

Two Trillion 1511

Chapter 1511 - Our New President Is a Devil!

The dinner organized by Cheng Dongyu started twenty minutes later than originally planned, but fortunately, it still got underway.

Everyone sat around the table, the people were all present, and even one extra person was there.

At this banquet, the main host was Cheng Dongyu, and the main guest was naturally Bai Xiaosheng.

It was precisely due to this main guest who appeared out of thin air—the new president Bai Xiaosheng—that the atmosphere at the entire banquet felt strange, with a subtle sense of awkwardness.

After all, the original agenda of this banquet was to discuss how to deal with Bai Xiaosheng.

And now, here he was.

Moreover, he had come with the invited "guest."

So, that agenda became void.

What should be said next?

Sun Wuchen organized the serving of drinks and dishes, throughout the entire process, he dared not look at Cheng Dongyu, afraid of the awkwardness, nor did he dare look at Bai Xiaosheng, truly afraid.

He had long heard how young this new president was and how formidable his tactics were, but Sun Wuchen had once been dismissive.

How formidable could a young man be?

He must have just had a stroke of luck, or he has a strong background, with someone backing him!

This time, Sun Wuchen saw it with his own eyes.

Here they were, having just privately set up a meeting, and not only did he already know, but he also gathered all the guests in one place!

It's hard to say, but it seems everyone might have already taken a stand with the other side, just thinking about these tactics made Sun Wuchen feel a chill down his spine.

Is this young man a monster!

Indeed, Shen Peishen fell by his hand, so he is indeed a monster!

This kind of monster in a high position of power, someone of my status should have the good sense to steer clear!

Having served the drinks and dishes, Sun Wuchen knew he had no business staying, so he directly exited the room, thoughtfully closing the door behind him, completely leaving Cheng Dongyu, whom he served, to fend for himself.

Cheng Dongyu watched helplessly as his only confidant left, and at the moment the door closed, his heart turned dark.

However, as the host, he really couldn't remain silent.

"Well, we all came to the headquarters half a month ago and haven't gathered in a while, so I decided to host and invite everyone over for a drink and reminiscence. Also, the conference at the headquarters today was a complete success, which makes us happy."

Cheng Dongyu forced a smile, playing the host and saying some polite words.

Then he continued, "I am very, very happy that Mr. Bai could come to attend! Now, let's invite Mr. Bai to say a few words!"

The well-intentioned words were in tatters as Cheng Dongyu said them.

When inviting Bai Xiaosheng to speak, Cheng Dongyu was truly unwilling from the bottom of his heart.

Unfortunately, the rule has been passed down at the drinking table for thousands of years.

Bai Xiaosheng was in a high position of power, he was the leader, and next, it was his turn to speak.

Cheng Dongyu grudgingly accepted it.

Furthermore, at this point, Cheng Dongyu really had nothing to say, his heart full of panic, unclear about the situation in front of him.

Did these people present really all "betray" him?

Was he really left alone?

Cheng Dongyu feared it was so, and feared even more that it wasn't, fearing that everyone was just ensnared by Bai Xiaosheng and now Bai Xiaosheng was also setting a trap for him.

Cheng Dongyu felt he couldn't lose his composure.

So he decided to let Bai Xiaosheng start the conversation and then assess the situation.

Moreover, as he spoke, Cheng Dongyu's gaze slid over everyone's face.

He wanted to discern something.

Even if the others were forced to switch sides and become traitors, there should be some guilt, some hint.

To Cheng Dongyu's great disappointment, the people present, who could previously be called allies, now all looked at Bai Xiaosheng with respectfully smiling faces, sincerely waiting to listen to the leader's speech.

Cheng Dongyu smiled placidly on the surface but cursed inwardly, "You shameless traitors, have you really betrayed me? And with such a clear conscience, without even looking at me! Does your conscience not ache!"

Despite cursing in his heart, his expression remained unchanged, and he certainly wouldn't openly fall out with Bai Xiaosheng at that moment.

With his temperament, he would never oppose Bai Xiaosheng until the last moment, until the absolute breaking point, he was no longer at an age of hot-bloodedness or recklessness.

Doing so would provide no benefit, other than venting and releasing the last breath of anger.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and glanced at everyone present, his gaze also swept over Cheng Dongyu, and he gently said, "It's rare to see our Mr. Cheng so concerned about fellow colleagues and the development of the headquarters. Indeed, today's meeting yielded quite an achievement, it's worth celebrating, particularly seeing everyone have gains today, it must have made them happy, it's worth having a drink."

Bai Xiaosheng got the conversation started.

Zhang Chengxi and the others immediately brimmed with smiles and raised their glasses.

"We must thank Mr. Bai, your grand strategic vision, your magnanimity, truly make us look at you in a new light!"

"Yes, Mr. Bai, your decisiveness is extraordinary, removing long-lasting issues, and we admire you greatly!"

"The Greater China Region is sure to welcome a new period of rapid development, and we are willing to make every effort to cooperate with Mr. Bai and forge ahead together!"

Those present, who typically counted as big leaders, were cultured individuals, each better at speaking than the last.

These words, which Cheng Dongyu often said in the past, now left him in a daze.

He was even more confused about what was going on.

Bai Xiaosheng raised his glass, and everyone else raised their glasses.

Cheng Dongyu was still in a daze, upon seeing Bai Xiaosheng and the others look at him, he snapped out of it, quickly smiled and raised his glass, with a mind clouded with confusion, joined everyone in clinking glasses.

When drinking this bottle of thousand-coin liquor, it entirely lacked its usual rich and enduring aroma, just felt intensely sharp.

It seems any delicacy requires the right frame of mind, and with a poor state of mind, even the most exquisite foods taste like ash.

Chapter 1512 - Our New President is a Devil! _2

After Bai Xiaosheng's simple speech, he smiled and invited everyone to eat, and the group eagerly toasted the new president. They were cautious not to urge him to drink too much, but they themselves drank quite a lot, instantly heating up the atmosphere at the table.

Cheng Dongyu felt like an outsider, watching the crowd bond with the leader, and his confidence dwindled further.

Not only that, he felt increasingly isolated, sensing that Bai Xiaosheng had the ability to garner unanimous support.

He even considered that if Bai Xiaosheng encouraged others to report him, they might do so without hesitation!

This notion was undoubtedly terrifying.

While others grew warmer with the alcohol, Cheng Dongyu's heart grew colder with each sip, sending chills down his spine.

"It's crazy! Have these people really defected to him completely? What kind of bewitching congee has Bai Xiaosheng fed them?"

Cheng Dongyu's mind was in chaos.

"Could it be that Mr. Bai promised to absolve them of responsibility for past deeds?!"

No wonder he once partnered with Shen Peishen. Cheng Dongyu quickly grasped the crux of the matter.

"Would Bai Xiaosheng waive their issues without cause? Surely, they have to earn merit somehow!" Cheng Dongyu pondered secretly.

