

Two Trillion 2051

Chapter 2051: The Whole Audience, Amazed

Under the voice of Yun Guangzhi, the high-profile politicians, police chiefs, and others returned to the podium and took their seats in order. The middle-aged dean of this academy sat in the center of the podium, serving as both the host and the 'chief justice' today.

The joint inquiry reached this point, and it was practically no different from a court session.

As the meeting was about to begin, a sudden commotion came from the back door of the hall, as another wave of people surged in.

People in the hall couldn't help but turn their heads when they heard the noise, and were all stunned. The newcomers were far from ordinary; they came in with 'long guns and short cannons,' immediately setting up their equipment at the back.

It was actually a large wave of media reporters!

"What's going on? Didn't such events usually not include journalists?"

"Yeah, shouldn't they only appear at the press conference afterward?"

"Why is this time so special?"

People began whispering among themselves.

However, shortly after, someone voiced a different opinion, "In the past? How many times have there been such high-profile joint inquiries by the Twelve Nations? How many times have we participated? Can we really say it's unreasonable? What if things change from now on..."

Although these words were not pleasant, they carried some truth, and some people nodded in agreement.

Soon, someone discovered something and quietly exclaimed, “These media are not ordinary! They are among the best from each country!”

Upon hearing this, everyone quickly examined the reporters’ clothing and the logos on their equipment.

Sure enough, those media were the top-tier outlets from Benzhou countries!

It seemed reasonable for them to appear on such occasions...

Bai Xiaosheng and others couldn’t help but glance back.

Yun Guangzhi smiled from the side and said to Bai Xiaosheng, “I know you’ve been under a lot of pressure lately, and your business has been affected, right? I suggested to various parties to let some media in to clear your name right away, as a form of compensation.”

Hearing these words, Lin Weiwei was shocked. Could this old man arrange even this? The extent of his influence was unimaginable!

Bai Xiaosheng was also very grateful, and said to Yun Guangzhi, “Thank you so much, Elder Yun! You’ve thought of everything!”

Yun Guangzhi chuckled, “If you accept this favor, that truly is excellent, excellent!”

Yun Guangzhi’s words had a bit of a ‘sinister’ undertone.

Bai Xiaosheng couldn’t help but think to himself, “Elder, could you please refrain from using that tone with me? It leaves me confused and with goosebumps, always feeling like I’m about to be set up...”

Of course, Bai Xiaosheng would never say this to Yun Guangzhi in public.

Meanwhile, the Landvo Couple also noticed those major media outlets and exchanged glances.

Like everyone else, they were curious and astonished.

“With these top-notch media present, even live broadcasting, if Yun Guangzhi dares to openly cover something up in front of the cameras, he’ll definitely face public criticism!” Catherine actually thought this was a good thing.

Landvo nodded with a cold smile, “In front of the cameras, everything must be evidenced, no one can act recklessly! Moreover, as long as Bai Xiaosheng is linked to certain matters, even if the evidence isn’t sufficient, the external media will pin all the issues on him and won’t let go!”

In the past week, Bai Xiaosheng’s whereabouts were kept secret, constantly on the move, traveling between police stations and other institutions, and the media couldn’t even catch a glimpse of him, let alone get an interview. Each media outlet was racking its brains to find snippets from the Twelve Nations’ police press releases to piece together news articles.

Now with footage available, those middle-sized and small media outlets seeking traffic wouldn’t miss out. Whatever direction draws the public’s attention most easily, they’ll obviously stir it.

With such a huge mess, how could Bai Xiaosheng possibly be ‘innocent’ or ‘wronged’?

The middle-sized and small media won’t accept it, nor will the public.

The Landvo Couple thought of these things and exchanged knowing smiles, their expressions exceptionally content.

Those elite mainstream media reporters, cameramen, and editors were of the highest caliber, and once they set up their equipment, they waited silently without making a noise.

On the podium, the middle-aged dean sought confirmation from Yun Guangzhi with his eyes, then exchanged opinions with those on either side before turning on the microphone in front of him and tapping it gently.

The sound check instantly quieted the room as everyone looked over.

“Ladies and gentlemen, the joint investigation involving twelve cases across four countries now officially begins!” said the middle-aged dean solemnly.

At once, the room fell into focused silence, with many people casting their eyes toward Bai Xiaosheng.

The investigation was finally about to begin!

No, it should be said that the ‘interrogation’ was finally about to begin!

The Landvo Couple also looked over with smiles.

This long-awaited scene had finally arrived!

Just when everyone thought the meeting would have Bai Xiaosheng stand and take questions in the inquiry seat, the middle-aged dean spoke again, “But before we start, I’d like everyone to see something!”

These words left everyone in a daze.

As the staff operated it, the sword and shield emblem on the rear wall of the podium split open, one half rising and the other descending, revealing a screen that spanned the whole wall!

It seemed the academy, funded by the Twelve Nations, spared no expense on facilities!

Soon, images began to light up one by one on the big screen, with as many as twelve different frames.

Chapter 2052 - The Whole Audience, All Astonished (Part 2)

The scenes were just like those commonly seen on television, filmed from the first-person perspective of police forces, special police, and special forces in attack mode.

Everyone in the venue was shocked and bewildered by the scenes.

Even the Landvo Couple was the same.

However, Catherine's eyes suddenly narrowed, and she pointed in horror at a particular scene. Landvo looked over and was also struck speechless.

Wasn't that scene showing one of their hidden "factories"?!

Though without a sign, such an important place could not be unrecognizable to them!

"There, and there!" Catherine exclaimed in horror, pointing repeatedly. It wasn't just one scene; she recognized at least three or four, all part of their illicit business!

Landvo's eyes filled with fear.

Why were their soon-to-be-disposed businesses targeted and even to the point of a cleaning operation, yet they were still unaware!

"Could they have been watching our businesses all along?" Catherine was shaken to the core and couldn't help but feel a pang of fear.

Landvo realized this too, looking fearfully at his wife.

Due to the existence of this joint investigation, they always thought Bai Xiaosheng had attracted everyone's attention, so they relaxed the urgency to rid themselves of trouble, allowing Meifu and Ruby to act in secret. Naturally, doing so was less conspicuous and safer, a notion Catherine also agreed with.

However, if they had known that those were under surveillance from the beginning, they would have rather taken the risk to cut ties swiftly.

Of course, as the masterminds, unless Meifu betrayed them, it would be extremely difficult for any evidence to lead back to them.

The key question was, today, had Meifu gone to those factories!

The couple was heartbroken.

The Landvo Couple's pointing fingers and low whispers did not draw much attention from others.

Surprised reactions and pointing fingers at the scene were not exclusive to the couple.

Regaining her composure, Catherine quickly regained her low profile and took out her phone to try and send a message to contact Meifu.

But thereafter, she found that there was no signal here at all.

"What's going on? Has the signal in this venue been blocked?" Catherine was secretly alarmed.

With such a significant operation happening, in a venue full of people, it was understandable for the signal to be blocked!

"Let's go, let's leave!" Catherine said decisively.

First, leave the venue, then quickly contact Meifu, to save what they could in this worst-case scenario.

Forget the business, forget the money!

