in his eyes.

Many things, he hadn't anticipated, nor believed Bai Xiaosheng and his team could find!

But reality was slapping him in the face.

Not only were all the pieces found, but they were the originals!

Seeing this, Shen Peishen realized he had underestimated Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi.

The knowledge they held was more than ten times what he had imagined!

"I was careless!" Shen Peishen's mind buzzed with this thought.

As each piece of irrefutable evidence appeared, Shen Peishen's mind replayed memories like a flickering lantern.

Many memories, many things he himself had forgotten or neglected, resurfaced in his mind again!

It was as if his ugliness, his evildoings were being replayed.

Shen Peishen, in shock and anger, couldn't help but let his hands tremble slightly.

Bai Xiaosheng was stripping away his pretensions, his masks, exposing him raw and naked before everyone!

Over the years, Shen Peishen always prided himself on his acts being beneficial both publicly and privately!

He merely gathered all the pests under his control, leveraged them to climb to a high position, and then disposed of them in batches, clearing the air for the Greater China Region, while gaining more achievements for himself, paving the way to higher offices!

Was there anything wrong with this!

Shen Peishen has always convinced himself that it was only his methods that were too unorthodox, only outsiders couldn't understand!

People were dull, lacked adaptability, only he dared to be the trailblazer!

Over the years, Shen Peishen not only deceived everyone but also himself.

He even firmly believed that his actions were the right path, a righteous cause.

But now, Bai Xiaosheng was unraveling things one by one, faced with the peculiar gazes of the audience, Shen Peishen felt increasingly shocked, angry, and ashamed.

"You don't understand, none of you understand! It's not that I did wrong, but that you cannot comprehend my aspirations, my methods!"

Shen Peishen's trembling hands suddenly clenched tightly, no longer shaking, his gaze turned into stubborn defiance.

He was not Xiahou Qi; he wouldn't be defeated by mere words, absolutely not!

"Even if you have all of this, what then! Bai Xiaosheng, can you really bring me down!" Shen Peishen's eyes were sharp.

He had weathered storms for decades, how could a young man take him down, no, impossible!

As Bai Xiaosheng continued his narration, it wasn't just Shen Peishen whose emotions churned.

On the stage, Yu Xingyao's eyes also carried a hint of fear.

Many things, he knew of, and believed Shen Peishen would surely handle them well, leaving no evidence.

But now, how could every piece of evidence be in someone's hands!

How stupid was this old Shen!

And, what's with this young man!

Surely he didn't learn just yesterday of Shen Peishen's threat, why not deal with it early!

Yu Xingyao resisted the urge to look at Shen Peishen, angered and frustrated internally.

Chu Ruolan seemed equally surprised.

She stealthily glanced at Yu Xingyao and observed the expressions of others, focusing more on surreptitiously watching Soruns.

This woman was very shrewd.

Together with Yu Xingyao, she pursued profit, thinking Shen Peishen's issues were minor, or that even if they were significant, no one would gather evidence, but now, with ironclad proof presented, she had to reassess her position.

Chapter 1448 - Bai Xiaosheng Moves Forward Without Hesitation! _3

Of course, if Soruns still insists on protecting Shen Peishen, and Yu Xingyao or Fang Beijun also try their best to distort the truth, then she will follow suit as well.

Judging the situation, gauging the odds, recognizing the right timing, these three things are what Chu Ruolan is most adept at grasping.

Based on her usual way of doing things, the term "fence-sitter" is enough to describe her.

...

The more Bai Xiaosheng spoke, the drier Fang Beijun's mouth and throat became.

He intended to side with Bai Xiaosheng, but upon seeing Shen Peishen's current advantage, he couldn't stop spinning in his mind.

The more ruthlessly Bai Xiaosheng exposed the truth, the deeper the hatred with Shen Peishen grew. Once Shen Peishen survived this ordeal, the retaliation would be even more furious.