Just thinking about this, a chilling realization struck Cheng Dongyu—the ominous possibility—

"Could it be that they're treating reporting me as their merit to earn immunity?"

Cheng Dongyu shivered with fear.

Fear arises from wild thinking, and the more he thought, the more frightened he became, his heart shrinking with worry.

Bai Xiaosheng continued drinking and enjoying with everyone, while Cheng Dongyu felt as if he were sitting on pins and needles, enduring unbearable suspense.

Several times, he attempted to interject, to probe. Yet, each attempt was subtly or overtly ignored by Bai Xiaosheng.

Moreover, facing so many people, he truly struggled to find the right words.

Cheng Dongyu was truly at a loss, feeling increasingly restless.

This torment felt like purgatory, leaving him wondering when it would end.

At this moment, the private room door was gently knocked, and upon Bai Xiaosheng's prompt, Cheng Dongyu hastily called, "Enter!"

The door opened, and several people entered from outside.

Leading them was a woman, who smiled and said, "It's lively here, Mr. Bai! May we join and have a drink as well?"

Feng Jiayao!

Cheng Dongyu's eyes narrowed.

The newcomers included Feng Jiayao!

Not only her, but she was accompanied by two Senior Affairs Officers—the "allies" Cheng Dongyu planned to contact next!

Feng Jiayao and the others looked at Bai Xiaosheng with eyes full of respect, awe, and smiles, just like everyone else at the table.

Cheng Dongyu instantly felt as if plunged into icy waters.

Of the ten Senior Affairs Officers and fourteen regional-level leaders, it seemed all but him were under Bai Xiaosheng's influence!

He alone was isolated!

Cheng Dongyu stared blankly as Feng Jiayao and her company took seats, watched them enjoy drinks and conversations with Bai Xiaosheng, feeling waves of despair.

After several rounds of wine and dishes, everyone was in high spirits, with flushed faces and fulfilled smiles, appearing to bond with the new leader.

Bai Xiaosheng put down his wine glass and smiled at everyone, saying, "That should be enough, folks. You all have work tomorrow, so best head back and rest early."

The young president spoke, and it was just that single sentence.

Instantly everyone began to rise and bid farewell, with no lingering or wasted words.

Within less than five minutes, all were gone.

As Feng Jiayao left, she exchanged a meaningful glance with Zhang Chengxi outside the door, glancing back at the room before leaving.

Sun Wuchen at the door was continuously bidding farewells.

After most guests had left, Sun Wuchen slipped into the room, hoping to chat with Cheng Dongyu.

Unexpectedly, upon seeing only Bai Xiaosheng and Cheng Dongyu remaining, he was startled and quickly withdrew, even ensuring the door was properly closed.

Sun Wuchen was no fool.

He suspected that what followed inside would be the real business!

Bai Xiaosheng pulled out a chair, taking a seat a little farther away, smiling at Cheng Dongyu with a meaningful grin.

Cheng Dongyu wanted to smile, but his facial muscles twitched, finding it impossible to do so.

"Mr. Bai, what exactly do you want from today?"

In the end, Cheng Dongyu bit the bullet and directly confronted the issue.

First, there were no outsiders here, leaving no concerns.

Secondly, enduring such torment was worse than a straightforward confrontation!

By now, Cheng Dongyu viewed Bai Xiaosheng as though staring at a demon.

The opponent arrived, clearly "saying nothing" and "doing nothing," yet inducing such chilling incitement and fiery torment.

Shen Peishen might be cunning, scheming every bit, but Cheng Dongyu didn't feel he was as formidable as this young man.

That Bai Xiaosheng truly understood human nature, disguising intentions, plunging him into deep waters and raging flames.

"Are you waiting for me to say something, or do you have anything you want to say to me?" Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

This carried some undertone of "confess voluntarily, don't wait for me to speak" and "frankness leads to lenience, resistance invites severity."

Cheng Dongyu felt as though pressed under an invisible giant hand, hard to breathe. Usually, having spent many years in a high position, he had matured mentally as a middle-aged man, unlikely to experience such emotional fluctuations. Yet now, he was precisely seized by these emotions.

"Mr. Bai, since Elder Xia was in charge, I've consistently served diligently, and over the years I've climbed laboriously from the grassroots, achieving today's status through accolades. My region ranks among the top in terms of production value. What do I need to say, I..." Cheng Dongyu began to speak emotionally.

"Don't play the emotional card with me. I'm young and haven't gone through what you've described. I can't relate to it." Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

Chapter 1513 - Our New President Is a Devil! _3

Cheng Dongyu swallowed his saliva, forcing a smile, "I'm not trying to flaunt my credentials with you, just speaking from the heart for a moment..."

"During my time in power, there might have been some moments where I didn't strictly adhere to company procedures..."

Even Cheng Dongyu himself didn't know why he was saying these things to the young man in front of him.

As he saw the other party smiling at him, those profound black eyes seemed to see through a person's inner heart.

The mindset he had honed over the years, now seemed completely transparent.

Cheng Dongyu was startled, and suddenly he couldn't continue.

After a moment of silence, Cheng Dongyu unexpectedly muttered, "I want to be a good person."

Since Feng Jiayao and Zhang Chengxi had been forgiven by Bai Xiaosheng, why couldn't he be as well?

Bai Xiaosheng burst into hearty laughter, as if he had heard something amusing.

"Cheng Dongyu, we are sitting here, not reciting movie lines, and talking about being a good person—at your age and position, is that interesting to say?"

Bai Xiaosheng's response, calling him by name, made Cheng Dongyu's face pale.

This implied that the other party indeed planned to deal with him, to make an example of him to warn the entire Greater China Region!

"Shen Peishen is already in prison, so are Shang Dadong and Zhao Xinyu, starting from ten years. They were not even the ones who truly controlled the company. So, how many years do you think you would face if the corporation pressed charges against you?" Bai Xiaosheng's smile faded, as he coldly asked.

Cheng Dongyu felt as if his heart was stabbed by a steel needle, and he was suddenly stunned, looking at Bai Xiaosheng in terror.

His psychological defense was not weak, but it had been gradually broken down by Bai Xiaosheng since the beginning of the banquet.

Even the most mature and experienced person just has several layers of shells over their heart, once cracked, inside lies the same fragile and tender soul.

Cheng Dongyu's hands started shaking uncontrollably.

"I have all your evidence, plentiful, provided by the senior affairs officers, oh, and also those regional leaders you were so intimately in contact with in the past." Bai Xiaosheng said unhurriedly, smiling, "Moreover, they said they could testify in court..."

Testimonies and material evidence fully substantiated!

Not only were Cheng Dongyu's hands trembling, but his body also started to shake.

"Mr. Bai, Mr. Bai!" Cheng Dongyu was completely scared, pleading with Bai Xiaosheng, "Please don't do this, I can make amends! I'm willing to atone for my crimes! I beg you to give me this opportunity, Mr. Bai!"