All they needed was to sever ties!

Just as Catherine was about to stand up, a male and female staff approached, with cold faces said, "Please sit down, ma'am! The meeting is starting; you are not allowed to leave now!"

Not allowed to leave?

Seeing their unyielding expressions, Catherine understood she couldn't leave!

"I have an emergency, can't I even go to the bathroom!" Catherine said angrily.

"If it's an emergency, please hold it, right now no one is allowed to leave." The female staff said, "If you need the bathroom, there is one in the venue. Armed security exists outside the venue, and they won't let you leave either."

Hearing this, Catherine's face turned pale and livid, and Landvo wanted to protest loudly but was stopped by her.

It was useless, since the curtain arose, it was impossible for them to leave, after all, this involved highly classified military secrets.

Leaving now, they would also face charges of leaking secrets, but Catherine was ready to risk it all.

But now, it seemed they could only hope the situation wasn't as bad as they feared!

Hope that Meifu, and Ruby weren't present!

At this moment, the screen moved, and Catherine and Landvo immediately looked over.

A heavy-handed joint operation involving multiple countries had begun; some scenes even depicted intense police and criminal shootouts, though the police were meticulously arranged, heavily armed, and swiftly executed, sweeping through as if an autumn wind sweeping leaves, with every scene ending in a triumph.

The Landvo Couple saw familiar faces on the screen, feeling as though they had fallen into a frozen abyss.

Finally, they even saw Meifu and Ruby!

Their hearts almost stopped beating.

The worst scenario, in the end, still came!

Landvo and Catherine looked like sculptures in the chilly wind.

Catherine's pupils alternated between constricting and dilating.

Seeing that seven or eight out of ten captives were their own people, she finally realized she had been wrong from the start!

A conspiracy!

This was a massive conspiracy!

A conspiracy aimed at them!

But when did this conspiracy begin...

On the podium, the dean of the academy, seeing the end of the operation, turned off the screen and said in a loud voice, "Previously, twelve major criminal cases in the four countries were provocations against the police forces, but they also gave us clues. Today, the countries united, launched a decisive strike, as everyone has seen, the law will prevail! Justice will prevail!"

The middle-aged dean's words instantly triggered applause from the entire audience.

But clearly, the applause did not include the Landvo Couple.

They were already in chaos, complete chaos...

The middle-aged dean waited until the applause subsided, before continuing, "To achieve today's results, we must thank every officer fighting on the front line, thank every special forces member! Additionally, we must thank one person! He is the one who coordinated all these operations, our police legend, my mentor—Mr. Yun Guangzhi!"

Saying this, the middle-aged dean stood up to applaud in respect. With his lead, all the big figures on the podium stood up and applauded in succession.

Chapter 2053: The Whole Audience Amazed

Applause erupted once again from the audience.

In usual situations like this, Yun Guangzhi would sit firmly, at most with a faint smile on his face.

Such achievements were far too ordinary for him to even warrant a smile.

But today, contrary to what the middle-aged dean and all the important figures on the podium expected, not only did Yun Guangzhi stand up, he also walked onto the podium, nodded to them, and reached out for the microphone.

The middle-aged dean didn't dare delay, personally handing the microphone to Yun Guangzhi.

A legend speaking publicly was indeed a rare occurrence. The entire crowd fell silent, paying close attention. The media in the back aimed all their cameras at Yun Guangzhi alone.

Yun Guangzhi took the microphone, faced everyone, and smiled.

“Today, I want to especially thank one person for this victory,” Yun Guangzhi said slowly.

This statement immediately incited a burst of astonishment from the audience.

A legendary figure wants to especially thank someone, who could it be?

Even the middle-aged dean and the notable figures on the podium were quietly surprised. Likewise, they were curious, unsure of who Yun Guangzhi would mention.

“The one I want to thank is Mr. Bai Xiaosheng, who is to undergo the joint investigation today!” Yun Guangzhi provided the answer, pointing towards Bai Xiaosheng.

At this moment, even Bai Xiaosheng was taken aback.

All eyes converged in Bai Xiaosheng’s direction.

Was it due to Bai Xiaosheng that these issues were exposed?

But why would Yun Guangzhi thank him? It made no sense...

“I want to thank Mr. Bai Xiaosheng for prioritizing the big picture, enduring humiliation and carrying a heavy burden for all these days, cooperating with the police to solve many cases. He has silently borne the public’s misunderstanding and pressure, yet he always believed in justice and truth! In fact, he has been collaborating with the academy and me all this time, setting up this ironclad net of justice and law! I thank him for his contribution and herewith clear his name!”

Yun Guangzhi’s words made the whole audience gasp, followed by a burst of astonishment.

“So Bai Xiaosheng was actually collaborating with the Twelve Nations Police Bureau, not the mastermind?!”

“I didn’t expect, truly didn’t expect, such a truth behind it all!”

“Unbelievable, Bai Xiaosheng was actually wronged!”

“Now, it’s finally clarified!”

The audience erupted in amazement.

The journalists in the back practically had their eyes glowing, their hands trembling with excitement as they held pens or various devices.

Big news!

Absolutely big news!

Even novels wouldn’t dare write such an explosive reversal!

Bai Xiaosheng, Wei Xuelian, and others were startled by Yun Guangzhi’s words.

Even if Bai Xiaosheng cooperated with Yun Guangzhi, it wasn’t expected that Yun Guangzhi would publicly praise him before all national-grade media in such a manner.

“Elder Yun is really boosting your reputation, this degree of vindication is overwhelming, as much as you were misunderstood before, you can gain as much fame now, maybe you’ll even receive a joint medal,” Wei Xuelian couldn’t help but laugh as she spoke to Bai Xiaosheng.

Thus, Bai Xiaosheng transformed from a criminal into a hero of the South American police force, unimaginable!

“The old man is too exaggerated!” Bai Xiaosheng couldn’t help but murmur.

Over there, the Landvo Couple’s expression changed with shock as they looked incredulously towards Bai Xiaosheng.

When did Bai Xiaosheng team up with Yun Guangzhi!

They knew nothing about it, completely kept in the dark!

“Could it be, have we been played for fools all along!” Catherine trembled with anger, gritting her teeth.

At this moment, she lost all rationality, filled with immense fury!

She felt her pride in her intelligence was severely insulted!

Landvo also gritted his teeth, veins bulging in his cheeks.

On stage, Yun Guangzhi, after dropping a bombshell, seemed unsatisfied, smiled, and added, “Mr. Bai Xiaosheng and his capable assistant Mr. Lei Ying have been courteously invited by the academy to serve as honorary instructors; after this incident they will be teaching a sixty-hour course at the academy! I personally express my utmost gratitude for their spirit of dedication!”

This news caused even more astonishment among the audience.

How could Bai Xiaosheng, a mere businessman, be recognized by the academy and become an honorary instructor here?!

The prominent figures on the podium couldn’t help but turn to the middle-aged dean, who was already dumbfounded.

I didn't, I never said that, the academy never made such a decision...

The middle-aged dean, despite his inner refusal, showed a smile on his face, nodding with approval.

Bai Xiaosheng below was already speechless with shock, along with Lei Ying.