If he chose to stand with Bai Xiaosheng now, it would not only mean tearing apart his relationship with Shen Peishen but also lead to mutual destruction, a fight to the death!

"In this situation, you're still pressing forward, intending to expose Shen Peishen's indiscretions completely? Are you truly that foolish? Are you really not planning to leave yourself any way out? You're still young, already the Senior Affairs Officer for the Greater China Region, and you have a great deal of youth and a bright future ahead of you!"

When Fang Beijun looked up at Bai Xiaosheng, his expression was filled with pity, "You really aren't thinking of yourself!"

...

Sophia watched Bai Xiaosheng, not particularly interested in those so-called pieces of evidence.

She wasn't pondering Shen Peishen, but Bai Xiaosheng instead.

"In this situation, it seems even Soruns is siding with Shen Peishen, yet this Bai Xiaosheng shows not the slightest trace of fear, speaking each word with such calm steadiness, without a hint of wavering. Is it all simply due to his fervent loyalty to the group? Because of the support from an executive officer laid low by illness? No, that's incorrect. This man has other backing!" Sophia stared intently at Bai Xiaosheng, wanting to see more.

In the end, she still felt she couldn't fathom him, couldn't see through him.

However, associating this with Bai Xiaosheng's profound connection to the Wei Family, even being permitted to court Wei Xuelian by them, she kept assessing Bai Xiaosheng's real value in her mind...

Sophia even pondered whether Bai Xiaosheng might have supporters at even higher levels within the Zhenbei Group, possibly even a director on the board...

The "mysterious" Bai Xiaosheng himself made Sophia even more intrigued.

...

Ryan listened with exceptional attentiveness, eyes clear, appearing to be the simplest, most "innocent" among everyone present.

The things he thought about, perhaps no one else knew.

Apart from the five Executive Officers, those two unknown top executives of the group were also listening with particular concentration, but their faces remained expressionless.

Below the stage, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu's complexions had already noticeably changed, even swallowing frequently.

They knew a lot of things, but they hadn't expected Bai Xiaosheng to have uncovered nearly everything.

How could one person achieve this!

In their shock, they quickly realized that even though Bai Xiaosheng stood alone here, behind him were Xiahou Qi, Li Haofeng, Zheng Honghu, Xu Youruo, Chen Yucheng, those affairs officers rallied around them, and those regional industry leaders who aligned themselves with Xiahou Qi!

Bai Xiaosheng was fundamentally not fighting alone!

...

While everyone harbored their own thoughts, Bai Xiaosheng raised his voice saying, "The evidence has been fully stated. Mr. Soruns, Executive Officers, and other leaders at the headquarters, do you now believe that the person sitting alongside you on the podium has the qualifications to sit there?"

"Do you now feel whether he is qualified to become the Executive Officer for the Greater China Region and work alongside you?"

Bai Xiaosheng looked at Shen Peishen, speaking righteously with a voice like thunder, "No matter your countless schemes, know that justice may be delayed but it will never be absent!"

As Bai Xiaosheng finished speaking, a cold glint flashed in Shen Peishen's eyes.

"Mr. Soruns," Shen Peishen said loudly, "regarding these so-called pieces of evidence, I will not acknowledge them. There are many misunderstandings, even slander. I ask you to uphold fairness, and I also ask my colleagues to keep their eyes open!"

Bai Xiaosheng dreams of defeating him with this evidence presentation!

It should be known that among those present, most are supporters of his!

As long as Shen Peishen "argues back," it will allow his supporters to have a voice!

They might even be able to turn black into white!

Soruns smiled while looking at Shen Peishen, speaking in a gentle tone, "Indeed. We can't listen to just one side of the story. Mr. Shen, if you have any explanations, feel free to say so! Rest assured, I will uphold fairness!"

With Soruns' simple statement, Bai Xiaosheng's gaze sharpened as he looked at him.

Is this European Division's business president truly determined to back Shen Peishen?