Cheng Dongyu was truly afraid that Bai Xiaosheng would coldly smile back, delivering the television line—if repentance was enough, then what would we need the police for?

As a result, Cheng Dongyu saw Bai Xiaosheng smile at him, warmly.

"Alright, I'll give you a chance."

Cheng Dongyu was instantly bewildered, staring at Bai Xiaosheng in a daze, finding it hard to believe what he had just heard.

Bai Xiaosheng said he was giving him a chance?

Once the human brain gets short-circuited, it loses rationality and even all judgment ability.

Interestingly, a small trigger, even just a phrase or two, can reboot a short-circuited brain.

Cheng Dongyu suddenly came to his senses.

With all solid evidence in Bai Xiaosheng's hands, he could legally proceed, turning him directly into a case, did he still need to go through the trouble of having a meal with him to show his "muscles"?

From the start, Bai Xiaosheng never intended to act against him but to conquer him, recruiting him to serve!

Just think, if Cheng Dongyu wholeheartedly joined the reform, it would certainly be supreme assistance!

At the very least, replacing him would cause fluctuations in the Greater China Region's strongest production area!

Cheng Dongyu instantly understood but dared not be presumptuous.

He was very clear, what Bai Xiaosheng valued was not the capital that allowed him to be arrogant. If Bai Xiaosheng felt he wouldn't change his ways, he might indeed become a case.

After all, there were plenty of candidates for the regional leader replacements!

Cheng Dongyu figured it out, but he could only swallow his pride, not daring to show the slightest bit of discontent.

Facing this young man Bai Xiaosheng, he—the seasoned middle-aged man—behaved as obediently as a school child.

"Next, I want you to serve the Greater China Region. For every loss you've caused, repay it tenfold. I'll keep track of it. If you can't do it, or if you try any tricks midway, prepare yourself to wash up and be ready for prison." Bai Xiaosheng stood up, walked past Cheng Dongyu expressionlessly, and patted his shoulder, "If you do well enough, I'll reward you just the same as others!"

Cheng Dongyu's eyes flickered.

"Carrot and stick," the method Bai Xiaosheng used was merely the simplest classic management theory.

Yet, it was so divinely effective!

Cheng Dongyu's face was dazed, watching Bai Xiaosheng walk to the door, yet not opening it to leave.

It seemed he was waiting for something.

"Yes! Mr. Bai, rest assured! I will be diligent and strive to redeem my faults, and I will earn what I deserve!" Cheng Dongyu said reverently.

Only then did Bai Xiaosheng seem satisfied, opening the door to leave.

Cheng Dongyu stared blankly at the doorway.

After a while, his scheming assistant Sun Wuchen cautiously entered the room.

"Mr. Cheng?"

Seeing Cheng Dongyu's dazed expression, Sun Wuchen quickly probed with a question.

It took a long time for Cheng Dongyu to shift his gaze towards Sun Wuchen, and finally, through clenched teeth, he squeezed out a sentence.

"Our new president is a devil!"

Chapter 1514 - Who Supports, Who Opposes

Two days later, the Greater China Region Headquarters issued a notice that the meeting between Bai Xiaosheng and the fifteen regional directors was scheduled for 2 PM that afternoon, as planned.

Regarding the banquet organized by Cheng Dongyu that Bai Xiaosheng attended and the events that followed, Bai Xiaosheng only informed Xiahou Qi and did not notify Li Haofeng and others.

Firstly, Li Haofeng and the others have indeed been extremely busy over the past two days, especially given the huge commotion in the Affairs Department, which they have to closely monitor. They are so busy that they wish they could work nonstop, even sleeping in their clothes.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't want to disturb them.

Moreover, intimidating Cheng Dongyu and others to bring them under his control, in Bai Xiaosheng's view, wasn't a feat worth bragging about and didn't need to be widely known.

From this perspective, Bai Xiaosheng has always been a traditional Huaxia person, modest and reserved.

Xiahou Qi had already known Bai Xiaosheng's intentions before and informed him of the results, saying it was appropriate both emotionally and logically.

The next day, upon learning that Bai Xiaosheng successfully subdued Cheng Dongyu and tamed Zhang Chengxi and his group, Sir Xiahou Qi was extremely delighted, laughing heartily and giving a thumbs up. Although he had said that regional directors would be easier to handle than Senior Affairs Officers, he hadn't expected it to be so easy.

Just from this point, Bai Xiaosheng truly is a person endowed with great talent and luck!

Perhaps he is destined to become the true full-fledged president of the Greater China Region and lead its rise!

Upon hearing the news, Xiahou Qi invited Bai Xiaosheng for a meal that same day and even uncharacteristically drank a few more cups of wine, despite everyone's dissuasion.

The old man was genuinely happy.

And today, the upcoming meeting between Bai Xiaosheng and the regional directors has attracted a lot of attention before it even starts.

It's often said that a new official brings three fires, but this new president Bai Xiaosheng seems to ignite a fire with every step he takes. In just a week, he has calmly and methodically set the entire Affairs Department ablaze.

Now, is Bai Xiaosheng going to carry out a fiery alchemy among the real power holders below? No one can tell.

Many believe that today's meeting will undoubtedly break some big news!

"I guess one or two regional directors might be dismissed!"

"With the wrist of our young new president, who can say for sure?"

"That can't be! Regional directors are different from Senior Affairs Officers; they hold real power!"

"That's ridiculous! Just because they hold real power? Senior Affairs Officers can be investigated; why can't they?"

"It's not like that. Each of them controls group industries in several provinces of the mainland, or an Asian country, and they are all very complicated. If they're easily dismissed, leading to leaderless chaos below, do you think it will fall into disorder?"

"Well, that does seem... true."

"So what! If you think so, do those regional directors think that way too! Shouldn't they feel emboldened, but I think our President Bai won't have any reservations! With his previous actions, tell me, who expected them?"

"Indeed!"

"Anyway, I'm getting more and more eager for this meeting!"

Many people, with many voices of discussion, filled every corner of the headquarters, with countless eyes eagerly watching the start of the meeting.

Not only were outsiders paying attention, but the participants were also equally focused.

The meeting was at 2 in the afternoon, and by 1 o'clock, some regional directors had already arrived at the venue.

The first to arrive were two men in their fifties.

One was slightly plump, unsmiling, wearing thick glasses, and frowned slightly while looking at people. His name was Zhang Yude.

The other was thinner, emanating an academic aura, more like a scholar than a businessman, resembling a university lecturer. Although only fifty, his hair was already gray, having started graying in his thirties, back when he could still be called a prematurely gray person. His name was Chen Shuangyun.

These two arrived first at the venue and sat down, conversing in low voices.

They were regional directors who supported Xiahou Qi and Li Haofeng, and naturally, they now supported Bai Xiaosheng.

