

Two Trillion 1521

Chapter 1521 - The 3rd New Company

The call Bai Xiaosheng received was from Li Ni, who was bringing good news.

After returning from America, despite his busy schedule, Bai Xiaosheng did not forget to contact Li Ni.

This time, Bai Xiaosheng did not hide his identity, and even apologized for hiding it before.

Upon finding out that Bai Xiaosheng was actually the owner behind Xue Lian Wan He, Li Ni was shocked, thinking Bai Xiaosheng had lost his mind.

But while on the phone, a line of luxury cars arrived outside Li Ni Workshop, with dozens of people paying a visit.

The high-level executives leading the group were from Xue Lian Wan He, whom Li Ni had met before, confirming it was no mistake!

Those who accompanied them were actually a complete workforce from Xue Lian Wan He, capable of forming an entire company.

Li Ni held the phone in awe, along with the staff in his workshop, dumbfounded as they watched the group of people line up neatly, led by a smiling top executive greeting him, faces full of bewilderment.

Subsequently, Bai Xiaosheng said on the phone that he had already arranged to purchase nearby shops to expand Li Ni Workshop, intending to collaborate with Li Ni to open a company.

Li Ni only needed to invest his technology, without being responsible for daily operations or any investment, to enjoy 50% of the shares.

The company would mainly operate in two areas: high-quality purple clay teapots supervised by Li Ni, and those handmade by him, with Xue Lian Wan He responsible for promotion.

During the operations, if Li Ni had any dissatisfaction, he could directly report to Bai Xiaosheng...

Clay from Europe would be airlifted continuously, and major buyers in America had been contacted. Handmade purple clay teapots by Li Ni would start at a base price of 30 million each, producing one every two to three months to ensure quality and rarity, with an annual international tour exhibition.

Listening to Bai Xiaosheng's speech over the phone, Li Ni was bewildered, feeling as if he were on cloud nine.

Finally, Bai Xiaosheng asked with a smile on the phone if Li Ni was willing to accept this cooperation. If he refused, Bai Xiaosheng was still willing to fund his research, help transport materials, or if he had issues with the share distribution, he could also mention it.

Li Ni, after a full two minutes in a daze, agreed repeatedly but firmly insisted on not taking half the shares, only 30%; any more, he would definitely not accept.

"Also, I want to give shares to the staff in my workshop." Li Ni anxiously discussed with Bai Xiaosheng.

Being a sentimental person, he knew it was against convention, as his staff neither invested money nor provided technology, so why should they hold shares?

However, Bai Xiaosheng immediately agreed cheerfully, with Li Ni holding 30% shares, and the remaining staff each with 2% shares.

The investment in the new company would gradually increase, with future growth beyond estimation. The 2% shares had already made all the staff overjoyed.

This was a win-win situation. Bai Xiaosheng helped a friend, added a new company to his portfolio, and provided Sir Wei with high-quality purple clay teapots, resulting in a joyful outcome for all.

Bai Xiaosheng also specifically emphasized that once Li Ni gained fame, a set of purple clay teapots might value in billions. He had immense potential, and only taking 30% shares was actually a loss.

But Li Ni insisted on only 30%, and Bai Xiaosheng had to give in.

Today, Li Ni called specifically to share the good news.

In the past few months, both Bai Xiaosheng and he were busy and hadn't had the chance to connect.

Bai Xiaosheng only learned that Li Ni's two purple clay teapots were sent to the Wei Family and distributed among Sir Wei's friends, fetching 50 million each, totaling a hundred million.

The first batch of premium purple clay teapots was also exported to America and Europe through the channels of Xue Lian Wan He, quickly opening up the market. It could be said that Li Ni Workshop had outpaced a well-performing medium-sized enterprise in a short time.

"It's all thanks to you, Sheng, no, boss." Li Ni was particularly excited. His dream was to create exquisite purple clay teapots and promote them worldwide, having his work accepted and admired. Now that his dream had come true, he was overjoyed.

"This is great news." Bai Xiaosheng was also happy. "You don't have to worry about the operations, but the quality must be strictly controlled. Any problematic products, even if all were destroyed, must not be sold. Establish your brand solidly; your road ahead is long. Also, you can research new techniques and new purple clay teapots, but the finished products should be slow. I think producing one every six months is good, as rarity increases value."

After all, while making money, Bai Xiaosheng did not want to tarnish Li Ni Workshop's reputation, nor devalue Li Ni's work.

Such well-intentioned efforts were apparent even to Li Ni, who was relatively "clumsy" emotionally.

"Thank you so much, Boss Sheng! You helped me achieve the greatest wish of my life. I truly don't know how to thank you!" Li Ni was immensely grateful over the phone.

Bai Xiaosheng chuckled, wanting to tell Li Ni not to say that, as he was legitimately treating this investment as a proper business venture. It was his personal third company, from which he not only profited immensely but also earned Sir Wei's praise, which was a significant achievement for Bai Xiaosheng.

Actually, the future proceeds from the next few years from Li Ni Workshop alone were worth more than ten billion to Bai Xiaosheng.

"I've decided; I want to rename the company, no longer calling it Li Ni Workshop but incorporating your name, in gratitude for your kindness." At this excited moment, Li Ni suddenly mentioned over the phone.

Bai Xiaosheng's smile froze for a moment.

Ron, to thank him, named the company Zunbai Zhisheng.

Zhengdong Province, to thank him, named the company Shengsheng International.

Li Ni was about to follow in their footsteps!

Those in the know would naturally know it was their "own decision". Those unaware might think Bai Xiaosheng had such a preference.

"Li Ni, you absolutely cannot change the name. Li Ni Workshop is quite good, and it's already been promoted..."

Bai Xiaosheng hastily persuaded, but Li Ni thought he was being modest and insisted.

In the end, Bai Xiaosheng could only "get serious", "I tell you, if you dare change it, I won't partner up, I'll withdraw investment, cut off your materials, and not participate anymore!"

Ultimately, at the cost of "tearing the facade", Bai Xiaosheng stopped Li Ni, who seemed to be once again moved by Bai Xiaosheng's selflessness...

Because of this, Bai Xiaosheng was both amused and helpless.

After hanging up the phone, Bai Xiaosheng let out a long sigh, feeling that dealing with a stubborn guy like Li Ni was more tiring than handling a bunch of tasks.

Li Ni's call seemed to remind Bai Xiaosheng.

The busy past three months made him neglect to contact many people.

In fact, Master Song Kai, Lu Yun, Zhang Xi, and the other seniors had received gifts from Bai Xiaosheng that he sent upon returning from America, including excellent tea leaves, purple clay teapots, and his meticulously copied calligraphy works, which they liked very much. Knowing he was busy, they hadn't actively contacted him during this time.

And then there were Lu Qingfeng, Zhengdong Province, Kevin, and other friends, Wei Moran, Shang Wanwan, Ariel, Yang Qian'er, Mo Xin, Su Lingyu, Chen Xiaoya, and many other beauties. Fortunately, they also knew he was busy recently, mostly just occasionally harassing him on WeChat.