Then you must be prepared to bear the consequences!

Bai Xiaosheng's gaze grew dark.

It seemed Soruns sensed Bai Xiaosheng's gaze, turned his head to meet his eyes, and actually curled his lips into a smile.

Appearing as if to provoke!

Chapter 1449 - I Believe, Shen Peishen, is Guilty!

Shen Peishen stood up from his seat, came to a stop two meters in front of Bai Xiaosheng, his eyes shadowed and fixed on him.

This young man whom he had once admired and recruited, even though he openly opposed him, caused him trouble, and even conducted extensive investigations into his people, Shen had never given up hope—

Hoping that one day, he would understand his thoughts, understand his actions, and be able to "abandon darkness for light"!

It can be said that all the sincerity that could be given, Shen Peishen had given.

But how did Bai Xiaosheng repay him!

He won't rest until he sees me dead!

"I should have eliminated you early on, then there would be no trouble today!"

These words filled Shen Peishen's eyes completely.

Bai Xiaosheng had a profound study of micro-expressions, deeply understanding "observing words and looks," and could read people's implicit language.

If Shen Peishen were to hide his feelings, Bai Xiaosheng might not be able to see through him.

But at this moment, Shen Peishen showed no disguise, and Bai Xiaosheng naturally saw through him "completely."

Then Bai Xiaosheng also used his expression to convey a sentence to Shen Peishen—

"You won't have this chance!"

Silent confrontation, but the exchange of glances was like a clash of swords.

Shen Peishen's gaze erupted with hostility but was quickly retracted.

Afterwards, Shen Peishen lightly exhaled a breath, and in front of everyone present, asked Bai Xiaosheng word by word, "Bai Xiaosheng, you've indeed brought a lot of evidence today! I hear the characters involved must count in the dozens, right?"

Bai Xiaosheng looked at him, waiting for him to continue speaking.

"Then why didn't you bring a few eyewitnesses?" Shen Peishen laughed.

His counterattack had begun!

Bai Xiaosheng's eyes narrowed slightly.

Shen Peishen continued, "You are the Senior Affairs Officer of the Greater China Region, know that in our Greater China Region, to hold an affairs officer or a provincial industry head accountable, both eyewitnesses and material evidence are required, only then can accountability be pursued, this is called—corroboration!"

"Our Greater China Region requires this, would the headquarters lack this step?"

Shen Peishen's voice intensified, "Where is your eyewitness, call them out!"

Shen Peishen, so cunning.

He anticipated that Bai Xiaosheng and his group were traveling light, stealthily, so it was absolutely impossible for them to have a group of witnesses in tow.

Otherwise, it would be impossible not to have detected even a hint of them.

Moreover, if Bai Xiaosheng did have eyewitnesses, he would have brought them all in, there's no reason for secrecy.

Having caught a weakness in the opponent, Shen Peishen then pressed hard on an attack.

"Everyone, look at these pieces of evidence!" Shen Peishen turned to the big screen, pointed with his hand, "There's all sorts of signatures, fingerprints, seals, but these things can be faked on the street, for tens of thousands, you can put together a pile of them, it's not difficult at all!"

After denying Bai Xiaosheng's evidence, Shen Peishen turned to Soruns, five Executive Officers, two headquarters executives.

He asserted, "These internal things, if fabricated by outsiders, are as hard as climbing the sky!"

"But what if an insider operates it, what if that insider controls a large number of subordinates internally?"

No need for Soruns and the others to respond, Shen Peishen waved his hand decisively and straightforwardly concluded, "Then it's as easy as turning your hand!"

It's summarized that some very effective sales lecturers have no tail sound when they speak, and their gestures are very crisp and neat.

Doing this is most stirring!

On the podium, Yu Xingyao was the first to nod, whispering to the person beside him, "Makes sense, indeed there is such a possibility."

"As jurors, we should listen to all sides, consider from various angles." Chu Ruolan also seemed to speak justly.