"Today's meeting probably won't be peaceful! If our new president stirs things up again, the group led by Cheng Dongyu might cause a scene!" Zhang Yude said in a low voice, furrowing his brow.

"Yes, I'm also worried about this!" Chen Shuangyun replied with a slight hint of seriousness.

Then, Chen Shuangyun continued, "Yesterday, I wanted to ask Elder Xia if there was anything we needed to coordinate on. But Elder Xia wasn't around; I heard he drank a little and wasn't feeling well, so he went for a check-up."

At this point, Chen Shuangyun's face showed a bit of amusement mixed with helplessness.

The old man, obviously unwell, yet still drank alcohol.

Zhang Yude also let out a muffled sigh. If he hadn't refrained from criticizing the old leadership, he might have scolded the old man twice.

"I also tried to find out from Li Haofeng and Zheng Honghu, but they were too busy. When they finally had time, they told me they were also not informed and said if any assistance was needed, President Bai Xiaosheng would notify us, so we should be at ease." Zhang Yude couldn't help but complain, "But up until now, that President Bai hasn't informed us of anything. If things get messy today, how are we supposed to help?"

Chen Shuangyun also sighed long and hard.

Cheng Dongyu, well, he's truly not one to be trifled with!

He and Shen Peishen are the two hard rocks of the Greater China Region. He has several peers supporting him, and his jurisdiction is a prosperous area that can't be easily touched. Even Xiahou Qi is sometimes at a loss with him.

"Even so, we have to help! We chose this stance ourselves!" Chen Shuangyun said helplessly.

Chapter 1515 - Who Supports, Who Opposes_2

Both of them harbored some complaints towards Bai Xiaosheng, the young president.

As they were talking, someone walked in, and the two stopped their quiet discussion.

The newcomer smiled and nodded at them, and they nodded back.

The person found a seat to sit down, his gaze fell on the main seat of the conference, his eyes meaningful.

"Bai Xiaosheng, who would have thought you became our new president, and you've made quite a splash with your reforms, even turning the headquarters affairs upside down." The person sighed deeply, "But, if you use the same methods against some of the people present today, you might not gain anything!"

"However, there has been some history between us before. Now that you're the new president, should Xu Yuncong be getting more face and convenience hereafter?"

This person was Xu Yuncong.

When Bai Xiaosheng was in Gandong Province, he had once asked Kevin to pass a message, warning him that Shen Peishen's people might be plotting against his position.

There was some connection between them.

However, Xu Yuncong did not plan to support Bai Xiaosheng; he belonged to the neutral camp, and his stance depended on the circumstances.

After Xu Yuncong, regional leaders arrived one after another.

The last to come were Cheng Dongyu and his group.

While others came in threes and twos, Cheng Dongyu came in a group, with Zhang Chengxi and others flanking him, occasionally whispering to each other.

Zhang Yude and Chen Shuangyun exchanged a glance discreetly.

To them, this group entry was an act of provocation!

This Cheng Dongyu, as reckless as ever, had one-third of the people flocking around him!

Tough to deal with!

Zhang Yude and Chen Shuangyun's eyes narrowed slightly.

Even the neutral Xu Yuncong group focused intently, pondering.

In their view, Bai Xiaosheng might be in for some bad luck today!

They must be cautious, unable to go against Cheng Dongyu's people, nor appear to be siding with them to the new president!

This balance is difficult to maintain.

For now, they can only watch and wait.

The fifteen regional leaders took their places, including Cheng Dongyu, and remained silent, at most whispering to those beside them.

Cheng Dongyu currently low-key, Zhang Yude and others saw this as a deliberate modesty, building up for something later.

Once everyone was there, not long after, Bai Xiaosheng walked in.

He had a smile on his face, his steps steady and strong, followed by Lin Weiwei, Lei Ying, and others.

He seemed in a good mood, with a relaxed expression.

Zhang Yude and Chen Shuangyun frowned slightly, sighing inwardly.

Though reluctant to criticize, this young new president indeed had immense confidence!

Perhaps the success of the past couple of days had made him complacent, thinking he could handle today's situation.

Zhang Yude and Chen Shuangyun exchanged a helpless glance.

Today, possibly, their young president might face some setbacks!

And they can only choose to support!

Take each step as it comes, if at a loss, seek Elder Xia to mediate later!

Xu Yuncong also focused on Bai Xiaosheng, thinking quickly, anticipating from past information Bai Xiaosheng's temperament, pondering how to speak and act later without offending him.

But no matter what, Xu Yuncong had no intention of messing with Cheng Dongyu!

"Everyone's quite early." Bai Xiaosheng smiled and greeted everyone, sat in his seat, looked up and laughed, "Then our meeting today, let's make it quick, start early and end early, cut down on the lengthy segments, everyone can go home sooner. Headquarters might be nice, but after all, it's a business trip away from home for everyone."

Bai Xiaosheng was still in the mood to joke.

Everyone chuckled, giving face to the new president.

But Zhang Yude and others inwardly smiled bitterly.

End early?

If it drags into a stalemate and doesn't end, they would be thankful!

"Mr. Xiaosheng, you're absolutely right!" Cheng Dongyu nodded with a smile from that side.

This smile and agreement immediately made Zhang Yude and others wary.

This is definitely a knife hidden in a smile!

A needle concealed in soft cotton!

Cheng Dongyu was speaking ironically!

Bai Xiaosheng gave Cheng Dongyu a smile, then turned to the crowd and said, "Next, we'll start the first topic — restructuring the industrial map, which means the subsidiary companies under everyone will no longer operate independently but will undergo unified research, planning, and arrangement by headquarters. We will focus on creating big brands, making big brands!"

Bai Xiaosheng's opening speech indeed surprised everyone present.

Under these three "unifications," some regions would undoubtedly have to make sacrifices for the greater picture!

Frankly speaking, many were unwilling.

If a portion of their advantageous industries was sacrificed in their jurisdiction, how would they manage their annual performance, not to mention the personal interests involved.

"How can such a significant issue be the first on the agenda? Isn't this immediately provoking Cheng Dongyu's opposition? It's likely even the neutrals might side with them!"

Zhang Yude's eyes narrowed suddenly, his brows furrowed even deeper.

Chen Shuangyun couldn't help but shake his head in regret.

If Cheng Dongyu and his group clashed, this meeting might not proceed on any topic!

The typical neutral side, Xu Yuncong, was also startled.

These people collectively paid attention to Cheng Dongyu's reaction.

Cheng Dongyu was expressionless?

Is it a facade or calm before the storm!

Why were their people silent collectively, was this a silent protest?!

Chapter 1516 - Who Supports, Who Opposes_3

The atmosphere suddenly became a bit delicate.

Bai Xiaosheng seemed completely unaware, gesturing for Lin Weiwei to distribute the printed documents to everyone.

These were the plans for the Greater China Region's industrial planning blueprint.

These were not made blindly, but were produced with the big data provided by Zunbai Zhisheng Data Agency. Bai Xiaosheng organized a large number of professional elites to rush them out within a week.