Now, being free, Bai Xiaosheng thought it was time to also say hello to them.

However, before Bai Xiaosheng could "flirt" with people, a call came in, surprisingly from abroad.

Bai Xiaosheng, puzzled, answered the phone.

"Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, it's me, Soruns."

A cheerful laugh came from the other end of the line.

The president of the European Division — Soruns!

This person had definitely helped him at headquarters.

Bai Xiaosheng immediately greeted him warmly.

"You're making quite the waves in the Greater China Region. I've been watching closely, and many of your reforms are impressive!"

On the phone, Soruns commented with admiration, "Actually, by our group's old rules, the new executive president has to visit each continent for a tour, but you're special. Mr. Jiang Kuo blocked it for you several times. However, I know you should be a bit more relaxed now. So I hope next month or the one after, you can visit my European region as your first destination."

"What do you think?"

Chapter 1522 - Personal Assets Like a Rolling Snowball

Soruns spoke sincerely, his words filled with genuine intention as he earnestly invited Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng had heard from Xiahou Qi and Jiang Kuo that every new president would visit the group's industries continents-wide at the start of their term, which had become customary.

Previously, Bai Xiaosheng was busy with the new reform in the Greater China Region, which kept him occupied.

Jiang Kuo had also shielded him from many social engagements, including postponing his visits.

However, such visits were inevitable sooner or later, and the order of visits was up to Bai Xiaosheng to decide.

Currently, Bai Xiaosheng had no reason to refuse Soruns' invitation.

Nor was there a need to refuse.

When Bai Xiaosheng was at the headquarters, he learned about the industries in the European Region, spread across dozens of countries, organized into thirty-two divisions with an extremely meticulous division of labor. Their policies, management, and various other aspects were unique. It's an indisputable fact that the European Region ranks in the top three among the six major business units.

During this reform, Bai Xiaosheng had drawn much reference from reports from the European Region.

"Alright, since Mr. Soruns has invited me, I will schedule a visit to your European Region to learn as soon as possible!" Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile.

On the other end of the phone, Soruns was pleased with how readily Bai Xiaosheng accepted, and he chuckled lightly, "Learning? I wouldn't dare say that. It'll be more like a mutual exploration and exchange between us, which can also promote collaboration between our regions in Europe and Asia, which would indeed be a delightful thing!"

Soruns' humble and polite demeanor was something Bai Xiaosheng appreciated.

The two talked for a full half-hour, happily chatting, and then ended the conversation.

After hanging up the phone, Bai Xiaosheng thought for a moment, then got up to find Xiahou Qi.

In Xiahou Qi's office, Bai Xiaosheng recounted the agreement with Soruns.

"So Soruns invited you? Hmm, he probably communicated with Jiang Kuo in advance, otherwise, he wouldn't know you have time now." Xiahou Qi smiled at Bai Xiaosheng, "It's about time you take a look around. When I first took office, I lingered in the European Region for more than a month. I think you can stay here for another two weeks to handle some work, and then you can go."

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng seemingly unwilling to leave the reform here, Xiahou Qi teased, "Don't be so reluctant to part, at worst, I, the old man, will report to you, the grand president, every day, and that should put you at ease."

"That would wear me out." Bai Xiaosheng grinned.

In private, he always insisted on showing respect to the elder in Xiahou Qi's presence.

Xiahou Qi laughed, "Just take it as a way to relax. You've really been too tired these days. Many places in Europe are beautiful, and there are plenty of beauties too."

Xiahou Qi winked, then, realizing his words might not be appropriate, coughed lightly and sat upright, saying with a smile, "Of course, just look, don't overstep. Otherwise, the elders in the Wei Family will certainly give you a hard time."

Bai Xiaosheng was speechless, he hadn't mentioned anything about looking at beauties...

Looks like Elder Xia was quite the charmer in his younger days...

"And while you're at it, if you can negotiate some collaboration with Soruns, it won't be a wasted trip." Xiahou Qi continued.

Hearing this, Bai Xiaosheng nodded.

Indeed, negotiating collaboration with Soruns is actually one of Bai Xiaosheng's main purposes for this trip.

The two had shared some positive interactions at headquarters, and if this trip could foster cooperation between the two major regions, it would indeed be a delightful outcome.

Besides, Bai Xiaosheng had other reasons for wanting to visit the European Region — he had quite a few friends there!

Not to mention Kevin from Kelson Company, the Ariel siblings, the legendary bartender Mo Xin's family is also there. Even a long-known pianist from the band of UE Country, Yegor, is based in Europe, and there's Antonio, the Spanish winery owner Bai Xiaosheng met at Elder Xia's friend Zhang Xi's place, who once gave him a business card, allowing for the chance to savor some fine wine.

With all these people and events, Bai Xiaosheng naturally favored making the European Region the first stop of his visit.

"Moreover, that Soruns is very close with the headquarters' inspection department, and while I'm not sure of the details, a closer relationship with him would be beneficial." Xiahou Qi said meaningfully, "The inspection department of the headquarters is unlike our business department here. They wield great power, even greater than the business presidents of the six major business units, and they're quite mysterious, keeping their operations confidential even from the regional presidents!"

Bai Xiaosheng was aware of the mysteries surrounding the inspection department and knew that their personnel were nicknamed the "inspection group," having had some encounters before. He only wondered why their presence was scarce in the Greater China Region, but he figured there must be a reason.

For now, Bai Xiaosheng didn't want to think much about it and just nodded, "I got it."

"Alright, prepare in the following days, and in two weeks, you should set off." Xiahou Qi smiled at Bai Xiaosheng.

With Xiahou Qi holding the fort here, Bai Xiaosheng felt at ease.

After chatting with Xiahou Qi for a while, Bai Xiaosheng returned to his office and got in touch with some long-uncontacted friends.

Of course, Bai Xiaosheng didn't mention his promotion. In his view, friends are friends, not an audience for bragging about achievements.

Also, regarding his trip to Europe, Bai Xiaosheng didn't tell Kevin, the Ariel siblings either.

Firstly, the time still needed confirmation, and secondly, mentioning it later would still be timely, and who knows, it might be a pleasant surprise for them.

Chapter 1523 - Personal Assets Growing Like a Rolling Snowball_2

Over the next week, Bai Xiaosheng began arranging work and gradually devolved power, assigning more responsibilities to Li Haofeng and four other Senior Affairs Officers to assist Xiahou Qi in carrying out tasks.

...

On the eighth day, which was also a new week's Monday.

In the afternoon, Bai Xiaosheng was in his office, doors closed, having a video conference with two people.

The two people were Ron and Li Qiushan.

They were the actual heads of Zunbai Zhisheng and Xue Lian Wan He!

These two companies were genuinely owned by Bai Xiaosheng himself, established and grown under his direct supervision.