Below the stage, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu's eyes shone brightly.

Teacher, impressive!

Even if Bai Xiaosheng gathers all the evidence, the teacher, through decades of experiences, with just eloquence can turn the tide!

Sitting centrally on the podium, Soruns smiled and said, "Mr. Shen thinks this might be fabrication? To frame executives at the presidential level, that is very serious, do you have any basis?"

Invisibly, Soruns seemed to give Shen Peishen a step to help.

"Of course I have!" Shen Peishen immediately spoke loudly.

Then he pointed at Bai Xiaosheng, "This Bai Xiaosheng Senior Affairs Officer had many conflicts with me while I was still Senior Affairs Officer. It's well known that I have always been tolerant, yet he repeatedly exacerbated and intensified the situation! On this point, I can find dozens, hundreds of eyewitnesses!"

Although Shen Peishen's influence in the Greater China Region has been greatly weakened, the lean camel being larger than a horse, and if he uses his full strength, he still has a group of people available.

Finding some so-called "eyewitnesses," is not difficult.

"Oh? So it's been a long-standing discord between you two? That's quite odd, supposedly even though you are colleagues, you are a senior, he is a junior, shouldn't be this way." Soruns seemed a bit curious, smiling.

Bai Xiaosheng silently looked at Shen Peishen, not speaking.

Shen Peishen smirked looking at Bai Xiaosheng, "Perhaps Mr. Soruns does not know! Our Bai Xiaosheng Senior Affairs Officer is quite extraordinary! He and Xiahou Qi are profoundly connected, even saved Mr. Xia's life!"

Shen Peishen began to steer attention to Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi.

"Afterwards, Mr. Xiahou Qi specifically created a position for Bai Xiaosheng, called the New-type Affairs Officer! Though an affairs officer, he possesses some of the Senior Affairs Officer's authority! This has never happened before!"

"Is it or isn't it!" Shen Peishen shouted.

Bai Xiaosheng remained silent.

"I've heard of this!" Yu Xingyao spoke again at the right time, affirming Shen Peishen's statements.

Chapter 1450 - I Believe, Shen Peishen, is Guilty!_2

As the Executive Officer, his testimony obviously carries significant weight.

Soruns looked at Bai Xiaosheng with a playful expression.

"Relying on Mr. Xiahou Qi's favor, this Bai Xiaosheng acts arrogantly and recklessly, having clashed with me multiple times and been reprimanded. Therefore, he harbors resentment. " Shen Peishen looked at Bai Xiaosheng with a cold gaze, "After Mr. Xiahou Qi fell ill, I became the acting president. Yet, Bai Xiaosheng continued his audacious behavior, so I sternly warned him. And he had the audacity to lose his temper with me, the acting president, in front of everyone and even slacked off by giving himself a long holiday!"

"Is it true or not, Bai Xiaosheng!" Shen Peishen shouted again.

The most powerful lies in this world often mix truth and falsehood, making them indistinguishable.

It can force the parties involved to admit the truthful parts, and thereby, inadvertently admit the false parts as well.

Bai Xiaosheng just looked at Shen Peishen without responding.

"Got nothing to say, huh, Bai Xiaosheng!" Shen Peishen sneered.

Bai Xiaosheng, do you think staying silent will prove your innocence? What a joke!

Shen Peishen scoffed internally.

"I have personally decided to dismiss Bai Xiaosheng from the Senior Affairs Officer position. I believe he got wind of this decision, hence he meticulously prepared some false evidence and came to headquarters to make a big gamble! To frame me!"

"Such a mind deserves condemnation!"

Shen Peishen declared loudly, "Mr. Xiahou Qi is getting on in years, and this severe illness of his led doctors to indicate that his mind may be affected, even possibly leading to dementia. I believe this Bai Xiaosheng must have manipulated Mr. Xia to say I usurped Mr. Xia's power, prompting Mr. Xia to submit his review of me to the group."