Recalling Yun Guangzhi's previous words, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but secretly grumble, "This old man, this is the favor he wanted from me!"

That's ruthless!

Sixty hours, damn it, ten days at six hours a day, no wonder Yun Guangzhi asked how long it would take to clear things up without him...

Now it's out in the open, even if Bai Xiaosheng wanted to refuse, it was impossible.

Alright, I accept!

Bai Xiaosheng, feeling helpless, nodded slightly at Yun Guangzhi, who was glancing over from the stage.

Yun Guangzhi was delighted.

This kid, sensible!

Then, Yun Guangzhi restrained his smile, holding the microphone as he looked around the crowd, "Seeing all this, maybe everyone wants to ask, is this joint investigation over, is Bai Xiaosheng free of issues and indeed a hero? Was there never a need for this joint investigation meeting?"

The people below looked at Yun Guangzhi, somewhat thinking along those lines.

“I want to tell everyone here that the joint investigation meeting is indeed necessary and will continue immediately!”

The crowd was surprised.

Continue, continue what, an award ceremony?

“But the investigation involves other individuals!”

This statement left everyone dumbfounded.

This joint investigation involves others?

The journalists in the back were instantly quivering with excitement.

Breaking news!

Huge breaking news!

Yun Guangzhi pointed to a direction, speaking solemnly, “Mr. Landvo, Ms. Catherine, you can come forth now!”

“Please, come and accept the investigation!”

Chapter 2054: Irrefutable Evidence

With Yun Guangzhi’s announcement, the whole venue was once again filled with surprise; the true subjects of this joint investigation were unexpectedly the Landvo Couple!

It’s important to know that Landvo in South America was akin to Lu Yun in Huaxia! Landvo was one of the top ten, even top five, most renowned figures in Benzhou’s business world!

Yun Guangzhi's request for the Landvo Couple to be investigated implied that all those cases were related to them, and one might even say they were the masterminds behind it!

Such explosive news set the eyes of reporters and editors from top media outlets alight.

The news kept coming, each bigger than the last; this time, they really hit the jackpot!

Even those observing the scene through camera lenses — top heads from major newspapers and TV stations — trembled as they gathered their best writers.

This sensational news had to be published before others, they must take the lead!

The station heads immediately cleared the main page and prime time to make way for this major news!

At this moment, at the scene.

Named directly, Landvo's face turned as white as paper, and Catherine's gaze appeared lifeless.

From initially believing there was still hope in this matter, now they understood they had fallen into a complete trap!

No matter when Bai Xiaosheng and Yun Guangzhi teamed up, whether they've known each other for a long time or one found the other, these people had set a trap to catch them!

When faced with impending crises, people often feel most fearful, but once facing the worst scenario, some quickly calm down and regain composure.

Catherine was such a person.

At this moment, Catherine stood up abruptly and even protested loudly to Yun Guangzhi, “Mr. Yun Guangzhi! You say you’re investigating us, but do you have evidence? Without proof and evidence, we’ll sue you for defamation!”

Catherine’s shout surprised everyone, even Landvo looked at his wife incredulously.

She actually dared to confront the legendary Yun Guangzhi openly?!

Catherine looked at Yun Guangzhi fearlessly, even in the face of this South American legend, law enforcement legend, her gaze was firm, displaying no fear and no retreat.

Daring to venture into those businesses, aware of the consequences if exposed, she’s meticulous and surely prepared.

From the start, most people below didn’t know she and Landvo were involved, over ninety percent of matters were handled by Meifu, below Meifu were Ruby and other “responsible” people.

As long as Meifu didn’t spill, she and Landvo were safe!

Meifu was just caught, and even if foolish, he couldn’t have confessed so quickly, nor pulled his sister and brother-in-law into it. Because with Landvo outside, there was a chance for Meifu inside. Worst-case scenario, if Meifu went in, with the couple working outside, Meifu could live comfortably inside.

Meifu should know this!

With this consideration, Catherine feared even Yun Guangzhi.

Saying he’s investigating us, then show the evidence!

This woman even looked at Yun Guangzhi with a provocative gaze.

Her boldness made Bai Xiaosheng inwardly admire.

The audience below and leaders above remained silent, observing Yun Guangzhi.

“Moreover, Bai Xiaosheng is tangled so deeply in this matter, with both testimonial and material evidence abundant; how can your words exonerate him!” Catherine challenged assertively, “I’m not convinced! The public is not convinced!”

This woman again pulled Bai Xiaosheng into it.

The muddier the water, the more advantageous the situation for her.

“Truly formidable,” Bai Xiaosheng couldn’t help but praise.

“A cornered beast fighting back,” Wei Xuelian smiled faintly.

On the podium, Yun Guangzhi looked at Catherine and smiled too.

“Ms. Catherine, you want evidence?” Yun Guangzhi glanced suggestively at the middle-aged director, then turned to Catherine, “Alright, then I’ll give you evidence!”

Challenging him was courageous, but escaping his hunt wasn’t that simple!

The middle-aged director understood Yun Guangzhi’s hint, signaling to the person controlling the curtain.

The screen behind transitioned to an interrogation scene. The interrogated subjects were naturally not the newly captured individuals, questioning them wouldn’t be this fast; these were the previous witnesses involved in the “Bai Xiaosheng Case,” testifying against Bai Xiaosheng.

On screen was the dialogue between the prisoner in front of the camera and the interrogator behind it.

“Mr. Meifu asked me to testify against Bai Xiaosheng, saying if I complied, he’d give me some money, ensuring I live without worry after my release; if I refused, he’d, he’d target my family!”

“Don’t worry, your family is under police protection. Also, that so-called money is in your name in America. We’ve already partnered with them, the account is frozen, you can’t get any money, cooperating with us is your only way out for sentence reduction.”

“I’ll speak, I’ll reveal everything... Mr. Meifu also mentioned, mentioned two people...”

“Who?”

“Mr. Landvo, and his wife Catherine!”

Then, the scene switched, showing another interrogation.

One witness after another had confessed!

They all mentioned Landvo and Catherine’s names.

This evidence couldn’t be clearer and more direct!

Catherine’s gaze was filled with shock and anger.

She had Meifu find reliable, tight-lipped, and absolutely loyal people to pressure or entice, repeatedly instructing them not to know her and Landvo’s involvement.

And yet, they all confessed, and were aware of the two’s existence!

Chapter 2055: Irrefutable Evidence_2

Meifu, you idiot! Fool! Pig!

Catherine was filled with hatred; she had thought that as half-brothers, he was one of her own and could be trusted, but it turned out he was completely unreliable!

Landvo had no anger left to express, sitting there looking as if life had left him.

Below the stage, the crowd was abuzz, pointing fingers at the couple.

The evidence continued playing on the screen, though in the penultimate frame, an emaciated old man, a white old man, appeared.

The old man claimed to be a craftsman who had merely made some fingerprint molds for someone. He was in North America, and someone in South America had used his products as a “middleman.” The latest batch of molds was made for Bai Xiaosheng.

The “middleman” went missing, rumored to have drowned when smuggling out of the country, feeding the sea turtles.