With cooperation from top-tier companies like Zhenbei Group, Tengyun, and covert alliance with Shengsheng International, the growth speed of the two companies was incredible!

In fact, a few months ago, Bai Xiaosheng received news that their annual profits had been calculated, amounting to tens of billions, with fixed assets nearing a trillion!

They were no longer small enterprises!

Every month, every day, even every moment, they were experiencing drastic changes!

If Bai Xiaosheng were someone easily satisfied, he could comfortably be a tycoon for the rest of his life with these two companies.

But unfortunately, Bai Xiaosheng was not destined to be mediocre.

The woman he loved came from a formidable family, and he wanted to redeem her youth through his efforts. In front of the powerful Wei Family, even with companies rapidly growing and nearing a trillion in fixed assets, their power was still far from adequate.

After all, Zhenbei Group four years ago could have been worth two trillion, whether in US Dollars or Euros.

In this world, there are always some colossal entities, wealthier than nations, beyond the imagination of most people!

Bai Xiaosheng had been busy with reforms for months, and it had been a long time since he had inquired about his companies' affairs, thinking it was a good opportunity to catch up and find out the current situation.

Furthermore, Bai Xiaosheng had drafted some collaboration plans, wanting his two companies to catch the express train of the Greater China Region reforms and soar simultaneously!

Bai Xiaosheng was not seeking personal gain.

After all, even Zhenbei Group would belong to him in the future, so the owner using conveniences wasn't an issue.

Moreover, Bai Xiaosheng would never let his two companies take advantage of the group, at most hitch a ride for mutual development.

Upon hearing Bai Xiaosheng describe his current position, Ron and Li Qiushan, who were previously unaware, could hardly contain their excitement like schoolgirls.

After several months apart, their boss had become the Greater China Region Executive President of a world-class financial group!

Wow, even a rocket couldn't get you there this fast!

Plus, their "boss" was still so young!

"Boss, you're amazing. In just a few months, you've become the Executive President of Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region! I feel like taking you to a research institute to study the structure of your brain," Ron exclaimed, his eyes wide in disbelief.

His Chinese had become so fluent that listening with your eyes closed, you would never believe it was a bearded foreigner speaking.

"Sheng, you're incredible. Ron and I thought our achievements over the past few months would surprise you, but you've startled us. Our achievements are nothing compared to yours!"

Li Qiushan also praised and marveled, his eyes shining.

Having a powerful boss like Bai Xiaosheng was an honor for them too.

Bai Xiaosheng was not only their boss but also a benefactor, generous to them, giving them direct equity and trusting them a lot, making them determined to follow such a conscientious boss for life!

In terms of address, the three were very close and casual.

Ron called "boss" without stiffness, while Li Qiushan often called him by name directly.

Though Bai Xiaosheng was their boss, using his name felt friendly, and Bai Xiaosheng had privately mentioned many times to just use his name!

After all, they weren't outsiders!

This sort of "casualness" increased the sense of closeness and made the two admire Bai Xiaosheng even more.

Respect doesn't come from a title but from the heart.

In this aspect, Bai Xiaosheng was more open-minded than many.

Of course, in public, everyone still addressed each other according to the rules.

"Listening to what you've said, it seems like you have good news to share with me?" Bai Xiaosheng asked with a smile.

Ron and Li Qiushan immediately laughed broadly, yet maintained their humility.

"On my side, we've analyzed industry trends and seized some new opportunities!"

"We've invested in a wave of creative enterprises and, as investors, have made a substantial profit!"

After their "modest" exchange, they began thanking each other.

"We really need to thank Ron for providing big data, helping us avoid detours and pitfalls!"

"And we should thank Li for supplying management advice, talent support, and financial support, giving us strong backing!"

Seeing the two talk "modestly" about their immodest achievements, Bai Xiaosheng knew they must have hit it big recently.

After they finished thanking each other, they began congratulating Bai Xiaosheng—

"Our two companies are preparing to deposit tens or even hundreds of billions into your golden bank card, as a return on boss's investment!"

"Congratulations, boss! You're now a billionaire with two trillion-dollar companies!"

Ron quickly added, "Send us red envelopes!"

Ron and Li Qiushan, two trillion-dollar company presidents who were renowned in the eyes of outsiders, appearing prestigious in public, yet had this humorous side in front of Bai Xiaosheng. If people saw this, they'd be astonished.

Chapter 1524 - Personal Assets Growing Like a Rolling Snowball_3

Right now, they are just like small employees asking for rewards after accomplishing something.

Especially Ron, constantly talking about billions and even wanting red envelopes...

Bai Xiaosheng also wanted to laugh.

Initially, after the upgrade, he thought having a billion in his account made him a wealthy person. But looking at it now, he was wrong.

He's even wealthier!

Bai Xiaosheng began speaking, saying, "No need to transfer to my account, I have enough money already. You should invest that money into our future operations. Our two companies have grown in size, but we're far from being giants! My ambition is not small, and I believe you feel the same! Only when our companies become renowned in Asia, recognized worldwide, and capable of changing the world, can we truly say we've achieved something!"

Bai Xiaosheng's words made Ron and Li Qiushan nod repeatedly.

His calm demeanor towards such vast assets made the two respect him even more.

Even the more composed middle-aged men aren't as calm as he is!

At the same time, Bai Xiaosheng's grand ambitions stirred them up with excitement.

When money becomes just a pile of numbers, achieving something significant and becoming a global focal point is the real ambition!

That's what makes life meaningful, that's what gives life meaning!

Considering the grand ambitions, the two companies worth nearly a trillion fall short!

"Sheng, boss, with your boldness, we'll stand by you to the end!" Ron shouted excitedly.

Li Qiushan shared the same sentiment.

Over the years, it's not just Bai Xiaosheng who has been progressing; they've been learning about operations management and expanding strategic vision whenever they had time, showcasing immense business acumen.

Otherwise, these two companies wouldn't have reached today's level.

Bai Xiaosheng, of course, knew this and was confident in letting them continue managing things.

"Besides, there's something else we need to discuss with you," Li Qiushan smiled and said.

"What is it?" Bai Xiaosheng asked curiously.

"Our two companies, with the support of Mr. Zheng from Shengsheng International and Mr. Lu, Director of Tengyun, are preparing for listing. By then, we can collaborate more extensively with Tengyun Group and Zhenbei Group." Ron grinned.

Preparing for listing?

That's good news!

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, "In this matter, I'd need you two to put in more effort. Zhengdong Province and Lu Qingfeng are both my close friends and reliable partners whom you can trust completely. You two are enough for this, so I won't get involved."

After all, Bai Xiaosheng was already busy enough, and with so many trustworthy people around, there was no need for him to be distracted.

Of course, this was also a demonstration of great trust and delegation.

Which company's behind-the-scenes owner would let others handle such a significant matter as listing, involving hundreds of billions worth of enterprise?

Ron and Li Qiushan laughed.

Given their understanding of Bai Xiaosheng, they believed he truly could say such things and do such things.

This trust made them feel comfortable and valued.