Shen Peishen, appearing ever so sincere, patted his chest and said, "However, I don't blame Mr. Xia, in fact, I feel that if his health improves significantly, I am willing to return the Greater China Region presidency back to him!"

Shen Peishen's last statement was so forthright and earnest, it was admirable.

Lin Weiwei couldn't help but glance sidelong.

This old guy should really be awarded a trophy—what an actor!

This performance must be worth tens of millions!

"I've already laid out the steps necessary, although there are many issues within, but Soruns has his heart set on me, Yu Xingyao, Chu Ruolan, and Fang Beijun are on my side. As long as they follow my steps quietly, everything will be fine!" Shen Peishen mused to himself.

This was never a debate meeting; it was not about evidence but about human relationships and interests beyond evidence!

Shen Peishen glanced at Bai Xiaosheng.

In this regard, Bai Xiaosheng was far behind!

"Tsk tsk." Yu Xingyao was already tutting, shaking his head at Bai Xiaosheng.

He seemed to agree with Shen Peishen and found this young man's behavior utterly disgraceful.

The other Executive Officers remained silent.

Chu Ruolan merely stole glances at Soruns over there.

Statements that seemed fair enough to express safely were still determined by the leader's stance.

This way, they wouldn't end up on the wrong team.

In the audience, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu listened with great enjoyment, wishing they could applaud.

The teacher is impressive!

Instantly rendered that Bai speechless!

On the other hand, Lin Weiwei was furious, completely incensed by Shen Peishen's shamelessness.

Lei Ying, however, gazed at Bai Xiaosheng with calm appreciation in his eyes.

Bai Xiaosheng remained silent throughout, allowing the other side to argue, to slander, no matter how infuriating their words, he maintained his composure.

"In a master game, maintaining your composure is the key to winning." Lei Ying silently praised.

As for the current situation, he wasn't worried at all.

Soruns smiled and looked at Bai Xiaosheng, "Bai Xiaosheng, do you have anything to say in response to Mr. Shen Peishen's counter-accusation."

Shen Peishen's counterattack was steady, accurate, ruthless, seasoned, and tricky.

However, in Soruns' view, this young man named Bai Xiaosheng remained immovable, neither arguing nor defending, calmly composed, quite extraordinary.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded and looked at Shen Peishen.

He slowly began to speak, "I just heard Mr. Shen Peishen's words, every word dripping with anger, each sentence ringing to the skies. So, it seems I, Bai Xiaosheng, am such a person, daring to bully my superior, leaving my superior helpless. I had no idea I was so powerful! So overbearing!"

Oftentimes, the most dangerous comes when sarcasm is delivered in deadpan.

Because one sentence can easily shift the entire atmosphere.

With just one self-deprecating remark, Bai Xiaosheng collapsed the domineering image Shen Peishen had painted of him.

As Shen Peishen opened his mouth to speak, Bai Xiaosheng didn't give him the chance, "The acting president Shen Peishen asked why I didn't bring witnesses?"

"Fine, since you want them, I will let them meet you now." Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

Shen Peishen froze and couldn't help but look towards the door.

Not only him, but Soruns and others on the dais were also taken aback, involuntarily shifting their gaze toward the door.

Yu Xingyao felt a bit nervous.

Below, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu were also startled.

Did Bai Xiaosheng really bring those people here?

That's impossible!

If so many people disappeared from their sight simultaneously, they wouldn't be unaware!

Seeing the door remaining still, Lin Yu and Cheng Liu couldn't help but exchange glances.

Then, both of them felt Bai Xiaosheng was deliberately bluffing.

What a joke, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't have brought many people, that would be too ostentatious!

Even if he brought three or five, what good would that do!

The teacher could just say, "They've been bribed by Bai Xiaosheng!"

The two suddenly felt relieved.

Just when everyone was staring intently at the door, still no one came in, Bai Xiaosheng coughed heavily.