The last frame was a disreputable-looking man, who confessed that under Meifu’s orders, he had sunk a ship and sent a man longing for the North American paradise to meet his maker, the so-called “middleman” or “broker” as mentioned by the white old man...

Watching this, Catherine felt a throbbing headache.

Meifu, this was not just stupidity, it was sheer idiocy beyond comparison! Look at who he had chosen!

It was her own half-brother that had caused Catherine to be implicated!

If Meifu were present, she would personally cut him down!

The evidence was irrefutable.

Bai Xiaosheng's suspicions were cleared, and Landvo and Catherine were already up to the standard for investigation.

However, Catherine refused to sit idly by and await her doom!

"Mr. Yun Guangzhi, as you can see, those people only said they heard my and Mr. Landvo's involvement, which proves nothing!" Catherine shouted, "Everyone knows Meifu is my brother! He acted behind our backs, must we be aware of everything? All those things he did were his actions alone, carried out secretly. We were unaware and it's unrelated to us! My husband, Landvo, has a prestigious status, with no need to resort to such actions, it was Meifu who used his name to deceive others! Based on this, you cannot investigate us!"

Even in such dire straits, Catherine tried to snatch revival from death's victorious grip! She planned to sacrifice Meifu, to protect the main figure!

Yun Guangzhi touched his ear, where an invisible earpiece resided. Though the hall's equipment was shielded, it did not apply to his special channel.

"Elder Yun has already anticipated this, the more Catherine tries to argue, the deeper she gets!" Bai Xiaosheng noted the change in Yun Guangzhi's expression, muttering to himself.

Though directly facing Yun Guangzhi, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't quite discern the latter's thoughts towards him, but should Yun Guangzhi fail to mask his demeanor, Bai Xiaosheng could deduce a thing or two.

Sure enough, as Bai Xiaosheng expected.

Yun Guangzhi burst into hearty laughter, this sudden laughter filling Catherine with intense unease.

“Ms. Catherine, do you want more evidence? Alright, I’ll provide it!” Yun Guangzhi snapped his fingers.

On the screen, the image changed to show an old man with brown skin.

Those who knew him recognized that he was indeed Meifu’s biological father!

At this moment, the old man faced the camera, furious, “Catherine, how could you be so heartless, so ungrateful, pushing all the problems onto my son! Do you want to doom him? I knew it, you and your mother are both selfish, despicable! Fine, since it’s like this, don’t blame me! Officer, I’ll tell you everything I know! My son was actually under someone else’s orders!”

Seeing this scene, Catherine felt like she was struck by lightning, sweeping her eyes over to the camera focused on her from the corner of the stage.

Yun Guangzhi, the bastard, transmitted the live feed to her father!

The patriarch, with his preference for men, couldn’t bear her words and planned to confess! In that old man’s eyes, sons were more important than daughters, despite shared blood! Though he didn’t know much, it was still enough to endanger them!

“Andemes, you old man, how dare you spew nonsense!” Catherine screamed, pointing at the camera, “This has nothing to do with us, it’s all Meifu... If you dare slander, don’t blame me for being impolite! Think of the consequences!”

Catherine completely disregarded any new image, openly threatening her father.

This crude scene truly opened the eyes of the crowd below, eliciting a series of gasps.

Bai Xiaosheng shook his head, whispering, “After repeatedly losing her composure, smart as she is, she still fell into Elder Yun’s trap!”

“What’s going on, Xiaosheng?” Lin Weiwei couldn’t help but ask.

Bai Xiaosheng glanced at the camera, responding calmly, "If Elder Yun could show Catherine's father's reaction, don't you think he considered showing others this out-of-control scene?"

Lin Weiwei, not daring to believe it, glanced at the camera and couldn't resist asking, "How do you know that?"

"Because if it were me, I'd do the same. A wise one learns from others' stones," Bai Xiaosheng sighed.

Wei Xuelian also nodded slightly.

Her intelligence, naturally, led her to the same deduction.

Sure enough, Yun Guangzhi received another message, gesturing to the people behind to switch the frame again.

This time, it showed Meifu.

His face was particularly enlarged on the big screen, his shock and anger clearly visible.

"Catherine, what are you doing to father!" Meifu screamed, "You're, you're abandoning me, how could you! You're just like your mother, greedy, ruthless, shameless!"

Faced with Meifu's rage, the hostility on Catherine's face suddenly froze.

In truth, she was merely trying to scare her old father.

Chapter 2056: Irrefutable Evidence (Part 3)

That old man may value his son much more than his daughter, but he is still her biological father. How could she ever do something so vicious?

Unfortunately, the divide of being half-siblings has led them to such distrust at this moment!

“Meifu!” Catherine screamed, trying to stop him from speaking further.

“Catherine!” Meifu shouted, “Officer, I confess, I will tell everything. Catherine and Landvo were the masterminds behind it all. They are the true bosses from behind the scenes, and I have evidence!”

The scene cut off here, freezing on Meifu’s furious expression.

Catherine just felt a wave of dizziness, her body swayed, and she fell heavily into a seat.

Landvo looked at his wife in despair, slumped like a rag.

Their final struggle was just used by that old devil Yun Guangzhi. Yun Guangzhi is practically a demon, using the most untestable parts of human nature to crush opponents!

“It’s all beyond one’s control.” Bai Xiaosheng sighed instead of feeling excitement or joy.

For the first two days, Bai Xiaosheng didn’t receive any calls from Yun Guangzhi, nor hear any good news from Lei Ying, forcing him to come up with a final countermeasure, starting with this angle...

Family bonds, human nature, sometimes they are the most tragic, terrifying, and dreadful weapons.

And when faced with a life-and-death situation, people are always forced to make the most ruthless choices.

Yun Guangzhi did not have any victory excitement or joy, he simply lowered the receiver, glanced calmly at the Landvo couple, then handed the receiver back to the middle-aged director.

The room exploded into murmured discussions after a moment of silence.

“Landvo couple... this is irrefutable evidence!”

“With all this evidence, what else can they argue about?”

“Sigh, who would have thought, those business figures engaging in such disgraceful actions in secret!”

“They’re done for!”

Everyone lamented and expressed regret.

Landvo reached out to hold his wife’s hand; at this point, he became rather calm.

Since the inevitable has come, they can only accept it!

Catherine blankly looked at her husband Landvo, seeing his unwavering gaze.

Catherine gazed intently at Landvo for two seconds, then suddenly embraced him.

Everyone assumed it was the couple’s last moment of tenderness; even Landvo thought so, gently patting Catherine’s back to comfort her.

Unexpectedly, Catherine leaned over to Landvo’s ear and whispered three sentences.

“Take care of my mother and my sister!”

“Visit me often in the future!”

“Don’t spare Bai Xiaosheng!”

Landvo was stunned, but Catherine pushed him away.

Catherine suddenly stood up and loudly proclaimed to Yun Guangzhi about to step down from the podium and all the big figures above it, “I confess!”

This sudden shout made everyone freeze.

Even Yun Guangzhi looked at Catherine in surprise.

Facing the crowd’s attention, Catherine remained utterly calm and declared in a loud voice, “Everything was done by me alone!”

“It was me, leveraging my husband Landvo’s name and resources, working with my brother Meifu to execute everything!”