"Don't worry, we'll handle this well."

"In less than ten years after listing, we'll ensure the company's leap, making you a true international tycoon!"

Ron and Li Qiushan appeared brimming with confidence.

Bai Xiaosheng smiled at their bold declarations and also said, "I am currently managing Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region, undertaking sweeping reforms. In fact, on many fronts, your two companies' involvement is necessary, ensuring broader mutual benefits!"

Bai Xiaosheng's words once again illuminated Ron and Li Qiushan's eyes.

Initially, the two companies were already in a phase of rapid growth, and now the boss was the president of Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region, engaging in extensive reforms. If they could hitch the collaboration ride...

Why would it take ten years to become a world-famous enterprise?

Five years would be enough!

Amidst Ron and Li Qiushan's enthusiasm, Bai Xiaosheng sent them the cooperation plan he'd drafted, and stated it was all set up and collaboration could begin immediately.

As a result, Ron and Li Qiushan instantly lost the desire for further chatting.

They clamored to sign off and organize their company's reliable senior executives to research cooperation.

Seeing their zeal, Bai Xiaosheng paused the conversation, letting them attend to their work.

Bai Xiaosheng turned off the video and stretched his body.

Lin Weiwei came over smiling with a cup of red tea, gently placing it beside him.

"It seems they're very eager to get you to that position of a world-class billionaire," Lin Weiwei joked with a laugh.

On the other side, Lei Ying also smiled, his eyes filled with anticipation.

On one hand, they wanted to see Bai Xiaosheng reach the top.

On the other, thinking about becoming the assistant to a world-class billionaire someday also seemed like the pinnacle of their lives!

"At that time, I'll make sure to give you a hefty raise," Bai Xiaosheng joked, "Like a President's secretary's salary."

Lin Weiwei pouted with a smile. "Sheng, you shouldn't fool us; the President's secretary's salary might not even be higher than mine right now."

Currently, she and Lei Ying earned an annual salary in the millions, actually just a small part.

Because Bai Xiaosheng gave them shares in Zunbai Zhisheng and Xue Lian Wan He!

Imagine what the market is like for Zunbai Zhisheng and Xue Lian Wan He, trillion-dollar enterprises, with an immeasurable future!

It's safe to say that both Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying are genuinely wealthy individuals.

And they're only becoming wealthier!

So, following the right person can truly change your life.

"With headquarters matters nearly sorted out, and those two companies properly instructed, should we prepare to go to Europe?" Lei Ying asked Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng had already informed Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying about Soruns' invitation.

After all, these two were his closest friends and traveling companions.

Now, seeing that matters here were pretty much resolved, it was time to prepare for the journey.

Elder Xia also mentioned that they should set off by the end of this week, within a few days, so early preparation was entirely sensible.

Lin Weiwei also looked at Bai Xiaosheng after hearing Lei Ying's words.

In fact, anything needed for the trip didn't require Bai Xiaosheng's instructions; Lin Weiwei had already arranged everything, just checking if Bai Xiaosheng had any other requests.

"There's nothing much else to prepare. With the internet being so advanced, everything is convenient," Bai Xiaosheng smiled and then thought for a moment, "But before we leave, there's something I indeed need to do."

"What is it?" Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying immediately inquired.

"Go home," Bai Xiaosheng smiled.

He hadn't been home for a long time, and before going to Europe, he certainly needed to visit.

Chapter 1525 The House Is Not "Peaceful"

A brand-new bullet train was speeding along. In the business class, Bai Xiaosheng sat by the window, gazing at the scenery outside.

This morning, he quietly left the Linshen headquarters with Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, boarding the train to Zhongjing.

It had been a long time since he returned, and the closer he got to home, the softer Bai Xiaosheng felt inside.

Right now, with the New Year approaching, he had been busy hustling for the future, and indeed, he had somewhat neglected his family.

Actually, no matter how busy Bai Xiaosheng was, every few days, he would always video call his family.

But still, meeting in person is irreplaceable.

In the video calls, his grandmother Li Fengguan looked increasingly old, and his parents had more and more gray hair. Bai Xiaosheng's concerns grew even more.

However, the family always said that now he had made something of himself outside, had his own dreams, his own career, and he must work hard for them.

Don't always worry about home, everything at home is fine.

Bai Xiaosheng would also tell his parents and grandmother some of his achievements at work, to make them happy, and he would regularly transfer millions to his dad's card, telling him that this was just a small fraction of the money he earned, so they shouldn't hesitate to spend it, especially to take good care of grandma's food and clothing, and they should by no means scrimp on themselves.

He even had Xue Lian Wan He invest in a large supermarket and a housekeeping company over there, providing goods and services regularly, and told the family that it was his shareholder business, so they should not be shy about utilizing it.

In Bai Xiaosheng's view, these were things he had to do.

After all, with money, if he can't benefit his nearest and dearest, making their lives more comfortable and better, then what is the point?

Lin Weiwei sat next to Bai Xiaosheng, watching his eyes soft with emotion and a warm smile hanging on his face.

Such a Bai Xiaosheng truly mesmerized Lin Weiwei.

When Bai Xiaosheng inadvertently turned his head and saw Lin Weiwei looking at him, he immediately flashed a smile.

Lin Weiwei blushed instantly, like a ripe apple, looking particularly charming in her shyness.

Lin Weiwei quickly adjusted her breathing, smiled, and spoke to ease the awkwardness, "Brother Sheng, the development in Zhongjing has been so rapid."

"Yes, indeed," Bai Xiaosheng nodded in agreement and looked out the window again.

The scenery outside rushed past his eyes.

All along the way, besides missing his family, Bai Xiaosheng also kept observing the changes outside.

There was no denying that the reforms in Zhongjing over the past two years had been massively effective, with tremendous changes that even affected the surrounding areas.

Anjiang Province also made a big effort to make Zhongjing a model city.

The closer you get to Zhongjing, the more astonishing the changes feel—there's construction everywhere, with infrastructure such as railways, highways, and bridges being built to the standards of top-tier cities.

Skyscrapers have also sprung up like mushrooms after the rain.

"This time back, I'll first go home to see the family, and then I'll find time to see Mr. Ji," Bai Xiaosheng thought to himself.

It's also been a long time since he saw Mayor Ji Mingyang.

Bai Xiaosheng's Xue Lian Wan He rose up from Zhongjing. Although Mayor Ji did not show partiality because of their personal acquaintance, his concern as a mayor was already enough to protect and nurture the young new company.

Though Xue Lian Wan He later moved to Linshen for better development, and within a short time soared like a dragon at sea, it also left some industries here.

As Bai Xiaosheng traveled along the way, wherever he looked and thought of, Red Lotus would find corresponding information about Zhongjing's development.

From that information, Bai Xiaosheng sensed that stronger opportunities were brewing here.

Perhaps, bringing Xue Lian Wan He or Zunbai Zhisheng back for cooperation with Zhongjing would be a good idea.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng in contemplation, Lin Weiwei quietly closed her mouth and did not disturb him.