Regarding the cooperation between the Greater China Region and Zunbai Zhisheng, Bai Xiaosheng facilitated the signing of a strategic cooperation plan between the two, resulting in a win-win situation.

Actually, this cooperation greatly benefited Zunbai Zhisheng.

It's not that Bai Xiaosheng had selfish intentions, after all, both belong to him alone. In his view, it was just like moving money from the left pocket to the right pocket, supporting prosperity first and later wealth.

At this moment, holding the industrial plan, Cheng Dongyu and his team pretended to read it seriously.

Mr. Zhang and others couldn't concentrate, glancing over it briefly and secretly watching the opposite side.

If the opposition dared to openly point their swords at Bai Xiaosheng, then it would be their responsibility to defend.

Mr. Zhang, Chen Shuangyun, and several others were focused, holding their fists, unconsciously feeling their palms getting slightly warm and moist.

Approximately five or six minutes later, Bai Xiaosheng smiled at everyone, "Look at the outline distribution map on the first page, I believe you have all got a preliminary and direct impression. So, let's talk about it now. Is there anyone who disagrees?"

Bai Xiaosheng actually asked outright if anyone had objections.

Mr. Zhang, Chen Shuangyun, and the others were suddenly startled.

The neutral ones like Xu Yuncong also widened their eyes in surprise.

How could Bai Xiaosheng ask this, was he geared up to ignite conflict?

Was the new president really about to discuss the issue?

Or was this a pretext for a confrontation?

After Bai Xiaosheng spoke, Cheng Dongyu immediately raised his hand, and everyone suddenly became tense.

What situation will unfold next?

None dared to imagine.

"Does Mr. Cheng have any comments?" Bai Xiaosheng asked with a courteous smile.

Cheng Dongyu looked at Bai Xiaosheng and spoke frankly, "Regarding your plan, I think—"

Everyone's hearts lifted.

"Very good!" Cheng Dongyu exclaimed loudly.

With just two words, he stunned everyone, causing them to look at each other in disbelief.

Wasn't Cheng Dongyu supposed to initially oppose, refute, and resist, even leading others to challenge?

Very good?

What does very good mean?

He's... supporting it?

Mr. Zhang and the others, along with Xu Yuncong, were suddenly baffled.

"However—" Cheng Dongyu continued.

The twist was coming!

Everyone suddenly woke up.

Many faces showed an expression of "as expected", thinking that Cheng Dongyu couldn't possibly offer full support!

After "however", he'd surely point out problems, share difficulties, and tell Bai Xiaosheng that the idea was great, but implementation was very challenging!

Indeed, Cheng Dongyu wasn't foolish, and certainly wasn't a hot-blooded young man. How could he directly oppose, provoking Bai Xiaosheng, and making the new president act recklessly? That would be too stupid.

Cheng Dongyu is a smart guy, also cunning. He'll surely neutralize the process while making Bai Xiaosheng's reforms ineffective and speechless!

Neutral parties like Xu Yuncong, who have reservations about such reforms, couldn't help but lean towards Cheng Dongyu.

They also believed this system would be strenuous to implement, and they might end up exerting effort without reward.

Above, after the reform, performance might not be as good as before.

Below, how to appease and place, those are all problems.

Some even hoped Cheng Dongyu would step forward, confront the new president, providing entertainment while sitting back to enjoy any benefits.

"I feel that your way isn't feasible!" Cheng Dongyu's voice was firm, "Whatever happens, you should provide each of us with policy guidance."

"I object!" Mr. Zhang immediately raised his hand, shouting.

Mr. Zhang couldn't hold back upon hearing Cheng Dongyu say "not feasible."

He couldn't let Cheng Dongyu finish his speech, which could draw out a group of opponents supporting the new policy, leading to potential chaos in the scene.

Therefore, his immediate thought was to first set up a stage, supporting Bai Xiaosheng to maintain order.

However, as soon as Mr. Zhang uttered those assertive three words, he realized something wasn't right.

He also saw Bai Xiaosheng, Cheng Dongyu, and everyone else looking at him with odd expressions.

Mr. Zhang himself was puzzled.

What was Cheng Dongyu saying in his last sentence...

Providing policy guidance?

So was he supporting or opposing the new policy?

What about me? Does this count as support or opposition?

Mr. Zhang was also confused.

"Mr. Zhang, what are you objecting to?" Cheng Dongyu asked with a smile.

Mr. Zhang squinted at him and then around at everyone, suddenly replied seriously, "I object to anyone opposing your proposal."

"Policy guidance should be provided!"

Chapter 1517 - Unprecedented Cohesion of the Top Brass

Zhang Yude made a huge blunder, originally thinking Cheng Dongyu would oppose Bai Xiaosheng and the new changes.

Unexpectedly, he just wanted some policy guidance, and his shout almost put him in opposition to Bai Xiaosheng.

Making Chen Shuangyun beside Zhang Yude feel a bit embarrassed.

And Cheng Dongyu's words and actions were becoming more and more surprising to everyone.

What exactly is his plan, actually supporting the new policy? This can't be possible! There must be some twist!

Everyone was filled with "anticipation."

As a result, Cheng Dongyu did speak up, but surprisingly offered a few suggestions he thought of temporarily.

Those suggestions weren't particularly brilliant, but his attitude was positive and proactive.

This left people exceptionally stunned.

"Oh my! Did Cheng Dongyu have a change of heart?!"

Zhang Yude, Chen Shuangyun here, even Xu Yuncong and others couldn't help but exchange glances.

Who would believe it?

Zhang Chengxi and the others haven't spoken yet, right! Could those people be opposing it?

Quite possibly!

Clever, Cheng Dongyu "supports," yet those on his side all hold opposing views, possibly playing a double act!

Just when everyone thought that way, Zhang Chengxi's group spoke up.

Surprisingly, they also offered advice and proposals, but their overall stance was clear—support for this round of reform, support for regional industry adjustments!

These people, have they all gone mad!

Zhang Yude, Chen Shuangyun found it unbelievable.

Xu Yuncong and the group of neutrals were all staring blankly.

Cheng Dongyu, Zhang Chengxi, these people, their behavior wasn't at all like who everyone knew.

Unless, there's a bigger conspiracy among them.

Otherwise, how could they agree, and with such enthusiasm!

Right now, it makes the remaining people, whether they stand with Bai Xiaosheng or sway neutrally, seem less proactive...

"What are your opinions?"

In the end, Bai Xiaosheng had to ask them.

"I think, this, reform, uh, is good!" Zhang Yude again fumbled over his words.

Good, good in what way, any suggestions?

He couldn't articulate any of this.

Because earlier, he only skimmed over it, without really thinking or considering seriously.

Zhang Yude's mind was preoccupied with how to support Bai Xiaosheng and oppose Cheng Dongyu's side.