“You can investigate; all the signatures and accounts are mine!”

“Those people you’ve caught never received direct orders from my husband.”

“Meifu lied and implicated others to gain a lighter sentence, his words are not credible!”

At the last moment, the supremely clever Catherine chose the “dumbest” path, taking all the blame on herself!

Landvo’s eyes couldn’t help but widen, wanting to stand up, but a delicate hand firmly held him down.

Catherine gave him a determined look, silently mouthing, “Remember the three sentences I just told you!”

Landvo stared into Catherine's eyes, gazing intently for a long time, but ultimately, he did not stand.

Catherine's unexpected words and actions sparked much discussion.

Yun Guangzhi squinted his eyes, completely disbelieving her nonsense.

Bai Xiaosheng, Wei Xuelian, and others were very surprised, not expecting Catherine to sacrifice herself for Landvo at the last moment!

Once those charges are confirmed, she will face a sentence of at least fifty years, almost without the possibility of parole.

Next, Catherine stepped forward to face the investigation, remembering everything clearly and confessing each detail honestly.

From the beginning, in order to prevent the worst-case scenario, she handled everything herself.

Landvo was subsequently investigated, but he had perfect alibis and "unknowing" proofs for many things.

As long as he's not directly implicated, Landvo, hiring the best lawyers, might escape the ties!

However, regardless, South America will no longer accommodate him!

After three hours of trial, Catherine was handcuffed and taken away, and Landvo, due to insufficient evidence, was not detained, but restricted to a certain area, subject to ongoing investigation.

Some were satisfied with the outcome, such as Catherine; some were dissatisfied, such as Yun Guangzhi.

But as Catherine previously said, even Yun Guangzhi can't ignore the evidence to convict someone.

As Catherine was led away, she smiled at Yun Guangzhi, looked at Bai Xiaosheng with hate in her eyes, and finally gave one last glance to Landvo.

Surrounded by reporters, Landvo didn't say a word, his gaze followed his wife, and when it landed on Bai Xiaosheng, it was filled with murderous intent.

It was all that bastard, collaborating with Yun Guangzhi, that caused their total downfall!

Landvo remembered Catherine's words, to seek revenge on Bai Xiaosheng!

At this moment, communication restrictions were lifted, and Bai Xiaosheng took out his phone to send a message.

The recipient, Wen Yan.

The Landvo couple thought themselves extremely clever, even able to fool the headquarters' monitoring department, but little did they know Wen Yan was not easily tricked. Wen Yan also played along and lulled the couple to expose their flaws, with Bai Xiaosheng cooperating. Of course, with Yun Guangzhi's intervention, everything became simpler...

Surrounded by reporters, Landvo faced a barrage of microphones and questions.

He shoved his way out roughly but felt his phone vibrate. He didn't want to answer, but the caller's number caught his attention.

Call from the headquarters' monitoring department!

Landvo still didn't answer, but when the call disconnected, a short message popped up.

The message contained two short sentences that he saw: "Mr. Landvo, evidence of your corruption has been received by the headquarters, initiating an investigation..."

Landvo felt nothing, pocketing his phone.

At the moment Landvo received the message, a crisp "prompt sound" erupted in Bai Xiaosheng's mind – "Promotion task accomplished!"

Chapter 2057 - The Weakest Support, the Best Arrangement

As Wen Yan initiated an investigation into Landvo, Bai Xiaosheng's promotion task met the criteria and was officially completed.

On this day, entering his sixth year with the group, Bai Xiaosheng could finally reach new heights!

However, at this moment, Bai Xiaosheng did not feel overly joyful, at least not as excited as he had imagined.

Step by step, he had walked steadily to where he was now, with only a calm mind, as the promotion task was completed according to his plan.

There was indeed a sense of accomplishment, though.

But having just witnessed the downfall of a brilliant person, Bai Xiaosheng's heart was filled with sighs.

Soon after, a doubt arose in Bai Xiaosheng's heart, "Wait a minute, the initial promotion task was supposed to be 'investigate the South America Region leader, report them to the group, until they receive punishment.' Isn't Wen Yan just investigating Landvo? How was it completed?"

When Bai Xiaosheng expressed his confusion, Red Lotus provided an explanation.

"Currently, Mr. Wen Yan has provided a lot of evidence, and the headquarters' top executives decided to suspend all of Landvo's duties, placing him under investigation, which is considered a certain level of action. Therefore, the system deems the task complete, though not fully. Some task rewards will be distributed based on the extent of Landvo's punishment."

Such a 'humanized' decision, who would have thought this is what the artificial intelligence was like.

Bai Xiaosheng silently remarked in his heart.

Who knows how Red Lotus felt about it.

In fact, Red Lotus had no reaction and began procedurally announcing some content—

"Due to the reason for your chosen task branch in the previous phase, the speed of score increase in this phase rises by five percent, the position is in an uncontrollable state, and the assistance is in a weakened version. Detailed explanation as follows—"

"In this phase, your level is elevated to the 'Business Division Leader Level' of the six major business divisions, on par with the business president of the six major business divisions, and equivalent to the chief of the Inspection Department..."

"Searching for suitable specific positions..."

"Search completed, no matching positions found..."

This situation arose because neither the heads of the group's six major business divisions nor the chief of the Inspection Department have any vacancies.

Even though Landvo's duties are suspended, he has not been officially dismissed, so the position is not considered vacant.

Bai Xiaosheng could understand this.

"Given the current situation, the system suggests 'high position with lower assignment,' meaning: maintaining the current level while taking on several slightly lower-rank positions."

This statement from Red Lotus instantly moved Bai Xiaosheng.

What is "high position with lower assignment"? In a business structure, it means having someone with a higher administrative level taking on a position one level lower than their administrative designation.

Moreover, Red Lotus clarified that the positions could be concurrently held!

Bai Xiaosheng had long considered this, especially after Xiahou Qi suggested establishing a global business alliance, which ignited Bai Xiaosheng's ambitions.

If he were directly promoted to be the leader of some business division, it now seemed the most likely would be the South America region's business president, appearing prestigious at first glance, rising a step, but at the cost of relinquishing real power over the subordinate enterprises!

Further distancing himself from the Greater China Region, where immense potential lies!

Bai Xiaosheng was unwilling to do this!

Not to mention, there are only four years currently to complete this inheritance journey, pushing him to strive for the highest position—the Chairman of the Group's Board of Directors!

If the path taken before was described as difficult, then the path ahead would be ten or even a hundred times more arduous!

Hence, Bai Xiaosheng had been contemplating how to stay within the Greater China Region after his promotion, rather than being sent to the headquarters overseas.

Bai Xiaosheng hoped for tangible authority to accumulate achievements, and unexpectedly, Red Lotus provided him this opportunity.

"I accept the high position with lower assignment, willing to take on multiple roles!" Bai Xiaosheng immediately told Red Lotus, "Preferably while maintaining my current role, taking on additional responsibilities!"

Red Lotus remained silent for a moment before responding—

"This request... cannot be fulfilled!"

Initially filled with excitement and passion, Bai Xiaosheng was taken aback upon hearing this, stunned.