Finally, the train arrived at the station.

The newly built high-speed rail station in Zhongjing happened to be between the city center and the county where Bai Xiaosheng's home was located, and naturally, large residential areas were also developed near the station.

As soon as Bai Xiaosheng and the others left the station, many waiting taxi drivers approached them.

Eventually, they got a taxi and headed home.

On the way, the taxi driver was particularly chatty, frequently praising the development of Zhongjing. His words were filled with deep pride in being a Zhongjing native.

"Our Mayor Ji Mingyang, he's really capable; I reckon our Zhongjing will become an almost first-tier city in five years, no, ten years, without a doubt!" the driver said proudly, "Also, Zhongjing has produced talents. I heard Mayor Ji's policies were inspired by a very brilliant young businessman, though I forgot his name—some Bai something. People say he's the god of wealth reincarnated, a celestial star descended to help our place rise, and then he just disappears without a trace."

Bai Xiaosheng was stunned.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying couldn't help but look at him, both of them smiling discreetly.

This seemed to be referring to Bai Xiaosheng.

Rumors among the common folk are so mystical and exaggerated.

How did a version of a heavenly deity descending even come about...

"Don't doubt it, there's divine power three feet above our heads, isn't there? Even if you don't believe in superstitions, that person must exist; Mayor Ji praised him during inspections a few times, without mentioning names," the taxi driver hastily said, seeing two of them laughing and Bai Xiaosheng showing a strange expression.

He couldn't let the passengers think he was talking nonsense.

"We believe, such an impressive person must have gone to a more impressive place to fulfill his ambitions. When he returns, perhaps he will benefit Zhongjing again," Lin Weiwei said, glancing at Bai Xiaosheng, with a smile.

Chapter 1526 - The House Is Not "Peaceful" _2

Lei Ying rubbed his nose and looked at the car roof.

Bai Xiaosheng looked out the window with a sense of helplessness.

"Girl, what you said makes sense!" The driver, seeing such a beautiful woman, was pleased to agree with his view and was quite delighted.

The taxi carrying Bai Xiaosheng and the others drove into the county town.

Seeing his small hometown also building roads and constructing buildings everywhere, Bai Xiaosheng was filled with emotion, thinking maybe in another two years, he wouldn't even recognize the roads when he came back.

Back in the day, Bai Xiaosheng had participated in the initial city planning and understood the development direction of Zhongjing. On his way here, he had reviewed numerous pieces of information regarding Zhongjing's development in his mind.

With keen insight, Bai Xiaosheng knew through various information and the old plans that the county's location was perfectly aligned with the future development direction of Zhongjing, making its future potential truly immeasurable.

However, it hadn't been advertised yet, probably to prevent real estate speculation.

"Young man, you all are from here, right? So am I."

The taxi driver glanced at Bai Xiaosheng's expression in the rearview mirror and laughed, "I see you carrying big and small bags of things, coming back from outside, right? Our place here, a lot of changes, huh. Everywhere is under construction, buildings going up all over. But, many are selling poorly, too many buildings. Also, while other places have clear plans, nothing heard here yet. Oh yes, the villa group you are heading to is quite something! You're visiting relatives, right?"

This driver was quite curious.

Seeing the fellow countryman enjoying the conversation, Bai Xiaosheng smirked and humored him.

Seeing they were almost home, unexpectedly, they encountered a traffic jam at an intersection.

The road ahead was crowded with people and cars, and there seemed to be some kind of commotion.

"What's going on there?" Bai Xiaosheng asked curiously, sitting up to look forward.

Of course, with something happening near home, he paid special attention.

It wasn't far from where he lived.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also looked over curiously.

"Hey, up ahead is a neighborhood under construction for the past couple of years, but it's still not finished. Some say the developer ran out of money. The project couldn't be completed." The taxi driver explained casually, seeming to know the situation well.

"So, is it the homeowners making a fuss?" Bai Xiaosheng asked.

"Not just the homeowners, but also the local residents," the taxi driver replied.

What does it have to do with the local residents?

Bai Xiaosheng was taken aback, and Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were also curious.

"The developer is from Anjiang, not a local. Initially, they weren't into real estate, but logistics. Since funds were insufficient, they started using the construction site as a warehouse, hoarding building materials and peddling them to Zhongjing City District and other places. Quite impressive, huh? Since the project is ongoing, the materials moving in and out, the county level government doesn't say anything. But, here's the problem—"

After a brief explanation, the driver sneered, "The project's heavy vehicles coming and going make the road the most congested and chaotic, and not long ago, someone even got hit fatally."

"Sometimes, in the middle of the night, there's construction and unloading of goods, making it hard for people to sleep with all the noise."

"You might ask, no one cares about it? Someone—yes, but they just go easy on them, and every now and then they resume."

"Such a big enterprise, bringing so much benefit to us, they dare not offend."

"Plus, with the unfinished building, homeowners are also causing trouble, so it looks like what you're seeing now."

Such a surprising situation?

Lin Weiwei couldn't help but glance at Bai Xiaosheng, who also frowned slightly.

"The neighborhood where your relatives live, the location and scenery are great, but unfortunately, it got caught up in such a mess. The villa area has become a noisy place next to the train tracks, rough to deal with." The taxi driver lamented, "But who can do anything, right, for such a huge real estate developer, they are very powerful."

Listening to the taxi driver's account, Bai Xiaosheng furrowed his brows.

They hadn't yet reached home, uncertain if they were affected, so he didn't say anything.

While they were chatting in the car, the traffic started moving.

The taxi driver quickly shifted gears to go, and Bai Xiaosheng heard an unusual engine growl.

Following that, Bai Xiaosheng saw a ruggedly contoured vehicle forcefully coming up from behind, it was a Hummer.

The taxi they were in almost got sideswiped by it, the taxi driver was obviously startled.

The Hummer's driver was a young man, in his twenties, quite good-looking but with a defiant expression. While overtaking, he even threw an empty drink can directly at Bai Xiaosheng's taxi and cursed, "Move aside! Asshole!"

The empty drink can hit the taxi's passenger-side window where Lei Ying happened to be looking, the can striking right in front of his face.

Lei Ying's eyelids didn't even twitch as he coldly watched the other vehicle.

Clearly, it was the other party cutting in line, yet they still cursed.

The taxi driver, after the initial shock, muttered under his breath, "Damn bastard!"

Bai Xiaosheng sharply sensed something unusual, by common sense, a taxi driver being provoked like this, even if they wouldn't race up to confront and exchange curses, they would at least curse out loud in their car, especially since they had the right reasoning.

Yet this driver, in his own car, in a place where the others can't see or hear, was muttering curses under his breath, showing how stifled he felt.

Was it because the other was driving a Hummer, a rich person not to be trifled with?

Immediately, Bai Xiaosheng dismissed this thought.

Chapter 1527 - The Home Is Not "Peaceful"_3

Intuitively, it doesn't seem like that.