As a result, the opposing side offered suggestions and proposals, far more enthusiastic than his own side!

"Yes, we all support reform, support industry restructuring." Chen Shuangyun could only echo this sentiment.

The remaining members supporting Bai Xiaosheng could only agree.

Instantly, about ten regional leaders supported the reform, leaving the neutral ones speechless.

Expecting them to step out in opposition was even less likely.

"I think the industry restructuring proposed is excellent, transitioning from extensive to intensive operations, branding transformation, simply a masterstroke!" Xu Yuncong led with praise.

The others nodded in agreement, echoing the sentiment.

Bai Xiaosheng's first agenda item was smoothly passed unanimously.

The entire voting process took less than twenty minutes!

Such a significant decision, involving various interests, without any obstacles, simply unbelievable.

"Perhaps, Cheng Dongyu and the others have some other cunning plan!"

Zhang Yude, Chen Shuangyun still couldn't relax in their hearts about the opposite side.

But the crucial question is, what cunning plan could they have?

The two racked their brains but couldn't figure it out.

Could it be, that they want to lull us into complacency on this side?

But for such a major agenda to pass, that kind of complacency would come at too high a cost!

Xu Yuncong and others were also completely clueless.

The big drama they eagerly anticipated, why didn't it unfold?

Or perhaps... was it postponed?

"Since everyone has passed the first agenda item, let's proceed to the second one."

Bai Xiaosheng smiled and continued.

"Reform requires some time, and I've enlisted Zunbai Zhisheng, a professional big data organization from outside, to provide data support. This allows our headquarters' large team of planning analysts to calculate a timeline for industry adjustment for each region, providing everyone with ample time, and I've added an extra twenty percent time buffer."

"Now, the plans in each of your hands are actually unique, custom-tailored to the regions you oversee!"

"Please turn to the second page to review; I'll give everyone twenty minutes to understand it."

After Bai Xiaosheng finished speaking, the large conference room fell silent, with only the sound of pages turning in unison.

It was unlike a meeting; more like a classroom where the teacher instructs to turn to a certain page, and the students obediently comply.

Seeing the opposing side focused on reading the plan "single-mindedly."

Thinking of the earlier scene, they hurriedly buried themselves in research.

Xu Yuncong's group did the same.

...

Since the core of this major reform was industry adjustment, regional reforms inevitably couldn't be indefinitely delayed!

Hence, Bai Xiaosheng's first agenda item was to draw a blueprint, and this second agenda item was to draw a timeline!

Zhang Yude and others were secretly amazed by the details, specifying how many enterprises in each region required adjustments, mergers, consolidation, or expansion, all with meticulous requirements.

It was truly an executable reform plan!

How much time, effort, and energy was required to develop such a plan!

Everyone was astonished.

What they didn't know was that ever since Bai Xiaosheng returned and finalized plans with Xiahou Qi, he immediately recruited over a hundred people from headquarters, along with specialized data personnel dispatched by Zunbai Zhisheng, divided into fifteen groups, ten people per group, taking a week to complete, with each plan undergoing three or more adjustments, passing through Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi's approval.

Chapter 1518 - Unprecedentedly United High-Level_2

This level of efficiency and precision is achieved through a massive investment of human and material resources!

From the moment the plan is presented, even a regional head can't find any faults!

Of course, no matter how good the plan is, it still requires someone to execute it.

The executor is the regional head!

As they were reviewing the plan, Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said, "President Cheng's remarks are very insightful, pointing out the need for policy guidance. I am also preparing to assign two plan developers to each region! They will assist you in understanding the plan and supporting the reform!"

Those assigned by Bai Xiaosheng are not only for guidance but also act as overseers, even as inspectors.

These individuals cannot be bribed, cannot be influenced; they answer only to Bai Xiaosheng and are responsible only to him.

Any issue arising below will likely reach Bai Xiaosheng in the first instance!

The neutrals, led by Xu Yuncong, are currently the most uneasy.

Seeing Cheng Dongyu and his people remaining silent, Xu Yuncong braced himself and cautiously asked Bai Xiaosheng with a smile, "Mr. Bai, if we encounter really tough issues during the reform that are practically insurmountable, what should we do?"

This question caught the attention of several people at once.

Those people looked up at Bai Xiaosheng.

They were also concerned about this issue.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "It's reform; what reform doesn't encounter problems? No matter how well a plan is laid out, issues will arise."

Bai Xiaosheng's acknowledgment eased Xu Yuncong's anxiety a little.

"If there are problems you can't solve, report them promptly, and I'll solve them for you! If even I find it too tangled, I'd rather cut the Gordian knot than let it delay the overall progress!"

Bai Xiaosheng continued with a decisive tone, exuding a hint of ruthlessness.

He looked at Xu Yuncong and others, smiling, "If I can't handle these issues, then I shouldn't be the executive president!"

"With my determination, surely the regional heads won't disappoint, given the ample timing, headquarters' support, and policy guidance, right?"

"Otherwise, you shouldn't be regional heads either!"

Although Bai Xiaosheng said it with a smile, it sent chills down one's spine.

Xu Yuncong's smile froze slightly, and he quickly nodded, burying his head in the plan.

This young new president is like a wolf that shows no teeth!

A force to be reckoned with!

Recalling how Bai Xiaosheng swiftly removed two Senior Affairs Officers and appointed replacements as if it was "butchering chickens and dogs," Xu Yuncong shuddered inside.

Bai Xiaosheng provided time, support, and even personally intervened. If still unaccomplished, he would likely wield his knife!

For a moment, others dared not speak either.

Inwardly, Cheng Dongyu's team continued to snicker, immersing themselves back into "studious reading."

They had long experienced Bai Xiaosheng's prowess!

As the reading period concluded, Bai Xiaosheng asked each of them for their opinions once more.

This time, Cheng Dongyu's group spoke again.

In terms of attitude, everyone agreed first. Then, they all proactively voiced their suggestions.

It was as if they had always supported Bai Xiaosheng.

Zhang Yude, Chen Shuangyun, and others stared blankly at those speaking, as if seeing strangers, familiar like strangers.

Nevertheless, after Cheng Dongyu and his people finished, they followed suit, expressing their thoughts.

This time they were prepared and articulated their points clearly.

Finally, it was Xu Yuncong's neutral group.

Although with fewer suggestions, they also began voicing their support.

Arranged beside Bai Xiaosheng, there was a meeting shorthand recorder, recording all suggestions, while Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying sorted them on the spot.

For Lin Weiwei and the team, this task was almost routine.

With the second agenda commenced, Bai Xiaosheng had the regional heads review the plan, while he reviewed the concise and straightforward suggestions arranged by Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, balancing and contemplating.

After the second agenda passed, instead of rushing to start the third one, Bai Xiaosheng responded to the key suggestions from the first agenda.

Supporting what should be supported and explaining the unsuitability clearly.

Those present listened with intrigue.

This work efficiency didn't resemble a high-level meeting at all; no digressions, every word hit the target!