Red Lotus, as if pouring a bucket of cold water overhead, extinguished Bai Xiaosheng's inner fire.

Wasn't it supposed to be possible to have a high position with lower assignment and take on multiple roles? How come now it's not allowed?

"Why?!" Bai Xiaosheng hurriedly asked.

"Based on your level, you need to go to the headquarters, to take on multiple roles. Please choose your headquarters position," Red Lotus answered.

Bai Xiaosheng was stunned and then felt an uproar of mythological creatures in his heart!

What was this?!

Initially thinking that the high position with lower assignment and taking on additional roles would be a good thing, it turned out he needed to choose a lower-positioned role at the headquarters. Why should he accept this lower assignment? Wouldn't being the head of a department be better!

"Then I do not accept!" Bai Xiaosheng hurried to say.

"Sorry, your choice has already been confirmed," Red Lotus stated.

Bai Xiaosheng was momentarily taken aback, then felt a pang of frustration in his heart.

Red Lotus continued, "Currently, assistance is at weakened level, serving as 'can exercise special appoint-and-dismiss rights, up to: appointments at your current level', requiring the corresponding position vacancy..."

Bai Xiaosheng originally felt depressed, but upon hearing this phrase, he was taken aback.

This... what kind of assistance?

Special appoint-and-dismiss rights, can appoint at his own level?

Meaning... oneself, appointing, oneself?

Bai Xiaosheng hurriedly "inquired," "I can perform appoint-and-dismiss on myself?!"

"You can! However, for self-appoint-and-dismiss, this privilege can only be utilized once! Cannot forcibly occupy non-vacant positions..." Red Lotus explained.

Listening to this explanation, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but want to laugh out loud.

This was simply "after all the struggles, there is a light at the end of the tunnel!"

If Red Lotus had a physical form, Bai Xiaosheng would have liked to give her a kiss.

After his excitement, Bai Xiaosheng earnestly told Red Lotus, "I want to exercise this one-time-only assistance now!"

"Please clarify." Red Lotus responded.

"I now appoint Bai Xiaosheng as the Executive President of the Greater China Region, concurrently holding other positions, with the position level as business president level!" Bai Xiaosheng earnestly proclaimed.

Self-appointing oneself...

An entirely novel feeling!

After speaking, Bai Xiaosheng felt a bit anxious, unsure if he truly understood the assistance content correctly, unsure what issues might arise.

Red Lotus' silence at this moment made Bai Xiaosheng infinitely nervous.

My dear grandmother, please pass, please! This will give me the chance to unfold grand plans!

Bai Xiaosheng even secretly whispered a prayer in his heart.

"Passed!" Red Lotus's voice resonated.

In this moment, Bai Xiaosheng truly felt ecstatic, to the point of wanting to cheer with a fist pump.

This works out! This seemingly weakest assistance turned out to be the best choice!

Red Lotus continued, "Your second concurrent role will be selected from a headquarters position, and you will be notified upon discovering a position vacancy. Your formal position level will also be officially announced at a certain administrative level. Please wait for this!"

Upon hearing these words, Bai Xiaosheng paid them little mind, exhaling a long breath of relief, joy indescribable in his heart.

"Currently, the position level is at business president level, with available discretionary funds of five billion..." Red Lotus continued.

Regarding this, Bai Xiaosheng was utterly unconcerned.

Does he lack money now?

Even his businesses span Zunbai Zhisheng, Xuelian Wanhe, Li Ni Workshop, Kelson, 'Encounter' Liquor Group, Shengsheng International, Feisheng Biological Technology Pharmaceutical Group, seven in total!

In the past two years, each grew like a snowball, expanding and strengthening.

Throughout his inheritance journey, Bai Xiaosheng had invisibly created his own business empire!

Chapter 2058 - Another Task...

This advancement achieved, Red Lotus said a lot more and mentioned some important points, but to Bai Xiaosheng, most of them were "insignificant." He was even excitedly considering other things, which he didn't "process," even though Red Lotus was declaring those in his mind.

"Current score is zero at the Executive President level, please continue to work hard."

This last sentence from Red Lotus, however, Bai Xiaosheng heard clearly.

"Thanks for the encouragement," Bai Xiaosheng joked with Red Lotus, "I'll strive hard."

After saying this, Bai Xiaosheng seemed to hear a light laugh, coming from Red Lotus, or perhaps not, since all his communication with Red Lotus was in his mind, and the so-called sound didn't really exist.

"Did you laugh?" Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but ask in surprise.

Could Red Lotus, an artificial intelligence, be this sophisticated?

Previously, it seemed not...

Bai Xiaosheng's inquiry received no response, as Red Lotus fell silent.

Bai Xiaosheng waited for a while, then let it go.

Maybe, he really just misheard.

As for what role he might assume next, Bai Xiaosheng was quite looking forward to it but was not in a hurry.

"Sheng? Sheng!"

At this moment, Bai Xiaosheng heard a gentle calling, and he snapped out of his little world, looking up to see Wei Xuelian watching him with concern, with Lin Weiwei having a similar expression beside her.

"What's wrong, what were you daydreaming about?" Wei Xuelian asked curiously.

Bai Xiaosheng's conversation with "Red Lotus" was all in his mind, so naturally, those outside were unaware.

"Oh, nothing, I was just... thinking about something," Bai Xiaosheng smiled and said, "How long was I zoning out?"

Wei Xuelian smiled, "Not long, just a few seconds."

Bai Xiaosheng nodded, indeed it wasn't long.

"By the way, Elder Yun is calling you!" Wei Xuelian said.

Bai Xiaosheng looked in the direction Wei Xuelian pointed and saw Yun Guangzhi by the podium, waving at him as if he had something to say.

Beside Yun Guangzhi, there were a few young people, all dressed like staff members.

At present, the joint investigation into the Landvo Couple had concluded, with Catherine detained and Landvo, lacking sufficient evidence, required to remain available for investigation, unable to leave his city of residence, which was kind of a restrained freedom.

With the conclusion reached, the conference naturally dispersed.

After greeting Yun Guangzhi, those big names left the scene, needing to prepare for a subsequent press conference.

Many reporters also followed them to conduct interviews.

Other conference participants, all relevant personnel, had things to do once the meeting ended and left one after the other.

As Bai Xiaosheng was watching Yun Guangzhi, he noticed Landvo on the other side was also about to leave the hall, surrounded by the most reporters.

Bai Xiaosheng looked over and happened to make eye contact with Landvo, whose gaze was fierce and full of malice.

This grudge had clearly formed!

Yet Bai Xiaosheng wasn't even slightly afraid.

He hadn't feared Landvo when he was at his peak, much less now when he was like a dog with no home.

"Some reporters also wanted to come over here for an interview, but they were stopped by staff, probably as arranged by Elder Yun, and those reporters didn't insist too much," Lin Weiwei softly mentioned beside him.

Bai Xiaosheng nodded.

With someone like Yun Guangzhi speaking, those big shots would give face, and logically reporters would too, unless they thought themselves to be superior media people with some kind of freedom to interview. Who knows, maybe Yun Guangzhi might just then instruct that their qualifications for the press conference be revoked, something that elder would indeed do.

Faced with such a person, could those reporters help but comply...