"Driver, do you know that person we just saw?" Lin Weiwei couldn't help but ask.

The taxi driver spat disdainfully and pointed ahead, "Isn't that the young master of that real estate developer, Lei Mingyao? He's always driving that beat-up Hummer around here, reckless and arrogant!"

"A damn nuisance, can't afford to offend them!" the taxi driver cursed with a mix of frustration and resignation.

That real estate company again!

Bai Xiaosheng's eyelids twitched slightly.

As they spoke, the car in front of them moved, and the taxi driver hurried to follow.

As for that aggressive Hummer, it had already cut in line and disappeared without a trace.

It's likely that many drivers have faced scolding from the Lei Family's young master.

Ordinary people don't dare provoke such people; even if they curse in return, they do so quietly and grudgingly, afraid of being noticed and unable to afford the consequences.

In a mere stretch of road, the taxi Bai Xiaosheng was in took a good half-hour to reach their destination.

When they got out of the car, everyone couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

Bai Xiaosheng bought a traditional courtyard in the Jingyu Courtyard project for his family. The security at the entrance is strict, requiring communication with the owner to allow entry.

After being allowed through, Bai Xiaosheng led Lin Weiwei, Lei Ying, and the others inside.

The scenery of this villa complex is pleasant, and the greenery has improved significantly over the past year, giving it a bit of a luxury home feel.

Of course, having seen top-tier family estates, Bai Xiaosheng knows that his home can only be considered an ordinary residence.

When Bai Xiaosheng and the others arrived home, his parents came out to greet them in person. Having not seen their son in a long time, they missed him dearly.

Also accompanying them were three uncles and aunts, who all wore smiles and were very welcoming.

After all, Bai Xiaosheng bought this luxury home and allowed them to stay as well.

Bai Xiaosheng's intention was naturally to have his grandmother surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

Surrounded by his family, Bai Xiaosheng entered his home, pleased with the elegant and comfortable setup.

He first paid respects to his grandmother Li Fengguan. Seeing her favorite grandson return made the old lady immensely happy.

Mother and son sat and talked for a long time while everyone else just accompanied them.

Bai Xiaosheng asked Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to give the gifts they brought from the Wei Family and America to his grandmother, as well as to his various uncles and aunts.

Everyone was naturally delighted.

The atmosphere at home was warm and harmonious.

"Stay for a couple more days on this visit!" After chatting, Li Fengguan got tired and needed to rest. As Bai Xiaosheng was leaving, the old lady did not forget to urge him.

Bai Xiaosheng naturally agreed with a smile.

Accompanied by his uncles, Bai Xiaosheng took Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to their family's own yard with his parents.

Along the way, Bai Xiaosheng felt that his mother, Li Qiuyun, was very fond of Lin Weiwei. She often hinted that he should get married, and Bai Xiaosheng understood that his mother might see any charming woman as a potential daughter-in-law.

Actually, Bai Xiaosheng had said he had a girlfriend but couldn't bring her home for now, promising he would in the future.

However, he estimated that his mother didn't believe him, assuming he was too focused on work and just brushing her off.

Now, seeing Lin Weiwei so graceful, courteous, and well-mannered, Li Qiuyun seemed eager for her to be her daughter-in-law.

His father, Bai Minghang, was also chatting with Lei Ying as they walked, which surprised Bai Xiaosheng.

When they reached their yard, the rooms had already been tidied up.

Given that the Bai Family's place was so large, someone naturally had to manage it. Initially, Li Qiuyun refused, saying she could handle it herself and wasn't used to being served.

It was Bai Xiaosheng who had his invested housekeeping company send people over forcefully. Over time, Li Qiuyun accepted it.

Their little yard had one cleaner who came daily, and a housekeeper, totaling just two hired people, which wasn't much.

Even those two, Li Qiuyun had treated as sisters, like family.

Returning to his own home, Bai Xiaosheng truly felt a sense of warmth and comfort, even finding his meals delicious.

That evening, Bai Xiaosheng washed up early and went to bed, preparing to catch up on his lost sleep.

In the first half of the night, Bai Xiaosheng slept quite well, but in the latter half, he was suddenly woken by bursts of noise.

The rumbling machine sounds were like a demonic incantation, jarring his eardrums and making it difficult to sleep.

Bai Xiaosheng tried many times, but there was no way to fall asleep.

Finally, he sat up abruptly, his eyes filled with anger.

He remembered that there was an unfinished building and an illegal warehouse next door!

When he heard the taxi driver mention how the project was disturbing residents, he didn't really feel it.

Now it seems like his family couldn't even sleep.

Recalling seeing his family during the day, it seemed he noticed his parents, uncles, even his grandmother had some dark circles under their eyes, making Bai Xiaosheng's expression even darker.

"Damn it, what kind of crappy company dares to disturb my family's peace!"

Bai Xiaosheng was angry.

Chapter 1528 - Bai Xiaosheng's Solution

On his first day back home, Bai Xiaosheng, who just wanted a good night's sleep, was tormented by noise in the middle of the night, nearly driving him insane.

He managed to hang on until dawn; when things quieted down outside, he finally got a short nap.

However, by the time he woke up again, it was already late morning.

After getting up, Bai Xiaosheng rubbed his face to wake himself up, and went to freshen up.

At this moment, he looked quite displeased.

Last night, he held back and didn't storm the construction site in the middle of the night.

The site probably only had workers there now.

Those workers just earn money for their work, there's no point talking to them; the ones to find are the project leaders, the big bosses!

Moreover, Bai Xiaosheng, a dignified executive president of Zhenbei Group's Greater China Region, it's quite degrading to cause a scene personally.

However, this matter needs to be resolved quickly, it is urgent, Bai Xiaosheng decided, he would go after breakfast.

No matter how the other side plans to solve it, the disturbance to the residents must stop!

In fact, there are already clear regulations regarding construction hours; just follow the rules.

Why rush the work in the middle of the night; the project developers are simply unreasonable!

During his wash-up, Bai Xiaosheng met Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying, who were also just getting up, with dark circles under their eyes and equally unpleasant expressions.

The two of them were very unhappy, not only was it difficult to sleep due to yesterday's noise, but the crucial point was that it was the first day of being guests at Bai Xiaosheng's home. To get up so late in the morning, what was that, really embarrassing!

Of course, everyone didn't sleep well in the middle of the night, and it's understandable to have overslept...

Bai Xiaosheng first gave the two a bitter smile, then his gaze turned cold, "After breakfast, you both come with me to check out that project!"

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying nodded immediately.

The project developers were really excessive, ignoring the project noise, they were even working in the middle of the night. It's simply life-threatening!

While the three were getting ready, Li Qiuyun also came over to call them for breakfast.

Though eating at this time is a bit late.

Freshly cooked millet porridge, freshly fried fritters, homemade red oil pickles, especially delicious.

Bai Xiaosheng, while eating breakfast, finally felt a bit more comfortable.