Crucially, they truly admired Bai Xiaosheng's mind.

With so many suggestions involving various aspects, many still immature, Bai Xiaosheng not only pondered but also filled in gaps.

His mind spun so fast it seemed anything but human!

Indeed, they guessed right.

Bai Xiaosheng did have an aid in his mind.

Bai Xiaosheng would analyze these issues and let Red Lotus simultaneously use a new supportive feature—"Trend and Probability Forecast"—to assess the possibility and fit with the overall reform of each suggestion, along with their success probability.

Thereafter, Bai Xiaosheng cross-validated Red Lotus's conclusions with his own thoughts.

This naturally enabled him to achieve remarkable speed while leaving no oversights!

This scene deeply stunned and even inspired the fifteen regional heads present, whether it was Cheng Dongyu, Zhang Chengxi, or Zhang Yude, Chen Shuangyun, or even Xu Yuncong.

They all started to realize that the young president they were dealing with seemed terrifyingly extraordinary, handling everyone's suggestions with clear logic and rigorous methodology, akin to a superhuman!

Faced with such a "formidable" president, everyone present couldn't help but feel a sense of reverence.

Chapter 1519 - Unprecedentedly United High-Level_3

It turns out that strength can indeed be independent of age!

Looking at the attitude and reaction of the regional directors in front of him, Bai Xiaosheng also heard the prompt tone from Red Lotus echoing in his mind—

"Based on facial expression analysis, emotional analysis, regional director Zhang Yude's trust level in you has increased to trust, earning 0.5 points."

"Regional director Chen Shuangyun's trust level in you has increased to trust, earning 0.5 points."

"Regional director Zhang Chengxi's trust level in you has increased to trusting, earning 0.2 points."

...

As the Executive President of the Greater China Region, Bai Xiaosheng gaining the trust and reliance levels from his direct subordinates is also a plus!

Bai Xiaosheng knew about this before the meeting started.

Because he had already earned some points when he held meetings for the Senior Affairs Officers.

Not only that, since Bai Xiaosheng became the Executive President of the Greater China Region, started formulating reform strategies, returned to discuss with Xiahou Qi, and began preparations, his score has been increasing steadily. After the last meeting, restructuring the Affairs Department contributed significantly to his score.

As of now, Bai Xiaosheng has already earned more than ten points!

After this wave of increased trust, Bai Xiaosheng's score is at 22 points for the Great Regional President level, needing another 78 points to upgrade!

He believes that if the reforms are successfully pushed through to completion, his score will increase even more!

Indeed, the more ambitious the action, the more points can be earned!

Bai Xiaosheng is extremely satisfied with this.

What he fears most now is mediocrity and accomplishing nothing. With that kind of mindset, the journey of inheritance would be impossible, and even less possible would be to "redeem" the youthful years of the one he loves!

However, after this massive wave of reform-induced points, returning to ordinary management work will inevitably slow down the increase in his score.

How to create more "agitation" in the future will also be a question worth pondering for him.

Of course, in less than four years, reaching this stage is something that even Bai Xiaosheng himself feels quite proud of.

Now, the second agenda item has passed smoothly, and the suggestion for the first agenda item has been handled on the spot.

Next, Bai Xiaosheng announced the third agenda item, which truly surprised everyone present.

Bai Xiaosheng officially introduced his "New Partner" plan.

He is taking a portion of the profit growth that regional directors achieve by promoting reforms and strengthening the brands under their jurisdiction, and using it as personal incentive funds. Not only is there an annual bonus, but if everyone present can work for a certain term, part of the shares will also be directly awarded to individuals!

In simple terms, it means "the more you achieve, the more dividends you get; work long enough and you get shares"!

Suddenly, everyone was astonished, and their breathing became rapid.

As the President of the Greater China Region, Bai Xiaosheng manages the operations of the entire region. Besides the performance standards required by the group, he is qualified to offer such rewards and has obtained approval from the Business President Jiang Kuo!

What really made the regional directors' hearts leap was the idea that if a brand under their jurisdiction became one of the Fortune 500 companies, the original stocks awarded to them would truly be like holding a mountain of gold and silver. Why then bother calculating previous small gains?

But, is this for real?

Many still found it hard to believe.

"This incentive policy will exist as a system, with everyone's entitled share dividends being settled at the year's end without delay. After every five-year term, an actual share grant will be awarded." Bai Xiaosheng's assurance instantly stirred the people's spirits.

Even Cheng Dongyu's eyes shone brightly.

Before the meeting, Bai Xiaosheng had said that in this system reform benefit, he would share the same treatment as others. However, he would have to first compensate for the losses incurred by the group, but if the benefits are genuine, he is confident of clearing his "debts" and then earning abundantly!

"I, Cheng Dongyu, firmly support Mr. Xiaosheng Bai's reform!"

In his excitement, even Cheng Dongyu voiced this with passion.

"I also support Mr. Bai's reform!"

"Support the reform!"

Immediately, a chorus of encouragement resonated.

These mid-aged executives seemed to be filled with fervor, as if they had returned to the passionate years of their past.

This time, Zhang Yude and Chen Shuangyun no longer doubted the sincerity of Cheng Dongyu and the others; even they were shocked and felt an enthusiastic surge within, ready for battle.

To achieve results, and to receive the deserved reward of fame and fortune, who wouldn't be eager!

Seeing the growing enthusiasm of everyone, Bai Xiaosheng also smiled slightly.

To achieve something, one must unite people. To earn the sincere support of everyone, encouraging them to perform with full strength, one must bind everyone's interests together!

There's no fear in painting a big picture, as long as people can obtain a piece of the pie to share!

With unprecedented support, this meeting, originally slated for five hours, was concluded in just four.

All agenda items were approved!

Those outside, upon hearing the meeting was finished early, were a bit dumbfounded.

They're used to hearing about high-level meetings being extended, but this early conclusion was unheard of.

Wasn't anyone disposed of during the meeting?

Why did every regional director come out looking thrilled?

Why were Cheng Dongyu and Zhang Yude, among others, walking arm in arm, enthusiastically discussing matters?

What on earth happened?

Seeing everyone warmly surrounding Bai Xiaosheng, those below who anticipated juicy news looked at the young president with astonished eyes.

"What kind of sorcery did our new president use to make the regional directors seem as if they're on hal. Extend.mucinogen!?"

"What was the content of this conference, and why do all the high-ups seem more united than ever?"

The content of the meeting wasn't even announced yet, but it was already astonishing!

And next, Bai Xiaosheng does not intend to rest; he still has much more to do!

Chapter 1520 - Busy 3 Months

In just one week and one day, Bai Xiaosheng managed to gain control over the entire upper echelon of the Greater China Region, truly creating a miracle of his own!

The meeting between Bai Xiaosheng and the regional leaders finalized many policies.

However, only a portion of them was released the next day.