"Let's go and see what Elder Yun wants to say to us," Bai Xiaosheng suggested to those around him.

Subsequently, Bai Xiaosheng led Wei Xuelian, Lin Weiwei, and Lei Ying straight towards Yun Guangzhi, wanting to express gratitude as well as ask some questions, nothing particularly secretive. Didn't Yun Guangzhi assign him and Lei Ying the honorary teaching position with at least sixty hours of courses? Bai Xiaosheng wanted to ask when to "start work," arrangements with Elder Xia needed to be made.

Seeing Bai Xiaosheng approaching, Yun Guangzhi's face brightened with a smile.

The young men and women around him, originally "staff" maintaining the venue, curiously looked at Bai Xiaosheng's group, especially frequently scrutinizing Bai Xiaosheng.

"Elder Yun, you called me," Bai Xiaosheng said with a smile as he got close to Yun Guangzhi.

"Yes, but it's inconvenient to talk here, too many eyes, come with me! I'll walk you downstairs!" Yun Guangzhi smiled and gestured, leading the way.

Bai Xiaosheng followed suit, with Wei Xuelian and the others in tow, and those young men and women walking last.

Out of gratitude and respect, Bai Xiaosheng slightly lagged behind Yun Guangzhi by half a step.

Yun Guangzhi laughed and told him, "Are you unhappy that I arranged for you to come to the academy as an honorary instructor, to teach? After all, you're such a big businessman, your time is precious, I reckon I've delayed a lot of your affairs."

"Not at all, it all depends on Elder Yun's instructions," Bai Xiaosheng replied politely with a smile.

Even if I were, could I refuse it now.

Bai Xiaosheng inwardly remarked with slight sarcasm.

"That's good, good!" Yun Guangzhi laughed and said, "Then I'll arrange a little more for you."

Bai Xiaosheng's smile slightly stiffened.

This old man, really knows when to press the advantage.

If you're courteous with him, he's truly blunt with you.

"Totally up to..." Bai Xiaosheng thought for a moment and switched his words, politely saying, "You tell me."

Yun Guangzhi laughed it off, not minding Bai Xiaosheng changing his wording.

While they talked, the group left the hall, walked down a short corridor, and entered the stairwell, heading downstairs.

Nowadays, everyone is quite busy and rather lazy; unless it's for weight loss or the elevator breaks down, who else would want to take the stairs when they can take the elevator.

However, this hallway was indeed quiet, making it quite easy to talk.

The hall was on the third floor, not too high, so walking down wasn't exhausting.

As Yun Guangzhi led Bai Xiaosheng and others downstairs, he spoke while walking, "Don't think I'm just giving you trouble, adding a little more work for you is actually for your own good."

"Of course, Elder Yun's arrangements won't do me harm," Bai Xiaosheng nodded in agreement.

Having agreed already, why complain and some favor.

"Not sincere," Yun Guangzhi gave Bai Xiaosheng a sidelong glance and playfully cast a look.

Bai Xiaosheng chuckled as well.

Others felt like laughing but restrained themselves.

Yun Guangzhi glanced back, pointing his hand at the young men and women behind him.

"See them, they're all students from our academy, take a look, aren't they impressive!"

Bai Xiaosheng followed Yun Guangzhi's gesture and took a look at those people.

The five of them, all in their twenties, had energetic looks, full of spirit, and were quite attractive.

Bai Xiaosheng had witnessed how they frustrated the Landvo Couple and couldn't help but nod, "Indeed, they are extraordinary."

Hearing his words, those men and women naturally showed more pride, seemingly appreciating that Bai Xiaosheng recognized their worth.

"I know what you mean," Yun Guangzhi said, walking with his hands behind his back, "Extraordinary? You too noticed these little rascals are quite the handful, didn't you? Well, I'll just send them to you, don't feel out of place, they'll be your students from now on!"

"I want them to be your bodyguards. While you're in South America, they'll ensure your safety!"

"Of course, in the meanwhile, if you and Lei Ying have time, you could teach them a thing or two! Teach them whatever! We're not picky!"

Chapter 2059 - A Terrifying Group

Yun Guangzhi actually wants to assign the academy's most outstanding students to Bai Xiaosheng as bodyguards, to protect his personal safety during this period in South America.

This "kindness," Bai Xiaosheng really isn't eager to accept.

The proud "young friends" behind, at first glance, were all "young and talented, elite among peers," each of them as proud as little princes and princesses, even the Landvo Couple couldn't handle them, Bai Xiaosheng had witnessed that.

Having them stay by his side for protection? It's just adding trouble for himself!

That's Bai Xiaosheng's true thought.

And those young people in their early twenties all looked unfriendly at Bai Xiaosheng, they initially thought Bai Xiaosheng's reference to them as "unyielding" was a compliment, and believed Bai Xiaosheng had good taste.

After Elder Yun explained, they immediately understood it wasn't what it seemed!

Bai Xiaosheng dared to compare them to troublemakers!

Although the "explanation" was given by Yun Guangzhi, those people firmly believed Elder Yun's interpretation, and so their goodwill towards Bai Xiaosheng plummeted, even their gazes showed hostility.

According to Elder Yun, they had to stay with that guy, and even protect him.

These young people were not willing!

It was truly a mutual dislike, yet Yun Guangzhi stubbornly insisted on bringing both parties together.

The attitude, looked incredibly resolute.

"Elder Yun, there's really no need for this, the place we're staying has excellent security, plus, we're quite capable of protecting ourselves. Lei Ying, as you know, can prevent danger before it even begins." Bai Xiaosheng knew since Yun Guangzhi had spoken, he wouldn't be easily refused, but he still had to try.

"Exactly, Mr. Yun, we're totally fine. Besides, after we finish our current tasks, we'll come to the academy to teach, by then living inside the academy, what danger could there possibly be?" Lei Ying also chimed in supportively.

The academy, Bai Xiaosheng and his team saw this time, was equipped with elite armed security, equipped not only with short guns but also with standard long guns.

This is the South American Twelve Nations Police Alliance, where we can't rule out someone plotting big events, recklessly trying to make big news here, so the defense is tight.

They even saw, in a corner of the playground, an armored vehicle, equipped with a large-caliber rapid-fire cannon, the kind with fierce firepower...

This academy is almost like a military fortress. Living here is absolutely safe, unless the Landewo organization attacks with an army, but that's obviously impossible.

After Lei Ying chimed in, Bai Xiaosheng couldn't help but glance at him, silently sighing.

Even Lei Ying found taking along those people troublesome, which showed that it wasn't just in his head.

"Elder Yun, protecting informants could be left to the local police, isn't it overkill using us?" some students in the back couldn't help but complain.

"Exactly, besides, the person doesn't even appreciate it."

"This week I have counter-terrorism live ammunition exercises, Elder Yun, can I skip this and let someone else take the opportunity?"

Both men and women voiced one after another.

Yun Guangzhi turned back to glare at them, and they immediately fell silent.

It's a joke, even the principal dared not speak loudly to this old man, let alone them.

However, Elder Yun is a legend, a legendary figure in the police world, with countless unbelievable stories, they are willing to obey.