"You guys didn't get much rest, did you?" Li Qiuyun noticed the three kids with dark circles, a bit pained, muttering, "It's all because of the noise from the nearby project, but it's not always this loud, it's rare, only a few times a month."

"Such noise only a few times a month!" Bai Xiaosheng immediately frowned.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying also exchanged frowning glances.

Li Qiuyun sighed lightly and smiled helplessly, "Your father and I, along with your uncles and their spouses, also protested with people from the nearby community, but the other side's attitude was not good."

Li Qiuyun smiled helplessly again, "Currently, the district is involved, saying it is mediating, but who knows how long it will take."

Bai Xiaosheng said nothing but clearly accelerated his eating.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying noticed this and also sped up.

Knowing that their father Bai Minghang went to grandma's, Bai Xiaosheng and company planned to go over after breakfast, and Li Qiuyun joined them.

Entering grandma's courtyard and walking in, they hadn't reached inside when they heard voices from grandma's room, so they slowed their steps.

"Second brother, did you hear it? The noise was too loud yesterday. It's simply impossible to sleep!" Complained the third aunt, "We're discussing here, but what's the use? We've found who we should find; protested as we should protest, so what's the use! I think someone needs to intervene with more authority for it to be effective."

"Yes, yes, third sister is right. The big real estate developer, being from elsewhere, it seems like local departments don't work here. I also think unless a higher-level big figure gets involved, nothing will change." Fourth aunt chimed in.

"What exactly are you trying to say?" Bai Minghang couldn't help but ask.

"Isn't Sheng back now..." Bai Mingzhi's wife hesitated, suggesting, "He used to be able to reach the mayor's line, in my view, he could report to the city, ask the mayor for help?"

"Sheng is away from Zhongjing, and it's said that he's doing quite well outside, hasn't he got a few friends in the business world, go find someone, maybe connect with that big real estate developer, ask them for a favor, wouldn't that work too." Fourth aunt added.

Inside, Bai Minghang remained silent.

"We're not saying this just for ourselves, grandma is old, it's not good if she's often sleepless!"

"Yes, if the old lady's health develops issues, second brother you will also be pained, right?"

Uncles and aunts voiced one after another.

Bai Minghang continued to be silent.

Li Qiuyun wanted to step forward quickly but was stopped by Bai Xiaosheng.

He wanted to hear what his family meant.

"Enough!" Grandma Li Fengguan's voice came, carrying authority amidst the low tone, "Sheng, this child, is struggling alone outside with the achievements he has now, not easy! The family never gave him any solid support, now there's a bit of trouble, and you want to seek him? I disagree with this thing! In front of my eldest grandson, none of you are allowed to mention this matter! When asked, you should say this issue will be resolved in two or three days, do not trouble him!"

Bai Xiaosheng listened, feeling warmly moved, without staying, directly stepped into the inner room.

Father, all the uncles were present, Grandma Li Fengguan sat in the center, with grandmother's physique clearly seeming a bit frail.

Upon Bai Xiaosheng's entry, everyone paused for a moment, then smiles appeared, though somewhat covered up.

"Sheng, why are you getting up so early, young people tend to oversleep, traveling can be tiring, why not rest more. This is home, nobody's saying anything." Li Fengguan looked at Bai Xiaosheng and immediately smiled kindly, saying.

Chapter 1529 - Bai Xiaosheng's Solution_2

Bai Xiaosheng smiled at his grandmother, his parents, and all the uncles and aunts, then said, "Grandma, I've heard everything you've said. On the way home, we also passed by that construction site and heard about the situation. We experienced it firsthand last night. I'm here now to tell you that we want to go over there, talk to them, and see if there's any way to solve this."

Upon hearing Bai Xiaosheng say this, the Bai family's uncles and aunts' eyes brightened.

They believed that since Bai Xiaosheng knew the mayor, and was doing well in the business world, he should have a chance to solve the problem.

"Asking for favors carries a debt of gratitude. What kind of favor could make that big developer bow down? Xiaosheng, be prepared." Bai Minghang couldn't help but say.

Bai Xiaosheng's father, Bai Minghang, is a man of integrity and has never asked for favors in his life.

Now that he is older, he cares more about his son, hence his words.

"Dad, I understand what you mean." Bai Xiaosheng smiled at Bai Minghang, "Don't worry. I won't ask anyone for help in this matter, not the mayor nor friends in the business world. Besides, asking them might not work anyway. We're just going to check it out, talk to the other side, and find a solution. Sit down and have a good chat with them."

Bai Xiaosheng firmly stated that he wouldn't ask for favors.

The hopeful eyes of Bai family's uncles and aunts dimmed.

Suddenly, they thought:

Could it be that Bai Xiaosheng isn't doing as well as he seems?

Not even better than before?

So, when he said he wouldn't ask for favors, maybe it's to avoid losing face.

Bai family's uncles and aunts felt even more discouraged.

Indeed, Bai Xiaosheng, although he has made money and bought this house, there are many villas in this area, which doesn't make him stand out much.

With Bai Xiaosheng saying this, it was clear he wasn't confident.

Bai family's uncles and aunts were somewhat disappointed.

"If that's the case, you can go have a look, just make sure not to cause any conflict. Who knows, maybe my eldest grandson can persuade them." Li Fengguan said with a smile.

She also knew that once Bai Xiaosheng made up his mind, he would see it through.

Knowing that Bai Xiaosheng wasn't harmed, she felt relieved.

Watching the most accomplished young member of the family finally caring about the matter, the Bai family's uncles and aunts couldn't be happy.

They believed that since Bai Xiaosheng wouldn't ask for favors, just going to reason with the other party had almost no chance of succeeding.

Even Bai Minghang and his wife did not stop him, letting their son try, knowing he would handle it well.

Thus, Bai Xiaosheng took Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying out of the Bai family, and walked towards the project.

The distance truly wasn't far.

Driving would just end up in traffic, walking was faster.

Along the way, Lin Weiwei held a small, lightweight tablet, searching information while walking, and reporting her findings to Bai Xiaosheng—

"The developer of that project is called Dafeng Jiye, a logistics company in Anjiang Province that transitioned and renamed itself for real estate business two years ago, and still runs logistics. Their headquarters is in the capital of Anjiang Province. Xiaosheng, do you think we need to notify the regional manager here and have them taken care of?"

Lin Weiwei spoke lightly yet forcefully.

She noticed the Bai family's uncles and aunts looked disappointed but couldn't speak out for Bai Xiaosheng.

They thought Bai Xiaosheng couldn't handle the matter without asking for help?

Quite the contrary!

Bai Xiaosheng doesn't ask for help from big shots because he himself is one, fully capable of dealing with them!

With ease!

You must know that Zhenbei Group has enterprises everywhere with numerous subsidiaries in various types; if they joined forces against one company, it would be a swarm attack, easily done!

The other party simply can't withstand it.