After all, even if a hundred new policies were issued at once, without implementation, they would be useless.

Releasing new policies in stages and batches can avoid overwhelming people and causing chaos.

Regarding the entire reform, Bai Xiaosheng had actually long ago set a timetable with Xiahou Qi and many project planning elites from headquarters.

From six-month, one-year, to five-year plans, every period is meticulously arranged, ensuring no discontinuity in policy connection or that a period of heat will be followed by neglect.

In fact, even the parts of the resolutions that were released were already shocking to everyone who paid attention to that meeting.

Broad, sweeping reforms were combined with meticulous adjustments.

Once implemented, the entire Greater China Region's corporate industries will be interconnected!

In the face of the impending major changes, everyone is in hot discussion, and what attracts them most are the new rewards measures added in the reforms.

All the world hustles and bustles for profit.

The pursuit of profit is inherent in human nature and is the ultimate means to stimulate human desire and potential.

The saying "Follow Mr. Bai, and there will be food to eat" has quietly become popular at headquarters, and it turned into the most frequently mentioned sentence for a long time afterwards.

Those regional leaders did not stay long at headquarters. In a week, they successively left Linshen with the policy guidance personnel assigned to them and returned to their "homelands."

What awaits them will be an extremely busy period. After all, starting is always the hardest, and the first phase of reform is crucial, requiring their hands-on efforts everywhere.

Whether in support of Bai Xiaosheng or in fear of him, all those regional heads are eagerly anticipating the "dividends" the new policies will bring.

Throughout the next entire month, Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi stayed at headquarters, taking on the highest level of "logistics" roles.

In both domestic and international fifteen industrial regions, reform naturally brought various issues to surface. Those that regional heads found difficult to solve would be reported, processed by a special review group formed by ten senior affairs officers, and finally handed over to Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi for approval.

The reason why starting is difficult is that there are no precedents to refer to.

During this busy period, Bai Xiaosheng, Xiahou Qi, the ten senior affairs officers, and numerous elite affairs officers were turning every problem into a case.

Once the rules are established on how to handle certain situations, the method to use, and the extent, they are compiled and distributed to each region as a reference basis.

Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi also closely monitored feedback to prevent unnecessary chaos at the early stages of reform.

Fortunately, although busy and tired, and with frequent issues, all regions were moving forward and gradually getting on track.

A month passed in the blink of an eye, with everyone both exhausted and exhilarated.

In the second month, the problems started to become fewer, yet Bai Xiaosheng remained at ease with Xiahou Qi, ensuring each district's progress was grasped promptly, and issues were dealt with immediately, to prevent any "fires" from breaking out.

With the assistance of the ever-online Greater China Region Headquarters, issues were resolved overnight, and the regions and their leaders were spurred into unprecedented activity.

Among them, a sudden emotion arose—"a spirit of comparison"—as to which region was more outstanding!

Of course, this emotion was also deliberately fostered by Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi, the shrewd and strategic new and old leaders.

During these two months, Jiang Kuo, the divisional president of Asia Division, also came frequently to inquire and even dispatched three waves of observers.

After all, with such major initiatives, even with the corporate vice chairman's instructions, if things really went wrong, he couldn't bear the responsibility.

How could Jiang Kuo not be concerned? Initially, he would frequently call Bai Xiaosheng.

Impatient, the divisional president even considered dropping everything and coming in person to take a look.

Of course, Bai Xiaosheng stopped him.

Knowing that having Jiang Kuo stationed at headquarters could help Bai Xiaosheng resolve many unnecessary troubles.

To keep Jiang Kuo worry-free, Bai Xiaosheng also shared real-time progress with him.

Seeing this tangible change, Jiang Kuo was stunned by the vibrant progress and daily renewal happening below.

Jiang Kuo suddenly began to view his young colleague Bai Xiaosheng with new eyes, and with Xiahou Qi's support, he became thoroughly assured, growing increasingly firm in his support of the side.

The current phase of reform will inevitably bring some losses, but in the long run, greater gains will certainly emerge!

In truth, since Bai Xiaosheng took office as the new executive president of the Greater China Region, the five major divisions and ten presidents have all focused their attention on him, even extending customary invitations for evaluation.

These invitations, which Jiang Kuo was worried would interrupt Bai Xiaosheng, he blocked altogether, so that besides Soruns from the Europe Division, others only knew Bai Xiaosheng by name, aware that the new Asia Region executive president is astonishingly young, not even having seen a single full-body picture, and the ID picture without a cap in their files, rendering the Asian faces indistinguishable to the foreigners with face blindness.

Bai Xiaosheng's "mysterious" image was also imprinted in their hearts.

Meanwhile, those senior presidents also noticed the actions of the Asia Region, sensing that something impressive was brewing over there.

Although it isn't fully apparent yet, they all keenly felt that the Asia Region would be extraordinary post-transformation!

Nonetheless, they did not believe that such a change was solely the work of a new executive president. They perceived it as a joint effort by Jiang Kuo, that mysterious new executive president, and Xiahou Qi, watching with interest.

The reform continued into the third month.

The frequency of new issues occurring decreased by ninety percent, to the extent that even the handling group formed by ten senior affairs officers shrank to five.

Bai Xiaosheng and Xiahou Qi reduced approvals by more than eighty percent, so that with either of them overseeing things, they could easily manage the situation.

Three months passed in a flash, and Bai Xiaosheng's term as the executive president of the Greater China Region reached its fourth year.

From being an employee to becoming an executive president, Bai Xiaosheng took only four years, a speed that could be considered "unprecedented" and possibly "never to be seen again"!

After the bustling three months, Xiahou Qi insisted on Bai Xiaosheng taking more rest, offering to oversee things himself.

Though nominally Bai Xiaosheng and he were the highest "logistics," the fact was that Bai Xiaosheng, trying to spare him fatigue, had taken on nearly seventy percent of the work alone.

Even though Bai Xiaosheng was young and dynamic, during this period he had noticeably lost weight, yet his energy remained high, his gaze sharp, and the aura required for an executive president quickly took shape around him.

Accompanying the reform, there was Bai Xiaosheng's personal growth.

Faced with such growth, Xiahou Qi was extremely gratified.

In fact, what Xiahou Qi didn't know was that along with the reform, Bai Xiaosheng's personal charm, temperament, aura grew, as did his—score.

In these three months, Bai Xiaosheng achieved excellently, currently holding 35 points at the Regional President level, a third of the phase score inside.

Faced with such gains, Bai Xiaosheng almost wished for more "hard work," feeling incredibly fulfilled and purposeful.

However, under Xiahou Qi's "firm" request, Bai Xiaosheng had no choice but to put his affairs aside and take a break.

Indeed, Bai Xiaosheng was genuinely tired.

After all, not only physical strength was consumed but also mental strength, and using Red Lotus's assistance too much was also exhausting.

On the day Bai Xiaosheng relaxed, he received a call.

A call from a friend sharing good news.