Usually, instructors with enough achievements could also command their respect, naturally, they would comply, otherwise, no one could keep them in check.

What gave Bai Xiaosheng and his big guy beside him the right to be instructors, to teach them anything?

Teaching business?

Never heard of it!

Those young people who didn't dare to speak secretly glanced sideways at Bai Xiaosheng and his team.

Of course, facing Wei Xuelian and Lin Weiwei, the two beautiful women, the men's gazes were still gentle.

Truly a group of ungrateful brats! Yun Guangzhi couldn't miss their inner thoughts and silently cursed in his heart.

Lei Ying alone, is the king of the battlefield, with skills including light weapons usage, various vehicle driving, combat techniques, psychological analysis, mastery of multiple languages, any subset of which could easily surpass the academy's instructors, such a talent, having him come to instruct them, is a blessing from eight lifetimes!

And then there's Bai Xiaosheng, with varied analyses and strategies beyond ordinary folks, even Lei Ying can't handle him without submission, he's simply extraordinary!

The things these two can teach them would bring great benefits, yet they're unwilling? Ungrateful, mindless...

Yun Guangzhi didn't bother explaining to those young folks, nor did he tell them how powerful Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying were.

Yun Guangzhi was secretly letting things play out, letting these guys crash into trouble, and when they've angered Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying, the lesson will be deeply and firmly remembered!

Yun Guangzhi ignored the young crowd, but looked at Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying and others, smiling, "Why wouldn't you need it, the security at your place may be relatively good, but that's just against petty thieves. Didn't you notice Landvo's gaze when he left, especially towards you, Xiaosheng? His hatred for you is bone-deep, you even got his wife imprisoned. His intent to kill is overwhelming!"

"Even a trapped beast will fight!" Yun Guangzhi continued walking down the stairs, "Landvo wasn't captured this time, he's still free, even if we have people watching him, and his assets are frozen, there's no guarantee he won't find other means, sparing no cost, to harm you."

Chapter 2060 - A Terrifying Bunch (Part 2)

"Lei Ying is powerful, and you, Bai Xiaosheng, are also impressive. But before coming to the academy, could you stay awake and indoors to guard against all dangers without taking a break? And with two beautiful women with you, you're not worried about yourselves, but are you not worried about their safety? Do you also want them to worry about your safety?"

Yun Guangzhi's words, like a tongue twister, were quite effective.

Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying looked at Wei Xuelian and Lin Weiwei, the two women also looked at them, and for a moment, everyone was persuaded.

It must be said that Yun Guangzhi's psychology and conversational skills had reached a masterful level.

"Xiaosheng, just listen to Elder Yun's arrangement, it's not a bad thing." Lin Weiwei said.

"Yes, Sheng!" Wei Xuelian also advised, "Otherwise, I'll be worried."

Bai Xiaosheng sighed and said to Yun Guangzhi, "Then I... thank you for your kindness, Elder Yun!"

He had no choice but to agree.

Yun Guangzhi was immediately pleased and nodded.

Bai Xiaosheng then politely addressed the young people, "I also appreciate everyone's efforts."

When those people saw Bai Xiaosheng agree, they were quite uncomfortable, but they didn't dare to refuse again in front of Yun Guangzhi, so they could only grimace and reluctantly accept.

Bai Xiaosheng didn't mind their attitude.

However, Lei Ying frowned.

"If they want to follow us... to protect us, then they must listen to us in everything." Lei Ying suddenly said.

In his view, these young ones were just boy scouts, acting superior now, but if a real crisis came, they would likely be stunned.

But since they couldn't shake them off, it was best to keep them from causing trouble for himself and Bai Xiaosheng.

The guys and girls heard what this "big fool" Lei Ying said and were extremely displeased, secretly rolling their eyes.

Lei Ying completely ignored them.

Yun Guangzhi laughed, "That's no problem at all!"

"You all, from now on, listen to Instructor Bai Xiaosheng and Instructor Lei Ying! Did you hear me?" Yun Guangzhi said sternly to the young people behind, "If I find out you're misbehaving, or anyone dares to be disobedient... hmph, don't blame me for being unkind!"

Yun Guangzhi's tone was like scolding naughty kids, and those young people didn't dare to challenge him, so they quickly nodded in agreement. However, their animosity was now directed at Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying.

They all thought, if they couldn't openly resist, they could quietly push back, to show these two that they weren't that easy to boss around!

But their little schemes were all within Yun Guangzhi's calculations.

Recruiting new instructors even needed an interview, so this would serve as a small test for Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying. If they couldn't handle these little brats, it would be disappointing, Yung Guangzhi thought to himself.

Seeing things had reached this point, Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying didn't say any more.

No matter how others felt, Yun Guangzhi was in quite a good mood.

He laughed as he led Bai Xiaosheng and the others out of the stairwell and left the building.

The six people Yun Guangzhi had assigned to guard Bai Xiaosheng were four men and two women, divided into two teams to "protect" Bai Xiaosheng and the others.

The first team was going with Bai Xiaosheng today. The three of them went to bring around two cars to send Bai Xiaosheng and the others away.

Since there were people and cars for transportation and accompaniment, Bai Xiaosheng had no further complaints.

Yun Guangzhi watched Bai Xiaosheng and the others get into the cars and leave, before turning and walking towards the main building of the academy.

Halfway there, the middle-aged director appeared out of nowhere, keeping pace with Yun Guangzhi, walking slightly behind him.

"Elder Yun, do you really need to send our six best genius students to protect Bai Xiaosheng? Is having them learn from him a bit..."

A bit of a waste, a bit of overqualifying...

The middle-aged director didn't say it out loud.

Actually, he barely acknowledged Lei Ying but didn't think much of Bai Xiaosheng.

"You think I'm wronging them?" Yun Guangzhi laughed coldly, glancing back at the direction Bai Xiaosheng and the others had left, muttering, "Consider it training for protecting key figures. Should they encounter actual combat, it would be a valuable experience to them. Don't tell me you're concerned about these children raised in the greenhouse to the point where you're afraid they might melt if held or get hurt if they go out. They'll eventually take positions, battling with real threats!"

"They've been spoiled by you, with their heads in the clouds and eyes looking down on others! If they can learn something from Bai Xiaosheng and Lei Ying, they're people I approve of!"

"If those little fools learn nothing..." Yun Guangzhi gave a cold snort, decisively saying, "Let them repeat a grade!"

The middle-aged director swallowed hard, eventually nodding without disagreement.

He didn't dare.

The things Yun Guangzhi did to them during their batch back then, he would never forget in his lifetime...

On the other side.

His driver dared not make a sound.

Landvo did not return to New Orleans, even though there was enough time that afternoon. Halfway through, he had the driver take a side road, shaking off anyone following them, and headed towards another city. The journey took two hours, and upon entering the city, they didn't go downtown but circled in an old neighborhood.

Landvo personally guided the driver on where to go and how to navigate.

Clearly, he's very familiar with this area.

In this city, Landvo also had businesses and some of his most trusted people.

Or rather, a group of monsters!

When Landvo's car cruised through streets and alleys, ensuring no one was tailing them, they finally headed for the destination— a shabby alleyway unchanged for decades.