Bai Xiaosheng was surprised by Lin Weiwei's fierce remarks and smiled at her, "Weiwei, why the heavy mood today? Casually saying to deal with them? Even suggesting to go to a regional manager? My regional managers are extremely busy implementing the tasks I've assigned. Using the group's power because of personal grievances isn't appropriate; it undermines our image."

Lin Weiwei pouted.

Beside them, Lei Ying nodded, "True, we shouldn't involve regional managers."

Bai Xiaosheng thought Lei Ying sided with him, but then heard Lei Ying say, "No need for a sledgehammer to crack a nut, using a cannon to shoot a mosquito. I think going directly to the province's industry leader is better; dealing with a small real estate company doesn't justify pulling in our regional managers, they have bigger matters to attend to."

Lei Ying seemed to contradict, but was actually like Lin Weiwei, also wanting to deal with them...

Bai Xiaosheng found it amusing and annoying.

Lei Ying had his reasons to say this.

Firstly, the noise from last night made him angry.

Secondly, yesterday in the taxi, he was hit by a can thrown by someone's son, leaving him upset.

Seeing Lei Mingyao, who drove a Hummer yesterday, and knowing the kind of person he was, it's not hard to deduce the character of his father.

Such unchecked indulgence of his son's rampant behavior, allowing the project to disturb locals, enjoying undue power, surely he's not a good person!

Chapter 1530 - Bai Xiaosheng's Solution_3

Teaching them a lesson is not bullying; at most, it's acting on behalf of justice and eliminating harm for the people!

Lei Ying didn't find anything wrong with it at all; in fact, he agreed with Lin Weiwei's suggestion.

Although Lin Weiwei only said these words in anger because the Bai Family was wronged, and Bai Xiaosheng's abilities were underestimated.

"Even if we let the provincial industry leaders handle it, that would be excessive." Bai Xiaosheng glanced at Lei Ying and affirmed.

Easily "wiping out" others is too arrogant.

Although they entirely have the capability to do so.

Currently, Bai Xiaosheng truly is in control of hundreds of companies and is a big figure who can appear on stage with Lu Yun.

In front of him, local small real estate companies are nothing but specks, like ants.

"There's no need to go to great lengths." Bai Xiaosheng added.

"Xiaosheng, you're not planning to be so direct; do you really intend to appeal to their emotions and reason with them?" Lin Weiwei said incredulously.

The other party might not be willing to listen to him.

Unless Bai Xiaosheng reveals his identity.

But having the high and mighty Executive President of the Zhenbei Group Greater China Region stoop to persuade others to do good would sound degrading and could harm the prestige of the Greater China Region. It's better to...

"Eliminate" them...

Even if not actually targeting their company, at the very least, their arrogance should be severely tamped down so they wouldn't dare to work through the night here.

Lin Weiwei thought privately.

Lei Ying was also troubled, "With your status, Xiaosheng, discussing solutions with them in a polite manner would be even more troublesome, right?"

If he doesn't reveal his identity, he won't meet their leaders; if he does, it might leak information, becoming gossip fodder.

For these worries, Bai Xiaosheng merely smiled.

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying were troubled, but he was not worried.

"Xiaosheng, do you have an idea?" Lin Weiwei noticed this and immediately asked with anticipation.

Lei Ying also looked at Bai Xiaosheng.

"Well, sort of." Bai Xiaosheng walked forward, "I went there to ask—"

"Whether their project is for sale!"

Won't stop the construction?

Then just buy it.

After all, he still has more than a billion on his card...

Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying exchanged a stunned look, completely incredulous, as they watched Bai Xiaosheng walk away and quickly caught up with him.

They were quite impressed with Bai Xiaosheng's readiness to buy out the entire project over a disagreement.

When Bai Xiaosheng and the others reached near the project entrance, they happened to see many people leaving in dejection.

Lin Weiwei stopped one of them, only to find out they had attended a protest, but it didn't succeed.

The project had ferocious guards stationed with dozens of security personnel.

Although these guards wore uniforms and looked quite official, each of them had fierce expressions, muscular builds, even tattoos, and their words carried a threatening tone without being vulgar.

They were clearly not to be messed with, and they also mentioned that if there were any more disturbances since the big boss was visiting today, nothing might get resolved.

Under implicit threats and persuasion, the protesters had no choice but to disperse.

"I didn't expect they would have such a move." Bai Xiaosheng murmured with a blank expression.

"The boss of Dafeng Jiye is called Lei Dafeng." Lin Weiwei conveyed the information she had found out to Bai Xiaosheng.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded; in fact, he knew even earlier because Red Lotus could instantly retrieve related information.

Lei Dafeng personally visiting, coupled with the project's rush yesterday, suggested a big business related to construction materials, and also to check on the project's progress.

On one hand, dismantling and processing construction materials, on the other hand, speeding up the project, making quite a stir in the middle of the night.

Likely, the timing matched with the delivery of materials, Bai Xiaosheng speculated.

Of course, since the other party's boss was here, discussing would be even easier.

Bai Xiaosheng and the others went straight ahead.

At the entrance, they were stopped by security.

As the person mentioned earlier, these guards were sturdy, emitting hostility, hired toughs.

"Stop, what are you here for?" a guard glared at them and asked.

"We're from Fenghe, here to talk business with Mr. Lei Dafeng." Bai Xiaosheng said calmly.

He reported a large local real estate company from the group that Lin Weiwei had already contacted through Li Haofeng's name, and they naturally cooperated.

"From Fenghe?" The guard still eyed them suspiciously, but his companion beside him had heard something about it and subtly tugged his sleeve.

The two whispered to each other.

"You wait here, I'll go confirm." The guard blocking the path turned back, now speaking more politely.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded with a smile and agreed.

The guard went to make a call and soon returned, smiling at Bai Xiaosheng and the others, his attitude becoming extraordinarily courteous, "Verified, Fenghe has also contacted our Mr. Lei, please follow me."

Bai Xiaosheng smiled, nodded, and led Lin Weiwei and Lei Ying to follow the guard inside.

Inside the vast area, one side was bustling with construction, building houses, while the other was lined with rows of steel storage rooms filled with piles of construction materials, with many people busy at work.

As they walked in, a slack-walking young man with a cigarette dangling from his lips approached, followed by several suited individuals.

The guard quickly greeted them, nodding and bowing obsequiously.

"You are from Fenghe?"

The young man arrogantly asked Bai Xiaosheng, his gaze sticking to Lin Weiwei and struggling to shift away.

This young man, whom Bai Xiaosheng had seen before, was indeed the one who drove a Hummer and threw a soda can at a taxi—the son of a real estate tycoon, Lei Mingyao.

At this moment, looking at the posture, was he here to greet them?

"Yes." Bai Xiaosheng calmly responded, taking a step across, blocking Lei Mingyao's view.

Lei Mingyao felt displeased being interrupted by Bai Xiaosheng, coldly looked at him, and asked, "What are you doing here?"

"Here to discuss some cooperation." Bai Xiaosheng smiled, his tone polite, "Is your project for sale?"
